³⁷Lord, watch the one who obeys Your principles because that one will make peace. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁸But the disobedient will be altogether destroyed; they will be completely cut off. ³⁹You will save those who do right, You will strengthen them when trouble comes. ⁴⁰You will help them make it through difficult times. You will deliver them from wicked ones because they trust in You. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

Lord, there are many evil doers in this world. But I won't let them upset me, because I trust You to protect me from them. They will die, but You will bless those who obey You. I delight in serving You, so I dwell securely in Your presence. Amen.

Psalm 38 The Prayer of a Person Who Is Suffering Because He Did Wrong

¹O Lord, don't fuss at me when I've made You angry and don't punish me because I've disobeyed You. ²I can't forget about Your punishment; Your hand stings me because of my wrong. ³I don't have the strength to endure Your punishment. I can't find rest because of my sin. ⁴My rebellion brought this all on me. Now this is too heavy to bear. ⁵My wounds where You punish me are infected; I am hurting because of my stubbornness. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁶I am troubled; I cry all the time. ⁷My miserable body aches all over; I am not getting any better. ⁸My rebellious spirit is broken ⁹and I have no will to go on living. ¹⁰I don't have any more love in my heart and I don't have any ambition. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

¹¹My friends have all forsaken me and my family doesn't even come around anymore. ¹²My enemies are still trying to destroy me; they lie about me behind my back.

¹³Because I don't care about anything, ¹⁴I don't listen to what they say; I don't even try to defend myself.

¹⁵Lord, You are the only thing I have left; I know You will listen to me. ¹⁶Don't let my enemies gloat over my misfortune; don't let them use my weaknesses to their advantage. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

¹⁷I'm ready to give up because I messed up so badly. ¹⁸I recognize I've disobeyed You; I am sorry for my sin. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁹My enemies jump on every opportunity, every day more join them to attack me.

²⁰They never consider anything I've done right, they render evil for the good I've done. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

²¹Lord, don't leave me now; don't keep Your distance. ²²Come quickly to help me; Lord, You are my salvation. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

Sometimes God allows His people to suffer pain, knowing it will drive them back to Him. God is too loving to hurt us, but He sees the larger picture. He knows we don't like pain, but suffering will drive us to follow Him. Lord, I'm hurting because of my rebellion. I am in pain. I cry all the time, and I ache both in body and soul. I'm now getting worse, not better. Forgive me my sin; I repent and come back to You. Cleanse me from every sin, and bless me with Your presence. Amen.

Psalm 39 A Prayer to Use Opportunities Wisely in This Short Life

¹Lord, I will pay attention to how I live; I will not sin with my words. I will be careful what I say, especially when I'm around non-Christian people. ²I was speechless because I was accomplishing so little, but inwardly I was about to explode. ³My heart burned with fire as I thought about it, then I had to admit my weaknesses. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ⁴Lord, help me understand what's happening to me and help me use my time wisely; I know my weaknesses. ⁵Lord, You have given me a certain amount of time; my life span is short compared to You. Even when I do my best, it's insignificant. Selah! ⁶I'm like others who also do insignificant things; they are not satisfied with their accomplishments; they build up a nest egg but someone else spends it.

⁷So Lord, I look for satisfaction in You; my hope is in You. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} ⁸Deliver me from the consequence of my sin; don't let non-Christians ridicule me. ⁹Now I refuse to complain anymore because You answered my prayer. ¹⁰Take away Your punishment from me; I am about to die from it. ¹¹You do not take away my life because of my sin, yet my beautiful youth is fading away because that is the destiny of mankind. Selah! {280 Life-Derailing Prayer, James 4:17}

¹²O Lord, listen to my request; I am crying because You are far away; I'm just a traveler in this life like those before me. ¹³Spare me from afflictions so I can get strong because I'll soon die and leave this earth. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1}

Lord, help me understand what's happening to me, and help me know my heart. May I use my time wisely, and may I find Your will for my life. Guide every thought I think and guide every step I take. If I follow You in every step, then my path will be right. Amen.

Psalm 40 A Prayer for Help in Times of Difficulties

¹Lord, I wait patiently for You; listen to me and hear my request. ²You brought me up out of a horrible pit; You set me on a rock and established my life. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} ³You put a new song in my heart, even praise to You for delivering me. Many will hear my song of worship to You; they too will put their trust in You. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

⁴You bless all those who trust You for salvation and those who repent from their lies and arrogance. ⁵Lord, You have done many wonderful works; You have kept me in Your thoughts. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} I cannot understand all You do for me; the things You do for me cannot be remembered.

⁶You do not want me to bring sacrifices to You; ⁷I come to You the way You command in Scripture. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

⁸You want me to obey Your will; my heart delights to do Your command.

⁹I have told everyone to live right; You know I was never ashamed to testify for You. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ¹⁰I have not been a "secret believer"; You know I told everyone about Your faithfulness to me. I didn't keep quiet about my faith; I told everyone I was Your follower. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

¹¹Therefore don't withhold Your tender mercy from me; Lord, preserve me as You have promised. ¹²There are so many temptations I can't count them; they make me feel guilty and discouraged. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2}

¹³Lord, please come deliver me from the evil one; come quickly, I need You now. ¹⁴Embarrass them who are trying to defeat me; let them suffer the defeat they plan for me. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁵Let them experience the misery of their sin that they plan for me to experience.

¹⁶Let all who seek You rejoice in Your salvation; let them have the pleasure of magnifying You continually. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁷Lord, You know I am poor and needy; look to me in my time of need. Come help me get through my difficulties; come quickly, God, because I need You now. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2}

We all have difficulties, and these situations are different than when we sin or we walk away from God. Difficulties are the stones on the path that hurt our feet, or emergencies that need our attention, or mistakes that hurt, or failures that distract. Lord, hear me when I have trouble and help me out of my difficulty. Deliver me from the evil one and don't let me get too close to temptation. Put a song in my heart. Amen.

Psalm 41 A Prayer for Healing So Your Enemies Won't Spread Gossip that You Are Sick defend the poor. ²You promised to preserve that person's life and You will not deliver them to their enemies. ³When that person gets sick, You will take care of them; You will be with them in their illness. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ⁴Now I am that person who needs Your mercy; heal me, even though I have sinned against You. ⁵My enemies tell everyone about my troubles; they are anxious for me to die. ⁶They lie when they come to pay a sick call on me; they are just gathering gossip to spread to my enemies. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

¹Lord, You bless those who look after the poor; You promise to deliver those who

⁷Everyone who hates me continues to spread dirt so they can destroy my reputation and my life. ⁸They claim I am about to die because of my sin and that I cannot recover from this problem. ⁹Even some close friends whom I used to trust are trying to knife me in the back. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹⁰Now, Lord, be merciful to me in my sickness; raise me up so I can go after them. ¹¹When You raise me up it will be a signal that my enemies cannot defeat me. ¹²I know You will judge me with integrity and that I will enjoy Your presence.

¹³I bless You, the Lord of Israel, You are the same from everlasting to everlasting. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4}

God expects us to call on Him when we are sick. He can (1) give our strength back; (2) make us well; and (3) heal us. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} Sometimes we are sick because of our sin, or neglect of our bodies, or germs or infection, or we've been exposed to sickness, or we've been in an accident. Lord, thank You for all the times I've felt good, and thank You for the past times I've been healed. Now I pray for health or healing. Amen.

Psalm 42 A Prayer to Experience the Presence of God

¹As the young deer being chased will thirst for water, so my soul longs for Your presence, O Lord. ²I thirst for You, O God. When will You let me stand again in Your presence? {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ³Day and night I have cried for You while my enemies jeer, "Where is Your God?" ⁴I remember when I used to come to You; now it breaks my heart that I can't come into Your house. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} Because I remember coming to You with a crowd of worshipers, I was singing and giving You thanks. I was praising You with other worshipers.

Lord, I thirst for You, I want to stand in Your presence. Night and day I search for You. I used to be close to You, now I weep because I can't come into Your house. I will sing and give praise to You. I will worship You with other worshipers. Amen. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

⁵Now I am discouraged in my soul; I am cut off from Your house. Yet, in the future I will return to Your presence; I will come again to Your house to praise You. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28}

⁶Now I am depressed because I can't drink from Your fountains because I remember You sent us water from Mount Hermon where the head waters of the Jordan begin and from Mizpah where Your presence first dwelt in the land. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17}

⁷I hear the waves roaring in the sea and I want You to refresh me again.

⁸So I must drink daily from Your love to me, I must worship You each night with songs and prayer.

⁹Even when I can't come close to You in the temple, I feel lost in the darkness. ¹⁰And my enemies laugh at my commitment to You. They taunt me, saying, "Where is Your God?"

¹¹When I am discouraged in my soul and my spirit is sad, I will worship You in my heart because You strengthen my confidence. You are my Lord and my God. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

There are times when God seems to be ignoring our requests, and the more we pray, the less we know. The "deep" of my pain calls to the "deep" of God's mystery. We must learn to trust God because He is there, He loves us, and He will do good for us. But no answer. We ask, "Where is your God" (Ps. 42:3)? We question further, "Why are you cast down, O my soul?" (Ps. 42:5). Lord, You allow storms, but they don't last a lifetime. You allow me to get lost in the desert, but You also lead me beside still water. I will wait. Amen.

Psalm 43 A Prayer for Hope When You Are Discouraged

¹O Lord, examine me carefully then tell the ungodly what You see. Deliver me from my deceitful enemies and don't let dishonest people trap me. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²You are my strength, O God; why have You not listened to me? Why am I hurting because of my enemies? {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1}

³Give me the light of Your wisdom so I can make good decisions. Let Your light guide me into godliness; I need to come into Your presence. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ⁴I will come to the altar to confess my sin, then I will happily come to You and then I will joyfully sing Your praises. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

⁵But now I am miserable and lonely, why am I so upset? O God, my hope and encouragement is in You. I will continue to praise You, You are my health and my Savior. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Lord, I am far away and I feel alienated. Send light and truth to lead me into Your presence. I will confess my sins that separate me from You. Then I will praise You for forgiveness. Amen.

Psalm 44 A Prayer for God to Stop Allowing Our Enemies to Defeat Us

¹O Lord, I heard with my own ears all the mighty works You did in the past. ²How You drove out the pagan from the Holy Land; You were the One who defeated them. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³Our fathers did not originally conquer the land by their strength; You allowed them to possess it. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15}

⁴You are my King, O God, You can give the Promised Land to us. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁵By Your power we will push the pagan out of the land; we will subdue them when they rise up against us. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁶We will not trust in arms for victory, ⁷but You will save us from our enemies. We will boast in You all day long; we will praise Your name forever. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} Selah!

⁹But You abandoned us and let them defeat us, You didn't fight with us against our enemies. ¹⁰You let us run away from our enemies and they plundered our belongings. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹¹We were as defenseless as sheep; we were defeated and scattered. ¹²We were sold out to our enemies, but You did not get anything out of it. ¹³We were a reproach to our neighbors. Those around us were puzzled when we were defeated. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁴We were cursed by our enemies and mocked by everyone else. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹⁵I don't understand what is happening and I am embarrassed by our failure. ¹⁶I don't know how to answer those who attack me; I don't have any reason to give them.

¹⁷Everything has gone bad for us yet we have not forgotten You, and we have not stopped obeying You. ¹⁸Our heart is not hardened against You, nor have we quit following You, {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ¹⁹even though You let our enemies punish us and let the shadow of death fall over us. {216 Heavy-Load Problem Prayer, Matt. 11:28-30}

²⁰We have not forgotten the power of Your name, nor have we stretched out our hands to false gods. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ²¹Will You not examine us now and know the secrets of our hearts? {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ²²We are suffering all the time because of Your will; we are like sheep ready to be slaughtered.

²³Awake, don't sleep when we need You; don't cast us off forever. ²⁴Don't hide Your face from us and don't put our suffering out of Your mind. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ²⁵Because our spirit is crushed, our desire to live is gone. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²⁶Get up and come help us and save us because You are merciful. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

Lord, I confess my sin that allowed my enemies to triumph over me. My sword and battle skills will not give me victory. Come help me, for You are the only One who can save me. Amen.

Psalm 45 A Prayer of Gratitude for a Good Political Ruler

¹O Lord, I have been thinking of a good thing; I'm speaking of the things about Your king. My tongue is a ready writer to record them.

²The king is fairer than the children of man; grace pours from his lips. You have always blessed him, my God. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} ³The king straps his sword on his hip, he rides gloriously and majestically. ⁴He prospers because of his truth and meekness; his right hand will act swiftly. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁵He will pierce the heart of his enemies; the nations will be subdued by him.

⁶He shall rule for You forever; his scepter is Your scepter. ⁷He loves those who do the right thing and hates those who do wickedly. ⁸Therefore You anoint him with the oil of gladness. His clothes smell of myrrh and aloes, You rejoice in the influence of his palace. ⁹The king can choose a wife from many honorable women, one is chosen queen by your authority. {103 Dedication-Success Prayer, Mark 10:16}

¹⁰All women should consider it an honor to leave their family to become part of his family. ¹¹Therefore the king will choose one who is beautiful; we follow him because he is wise. ¹²Many women will bring gifts to the wedding; the rich will also seek the king's favor.

¹³The bride shall have inward character; her sparkling dress is woven from pure gold. ¹⁴Needlework sets off her flowing train;

her bridesmaids follow her down the aisle. ¹⁵They rejoice as they enter the king's presence, the beautiful bridesmaids enhance the ceremony. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁶The king shall have many sons by her, they shall be princes in his kingdom. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁷Lord, Your name will be forever remembered; Your people will praise You forever. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

Lord, You give us political leaders to lead us in peace, security, and beauty. Bless their lives, their families, and all they do. Amen.

Psalm 46 A Prayer That Anticipates God's Protection During the End Times Judgment

¹God, You are my refuge and strength; You are present to help when I have trouble. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²Therefore I will not be afraid when the earth crumbles, when the mountains are cast into the seas, ³though all the oceans roar with storms, and the mountains shake with earthquakes. Selah! {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

⁴I will rest safely beside Your river in Your city in the holy place of Your tabernacle. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁵Your city shall not be shaken because you are in the midst of it. You shall give it stability. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} ⁶The pagan will be angry; the kingdoms of mankind will be overthrown. But when You speak the Word, the earth will melt under Your judgment.

⁷You, O Lord of Hosts, will be with me; You, the God of Jacob, will be my refuge. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} Selah!

⁸All people will see Your mighty works; they will behold how You judge the earth. ⁹You will make all war cease when the earth comes to its end.

You will break all weapons; You will destroy all attack vehicles. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹⁰I will be still in Your presence so I can learn to know You intimately. We who have followed Your principles will be vindicated in that day among the pagan. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

¹¹You, O Lord of Hosts, will be with us; You, the God of Jacob, will be my refuge. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, the present is a time of testing to see if all people will choose Your rule. But there is coming a time when You will rule all nations. I let You sit on the throne of my heart to rule me now so I can enjoy Your reign in the future. Amen.

Psalm 47 A Prayer Glorifying the Lord Who Rules the Earth

¹Lord, I clap my hands to show You my approval; I shout praises to You for Your triumph. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev.

19:6} ²For You, the Most High God, are awesome; You are the great King over the earth. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ³You subdue our enemies before us, putting them under our control. ⁴You choose where I shall live just as you loved Jacob in giving him the Promised Land. Selah! {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

⁵Lord, You enter Your temple with mighty shouts; You are glorified with trumpet blasts. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ⁶Everyone is singing praises to You; they are singing worship songs to You our King. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ⁷You are the King over all the earth; I understand why I am praising You.

⁸Lord, You reign over all people; You sit on a holy throne. {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} ⁹The rulers of all the nations are here; they join me in praising You, the God of Abraham. All the earth's rulers get their authority from You; You are everywhere honored. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10}

Lord, I sing praises to You because You created the universe and everything in it. One day You will return to take the rulership over all the nations of the earth. I praise You now as I will praise You in the future day of Your glorification. Amen.

Psalm 48 A Prayer of Thanksgiving for God's Protection of Jerusalem

¹Lord, You are great in Your city and I greatly praise You in Your holy mountain. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ²Jerusalem is beautiful sitting among the peaks; the whole earth wants to see it. Built on Mount Zion, the holy place, it is Your city, my great King. ³Lord, You live in Jerusalem's temple; {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} Your people live in safety there.

⁹O God, I meditate on Your loving kindness when I enter Your presence in the temple. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} ¹⁰Your name deserves recognition, O God; You should be praised from the ends of the earth because Your hand defends this city. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ¹¹Let all the inhabitants of Mount Zion rejoice when You finish inspecting the city, ¹²when You've walked around the city's defenses, after You finish counting the towers, ¹³and You have examined the fortified walls, and You've taken note of her palaces so You can describe it to future generations. ¹⁴For You, Lord, are our God forever; You will look out for us until we die. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Lord, any place You dwell is glorious for Your glory magnifies its natural beauty. You have chosen Jerusalem and You have secured it with Your protection. People praise You for what has happened to that city. Amen.

Psalm 49 A Prayer about the Futility of Money, Power, and Wisdom without God

¹Lord, everyone in the world should know this; I want everyone to pay attention to what I say. ²Everyone—upper class and lower class, rich and poor—want to understand one thing. What is the secret to life? Yet everyone should know how simple the answer is. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ³I have heard many proverbs try to explain it {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} ⁴and I've heard many write poems about it.

⁵Because God is the answer, I am not afraid when troubles come, nor when my enemies attack me. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ⁶Some think the secret is to have a lot of money so they are confident their money will solve their problems. ⁷Yet they can't redeem themselves from death; their money can't get God to ransom their soul.

⁸Redemption does not come that way; ⁹no one has enough money to buy their way into heaven where they will live forever with God. {280 Life-Derailing Prayer, James 4:17}

¹⁰The wise person must also die just like the dumb and ignorant; they all leave their money to someone else. Everyone thinks they will live forever {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹¹and that their family name will endure forever so they attach their name to something special. ¹²But even the respected person will die just like all animals eventually die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹³Those who think they'll never die are not smart, but they will be remembered as a fool. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} Selah! ¹⁴They are like sheep that will eventually be killed; death shall feed on them in the grave. The godly will ultimately rule them; they will lose their beauty in death. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ¹⁵But, Lord, You will redeem me in the day of my death; You will keep me from corruption. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} Selah!

¹⁶So it doesn't bother me when wicked people get rich, nor do I care that they live in big expensive houses ¹⁷because they can't take it with them when they die. Their money can't help them in the grave. ¹⁸They spent their money on themselves when they were alive; they did everything to enhance their reputation. ¹⁹They will die just like everyone else, but they shall not see the light of Your presence. ²⁰These people who wrap themselves in money will die

Lord, teach me to use every day for Your glory. While some days seem to drag, life is a race to the end that always seems to come sooner than we expect. I don't pray for You to prepare me for the grave, but rather prepare me to live a full life for You; then death will take care of itself. Amen.

Psalm 50 A Prayer-Recognizing That God Will Judge Everyone by His Heart Attitude

¹O Lord, my mighty God, You have spoken; You have called everyone from one end of the earth to the other. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²Out of beautiful Mount Zion where You live Your glorious radiance is shining. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ³You are not silent about what's coming; a fire will burn away everything that is hidden.

⁴Heaven and earth will really see how everything comes out as You judge Your people. Selah! {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁵You will gather everyone in Your presence, even those who made a covenant to worship You. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁶Then the heavens will testify if they were obedient, then You will reveal everything in their hearts. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31}

are the Lord, their God. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁸Lord, You know Your people have sacrificed; they continually brought burnt offerings to You. ⁹But You don't need their animals ¹⁰because all the cattle on a thousand hills are Yours. ¹¹You know all the birds of the air; all living creatures in the earth belong to You. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5}

¹²If You needed meat for satisfaction, You wouldn't need people to bring it to You. ¹³Because the earth is Yours and everything in it, You don't need the animals that Your people sacrifice and You don't need the blood offerings they bring. ¹⁴What You want is the gratitude of thankful hearts; You want Your people to do what they promised You. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ¹⁵You want them to trust You in the day of trouble; You want them to glorify You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹⁶But You tell the disobedient, "Don't pretend You obey me by reciting My laws." 17Because they refuse to love Your ways, they never pay attention to what You want. ¹⁸When they saw a thief, they helped him, and they got involved in adultery. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹⁹They repeated all the evil things they heard and they lied when confronted with their actions. ²⁰They accused others of the evil they did; they even lied about their brothers. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18\} 21Lord, You kept silent while they did these things and they thought You didn't care. Now You are calling them to account for their actions;

now You are looking at their crimes. {329 Obstinate-Prayer, 2 Cor. 11:4}

²²They must realize they have ignored You; they must realize You can tear them into pieces and no one will be able to help them. ²³You are pleased with grateful hearts that accompany sacrifices; {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} You accept those who worship You honestly. These are the ones You save. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

Lord, because You created the universe, all things belong to You and are accountable to You. One day You will judge all people to determine if they honored You and if they have brought a proper sacrifice for their sins. My sins are covered by the blood of Jesus, so I look forward to living with You for all eternity. Amen.

Psalm 51 A Prayer Seeking Restoration to Fellowship with God after You Sin

¹Lord, have mercy on me according to Your loving nature; because of Your mercy blot out my transgressions. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} ²Wash me completely from my sin so I will be clean of my guilt. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁵They will reverence Him from one generation to another {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} as long as the sun and moon endure. ⁶He will bless them as rain on the grass, as showers that water the earth. ⁷The righteous will flourish under

Psalm 73 A Prayer that Recognizes God Will Reward You for Faithfulness and Punish the Ungodly

¹God, You are truly good to Israel, to those whose hearts are pure.

for Their Rebellion

²But, I almost gave up my faith; I came close to stumbling. ³I wanted what selfish people had, especially when I saw their prosperity. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

⁴They don't have the pressures I have; they have strong healthy bodies. ⁵They don't let ethics bother them, nor do they have everyday problems. ⁶They show off their selfish pride; they will not stop at violence to get their way. ⁷They lust for everything; there is no satisfying their evil desires. ⁸They scoff at everyone else; they willingly use violence to get their way. ⁹They claim to be bigger than heaven; they think everything on earth belongs to them.

¹⁰They have deceived people to believe everything they say. ¹¹They say, "God doesn't know everything; the Most High doesn't know what I do." ¹²Lord, these are arrogant people who have a life of ease, because of their money. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} ¹³But, Lord, was I wrong to stay pure when I denied myself the pleasures of evil? ¹⁴I have had trouble all day long; every morning I face a different trial.

¹⁵If I have the attitude of the wicked, I would have betrayed Your children. ¹⁶I tried to figure out why the wicked prosper, but I only become more confused. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹⁷Then I come into Your presence in the sanctuary, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and I understand their future destiny.

¹⁸Now I realize they are on a slippery path; they are heading toward eternal destruction. ¹⁹They will die and instantly be punished and will be consumed by terror. ²⁰One day, Lord, You will arise to punish their selfish desires. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, when I come into Your presence, I realize their lies will be judged by Your truth. Their sins will be judged by Your righteousness. I have no one to help me but You. Amen.

Psalm 74 A Prayer to Recognize the Power of God and to Call on Him to Crush Your Enemies

¹Lord, why have You rejected us? Why are You angry against the sheep of Your pasture? ²Remember, we are the people You redeemed; You chose to give us an inheritance. You came to dwell in Mount Zion. 3Now, walk through the destruction of Jerusalem; see how the enemy has destroyed Your sanctuary. 4Your enemies claimed victory in the place You met with us, they took over the place where You once dwelt. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 5They cut down Your holy place with axes like it was a grove of trees. 6They smashed the beautiful carved fixtures with their axes and battle hammers. ⁷They burned Your sanctuary with fire then defiled the place where Your name dwells. ⁸They said inwardly, "Let's completely destroy this place." They have destroyed every other place You are worshiped in the land. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

⁹Lord, where are Your miracles; don't You have any prophets left? We don't know what to do. 10Lord, how long will the enemy mock You; will You allow them to embarrass You forever? 11Why are You holding back Your hand of judgment? Why don't You destroy them? {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} 12You, O God, have always been King; You bring salvation to the earth. ¹³You divided the Red Sea by Your power; You smashed the sea creatures' heads. 14You crushed the heads of the Leviathan and let the other animals eat him. 15 You gave Your people water from the rock: You held back the mighty Jordan River. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁶The day is Yours, as well as the night; You created light and gave us the sun. 17 You established the boundaries of the earth: You make both summer and winter, {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

can't ignore the threats of Your enemies; their defiance is getting louder and louder. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

Asaph fled with David into the wilderness when Saul chased them everywhere to kill David. Asaph prayed deeply because he felt God had rejected them. Lord, when my enemy shouts in victory, I feel rejected. When Your enemy attacks Christianity, and makes fun of the symbols of salvation, I too feel defeated. Why do You hold back Your power to punish my enemies? You've done good miracles in the past; do them again. Amen.

Psalm 75 A Prayer that Recognizes God's Punishment of the Wicked and His Protection of the Humble

You pour it out on everyone, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} but the wicked must drink the last terrible dregs.

⁹As for me, I will tell everyone what You have done; I will sing praises to You, O God. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁰You will cut off the boasting of the wicked, but the godly will be exalted.

Lord, You have promised to punish the evil ones; do it fairly. You have promised to be merciful to those who call on Your name; remember them in mercy. Lord, You are my God. Don't look on my sins; they are covered by Jesus' death. And the righteousness of Jesus is on me. I ask for fairness when You judge me. Amen.

Psalm 76 A Prayer of Praise to God Because He Judges Rebellion

¹God, Your name is known across Judah; Your name is greatly respected throughout Israel. ²Your tent is pitched in peace; You live in Mount Zion. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ³There You stopped the attacks against us; we no longer needed our defense. Selah!

⁴You are more glorious than light; You are more excellent than the mountains. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁵The strong warriors have been killed; they sleep their final sleep. Not one can lift his hand in war. ⁶At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob, all the dangers of war are stilled. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

⁷You are the only One to be feared; no one can stand before Your anger. ⁸You announced the verdict from heaven; the land heard it quietly in awe {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ⁹because You arose in judgment to save all those who trusted You. Selah!

Lord, You win battles through me; it's not by my strength or wisdom. Do Your will through me, use me as Your servant. But in the end You win the battles. I praise You for victory. Amen.

Psalm 77 A Prayer for Deliverance

¹I cried to You for help, O God; I begged for You to listen to my prayers.

²I sought You, O Lord, in my day of trouble; I couldn't sleep at night and I couldn't be comforted. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ³When I remembered what

You could do, my spirit was overwhelmed with agony. Selah!

⁴I couldn't sleep at night because of my trouble; I was too concerned to pray. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁵I thought back to the way You did things; how You always helped Your people. ⁶I remembered when I sang in the night; how I meditated on Your presence, {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁷Why have You cast me away? Will You ever come back to me again? ⁸Is Your mercy completely exhausted? Will You keep Your promise again? ⁹Have You forgotten how to be gracious? Has Your anger shut up Your mercy? Selah! {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

Selah! {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

¹⁶The Red Sea trembled before You, O God; it was ready to obey Your command. ¹⁷The rain clouds poured on our enemies; ¹⁸the thunder roared and the lightning flashed. Your judgment was heard in the whirlwind; You lit up the night with lightning. The ground shook with an earthquake. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹You led Your people through the Red Sea, although no one saw Your footprints. ²⁰You led Your people like a flock; You led by the hand of Moses and Aaron. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Sometimes I get discouraged, or I'm tempted to give up. Then I remember Your past mercy to me, and I determine not to give up. I think back to Your past miracles, and the times You delivered me from danger. It's then I'm encouraged, it's then I'm ready to fight again, and to sacrifice everything for a victory. Amen.

Psalm 78 A Prayer that Recognizes God's Faithfulness in the Face of Israel's Unfaithfulness

¹Lord, I want the people to listen to Your teaching so they can hear what You're saying. ²For You speak to them in parables; You communicate by hidden ways from the past. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ³What we have heard and known, the lessons our fathers have told me.

⁴We will not hide them from our children; we will tell the generations to come about the praises due to You, O Lord, because of the glorious deeds You have done.

⁵You establish the testimony of Jacob and You decreed the law for Israel. Then You commanded our forefathers to teach it to their children, ⁶so the coming generations would know the law, even their children not yet born. So they in turn would tell their children ⁷with the result that they would trust You, O God. That coming generations would not forget Your works but keep the commands You have given ⁸so they would not be like their forefathers who were a stubborn and rebellious generation who refused to yield their hearts to You; whose spirits did not want to obey You. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

⁹The men of Ephraim had superior armament but retreated in the day of battle. ¹⁰They did not keep their covenant with You and refused to walk in Your law. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹¹They forgot what You had done for them and the miracles by which You delivered them.

¹²You did marvelous things in the presence of their fathers in the land of Egypt and in the land of Zoan. ¹³You divided the Red Sea for them to escape; You held the waters back like a wall. ¹⁴You guided them with a cloud by day and a pillar of fire at night. ¹⁵You split the rock in the desert to give them abundant water. ¹⁶You brought a stream of water out of the rock, causing water to run down like a river. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹⁷But our forefathers sinned against You, rebelling in the wilderness against You, the Most High God. ¹⁸The obstinate tested You, demanding meat to satisfy their lust. ¹⁹They asked in unbelief, "Can God spread a table in the wilderness?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁰When Moses struck the rock, a stream of water gushed out. But they in unbelief doubted if You could feed them, doubting if You could supply food.

²¹You were very angry when You heard them; a consuming fire broke out against them {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²²for they did not believe You could provide for them, nor did they trust You to deliver them. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²³You commanded the skies to open ²⁴and You rained down manna for them to eat; it was the corn of heaven. ²⁵They ate the food of angels; they had all the food they wanted.

²⁶You sent a strong east wind, and then You directed a mighty wind from the south.

²⁷You blew food on them like a sandstorm; flying birds were like sand on a seashore. ²⁸The birds flew in low through their tents; they landed all around their tents. ²⁹Our forefathers ate until they were filled; You gave them all they desired. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ³⁰But even when the food You supplied was in their mouth, they were lusting for more. ³¹Your wrath was unleashed against them; You put to death the strongest and best. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

³²And they still kept on sinning in spite of Your miracles. They wouldn't trust You ³³so they died needlessly in the wilderness; they lived in constant terror.

³⁴Whenever You judged some of them, those who were left would eagerly turn to You. ³⁵They remembered that You were their Rock, that the Most High God was their Redeemer. ³⁶They flattered You with their lips, but they were lying in their hearts. ³⁷Because their hearts were rebellious toward You, they did not intend to keep their covenant with You. 38Yet You were merciful toward them, You held back Your anger. ³⁹You remembered that they were just human; they're just a breeze that's quickly gone. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ⁴⁰They often provoked You in the desert; they grieved You during the 40 years in the wilderness. 41 They constantly rebelled against You, continually frustrating You, the Holy One of Israel. ⁴²They forgot what You did for them. They didn't remember how You delivered them ⁴³by the mighty miracles in Egypt {2 Abba-Prayer, Rom. 8:15} or the wonders against pharaoh in Zoan. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} 44You turned Egypt's streams into blood; no one could drink from them. 45You sent swarms of flies among them and frogs that frustrated them. ⁴⁶You sent grasshoppers to eat their crops and locusts devoured all they grew. ⁴⁷You sent sleet to destroy their vines and hail to ruin the sycamore figs. ⁴⁸Also their cattle died in the hail and lightning killed their livestock. ⁴⁹You released Your anger against them, sending a band of destroying angels among them. 50You made a way to express Your anger; You did not spare them from death. 51You killed the firstborn in every family, the oldest male child of every Egyptian family died. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 52Then You led Your own people out of Egypt, guiding them safely into the desert. 53 Your people were safe as You led them, but their enemies were drowned in the Red Sea. 54You brought them to the border of the Promised Land; You gave them the hill country as their own. 55 You drove out the pagans before them and divided the land to them as an inheritance. You settled each tribe into its home. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

⁵⁶But they refused to obey You, the Most High God; they refused to keep Your commands. 57Like their fathers, they were faithless and rebellious; they were as unreliable as a faulty weapon. 58 They made hilltop shrines to worship other gods; they angered You with their man-made idols. ⁵⁹When You saw this, You were again angry; You completely rejected them. 60You withdrew from the tabernacle in Shiloh, the tent where You had met with Your people. 61You allowed the enemy to defeat Your people; Your glorious warriors were killed. 62 You gave Your people to the sword and allowed them to be captured because You were angry with Your inheritance. 63The fire consumed the young men, and the young women did not marry. ⁶⁴The priests were killed by the sword and the widows did not grieve for them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁶⁵Then You awoke, as it was from Your sleep, as a man awakens from a deep sleep. ⁶⁶You routed the enemies and they retreated; You put them away forever.

⁶⁷You didn't bring the Deliverer from the tent of Joseph, nor did You choose the tent of Ephraim, ⁶⁸but You chose the tribe of Judah. You chose Mount Zion to be Your home. ⁶⁹You put Your sanctuary there among the hilltop shrines; You chose that place among all the places on earth. ⁷⁰You chose David to be Your leader; ⁷¹You brought him from leading sheep to be the shepherd of Your people.

⁷²And David will lead Israel with the integrity of his heart and guide them by the skillfulness of his hands. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

Lord, You did many miracles to redeem Your people. Even when You were faithful to them, they were not faithful to You. You were faithful to Your righteousness to punish them, and they cried out in repentance, and You were merciful to them. But even in their repentance, they had no faith in You. Despite Your miracles, they did not believe You (78:32). Lord, remember we are only human (78:39). May I learn Your past mercies and serve You today. May I serve You in the way I pray for children to worship You. Amen.

Psalm 79 A Prayer for God to Punish Those Who Persecute Israel

¹O God, the pagan nations have conquered Your inheritance; they have defiled Your holy temple; they have made Jerusalem a trash heap. ²They have left the dead bodies of Your followers for the birds to eat; the scavenger animals are eating them. ³Their blood flowed around Jerusalem and there was none to bury them. ⁴Our neighbors are making fun of us; Your people are being scorned. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

⁵Lord, how long will You be angry with Your people? Will Your jealousy burn forever? ⁶Pour out Your wrath on the nations that reject You and on the people who refuse to call on You, ⁷ for they have devoured Israel and destroyed Your homeland.

⁸Do not hold the sins of our fathers against us; come quickly to deliver us, because we need Your help now. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁹Help us, O God our Savior, {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} and bring glory to Your name. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Forgive us our sins and deliver us for the sake of Your name. {173 Forgive-ness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁰Why should the pagan nations boast, "Where is their God?" Pour out Your vengeance on them because they poured out the blood of Your servants. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

¹¹Listen to the groans of the prisoners; save them before they die. ¹²Retaliate against our enemies seven times, giving them the misery they have caused us.

¹³We are Your people, the sheep of Your pasture; we will thank and praise You forever. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

Lord, my nation is weak and suffering. Evil has captured many people; multitudes are in the bondage of sin. We, Your people, are laughed at by those who hate You. Deliver us for the glory of Your name. Let evil people know Your power. Deliver us for Your glory, not necessarily for our relief. Amen.

Psalm 80 A Prayer for God to Deliver the Rebellious People of Israel

¹Listen to us, O Shepherd of Israel; You lead the sons of Joseph like a flock. You are enthroned between the winged creatures; shine forth. ²Stir up Your strength before Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh; come and save us. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

³Turn us around, O God; shine Your face on us to save us.

⁴O Lord God of the angels, how long will You be angry against our prayers? ⁵We are eating the bread of anguish and we are drinking tears. ⁶We are trouble to our neighbors; our enemies laugh at us. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15}

⁷Turn us around, O God of angels; shine Your face on us to save us.

⁸We were the cutting of a vine; You brought us out of Egypt. ⁹You drove the pagan out of the Promised Land; then planted us there. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁰You cleared the ground so we could grow; we took root and thrived. The mountains were covered by our cool shade; our branches reached out like gigantic trees. ¹¹We reached out to the seas; then we extended our rule to the rivers. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹²Why did You take away our protective wall so strangers could pick our fruit? ¹³Pigs are rooting up our vine; wild animals are eating up our leaves.

¹⁴Come back to us, O God of the angels; look down from heaven on us. Come protect this vine. ¹⁵Come back to the vine-yard You planted; send the Son who is Your Deliverer. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹⁶You have trimmed the vine and thrown it into the fire; Your people are dying under Your punishment. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷Send the man who sits on Your right hand, the son of man who is strong to deliver. ¹⁸Then we will not turn away from You; restore us so we can call on Your name.

¹⁹Turn us around, O Lord God of the angels; shine Your face upon us to save us. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

Lord, You gave the Holy Land to Your people, the Jews. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} Because they sinned, You scattered them among the nations. You've promised to bring them back one day (Ezek. 37). Lord, do it in Your time. Complete Your plan for the land of Israel and Jerusalem. Amen.

Psalm 81 A Prayer of Grateful Worship

¹I sing loudly to You, O God my strength; I shout praises to You, O God of Jacob. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ²I sing a hymn and play the tambourine; I play praise choruses to You on the guitar. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

³I blow the trumpet in celebration and I confess my sin in the solemn assembly. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ⁴This is the right way for me to worship; this is the way I fulfill Your law O God. ⁵You directed Israel to worship this way when You brought us out of Egypt where we heard a language we didn't understand.

6You took the burden from our shoulder; You freed us from their flesh pots. 7We called out to You in our distress and You answered us from the dark cloud. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Then You tested us at the waters of Meribah. Selah! 8You called out to warn us; You wanted us to listen to You. 9You commanded us not to possess foreign idols, nor should we worship any strange gods. 10You are the Lord our God who brought us up out of Egypt. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

You promised to fill our lives if we would just open ourselves up to You. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18}

¹¹But we would not listen to Your voice and we would not yield to Your leadership. ¹²So You gave us over to our sinful hearts; You let us make our own decisions.

¹³If we would have just listened to You and obeyed Your principles, ¹⁴You would have defeated our enemies and strengthened our hand against our foes.

¹⁵Those who hate You would have feared You because You would have punished them. ¹⁶You would have fed us with the best food and satisfied us with honey from the rock. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

Lord, I sing a joyful song of praise to You for deliverance from Egypt. I sing a sad song about Your punishment when Your people rejected You and turned to idols. I sing a song of expectation that You will restore Your people when they turn again their hearts to You.

Amen.

Psalm 82 A Plea for God to Set All Things Right

¹O God, You stand in heaven's court room; You can correctly evaluate the gods. ²How long will You withhold judgment and let the wicked continue living? {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Selah! ³Defend the poor and the fatherless; protect the afflicted and needy. ⁴Deliver them in their time of affliction and from the clutches of the wicked.

⁵They don't know what's happening; they walk blindly in darkness because the foundation of the earth is out of whack.

⁶I told them, "You all belong to God; You are all the children of the Most High."

⁷Because they will not listen, they will die as all others and be buried as are the powerful rulers.

⁸Come, O God, judge all people, because all people are Your inheritance. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

Lord, You are in charge of all things, and one day You will judge all people. I know You will do right. Many people don't know Your power, but they will know when You judge them. Amen.

Psalm 83 A Prayer for God to Destroy His Enemies and Rule the Earth

¹O God, do not keep quiet and still. Why are You so silent? ²Your enemies are causing trouble; they that hate You are threatening us. ³They have conspired against us; they devise evil against Your chosen ones. ⁴They boast that they can destroy us, that the nation of Israel will not be remembered.

⁵They all plan together against You; they join together to destroy Your influence. ⁶The people of Edom, Ishmael, Moab, and the Hagarites, ⁷join with Gebal, Ammon, Amalek, and Philistia. ⁸They have joined together with Tyre and Assyria to strengthen the sons of Lot. Selah! {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁹Defeat them as You did the Midianites, as You defeated Sisera and Jabin at Kishon. ¹⁰May they die today as they died at Endor; they became as fertilizer on the ground. ¹¹Make their leaders like Oreb and Zeeb, as You destroyed Zebah and Zalmunna. ¹²They boasted they would capture Your Sanctuary as their belongings. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

¹³O God, make Your enemies like weeds, as chaff which the wind blows away. ¹⁴Consume them like fire burns wood, like the forest fires consume the mountains. ¹⁵So punish them with Your terror; beat on them with Your storm. ¹⁶Humiliate all their endeavors so that they will seek Your name, O Lord. ¹⁷Confuse everything they do so that they will forever be tormented. ¹⁸Make them realize that Your name is

Jehovah, that You alone rule as the Most High over the earth. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Lord, You love the Jews; they are Your people. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} Destroy those who hate the Jews, for they hate You in their hearts. Amen.

Psalm 84 A Prayer to Enjoy God's Presence in His House

¹Lord, I enjoy coming into Your presence in the tabernacle, O Lord of Hosts. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²I have such a deep passion for the courts of Your presence that my flesh cries out when I'm not there. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

³Lord, the sparrows are so comfortable in Your presence that they make their nest within sight of Your altar. I also want to rest near Your presence because You are my King and my God. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ⁴Lord, bless those who stay in Your house because they worship and praise You. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Selah! ⁵Lord, bless those who realize their strength is in You because Your principles are in their heart. ⁶Lord, they come to You through a valley of weeping; they fill pools with their tears. {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6}

lose our way in valleys of life and there are box canyons where we can get lost. There are dangerous cliffs and pits into which we fall. So the psalmist said when "passing through the valley of Baca [weeping] make it a well" (84:6, KJV). We are to dig a well in difficult places for life-giving water. Also, enjoyable water refreshes our spirit and gives us a desire to go on through a treacherous valley. Lord, I will dig a well of water when facing danger or disappointment. I will not give up; I will renew my strength with water from Your presence. I will refresh my discouragement with Your satisfaction. Ah... Your water is invigorating! Amen.

⁷Lord, they continue climbing from strength to strength in their endeavor to find Your peace. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

⁸O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer, listen when I cry, O God of Jacob. Selah! {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ⁹Lord God, my desire is to know You and to look into Your face. Selah! {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10}

¹⁰For one day in the courts of Your presence is better than a thousand days anywhere else. I would rather be a doorkeeper in Your house than live sumptuously in the tents of wickedness. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} ¹¹Lord, You shine warmth on my life like the sun; You protect me like a shield. You will not withhold any good thing from me if I walk uprightly. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4}

But don't forget to leave a well for others who are lost or hurting. Let them get water from the well you've dug. Think and pray for others when digging your well. Your prayer energy may help a thirsty soul. Lord, I will dig a well of water for times when I'm thirsty; but I will also leave behind a well for others. I pray for others who need what I need. I pray that others may find satisfaction in You. Amen.

Psalm 85 A Prayer for Revival

¹O Lord, You have shown favor to Your land; You brought back Jacob from captivity. ²You forgave the iniquity of Your people and covered all their sins. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} Selah! ³You are no longer angry at us; You have turned aside Your wrath.

⁴Turn us to You, O God our Savior, and stop punishing us. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ⁵Will You be angry with us forever? Will You always continue punishing us? ⁶Revive our spirits, O God, that we may rejoice in You. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} ⁷Show us Your mercy, O Lord, and save us from our troubles.

⁸I will listen to what You say, and {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} to Your promises of peace for Your people. Lord, don't let us return to folly. ⁹You will surely save those who fear You so Your glory can live in the land. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

¹⁰Then mercy and truth will meet each other; righteousness and peace will kiss. ¹¹Truth will be found in the earth and righteousness will look down from heaven. ¹²You will give us what is good, O Lord; and we will prosper in this land. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹³Righteousness will go before You to prepare all the ways that You go.

Revival means a return to life, or if someone faints, the return to consciousness. When we lose our first love (Rev. 2:5), we need to be revived. When we lose our awareness of God and spiritual matters, we need to be revived. Lord, revive my heart; I want to be fully alive to spiritual things. Amen.

Psalm 86 A Prayer for Help in the Face of Danger

¹O Lord, bend down low to hear me for I am poor and needy. ²Protect my soul, for I am separated from You; save me because I am Your servant. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ³O God, have mercy on me for I pray to You all the time. ⁴Give me joy, O Lord for I lift my soul to You. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ⁵You are a forgiving and good Lord; You give mercy to all who call on You.

⁶Listen to my prayer, O Lord, and hear what I am saying to You. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ⁷In my day of trouble I call on You because You will answer and do something for me. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

⁸There is none like You among the earthly gods; they cannot do the works that You do. ⁹You have made all the different ethnic groups of people; they will come before You to worship and bring glory to Your name. ¹⁰For You are great and do awesome works; You alone are God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹¹O Lord, teach me the way I should walk and I will follow Your truth. Give me a focused heart so I will fear Your name. {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25} ¹²I will praise You with my whole heart, O Lord my God; I will glorify Your name forever. ¹³For Your mercy is great to me; {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} You have delivered me from the lowest hell.

¹⁴The boastful are coming to attack me; they are violent men who want to destroy me. They do not honor You. ¹⁵But You, Lord, are a compassionate God; You are patient with abundant love and kindness. ¹⁶Come to me in mercy and give me strength; save the son of Your handmaid. ¹⁷Show me a sign that You are with me; confuse my enemies then help and comfort me, O Lord. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

When we are in trouble, we can call on God for help because (1) He loves us; (2) He has compassion on those in trouble; (3) Our cry for help demonstrates faith and trust in Him; and (4) God is glorified when we become victorious over problems. Lord, help me when I can't help myself, and even help me when I don't realize I need help. Be glorified when You help me out of problems. Amen.

Psalm 87 Geographical Praying

¹You established a firm foundation on Your holy mountain. You love the gates of Zion ²more than all the houses of Judah, O God; ³glorious things are spoken of Your city. Zion is Your city, O God. Selah! {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2}

⁴Those from Rahab and Babylon take notice along with those from Philistia, Tyre, and Cush, that I was born in Jerusalem.

⁵Even in Zion they will recognize that I was born in Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the city of the Most High; He will establish it forever. ⁶Even You, Lord, register those people who were born in Zion. Selah! {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁷The singers and musicians praise You, O Lord; all my life is dedicated to You. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

There are many places on this earth that the Lord seems to love, because He manifests His presence there. Jerusalem is specifically mentioned in Psalm 87, but God shows Himself on Mount Sinai, and Jesus often went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray. Lord, I love to pray where I know Your presence will be felt. But it's not a feeling I seek, but Your presence and Your intimacy. Amen.

Psalm 88 A Prayer When Punished

¹I have cried out to You day and night; save me, O Lord God. ²Receive my prayer into Your presence; listen to the request I am making. ³I have all kinds of troubles; they are continually trying to kill me. ⁴People treat me like I'm already dead, as if I have no strength left. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁵They abandoned me like a corpse, like someone who is not here and gone out of their sight forever. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

⁶Have You put me into this hole, into this dark night? ⁷I feel Your anger punishing me, coming one wave of pain after another. Selah! ⁸You have taken away my friends; now they all hate me. I'm in a hole and can't get out. ⁹I am blinded by my tears; each day I call out to You; I lift my hands pleading for help. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

¹⁰Will You show the miracles You do for the dead, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} because the dead can rise again to praise You? Selah! ¹¹Shall Your kindness extend to those in a hole because You are faithful even in punishment? ¹²Can You show Your wonders to those in dark places because You never forget those who are forgotten? {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10}

¹³I cried to You for help, O Lord; every morning I pray again to You. ¹⁴Why do You not hear me and hide Your face from me? {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹⁵I hurt all over and am ready to die. I can't stand Your punishment any longer. ¹⁶Your fierce anger has overwhelmed me, I am cut to the bone. ¹⁷All day long my sin haunts my memory; I am completely overwhelmed with fear. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹⁸You have taken away my friends and relatives and darkness is my only companion.

The psalmist is facing death, and cries out to God for deliverance. He doesn't want to die, and he prays for renewed life. We should remember (1) there is a time to die and we should pray for God to deliver us (Luke 23:46); (2) there is a time to die and we should prepare ourselves spiritually for death (Ps. 23:4); and (3) there is a time to fight death and pray for continued life. Lord, I don't like to think about my death. Protect me and keep me alive until it's Your time to bring me home. Amen.

Psalm 89 A Prayer for Claiming God's Promises

¹Lord, I will continually sing of Your mercies; I will make known Your faithfulness forever. All generations will hear it from my mouth. ²I will testify that Your mercy stands forever, that Your faithfulness is as firm as heaven itself. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

³You made a covenant with Your chosen one; You swore an oath with David Your servant. ⁴You promised to establish his family lineage forever; You promised to give the throne of Israel to him. Selah! {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

¹¹The heavens are Yours, so is the earth; You established the universe and everything in it. ¹²You made the north where it is, and the south; Mount Tabor and Hermon praise Your name. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹³You have a powerful arm and a mighty hand; You lift Your right hand in victory. ¹⁴Your rule is characterized by righteousness and justice; mercy and truth come from You. ¹⁵Lord, bless those who sing joyfully to You; who walk in the light of Your countenance.

¹⁶They rejoice in Your name all day long; therefore You accept them. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁷You are their glory and strength and You exalt them with Your anointing. ¹⁸For You defend us from the evil one; You are our King, the Holy One of Israel. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ¹⁹You spoke in a vision to Your people, telling them Your strength was upon a warrior. You lifted up a young man from among Your people. ²⁰You chose David as Your servant; You anointed him with oil to follow You. ²¹You promised to strengthen him with Your hand; You established him with Your arm. ²²No enemy will make him pay tribute; no wicked one will defeat him. ²³You will destroy his enemies before him and punish those who hate him.

²⁴You will faithfully be with him and Your name will be exalted by him. ²⁵You will give him the rule of the sea and his right hand over the rivers. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁶David will call out to You as his God, calling You his Father and the Rock of his salvation. ²⁷You will appoint him as Your first-born, higher than any king on earth. ²⁸You will maintain Your love to him forever; You will always keep the covenant You made with him.

²⁹You have established his genealogy forever; his throne will endure as long as heaven exists. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

³⁰If the children of David forsake Your law and not obey Your commands; ³¹if they violate Your directions and do not keep Your rules, ³²then You will punish their disobedience, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and You will correct their rebellious ways. ³³But You will never stop loving them, nor will You turn Your back on them. ³⁴You will not deny the promise You made to them; You will always keep Your Word. ³⁵You only had to give Your Word once; You will not lie to David. ³⁶You will bless his line forever; he will always rule for You. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ³⁷It will be established forever like the sun and moon, Your faithful witnesses in the sky. Selah!

³⁸But You had to reject the covenant You made. Why did You get angry with Your people? ³⁹You turned Your back on Your covenant; You threw the crown of David to the ground. ⁴⁰You had to break down all their defenses; You have destroyed all their strongholds.

⁴¹The passing armies have plundered Israel; their neighbors laugh at Israel's weaknesses. ⁴²You strengthened Israel's enemies against her; You have let them become triumphant in battle. ⁴³You watched as Israel was weakened, then You saw Your people defeated in battle. ⁴⁴You let Israel's glory fade and You let her enemies terminate the rule of David's kingdom. ⁴⁵You cut short the days of his line; You gave him a robe of shame. Selah! {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴⁶How long will You let Your people suffer? Will You continue to hide from us? Will Your anger burn forever? ⁴⁷Remember how short is our life, for You have created us with many limitations. ⁴⁸None of us can live and not die, {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} none of us can overcome the power of death. Selah!

⁴⁹O Lord, where is Your former patient love that You pledged to David Your servant? ⁵⁰Look now, Lord, on the abuse we receive; we carry the insults of all Your enemies. ⁵¹They mock us because they hate You; they reject the rule of David Your anointed. ⁵²We bless You forever. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

This psalm expresses God's constant love and loyalty for David. Thus it is a messianic psalm because it expresses love to the Son of David, that is, Jesus Christ. The psalm is an indication of God's constant love and protection of those who are in the Messiah, that is, in Christ Jesus. Lord, I rest in Your love because it gives me confidence and assures me of answers to my prayer. Amen.

Psalm 90 A Prayer to Use the Time Allotted to You

¹Lord, You have been our dwelling place throughout all the generations. ²Before You created the mountains, even before You created the earth, even from everlasting to everlasting; You are God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

³You determined that all people will die; You decreed that we would all return to dust. ⁴A thousand years in Your sight is but yesterday that is gone; it's just a watch in the night. ⁵You carry away our years like a flood, our life is like sleep after we awake. ⁶Our life is like grass that springs up in the morning; we grow throughout the day; in the evening we are cut down, then we wither and die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

⁷Your anger can consume us; Your wrath brings us trouble. ⁸You see all of our disobediences; You shine Your light on our secret sins. ⁹When You are angry with us, our life passes away quickly. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁰Our simple life does not amount to much, like a tale that someone tells. We live approximately threescore and ten years. Some reach the golden age of fourscore years but they have physical difficulties and pain; then their life is cut off and they fly away. ¹¹No one knows when You are angry at them so we must always trust You in fear. ¹²So teach us to make each day count so that we can live wisely. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

¹³Return to bless us; don't be angry with us any longer. ¹⁴Show us mercy when we are young so we may rejoice all our lives. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} ¹⁵May we learn from the years You afflicted us and from the years we sinned against You. ¹⁶Help us understand Your works; show Your glory to our children. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ¹⁷O Lord God, let Your beauty be upon us; establish the work of our hands, {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12} yes, establish the work of our hands.

This is a prayer that recognizes how frail our life really is, and how delicate is the distance between death and life. We should pray (1) to use our remaining time wisely; (2) to keep ourselves strong; (3) to be ready for death at any moment; (4) yet be willing to live a long useful life; and (5) recognize the eternal God when we serve and give praise to Him for life itself. Lord, thank

You for life this day, and thank You for an opportunity to continue serving You. Use me strongly until the day I die, and prepare me for death. Then bring me home to Yourself. Amen.

¹Lord, may I live in the secret place of Your presence. You are the owner of the universe, Most High God; I abide under Your protective shadows. O Almighty God, You are more than enough. ²Lord, I will rejoice in Your presence; {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} You are my protection and fortress; You are my God in whom I trust. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

³I know You will save me from all traps and from deadly diseases. ⁴You will cover me with Your wings; I will find refuge under Your protection; {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Your promises give me peace and security. ⁵I will not be afraid of the unseen terror by night, nor of the ever present dangers of the day, ⁶nor of the lurking plagues that threaten me, nor of the spreading epidemic around me. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

⁷A thousand may fall at my side and ten thousand may die around me; but these dangers will not come near me. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} ⁸I will observe with my eyes and will see the punishment of the wicked. ⁹I will make You, O Most High God, my protective refuge.

¹⁰And when You are my refuge, O Lord, then no harm can destroy me; and the epidemic plague will not touch me. ¹¹Because You will command Your angels to guard me in all ways, ¹²they will protect me with their hands to keep me from falling. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹³I can trample down lions and poisonous snakes; I will crush evil threats under my feet.

¹⁴Because I love You Lord, You will rescue me from danger. Because I know You by name, You will be with me in trouble. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹⁵When I call on You for help, You will answer me. You will be with me. You will protect me and my honor. ¹⁶You will give me long life and satisfy me with Your salvation. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8}

God knows the dangers that threaten us, and He protects us because the follower of God is invincible until God is finished with him on this earth. Then God will bring His servant home to Himself through death. Therefore, God's servant should live in confident faith in God's protection. Lord, I trusted You for salvation; now I trust You for protection. Keep me safe until You've finished with me then bring me home to Yourself. Amen.

Psalm 92 Praise to God for Giving You Strength

¹Lord, it is good to praise You; to sing to Your name, O Most High, ²to show Your loving kindness in the morning and Your faithfulness in the evening, {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ³to praise You with stringed instruments by playing music upon the harp. {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} ⁴Lord, I rejoice in the things You do; I sing for joy because of what You have done.

⁵O Lord, how great are Your works; Your thoughts are very deep. ⁶The ignorant people do not know You; the foolish ones cannot understand You. ⁷Even though they grow like weeds, and those that rebel against You flourish, they will be forever destroyed.

⁸But You, Lord, are exalted forever. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 'Surely, O Lord, Your enemies are targeted; surely Your enemies will perish; those who are passionate for evil will be scattered. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

¹⁰You have exalted my strength like an ox; You have anointed me with fresh oil. ¹¹Mine eyes have seen the defeat of Your enemies; mine ears have heard their destruction. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹²The righteous will flourish like a palm tree; they will grow like the cedars of Lebanon. ¹³They that are planted in Your house will flourish in Your courts, O Lord. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁴They will bear fruit in their old age; they will stay fruitful and green. ¹⁵Their life will testify that You are just. You are our Rock; You are always good to Your people. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

The goodness of God is His nature that disposes Him to be protective, kind, and merciful. We should learn what children pray, "God is great, God is good, let us thank Him for our food." God's nature is good and He chooses to act in good ways toward us. Lord, I magnify Your goodness; help me understand how good You really are. Thank You for Your goodness to me; help me see all You do for me. Amen.

Psalm 93 A Prayer to Recognize God's Majesty

¹O Lord, You reign over all the earth; You are robed in majesty, You are clothed in power. ²You have established the world and it cannot be moved; {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} You established Your throne from eternity.

³The seas have roared, O Lord; the seas have lifted up their voice; their pounding waves crash on the shore. ⁴But You, Lord on High, are mightier, more powerful than the flood, more powerful than the waves of the sea.

⁵Your laws cannot be broken; Your rule is holy; {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} You will reign for endless days.

The word "majesty" means regal, lofty, stately or dignified. It also means supreme authority or sovereignty. In one sense God is as intimate as a father holding a child on His lap, yet God is the supreme ruler of the universe of mankind. Lord, I know to recognize Your sovereignty and rulership of all things including my life. Amen.

Psalm 94 A Prayer for Patience until God Judges Your Oppressors

¹O Lord God, I know You avenge; O God, come and avenge now. ²Rise up, Thou Judge of the earth, punish the proud as they deserve. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³How long will the wicked get by, O Lord? How long will they gloat over us?

⁴Do You hear them boasting over us? The evil workers brag about their evil. 5They crush Your people, O Lord, stomping the life out of Your heirs. 6They kill widows, foreigners, and orphans, saying the Lord does not see and the God of Jacob doesn't care. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 8Lord, make the fools understand, make them understand what You will do. 9You make the ear; can You not hear? You created eyes; shall You not see? 10 You give us knowledge, do You not know? You judge the nations, will You not punish them? ¹¹Lord, You know the thoughts of all people; You know they have no reason for what they do. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

¹²O Lord, those You correct are blessed because You teach them Your love. ¹³You will give them peace in the day of trouble until the wicked dig a pit and fall into it. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ¹⁴You will not reject Your people, neither will You abandon Your heirs. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁵When judgment falls on Your righteous people, then the upright in heart will be revealed.

¹⁶Who will testify for me against the evildoers, who will stand with me against the wicked? ¹⁷Unless You help me, O Lord, I would have no defense in judgment. ¹⁸When I realized my foot was slipping, Your faithfulness helped me up. ¹⁹When I was overwhelmed with anxiety, Your comfort gave me peace and joy. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

²⁰Those ungodly oppressors claim You're on their side, but their rule is based on wickedness. ²¹They attack those who live by Your laws and kill innocent people who have not hurt them. ²²But You Lord are my defense, {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} You are a mighty rock where I can hide. ²³You will punish them with the death they plan for others; You will destroy them for their sin; O Lord, my God, You will destroy them. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

This is an imprecatory psalm in which the psalmist prays for judgment on the evil of evil people. While the psalmist realizes God is delaying judgment (v. 13), he knows payday is coming some day. Lord, I know You will judge all sinners eventually, but while You tarry, I pray for the salvation of all people before they face You in judgment. Amen.

Psalm 95 A Prayer of Praise to God and Warning to the Wicked

¹I come singing to You, Lord; I shout joyfully to You, the Rock of my salvation. ²I come into Your presence giving thanks; I shout the psalms joyfully to You ³for You are my great God, the great King above earthly gods. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ⁴You hold the deep places of the earth in Your hands. You own the tops of the hills. ⁵You made the sea and it is Yours and You created all dry ground. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

⁶I come bowing down to worship You; I kneel before You, my Creator. ⁷For You are my God and I am like Your sheep; I am like the people of Your pasture. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

⁸Today, those who hear Your voice should not provoke You by hardening their hearts as Israel did when tempted in the wilderness. ⁹The leaders of Israel saw Your miracles, but tempted You during their wanderings. ¹⁰For 40 years You were grieved with that generation, because they were rebellious in heart; they did not know Your ways. ¹¹You determined to judge them, not allowing them to enter the Promised Land. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Psalm 96 A Prayer to Glorify God

¹I sing a new song to You, Lord; the whole earth is singing to You. ²I sing to bless Your name and tell Your salvation from day to day. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ³I declare Your glory to the unsaved and tell them everything You do.

⁴For You, Lord, are great in the earth, You must be praised greatly, You must be feared more than other gods. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

There are many ways to sing our prayers to God (see your hymn book). There are songs of thanksgiving, gratitude, praise, magnification, and worship. Sometimes music expresses the depth of our hearts when simple words are not enough. Lord, I sing to You from the bottom of my heart. Amen.

⁵The gods of the unsaved are idols, but You created the heavens. ⁶Honor and majesty belong to You; strength and beauty are in Your sanctuary.

⁷All people must give glory to You, Lord; all must give You glory and strength. ⁸They must give You glory that is due to You and bring sacrifice when they enter Your presence. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁹I worship You, Lord, in the beauty of Your holiness; {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} all the unsaved should fear You.

¹⁰I tell the unsaved that You reign; no one can move the earth that You established. You will correctly judge each person.

¹¹The heavens rejoice and the earth is glad; the sea waves roar at Your command. ¹²The fields give forth Your goodness; the forest rejoices in Your care. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹³You are coming to judge all things; You will correctly judge the world, You will reward people according to truth.

Lord, I glorify You for my salvation. I know the depths of my sin and realize the glorious heights of Your loving-kindness. Amen.

Psalm 97 A Prayer of Rejoicing that Recognizes the Future Reign of the Lord

¹O Lord, You reign. Let the earth rejoice; let the distant shores be glad.

²You are surrounded by a cloud of thick darkness; Your throne is built on righteousness and justice. ³Your attributes are a purifying fire to consume everything that opposes You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁴You reveal Yourself like flashes of lightning so everyone can see Your holiness and tremble. ⁵The mountains melt like wax before You because You are the Lord of the earth. ⁶The heavens reveal Your righteousness; everyone sees Your glory.

⁷Those who worship idols will be ashamed; those who glory in their idols will recognize Your majestic glory. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ⁸Zion will hear and be glad, also the cities of Judah will rejoice because You will judge correctly. ⁹For You, Lord, are Most High over the earth; You are exalted over all the false gods.

¹⁰Lord, may those who love You, hate evil; guard those who are faithful to You, deliver them from the evil one. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹¹Shine Your light on the godly and Your blessings on those who do right. ¹²Lord, may Your people rejoice in You and praise Your holy name.

The psalmist cries out, "For You, LORD, are most high above all the earth" (v. 9, NKJV). What is our response? "Praise!" Lord, I recognize all Your great power manifested in so many ways, and I worship You. Amen.

Psalm 98 Singing a New Song to God

¹I sing a new song to You, Lord, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} for You have done marvelous things. Your right hand and Your holy arm have saved me. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²You have made Your salvation known and shown it to the nations. ³You have remembered Your mercy and faithfulness to Israel. Everyone in all places of the earth knows about Your salvation.

⁴Everyone joyfully shouts Your praise; {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} they break into worship music to praise You. ⁵Everyone sings unto You with the harp; everyone offers praise unto You with singing. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ⁶Everyone shouts for joy to You; sound the trumpets and blow the horns.

⁷Let the sea praise You with its roar; let the earth and everyone join together ⁸with the rivers to applaud You as the hills join with them in Your praise. ⁹For You are coming to judge the earth; You will make everything right. You will judge people fairly. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

We shouldn't sing the old songs when God gives us new songs to sing in praise to Him. The old song is what God did yesterday; the new song is what God is doing now. God gives us constant victory (v. 1). God constantly reminds us of His salvation (v. 2). God shows us His faithfulness (v. 3) and He reminds us of His mercy (v. 3). But most of all, God reminds of His faithfulness to us today (v. 3). Lord, I love praising You today for the things You are doing now in my life. I love today, because I've got another day to praise You. Amen.

Psalm 99 Praise for God's Past Faithfulness

¹Lord, let the nations tremble. You reign in heaven and You sit between the winged creatures; let the earth shake. ²Lord, You are great in Zion; You are exalted over everyone. ³Let everyone praise Your great and awesome name, for You are holy. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30}

⁴Mighty King, You love justice; You created fairness. In Jacob You have established justice and righteousness. ⁵O God, I exalt You as my Lord; I worship at Your feet, for You are holy. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

⁶Moses and Aaron were Your priests; Samuel also interceded to You. They called on Your name, and You answered them. ⁷You spoke to them from the Shekinah glory cloud. They followed Your principles and they kept the laws You gave them. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

⁸O Lord, my God, You answered them and You forgave them when they confessed, but You punished them when they rebelled. ⁹O Lord, my God, I exalt You and worship in Your holy mountain O Lord, my God, You are holy. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

This psalm reminds us of God's past faithfulness. God is powerful (v. 2) and He will do right (v. 4). God will answer our prayers (v. 6) and forgive our sins (v. 8). In His faithfulness, God does good things for His people, but because God is faithful to His nature, He is also faithful to punish us when we continue in sin. Lord, great is Your faithfulness; it is as great as Your nature. Amen.

Psalm 100 A Prayer of Gratitude when Entering God's Presence

¹Lord, I shout with joy to You; {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} everyone from every nation joins me. ²I worship as I enter Your presence with singing because You, Lord, are my God. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ³Lord, You made us and we belong to You; we are Your people and the sheep of Your pasture. ⁴Lord, I come into Your gates giving thanks; I enter the courts with praise. I bless Your holy name {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} by giving thanks for all You've done for me. 5Lord, You are good, Your mercy is everlasting and Your truth endures forever. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1}

We use many emotions in prayer. We pray reverently, silently, thankfully, and meditatively. But when our heart overflows with excitement, and we can't contain ourselves, we shout for joy. Lord, my joy is spilling over and I can't contain myself so I shout my praise to You as loud as I can with all my heart. Amen.

Psalm 101 A Prayer to Live Blamelessly

¹I will sing of Your love and justice; I will sing to You, O Lord. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

²I will try to live without sin; when will You come help me? {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

³I will try to live blamelessly with my family and friends. I will not look on evil, nor satisfy myself with it. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ⁴I will turn my back on those who secretly slander their friends. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

⁵I will turn my back on those who secretly slander their friends. Those who are selfish and proud, I will have nothing to do with them. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁶Lord, You see all the faithful who live for You. Those who live blamelessly honor You by their lifestyle. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁷Those who are deceitful will not dwell with You, and those who lie and rebel against You will not stand in Your presence. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁸Every morning You search all hearts to determine those who love wickedness. Then You separate every evildoer from the blessing of Your presence. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

When we realize God knows the intent of our heart and everything we do, we are careful to live an honest life. When we realize and expose lies and untruths, and He judges dishonesty; we quickly conform our lips and life to truth. Lord, You are pure light, and You know all things, see all things, and punish all lies. I can only plead the blood of Christ to forgive me and cleanse me. Amen.

Psalm 102 The Prayer when We Are Alienated

¹Hear me when I pray, O Lord; listen to my request for help. ²Do not hide Your face from me when I am in trouble. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} Don't turn away from me but quickly answer me. ³My days disappear like smoke, my bones hurt all the time. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁴My spirit is dying like cut grass and I've lost my appetite to eat anything.

⁵I groan all the time and I'm just skin and bones. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ⁶I'm like a lonely owl that is lost in the desert. ⁷I can't sleep at night; I'm as lonely as a solitary sparrow. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

⁸My enemies continually criticize me; they curse me and destroy my reputation. ⁹My food tastes like dirt and my tears drip into what I drink. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹⁰Because of Your anger and punishment, You have cast me aside. ¹¹My days are gone like the night shadows; I am withering away like grass. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

¹²But You, Lord, will live forever; You will be known in every generation. ¹³You will arise to have compassion on Jerusalem. You will show favor on her when the appointed time comes. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 14You love every stone in Zion's walls; You even love the dust of her streets. 15 The nations will tremble before Your name; all the kings will fear Your glory. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ¹⁶For You will rebuild Zion, You will appear in Your glory. 17You will finally answer the prayers of the downtrodden; You will no longer turn Your back to their cry. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁸Let this be written for future generations so that a nation not yet born will praise You. ¹⁹Let them write that You will look down from heaven ²⁰to hear the groans of Your persecuted people, to redeem and give them freedom. ²¹Then Your name will be declared in Zion; You will be praised in Jerusalem ²²because a multitude of peoples and kingdoms will come to worship You, O Lord. {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12}

²³You have cut me down in midlife; You have weakened my strength. ²⁴So I cry to You who lives forever, do not cut me off while I am still young. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ²⁵In the beginning You laid the foundations of the earth; the heavens are the work of Your hands. ²⁶They will cease, but You will continue; they will wear out like old clothes. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ²⁷You will then change to new clothes and throw them away like rags. You remain forever the same and Your years will never end. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁸Your servants and all their children will live eternally in Your presence. And their children's children will be established before You. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

When we are alienated from God we must still pray in our time of distress. This is a prayer for God to intervene in our suffering and restore our life and joy. Lord, I cry desperately to You in my time of affliction for You to intervene in my trouble, and restore me to the joy of Your fellowship so I can enjoy living for You. Amen.

Psalm 103 A Prayer to Bless the Lord

¹I bless You, Lord, from the bottom of my soul; with all that is within me, I bless

Your holy name. ²I bless You, Lord, from the bottom of my soul; and I won't forget any of Your benefits. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} ³You, Lord, forgive my sins; You heal all my diseases. ⁴You, Lord, redeem my life from death; {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} You crown my life with Your love and mercy. 5You, Lord, satisfy me with good things; my life is renewed like an eagle. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ⁶You, Lord, give righteousness and justice to all who are persecuted; {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 7You, Lord, made known Your principles to Moses; You showed Your works to the people of Israel. ⁸You, Lord, are merciful and gracious, slow to anger and full of love. 9You, Lord, will not continually accuse us, nor will You stay angry forever. 10 You, Lord, will not punish us as we deserve; nor reward us according to our sins. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹¹For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is Your love for us. ¹²As far as the east is from the west, You have removed our sin from us that far. ¹³As a father takes care of his children, so You love those who trust You. ¹⁴You know what we are made of, You remember that we are only dust. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁵As for us, our days on earth are like grass; we grow like a flower in the field. ¹⁶The wind blows around us and we are gone as though we were never here. ¹⁷But Your love is from everlasting to everlasting on those who love You and upon their children's children. ¹⁸It extends to those who keep Your covenant, who remember to obey Your principles. {176 Frailty-Confession Prayer, Ps. 90:12}

¹⁹You, Lord, made the heavens Your throne; You rule over everything.

²⁰All the angels bless You, and Your mighty ones listen to Your Word.

²¹All the heavenly armies of angels bless You, Lord, those who serve You and carry out Your will. ²²All Your creation blesses You, Lord; everything in Your kingdom {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} joins my soul in blessing You, Lord.

This is a prayer of gratitude because God forgives our sins, restores us to fellowship with Himself, and satisfies us with good things. Because God is good and forgiving, He gives us an abundance of life and we find enjoyable satisfaction in Him. Lord, thank You for forgiving my sin, and allowing me to have fellowship with You. Thank You for protecting me from evil and death. Thank You for all the good things I have in life. Amen.

Psalm 104 Praise to God because of His Creation

¹I bless You, Lord, from the bottom of my soul because You, Lord God, are great. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} ²You are clothed with majesty and splendor, dressed in the garment of light. You stretched out the heavens like a curtain;

³The roof of Your home extends above the rain. You make the clouds Your chariot; You walk on the wings of the wind. ⁴The angels are Your messengers; the flashes of lightning are Your servants. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

⁵You placed the earth on its foundation; it can never be moved. ⁶You covered it with deep water like a garment that covered the tallest mountains. ⁷At Your command the waters receded; You spoke by the thunder and they withdrew. ⁸The mountains rose into sight again and the valleys appeared, returning to the places You intended. ⁹You then set a boundary for the sea; it will never flood the earth again. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

14You make grass to grow for the cattle and vegetables to grow for us, bringing food out of the earth. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 15You bring wine that gladdens our heart, and oil to make our face shine, and bread to strengthen us. 16Your trees are well watered; You cause the cedars of Lebanon to grow. 17The birds make their nests in her branches; the stork makes its home in the pine trees. 18The high mountains are for the goats, the rock badgers hide in the rocky cliffs. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹⁹You made the moon to tell us the seasons and the sun follows a prescribed pattern. ²⁰When You bring the night, darkness follows; then all the beasts of the forest prowl. ²¹The hungry lion roars after its prey. It is You, O Lord, who controls all. ²²The wild animals hide when the sun rises, and they retreat to their dens when it is light. ²³But men go out to work when the day comes; there he labors until the evening. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

²⁴In Your wisdom You made them all, O Lord; the earth is full of Your creatures. ²⁵There is the wide and spacious sea; in it are numerous creatures, small and great. ²⁶The ships sail on its surface and created whales play in its depths.

²⁷All sea creatures at the proper time are fed by Your gracious hand. ²⁸They gather the food You give to them; they are filled by Your open hand. ²⁹They are troubled when Your provision is gone; when they have no breath, they die and return to dust. ³⁰New life is born when You send Your Spirit; this way You continually renew the living of the earth. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

³¹May Your glory endure forever, may You rejoice in all You created. ³²You look at the earth and it trembles; the mountains smoke when You touch them. ³³They will always sing praises to You, O Lord; I will sing praises to You as long as I live. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ³⁴Be pleased with all my thoughts about You because I rejoice in You, O Lord. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} ³⁵May sinners vanish from the face of the earth and the wicked completely disappear. I praise You, Lord, from the bottom of my soul. Hallelujah.

We worship the greatness of God because we see His power and design in His creation. We are careful not to worship the earth or universe, because we know He is the Creator behind the creation. Lord, You got up one morning and dressed Yourself in light, like a coat. You built Yourself a house above the universe. You made the wind Your vehicle to take You where You wanted to go. When Your garden was dry, You commanded rain and You made rivers to water all the animals. You did everything right, so I worship You. Amen.

Psalm 105 A Prayer to Remember God's Deliverance from Egypt

¹I give thanks to You, O Lord; I call on Your name; I tell people what You have done. ²I sing to You, O Lord; I sing praises to You. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} I tell the world Your wonderful acts. ³I glory in Your holy name, my heart rejoices as I seek You. ⁴I seek Your strength, O Lord; I will always seek Your face. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁵I remember Your wonderful miracles, the marvelous things You have done. ⁶I want the seed of Abraham to remember Your chosen children of Jacob.

⁷That You are the Lord our God. Your decisions are seen everywhere in the earth. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ⁸You remember the covenant You made; Your Word will continue for a thousand generations. 9You made a covenant with Abraham and then You swore it to Isaac. ¹⁰You next confirmed it to Jacob that You would keep it with Israel forever. 11You promised to give them the land of Israel as their portion for an inheritance. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 12This was when they were few in number and they were strangers in the land. 13They were wandering from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another. 14You allowed no one to oppose them or to protect them. You rebuked kings. 15 You told them, "Touch not Mine anointed and do not harm My prophets." {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁶You sent a famine on the land to destroy all Your people's supply of food. 17 You sent a man to save them, even Joseph whom they sold as a servant. ¹⁸His feet were bruised in shackles, his neck was put in irons. 19Then Joseph foretold what was to come to pass and the word he heard from the Lord was true. 20 The king sent and released Joseph; the rulers of the people set him free. 21 Joseph was made manager of the king's house and administrator of the food of the land. ²²He commanded the princes what to do; he shared his wisdom with the elders.

²³His father Jacob was brought to Egypt and he stayed there until he died. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²⁴You made Your people grow in number and they became too numerous for the Egyptians. ²⁵You turned the hearts of the Egyptians against Israel; they put Your people in slavery.

²⁶You raised up Moses as their leader and Aaron was chosen to serve with him. ²⁷They did miracles for the Egyptians and showed Your wonders to all the people. ²⁸You sent darkness, making the land night because they had rebelled against Your Word. 29 You turned their water into blood and all the fish died. 30 You sent frogs into every place in Egypt; they even ended up in the rulers' bedrooms. ³¹Then You spoke and flies appeared everywhere; then gnats covered the land. 32 You made the hail come down like rain and the lightning flashed throughout the land. ³³The hail stripped the vines of their leaves and destroyed their fruit crop and the trees. ³⁴You spoke and the locusts came; the grasshoppers couldn't be counted. 35 They are all the leaves that were left and devoured all the crops. ³⁶You struck down the firstborn in every family, the heir in each family. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁷You brought Your people out of Egypt; they were given silver and gold and not one of Your people was sick. ³⁸Egypt was glad to see Israel leave because they were afraid of what might happen. ³⁹You spread out a cloud to lead them by day and You gave fire to lead them by night. ⁴⁰You gave them quail when they asked for food and You fed them with bread from heaven. ⁴¹You opened the rock for water to gush out; it flowed like a river in the desert.

⁴²You remembered Your holy promise that You had made to Your servant Abraham. ⁴³You brought Your people out of Egypt with rejoicing and shouts of joy. ⁴⁴You gave them the land that had been occupied by the pagan and our people inherited what others built ⁴⁵so that they might keep Your laws and observe Your commands; I praise You, Lord. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

If God had not looked out for us, we would not have life today. We would not enjoy the blessings we have, even though we live in a world of danger, sorrow, and difficulties. Lord, I sing praises for all the good things I have. Just as You delivered Israel from Egypt, You have delivered me from bondage to sin and You've given me life in Christ. Thank You for past protection and deliverance. Thank You for present joys. Amen.

Psalm 106 A Prayer to Remember God's Faithfulness

¹O Lord, I praise You; I give thanks to You, O Lord, for You are good, Your mercy endureth forever.

²No one can fully proclaim Your mighty acts; no one can fully give You praise. ³Lord, You bless those who live justly and those who do rightly at all times. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ⁴Remember me when You show favor to Your people; visit me when You come to save them. ⁵I want to enjoy the goodness of Your chosen ones, I want to share in the joy of Your people; I want to join with Your inheritance to praise You. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

⁶We have sinned just as did our fathers; we have done wrong and committed transgressions. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 7Our fathers did not understand Your miracles in Egypt; they did not remember Your mercy to them and they doubted You could open the Red Sea.

⁸But You delivered them for Your name's sake and You made Your power known.
⁹You spoke to the Red Sea and it retreated; You led them across on sandy ground. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ¹⁰You saved them from the attack of Pharaoh and redeemed them from their enemy. ¹¹The waters covered the Egyptians; not one of them survived. ¹²Then Your people believed Your promise and they sang praises to You. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

¹³But Your people soon forgot what You did for them; they did not obey Your orders. ¹⁴They lusted to fill their fleshly appetites; in the desert they tempted You. ¹⁵You gave them what they asked for, but sent leanness to the soul. {398 Reluctant Answers to Prayer, Gen. 6:6}

¹⁶They complained about Moses' leadership and about Aaron who was consecrated by You. ¹⁷The earth opened up to swallow Dathan; it also buried Abiram. ¹⁸Fire swept through their camp burning up the rebels with them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁹They made a golden calf at Mount Horeb and worshiped it as an idol. ²⁰They quit worshiping Your glory and began worshiping the image of a bull that eats grass. ²¹They forgot that You were their God who had done miracles for them in Egypt ²²and had delivered them through the Red Sea. ²³So You decided to destroy them.

{267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But Moses stood in the breech as an intercessor, so You would not consume them. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

²⁴Then they despised the land You gave them; they doubted Your promises to them. ²⁵They murmured in their tents and would not obey Your voice. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ²⁶So you swore that they would die in the desert ²⁷and be scattered throughout the lands.

²⁸They joined themselves to Baal and ate sacrifices to the lifeless idol. ²⁹They provoked You to anger by their sin and a plague spread throughout their camp. ³⁰Then Phinehas acted righteously to intervene and the plague was stopped. ³¹You counted this to him for righteousness so that future generations might take note.

³²They angered You at the waters of Meribah and Moses paid the consequences for it. ³³For when the people rebelled against You, Moses was judged for speaking illadvisedly. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁴They did not destroy the inhabitants of the land as You had commanded them to do. ³⁵But they mingled with the pagan and began living like them. ³⁶Then they worshiped the idols of the land which became a snare to them. ³⁷They sacrificed their sons and daughters to demons, ³⁸shedding the innocent blood of their children and the nation was corrupted by their idol worship. ³⁹They defiled themselves by their idolatry and became whores to evil practices. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

⁴⁰No wonder You were angry with them and were disgusted with Your inheritance. ⁴¹You allowed pagan nations to defeat them and their enemies ruled over them. ⁴²Their rulers oppressed them and forced Your people to serve them. ⁴³Many times You delivered them from their enemies but they were determined to rebel and they were destroyed by their sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴⁴But You remembered Your covenant with them when they cried out to You.

⁴⁵You saw their distress and showed them mercy; ⁴⁶You made their oppressors pity them.

⁴⁷May Israel say, "Save us, O Lord, our God; bring us back from the nations so that we may give thanks to Your name and give glory to You in praise." {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

⁴⁸Lord, I praise You, the God of Israel; from everlasting to everlasting let the people say, "Amen!"

God is love (1 John 4:8), He is the source of all love, and He constantly loves us, even when we disappoint Him. He may punish us when we rebel or sin against Him, but that's because He loves us and wants to turn us from our sinful ways, and transform us to continually do right. God is constantly reforming us because He is constant love. Lord, You love me when I obey and You love me when I disobey. Thank You for Your constant love that doesn't leave me in my sins. Amen.

Psalm 107 A Prayer to Remind You of God's Punishment when You Rebel and His Blessing when You Obey

¹I give You thanks, O Lord, for You are good. ²Let the redeemed speak for You, those You have saved from the enemy. ³You have gathered them from all lands, from the east and the west, from the north and the south. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

⁴They wandered lonely in the deserts not finding a city where they could settle down. ⁵They were hungry and thirsty and their soul fainted within them. ⁶They cried unto You in their trouble and You delivered them out of their distress. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ⁷You led them by their right hand to a city where they could settle down. ⁸Oh, that all people would praise You for Your goodness and wonderful works to them because You satisfy the thirsty soul and You fill the hungry with good things. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹⁰Some sat blinded in the shadow of death; they were bound in affliction and sin ¹¹because they rebelled against Your words and hated Your advice, O Most High. ¹²So You left them bound in misery; no one was able to help them out of their bondage. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³Then they cried unto You in their trouble and You saved them out of their distress. ¹⁴You brought them out of the shadow of death and freed them from their chains. ¹⁵Now let them give thanks for Your goodness and for the wonderful things You do for people. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ¹⁶For You break the prison doors that enslave them and cut through the iron bars that bind them up. {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12}

¹⁷They became fools by their transgressions and suffered because of their iniquities. ¹⁸They didn't want to eat anything and almost entered the gates of death. ¹⁹Then they cried unto You in their trouble and You saved them out of their distress. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ²⁰You sent Your Word to heal them; You rescued them from destruction. ²¹Oh, that all people would praise You for Your goodness and wonderful works to them ²²and sacrifice thank offerings to You and declare Your works with praise songs. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

³³You turn rivers into a desert and flowing springs into dry ground. ³⁴Because of the wickedness of those in the land a fruitful place became barren. ³⁵You can also turn the wilderness into wetlands and pour water on dry sandy soil. {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6} ³⁶You can bring the hungry to live there so they can build a city to live in. ³⁷They can plant their fields and vineyards that will yield an abundant harvest. ³⁸You can bless them and increase their number and not let their herds diminish. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

³⁹But they can also decrease and become weak when they choose affliction, opposition, and sorrow. ⁴⁰You can humble the proud rulers; You can let them wander lost in the wilderness. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ⁴¹But You establish the humble on high and increase their family like flocks. ⁴²The righteous see what You do and rejoice, but the wicked refuse to acknowledge You.

⁴³Those who are wise observe these things; they understand the loving way You do things. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

Because God has redeemed us and cleansed us from sin, we should be so grateful that we tell everyone, "Let the redeemed of the LORD say so" (v. 2, NKJV). Our outward life should reflect our inward joy, then God will use us as a testimony to others. Lord, I thank You for redeeming me; I tell You now. And I will tell unsaved people so they will come to know You. Amen.

Psalm 108 A Prayer for Divine Help in Battle

¹My heart is fixed, O God; I will sing to You with all my heart. ²I will awake early to praise You; I will awaken to the harp and guitar to do it. ³I will praise You among the people, O Lord; I will sing to You among the unsaved {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ⁴for Your love is great, higher than the heavens and Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

⁵I exalt You, O God, above the skies; let Your glory spread over all the earth. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁶Come and save me with Your right hand; deliver those You love.

⁷You have spoken in Your sanctuary; You appointed Shechem and the Valley of Succoth. ⁸Gilead and Manasseh are Yours, Ephraim is Your crown, Judah Your scepter. ⁹You tossed out Moab, and wiped Your feet on Edom; You conquered Philistia. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

¹⁰Who will bring me into a secure city and who will lead me in victory over Moab? ¹¹Will You not do it for us, O Lord, You who rejected us because of our sin, You who no longer fight with our armies? ¹²Help us in our struggle with the enemy for human help is not enough. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ¹³With You,

O God, we will do valiantly, for You will stomp on our enemies.

When we face an obstacle or an enemy, we can call on God for help. Just as God has helped us in the past, He will come to our rescue. The nature of who God is and what He does, tells us He will help. Lord, help! I have big problems, and little problems. Help! Amen.

Psalm 109 A Prayer of Judgment on Your Enemies

¹O God, I praise You; do not keep silent when I need You. ²The wicked, deceitful enemy attacks me; he is lying about me. ³He hates everything I do {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} and he opposes me for no reason at all. ⁴He returned evil when I gave him my friendship; now I can do nothing but pray about it. 5He has rewarded my good with evil, he hated the love I showed to him. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} 6Raise up the evil person to oppose him; let satan the accuser stand at his right hand. 7Judge him and declare him guilty and may his cry for mercy condemn him. 8Let his days be few and let someone else take his place. 9Let his children be fatherless and let his wife be a widow.

¹⁰May his children be wandering street people; drive them desolate from their homes. ¹¹May the creditors seize all his assets and may looters plunder all he has left. ¹²Don't let anyone show him mercy, nor extend help to his children. ¹³May his descendants be destroyed and may his family name be terminated.

¹⁴May the iniquity of his father be remembered before You, Lord; may the sins of his mother never be forgiven. 15 Always remember his sin, O Lord, but don't let anyone on earth remember that he ever lived. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} 16My enemy didn't show mercy to the poor, but tormented continuously the needy and discouraged. 17He loved to curse, so curse him continuously; he hated to bless, so don't bless him. 18He covered himself with vile language; he drank it in like water. 19 May his swearing words choke him like a scarf, may his filthy speech squeeze him like a tight belt. 20Let all this be my adversary's reward because he cursed me as I lived for You. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ²¹But You, Lord God, have been good to me. For Your name's sake You have delivered me; {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} You have shown Your goodness and love to me. ²²I am defenseless and needy; all hope in my heart had collapsed. ²³I was fading away like the evening shadows; I was shaken like a grasshopper in the storm. ²⁴I was weak because of fasting for answers and my body was emaciated and anemic. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ²⁵Everyone was ridiculing me; they shook their heads in disbelief when they saw me. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

²⁶Help me, O Lord, God; save me by Your mercy. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ²⁷May they see Your hand working in my life and understand what You have done for me. ²⁸They may curse me, but You bless me; put them to shame when they attack me but let me rejoice in Your presence. ²⁹Wrap them in the coats of embarrassment and cover them with disgrace. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁰I will worship You with my mouth; I will praise You among the congregation {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ³¹for You stand at the right hand of this needy person to protect me from the condemnation of my enemy.

The word "imprecate" means to call down punishment or evil on another, that is, to invoke judgment on him for his evil or persecution of you. These psalms are hard to interpret in light of (1) God's forgiveness; (2) the fact that the believer is told to love and pray for his enemies (Luke 6:27-28); (3) the fact that believers are not to recompense evil for evil (Rom. 12:17); and; (4) believers are to live peacefully with everyone (Rom. 12:18-21). How do we explain David praying judgment and punishment on His enemies? Some say God was judgmental in the Old Testament, but after the death of Christ, God looks on people in mercy. But this doesn't seem to be the answer. Also some say this was the cry of David in a moment of weakness and vindication; this was not a godly prayer but the prayer of backslidden David. However, this is not the answer either. Why would God include in the Bible a wrongly phrased prayer for us to pray? Perhaps the answer lies in the context: (1) David is praying, against those who were enemies of God (not just David); (2) David was praying for God to do what God had promised to do to the enemies of God; (3) David was expressing human emotions in the flesh, just as we might express the same emotions; and (4) David was not expressing his anger or revenge, but was praying for his enemies to suffer the same punishment they inflict on others. David wanted his enemies to suffer the wages of their sin. Lord, I pray for my enemies to be saved, and for You to prosper their life. But when they persecute me, I pray for them and bless them. Amen.

Psalm 110 A Prayer for Jesus to Reign

¹Lord, You said for Jesus to come sit at Your right hand while You put His enemies under Your feet. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ²Lord, You extended Your powerful scepter out from Zion to rule over all Your enemies.

³Your people will serve You in the day of battle. They will be beautifully dressed in holiness to serve You from the dawn of the morning until the dew finishes the day. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ⁴Lord, You have vowed and will not change Your mind that Jesus will be a priest forever; He serves according to the order of Melchizedek. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

⁵Lord, Jesus will be at Your right hand to crush the kings who oppose Him. ⁶Jesus will judge all the nations, those who rebel will die; the rulers of great countries will be destroyed. ⁷He will drink from the brook after the task; His head will be exalted in victory. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

When Jesus is given the rulership of all heaven and earth, every tongue (including all the unsaved) will cry out in praise, "Jesus Christ is Lord" (Phil. 2:11, NKJV) and fall on their faces to worship Him. Lord, I want to be there to see this coronation, and I want to join my voice with the total population of all people to praise my Savior. Amen.

Psalm 111 A Prayer of Thanksgiving Because You Understand and Follow God's Principles

¹I praise You, Lord; I magnify You with all my heart. I praise You, Lord, in the assembly of true worshipers.

²Great are your works, O Lord; I meditate on them with other worshipers. ³You do things gloriously and majestically, Your righteousness never fails. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ⁴I cannot forget the wonders You do; You are gracious and merciful to me. ⁵You give food to those who trust You, who always live by the principles You gave us. ⁶You have displayed Your great power to us, giving us the land of other people.

⁷All You do is just and good; I confidently live by all Your principles. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ⁸Your truth is forever trustworthy; You gave it to us in Your integrity. You redeemed Your people; You guaranteed to keep us forever. Holy and revered is Your name; I begin to understand true wisdom.

¹⁰All who live by Your principles are rewarded by true wisdom. Praise Your name forever. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

Reverence is an attitude of the heart that demands great respect in relationship to the greatness of the one who deserves our respect. Since God has the greatest power, glory, and wisdom, He must have reverence of all in the universe. Lord, I bow in reverential worship before You. I don't deserve any grace that You've given, so I humbly say thank You for all I have and am. Amen.

Psalm 112 A Prayer for a Godly Testimony

¹Lord, I praise You for blessing me when I fear You, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} for blessing me when I delight in Your Word. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} ²You have promised my children will be influential; You will bless them when they do right. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ³You have promised to bless me with wealth and riches when I continually live righteously. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} ⁴Help me to be upright as a light in darkness and to be gracious and compassionate to all. ⁵Lord, help me graciously give to the needy and guide my life with truth. ⁶Then I shall not be shaken and my righteousness will be remembered forever. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ⁷Lord, I will not be afraid of bad news; help me to be steadfast in trusting You.

⁸Help me to be established and not afraid and let me triumph over my enemies.

PLord, I want to give to the poor; I want my testimony to endure forever. I want You to honor me. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁰Let my wicked enemies see it and be terrified of coming judgment. Let them gnash their teeth in fear to realize they will perish. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

Lord, thank You for Your blessing that gives me happiness. My joy comes directly from Your hand. You have blessed me because I followed You wholeheartedly. Amen.

Psalm 113 A Prayer of Praise to God

¹Lord, I praise Your holy name; I come with Your servants to praise You. ²Lord, I bless Your name; I bless You both now and forever. {46 Blessing the Lord-Worship, Ps. 103:1} ³From the rising of the sun until its going down, I praise Your name, O Lord. ⁴You are exalted above the nations, O Lord; Your glory is above the heavens. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ⁵Who can be compared to You, our Lord and God; You sit on Your throne. ⁶You descend to examine the affairs on both heaven and earth. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

⁷You lift up the poor from the ground and raise the needy from despair. ⁸You set them among the honored ones, even among the leaders of their people.

⁹You give a home to the woman without children so she can be a mother. Lord, I praise You. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

Lord, I praise You because of Your greatness and for the way You show love to Your people. I praise You for the way You show Your power. Amen.

Psalm 114 A Prayer that Recognizes the Power of God's Presence

¹Lord, You dwelt in Israel as Your sanctuary when the nation left Egypt. ²You made the house of Jacob Your dominion {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} when Your people left those speaking a strange language.

³The Red Sea saw You coming and parted for Israel to cross. The Jordan River acknowledged Your presence and the waters rolled back. ⁴The mountains skipped like happy rams and the hills played like little lambs. ⁵Why did this happen that the Red Sea parted and that the Jordan backed up? ⁶Why did the mountains skip like rams and the little hills play like lambs?

⁷Because of Your presence, O Lord, {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} let the earth tremble when You come near. ⁸You brought pools of water from the Rock of Meribah; water poured out from a solid rock.

Lord, I praise You for Your presence that delivered Israel from Egypt. Thank You for living among Your people. Amen.

Psalm 115 A Life of Praise for God's Blessing

¹Not to me, O Lord, goes the glory; but I glorify You because of Your name. Not to me goes glory, but to You because of Your mercy and truth. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²Why are the pagan asking, "Where is the God of His followers?" ³For You, O God, are in the heavens; You do whatever You want to do. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁴Their gods are nothing but silver and gold idols, the workmanship of their hands. ⁵They have mouths, but cannot speak; eyes have they, but cannot see. ⁶They have ears, but they cannot hear; noses have they, but cannot smell.

⁷They have hands, but they cannot handle; feet have they, but cannot walk; nor can they speak intelligently. ⁸Those who create idols make them like themselves and those who trust idols are only worshiping themselves. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ⁹Israel must trust in You, Lord, {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} for You are their help and protection. ¹⁰The priest must trust in You, Lord, for You are their help and protection. ¹¹All those who acknowledge You, Lord, must trust You for help and protection.

¹²Lord, remember and bless us accordingly; bless the house of Israel and bless the priests who serve You. ¹³Bless all those who acknowledge You; bless small and great alike. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹⁴Lord, prosper my life with Your blessing, both me and my children. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁵May I be blessed by You, O Lord, Maker of Heaven and earth. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4}

¹⁶The highest heaven belongs to You, O Lord, but You have given the earth to us. ¹⁷The dead cannot sing praises to You, O Lord, for they are silent in the grave. ¹⁸We the living bless You, O Lord, from this time into eternity. I praise You, O Lord. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

Lord, the world has its idols, but I reject them. I worship You, the only true God. You are my helper and protection. Amen.

Psalm 116 A Prayer of Gratitude for Deliverance

¹I love You, Lord, because You heard and answered my prayer. ²Because You listened to me, I will pray to You as long as I live. ³I was scared to death {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} and thought I was going to die. I was so worried I couldn't think straight. ⁴Then I called on You, O Lord, "Please come and save me." {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

⁵Lord, You are gracious and kind. You were merciful to me. ⁶Lord, You protect those with simple faith; when I was in trouble, You saved me. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ⁷Once again I am peaceful because You have been good to me.

⁸You kept me from dying and I no longer cry. ⁹So now I walk in Your presence {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} among the land of the living. ¹⁰Because I believe in You, I told You all my troubles. ¹¹When I was upset I complained to You that all men are liars.

¹²What can I do for You, Lord, for all You have done for me? ¹³All I can do is drink from Your cup of salvation and praise Your name for saving me. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ¹⁴I will keep my promises to You, O Lord, in the presence of Your people. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁵The ones who are faithful to the end are precious to You when they die. ¹⁶O Lord, precious to You when they die. ¹⁶O Lord, I am Your servant, the son of Your handmaid; You have given me freedom in serving You. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ¹⁷I will worship You with the sacrifice of thanksgiving {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} and call on Your name, O Lord.

¹⁸I will keep my promises to You, O Lord, in the presence of Your people in the heart of Jerusalem. ¹⁹In the courts of Your house, praise Your name, O Lord. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

Lord, I thank You for saving me from sin, and thank You for saving me from physical death, even those times when death was close, and I didn't know it; You saved me. Amen.

Psalm 117 A Prayer of Praise from All People

¹We praise You, Lord, with the different ethnic groups of the earth; we praise You with all people of the earth

The psalmist got strength from praying to God in the mountains. Perhaps he was drawn to the mountains where he grew up, as though the strength and endurance of the mountains were an extension of his life, and he needed renewal from them. (I grew up near the ocean in Savannah, Georgia. The deep waters that threatened to drown me became an extension of my life as I learned the skill of swimming. Now, I get strength watching waves rhythmically rise and fall. Just walking the beach to pray to God renews my spiritual strenght.) Where do you find spiritual renewal? Lord, it's not a location, but it's You who draws me to certain places. I go there for worship and fellowship. I return to a church building where I was pointed to Christ. I return to a college campus where I learned to pray. It's You who draws me to some places. Amen.

³I look to You, O Lord, my God, that You would show me mercy. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} Be gracious to me, O Lord; be gracious for I can't stand rejection. ⁴I have been criticized by the proud and I have been rejected by the arrogant.

Psalm 124 A Prayer of Gratitude for Deliverance

¹If You had not been on my side— Lord, I tell everyone who will listen. ²If You had not been on my side when my enemies attacked me, ³they would have swallowed me alive because their anger was so hot against me. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ⁴The waters would have drowned me, the torrent would have flooded my soul. ⁵The angry waters from the storm would have overwhelmed my life. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

Lord, thank You for saving me when I was in trouble. I praise You for the many times You've delivered me when I've almost been overwhelmed. Amen.

Psalm 125 A Prayer for Peace for the Godly ¹Because I trust in You, Lord, I am as secure as Mount Zion. I will not be shaken, but will abide forever. ²Just as the mountains surround Jerusalem to give it protection, so You, Lord, surround and protect Your people. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³The wicked will not rule the godly lest they make the godly do evil. ⁴O Lord, do good to those who are good, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} to those whose hearts are upright.

Lord, give me spiritual prosperity on this earth, and prosper me after death when I live with You. Amen.

Psalm 127 A Prayer of Gratitude for Your Family

¹Except You build the family, Lord, {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} the work of the workers is useless. Unless You watch over the city, Lord, the watch of the watchman is in vain. ²It is useless to toil and work, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} getting up early and staying up late, worrying about getting enough food to eat because You supply the needs of those You love.

³Lord, You give children as a gift; {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} the fruit of the womb is Your reward. ⁴Like weapons in the hands of a warrior are children born to a wise family. ⁵Blessed is the man whose quiver is full {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} because his children defend him against his accuser.

Lord, grow my family, and protect them from evil. Bless my family with spiritual prosperity and be glorified in all we do. Amen.

⁵May those who hate Your people be defeated and embarrassed. ⁶May they be like grass without roots that withers because it can't grow. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ⁷May reapers reject them at harvest because they are not good for anything. ⁸May no one passing by bless my enemies, nor say, "The blessing of the Lord's name upon them." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

PROVERBS

Key Word: Wisdom (occurs 54 times) in Proverbs (Proverbs 1:2)

Key Verse: "Happy is the man who finds wisdom, and the man who gains understanding" (3:13, NKJV).

Theme: A proverb usually expresses familiar truth in a popularly known way and is expressed in simple metaphorical truth so that people may apply or honor its teaching. The thrust of Proverbs is "apply your heart to wisdom, that you may gain understanding." This is another way of saying learn to think what is right, so you'll do what is right.

God didn't include a lot of things in Proverbs. There is no plan of salvation, doctrine, and messianic predictions. You'll get these topics in other books of the Bible. Also there are no plots or storyline and no individuals identified by name in Proverbs, except Solomon, Bathsheba, Ithiel, and Ucal. Proverbs gets its points across by brief, one or two-line declarations of truth to illustrate proper living. Personalities are described but are not involved in parables or conversations with each other, nor do they refer to actual persons. They are descriptions of actions or attitudes that we should follow or reject to have a good life.

You're holding in your hands a book that could change your life. If you will honestly pray the Proverbs, you will gain wisdom; it will help you live better. And wisdom is truth applied to daily life. Lord, give me wisdom so I will know the right way to live, then give me strength to live rightly. Amen.

Proverbs 1 A Father Teaches—Be Wise

help me learn and obey Your requirements 2so I will always know what to do. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 3Give me all the wisdom I need so I will always be fair and impartial. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 4Help me teach those who don't know all they need to know and do. 5Help me carefully listen and learn and become more understanding so I will always do the right thing. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 6Help me gain much counsel from the wise so I can become a smart person, and learn to understand things that are difficult. {456

Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

⁷Lord, I know all wisdom is in You. Help me understand Your ways and not be rebellious to despise Your direction. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁸Help me listen to You as a father and obey You as a mother.

⁹May others see Your principles guiding my life and may they glorify Your beauty. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

¹⁰Lord, help me resist the temptation of sinners and not give in to them. 11When sinners want me to make illegal money and take advantage of innocent people, may I resist their temptation. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹²Because when I destroy the lives of other people, I am really condemning my own life, 13 even when sinners promise me exorbitant riches and a wealthy home and furnishings 14 and they promise to share their wealth with me. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹⁵Lord, I remember You said, "Stay away from them. Don't be like them or obligate yourself to them" 16 for they really intend to break every law and suck the life out of innocent people. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} 17Every plan they make to catch someone snares them into their own addiction. ¹⁸And the happiness they plan to steal from others destroys any chance of enjoying it in their greed. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹Lord, I see the eyes of honesty weeping over the crimes she sees in life.

²⁰Honesty cries for crimes to be punished. ²¹And I hear the voice of honesty crying in the empty courts of justice; ²²"How long will evil run rampant?" Honesty cries. "How long will skeptics be skeptical? How long will rebels hate God's ways?" {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ²³Lord, You call us to return to You; {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} You promise to pour Your Spirit on us; {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} You promise to teach us Your ways. ²⁴Lord, when You call to the rebel, You also stretch out Your hand to him; ²⁵but the rebel not only rejects Your ways, he is also determined to do the exact opposite and completely rejects all You stand for. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ²⁶Therefore You will turn Your back when he is punished. You will say, "You got what you wanted." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁷Then the rebel will be scared to death and the consequences of his sin rip him apart when he cries out in anguish.

²⁸He'll cry out for mercy but he'll not get it; he'll seek You but You'll not be found. There is no second chance in hell ²⁹because the rebel hated Your way of life and would not listen and learn from You. He rejected Your plans for his life ³⁰and refused to do what You wanted him to do. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

A fool is a man or woman who refuses to follow common sense, who refuses to obey the rules, and who refuses to do the things we call wise. The fool has rejected God; "The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God" (Ps. 14:1). "They hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD" (Prov. 1:29). Rather than doing the right thing, the fool would rather do selfish things, or do what makes him happy, or what satisfies the flesh. Because the fool marches to his own drumbeat, he hates rules and laws. The fool wants to do things that transgress the law (Prov. 10:23; 13:19; 29:27). Lord, I want to honor You in all I do. Keep me from doing foolish things. I say "no" to selfish desires, and I say "yes" to Your plan for my life. Amen.

³¹Therefore he shall bear the consequences of his sin. He shall suffer the misery he gives others; his vile trespass shall be his own punishment. ³²Lord, because Your children turn to You this shall be proof that the wicked could have repented. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Lord, Your prosperity on the righteous should have warned the wicked to change. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³³But Lord, those who listen and learn from Your instructions shall be safe in Your presence, and shall be delivered from evil.

Lord, help me learn and obey Your requirements, so I will always know what to do. Give me all the wisdom I need so I will always be fair and impartial. Help me teach those who don't know all they need to know and do. Help me carefully listen and learn, and become more understanding so I will always do the right thing. Help me gain much counsel from the wise so I can become wise, and learn to understand things that are difficult. Amen.

Proverbs 2 Good Decisions Will Treat You Right

¹Lord, I receive Your Word as a child receives instruction from a parent. I hide Your instructions deep within my heart. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} ²I will open my ears to hear and understand Your wisdom. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ³I will passionately seek to know You and tell others what I understand. 4I want Your knowledge more than money and more than a hidden pot of gold. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} ⁵Lord, teach me to reverence Your ways and know how You want me to live. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} So give me wisdom to know You and obey what You tell me to do. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} Lord, I know there is abundant wisdom for those who seek to live the right way; ⁷and You protect those who know You, who attempt to walk the right way. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} You show the right paths to those who make right decisions. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 8Lord, when I honestly seek to do the right thing, Your Spirit helps me to know what to do, and He guides me in good paths. 9When I experience Your wisdom, I direct my life correctly and I enjoy fellowship with You. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

¹⁰When I experience Your wisdom, I don't make bad decisions and I don't make mistakes. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ¹¹Then evil people don't take advantage of me ¹²nor do they talk me into making bad decisions. ¹³Evil people reject Your ways of thinking and refuse to live by Your principles. ¹⁴Evil people also love to think evil and do evil ¹⁵and brag about it to everyone. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

¹⁶Lord, deliver me from a flirtatious trollop who tries to flatter me with her words. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹⁷She had rejected the right way about sex and turned her back on Your rules of purity. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁸A man is heading toward a disastrous death when he has sex with her. ¹⁹No one who goes to bed with her can be blameless in his own eyes; he is headed toward hell. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

The loose woman described in Proverbs is a trollop which Webster defines as "A slovenly, dirty woman, a sexually promiscuous woman, a prostitute." The word trollop comes from troll, which is pulling a lure used to catch fish. Contemporary synonyms for trollop are slut, hussy, adulteress, fornicator. American high schoolers would call another girl a "ho" who acts like a harlot. A trollop never thinks about her own spiritual condition, nor the fate of what will happen to her body or soul (5:6; 9:13). Nor does she tell the men whom she seduces that they are being led inevitably to destruction (2:18, 19; 6:26; 7:22, 23; 9:18).

²⁰But when I obey Your wisdom, O Lord, I am headed toward eternal life. I am on the right path, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col.

2:6} ²¹because those who follow Your principles will enter into fellowship with You {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} and stay there so long as they obey You. ²²But the rebellious will eventually die and not enjoy fellowship with You. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Proverbs 3 Learning from Correction

¹Lord, I will not forget Your principles, but I will live the way You direct. ²I know that Your principles will give me satisfaction and help me live a long time. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

³Don't let Your mercy and truth forsake me. I will post Your laws where I will constantly see them and will meditate on them continually. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} ⁴I know when Your principles control my thought processes; You'll add value to my life and others will respect my commitment to truth. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

⁵Lord, I will trust in You with all my heart. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ⁶I will not lean on the old way of doing things nor will I make decisions apart from You. In all my actions I will acknowledge You, and You will direct my paths. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

⁷I will not do things my own way nor prize my opinions over Yours. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} I will reverence You in all I do and separate myself from all appearances of evil. ⁸Your paths shall make me wise and healthy; Your ways shall make me strong. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁹Lord, I give You all that I have; I will bring a tithe of everything to You. ¹⁰You promise that my checking account will have enough; You will meet all my needs as they come. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

¹¹Lord, I will not complain when You punish me because I know You correct wrong actions. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹²I know You're my heavenly Father who loves and cares for me, and You correct me when I disobey, just as an earthly father corrects his child. {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2}

¹³I'll rejoice when I find Your principles and know how to direct my life. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} 14Your correction is a valuable gift, better than a gift of money. ¹⁵Your correction is better than expensive jewelry; nothing can compare to Your care of me. When I do the things You teach me, {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁶I'll live longer than those who reject Your way and I'll be more satisfied than a rich person. I'll be more honored than a famous person. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁷And I'll have a pleasant life; I'll live in peace. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁸Your principles can give everyone a good life; everyone can enjoy Your happiness. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁹Lord, You created natural laws to rule the earth. Your principles guide the universe. ²⁰You had a reason for creating the seas, and You directed rain to fall on the earth.

²¹Since You have the power and wisdom to create all things, I won't neglect Your laws for me; I will live by Your principles. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ²²Lord, I know Your laws will enrich my life; they help me do all I should do. ²³Your principles guide my daily life; they keep me from making terrible mistakes. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 24When I lie down to go to sleep at night, my conscience won't keep me awake. ²⁵And I will trust You when the wicked come, bringing sudden terror and destruction. ²⁶Because I have yielded to Your paths, {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} You will not let anything happen to me that is not within Your plan.

²⁷Lord, I will not withhold good from anyone who is entitled to it, when I am able to give it. ²⁸I will not tell the needy to go away and come back tomorrow, if I can give them help immediately. {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ²⁹I will not plan to hurt my neighbor who lives peaceably with me. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ³⁰I will not fuss needlessly with anyone when there is no reason to disagree.

³¹I will not look up to oppressive people nor follow their example ³²because I know they are an abomination to You and You have cursed them. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ³³Lord, You have told me inwardly how to live and You bless the home of those who live right.

³⁴I know You scorn the scorner and You give grace to the humble. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ³⁵You give honor to those who honor You while You neglect those who neglect You. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, You have told me inwardly how to live and You bless the home of those who live right. I know You scorn the scorner and You give grace to the humble. You give honor to those who honor You while You neglect those who neglect You. Amen.

Proverbs 4 Listening to Parents' Advice

¹Lord, I will listen to the instructions of my father in order to gain understanding, ²because I know I have a good life when I don't go against his advice. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} 3My father was once a child to his father, and my mother loved me tenderly. 4He wanted me to respect his advice so I could have a happy and prosperous life. 5My father told me to acquire as much education as I could master, and not go against the things I learned. 6He told me to guard the way I think and it would guard my life. {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} 7Lord, the first thing I want to get is wisdom and make sure I apply it to my life. 8When I make understanding first in my life, it will make me first in the lives of others. 9My understanding will make me honorable, when I honor the pursuit of wisdom. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

¹⁰Lord, I will learn wisdom from my father so I will live a long life. ¹¹My father endeavored to teach me the right things so I could live the right way. ¹²Then when I walk, my steps won't stumble; and when I run, I'll not fall down. ¹³I'll learn from my father's discipline and not forget how he directed me, for it is the essence of my life's purpose. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

¹⁴Lord, I'll not follow wicked people, nor will I do things evil people do. ¹⁵I'll avoid what they do and go the opposite way ¹⁶for they can't rest well unless they have rebelled against the law and have caused others to do the same thing. ¹⁷Their whole passion is doing their own thing and causing others to rebel against Your ways. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

¹⁸Lord, I know the path of people who do right gets brighter every day and leads toward the shining light. {527 Walk in the Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 5:16, 25} ¹⁹But the path of those who do wicked things gets darker all the time, and eventually they stumble in their night. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁰Lord, I will pay attention to what my father says and listen to his wise advice.

²¹I will not turn away from his counsel nor will I refuse to listen to his direction,

²²because his instructions will make things easier and will enrich all I do in life. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

²³Lord, I will focus my heart on You because my heart guides all that I do. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁴Lord, I will guard my mouth from evil speaking and will always tell the truth. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

²⁵I will also guard my eyes, so that I will not look on evil to lust after it. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ²⁶I'll always follow the right paths according to where my heart directs me. ²⁷I'll not turn to the left or right and I'll always turn away from evil. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

Lord, above everything else I do, I will guard my heart, for it directs all I do in life. I'll always tell the truth according to what I know in my heart. I'll always follow the right paths according to where my heart directs me. I'll not turn to the left or right and I'll always turn away from evil. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Amen.

Proverbs 5 Beware of the Trollop

¹⁵I realize I must drink from my own well ¹⁶and not sacrifice my life to the lust of the flesh. ¹⁷I must preserve my own self-esteem and not give it away. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁸Then You will bless my decisions and I will rejoice with my spouse. ¹⁹She shall give me comfort and strength and I will be happy with her, and we will be happy with each other. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ²⁰Lord, I will not be ravished with a whorish woman nor find my love with a trollop. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

²¹Every one of my actions is always seen by You and You know everything I do. ²²Those who sin against you, shall be a prisoner to their iniquity; their lust shall become their punishment. ²³They shall die without knowing anything better; and the greatest consequence of their sin is that it drives them away from You. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I will not be ravished with a whorish woman nor find my love with a trollop.

Every one of my actions is always seen by You, and You know everything I do. Those who sin against You will be a prisoner to their iniquity; their lust shall become their punishment. They shall die without knowing anything better; and the greatest consequence of their sin is that it drives them away from You. Amen.

Proverbs 6 Work Hard and Watch Out for ¹Lord, I will not co-sign a friend's loan, nor will I shake hands on a bad deal ²because my agreement will become a trap and my words will come back to haunt me. ³I will get out of every bad arrangement; then I won't lose my friends when they try to take advantage of me. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁴Lord, I will be responsible for my livelihood; I won't sleep when I should work. ⁵I won't get caught in a bad deal when the swindler tries to trap me.

⁶I will learn from the industrious ants who have learned to work diligently, ⁷even when no one makes them work. ⁸They work continually in the summer so they'll have food after the harvest is over. ⁹I will not be a lazy sluggard, but will awaken to carry out my responsibilities. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁰The sluggard closes his eyes to his job; he folds his hands instead of working. ¹¹He shall be poor because of his procrastination as though a thief has stolen everything he possessed.

¹²Lord, I will not be a wicked man who makes promises he doesn't plan to keep, ¹³who winks his eye at evil, yet sins with his hands and feet. ¹⁴I will not plan evil to get ahead, nor will I entertain myself with sin. ¹⁵I know the evil man will be judged suddenly; his punishment will break him in two. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹⁶Lord, I know You hate six things, and the seventh is an abomination to You. ¹⁷First, is an arrogant attitude {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} and second, a lying tongue. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} Third, You hate hands that shed innocent blood, 18 and fourth, You hate a heart that thinks evil. The fifth are feet that lead to trouble, ¹⁹ and sixth, is a false witness who tells lies. The seventh is the worst of all, the gossip who continually stirs up trouble among brethren. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18} ²⁰Lord, I will keep my father's rules, and will not displease my mother. 21I will memorize them carefully 22 and repeat

I want them to lead me to success, and keep me when I sleep and refresh me when I awake. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} them daily as I try to live right.

²³Lord, Your commands are a light to my feet and light to my path. Your commands correct me when I stray, and will renew my life. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

²⁴Lord, let Your commands keep me from a trollop who will flatter to seduce me. ²⁵I will not lust after her beauty, nor will her fluttering eyelids tempt me. ²⁶A man will not be worth two cents who falls to the temptation of a whorish woman because the adulteress woman will snare his life. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

²⁷Can I put fire inside my shirt without burning my clothes? ²⁸Can I walk on flaming hot coals without burning my feet? ²⁹Neither can I have sex with another woman without searing my conscience and reputation. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

³⁰Lord, people do not hate a thief who steals because he is hungry. ³¹But when a thief is caught, he must repay sevenfold for his crime. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³²He who has sex outside his marriage must pay restitution like the thief; he may have to sacrifice all the wealth he has accumulated. He who commits adultery is a fool; he destroys himself.

³³He will get nothing but punishment and embarrassment and he will never forget his escapade. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ³⁴Because jealousy boils over into rage, the offended man will not show mercy when he takes revenge. ³⁵He will not accept your apology, nor any other way you try to appease him. {116 Difficulties-Prayer, Ps. 40:2}

Lord, let Your commands keep me from a trollop who will flatter to seduce me. I will not lust after her beauty, nor will her fluttering eyelids tempt me. A man will be worth nothing if he falls to the temptation of a whorish woman, because she will snare his life. Can I put fire inside my shirt without burning my clothes? Can I walk on flaming hot coals without burning my feet? Neither can I have sex with another woman without searing my conscience and reputation. Amen.

Proverbs 7 A Description of One Who Despises Wisdom

¹Lord, I will obey the directions of my father and not forget what he expects of me. ²I will obey the commands in every area of life and will not shut my eyes to any directive. ³Like a string tied on my finger, my heart will never forget them; ⁴and wisdom will talk to me like an older sister, so I will please my whole family. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ⁵Lord, Your wisdom will keep me from the seductive trollop who will tempt me with her flattery. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

trailer trash. 12 She did not value her home or reputation but prowled the bars to pick up men. ¹³She flirted with the naive youth and blew him a kiss, then winked at him. 14"We're made for each other," she coaxed him; then she said, "Where have you been all my life? 15I've been looking for someone like you," she continued, "now I'm not going to let you get away! 16 You'll love my apartment," as she invited him to her place. "It's here a man can really feel happy. ¹⁷Let's spend the night together," she tempted him. 18"We will experience more exciting love than we've had with anyone else." {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} 19She told the gullible youth, "My man is gone and won't return until next week. ²⁰He's got a lot to do in another town and no one will ever know." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

²¹Because the trollop knows the weaknesses of men, the naïve youth helplessly gives into her offer. ²²He follows her like a fatted animal to its slaughter or like a convicted felon to the electric chair. ²³He takes a bullet in his gut, and like a fish swallowing a lure, he never realizes she leads to death. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

²⁴Lord, I will seek out wise advice and do exactly as I am told. ²⁵I will not reject good counsel, nor will I turn my back on godly advisers. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁶I know the trollop has wounded many gullible men; she's even destroyed strong men. ²⁷Her bed is not heaven, but hell; it leads straight to death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Proverbs 8 A Defense of Right Thinking

¹Lord, I know I should think my thoughts after You; Your principles call to me. 2I see Your principles in the ways of life and when I face the crossroads of decisions. 3I think of Your principles when I leave to go out, and when I return home. ⁴And to everyone else Your principles are self-evident but many refuse to obey Your logic. ⁵Why don't the untaught learn from You, why don't the fools pay attention? 6Everyone should listen to Your noble principles and do what is right 7because Your principles are the right way to live, and they are the opposite of evil. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 8Lord, all Your principles are right; no one will go astray who obeys Your words. 9Those with understanding know Your words are true, and those who discover them find right knowledge. 10I will choose Your instruction instead of silver; I want Your knowledge more than gold.

¹¹Because Your wisdom is better than jewels, nothing can be compared to true knowledge. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

¹²Wisdom will lead me to do the appropriate thing, and will help me solve problems, and be creative. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ¹³Lord, I reject pride, breaking Your law, and telling lies, I will always put You first in my life. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

Lord, I will always put You first in my life. You love those who follow Your principles and I will love wisdom to become smarter. I want godly character, inner peace, and Your happiness. Amen.

¹⁴Then I will have a basis for making good decisions and will live with confidence. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁵Good managers must follow true principles, and they must always choose to do right. 16 Managers-in-training must develop good principles if they will properly administer their task. ¹⁷Good principles will bless those who seek them, so I will seek God's wisdom to become wiser. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 18 Then I will become richer and wiser because I have inner strength that is greater than money. 19I will receive more than tangible goods and more than wages, stock options, and retirement benefits. ²⁰I will be guided by inner character and will do things right. 21 Then I'll have an inheritance for those who love me and will bless their lives. {337 Others-Prayer, Jude 22}

²²Lord, You were eternally wise long before You created everything. ²³You were directed by Your wisdom when You set up everything in the beginning. ²⁴Before there were ocean depths, and artesian springs, You did everything by the principles of Your wisdom. ²⁵Before mountains were brought forth, and hills created, You followed Your wisdom in doing things. ²⁶Before You created the earth and the fields, before You made the dust of the earth, ²⁷You established heaven as Your home and determined the constant direction of the compass. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} ²⁸You established the laws of nature by Your wisdom, and from it came the rain on the earth. ²⁹You established the boundary of creation so the seas don't come over the dry land. 30 You drew the blueprint of the universe by Your wisdom and the earth is controlled by Your principles. ³¹Now You rejoice in Your inhabited world and You delight in the children of mankind. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ³²And now You bless all who live by Your principles and listen to the wisdom of Your decisions. ³³Now You want everyone to seek Your wisdom and live in harmony with Your principles. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 34You have promised to bless those who listen to You and seek to do Your will daily, 35 because those who follow Your principles find life and enjoy You forever. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} ³⁶And those who ignore Your principles hurt themselves, and those who hate Your wisdom love death. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Proverbs 9 Foolish Thinking Leads to Destruction

¹Lord, I know that everything worthwhile in life is built on Your wise principles. ²Those who live wisely have plenty of meat to eat and plenty to drink and a table full of delicious desserts. ³Those who live wisely give good advice to others; they freely share what they have learned. ⁴Those who are gullible should learn from their wisdom; so should those who want to improve themselves. 5They should desire to learn as much as they hunger for a meal and seek wisdom as much as they thirst for water. 6Those who are foolish should repent of their stubborn ways and embrace Your wisdom. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} 7Lord, I know when I reprove scorners, they will hate my advice. 8When I instruct a wise man, I know he will listen to what I tell him because the wise man wants to learn from others so he can improve himself, his family, and his business. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

¹⁰Lord, it is wise to put You at the center of my life and I'll become holy as I follow Your principles. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹¹When I live wisely, I'll live longer and I'll enjoy the days You give me {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ¹²for Your wisdom will make me a better person, but the negative person makes his life more bitter. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

¹³Lord, I know when a woman is a foolish busybody; ¹⁴the more she listens to gossip, the dumber she becomes. ¹⁵She always runs to hear more gossip; yet she is both foolish and uneducated. ¹⁶Only naïve people listen to her. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} She delights to hear about those who are having an affair ¹⁷because she thinks stolen waters are sweet and bread eaten in secret is pleasurable. ¹⁸She doesn't realize she's enjoying gossiping about those who rebel against God and about those going to hell. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I will be wise and put You at the center of my life. I'll become holy as I follow Your principles. When I live wisely, I'll live longer; and I'll enjoy my life. Your wisdom will make me a better person, while the negative person makes his life more bitter. Amen.

Proverbs 10 Right Believing Leads to Success

¹Lord, I know wise sons please their fathers, but a foolish son weighs heavily on his mother.

²All the wealth of wickedness can't give inner happiness, but those who live right have peace the world can't enjoy. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ³Lord, I know You give a full life to those who live right, but the rebel will never find happiness.

⁶Lord, You add value to those who live by right principles, but those who rebel against Your laws suffer the consequences of their broken laws. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷I like to remember those who do their duty, but the memory of the rebel stinks. ⁸Those who are wise will try to do Your commands, but a bragging fool will fail to do right. ⁹Those who live uprightly will have confidence, but those who undermine the steps of others will eventually fail at all they do.

¹⁰Those who overlook the sins of others and their mistakes will eventually suffer for their oversight.

¹¹Those who speak the right things will help others and those who condone breaking Your principles will eventually suffer the violence of those broken laws. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹²Those who love, overlook the faults of others, but those who hate, stir up strife. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

¹³Lord, I find wise thinking in wise men, but the fool who rejects good advice deserves the punishment he receives.

¹⁴Wise men want to learn more wise things, but fools don't care about learning anything; they are destroying any chance of a good life.

¹⁵A wise man has many kinds of treasures; they protect him in many ways, but the fool has only his poverty which cannot protect him from destruction.

¹⁶The life work of those who do right gives them the life they want to live. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} The sin of a fool is simply doing nothing, and the laziness of a fool gives him nothing. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

¹⁷Lord, those who follow Your unchangeable principles are walking in the way of eternal life. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17}

¹⁹The more some people try to explain away their failure, the more I know they are lying. ²⁰The works of people who do right are worth lots of money, but the heart of an evil man is not worth much. ²¹The speech of people who do right helps many, but people die who listen to the words of a fool. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

²³The fool has fun breaking Your laws, but those who give themselves to wisdom know better. ²⁴The wicked usually experience the thing he fears, and those who desire to do right usually get what they want in life. ²⁵The death of the wicked comes like a blowing wind; they are gone and nothing remains. Those who do right also die, but they leave a lasting influence on other people.

²⁶Those who are lazy sluggards are like a vile taste to the tongue, like smoke that irritates the eyes. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4}

but the strength of those who rebel against You will be gone.

³⁰Those who do right will speak right things, but the tongue of the wicked is worthless. ³¹Those who do right will know what to say, but those who do evil never have the right words. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ³²Those who do right will live forever, but those who do wickedness will not inhabit the earth.

me when I want to know the truth, but You allow liars to be destroyed by their lies. ⁷When the wicked are destroyed, their expectations on this earth are destroyed; so is their hope after death. ⁸But those who seek to be righteous will be saved, while the wicked will be destroyed. ⁹The lies of a hypocrite destroy his neighbor, but I will be delivered when I know the truth. ¹⁰The city rejoices when its inhabitants do right and they shout when rebels are punished. ¹¹A city is blessed when its people obey Your laws, but it is overthrown when they listen to the evil speech of the rebels. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

²²The wise can conquer strong warriors because he uses wisdom to undermine their fortifications. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

²³Lord, when I discipline my thinking and words, I will stay out of trouble.

²⁴Those who are guided by overwhelming conceit are arrogant rebels of Your expectations. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

The scoffer is actually a fool, but he expresses his arrogance in criticism, negative responses, mockery, or showing contempt for others. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} The scoffer is proud, and thinks he is always right. The scoffer's problem is pride, arrogance, and self-centeredness. According to the Proverbs, "A proud and haughty man—'Scoffer' is his name; he acts with arrogant pride" (Prov. 21:24). The scoffer criticizes others because he thinks his actions or decisions are better than anyone else's. He is negative because he thinks he is right and everyone else is wrong. The scoffer's problem is not seeing the contribution of others. The scoffer criticizes because he is blinded by his pride, and feels he is better than anyone else. Lord, search my heart to find pride, haughtiness, and a superior attitude toward others. Help me hate my sin as much as You do. Cleanse me from wicked thoughts and evil deeds. I want to stand clean before You. Amen.

²⁵The craving of a lazy man will eat him up because he is too lazy to work for the things he wants. ²⁶He will not pay the price because he is greedy, but the righteous have something to give. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} ²⁷Lord, you hate the good works of rebellious people, especially when they do them with ulterior motives.

²⁸A lying witness will eventually be punished, but those who know the truth will be allowed to speak.

²⁹A wicked man covers up his real feelings, but the upright plans to live right. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

³⁰Lord, no human plans that are made against You will eventually succeed in the long run.

³¹The battle armaments are prepared for war, but You are the One who gives victory. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Proverbs 22 What to Avoid in Life

²The rich and the poor have one thing in common; You made them both. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

⁹Lord, those who have a generous spirit add value to their lives because they share with the needy. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45}

¹⁰Lord, kick the sarcastic person out and people will stop fussing; also they will stop giving each other insults. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

¹¹Lord, those who are conscientious and give compliments will get the attention of the boss. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹²Lord, You protect the wise, right believing person and You upset the schemes of schemers. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹³Lord, the lazy man makes up hypothetical problems, complaining there's a lion in the street all because he's too lazy to do anything. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4}

¹⁴Lord, the mouth of the adulteress is a deep hole; those who are angry with You fall into it. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹⁵Lord, it's natural for a foolish child to do stupid things; he needs to be corrected to live a wise life. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1}

¹⁶It's not smart to make money off the poor and you'll lose the money you give to the rich. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

¹⁷Lord, I will pay attention when the wise instruct me so I can gain knowledge and wisdom.

¹⁸Because when I have the principles of wise people in my heart, I can explain why I live by God's rules.

¹⁹I will put my trust in the Lord alone and then I can tell others how to live for You.

{534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

²⁰Lord, Solomon has given us these worthwhile principles to instruct us how to live and to keep us out of trouble,

²¹So I can live with Your assurance, and tell others how You expect them to live. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

²²Lord, I will not take advantage of the helpless who cannot help themselves and I won't sue the poor to get my money ²³because You watch out for the poor and withhold blessings from those who oppress them. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

²⁴Lord, I will not hang out with angry people nor become close friends with hotheads, ²⁵because being around them will make me become like them, and I'll suffer the consequences of their mean-spiritedness. {453 Spiritual-Stability Prayer, Eph. 5:6}

²⁶Lord, I won't sign loan papers for those who ask me to guarantee a loan for them, because I'll eventually have to pay for them; ²⁷and if I don't have the money to pay their loan, my house and furniture will be repossessed. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

²⁸Lord, I won't move the ancient boundary markers that were set up by my ancestors, because the stability of the past guarantees my future. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ²⁹Lord, I want to be skilled at what I do so I will be recognized and promoted. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

Lord, Solomon has given us these worthwhile principles to instruct us how to live and to keep us out of trouble, so I can live with Your assurance, and tell others how You expect them to live. Amen.

Proverbs 23 Don't Lust for the Things that Evil People Get by Doing Evil

¹Lord, help me when I sit to eat with leaders to remember who I am with.

²Help me not to gorge my stomach with food so that I won't embarrass myself.

³Help me not to lust after delicacies; being greedy for dainties reveals my lack of character and is not healthy and nourishing. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

⁴Lord, help me not to exhaust myself pursuing money, but to be wise enough to control myself. Help me not to set my eyes on riches for I'll lose sight of everything else in life.

⁵Wealth is an elusive goal that has the wings of a bird; just when you think you have it, off it flies. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

⁶Lord, I'll not eat the food of a stingy man, nor be greedy for the delicacies of his table for he keeps count of all you eat; ⁷he says to us, "Eat and drink"; he doesn't mean it. ⁸For that which you eat, you have to repay; your compliments for his meal will be wasted. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen, 24:12-14}

⁹Lord, I'll not quietly correct a fool, for he will despise the common sense I give him. ¹⁰Lord, I won't move the ancient boundary stones to encroach on the property of another; ¹¹for You, Lord, are our Redeemer and You may take up the fight against us. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

¹²Lord, I will discipline my mind to learn knowledge and listen to hear words of wisdom. ¹³I will not withhold discipline from a child for if I correct him he will not die. ¹⁴But with correction he will learn wisdom and live. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

¹⁵Lord, I want my children to learn wisdom ¹⁶so that I'll be glad when they speak wise words.

¹⁷My heroes will not be those who despise Your law. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

¹⁸Lord, I'll follow the example of those who follow You, for a solid future is with those who fear You and I'll not be cut down in the prime of life. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

¹⁹I'll listen to wise men and become wise;
I'll set my mind on the right kind of life.
{449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

²⁰Lord, I'll not be addicted to guzzling strong drink nor will I eat like a pig; ²¹for both the drunkard and glutton will become poor and laziness will buy only rags to wear. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

²²Lord, I'll listen to my father who gave me life and I'll love my mother all her life.

{206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

²⁴Lord, the father of a son who lives right will rejoice and a wise son will make him glad.

²⁵So I will make my father and mother rejoice; they will be proud of me as their child. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

²⁶Lord, I give You my heart to control my life; let my eyes see how You want me to live. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

²⁷Lord, I reject the prostitute who is a deep ditch and I refuse the trollop who is a narrow well.

²⁸They lie in wait to catch straying males and like predators, they eat human flesh. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

²⁹Lord, every drunk has misery. They live with sorrow. They get into quarrels and fights. They get beat up and their body is bloodied. They have bloodshot eyes and a hangover.

³⁰Those who can't say "No!" to liquor or beer continually search for a new mixed drink. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

³¹Lord, You tell us never to look with desire into the glass as it gives off its smell and smooth color. It may slide smoothly down the throat; it may seem like a heavenly taste.

³²But liquor bites like a striking serpent; its sip is the venom of a deadly snake, so

I determine never to take my first drink. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

³³Lord, the eyes of a drunken man see peculiar things; His mind is hopelessly messed up. He staggers as if he were walking on a rolling ship; ³⁴his head heaves as if he's on the top of a mast.

³⁵People can beat on him when he's drunk and he'll not feel it; but after he gets sober he'll feel like he's been beaten up. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

Lord, the pathetic drunk is addicted because when he gets sober, he asks, "Where can I get another drink?" The book of Proverbs does not allow for social drinking, or drinking in any form. Those who are foolish deserve any consequences they get while drunk. When Proverbs describes alcohol as the poison of a serpent or adder, it is saying one drop of poison will kill; so stay completely away. The drunk may lose control of his consciousness, but more importantly; he loses control of his morals. His speech is confused, and he staggers when he walks. Proverbs says the walk of a drunk is like his walking on a ship in the midst of a raging storm (Prov. 23:33). The drunken person's senses are so blunted that he could be beaten and not remember the pain. "They have struck me, but I was not hurt; they have beaten me, but I did not feel it" (Prov. 23:35). And what is the future of the drunk? He lives for the bottle and the momentary pleasure it gives. Or he lives for the escapism he gets from life's problems. "When shall I awake, that I may seek another drink?" (Prov. 23:35, NKIV).

The drunk is addicted to the wine, and its destructive addiction will eventually destroy his life. Lord, I will be sober because I want to think rationally and live rightly. I will stay away from alcohol. I will keep my body pure for You. Amen.

Proverbs 24 Learn the Right Values in Life

¹Lord, I won't make evil people my role models and I won't hang out with them; ²because they think of ways to break Your law and they try to talk others into their transgressions. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

³Lord, I will build my home on right-living wisdom and I can make it secure by thinking correctly. ⁴I will fill the rooms with knowledge and furnish it with the best of furnishings.

⁵I want to be wise so I can be strong and increase my strength with knowledge.

⁶For with wise counsel I can conquer my dreams and with many wise counselors, I'll achieve my goals. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4}

⁷Lord, wisdom is a wonderful belonging; it is too lofty for a fool. The wise man doesn't tell people he's wise, but the important people in the city recognize him. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

⁸Lord, those who plan to break the law are called schemers, ⁹and people hate the schemers because they are fools given over to sin. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

¹⁰Lord, I promise not to faint in the day of conflict; give me strength that is strong enough to endure.

¹¹Yes, I'll rescue those about to be killed, and I'll save those being dragged off to death. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹²Lord, some say, "We didn't know anything about it!" Won't You, who knows the heart, know it? {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} Lord, won't You who expects everyone to be truthful, repay each one who quits the battle? {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32}

¹³Lord, I should eat honey because it's good for me. The taste of honey is sweet to the tongue.

¹⁴Therefore I know that I should get wisdom because it is good for me; its taste is sweet to the desires of the soul; when I get it, wisdom will give me what I hope for. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

¹⁵Lord, You warn the thief not to lurk near the home of a righteous man and never steal his belongings.

¹⁶Though a righteous man falls seven times, he will rise up to bring the thief to judgment; the wicked falls and never gets up.

¹⁷Lord, I will not rejoice when my enemy falls and I won't be happy when he has stumbled.

¹⁸Because my evil rejoicing will displease You, You might withdraw Your protection from me and begin protecting my enemy. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

¹⁹Lord, I will not let evildoers upset me, nor will I be envious of the actions of the wicked ²⁰for the person who does evil will not enjoy what he does and his candle will be put out in death. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The book of Proverbs observes that the wicked eventually will fail. The person who lives right should not envy the evil man, nor should he follow his example. "Do not fret because of evildoers; don't envy the wicked. For the evil have no future; their light will be snuffed out" (Prov. 24:19, 20, ELT). Lord, give me wisdom so I recognize wicked desires and wicked people. Give me strength against temptation to do wicked things or to have a wicked attitude. I have a passion to please You. Amen.

²¹Lord, I will not get involved with those who fight the government and I will fear You, Lord, and the rulers; ²²for judgment will fall quickly on rebels to God and the rulers; no one knows what will ruin the lives of both. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²³Lord, I know these are Your principles that You prepare for the wise; I will not show partiality to anyone ²⁴when I am making decisions or judgments. I will not tell guilty people, "You're innocent" because the public will curse me and nations will hate me.

²⁵But when I condemn those who should be condemned, the reward of doing right will follow.

²⁶When I give an honest answer to those who ask, it's like giving a kiss to those you respect. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

²⁷Lord, first I'll prepare myself for honest work and give an honest day's work to my employer. I'll then build or buy a home.

²⁸I'll not be a witness against someone if it's not true. I will not use my words to deceive listeners.

²⁹I'll not say, "I'll do to my neighbor what he does to me," or "I'll get even when he does me wrong." {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4}

³⁰Lord, I walked by a field of a lazy man; ³¹it was the garden of a fool. It was overgrown with vines and briars and the ground was covered with weeds. The fence was broken so everyone could wander in or out. ³²The more I observed the lazy man's field the deeper became my conviction about hard work. ³³The lazy enjoys being lazy and resting. He loves folding his hands and sleeping late ³⁴but poverty follows the lazy man, as surely as night follows day; and he'll want food, clothing, and shelter. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4}

The title "sluggard" in Proverbs comes from the Hebrew asel, which means to be lazy or sluggish. Many of the modern versions translate this word "lazy"—one who lacks motivation. It reflects the person who is not eager or willing to work. The lazy person needs supervision because he will procrastinate and will not carry out his responsibility. Someone must watch over him to make him work. His hunger pangs won't do it, nor will his poverty (Prov. 13:25; 16:26). The sluggard must change his attitude toward life. The problem with a lazy person is not his work habits or skill, or even his knowledge of what he has to do. The problem with a lazy person is his thinking. The lazy person is self-seeking (Prov. 21:25-26), pleasure-seeking (Prov. 13:4, 21:17), and short-sighted. Therefore to change the sluggard, his way of thinking must be changed. The sluggard must pray, "Lord, I repent of my laziness and I commit myself to working hard. I will learn how to work hard; I will learn skills to be productive, and I will learn all the knowledge I need to know about my job." Amen.

Proverbs 25 Nothing Can Compare to Right-Believing

¹Lord, Solomon originated these proverbs; years later the scribes of King Hezekiah copied them for us.

²I know that God is glorified by concealing things; it is the privilege of kings to search them out.

³Just as the heaven is high and the earth is deep so the heart of a ruler is unknowable. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

⁴Lord, when impurities are removed from silver ore, the silver can make a beautiful vessel.

⁵When the wicked are removed from public life, the nation can live in righteousness. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

of the line. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

⁸Lord, I won't rush in to a dispute between neighbors, especially when I don't know all the facts because I'll be embarrassed when one puts me to shame. ⁹I'll discuss the problem with my neighbors, but I won't tell one what the other said to me, ¹⁰because if the first hears that I have told publicly what he said to me privately, then I'll be embarrassed and my reputation will be ruined. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

¹¹Lord, I know that apples of gold in a setting of silver are like an appropriate word spoken at the right time.

¹²Just as a gold earring and a beautiful gold necklace are attractive so are the words of a counselor to a receptive ear.

¹³Just as a cool breeze in the heat of harvest is helpful, so is one who always tells the truth, refreshing the heart of his employer. ¹⁴Just as some clouds and wind bring no rain so is the one who promises a gift but disappoints because he never gives one. ⁴⁸⁷ Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8 ¹⁵Lord, I know that patience can win a stubborn leader and a soft answer can melt a hard heart.

¹⁶I should eat only as much honey as I need, because I'll throw up if I eat too much.

¹⁷I should not visit my neighbor too often because he'll get sick of me and hate to see me come. {345 Patience- Prayer, James 5:7-8}

¹⁸Lord, those who give false testimony against a neighbor hurt them like a club, a sharp sword, or a piercing arrow.

¹⁹When I rely on an untrustworthy person in a time of trouble, it is like having a toothache or a crippled leg. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

²⁰Lord, those who sing sad songs to people in trouble are like taking away their coat in cold weather.

²¹Lord, when someone who hates me is hungry, I'll give him food ²²for then I'll heap hot coals (of shame) on his head and You, Lord, will reward me. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

²³Lord, just as a cold north wind brings rain so a backbiting tongue brings an angry stare.

²⁴It is better to live in a small corner of the roof than to live in a big house with a nagging wife.

²⁵Just as cold water quenches my thirst, so good news from a distant source brings happiness.

²⁶Just as a muddy spring pollutes the drinking water, so is a good person who compromises with the wicked. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

²⁷Lord, I know it's not good to eat too much honey nor is it wise to seek your own glory, for both excesses will make you sick. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34}

²⁸Lord, a great fortified city with breeched walls is like a person without self-discipline. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

Lord, I know that You are glorified in unseen things; so it's a privilege to search them out in the Word of God. Just as the heaven is high and the earth is deep, so there is an abundant expanse in Your knowledge and wisdom. Teach me, make me wise. Amen.

Proverbs 26 Watch Out for Fools and Scoundrels

¹Lord, I know that snow in the summer and rain at harvest are both out of place, much like giving honor to a fool.

²A bird struggling to fly will come home to roost; so a person will be punished with the curse he gives to someone who doesn't deserve it; {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

³I know a whip will make a donkey obey; so correcting is the only way to help a fool. ⁴Lord, I'll not answer a fool according to his foolishness because I'll lower myself to his disgusting level.

⁵But I'll answer a fool according to truth so that he'll know he is not wise.

⁶Letting a fool deliver a message for you is like asking for trouble and pain. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

⁷A wise saying in the mouth of a fool is about as useless as a limp leg.

⁸Giving honor to a fool is like trying to shoot a gun without bullets.

⁹A wise saying in the mouth of a fool does as much damage as grabbing a thornbush with your hands.

¹⁰A master craftsman can make a work of art, but employing a fool breaks the laws of common sense.

¹¹A fool will always love his foolishness just as a dog will return to his vomit.

¹²Yet there is more hope for a fool than for a conceited man who thinks he knows everything. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

¹³Lord, a lazy person makes excuses not to work, saying there's a lion in the street.

¹⁴Just as a door turns on its hinges so a lazy person continually turns over in his sleep; he refuses to get up and go to work.

¹⁵A lazy person puts his fork into his food, but he is too lazy to lift it to his mouth.

¹⁶A lazy person has more excuses for what he does than the reasons of seven wise men. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4}

¹⁷Lord, if I get involved in a fight that's not my own, it's like grabbing a dog by its ears; I'll get bitten. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

¹⁸If a fool plays with matches, he'll get burned ¹⁹like those who deceive their neighbors, and then say, "Just kidding." {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

²⁰Lord, I know if there's no wood, the fire goes out; if gossip stops, so does contention.

²¹Just as coals are to a fire and burning wood makes heat, so a quarreling person creates strife. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

²²Lord, the lies of a slanderer are easily swallowed, but they make everyone sick to their stomach.

²³Just as a silver lid covers over a clay pot so loving lips cover a hating heart.

²⁴So those who hate try to cover it with pleasant words, but they can't eliminate their deceitful heart.

²⁵So I won't trust everyone who speaks pleasantly because they may be covering the sins of their heart.

²⁶They may try to cover the hatred of their heart; but what's in the well comes up in the bucket. Eventually their hatred will come out. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

²⁷Lord, those who dig a pit will eventually fall into it and what goes around will come around. We will eventually suffer the evil we plan for others. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

²⁸Lord, those who tell lies eventually hate their victims and a flattering tongue is a sugar-coated lie so I will tell the truth because I love You, Lord, and others. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

Proverbs 27 Right Believing Leads to Good Relationships

¹Lord, I'll not boast what I will do tomorrow for I don't know what a future day will bring.

²I'll let another talk about my accomplishments because no one will believe my boasting; I'll let an objective observer do it.

³Stones are heavy to pick up, and so is sand; but a fool's anger outweighs them both. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁴Lord, I know that wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous, but the revenge of a jealous person is greater than both.

⁵I would rather have open rebuke to become wise and know where I stand with a person, than have hidden love that I never experience and not realize the love that was mine.

⁶I would rather have wounds from a friend than deceitful kisses from an enemy. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

⁷Lord, when I'm full I have no taste for honey; but when I'm hungry anything bitter tastes sweet. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23}

⁸Lord, a man who foolishly strays from his home is like a bird that abandons its protective nest. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

⁹Lord, just as perfume and sweet-smelling things make us happy, so does good advice from the heart of a friend. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁰Lord, I'll not abandon a loyal friend who is also a lifelong friend of my father. I'll not go for help to a relative that is far away; rather, I'll go to a friend who is near.

¹¹I want to become wise to make my father glad; then I won't need my father to answer my critics.

¹²I want to be wise to avoid trouble when it comes; fools don't think about the future and they pay the price. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

¹³Lord, I'll not sign a note for a stranger so they can't take the coat off my back; they'll probably seize a man's clothing for the trollop. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

¹⁴I'll not yell a blessing to my neighbor before dawn for I'll awaken him and he will curse me. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ¹⁵Lord, a nagging wife that keeps at it, is like dripping water on a rainy day; it will only irritate and anger.

¹⁶The one who can restrain the negative wife can also restrain the wind; of course neither can be done. {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9}

¹⁷Just as iron is used to sharpen a knife so I can sharpen the outlook of my friend.

¹⁸Those who carefully look after the fig tree get to enjoy its fruit. Those who do what their boss wants done will be honored and promoted.

¹⁹Just as I can see my image reflected in water so others can see my heart by looking at my face. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

²⁰Lord, the greed that motivates my heart to get what it sees is like hell and the grave; they are never satisfied.

²¹Just as fire tests silver and the crucible tests gold, so my character will be tested by its reaction to praise. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

²²Lord, I can grind a fool in the mill with a grinder just as grain is crushed to powder; yet his foolishness will remain. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

²³Lord, I'll take care of the health of my flocks and I'll pay attention to the number in my herds ²⁴because a man's riches are never lost forever, and a business won't stay in the family forever. ²⁵So when the hay has been mown for winter feeding, and the vegetables have been gathered from the garden, ²⁶the wool of my lambs will provide clothing. ²⁷There will be enough goats' milk for all to drink and I can sell my extra goats for some cash. Then

I can buy enough food to get my family through the winter and have enough to give a bonus to my employees. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Proverbs 28 Use Common Sense When Being Religious

¹Lord, the wicked have terror in their hearts because they can be confident of nothing in life. The righteous have the self-confidence of a lion.

²Because they know You, they feel sure of themselves. Because we live in a world of sin, we need many rulers to make people do right. But there is coming a ruler—a man of understanding; his kingdom will endure. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13}

³Lord, when I see one poor man oppressing another poor man, it's like a rainstorm that washes away all food, for the poor don't realize they need each other to survive.

⁴Those who abandon their principles end up loving sin, but those who obey Your principles oppose those who love sin.

⁵Evil people don't understand absolute truth and judgment, but they who seek to please You understand all things. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

⁶Lord, it's better for me to tell the truth and end up poor than it is to get rich by living a lie.

T'll be Your wise child who obeys Your truth because those who hang out with fools disappoint their father. {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} ⁸Lord, those who get rich by charging too much create wealth for someone else to give it to the poor.

⁹Those who refuse to obey Your principles will not get their prayers answered.

¹⁰Those who tempt the righteous to break Your law will suffer the punishment he plans for them. But the upright who does not give into temptation will get the good things You have for him. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

¹¹Lord, the rich man thinks everything he does is all right, but the wise poor man can see through his deceit.

¹²When the good man wins, everyone rejoices, but no one wants to see a wicked man win.

¹³Those who hide their sin, will not get away with it, but You will accept those who confess and repent.

¹⁴Those who fear and obey You are happy, but those who harden their hearts will have a hard life. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁵Lord, a hungry roaring lion and a prowling bear are like a wicked leader who eats up the poor.

¹⁶A rising leader without wisdom is a cruel oppressor, but leaders who hate greed will stay in office. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

¹⁷Lord, the one who kills another deserves to die; don't let anyone get him off the hook.

¹⁸Those who obey Your principles will be saved, but those who reject Your ways will not live long. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁹Lord, those who work hard at their job will have food to eat, but those who frolic with lazy people will be poor.

²⁰Those trustworthy workers will receive bonuses and raises but those who cut corners will be demoted or fired. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²¹Lord, it's wrong to be partial to any person, because all people are of one blood and were created in Your image. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

²²Lord, the greedy person will sell his soul for money, not knowing his insatiable appetite will ultimately choke him to death; but a starving man will steal for bread. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

²³Lord, if I correct my brother to help him, I'll get more gratitude than if I flatter his sin and disobedience. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

²⁴Lord, those who steal from their parents, saying, "I deserve it because I'm their child," are brothers to satan. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

²⁵Lord, those who grasp after attention create strife and anger in those around him, but those who obey Your principles will prosper and get the right kind of attention.

²⁶Those who trust in themselves are fools but the ones living right will prosper.

²⁷Those who give to the poor will not lack anything, but those who turn their backs on the poor will be cursed by them.

²⁸People run from a wicked person, but they are drawn to a good person. There will be enough goats' milk for all to drink and I can sell my extra goats for a nest egg; then I can buy enough food to get my family through the winter and have enough to give a bonus to my employees. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Lord, I'll not boast what I'll do tomorrow, for I don't know what a future day will bring. I'll trust You to take care of me and I'll work today to take care of my needs tomorrow. Amen.

Proverbs 29 Right-Believing Will Make You a Good Citizen

¹Lord, those who harden their necks after being rebuked will be suddenly broken.

²When the righteous are our leaders, everyone rejoices because the leaders do right. But when the wicked are over us, everyone moans because evil flourishes. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim, 2:1 ff.}

³Lord, when I seek to think the right way, I make my father glad; but those who visit a prostitute waste their money and their life. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18}

⁴Rulers give us a stable nation when they do right, but rulers who take bribes destroy a people. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim, 2:1 ff.}

⁵Those who try to get ahead by flattery spread a trap for their own feet.

⁶The crimes of an evil man will eventually catch him but the righteous sing and dance because they have a clean conscience. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

⁷Lord, the righteous are always concerned about the poor, but the wicked are selfish people; they don't care about anyone but themselves.

⁸A negative critic gets everyone mad, but the words of the wise have a calming effect. ⁹When a wise man argues with a fool, he only gets scorn and ridicule, and angry replies. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

¹⁰Those who want to kill hate those who obey God's principles and will attempt to do away with them.

¹¹The fool rattles on about everything he doesn't like but a wise person holds his tongue, and thinks through the situation.

¹²Those leaders who listen and believe lies have counselors around them who are wicked. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

¹³Lord, You have given a conscience of right and wrong to the poor and the oppressor.

¹⁴When the leader trusts the poor with honesty, he will be in office a long time. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

¹⁵Lord, You've given us ways to correct our children, but the child left to himself will disgrace his parents.

¹⁶When the wicked rule, more people will break the rules, but the righteous will eventually see their downfall.

¹⁷So discipline your child and he will make you happy; yes, he will do what you expect him to do. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

¹⁸Lord, when I don't have divine direction in my life, I'll shrivel up spiritually; but

I'll be happy when I obey Your law. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

¹⁹Lord, it's hard to discipline workers with words; they may understand, but they won't obey.

²⁰Those people who have something to say about everything have as much hope as a fool. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

²¹If I pamper a child from youth, he will be ungrateful when he grows up.

²²Angry people stir up strife and bitterness; people with uncontrollable tempers commit crimes. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

²³Lord, I will be brought low if I am proud, but I will be honored when I humble myself. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ²⁴Lord, he who partners with a thief, hates himself; when he hears people curse the thief he tells nothing that happened. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

²⁵Lord, being afraid of others can trap me, but those who put their trust in You will be safe.

²⁶Many seek the leaders' favor but they get justice from You, Lord. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

²⁷Lord, the wicked man is always against the righteous person, and the righteous person is detested by the wicked. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

Lord, those who harden their will after being rebuked will be suddenly broken; when the righteous are our leaders everyone rejoices because they do right; but when the wicked are over us, everyone moans because evil flourishes. Amen.

Proverbs 30 The Knowledge God Would Have You Know

¹Lord, Solomon received a message from You to give to Ithiel and Ucal.

²Lord, the one who is more boorish than others is too ignorant to seek to understand God.

³He lacks human understanding and wisdom. He doesn't have enough common sense to know You, the Holy One. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

⁴Lord, You are the only One who has access to both heaven and earth. You hold the wind in Your cupped hands; You wrap up the oceans in Your cloak. You created the whole earth from one end to the other. Only You know Your name and Your Son's name. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

⁵Lord, every word that You speak is pure; You protect those who take refuge in You. ⁶If I add anything to Your words, You will rebuke me and I'll be made to be a liar. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7}

 7 Lord, I have asked two things from You to help me all my life.

⁸One, don't let me tell a lie or misrepresent the truth, and two, give me neither poverty nor riches. Just give me the food I need each day. ⁹If I have too much money, I may deny You and say, "Who is the Lord?"

If I am too poor, I might steal and tarnish Your name, O Lord. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

¹⁰Lord, I will never criticize a person to his employer because he will slander me for my interference.

¹¹I know there are those who curse their fathers and don't bless their mothers.

¹²These people justify their actions and think they never do anything wrong; ¹³they are haughty and stupid. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

¹⁴Lord, there are critics whose teeth are sharp like razors; their tongues are like daggers. They eat up everyone with their criticism and criticize those who need the most help. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

¹⁵Lord, the leech sucks the life out of things, always crying, "More! More! More! More!" There are three things—no, there are four that want more and are never satisfied: ¹⁶the grave, a barren womb, the dusty desert, a blazing fire. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

¹⁷Lord, the eye that mocks his father and criticizes the request of his mother will be pecked out by the birds; and he'll be judged for his rebellion. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸Lord, there are three things that are wonderful. When I add a fourth, I am amazed: ¹⁹the way an eagle floats in the sky, the way a snake slithers on a rock, the way a ship glides under the wind, the way of a man with a woman. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

²⁰Lord, it seems an unfaithful wife excuses herself; she wipes her mouth saying, "I did nothing wrong." {459 Spouse-Inspired Prayer, 1 Peter 3:9}

²¹Lord, three things make the earth quake, add a fourth thing and everything trembles: ²²a slave who becomes a king, a fool who gets rich, ²³a complaining woman who finally gets a husband, a servant girl who takes the place of her mistress. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14}

²⁴Lord, four things on the earth are very small, but they are wise: ²⁵ants who are not mighty, but they store food for the winter; ²⁶little badgers who make their home in the holes of the rocks;

²⁷locusts that have no leader but they march in ranks;

²⁸spiders that are tiny enough to get into a king's palace. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

²⁹Lord, three things march stately with dignity; no, add a fourth, one that also strides: ³⁰the lion that turns aside for none; ³¹the swiftest greyhound that can't be caught; the stubborn goat that won't back down; the king leading his army. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

³²Lord, I hope all boorish fools are smart enough to keep quiet so people won't see their stupid ways.

³³Just as churning milk produces butter, and pressure on the nose produces blood, so the pressure of anger produces strife. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

Lord, I have asked two things from You to help me all my life. Don't let me tell a lie or misrepresent the truth, and give me neither poverty nor riches. Just give me the food I need each day. Amen. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Proverbs 31 What Is a Godly Woman?

¹Lord, I will live by the principles of Solomon, the message that was given him by his mother, Bathsheba.

²It is the biggest vow that could be asked by a mother of her son and I promise to keep this pledge.

³I'll not give my strength to whorish women, to an adulterous life that would destroy me. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18}

⁴I'll not seek pleasure in strong drink, nor will I ever taste liquor;

⁵because drinking will distort my understanding of Your law and drunkenness will make me forget my duties. Liquor will not give happiness, but it brings misery;

⁶and those who are given to strong drink will be destroyed.

⁷They drink to forget their emptiness and forget about all their problems. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁸Lord, I will speak for those who don't know what to say; I will give Your Word to those who are perishing.

⁹I will always do the right thing; I will open my heart to the needs of the poor. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹¹My heart will safely trust in such a woman and I will find happiness with her.

²⁸Her children quickly credit her for their success and I wouldn't be prosperous without her.

²⁹There are many good women in the world but the virtuous woman You gave me exceeds them all.

³⁰Beauty deceives some women, and compliments sidetrack others, but she is a woman who puts her trust in You and is worthy of all the compliments she gets.

ECCLESIASTES

Key Words: Vanity of vanities, found 35 times (see Ecclesiastes 1:2)

Key Verse: "Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity" (1:2, KJV).

Theme: According to Jewish tradition, Solomon wrote the Song of Solomon with its passionate emphasis on love when he was a young man who walked with God. Solomon's second book, Proverbs, emphasizes practical wisdom he used. Building his kingdom on wisdom and through good leadership principles, he chronicled Proverbs in his middle adult life. The third book, Ecclesiastes, was written by Solomon in his old age after his successes and failures of many marriages, his lack of contentment with luxury, and his boredom with power and authority.

Through the years many people have been perplexed at the negative attitudes of Ecclesiastes. This is Solomon's attempt to show the futility of life lived apart from God's principles. The Preacher begins, "Vanity of vanities" (1:2, which is translated in this volume as "frustrating and nothing makes sense" (Prayer Bible - Paraphrase). Then the Preacher asks the question, "What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?" (1:3, KJV). The word "profit" is the Hebrew word yithron, a word unique to Ecclesiastes drawn from the business world. It means a financial profit, gain, superiority, or preeminence. What can man gain from a fallen world? Solomon concludes that money, luxury, and sexual exploits are all frustrating and meaningless. Solomon asked the same question the Lord Jesus asked, "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mark 8:36). Lord, I will seek Your wisdom to live properly for Your glory. Keep me from vanities and sin. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 1 To Realize the Futility of a Life Without Purpose

are the words of the Teacher, son of David, king in Jerusalem: {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ² Everything is frustrating. And nothing makes sense. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} What does a person gain from all his hard work here on earth?

⁴People come, and people go, but by contrast the world remains the same. ⁵The sun rises and the sun sets, and it seems to hurry back to rise again. ⁶The wind blows to the south and it blows to the north. It swirls back and forth, and it seems to get nowhere. ⁷Rivers flow into the sea, but the sea is never full. The water goes back to the rivers and flows again into the sea. ⁸Everything is so tiring, more than we can describe. No matter how much we see or hear, we are never satisfied. We always want to see and hear more. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23}

⁹History repeats itself. Nothing on the earth is really new. {514 Victory Over Doubt-Prayer, Mark 11:23} ¹⁰Can you point to something that is totally new? No. It has already existed years before, even before we were born. ¹¹We easily forget about people who lived years ago, and people yet to be born won't be remembered either. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21}

Lord, at times life seems pointless and meaningless; I seem to accomplish little for all I do. The eye never sees what is seeable, and the ear never hears what is hearable. What has happened in the past will happen in the future; what was accomplished before will be accomplished again, and under the sun. There is nothing new. Amen.

¹²When I was king of Israel living in Jerusalem, ¹³I tried to understand everything that is done here on the earth. But I soon realized that everyone carries heavy burdens. ¹⁴I have seen everything, and it is all so frustrating and without meaning. It's like chasing after the wind, a foolish waste of energy and an impossible task. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹⁵We can't straighten what is crooked, and we can't depend on something if it doesn't exist.

¹⁶I said to myself, "I am wiser than any king before me in Jerusalem. I am wiser and know more than any of them." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹⁷So I worked hard to see the difference between being wise and being foolish. Then I realized that that too is as pointless as trying to catch the wind. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹⁸It seemed like the more I knew, the more grief I felt. And my knowledge even caused me more distress.

Lord, I know that You gave wisdom to Solomon, king of Israel; he became the wisest man on earth. He applied his wisdom to investigate everything on earth, yet Solomon's wisdom made him a cynic because he did not make You the center of all inquiry. Lord, be the center of my life, {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} teach me facts to be smart, and give me understanding to be wise. Amen.

¹I decided to have fun and try to enjoy life to see if that would make sense of the world. But it didn't. It too was frustrating. ²Why laugh and try to have fun all the time? What good does that do? ³So I tried cheering myself up with wine, while still being wise. I was hoping to find something that makes sense for us humans in our few years here on the earth. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1}

⁴I took on some big projects to see if that would make sense of things on the earth. I built houses for myself. I planted lots of vineyards; 5I made gardens and parks, and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. ⁶I made reservoirs to hold water for my groves of trees. 7I bought male and female slaves, and other slaves were born in my house. I owned more herds and flocks than anyone who lived in Jerusalem before me. 8Other kings brought me lots of silver and gold. I had many male and female singers, and many beautiful wives and concubines who gave me great pleasure. 9So I became greater in wealth and fame than anyone who lived in Jerusalem before me. And I tried to stay wise as I evaluated everything. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

¹⁰I had everything I wanted, and I did whatever made me happy. I enjoyed hard work, and pleasure from it was the reward for my labors. ¹¹Yet as I looked at everything I had done and how I had worked so hard to accomplish everything, it all seemed so frustrating, like chasing after the wind. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} Nothing seemed to matter.

¹²So I compared wisdom {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} with foolishness. Anyone who succeeds me can reach the same conclusions I came to. ¹³I concluded that yes, being wise is better than being foolish, just as light is better than darkness. ¹⁴Being wise is like seeing with two good eyes, but being foolish is like walking in total darkness—fools can't see a thing. I realized that both the wise person and the fool end up the same way—dead. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1, 8} ¹⁵I then thought that since the fools and I will both die, what's the point of being wise? So I said again to myself, "This is all so frustrating and without meaning. 16The wise and the fool both die and both will be forgotten." {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ¹⁷So I hated life because my work on the earth is such a burden. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} Everything is frustrating and without meaning, like chasing the wind. ¹⁸I hated everything I worked for because when I die, I have to leave it all to someone else. 19 And who knows whether he will be wise or foolish? He will own everything I gained by hard work and wisdom. That too is frustrating. ²⁰So I felt depressed as I thought about all my hard work here on the earth. ²¹Though I have worked with wisdom and skill, {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} I have to leave it all to someone who has done nothing to earn it. That is meaningless and unfair. ²²What does a person get in return for all his hard work and restless activity here on the earth? ²³His days are filled with pain and grief, and at night he can't rest because his mind keeps thinking of things. This too is frustrating and meaningless. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

²⁴The best thing a person can do is to enjoy eating, drinking, and working. These pleasures are from God ²⁵for who can enjoy anything apart from Him? {534

Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²⁶To the person who pleases Him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But God may help a sinner become wealthy and then give his wealth to someone who pleases Him. Even this is frustrating and is like chasing the wind.

Lord, Solomon came to the wrong conclusion to eat, drink, and enjoy what one's work produced. He thought that You gave food and drink as the ultimate enjoyment in life; he didn't realize we should all enjoy You in all things. I praise You for any and all enjoyment in this life. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} Amen.

Ecclesiastes 3 To Realize God Has Given Us a Time on Earth

¹Every activity on earth has its own time and season. ²There is a time to be born and a time to die, a time to plant and a time to harvest, ³a time to kill and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build, ⁴a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance, ⁵a time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones, a time to hug and a time not to hug, ⁶a time to search and a time to quit searching, a time to keep and a time to throw away, ⁷a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent and a time to speak, ⁸a time to love and a time to hate, a time for war and a time for peace. ^{{482} Thanksgiving for

God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

⁹What does a person get for all his hard work? 10I have seen the burden God has placed on people. 11Yet He has made everything beautiful or appropriate in its time. And He has given people a sense of eternity in their hearts. And yet no one can fully understand all God has done from beginning to end. 12So the best thing people can do is to enjoy life and do well in this lifetime. ¹³Also they should appreciate God's gifts of food and drink and work. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} 14What God does will last forever. Nothing can be added to it or taken from it. God's purpose in all He does is to encourage people to reverence Him. 15Whatever we see now has already happened in the past, and whatever will occur in the future will have already occurred. God does many things over and over. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁶Everywhere on earth I saw evil and wickedness instead of justice and fairness. 17But I realized that in time God will judge everyone, both the righteous and the wicked. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} 18 Another thought I had is that God often tests us {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} to show that in a sense we are often like animals. 19In fact both people and animals die. And people and animals have the same breath, so that in a sense humans are no better off than animals. 20 Humans and animals die; they both go to the same place, the grave. They return to the dust from which they were made. ²¹No one can see that the spirits of humans go up and the spirits of animals go down. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ²²So the best thing we can do is enjoy our own work because that's why we are here. No one who has died can come back to life to enjoy the future. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

Lord, You have given everything for its time and place in Your plan; You have made me aware that I'm preparing for eternity, but I can never fully understand what You're doing in my life because I don't know the beginning from the end. What time You give me on earth, I dedicate to You and will use it for You. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 4 To Learn the Value of Others

¹Again I saw the troubles people were facing. They were in tears and no one was there to comfort them, and those who mistreated them were very powerful. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18} ²It seemed to me that the dead are better off than the living. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ³But better off than either the dead or the living are those who have never been born. Why? Because they have not seen all the evil on the earth. 4I realized that many people succeed in their work because they are jealous of others. This too is frustrating and meaningless, like chasing the wind. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} 5Fools refuse to work and so they starve. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4}

⁶Yet it is better to have a little and enjoy a peaceful life than to work hard and have no peace. This too is like chasing after wind. {86 Contentment-Prayer, Phil. 1:20}

⁷I saw another example of frustration. ⁸A man who lived alone had no son or brother. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} He worked all the time to keep getting more wealth. Yet he was never content with what he had. {86 Contentment-Prayer, Phil. 1:20} One day he thought, "For whom am I working so hard? Why am I always working and having no joy in life?" This too is frustrating and depressing. By having a companion to work with, the two can get more done and have better results. ¹⁰If one of them falls, the other can pick him up. But if someone has no one with him, he has no one to help him up. 11 If two people are in bed on a cold night, they can keep each other warm. But a person can't be warm by himself. ¹²A person by himself can more easily be attacked, but two can help defend each other. A rope made of three strands can't be broken very easily. {501 Two-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} person than an old but foolish king who won't take advice. ¹⁴A young person may have been in prison and then become king even though he was born into a poor family. ¹⁵Everyone on the earth followed him after the king died. ¹⁶Numerous people were subject to him, but the kings who came later were not pleased with him. This too is meaningless and is like chasing the wind. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

What is stamina prayer? It's serious prayer, or strenuous prayer, or dogged prayer. There comes a torturous time in life when our problems are so great and our circumstances are so dire, that all we can do is hang on. Somehow we know deliverance is not coming. So we hunker down to perseverance prayer, we determine to endure to the end (Heb. 6:15). Lord, I'm lost in the desert, there's no help in sight. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} Things are tough, but I'll not give up. I'll hang on and endure the pain. I'm not a quitter. So this is my stamina prayer, give me character to persevere. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 5 To Learn Tolerance

¹Be careful when you enter the house of God and go there to listen and learn. Don't be like a fool who offers sacrifices without realizing what he's doing. ²Don't be quick to talk or quick to make a rash promise to God. He's in heaven and you're on the earth, so don't talk a lot. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ³Just as having many problems can give you nightmares, so talking a lot can show you are a fool. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

⁴If you make a promise to God, keep it right away, because God doesn't care for fools. ⁵In fact, it's better not to make a promise at all than to make a promise and not keep it. ⁶Don't let your words get you into trouble. And don't tell the temple messenger that you made a mistake when you made a vow. That would make God angry, and He might destroy everything you've worked for. ⁷Dreaming and talking all the time are meaningless. Therefore keep your words few and reverence God. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

⁸If you see a powerful person giving a poor person trouble, or if you see someone being treated unfairly, don't be surprised. An official is doing what a higher official tells him to do, and that one is following orders from someone above him. ⁹Everyone, including even the king, tries to get some share of crops he didn't plant. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

¹⁰People who love money never have enough. They are never satisfied. This too is frustrating and meaningless. ¹¹The more you have, the more everyone wants something from you. So what is the point of having a lot of money except to look at it as it vanishes? {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ¹²Work hard and you can sleep well, whether you have a lot to eat or not. But rich people can't sleep well because they are always worrying about their money. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

into it. And what does a person gain from all his work, which was like working for the wind? ¹⁷Besides this, his existence is like eating in darkness, feeling frustrated, grief-stricken, and angry. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁸I came to realize that one good thing for a person is to eat and drink and enjoy work, tiring as it may be, while he is on the earth in the few years God has given him. That is his lot in life. ¹⁹Also if God gives someone wealth and he enjoys it and is happy in his work, that is a gift from God. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²⁰When God helps a person be happy, he doesn't have time to think of how short life is.

Lord, Solomon said it was good for a man to eat, drink, enjoy life, and work hard, for this is Your plan for him under the sun. If a man will accept his work as a gift from You, at least he has something to keep him happy, nor will he complain that his life is meaningless. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} Amen.

¹Here's another serious problem on the earth, and many people are troubled by it. ²Some people have lots of money and are highly honored, so that they have everything they want. But then God doesn't let them enjoy it. Someone else enjoys it instead. This too is frustrating, a serious problem. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44}

³A man may have 100 children and live to be very old, but if he gets no satisfaction in life and doesn't even have a proper burial, {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} he would have been better off having been born dead. ⁴Such a child has no meaning, ends in darkness, and is forgotten. ⁵He never saw the light of day or knew what life is like, yet he has more rest than a rich but unhappy person. ⁶If he lives 2,000 years, but can't enjoy life and then dies as does everyone else, what is the use? {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

¹⁰Whatever happens was determined long ago, including what everyone is like. So there's no point in arguing with God, because He is stronger than anyone. ¹¹The more we talk, the less sense we make, so why talk at all? {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹²Life is short and frustrating, and it passes quickly like a shadow. So who knows what is best in this life? And who knows what will happen after we are gone? {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Lord, whoever I am, I was named before I knew it, and You gave me a personality before I reflected it. And I know I am only human. Therefore, I am not strong enough to defeat death, because it is mightier than all of us together, and any one of us individually. I am what You made me, and I'll be what You want me to be. Amen. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

Ecclesiastes 7 To Have a Good Reputation

¹Having a good reputation is better than having expensive perfume. And the day a person dies with a good reputation is better than the day he is born with an uncertain future. 2It is better to attend a funeral than a feast. Everyone will die, and so it is good to think about death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 3Feeling sorry is better than laughing all the time because sadness can help us think of life seriously. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 4A wise person thinks about death, but a fool thinks only about having fun. ⁵Being corrected by a wise person is better than listening to a fool sing. 6A fool's laughter is soon gone, like nettles cracking under kettles. This too is frustrating. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} 7Hardships can make a wise person a fool, and even a bribe can ruin him. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} 8Finishing a project is better than starting it, {186 Goal-Striving Prayer, Phil. 3:10-14} and patience is better than pride. {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8} ⁹Don't get angry easily, because that's what fools do. 10Don't long for the "good old days," because you don't really know if they were better than today. 11Wisdom with an inheritance is a good thing; it benefits those who are on the earth. 12Both wisdom and money can give protection from trouble, but only wisdom can help a person live longer. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹³Think of what God has done. No one can change what He has done. 14So when times are good, enjoy life. And when times are bad, think about the fact that God has purposes in hard times. God has made both good and bad times, so that we can't predict the future. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁵In my frustrating life I have seen good people die young and wicked people live long. ¹⁶Don't think that being righteous or wise will guarantee God's blessings. You could end up being confused. ¹⁷On the other hand don't think that being very wicked will mean you will live a long life. ¹⁸Get ahold of both points, and if you reverence God He will bless you. 19 Being wise can make you stronger than city leaders. ²⁰Yet no one on the earth is always good and never sins. ²¹If you listen to everything everyone says, you might hear your own servant cursing you. ²²You know that you have often cursed others. 23I tried to be wise and understand everything, but true wisdom was beyond me. {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 24Wisdom is beyond our grasp and very deep. Who can really discover it?

²⁵So I searched everywhere to try to find wisdom {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} and how life works, and I wanted to understand how wickedness and foolishness can be so stupid. ²⁶I discovered that being involved with a prostitute is worse than death. She is like a trap to catch you, and her hands are like chains. You can escape from her if you please God, but sinners will be caught in her trap. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²⁷This is what I have concluded after trying to see things from every angle: ²⁸One out of a thousand men could be said to be good, but not one woman. ²⁹I also found that God made people to be upright, but they, both men and women, have followed their own schemes. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

Lord, Solomon searched everywhere for truth. He looked everywhere to find an answer to life. But this was his conclusion: You originally made people to believe right but most people think up foolish schemes and excuses that will ultimately destroy their lives. Almost no one lives by Your principles. Almost no one wants You to rule their lives. But I will be the exception, I will live the way You want me to live, I will think the way You want me to think. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} I will be what You want me to be. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 8 To Learn to Do What Is Right

¹Who can know and explain everything? Wisdom brightens a person's face and makes him smile. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²If you promised God you would obey the king, then you should keep that promise, ³and not be in a hurry to leave his presence. Since the king can do whatever he pleases, don't take sides with people who do evil. ⁴And since he has the final word, don't question what he's doing. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

⁵Obey the king's command and you will avoid trouble. Be wise and you'll know when and what to do. 6 There is a time and a place for everything, even though life can be miserable. ⁷No one knows what lies ahead, so no one knows when things will happen. 8Just as no one can control the wind, so no one can control when he will die. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} And just as soldiers aren't sent home when a war is still on, so wickedness doesn't release its hold on those who practice it. ⁹I saw all this, and tried hard to figure out everything that goes on here on the earth. I don't understand why one person may rule over other people and bring them harm. ¹⁰Also I saw wicked people go to the temple and when they are buried, they are commended in the very city where they committed their crimes. This too is frustrating. 11If a crime isn't punished right away, criminals think they can get away with more crimes. 12 True, a wicked person may commit 100 crimes and live a long time. But still I know the person who reverences God will be better off. ¹³And I know that it will not go well for the wicked. Since they don't reverence God, their days will be short like a moving shadow. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁴Here's another frustrating thing. Good people are often treated as if they are wicked, and wicked people are thought of as good. This, as I say, is very frustrating. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁵So we should enjoy life. Nothing on this earth beats eating, drinking, and being glad. Joy can brighten up a person's work each day God has given him here on the earth. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁶I stayed awake day and night trying hard to be wise and to see everything people are doing. 17Then as I considered what God does, I realized that we can't understand everything here on the earth. We can try hard to figure things out, but we can't really understand God's ways even if we tried. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

Lord, I will obey the laws of my nation, because this is what You want me to do. I will not rebel against the goodness You want me to live, and I won't persist in breaking laws. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Lord, I want to do the right thing. So give me strength to always do right. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 9 To Know the Difference between Good and Bad

¹So as I reflected on all these things, I concluded that both the righteous and the wicked {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} are subject to God's will, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} and that no one really knows if he will be loved or hated. ²Yet everyone faces the same destiny, death—whether he is righteous or wicked, good or bad, ceremonially clean or unclean, worshiping God with sacrifices or not, a sinner or not, one who keeps his promises or doesn't keep them. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ³Sin is everywhere on the earth, and the same destiny, death, is for everyone. People are such sinners and they are filled with madness, and then they all die. ⁴As long as we are alive, there is hope, just as a live dog, a scavenger animal, is better off than a dead lion, king of the animals. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2}

⁵People who are alive know they will die, but a dead person doesn't know anything. They have no benefit from work, and people forget they even existed. ⁶They have no emotions; no love, no hate, no jealousy. These are all gone. They will never again have any part in what happens on the earth. Death is final. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

⁷Therefore while you are alive, enjoy your food and drink, for this is what God wants you to do. ⁸And wear nice clothes and put on some cologne. ⁹And enjoy your wife, the one you love, even though life here on earth is frustrating at times, God's plan for you is to work hard. ¹⁰So whatever you do, do it well. In the grave, where you will end up, you won't work or plan or know anything. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹¹Here's yet another troubling thing I've observed on the earth: Fast runners don't always win the race. And strong soldiers don't always win battles. And being wise, sharp-minded, and educated doesn't always mean you will have food to eat, or will be rich or have a good reputation. That's because many things seem to happen by chance. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹²Also no one knows when he will die. Just as fish are caught in a net and birds in a trap, so it is that people are often trapped by sudden tragedies. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹³An example of wisdom that impressed me greatly was this: ¹⁴A powerful king attacked a small town, ¹⁵and in that town was a poor man who was wise, and he saved the town by his wisdom. Yet people soon forget him. ¹⁶Obviously then wisdom is better than strength. Yet people who are wise but poor will be despised, and their advice won't be followed. ¹⁷Yet wise words spoken softly are more helpful than shouts of a foolish king. ¹⁸Wisdom is more powerful than weapons, but one foolish sinner can undo much that is good.

Lord, Solomon carefully observed the life and death of the righteous and wise. Then he observed the same in the unrighteous and fools. He concluded that all are ultimately in Your hands. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} No one knows whether these people will be rewarded or punished, because all options are possible to all. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 10 To Learn Not to Make Mistakes

¹Just as flies can ruin a bottle of perfume, so a little foolishness can damage wisdom and honor. ²Wisdom protects from danger, but foolishness doesn't. ³The way a fool lives shows he has no sense, and everyone can see how stupid he is. ⁴Don't quit your job just because your boss gets angry with you. Be calm and he may overlook your sins. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

⁵Here's another terrible thing I've seen on the earth, a mistake a ruler may make while not intending to. ⁶He may put fools in positions of authority and place rich people in low positions, and ⁷slaves may ride like princes on horseback, and princes walk on foot like slaves. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

¹²A wise person's words win him favor with others, but a fool's words destroy him. ¹³A fool's words are ridiculous to begin with, and they end in madness. ¹⁴Yet he keeps on talking. Since no one knows what the future holds, no fool can tell another person what will happen next. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

¹⁵Fools easily get tired of work. And they don't even know how to get to town.

¹⁸Some leaders are so lazy they don't fix sagging rafters and leaking roofs. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} ¹⁹They think eating and drinking are the ways to be happy, and that money can fix everything. ²⁰However, if you have a bad king, don't criticize him even in your bedroom. Why not? Because some unknown person, like a bird, may have heard you, and will tell the king what you said. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, those who dig a pit usually fall into it, and those who dig in a snake's nest usually get bitten. Those who carry stones too big for them get hurt, and those who chop wood with a dull ax will get hurt. Give me the wisdom of common sense, and the strength to make smart decisions. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 11 To Learn the Inevitable Consequences of Life

¹Just as trading foodstuffs by sea can give you some monetary return, so ²you should invest wisely by dividing money among seven or eight investors because you don't know if some disaster lies ahead. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

³Some things you can be sure of. Rainclouds will always bring rain, and in whatever direction a tree falls, there it stays. ⁴But if you keep watching which way the wind blows, you won't plant. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} And if you keep looking at the clouds to see if it will rain or not, you won't harvest a crop. ⁵Just as you don't know the way the wind will blow or how a baby grows in its mother's womb, so you can't understand what God, the Maker of everything, does. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} 6Plant seeds in the morning, and keep working all day, because you don't know which crops will succeed, whether one or both. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15}

⁷It's a delight to see the morning sun. ⁸No matter how long you live, enjoy each day, because many dark days will come. In fact everything to come is frustrating. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁹Be happy while you are young, and be joyful in your youth. Do whatever your heart leads you to do and enjoy things you see, but realize that God will judge you for everything you do. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰So don't be anxious and try to avoid physical pain, because even the energetic days of youth can be frustrating. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52}

Lord, I remember when I was a youth who spent my time only having fun, only entertaining myself. I remember all my wasted opportunities. Lord, I know You will hold me accountable, but be merciful and forgive. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, I now realize no one can be young forever. Yet, what I did when young will stay with me forever. So now I pray for my remaining days. May I invest them wisely, may I use my resources to please You. May I do something today that will bless others after I'm gone. Use me in my remaining life—greater than I deserve to be used. Amen.

Ecclesiastes 12 Fear God and Keep His Commands

¹While you are young, keep your Creator in mind. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} Days of trouble will come and you will say, "I don't enjoy life." ²In old age the sun, moon, and stars will not seem bright, for clouds will block out their light. ³In old age your arms will be weak, and your legs will be feeble. Your grinders, that is, your teeth, will be few, and your eyesight will grow dim. 4You will lose some of your teeth (like doors to a street), and you won't hear the noisy grinding of the grain. You will get up early because you can't sleep, and you'll have difficulty hearing birds sing. 5You will be afraid of heights and of walking down the street. Your hair will be white like almond blossoms, and you will drag along slowly like an old grasshopper. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} We will each go to our own eternal home, and the streets will be filled with mourners. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

'So remember your Creator before death comes. It will be like the silver cord snapping, the golden bowl breaking, the water pitcher being shattered, and the wheel at the well broken. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} ⁷The dust from which the human body is made will return to the ground, and man's breath will return to God who gave it. ⁸Much of human wisdom and effort is frustrating.

⁹Epilogue: The wise Teacher imparted knowledge, and he collected the thoughts about many proverbs. ¹⁰He tried to explain them in the best way possible and to write words of truth correctly. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ¹¹Words of wise people can be like the stick a farmer uses to make his animals move—they encourage godly living. And they come from God, our Shepherd, whose sayings are like nails, giving security to life. ¹²Avoid any teachings that conflict with these. Many books are written, and studying all of them can tire you out. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

¹³After everything has been said, here's the final word: Reverence God and obey His commands. That is man's total responsibility. ¹⁴God will judge everything we do, including things we've done in secret, whether good or bad.

Lord, may I learn all You want me to learn before the final days make our memory hard; before I no longer have fun in life; before my eyes become dim, before my mind gets cloudy, and my previously mighty muscles begin to tremble; before my back bends with the burden of years, and I am no longer able to work around the house; before I begin to lose my teeth, and then lose my eyesight; before I shut my mind to what's happening in the world, and my ears can't hear; before I have difficulty walking up stairs, and I am dizzy with heights; and when my hair is white like the dogwood tree in bloom, and the aphrodisiac berry no longer helps. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} Amen.

SONG OF SOLOMON

Key Verse: "My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies" (2:16).

Theme: The sons of David worked in the fields to learn character, just as David learned many lessons as a boy shepherd. In the fields Solomon met a young dark-skinned Shulamite girl, and fell in love with her. It was pure love! Suddenly Solomon was taken away to become king. She was left alone with his promise that he would return. She had dreams and desires, and as the old adage says, "Separation makes the heart grow fonder." She loved Solomon more in separation than in presence.

The day came when Solomon returned triumphantly to claim his bride. His chariot came dashing down the country road. "Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke?" (3:6).

This book is called "Solomon's Song of Songs" (1:1). But what does that mean? It means that this song is foundational to all other songs because it's about a relationship of pure love between a man and his wife; which is a picture of the believer's love for Christ. Christ loves us deeper than a bridegroom loves his new bride, and we ought to respond in kind. This is the best song that has ever been written, perhaps a "Song of Songs" about your love to Christ. Lord, I love You with all my heart because You first loved me and gave Yourself for me. Amen.

Song of Solomon 1 Giving Yourself to the One You Love is Solomon's best song.

The woman: ²Kiss me over and over because your love is sweeter than wine.

Your cologne is so nice, pleasing like your name. No wonder all the young women like you. ⁴Hurry, my love. Take me with you to your home. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2}

Friends: We are glad for you, O woman, and we praise his love even more than wine. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

The woman: How right they are to adore you. ⁵My skin is dark, but it is lovely like a dark tent in the desert or like Solomon's tent curtains. ⁶Don't stare at me just because the sun has tanned my skin. My brothers got angry with me and made me work in the vineyards. That's why I haven't given much attention to my skin.

⁷Tell me, my Lover, where you are leading your flock today and where will they rest at noon? I don't want to wander around veiled like a prostitute after other shepherds.

The man: 8My sweetheart, if you don't know, just follow the path of the sheep. You can then feed your young goats beside the tents of other shepherds. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} 9You are as gracious as the pony that leads one of Pharaoh's chariots. 10Your cheeks are so lovely, and earrings add to your beauty, just as does your necklace with many precious stones.

The woman: ¹²The king is on his couch, enjoying the fragrance of my perfume. ¹³He is like a sachet of myrrh between my breasts. ¹⁴And he is like a bouquet of flowers from the vineyards of En Gedi. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

The man: ¹⁵How beautiful you are, my darling. How beautiful. Your eyes are soft like those of a dove.

The woman: ¹⁶How handsome you are, my love. How handsome. And our bed will be green {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} ¹⁷under the cedar beams and fir rafters in our bedroom.

Lord, this ultimate song of love is a picture of my love for You. Show me Your unbounded love, so I can experience Your intimacy. {77

Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} When You said, "I will abide in you," You also reminded me, "You shall abide in me" (John 14:20). That's the oneness I want with You. Lord, Your name is wonderful; it soothes me like ointment; it heals my heart and relieves my pain. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} This is why I love You; I want to experience Your presence. I want to worship You in Your courts. Amen.

Song of Solomon 2 Love Grows in Separation

¹I am only a rose from the land of Sharon, a lily in the valley. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

The man: ²True. You are like a lily among thorns, beautiful compared to other women.

The woman: ³And you, my lover, are like an apple tree in the trees of the forest. Being with you is like being in the shade on a sunny day, and your fruit is delicious. ⁴You brought me to the banquet hall, and your love for me was like a banner over my hand. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁵Refresh me with raisin cakes and apples, because I am lovesick. ⁶Put your left hand under my head and embrace me with your right hand. ⁷Young women of Jerusalem, promise me by the swift gazelles and the deer that you won't awaken our love until the time is right. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} a gazelle or deer. He stands at our wall, looking through the windows and gazing into the room. 10He said to me, "Get up, my beautiful darling, and let's go away. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹¹Winter is past, the rains have stopped. ¹²And flowers are blooming, people are singing, and doves are cooing. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹³Fig trees are bearing early fruit, and vineyards with their grapes smell wonderful. Get up, my darling, my beautiful one, and come away with me. 14You are like a dove hiding on a cliff. Let me see your face and hear your sweet voice. Your face is so lovely. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ¹⁵Our vineyards are in blossom with tender grapes, and so we must catch any foxes that would spoil the vines."

⁸I hear the voice of the one I love. He is leaping over the mountains and hills ⁹like

The woman: ¹⁶My lover is mine, and I am his. He feeds his sheep among the lilies. ¹⁷Before daylight comes and shadows flee away, come to me, my lover, and be quick like a gazelle or young deer on the mountains. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9}

Lord, You are my rose of Sharon, Your fragrance and beauty enhance my life. You are my lily of the valley, and You give color and tenderness to all I do. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Before the breezes of life make me old, before life's shadows lengthen into darkness, let me once more return to Your presence, let me enjoy Your Word, let me talk to You until I've nothing more to say. Amen.

Song of Solomon 3 The Fulfillment of Love

The woman: 1 One night as I lay in bed, I longed for my lover. I looked for him but didn't see him. 2So I said to myself, "I will get up and search for my lover in the city streets and squares. But I couldn't find him anywhere. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 3I asked the city guards, 'Have you seen the one I love?' {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 4Soon after that I found him. I hugged him and wouldn't let go of him until I took him to my mother's home." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ⁵Young women of Jerusalem, promise me by the swift gazelles and the wild deer that you won't awaken love before it is time. ⁶Who is this coming from the desert like a cloud of smoke? He smells so nice with myrrh, frankincense, and other spices and sweet-smelling powders. 7It is Solomon being carried on a throne, surrounded by 60 of Israel's best soldiers. 8Each of them wears a sword; they are skilled warriors, ready to defend the king even at night in the dark. 9King Solomon made the carriage himself from cedar wood from Lebanon. 10Its posts are made of silver and its base is gold, and the seat is covered with purple cloth. The young women of Jerusalem lovingly covered the inside. 11You daughters of Jerusalem, come see the crown Solomon's mother gave him on his happy wedding day. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Lord, You came mightily into my desert wilderness where I am thirsty and dying, where I am lost and afraid. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} You came in Your beauty and fragrance, You came to enlighten my Spirit. You came with the many fruits of the Holy Spirit so I could eat and refresh my character. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} You came to give me heaven's finest. You sent angels to protect me. You faced my dangers before I knew them. {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24} When I couldn't protect myself, You brought a wall of protection for me. Amen.

Song of Solomon 4 How Beautiful, How Wonderful

The man: 1 How beautiful you are, my sweetheart. How beautiful. Your eyes behind your veil are as soft as doves. ²Your dark hair falls gracefully like goats skipping down the slopes of Mount Gilead. Your teeth are whiter than sheep with their wool just cut off and their skin washed. Your teeth are perfectly matched, and not one is missing. 3Your lips are perfectly shaped like pieces of red thread, your mouth is lovely, and your cheeks behind your veil are lovely and sweet like halves of a pomegranate. 4Your neck is as grand and you are as majestic as the tower of David, on which are displayed the shields of a thousand warriors. 5Your two breasts are soft like twin fawns of a gazelle content as they feed among lilies.

⁶During the night, before dawn and the shadows are gone, I will enjoy your breasts like hills sprinkled with the sweet aroma of myrrh and incense. 7My darling, you are beautiful, perfect in every way. {33 Beautiful-Prayer, Rev. 21:19} 8Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, from the peaks of mountains where lions have their dens and leopards prowl. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} 9You have stolen my heart, my bride, with one glance of your eyes, and the glow of a single bead of your necklace. 10 How wonderful is your love, my bride. Your love is so much sweeter than wine. And the aroma of your perfume is more pleasant than any spice. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹¹Your lips, my bride, are as sweet as honey. Like milk and honey in Canaan, so your love is a source of joy. Even your clothes have the sweet scent of cedar trees from Lebanon.

The woman: ¹⁶Come, north and south winds. Please blow upon me, his garden, so that he, my lover, may enjoy its choicest fruits.

Lord, I bow at your feet that brought You to earth; I praise You for bringing salvation into my heart. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} How wonderful Your eyes to see all that is, that was, and that is to be. Your heart knows my intentions; You love me deeply in spite of my shallow love to You. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} I read Your words written to all, and how meaningful are Your words that apply only to me. Your message is a scarlet thread that reaches from the throne of God to me. Therefore I can say I know You because I've talked with You and You've talked with me. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} Amen.

Song of Solomon 5 Love Restored

The man: ¹My bride, I have come to you, my garden, and I have enjoyed its spices. Our love is like eating honey and drinking wine and milk. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} As God has said, He wants us to enjoy our love like eating and drinking at a banquet.

The woman: ²One night I had a dream in which my lover was knocking {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} and saying, "My sweetheart, my dove, my perfect one, please open the door. My head is wet with dew and my hair is damp." ³But I said, "I have already taken off my robe. Should I get dressed again? And I have washed my feet. Should I get them dirty again?" ⁴My lover started to open the latch to the door, and I felt sorry. ⁵So I jumped up to open the door for him as my hands and fingers were dripping with perfume. ⁶But when I opened it, my darling wasn't there. So I searched and shouted for him, but I couldn't find him. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁷The guards patrolling the city hit me and wounded me and tore off my veil. ⁸If you, young women of Jerusalem find my lover, {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} please tell him that I am lovesick and I long to see him.

Friends: ⁹Most beautiful of women, what is so special about your lover? How is he better than anyone else so that you want us to tell him how you feel?

The woman: 10 My lover is tanned and handsome, the most outstanding among ten thousand. 11His head is as valuable as gold, and his hair is wavy and black as a raven. ¹²His eyes are gentle like doves beside water brooks, and they are set like jewels. ¹³His cheeks are as desirable as perfumed spices and herbs, and his lips are soft like perfumed lilies. 14His arms are as attractive and valuable as gold covered with jewels, and his body is handsome like ivory and sapphires. 15His lips are strong like marble and gold. He is tall like the cedar trees of Lebanon. 16His kisses are sweet. He is so handsome. Young women of Jerusalem, this wonderful man is my lover and my friend. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1}

Lord, You are magnificently divine and wonderfully human; You stand unique from anyone else. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev.

1:6} Your purity of love never changes; It is only matched by Your changeless holiness. I am the one who changes, because I am so human. When I enter Your love, I feel Your acceptance. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} But when I get sidetracked, I stray or I disobey, then I experience the rejection of Your holiness; {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} You don't change, when I move into a different relationship. When I change, You wait isolated in solitude; it's then You say nothing to me. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} You've said in the pages of Scripture all I need to know about You. You wait lovingly, patiently, and expectedly for me to come back to Your love, for You do not change Your love to me. {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7} Amen.

Song of Solomon 6 Unbroken Communion

Friends: ¹Most beautiful of women, where has your lover gone? We will help you find him. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

The woman: ²My darling has gone to his garden to pasture his flock of sheep and to gather lilies. ³I am his, and he is mine. He pastures his flock pleasantly surrounded by lilies. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2}

The man: ⁴My sweetheart, you are as beautiful as the lovely cities of Tirzah and Jerusalem. You are as impressive as an army parading with many banners. ⁵Look the other way because your eyes melt me. Your dark hair falls gracefully like goats skipping down the slopes of Mount Gilead. 6Your teeth are whiter than sheep with their wool just cut off and their skin washed. Your teeth are perfectly matched, and not one is missing. 7Your cheeks behind your veil are lovely and sweet like the halves of a pomegranate. 8If I had 60 queens and 80 concubines and many virgins, 9I would still choose you, my dove, my perfect one, your mother's favorite child. {33 Beautiful-Prayer, Rev. 21:19} The young women of Jerusalem bless you and the queens and concubines all praise you. 10 You are as majestic as the rising sun, as glorious as the moon, as bright as the sun, and as impressive as an army parading with many banners.

The woman: ¹¹I went to the orchard of nut trees and to the green valley to see the new growth on the grapevines and buds on the pomegranate trees. ¹²Before I realized it, I imagined I was riding in a chariot going back to be with my lover. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1}

Friends: ¹³Return to me, O beautiful woman from Shulam. Come back so we can see your beauty again.

The woman: Why are you interested in me?

Lord, I come to the garden to show my love to You. I come to refresh myself in Your presence, to worship You with the fruit of my tongue. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Before I knew it, I found myself caught up in the excitement of worship; I am in Christ and Christ, You are in me (John 14:20). Amen.

The man: 1O princess, your feet are pretty in your sandals. Your curved legs are like jewels, like the work of a craftsman. ²Your navel is as attractive as a glass of wine. Your waist is as slender as a heap of wheat bound with lilies. 3Your breasts are soft like twin fawns of a gazelle. 4Your neck is beautiful like ivory, and your eyes sparkle like the Heshbon pools by the gate of Bath-Rabbim. Your nose is as lovely as the tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus. 5Your head is majestic like Mount Carmel, and your hair is so pretty that its beauty captivates me. 6You are so beautiful, my love, and a complete delight. 7You are tall and slender like a palm tree, and your breasts are like clusters of dates. 8I said to myself, "I will enjoy her body like climbing a palm tree." Her breasts are delicious like clusters of grapes, and ⁹your kisses are sweeter than the best of wine, flowing gently over your lips and teeth. {33 Beautiful-Prayer, Rev.

The woman: ¹⁰I am my lover's, and he wants only me. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} ¹¹"My lover, let's go to the countryside and spend the night in a village. ¹²Let's get up early and see if the vine-yards are blossoming with grapes and if the pomegranates are in bloom. And when we are there, we can make love together. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ¹³There the mandrake flowers with their sexual power will give off a fragrant aroma, and I have stored up at our door rare fruits for you, my lover.

Song of Solomon 8 Out of the Wilderness

¹If you were my brother, I could kiss you whenever I want, and no one would question it. ²I could take you to the home of my mother; the one who taught me all I know, where I would give you delicious wine and pomegranate juice. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³Put your left hand under my head and embrace me with your right hand. ⁴Young women of Jerusalem, promise me you won't awaken our love until the time is right. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

The woman: Under the apple tree where you were born I aroused your interest in me. ⁶Place me like a seal over your heart, and with this arm bracelet remember me. Love is as irresistible as death, as possessive as the grave, {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} as passionate as fire. ⁷Floodwaters can't drown out love, nor can love be bought with lots of money. {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

Friends: ⁸We have a little sister whose breasts have not yet grown. What should we do if someone asks to marry her? ⁹If she is a wall, that is, if she has resisted temptation, then we will encourage her, like putting silver defense towers on a wall. But if she is a door, that is, if she has been loose morally, we will enclose her with boards of cedar, that is, keep her from having contact with men.

fully developed like towers. Just looking at me brings him pleasure. ¹¹He had a vine-yard at Baal-Hamon, and he rented it out to some farmers for 1,000 pieces of silver from each worker. ¹²But as for my vine-yard, Solomon, you can have my 1,000 pieces of silver, and I will give 200 pieces of silver to those who take care of the vines. The man: ¹³My lover, as you are in the gardens with friends, let me hear your voice. The woman: ¹⁴Hurry, my darling. Be quick like a gazelle or a young deer to come to my perfumed breasts, which are like mountains. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

This is a book of "Union and Communion," the title of J. Hudson Taylor's commentary on the Song of Solomon he wrote in 1893. He compares the intimacy of marriage to our intimacy with Jesus Christ. Union shows we live in Christ as He is at the right hand of the Father in heaven. We have all the "riches of the heavenlies in Christ" (Eph. 1:3). Communion shows Christ lives in us, so we have Christ's power to live a transformed life (Gal. 2:20). Union and communion reflect what Christ promises. "You in Me, and I in you" (John 14:20, NKJV). Lord, You live in my heart, I yield to Your supernatural power for my life; then I live in You, and I claim the heavenly privileges for today. Amen.

ISAIAH

Key Words: The Holy One of Israel (Isaiah's unique name for God, Isaiah 1:4)

Key Verse: "Go, and tell this people, hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not. Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed" (6:9-10).

Theme: Isaiah began his career during a time of relative peace and prosperity under two of Judah's kings—Uzziah and Jotham. However, conditions deteriorated, especially on the international scene. During Ahaz's reign in the north, Assyria became a superpower and deported away Judah's sister kingdom (Israel) in 722 B.C. During Hezekiah's reign, Assyria ravaged the Judean countryside, and the city of Jerusalem itself almost fell. Again Isaiah preached a message of hope and Hezekiah's prayer turned away Assyria.

To view Isaiah merely as a preacher about events during his lifetime is to have only half the picture, because he is perhaps best known for his prophecies about the intermediate and distant future. Isaiah 1-39 deal primarily with events during the prophet's lifetime, but the latter part of the book is almost totally concerned with the future (from their vantage point in history). Isaiah 40 begins a major section that looks ahead to Judah's intermediate return from Babylonian exile in the sixth century B.C., and her return at the end of the age when God's people will triumphantly occupy the Holy Land.

Isaiah has many prophecies about the coming Messiah; the most striking relate to Jesus' miraculous birth (7:14), His deity (9:6-7) and His suffering and death (53). Lord, thank You for the predictions of Jesus' birth and death, for these confirm to me His supernatural death for my sins. Amen.

Isaiah 1 Isaiah Declares Israel's Guilty People

¹These visions about Judah and Jerusalem came to me, Isaiah, son of Amoz, when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, were kings of Judah. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

²"You," the Lord, said "listen, heavens and earth. The children I raised have turned against Me. ³Even oxen and donkeys know their owners and care for them, but My people Israel don't know Me." {329 Obstinate-Prayer, 2 Cor. 11:4} ⁴Israel is a sinful nation, filled with guilt. They are evil and corrupt and have turned away from the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

5"Why do your people want to be punished? Why do you keep on rebelling against Me? Your head is injured, and your heart is sick. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 6You are covered from head to toe with bruises, cuts, and infected sores without any soothing oil or bandages. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 7Your country is in ruins, and your cities are in ashes." LORD, foreigners destroy Your land as the people look on and strangers tear down everything. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} 8Jerusalem is empty like a watchman's hut in a vineyard or in a field of cucumbers. It is as helpless as a city under siege. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} 9If You, the LORD of the Heavens, had not spared a few people, we would have been wiped out like Sodom and Gomorrah.

¹⁰"Listen to Me and My law, you rulers and people of Jerusalem. You are just like Sodom and Gomorrah. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹¹You offer Me a lot of sacrifices, but they mean nothing to Me. I don't want any more burnt offerings of rams and the fat from other animals. I've had enough! And I don't want any more blood from your bulls and goats. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

¹²Why do you bring all this to Me when you come to the temple? ¹³Stop bringing Me worthless sacrifices. Your incense is offensive to Me. {137 Endurance-Prayer, 2 Thess. 3:5} ¹⁴In fact, I hate your monthly new moon festivals and annual festivals; I'm sick and tired of them. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

¹⁵"When you lift up your hands and pray, I won't listen. Even though you pray many prayers, I won't hear them because you are violent and your hands are covered with blood. ¹⁶So wash yourselves clean. I don't want to see your sinful ways. Stop sinning, {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹⁷do what is good, see that justice is carried out, encourage people who are oppressed, and help orphans and widows." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}

Isaiah predicted terrible times were coming because of Israel's sin (v. 4). God had raised Israel just as a parent raises children, but God's people denied God's care and spurned His love. They refused to love God with all their hearts. We should not give Him outward worship, while we think inwardly of sin or we plan our next escapade. Isaiah says, "Stop doing wrong... learn to do good" (vv. 16, 17, CEV). Lord, because I have sinned, forgive me. Because I have drifted from You, pull me back into Your embrace. Lord, forgive me of my sin, and protect me from its consequences. Amen.

can make you as clean and pure as snow or wool." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

Christianity is a rational religion. God does reasonable things, and He expects us to reason things out. God invites us, "Let us reason together" (v. 18, KJV). Lord, I know in my mind what to do; help me do in life what I know to do. Amen.

¹⁹If you obey Me, you will have plenty of good crops to eat. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰But if you don't obey and you continue to rebel, your enemies will destroy you. I, the LORD, have spoken. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

²¹"Jerusalem, once faithful to Me, has become like a prostitute. It used to be a city known for justice and upright living, but now it's a city full of murderers. ²²You used to be like pure silver, but not now, and your wine is watered down. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³Your city leaders have turned against Me, and are friends of robbers. They take bribes and gifts, and never help orphans or widows. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ²⁴ Therefore I, the LORD of the Heavens, the Mighty One of Israel, will punish you, My enemy, ²⁵and then I will get rid of all your impurities ²⁶ and give you good judges and advisers like you used to have. Then you will be called The City of Justice and Faithfulness. ²⁷The LORD, who is just and righteous, will save those who turn to Him. ²⁸But rebels and sinners who turn from the LORD will be destroyed together." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

God always offers an open door for us to return to Him after we sin. "He will save her people (Israel) that come back to Him" (v. 27). Lord, I feel safe in Your presence. I want to stay near You. Amen.

²⁹"You will be ashamed of the times you worshiped idols among your oak trees. You will be embarrassed when you think of the idols you worshiped in gardens. ³⁰You will wither away like the fading leaves of an oak tree or like a garden without water. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³¹The strongest among you will burn like timber set on fire by their sinful ways, with no one to put out the flames." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 2 A Vision of the Glory of the Last Days

¹This is another message that I, Isaiah, son of Amoz, had about Judah and Jerusalem. ²Lord, in the future the mountain with your temple on it will be the most important spot on the earth, and people will go there from many places to worship You. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ³Many people will say, "Let's go to the mountain of the LORD, the temple of the God of Jacob, to worship there. The LORD will teach us His ways so we can follow Him." Your law and Your Word will be taught everywhere, starting in Jerusalem. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴You will settle arguments among nations. All nations will beat their swords into implements for plowing and their spears into hooks for pruning plants. No longer will nations attack each other, and training for military service will end. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Isaiah predicts a coming time of peace on the earth when all wars and war machines are done away. Swords will be beaten into plows. People will stream to worship God in Jerusalem. The LORD will settle all arguments from His holy hill among the nations. Lord, I yearn for peace and safety; there's so much hatred in the world today. Lord, I look forward to a time when You rule the world; there's so much bickering among politicians. They enact laws for selfish reasons, and line their own pockets with money. There are so many lies and such arrogant pride. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

⁵Come, Israel, let's live by the light of the LORD and obey Him. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

⁶LORD, You have deserted Your people because they follow the sinful ways of nations to the east, they practice fortune-telling like the Philistines, and they are friends with pagans. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ⁷They have lots of silver and gold, countless horses, and many idols, ⁸bowing down to idols they have made. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ⁹They will be ashamed and punished; therefore, God, do not forgive them. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

¹⁰You people, go hide in caves, and in holes in the ground because the LORD is angry and majestic. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 11People will be humbled and brought low, and the LORD will be honored. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹²LORD of the Heavens, You have chosen a day when You will put down proud and haughty people. 13You will destroy the cedars of Lebanon, the oak trees of Bashan, 14all high mountains and hills, ¹⁵every high tower and fortified wall, ¹⁶and every trading ship and great sea vessel. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} 17Everyone who is arrogant or proud will be brought down. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Only You, LORD, will be exalted, ¹⁸and every idol will be demolished. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁹As I said earlier, people will run to hide in caves and holes in the ground, because You, LORD, are angry and majestic. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²⁰In that future day people will toss their silver and gold idols to rats and bats. ²¹People will run to hide in caves, and under rocks at the tops of cliffs, because of Your anger and majesty when You come to shake the earth. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ²²People need to stop trusting others to save them; they're not able to help.

Before that time of peace, You will judge the peoples of the earth for their rebellion and sin. Every nation will be judged. All idols will be smashed and all human pride and selfishness will be punished. People will hide in holes from the anger of the Lord. I know there is terrible tribulation coming to the people of the earth, and the Day of Armageddon will follow. Lord, I will live righteously and I will wait for the rapture to go be with You. Amen.

Isaiah 3 Israel's Humiliation

¹LORD of the Heavens and the earth, You will soon take away from Jerusalem and Judah everything it needs-food, water, {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ²heroes and soldiers, judges, prophets, fortune-tellers and elders, {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ³army officers, counselors, craftsmen, and enchanters. ⁴Boys will become leaders, and young children will govern them. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} 5People will take advantage of each other, neighbors opposing neighbors. Young people will oppose their elders, and people in low positions will have no respect for honorable people. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

⁶A man will say to his relative, "Since you have a cloak, you be our leader and rule this pile of ruins." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁷But he will say, "I can't do that. I don't have any food or clothing in my house. Don't make me your leader." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17}

⁸Jerusalem stumbles and Judah falls because they have spoken against You, LORD, and have offended Your glorious presence. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁹The shameful look on their faces shows they are sinning openly like Sodom, and they are not ashamed. How terrible it will be for them because they have brought trouble on themselves. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ¹⁰But it will be well for those who are godly. They will receive a nice reward. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ¹¹But it will be terrible for the wicked. They too will get what they deserve. {29 Back-slider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹²Young people and women abuse and rule Your people, LORD. They are leading Your people down the wrong path. {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1}

¹³LORD, please take Your place as Judge, {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁴and judge elders and leaders who have ruined Your vineyard and taken belongings from the poor and put those things in their own houses. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁵They have crushed Your people and rubbed the faces of the poor in the dirt.

burlap clothing instead of nice clothes, and scars instead of beauty. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ²⁵Men will be killed in war, {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ²⁶and helpless women will sit on the ground and mourn. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23}

God described what happened when Israel turned from God, and why He will punish the nation. It sounds as if Isaiah is describing the United States as we turn from our Christian heritage. So how can Americans think God will not judge our nation? God says the young don't respect the old, or the former ways of doing things. Isn't that America? God says Israel is like Sodom—proud of her sin. Doesn't America almost "idolize" the sex lifestyle? God describes the many ways women call attention to themselves. Think of the way America sells almost everything with sex and beautiful women. Lord, You live in the past, present, and future. You have seen on many occasions all the sins of America. Nothing surprises You. God, convict America of her sins. God, revive America. God, save America. God bless America. Amen.

Isaiah 4 The Future Kingdom

¹LORD, in that future day so few men will be left that seven women will grab one man and say, "Let's all marry you. We will provide our own food and clothing. Let's be called by your name so we won't be made fun of as old single women." ²In that future day, Your Branch, that is, Your future offspring, will make the land fruitful and lush again. People who will survive will be proud of the land's excellent fruit. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ³Those who are left alive in Jerusalem will be a holy people.

⁴LORD, when You wash away the moral filth of the women of Jerusalem and cleanse Jerusalem of its bloodstains by Your Spirit of judgment and fire, {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25} ⁵then You will cover all of Zion and everyone there with a thick cloud in the daytime and a thick fire at night {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} that will be like a protective covering over Your people.

The LORD promises in the future the Shekinah cloud will return to cover His people. Just as the Shekinah went before Israel to guide them out of Egypt, God will guide His people with His presence in the future. Just as the Shekinah went behind Israel to protect them from an attacking army, so God's cover will protect His people in the future. The covering will be God Himself who meets every need of His people. Lord, I know I'll have the Shekinah covering in the future, but I need You now, I need You today. Cover me from all threats as I go about my duties. "Deliver me from the evil one." I will walk under Your cloud, and I will rejoice in Your covering. Amen.

⁶In this way Your glory will provide shade in the daytime heat and a place of shelter from storms and rain."

God promises a safe place "to hide from the storms and rain." That doesn't mean God will keep the storms from beating on us, nor does it mean there will be no storms in the believer's life. It means that in the LORD there is safety. Lord, You see the future; so help me prepare for the storms that will come. Don't let me be terrified by storms, give me godly fear of Yourself. Yet Lord, when terrifying times come, give me Your peace as I hide in You. Whether storms are money storms... health storms... job storms... family storms... or whatever; keep me safe in Your presence. Amen.

Isaiah 5 The Sevenfold Woe

¹The Lord said, "Here's a song for My loved one about his vineyard. 'He had a vineyard on the side of a fertile hill. ²He plowed the land, removed all the stones, and planted the best vines. He built a water tower nearby and made a winepress. Naturally he expected to get good grapes, but they were all wild and sour.' {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

³"Now you people of Jerusalem and Judah, you be the judge of My vineyard. ⁴What more could I have done? Why did I get bitter grapes instead of sweet grapes? {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ⁵Here's what I'll do: I'll tear down the walls around the vineyard and let the vines be trampled on. ⁶I won't prune the grapes or hoe the ground. I'll just let thorns grow over it, and I'll tell the clouds not to send rain on it. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

⁷"The point of this story is this: I am the LORD of the Heavens and the vineyard is My people, My pleasant garden. But when I looked for honesty, all I found was bloodshed, and when I looked for mercy, all I found were people weeping in distress.

⁸How terrible it will be for people who buy up houses and fields so that no one except you has any place to live."

The story of the vineyard is about ingratitude. God did everything for Israel, just as the owner of the vineyard did everything to grow grapes. He chose rich soil, dug away stones, hauled away trash, and built a tower to provide water and a winepress to produce wine. But only wild grapes grew in the vineyard. It produced nothing. This was a picture of Israel. God came looking for the enjoyment of wine, which is a picture of God looking for the enjoyment of worship from His people. He wants praise, thanksgiving, and gratitude from His people. But there's silence. So the owner judged the vineyard and took everything away. Because God judged Israel and sent her into captivity, can we expect God to do anything differently to America? Lord, when You come to examine my life, discover praise in my heart, and worship on my lips. I give You thanks for all You've given me and all You've done for me. You've done so much for me and I've done so little for You. Forgive me for my inadequacies and lack of gratitude. Thank You for forgiveness; I worship You for Your patience and grace with me. Amen.

9"I the LORD of the Heavens, say that these houses will be empty and these beautiful mansions will have no one living in them. ¹⁰A ten-acre vineyard will yield only about six gallons of wine, and six bushels of seed will yield only about a half bushel of grain. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹¹"How terrible it will be for those who get up early to start drinking and who continue until late in the evening. ¹²In their wine-drinking parties they play music on harps, lyres, tambourines, and flutes. But they never think about what I have done. ¹³Therefore I will send My people away to foreign countries because they don't know Me. Their leaders will starve, and everyone will die from thirst."

¹⁴The grave has opened its mouth wide, ready to swallow up Jerusalem's leaders and its drunken crowds. ¹⁵You, LORD, will bring down common and proud people.

Your expressions of gratitude are the acid test of your character. If you are ungrateful for all you possess—like Israel—God will take away what you have. Lord, I'm thankful for my parents, my education, and the measure of health you've given me. I'm thankful for a good mind, opportunities, and Your provision of the necessities of life. I'm thankful for opportunities of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; even though limited and frail. I'm thankful for salvation, a new nature, and being placed in the body of Christ. I'm thankful for a desire to pray and know You better; so, Lord, I pursue You this day to be magnified in my life. Amen.

¹⁶But You, the LORD of the Heavens, will be exalted because You are just, holy, and righteous. ¹⁷Then lambs will feed among the ruins, and strangers will eat among the ruins of the rich.

¹⁸How terrible it will be for those who drag their sins behind them as if they were dragging a cart full of sins. 19They say, "Let God hurry up and do something. We want to see what He can do." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} ²⁰How terrible it will be for those who call evil good and good evil, who say dark is light and light is dark, who say bitter is sweet and sweet is bitter. ²¹How terrible it will be for those who are wise in their own eyes and think themselves clever. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²²How terrible it will be for those who are so great at drinking wine and mixing drinks. ²³They take bribes to let the guilty go free, and they put innocent people in jail.

²⁴Therefore just as fire lights up straw and dry grass, so their roots will rot and their blossoms will blow away. That's because they have rejected Your law, LORD of the Heavens, and hate Your Word, O Holy One of Israel. ²⁵That explains why Your anger, O LORD, is against these people. You have struck them down, the mountains shake, and their corpses cover the streets like garbage. Even then, O LORD, You are still angry and ready to strike again. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁶You will signal for foreign nations to come and attack us, and You will whistle to other nations to come quickly. ²⁷The enemy doesn't easily tire or get sleepy, nor do they loosen their belts to relax, nor will their sandal straps be broken. ²⁸Their arrows are sharp, their bows are bent ready for battle, and their horses' hoofs are hard like flint, and their chariot wheels spin quickly like a whirlwind. ²⁹They roar like lions and growl as they pounce on their prey and carry them off where no one can rescue them. 30 They growl over their victims like the roaring of the ocean. In the land there is only darkness and trouble, and the sky is blackened by thick clouds. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 6 Isaiah's Vision of the Lord

¹In the year King Uzziah died I saw You, the LORD, sitting on a high throne, and Your robe filled the temple. ²Above You were winged creatures. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} Each had six wings. With two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³They shouted to each other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of the Heavens. The whole earth is full of His glory." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁴Their singing shook the doorposts, and the temple was filled with smoke, a sign of God's presence. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30}

⁵Then I said, "How terrible it is for me. I'm doomed because I am a sinful man just like everyone around me. And I have seen You the King, the LORD of the Heavens." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ⁶One of the winged creatures flew to me with a burning coal that he had taken from the altar with some metal tongs. ⁷He touched my lips with the coal, and he said, "This has touched your lips, and so you are now no longer guilty. Your sins are forgiven." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

⁸Then, LORD, You asked me, "Whom shall I send as a messenger for Me to My people. Who will go?" I said, "LORD, I'll go. Send me." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 9And You said, "Yes, go. But tell My people, 'You will keep on hearing what I say, but you won't understand. You will keep on seeing what I do but you won't perceive their meaning." ¹⁰God will make your heart stubborn, your ears closed, and your eyes dim. That way they can't see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, or turn to You and be healed.

The LORD called Isaiah to a ministry of failure. God told him to preach, but the listeners would not see God's truth; they would not hear and understand God's message, and they would reject his preaching. In that sense almost every believer is called today to witness about Christ to family and friends, but many do not understand and many will not respond. So like Isaiah, we are called to minister in the face of predetermined resistance. Lord, I will witness to my friends and family, even though many will not receive my message and believe the gospel. My job is not to produce fruit, but to be a faithful witness... to plant... to weed... and to water. God, I trust You to grow the harvest. Amen.

¹¹Then I asked, "How long, LORD, will this last?" {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} You answered, "Until your cities are ruined and their houses are empty, the land is a wasteland, ¹²and I have sent people away as captives and their land is in ruins. ¹³If a tenth of the land remains, it will be like a stump but it will be burned like a tree. But just as a stump remains when a tree is cut down, so the holy seed will be like a stump that will grow again." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah asked, "How long should I do this?" This was a natural question. The LORD didn't give Isaiah the answer he expected. Isaiah probably expected an answer from the calendar, that is,... weeks... months... or years. But God wanted Isaiah to be faithful to the end, whether or not he was successful. We live in a day of some spectacularly successful super mega churches. In a lifetime one pastor may build one of the largest churches in history. But for every successful pastor, there are probably thousands of pastors who minister a lifetime and only win a few. Some others win almost none who minister in cultures dominated by Islam or Hinduism, or some other blinding religion. Lord, take my eyes off of success and put them on Jesus. May I measure my success by my relationship to Jesus, and may I be satisfied with my abiding fellowship with Him. Lord, teach me to prize the important things in life. Amen.

Isaiah 7 Isaiah to Encourage King Ahaz

¹When Ahaz, son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah, was king of Judah, Rezin, king of Syria, and Pekah, king of Israel, attacked Jerusalem, but they couldn't take the city. ²When Ahaz heard that Syria and Israel had joined forces against Judah, he and everyone in Jerusalem were so afraid that they were shaking like tree leaves in a windstorm. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

Ahaz and all the people of Judah were afraid. The people of Syria had always hated God's people. The king of Syria was angry and ready to attack God's people. But their fear was compounded; Israel—the northern half of God's people—had turned traitors against the Southern Kingdom. Like brothers who sometimes fight brothers, Israel and Syria joined forces against the Southern Kingdom. Lord, I expect unsaved people to attack me, but it's difficult when people who call themselves Christian attack me. Amen.

³Then You, LORD, said to me, "Take your son, Shear-Jashub, and go meet Ahaz at the end of the canal from the upper pool, on the road to the field where people wash clothes. ⁴Tell Ahaz, 'Stop worrying and don't be afraid of the anger of Rezin and Pekah. They are nothing but pieces of wood on fire that's dying out." {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6}

King Ahaz and the Southern Kingdom "became very scared." God sent them a message through Isaiah, "Be calm... don't be afraid" (v. 4). Why be courageous because fear makes a coward and cowards are weak in battle. Jesus told His followers on numerous occasions, "Fear not." He didn't want His disciples defeated. Lord, when I can't be strong in myself, I'll be strong in You and Your promises. Amen.

5""True, they are coming against you 6 and are planning to invade Judah and defeat it and make the son of Tabeel Judah's king. ⁷But that won't happen, ⁸because the capital of Syria is only Damascus and only Rezin is in Damascus. In less than 65 years Israel will be defeated. 9And the capital of Ephraim is only Samaria, and Pekah is the head of only Samaria. If you, Ahaz, don't stand firm in your faith in the LORD, you will fall." {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ¹⁰Again the LORD said to Ahaz, ¹¹"Ask Me for proof that I will defeat your enemies as I promised. You may ask for something as difficult as you like, something in the depths below or in the heights above." 12But Ahaz said, "I won't test You, LORD." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ¹³Then Isaiah said, "God says, 'Listen, all of you in David's royal family. You have tried My patience. Will you now try patience again by not asking for proof of what I said I will do?' 14So the Lord Himself will give you proof. A virgin will become pregnant and as a virgin she will give birth to a son and will name him Immanuel, which means God is with us." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

God promised a sign that they would be victorious. The virgin will be pregnant. She will deliver a son... "Immanuel" (v. 14). Obviously, that's a prediction of the coming Messiah—Jesus Christ. He is Immanuel, that is, God with us. Isn't Jesus always our answer to discouragement and fear? Lord, when I'm afraid, I'll trust in Jesus. He makes me courageous. Amen.

15"He will eat yogurt and honey, and he will soon know the difference between right and wrong. 16And before that, the land of the two kings you are afraid of will be desolate. ¹⁷The LORD will bring more trouble on you, Judah, and your family than anything you have experienced since Israel separated from Judah. He'll bring the mighty king of Assyria." {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ¹⁸In that future day You, LORD, will whistle and armies will come from Egypt like flies and from Assyria like bees. 19They will settle everywhere in the land, in ravines, between rocks, by thornbushes, and at all the watering holes. ²⁰In that future day the Assyrians from the Euphrates will be like a razor and will shave your head, legs, and beards. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²¹A farmer will be glad to have even a cow and two goats. ²²And with the milk they give, he will have yogurt and milk. 23In that future day the lush vineyards, now worth a thousand pieces of silver, will become overrun with thorns. ²⁴The entire land will be one big patch of thorn bushes where people will hunt with bows and arrows. ²⁵People used to dig the hillsides with hoes, but no longer because thorns will be there. Cattle will be loose there, and sheep will roam there. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 8 Assyria Will Overcome Israel

¹You, the LORD, said, "Isaiah, write on a large scroll in big letters the name Maher–Shalal–Hash–Baz (meaning 'Swift to the Plunder and Quick to the Loot'). ²I will have Uriah the priest and Zechariah, son of Jeberekiah, both honest men, serve as witnesses." ³I slept with my wife and she became pregnant and had a son. You told me to name him Maher–Shalal–Hash–Baz, ⁴which suggests that before the boy can say 'Mommy' or 'Daddy,' the king of Assyria will attack both Damascus and Samaria and carry off their riches.

⁵Again the LORD spoke to me. He said, ⁶"These people have refused the gentle water of Shiloah in Jerusalem and they have been glad because of what will happen to Rezin and Pekah. ⁷Therefore I will send against Judah the armies of the king of Assyria like the flood waters of the Euphrates overflowing the banks. ⁸It will flood Judah and cover it like water reaching up to your neck, and like a giant bird it will spread its wings over all your land." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁹Go ahead, you nations, and go into battle. But you will be shattered. Get ready for battle, ¹⁰prepare your plan of attack, but they will fail, because God is with us. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

¹¹You, the LORD, spoke sternly to me and warned me not to be like these people of Judah. ¹²"Don't call something a scheme just because they do. And don't be afraid just because they are. ¹³I, the LORD of the Heavens, am the one you should regard as holy and reverence and fear."

Notice God says, "Don't be afraid of the things they fear." Not only do we have our own personal fears, but we also let the fears of others scare us with the things that scare them. Then we are doubly weak. Why? Because when people talk about their fears, they exaggerate. The answer? "Remember the LORD of the Heavens... He is the One you should fear." Lord, direct my fears to the proper source. Forgive me when I don't fear You. I know You have all power in heaven and earth. I yield to Your will. Save me from my fears. Amen.

¹⁴"I will be for you, Isaiah, a sanctuary, place of safety. For Israel and Judah I will be like a rock that will make them stumble and fall, and like a trap for the people of Jerusalem. ¹⁵Many of them will stumble and fall and will be taken captives." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁶LORD, I will seal up these words and give them to my followers. ¹⁷I will wait for You {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} even though You are turning away from Israel.

I will continue to place my trust in You. ¹⁸The names of my children and my name are signs from You, the LORD of the Heavens, who lives on Mount Zion. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁹So why should they go to mediums who try to contact the dead, and psychics, who whisper and mutter? Shouldn't they contact You? {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ²⁰These fortune-tellers should follow Your law, and since they don't, the light of the truth is not in them. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

People today are looking for answers everywhere, just as they did in Isaiah's day. Back then, they went to fortunetellers or a séance to ask the dead just like today. Look at Isaiah's response, "I will wait for the LORD to help us" (v. 17). Do you know how to "wait"? The answer to your inquiry is with Him. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} Lord, I'm not good at waiting. I like to push ahead and do things my own way. Forgive my impatience. I'm waiting. Amen.

²¹Your people will be led away as captives, tired and hungry. And when they are starving, they will shake their fists toward heaven and will curse their king and their God. ²²Everywhere they look on the earth they will see trouble and darkness and despair, and they will be driven into total darkness. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah 9 Child to Reign as Prince of Peace

¹But that time of gloom won't last forever. In the past You judged the land of Zebulun and Naphtali, but this land of the Gentiles west of the Sea of Galilee and near the Mediterranean Sea will be honored. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ²People who are walking in darkness will see a great light, and those who are living under the shadow of death will see the light.

Galilee, which had been so ravaged for centuries by foreign invaders, was the area where Jesus the Messiah was raised. When Jesus was a small boy in Galilee, the sophisticated Jews of Jerusalem looked down on the Galileans. But those who were the most depraved knew they needed a Savior, so they gladly received the message of Jesus. Lord, come to me just as You came to Galilee. {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} I need Your message; I want Your love. Thank You for sending Jesus. Amen.

³You have increased the nation in size, and You have made them happy like the way people are joyful at harvest time or the way soldiers are happy when they are picking up loot after a battle. ⁴You will break the yoke on their neck and the bar on their shoulders, and free them from their aggressors just as You destroyed the Midianites with Gideon's small army. ⁵No longer will soldiers need boats or other military equipment. Their blood-stained clothing will be burned, all because peace is coming. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁶A child has been born to us. We have been given a son and he will be the nation's ruler. His royal title will be Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace. ⁷His peaceful government will never end. {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13} He will rule forever {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} from the throne of his ancestor, David, with justice and fairness. You, the LORD of the Heavens, will see that this is done.

Isaiah described the names of Messiah. First, Jesus is Wonderful Counselor: "Wonderful" is a word used for miracles. Counselor stands for One who shares wisdom. He has miraculous wisdom. Second, as the Mighty Powerful God: Jesus has all the power that God the Father possesses. Third, He is called Father of Eternity, which means just as a father will beget a child, so Jesus is the originator of the beginning of all things. Fourth, Jesus is the Prince of Peace. He gives us peace with God which is salvation, and He becomes our inward peace over stress and turmoil. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} Lord Jesus, I use Your many names to worship You. It takes so many names to describe You because You are so vast, and because You do so much. I am overwhelmed with Your greatness. Amen. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} will hear it. ⁹In their pride they have said, 10"The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild the bricks with cut stone, and we will replace the sycamore fig trees that the enemy cut down with cedar trees." 11You caused the enemies of Rezin, king of Syria, to attack Israel. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 12These enemies will include Syrians from the east and Philistines from the west. But even then You will still be angry and You will continue punishing Israel. 13Still Your people have not turned back to You nor have they sought You, the LORD of the Heavens. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 14In one day You will destroy both head, that is, 15the leaders, and the tail, that is, the prophets, who tell lies. ¹⁶They led the people down the wrong path, and the people were led astray. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁷You did not have any pity on young men, or orphans, or widows because they were all ungodly and speak foul language. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹⁸Their sin will be like a fire that burns briers and thorns and even entire forests, sending up columns of smoke. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Did you see that evil is described as a "small fire"? Usually evil begins in a small way in your heart. You see, or hear, or touch something that is prohibitive. But you must have it; at least you want just a little touch. But evil, just like fire, burns everything it touches. Evil burns your belongings in your life. Then evil burns your soul. Then, "Everything goes up in a column of smoke." Lord, I want more than smoke. I know evil burns because I've been hurt by small evils. Touch me, Lord, and forgive all the evil I've ever done. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Heal me, Lord, from scars created by evil fires. Transform me, Lord; take away my fascination with evil-fire. Amen.

¹⁹In Your wrath, LORD of the Heavens, you have scorched the land and have destroyed the people as if they are fuel for a fire, and no one tries to help anyone else. ²⁰Like animals, they will eat but are still hungry and never filled. In fact they even eat their own children. ²¹West Manasseh and Ephraim will attack each other and will then turn against Judah. Even then You, LORD, will still be angry, and ready to punish Judah even more. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah 10 God's People Punished

1"How terrible it is for people who make unfair or troublesome laws, ²depriving the poor of their rights and desolate of justice, and robbing widows and orphans. ³What will you do when I punish you by bringing people against you from a different country? Where will you go for help? And where will you hide your valuable belongings? ⁴You will stumble along as prisoners or fall among the dead. Even then I, will still be angry and ready to punish Judah even more." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

God seems angry with lawmakers. God hates their evil intentions that produce evil results. These were lawmakers over nations, states, and cities. They enacted laws that made it hard for people, especially the poor. They got rich off their positions. They stole from widows and orphans. It looks like the problems Israel had with lawmakers is the same problem America has today. Lord, I pray for those politicians over me just as You command me (1 Tim. 2:1-3). I pray they will make righteous laws and they will live by the laws they make. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} I pray that politicians would be honest and upright. Amen.

5"How terrible it will be for the Assyrians. I will use them like a club against My people, a godless nation that makes Me angry. 6So I will send them to grab lots of loot and to stomp down on the people like trampling on mud in the streets. ⁷But the king of Assyria won't know that I sent him. He will plan to destroy Judah and also many other nations. He will say, 8'I will make each of my commanders a king. ⁹They have already conquered the Syrian cities of Calno, Carchemish, Hamath, Arpad, and Damascus, and Israel's capital city Samaria. 10 The gods of these kingdoms were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria. 11So I will destroy Jerusalem and her idols, just as I did Samaria and her idols." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²LORD, when You have used Assyria to punish Jerusalem, then punish the proud, haughty king of Assyria. {268

Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³He says, "I have conquered these places by my power and my wisdom. I took over much of their land, looted their treasures, and killed their kings. 14I took their wealth as easily as taking eggs from a chicken's nest. I gathered up nations like gathered eggs from a nest with no hen. And no one flapped a wing or peeped in protest." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁵But king of Assyria, you are only an ax, and so you aren't greater than the one who swings it. And you are only a saw, so you aren't greater than the one who uses it. A pole can't lift the one who holds it, nor can a club swing at the one who has it in his hand. 16 Therefore, You, the Lord, LORD of the Heavens, will send a terrible disease on their soldiers, and they will burn with fever. 17You, the Light of Israel, and the Holy One, will be a flaming fire that will consume the Assyrians like burning up thorns and thistles. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 18 You will completely destroy their great forests and fertile lands, like a sick person dying away. 19There will be so few trees in the Assyrian forests that even a child could count them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah describes God as a "fire." Just as a fire burns everything it touches, so God will judge all things. One day God will burn away all illegal drugs of the addict, and all alcohol that poisons lives, and all anger that causes one to hurt another. Just as a fire illuminates, God will see all evil and iniquity. Nothing sinful will escape His scrutiny.

{135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} Lord, shine Your light in my heart to see all sin and purify me. I confess I have a sinful nature; I long for the coming day when You purify my heart from sin and make me clean within. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, I Thess. 1:10} Then I will worship You from a pure mind and from honest motives. Lord, I long for that day to worship You perfectly. Amen. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9}

²⁰In that future day survivors of Israel and Judah will no longer rely on the Assyrians, but only on You, LORD, the Holy One of Israel. ²¹A few will survive and will return to You, the Mighty God. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²²Your people are as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, but only a few will return. That's because You in your righteous way have decided that many of them will be destroyed, ²³You, Lord, the LORD of the Heavens, will destroy them as You promised. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁴This too is what the Lord, the LORD of the Heavens, says: "You people in Jerusalem, don't be afraid of the Assyrians. True, they will punish you with rods and clubs as the Egyptians did. ²⁵But soon I won't be angry with you, and then I will turn My anger against the Assyrians to destroy them. {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} ²⁶I, the LORD of the Heavens, will punish them much as I used Gideon to defeat Midian and used Moses to defeat the Egyptian army at the Red Sea. {362

Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁷In that future day I will lift the Assyrian burden from you like lifting a yoke from your neck.

²⁸"The Assyrians reached Aiath, went through Migron, stored some of their supplies at Micmash, and camped overnight at Geba. ²⁹This frightened the people of Ramah, and everyone in Gibeah, Saul's hometown, ran away. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁰People in Gallim, Laishah, and Anathoth are screaming in fear. ³¹People of Madmenah and Gebim have left. 32The enemy will stop at Nob and shake their fist at mount Zion in Jerusalem, only a few miles away. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ³³I the Lord, the LORD of the Heavens, will destroy Assyria like cutting off tree branches and chopping down tall trees. 34I the Mighty One will destroy the Assyrian soldiers like cutting down forest trees in Lebanon with an ax." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah 11 The Coming Kingdom

¹Like a branch that sprouts from a tree stump, someone from David's family will be like a fruit-bearing branch. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7}

The Messiah-Jesus is predicted as a coming branch. Don't think of just a tree limb. This prediction pictures a tree that was cut down and only a stump was left. That tree was David's kingdom. Isaiah's prediction came true in 587 B.C. when the kingdom of Judah ceased and David's line of successive sons on the throne ended. There has never been another king of the Jews since 587 B.C. The coming Branch is Jesus from the line of David, through both Mary and Joseph. They mocked Jesus on the cross calling Him "the King of the Jews," and in divine providence, they were right. There is coming a day when Jesus will rule the world in peace. Sin will be no more and "Leopards will lie down in peace with goats." Lord, I submit to Your rulership now so I can enjoy Your peace in the future. You will take evil out of us, just as Your will takes the predator's nature out of lions which will then eat grass. Lord, I look forward to the elimination of my old evil nature in the future. Change me today to be like Jesus. Amen.

²The Spirit of the LORD will be with Him and will give Him wisdom, insight, counsel, power, and knowledge. And He will honor the LORD, {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17}

Isaiah predicted that the Spirit of God would rest on Jesus, so we shouldn't be surprised when we read of when it happens. The Spirit gave Jesus "wisdom, understanding, guidance, and power," and because Christ dwells in our hearts, He brings to us that same Holy Spirit of "wisdom, understanding, guidance, and power." Lord, I need wisdom today; I yield to receive it. Lord, I need understanding today; I receive it through Your word. Lord, I need guidance today; lead each step I take. Lord, I need power to live and serve You today; fill me. Lord, when I have You, I have all the Holy Spirit wants to give me; thank You for His presence. Amen.

³ and He will delight in obeying Him. He won't judge people simply by what He sees or hears. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁴He will judge the needy with fairness and justice, and He will make decisions to benefit the poor. He will put criminals to death merely by what He says. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ⁵Fairness and faithfulness will be as much a part of Him that they will be like His wearing a belt or a sash. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17}

6"Wolves will no longer kill and eat lambs; they will live together. And leopards will no longer attack goats to eat them; they will lie down together. Calves and year-old horses will be safe with lions, and a little child will lead them all. 7Cows and bears will eat together, and calves and cubs will lie down together. Lions will eat straw with oxen. 8Babies can play near snake holes, and young children can put their hands in the dens of poisonous snakes and not be hurt. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 9Nothing will be harmful or destructive in all My holy mountain, Zion. As water covers the ocean, so the land will be filled with people who know Me, the LORD." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁰In that future day one of David's descendants from the 'Root' of Jesse, will be like a signal for people of all nations to come to Him, for His land will be glorious. 11"In that future day I, the LORD, will bring back home My people from Assyria, Egypt, Ethiopia, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath, and coastlands." {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} 12He will signal the nations and will bring home the refugees of Israel, gathering the scattered people of Judah from all around the world. ¹³Israel will no longer be jealous of Judah, and Judah will no longer be an enemy of Israel. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 14Together Israel and Judah will swoop down on Philistia on the west and take loot from the people to the east, and defeat Edom, Moab, and Ammon. 15 "I will dry up the sea of Egypt, and I will send a scorching hot wind over the Euphrates River, breaking it into seven streams so that people can walk across it. 16For the people who survive I will make a highway from Assyria just as I made a road for your ancestors to come from Egypt." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28}

Isaiah 12 A Thanksgiving Song

¹On that day I will say, "I praise You, LORD, because You are no longer angry with me, and You are a comfort to me. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ²You have come to save Me, and so I trust You and I won't be afraid. You, LORD, make me strong and give me reason to sing. You have saved me." {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10}

This chapter predicts "at that time" Israel will be restored from her captivity to the Promised Land. Then, the LORD will "make me sing." That's a picture of Israel rejoicing. But it's also a picture of what God does for individuals when He saves them. Lord, You make me sing a happy song because I'm on my way to heaven. You make me sing a thankful song because you've forgiven my sins. You make me sing a reverent song in praise for all You've done. Lord, I sing worship to Your majesty. Amen.

3"With joy I drink from the wells of salvation." {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17}

Salvation is pictured as drawing water from a well. Lord, when I'm almost famished emotionally, I come to drink strength from You. Lord, when I'm too weak to carry on, I replenish myself from You. Lord, sometimes I just want to enjoy You and get satisfaction by drinking Your water. Ah! Your water is good. Amen.

⁴In that future day I will say, "Thank the LORD. Praise His name. Tell the nations the wonderful things He has done, and how great He is. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ⁵Sing to the LORD because of the wonderful things He has done. Tell everyone how wonderful He is. ⁶You people in Jerusalem, shout your praise of Him with joy. Great is the Holy One of Israel who lives among you." {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

The reason God has saved us and called us to Himself is for worship; Isaiah exhorts us, "Praise the LORD and worship Him." And how do we worship God? "Tell how great He is." Worship is not about your method of approach, God; it's about Your majesty. Worship is not about how high we jump, or how deep we bow; it's about Your exaltation. Worship is not about lifting hands or folding hands, it's about recognizing His holiness... His justice... His truth... and worth. Worship is about You. Lord, all of these things are true; I worship You. Amen.

Isaiah 13 Babylon to Become Utterly Desolate

¹This is the message God gave me about

Babylon. ²"Flags are waving on a hilltop. Cheer them on in their march against Babylon." 3LORD, You have ordered Your armies to carry out this task and to rejoice when You are victorious. 4I hear the noise of the many soldiers on the mountains. They sound like numerous nations shouting together. You, the LORD of the Heavens, have brought them together to fight in a war. ⁵They are coming from distant countries, and LORD, they are Your weapons of anger to destroy the whole earth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶You people in Babylon, cry because the time when the Almighty One will destroy is now near. ⁷Everyone's hands are weak and everyone's courage is gone. 8You will be afraid, and everyone will be in pain like a woman in childbirth. When you look at each other, your faces will be red with embarrassment. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} 9The day of the LORD is coming, a cruel day of wrath and anger against you. He will destroy your land and every sinner in it.

Why would God use an evil nation like Babylon to punish His people? God hates all sin, equally; whether it's the sin of His people or the sin of an evil nation. But it's worse when someone sins against light. So God took a powerful nation that ravished every people it conquered and used them to punish God's people living in the Promised Land. God's people sinned against His commands; they sinned in the presence of the Levitical priest when the sacred chest sat in the temple. What will the LORD do to us when we know better but sin anyway? Lord, I'm sorry for every transgression of mine. Forgive me of all my evil intentions and my outright disobedience. Cleanse me by the blood of Christ; don't deal with me according to Your judgmental nature; deal with me in grace. Amen.

¹⁰Stars won't shine, and neither the sun nor the moon will give light. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹¹"I, the LORD, will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their sins. I will stop the proud from being so haughty, and I will bring down the pride of dictators. ¹²People will be as scarce as pure gold, more rare than the gold of Ophir. ¹³I will shake the heavens and make the earth move. I, the LORD of the Heavens, will do this in My wrath and anger. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴"The people will run home to their countries like a hunted deer or like wandering sheep without a shepherd. ¹⁵Everyone who is captured will be killed by a sword. ¹⁶Their little children will be beaten against rocks while they look on, and their houses will be robbed and their wives raped. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁷I will send the Medes to attack the Babylonians, and the Medes won't be bought off with any amount of silver or gold. ¹⁸The Medes will shoot young men with arrows, and they will have no mercy on babies and children.

God doesn't ignore the transgressions of the transgressors. God used Babylon as a stick to punish Israel. But He didn't overlook the sins of those who punished Israel. The Medes and Persians defeated Babylon in 538 B.C. and later Xerxes completely destroyed the city of Babylon. Lord, I fear You, because You will punish my every sin. But Christ took my punishment for all my sin. Now I bow in worship at Your feet; thank You for complete forgiveness. Amen.

howl from the city's strongholds and palaces. Babylon's time is just about up." {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

Isaiah 14 Babylon Punished

¹You, LORD, will have mercy on Israel. They will again be Your special people, and You will bring them back to their land, and foreigners will join them as part of Israel. ²People from other nations will help Your people return home, and those who come to live with them will serve them. Israel will take as captives those who had taken them as captives, and Israel will rule over its enemies. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

³LORD, when You give Your people relief from suffering, sorrow, and slavery, ⁴they will mock the king of Babylon and say, "You, camel leaders, your end has come, and your fury is over. ⁵The LORD has crushed your evil power and has broken your sinful reign. ⁶In anger you persecuted people and never stopped abusing them. ⁷But now the land is at rest and is peaceful, and people are singing. ⁸Cypress trees and cedar trees of Lebanon are now saying, 'King of Babylon, now that you are cut down, no one will now come to cut us down.' ^{439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

⁹"The people who are dead are excited about your joining them. The spirits of the dead, including many world rulers, will welcome you. ¹⁰They will all say together, 'Now you are as weak as we are. You are just like us.' ¹¹Your pride and the music of your harps have ended here in the grave. You are covered with worms like a blanket, and maggots are like a sheet under you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹²"You Lucifer, the bright morning star, have fallen from the sky. You destroyed nations, but now you are destroyed. ¹³You said to yourself, 'I will climb to heaven and put my throne above the highest stars. I'll be seated there with the gods far away in the north. ¹⁴I will climb to the highest place in the clouds and be like the Most High God.'" {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

Isaiah writes under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit to describe the coming fall of a future king of Babylon, but actually pictures the fall of Lucifer in the historic past. Lord, thank You for telling me how one of the created angels fell into sin because of pride. Notice the five ways satan sinned, "I will ascend into heaven" (14:13). There are three heavens; (1) the atmosphere, (2) the stellar heaven, and (3) the abode of God and the angels. Satan attempted to move into the 3rd heaven, that is, into God's place. Lord, forgive me when I take credit for what You do and when I try to take Your seat on the throne of my life. The second thing is that satan wanted to "raise his throne above the stars of God" (14:13). The stars represented angels and satan wanted first place in the universe to rule all angels. Lord, forgive me of selfish ambitions that attempt to exalt myself against You. Third, satan tried to govern heaven when he desired "to sit on the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north" (14:15). Satan wanted God's role. Lord, forgive me when I try to force my decision in Your realm. Fourth, satan wanted the glory of God when he desired to "ascend about the heights of the clouds" (14:14). Clouds represent God's glory. Lord, forgive me when I try to take credit for Your work in this world, or for the good things You do in my life. Fifth, satan wanted "to be like the Most High" (14:14). Satan knew he couldn't be God, but the closest was to be like God. Even then satan knew He couldn't be God, "Creator God," or "Jehovah," the self-existing "I Am that I AM," or Adonai, the divine name of Master. The closest to God that satan could become was El Elyon, that is, the ruler of the world which is rendered by our English term, Most High. And today satan is the god of this world (2 Cor. 4:4), and satan wreaks havoc on all who swear allegiance to him. Lord, I swear allegiance to You. You are my Lord and protector. Put a hedge around me and protect me from satan (1 John 4:4). Amen.

¹⁵"But not so. You will be brought down to the lowest parts of the ground. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁶People who see you there will ask, 'Is this the one who made the earth shake and made kingdoms tremble? ¹⁷Is he the one who made the world a desert, conquered its cities, and who would not let prisoners go free?'

²²You, LORD of the Heavens, have said, "I will rise against you and destroy your children and grandchildren so they will never sit on your throne. ²³I will make Babylon a land fit for only porcupines, a land full of swamps. You will sweep the land to destroy it like You are using a broom." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁴You, LORD of the Heavens, have made this promise: "Everything I have planned will take place just as planned. ²⁵I will defeat the Assyrians in My land, and I will trample on them on My mountains. My people will no longer be slaves to the Assyrians. ²⁶This is My plan in the whole world; My hand of control will stretch over all nations. ²⁷I, LORD of the Heavens, have spoken, and no one can stop Me." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

²⁸This is the message God gave me in the year King Ahaz died. ²⁹"You Philistines, don't be happy that the king who attacked you is dead. Like a broken rod, he's gone. But his son will be far worse than he ever was. From the snake will come a poisonous viper, a fiery serpent. ³⁰I will feed your very poor people and your needy will rest in peace. But I will starve you with a shortage of food and others will be killed. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³¹"You Philistine cities, cry because you are doomed. A well-trained army is coming from the north like a snake. Every soldier is in rank, ready to fight. ³²What should you tell messengers who come from a faraway country? Tell them that the LORD has built Zion, and the poorest of His people will be safe there." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 15 The Doom of Moab

¹This is God's message about Moab. "In one night your cities of Ar and Kir will be destroyed and ruined completely. ²People in Dibon will go up to their temples and shrines to mourn over Nebo and Medeba. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} In sorrow they will shave their heads and cut off their beards. ³They will wear burlap clothing in the streets, and at home they will weep. ⁴Crying in Heshbon and Elealeh {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} will be heard in Jahaz. Moab's burnt warriors will cry out in fear. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

5"I pity Moab. The people run to Zoar and to Eglath-Shelishiyah, and they cry on the way to Luhith and all along the road to Horonaim. ⁶The streams in Nimrim are dried up, the grass is withered, and all the vegetation is gone. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ⁷The people of Moab carry what things they can as they run across Willow Creek. ⁸Everywhere in Moab people are weeping, from one end to another, from Eglaim to Beer-Elim. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 9The streams near Dimon are red with blood, but I am still not finished with Dimon. Those who try to escape will be attacked by lions." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah the prophet weeps as he sees the coming destruction by Assyria of Moab, Bajith, Dibon, Nebo, Medeba, Heshbon, Elealeh, and Jahaz. These Moabite cities will be quickly—in a night—destroyed. These were constant enemies of Judah, but Isaiah was not quick to rejoice when an enemy was eradicated. But he weeps, as should any servant of God when their enemies are punished. Lord, I don't like to be punished, and I don't want to see any of my enemies punished. I pray that You will save those who hate me. Lord, do good to those who would do me harm. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} May they see You properly and see the error of their ways (Luke 6:27-38). Amen.

Isaiah 16 Moab Shall Be Utterly Desolate

¹"Moab's refugees at Sela will send lambs to Jerusalem to ask for help."

Isaiah says the only hope for Moab is to make peace with Judah. The words "Send a lamb from Sela" (the reference to Petra, the capital of Edom), meant Moab had to recognize the Davidic dynasty was set up by God. Moab had to recognize the living God of David and of the Jews. Lord, I recognize all You did for Your people the Jews. You blessed them when they obeyed, and You punished them when they sinned. Lord, I know You will do the same to me. So I will obey You and worship You with all my heart. Amen.

²"The women of Moab will be at the crossings of the Arnon River like homeless birds. ³They cry, 'Help us and protect us like a daytime shadow. Hide us and don't betray us. ⁴Let us fugitives stay with you, and shelter us.'

"Oppression will end and the enemy will disappear. ⁵Then a faithful descendant of David will sit on his throne, {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} and he will rule in fairness and do what is right.

6"We have heard of Moab's pride, conceit, and empty boasts. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 7The people creep and long for the raisin cakes of Kir-Hareseth. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 8They weep because the farmlands of Heshbon and the vineyards of Sibmah are dried up, The rulers of nations have trampled down Moab's grapes from vineyards that used to reach all the way to Jazer and across the desert and beyond the Dead Sea. 9But now I mourn for Jazer and Sibmah, and weep for Heshbon and Elealeh because there is no joy over the harvest fruits. 10 There is no joy in the orchards, no singing in the vineyards, and no joyful shouts when grapes are pressed in the winepresses. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} 11I weep for Moab as if I were playing a mournful tune on a harp. My sorrow for Kir-Hareseth is great. ¹²When Moab's people go to their hilltop shrines to pray to their idols, it does them no good. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹³I the LORD have said all this about Moab in the past. ¹⁴Now I say that within three years Moab's greatness will be gone, her people will be hated, and only a few people will survive." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah 17 The Doom of Idolatrous Israel

¹This is God's message to me, Isaiah, about Damascus. "Damascus will no longer be a city. It will be nothing but ruins. ²The villages of Aroer will be deserted, with only sheep lying down there and no one to chase them away. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³Just as Israel will lose its fortress, so Damascus' great power will end. The few survivors in Syria will suffer the same fate as Israel. I, the LORD of the Heavens, have promised this.

⁴"In that future day, when Assyria will invade Israel and Syria, Israel's glory will decrease and people will lose weight because of the lack of food."

Isaiah predicts the downfall of the alliance between Syria and Israel, the northern nation. Tiglath-Pileser, king of Assyria, destroyed Damascus in 732 B.C. Note that Isaiah predicts the downfall of Israel in this chapter, "Israel's wealth will be gone." The King James reads, "Israel shall be made thin" (v. 4). Lord, when I see You judge Your people for sin; I re-examine myself. I will confess obvious sins, and I will search for hidden sins. Lord, see my repentant heart and have mercy on me. Amen.

7"In that future day people at last will think of Me, their Creator, and will look to Me, the Holy One of Israel. 8They will no longer look to their altars and the idols they have made. They will never again worship Asherah poles or burn incense on altars they've made. 9Cities Israel conquered will be as deserted as places overgrown with weeds. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁰Israel, you have forgotten Me, the God who can save you; I who am like a rock where you can be protected. You plant nice flowers and vines. 11 They may bud the very morning after you plant them, but you'll have no harvest. Instead you will suffer endless pain. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

¹²"The nations are noisy like a raging ocean, roaring like a terrible flood. ¹³They may roar like rushing water, but I will give the word and they will turn back. They will be like dust or like a tumbleweed blown by the wind in a storm. ¹⁴An enemy attacks us at night, but by morning they are gone. This is what happens to those who rob you." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

Isaiah 18 The Doom of Ethiopia

³"I will raise My battle flag for everyone to take notice. And they should all listen when the trumpet sounds." ⁴The LORD said to me, "I will look on quietly from My temple, like the heat on a summer day or like dew forming quietly on a morning in the harvest season."

⁵Assyria, before you begin your attack, God will cut you off like cutting off ripened grapes. He will cut you off as with pruning shears and will cut off the spreading branches. ⁶Your soldiers will be left to be eaten by wild birds all summer and wild animals all winter. ⁷People will bring gifts to You, the LORD of the Heavens, in Jerusalem, gifts from the land divided by the branches of the Nile and from people who are tall, smooth-skinned, and are feared by people everywhere. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah describes Ethiopia as "filled with the sound of wings," which is a picture of the swarming insects who cover Africa with frequent plagues to cause continuous famine. Lord, nothing much has changed in Africa;

there are still plagues and famine. I pray for revival in Africa. Lord, Isaiah predicts that "gifts will be brought in the end time" by Ethiopians to You, LORD, Most High. Amen.

Isaiah 19 Egypt Judged

¹This is God's message to me about Egypt. "Notice that I am riding on a cloud against Egypt. The idols of Egypt shake in fear, and the people are afraid. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 2I will cause the Egyptians to fight against each other, including brothers, neighbors, cities, and provinces. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ³The Egyptians will be completely discouraged because I will confuse their plans. They will ask their idols for help, and they will try to get advice from the spirits of the dead, and from fortune-tellers and psychics. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} 4I will hand the Egyptians over to a cruel master, a fierce king," says the LORD, the LORD of the Heavens. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

5"The Nile will dry up and its riverbed will be parched. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 6The canals and streams of the Nile will become dry, and the papyrus reeds 7 and plants will dry up. Every field will dry up and its crops will blow away. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} 8Fishermen who use hooks and nets will die away. {388 Provision of Food

Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 9Weavers will have no flax or linens 10 and so they will all be discouraged. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

11"The officials at Zoan are fools and they give Pharaoh stupid advice. They say they come from a long line of wise ancestors. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} 12But Pharaoh, where are those counselors now? If they are so smart, they should be able to tell you what I the LORD of the Heavens, had planned for Egypt. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 13But these officials of Zoan and Memphis are fools and are deceived, leading her people astray. 14I have sent a spirit of foolishness on them so that they stagger and vomit. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ¹⁵No one in Egypt, leaders or common people, can help them in any way. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

¹⁶"In that future day the Egyptians will be weak like women, shuddering with fear because of the LORD of the Heavens who will oppose them. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁷The Egyptians will be terrified by just the mention of Judah." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah makes an unusual prophecy about Egypt that included both God's judgment and God's blessing. This prediction comes when Judah was depending on an alliance with Egypt because throughout history, Egypt had been the dominant power of the world. God is telling His people not to depend on a world power for protection, but upon God's sovereign power. Lord, I depend on strong things to protect me like police, courts, and the laws of the land. While these may be good, still many good people suffer loss and harm. Lord, I look for Your protection, even in a good land among good people. Lord, raise up a "hedge" to protect me (Job 1:10). Amen.

¹⁸"Five of Egypt's cities will follow Me, the LORD, and will even speak Hebrew and pledge their allegiance to Me, the LORD of the Heavens. One of these will be Heliopolis, the City of the Sun. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 19An altar will be built to Me in the very heart of Egypt, and a monument will be set up to Me in Egypt. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ²⁰This will be a sign to remind them that they will witness to Me, the LORD of the Heavens, in Egypt. When the Egyptians ask Me for help against their enemies, I will send someone to rescue them. {218 Help the Oppressed by Prayer, Ps. 10:8-9}

²¹"In that future day I will make Myself known to the Egyptians, and they will worship Me with sacrifices and offerings and make promises to Me and keep them. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²²I will punish Egypt, but then I will restore them. They will turn to Me and I will respond and heal them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²³In that future day a highway will extend from Egypt to Assyria, and the Egyptians will go to Assyria and the Assyrians to Egypt, and they will worship Me together. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²⁴Israel will join them and be a blessing to them. ²⁵I, the LORD of the Heavens, will bless Egypt, My people, and Assyria, whom I made and Israel, My special people." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

Isaiah 20 Philistia's Chief City to Be Sacked

¹King Sargon of Assyria went to Ashdod and captured it. {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} 2"At that time I spoke to Isaiah and said, 'Don't wear your outer garment of burlap or your sandals.' And he did as I told him." {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} ³Then I said, "My servant Isaiah has not been wearing his outer garment for three years. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} ⁴This is a sign to warn Egypt and Ethiopia not to trust in Assyria because Assyria will lead Egyptians and Ethiopians into captivity with hardly any clothes on. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ⁵The Philistines who trusted in Egypt and Ethiopia to help them will be afraid and embarrassed. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ⁶And the Philistines will say, 'We turned to these two countries to help us against Assyria. But look what happened to them. So is there any hope there for us?" {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

Isaiah was told by God to take off his burlap outer garment (that was a sign of repentance) and "walk naked and barefooted" (20:2). Some scholars teach that Isaiah was not nude or naked without clothes (because of a strong ethic by the Jews against nakedness). So these scholars describe Isaiah walking in his underwear, itself a shock. Other scholars teach that the nature of the prediction—that Assyria would capture both Egypt and the Ethiopians—was descriptive of what Assyria did to its captives. Prisoners were stripped naked, chained together, and deported to a foreign land. So Isaiah's nakedness was a prediction of what Assyria would do. Lord, I believe You demand modesty of Your people, so I will dress appropriately to bring glory to You. Nakedness was a symbol of Adam and Eve's first sin, so I will not expose my nakedness, nor be impure in areas of sexuality. Amen.

Isaiah 21 An Approaching Storm

¹This is a message about the Babylonians, by the Persian Gulf, the Desert by the Sea: A nation will invade you like a whirlwind from the desert. 2I, Isaiah, saw a vision of one nation destroying another and of lots of loot being taken. Elamites and Medes will attack you. You, Babylon, will fall. The LORD will end the groaning of the many nations cursed by Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 3I'm in pain like a woman in childbirth, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} and I'm disturbed by what God is planning to do. 4My heart skips a beat, I'm trembling with fear. The evening, usually a pleasant time, is now a time of fear. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

⁵You Babylonians continue to feast as if nothing will happen. But officers, get up, grab your shields, and get ready for battle. ⁶The Lord said to me, "Have a watchman on the city wall ready to report what he sees. 7When he sees chariots and horses and soldiers riding donkeys and camels, tell him to sound an alarm." 8Then the watchman said, "I have watched for several days and nights. 9Now at least I see a man with a team of horses and he is shouting, 'Babylon has fallen! All its idols lie broken on the ground." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰My people, Judah, you are crushed like wheat on a threshing floor. But I am only telling you what the LORD of the Heavens has told me. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

¹¹This is a message about Dumah: From the country of Edom someone keeps shouting to me, "Watchman, when will morning come?" ¹²And he said, "Morning is coming. But then night will fall again. If you want to ask again, then come back and ask." {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4}

¹³This is a message about Arabia: Caravans from Dedan, camping in the desert of Arabia, ¹⁴bring water to the thirsty. And you people in Tema, take food to the refugees. ¹⁵They are tired from running from the enemy's swords and arrows. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ¹⁶"I, the LORD, say that within a year all the glory of Kedar will end, just as a worker's contract ends after a year. ¹⁷Only a few archers will survive. I, the LORD, the God of Israel, have spoken these words."

Isaiah describes Babylon as located "in the desert by the sea," a reference to the alluvial plains surrounding Babylon, that is, surrounded by a sea of sand. This is an amazing prophecy because Babylon has not yet grown into a world power. When Isaiah wrote, both Egypt and Assyria were the most fearsome powers in the world. But the eternal God who lives in the past, present, and future, knew what was coming. So God knew Babylon would grow in power to destroy both Assyria and Egypt. Then almost a century later, a new world power Medo-Persia would destroy Babylon. So in chapter 21 God is looking far into the future. Lord, I'm amazed when you accurately predict the future, "You calleth those things which be not as though they were" (Rom. 4:17, KJV). Because You know the future, I trust my future to You. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} Lead me where I should go, make me what I should be, and use me as You will. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Amen.

Isaiah 22 Jerusalem Judged

¹This is a message about Jerusalem, the Valley of Vision: {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} Why are you celebrating on your flat rooftops ²when the city is in an uproar? Bodies of dead people weren't killed in battle by the sword. ³Instead your leaders ran but were captured without a fight. And others tried to get away, but they were captured too. ⁴So I said, "Let me weep. Don't try to comfort me as I see my people being destroyed."

The valley of vision may refer to a valley where Isaiah got this vision of the fall of Jerusalem. Others think the valley refers to the Tyropoeon Valley which runs between Mount Zion (where most of the people lived) and Mount Moriah (the temple mount). Therefore this is a vision of Jerusalem itself. In either case, Isaiah describes with accuracy the fall of Jerusalem. Those who heard Isaiah rejected his message because they thought Jerusalem was the eternal city set on a mountain; no one could conquer her. But God allowed Babylon to conquer them because of Israel's sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Lord, teach me to fear sin, because it will destroy me. But more importantly, teach me to fear You because You demand holiness {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} in Your children. Amen.

⁵The Lord, the LORD of the Heavens, has caused confusion and fear in the valley. Jerusalem's walls have been broken down and crying can be heard in the nearby mountains. ⁶The Elamites are the archers riding in chariots, and the soldiers of Kir hold up their shields in defense. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷The enemies' chariots are everywhere in your valleys, and cavalrymen are at the city gates. ⁸Judah is left defenseless. When you ran to the armory in the Forest Palace, ⁹you saw the holes in the walls of Jerusalem. You stored up water in the Lower Pool, ¹⁰and you tore down some of the houses to get stones to repair the city wall. ¹¹Between the city walls you built a reservoir for water from the old pool. But this won't help you because you didn't ask God for help. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

¹²When all this happened, the Lord, the LORD of the Heavens, told you to weep and mourn, to shave your heads, and to wear burlap clothing. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹³But instead you eat beef and lamb and drink wine, saying, "Let's eat and be happy because tomorrow we may die." ¹⁴The LORD of the Heavens has told me He won't forgive your sin, as long as you live. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁵The LORD of the Heavens gave me this message for Shebna, the palace administrator: 16"Why are you building a tomb for yourself from this rock? {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ¹⁷I will send your army into captivity. 18I will roll you into a ball and toss you away into a distant land. You will die there, and your great chariots will be useless. You are a disgrace to your master, ¹⁹so I will take away your job. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰Then I will replace you with Eliakim, son of Hilkiah. ²¹He will wear your royal robes and will have your authority. He will be concerned for the people of Jerusalem like a father is concerned for his children. ²²I will give him the key to the house of David. He will open and close doors and no one can close or open them. ²³He will keep firm on his position as a tent peg. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} 24He will bring honor to his family. ²⁵But that day the peg will come loose and fall, and everything hanging on it will come loose. I, the LORD, have spoken these words."

Isaiah 23 Tyre and Zidon Judged

¹This is God's message about Tyre: "Weep, O ships of Tarshish. Your harbor at Tyre is gone: And houses in Tyre are destroyed too. What you heard in Cyprus is true. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²Your people of the coast and your merchants of Sidon, mourn in silence. ³Your sailors crossed the sea, and brought grain from Shihor, a Nile River branch in Egypt, and harvests along the Nile. You became the leading center for many nations.

4"Sidon, you are a fortress built on the coast. The sea has said, 'I didn't go through labor to have children. I produced wealth without going through pain.' 5When Egypt hears the news about Tyre, she will be in agony over her financial losses. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 6Flee to distant Tarshish, and be sad, you people who live along the coast. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 7It's hard to believe that this has happened to Tyre, a city full of joy, who sent people off to live in distant lands. 8Who planned all this against Tyre, that great city, whose merchants are famous like princes and whose traders are known everywhere? 9I, the LORD of the Heavens, planned this in order to destroy your pride and to humble all famous people. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

the LORD, hold out My hand over the seas and I disturb the nations. I have given orders to destroy fortresses in Canaan. ¹²I said to the people of Sidon, 'Stop celebrating, because you are now crushed. Even if you go to Cypress, you won't find any rest there.'" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah's burden (message) of judgment against Tyre extends to the entire nation, not just this one city. Historically, this was the nation of Phoenicia, today called Lebanon. Phoenicia was a nation built on a commercial shipping enterprise. They traded with Egypt, plus all the nations of the Mediterranean world. Isaiah begins with a statement of God's judgment on this nation, yet ends with a message of hope. Lord, You gave both the carrot and the stick. You promised blessings {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} and You promised punishment {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}. I will claim Your blessings and avoid Your punishment. I will live according to Your commands. Amen.

13"Look at the Babylonians, who are now nothing. The Assyrians attacked the Babylonians, and made it so desolate that only desert animals live there. The Assyrians built siege ramps against Babylonian's walls, tore down its palaces, and made it nothing but a pile of rubble.

¹⁴Weep, O ships of Tarshish, because your part of Tyre is destroyed. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁵Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years, the length of a king's life. Then after those 70 years, Tyre will sing like a prostitute. ¹⁶Play the harp, walk through the city, and sing several songs so you will be remembered. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ¹⁷Yes, after 70 years Tyre will be like a prostitute. ¹⁸But none of what is earned will be hoarded. Instead her earnings will be for the LORD and will provide food and clothing for the LORD's priests. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

Isaiah 24 Judgment on the Nations

¹You, LORD, will destroy and devastate the earth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} You will make it a wasteland and scatter the people everywhere. ²This will happen to everyone: priests and ordinary people, masters and servants, mistresses and maids, sellers and buyers, borrowers and lenders, and debtors and creditors. ³The earth will be completely emptied and much loot taken. You, LORD, have spoken. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ⁴The earth will dry up and waste away, and its great leaders will weaken. 5The earth is contaminated by the people's sins. They have disobeyed the LORD's laws, nor kept His commands, and have broken the everlasting promise.

This section of Isaiah has been called the "Little Apocalypse" because it looks at the immediate judgment of the Gentile nations, but it also looks far into the future to the final judgment during the Tribulation period. These past tense verbs of what God has done are technically "prophetic perfects." Thus Isaiah sees the events of the future as though they have already happened. Lord, You know what will happen in the future, so I trust You today. {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} Lead me and keep me from making mistakes; I want to live right in the future. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Amen.

⁶Therefore a curse is on the earth, and the people are guilty. They will be destroyed by fire and there will be few survivors. ⁷Grapevines will dry up and there will be no more wine. People who used to make music will groan. ⁸Tamborines and harps will not be played, and shouts of joy will not be heard. ⁹People will not sing as they drink wine because strong drink will be better.

¹⁰The city is in ruins, and doors of houses are locked to keep looters out. ¹¹People gather in the streets wanting wine, but all joy is gone. ¹²The city is in ruins, and its gates are damaged. ¹³The same will be true throughout the world. Just a few people will be left alive, like a few olives left on an olive tree or a few grapes left on the vine. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴But those who are left will shout for joy. Those in the west will praise You, the LORD, for Your majesty, {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ¹⁵those in the east will give You glory, {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} and those on the coast will exalt You, the LORD, the God of Israel. ¹⁶You can hear people everywhere singing, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

"Glory to the Righteous One." But I said, "I feel terrible. So many people are evil and are betraying each other." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁷Everywhere people face terror and are trapped by their sins. ¹⁸If you are terrified and run, you may fall into a pit. And if you get out of the pit, you may step into a trap. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Destruction will fall on you from the sky, and the earth will tremble beneath you. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ¹⁹An earthquake will shake everything and will cause great crevices to open up. ²⁰The earth will stagger unsteadily like a drunkard and sway like a watchman's hut in a windstorm. Burdened down with so much sin, the earth will fall and not rise again.

²¹In that future day the LORD will punish spiritual forces that oppose you and proud rulers on the earth. ²²They will be gathered together and shut up in prison and then punished. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³The brightness of the moon and the sun won't be needed because of the glorious reign of You, the LORD of the Heavens, on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem before all the leaders of the people. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

This chapter describes divine judgment when people are partying and getting drunk. God intervenes in their self-inflicted addictions to bring punishment. Then the LORD invites His people to break into song, "These songs praise God, the Righteous One." {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} Lord, I never thought of praising You because You judge sin; but when You judge sin, it's the only thing You can do. It's the right thing to do because a holy God cannot allow sin to go unpunished. Lord, thank You for the cross where my sin was judged; thank You that Jesus died and was punished for me. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} When I think of people being judged, I rejoice that the Bible promises, "God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain..." (Rev. 21:4). Amen.

Isaiah 25 The Song of the Redeemed

¹You, LORD, are my God. So I will praise You. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} You do such wonderful things and You are so faithful in carrying out everything You planned. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

This chapter begins with a testimony of praise, "O Lord, You are my God" (25:1). The survivors of the Tribulation will exalt God for His great intervention on their behalf. They fall on their faces to worship Him, "I will praise Your name" (25:1). The strong nations have been defeated, and God's people magnify Him, "You have been a refuge from the storms" (25:4). Lord, I commit my whole life to You; keep me safe {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} when the pressures and storms of life attack. Amen.

²You turn cities into piles of rubble, and fortified cities into ruins. They will never be rebuilt. ³Therefore strong and cruel nations will honor and reverence You.

⁴You protect the poor from the storms of life and You protect the needy in their times of distress. You are a shelter from the storms and a shade from the oppressive heat. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Even the breath of heartless people is like a storm beating against a wall ⁵or like the awful heat of the desert. But You can silence the boastful singing of heartless people just as a cloud can reduce heat. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

When Isaiah says, "He will swallow up death forever" and "the LORD God will wipe away all tears" (25:8), there can be no doubt he is referring to the Jewish millennial kingdom of the future. Lord, I go through problems and pain on this earth knowing I will live in peace with You {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} in the future. Amen.

⁶In Jerusalem You, the LORD of the Heavens, will make a wonderful feast for everyone in the world. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} It will be a feast of good food and the best meats and wines. ⁷You will remove death that covers everyone like a cloud. ⁸You will swallow up death forever. You, the Sovereign LORD, will wipe away everyone's tears and remove the shame of Your people. You, LORD, have spoken.

⁹In that future day people everywhere will say, "This is our God. He saved us. He is the LORD, and we trusted in Him. So let's rejoice in the salvation He gives." {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁰You, LORD, will place Your hand of blessing on Jerusalem. Moab, typical of all Israel's enemies, will be punished like trampling down straw. ¹¹Like a swimmer spreading out his hands to swim, Moab will try to save itself. But You will bring down their pride despite their cleverness. ¹²You, LORD, will destroy Moab's high fortified walls, bringing them to the dust. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Isaiah 26 Song of Joy

¹In that future day this song will be sung in Judah: {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} "Our city Jerusalem is strong because You, the LORD, defend its walls and defenses. ²Open the city gates so that Israel, God's righteous nation, can enter. ³You, God, give perfect peace to those whose thoughts are on You and who trust in You. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ⁴We trust in You, LORD, because You are dependable and strong, like a mighty rock."

This chapter opens with the redeemed ones entering the eternal city in the millennial kingdom. They sing a great song of praise in the land of Judah (lit., praise). Their salvation is not just physical, but God completely cares for His people in all ways. Lord, I look forward to living with You throughout all eternity. Amen.

5"You bring down those who are proud. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} You bring down to the dust the city that is haughty. 6The oppressed and poor will trample it under foot."

⁷The path of the righteous is easy, and You, O upright One, make their path smooth. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁸LORD, we wait for You to punish the wicked, and we want Your reputation to be known everywhere. 9My soul longs for You both in the night and in the morning. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} People will learn what righteousness truly is like when they are judged. 10Yet even Your grace doesn't always influence them to be righteous. They keep on sinning and have no interest in Your majesty. ¹¹O LORD, even when You raise Your hand to act, they ignore it. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} They need to see how eager You are to defend Your people. Perhaps then they will be ashamed. But since they don't, let fire consume them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹²LORD, please give us peace. We know that everything we have done is because of You. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹³O LORD, our God, others have ruled over us, but You are the only one we honor. ¹⁴These rulers are dead and will never live again. You punished them and brought them to ruin, and no one remembers them. ¹⁵Our nation has grown, O LORD, because of You {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} and we have more land than before.

16"LORD, when You punished us Your people, we came to You, but we could barely whisper a prayer. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ¹⁷When we came to You we were like a woman in the pain of childbirth. ¹⁸But in our pain, instead of having a child we produced only wind. We have not brought salvation to others. ¹⁹Yet those who belong to You will live. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Their bodies will rise again. Those who are dead will wake up and shout for joy. By being raised they will be refreshed as dew refreshes the grass each morning."

God promises, "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee" (26:3, KJV). The promise of "peace" literally reads, "peace, peace," which is the Hebrew way of indicating God's peace goes beyond human understanding. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} Lord, I want Your peace that is the only real peace, so I will lean on You to get it. Amen.

²⁰Israel, go home and lock your doors and hide until the Lord is no longer angry. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²¹LORD, You are coming to punish people for their sins. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Everyone will see those who shed the blood of others.

Isaiah 27 A Song of the Vineyard

¹In that future day, You, LORD, will pierce with a great sword the serpent Leviathan, the dragon of the sea, a picture of God's enemies. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²In that future day we will sing about Israel, a fruitful vineyard. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ³You, LORD, will care for it, watering it and guarding it. ⁴You are no longer angry at Israel. If You find sin in Israel, like thorns, You will deal with it. ⁵If Israel comes to You for safety, it will then be at peace with You.

⁶In that future day Jacob will take root like a vine, and it will blossom and provide fruit for all the earth. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ⁷LORD, You haven't punished Israel the way You punished their enemies. ⁸You dealt with Israel by war and captivity, and You forced Israel out of her land like being blown out by a scorching heat or an east wind. ⁹This was Your way of purging Israel of its sins. Then Israel will show that they have been forgiven by crushing to pieces the pagan altars, Asherah poles, and incense altars. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁰Israel's fortified cities will be empty like the desert. Cattle will graze and lie down there, and strip the trees of their branches. ¹¹When tree twigs are dry and fall to the ground, women will pick them up and use them to build a fire. Because Your people are stupid, You, their Maker, will show no mercy.

¹²In that future day You will gather Your people one by one like grain, from the Euphrates River to the river of Egypt. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹³In that future day a great trumpet will be played. And Your people who were dying in Assyria and were captives in Egypt will worship You on Your holy mountain in Jerusalem. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Isaiah says, "a great trumpet" (27:13) will be blown to regather His people into the Promised Land from around the world. Lord, I'm listening for the trumpet {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} when Jesus shall come. Amen.

Isaiah 28 Israel Learns

¹How terrible it will be for Samaria, the pride of Israel's drunkards. It is located in a rich valley, but its beauty will fade like that of a flower. ²You, LORD, are powerful and strong. You will throw Samaria to the ground with the force of a hailstorm, a terrible wind, a driving rain, or a downpour of rain. ³Samaria, the pride of Israel's drunkards, will be trampled beneath its enemies' (Assyrians') feet. ⁴That fading flower and beautiful city in a rich valley will suddenly lose its glory. It will be snatched up as an early fig is picked and eaten. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁵In that future day You, the LORD of the Heavens, will be like a crown and a beautiful wreath for Your people. {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14} ⁶You will make

Your judges want to exercise justice, and You will give Your soldiers courage as they defend their city at the gate.

⁷Now, however, Israel's priests and prophets stagger because they are drunk. They are confused, and they make stupid decisions. ⁸Their tables are covered with vomit and filth. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁹They say to me, "Isaiah, who do you think you are? Do you think of us as little children just weaned? ¹⁰You repeat yourself in silly baby talk, saying, 'Do and do, do and do, rule on rule, rule on rule, a little here, a little there.'"

¹¹Since they didn't listen to me, Isaiah, then You, the LORD, will speak to them in a foreign language. 12 You had offered them rest in their own land, but they refused to listen. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} 13So again You will say to them, "Do and do, do and do, rule on rule, rule on rule, a little here, a little there." 14Therefore you scoffing rulers in Jerusalem, listen to what the LORD says, 15"You boast that you have made a bargain with death {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and an agreement with the grave so that you will avoid both. Thus when the Assyrians attack us, they won't be able to touch us. Our lies and deceptions will keep us safe." ¹⁶The sovereign LORD also says this: "I am laying a cornerstone in Zion. It is tested and firm and safe to build on. Whoever trusts Me need never be agitated and confused. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ¹⁷With the measuring line of justice and the plumb line of upright living, I will measure the foundation wall you built. It looks fine, but since it is built on a lie, a hail storm will knock it down, and a flood of water could sweep it away. ¹⁸Your bargain with death {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and your agreement with the grave will be canceled. When the enemy comes in like a flood, you will be trampled. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹Again and again that flood will come, morning after morning, day and night, until you are carried off."

This message will be terrifying. ²⁰To seek protection from false gods will be as inadequate as a short bed or a narrow blanket. ²¹You, the LORD, will come against the enemy just as You did against the Philistines at Mount Perazim and against the Ammonites in the Gibeon Valley. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} You will do a strange thing, that is, You will destroy Your own people. ²²So you people stop mocking or your punishment will be even worse. You Lord, the LORD of the Heavens, told me of the destruction You have in mind for Your people. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

²³Listen carefully to what I say. ²⁴Does a farmer plow continually and never sow? Does he break up the soil and never plant seeds? ²⁵Doesn't he finally plant seeds for dill, cumin, wheat, barley, and spelt? ²⁶He knows what to do because God has taught him. ²⁷Dill and cumin aren't threshed with a heavy threshing sledge. Instead they are beaten softly. ²⁸Wheat and barley are easily crushed, so he doesn't keep on threshing it. They are run over with a threshing sledge but not to grind it to dust. ²⁹Farmers know all this from the LORD of the Heavens, who gives them wisdom. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Isaiah predicts the fall of the Northern Kingdom, calling them Samaria, the capital city. He says the glory of Samaria is a fading flower (28:1, 4) and there is a storm coming that will destroy them. Isaiah accuses them of being overcome with wine (28:1) and being a drunkard (28:3), and given over to intoxicating drink (28:7). They have given themselves to physical pleasures rather than to God. They stumble and vomit in their debauchery. Lord, I will not drink alcohol, knowing Your mockery of those who are slaves to liquor. Fill me with Your Spirit (Eph. 5:18). Control me by the Spirit of God, not the spirit of the bottle. Amen.

Isaiah 29 The Destruction of Jerusalem's Enemies

¹"How terrible it will be for Ariel, another name for Jerusalem, the City of David. Year after year you hold your festivals. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²But I, the LORD, will besiege Ariel, and the people will weep, and the city will be like the meaning of its name Ariel—a hearth. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ³I will be your enemy; I will surround Jerusalem with soldiers and attack you. ⁴When you die, you will call for help from deep in the ground, with only a faint whisper like that of a ghost. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27}

5"However, your many enemies will be driven away like chaff in the wind. Suddenly 6I, the LORD of the Heavens, will come against your enemies with thunder, an earthquake, noise, a windstorm, and flame. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} 7All the many nations that attack and lay siege to Ariel will vanish like a dream or a vision. 8A hungry person dreams he is eating, but when he is awake, he is still hungry. And the same for someone who is thirsty. In the same way your many enemies will dream of defeating Jerusalem, but they will be unsuccessful. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

9"Go ahead and be stunned and blind to the truth. And be drunk and stagger but not from wine. {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} ¹⁰That's because I the LORD have made you sleepy and closed the eyes of your prophets and seers. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} 11 This message is like a sealed book to you. Some may say, 'I can't read this because it's sealed,' 12Or they may say, 'I can't read it because I don't know how to read.' {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹³So I, the LORD, say, 'These people honor Me with their words, but their hearts are far from Me. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} In worshiping Me they just repeat man-made rules. {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} 14So I will shock them {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} by destroying the wisdom and intelligence of those who claim to know." {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} who work in the darkness and think the LORD doesn't see them. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} ¹⁶You people have it wrong. The clay can't say to the potter, "You didn't make me," or "You don't know anything." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12}

¹⁷Soon Lebanon will be a fertile field with crops thick as a forest. ¹⁸The deaf will hear what is read to them, and blind people will no longer live in darkness. ¹⁹Again the humble and needy will rejoice in the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} ²⁰Cruel people and mockers will be gone, and evil people will be killed. ²¹Also those who make an innocent person guilty and who tell lies against the innocent will be gone. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

²²"I the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, say this to Israel: 'My people will no longer be ashamed and embarrassed. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ²³When they see their many children and the many material blessings I have given them, they will see the holiness of Me the Holy One of Jacob, and they will stand in awe of Me. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁴Those who are in error will gain understanding, and those who have complained will be willing to be taught." {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Isaiah 30 Israel Asks Help from Egypt

plans and make treaties without asking Me first," says the LORD. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ²"They pile up one sin after another when they ask Egypt for help and look to Pharaoh for protection and to Egypt for shade. {380 Priority-Faith Praying, Matt. 6:33} ³But you will be disappointed and shamed by trusting in Pharaoh." {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31}

Isaiah warns Judah against seeking protection from Egypt, and not from Him. Judah made plans, but never asked the LORD for help. Isaiah concludes, "They will be put to shame" (30:3). Lord, help me learn a negative lesson from Judah. May I learn not to forget You when making plans. Amen.

4"His power reaches all the way from Zoan in northern Egypt to Hanes in the south. 5But you will get no help from Egypt. You will have only shame and dishonor." {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

⁶This is a message about the animals of the Southern Desert: You messengers from Judah are moving through a terrible desert where there are lions and snakes. Your donkeys and camels are loaded with treasures in Egypt, a weak nation. ⁷But they can't help you, and that's why I call Egypt "Rahab the Do-Nothing." {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4}

⁸Write down those words about Egypt, which will be a witness forever of Israel's unbelief. ⁹The people of Israel are rebellious and deceitful, and they refuse to listen to the LORD's instructions. {327

Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁰They tell the prophets, "Don't tell us what God has shown you. Tell me pleasant things and lies. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ¹¹Stop telling me what God has said. We don't want to hear about the Holy One of Israel." {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2}

¹²Therefore the Holy One of Israel says this: "Because you reject what I tell you and rely on violence and lies, {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ¹³this sin will be like a cracked wall that suddenly collapses. ¹⁴It will be smashed like a piece of pottery so that not a piece will be big enough to carry coals or to scoop water out of a well." {209 Guilty-Blocking Prayer, 1 John 3:21} ¹⁵And the Holy One of Israel also says this: "Do you want rest, salvation, quietness, and strength? Then turn to Me. But you refused." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

Isaiah promises Judah the rest and peace of God, "For thus saith the LORD GOD, the Holy One of Israel; in returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength" (30:15, KJV). Lord, that's the rest and peace I want; I come to You to find strength. Amen.

¹⁶"You said, 'We'll escape on fast horses.' True! You'll be on fast horses all right. But those who chase you will be faster. ¹⁷Five of them or even one will chase a thousand of you. And your few survivors will be as lonely as a mountain flagpole. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁸I want to be gracious to you and show you My love. I am the God who does right, and I bless those who wait for Me to help them." {473 Tarrying-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

Isaiah promises God's grace to them, but there is a condition to receive it, "Blessed are all they that wait for him" (30:18, KJV). Lord, I'm still and I'm quiet. I'm waiting to hear Your instructions to me. I'm waiting for orders. Tell me what to do. Amen.

¹⁹"You people in Jerusalem don't need to weep anymore because I will be gracious when you pray for help. I will answer you right away. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁰I have given you trouble, but you will now listen to your teachers, the prophets. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²¹If you get off the right path, you will hear a voice saying, 'This is the way; walk here.' {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²²Then you will destroy your silver idols and gold images and toss them away like filthy rope. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6}

bandages His people's injuries and heals their wounds. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

²⁷"I, the LORD, am coming from far away, burning with anger and surrounded by a thick cloud of smoke. My words are like a consuming fire. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ²⁸My anger pours out like a flood. I sifted out the nations, and I put a bridle in their mouths and led them away. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ²⁹You will sing as you do when you celebrate a religious festival. You will be glad as when you go to Jerusalem, the mountain of the LORD, the Rock of Israel, singing while festivals are playing. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ³⁰I, the LORD, will come in My anger, with cloudbursts, thunder, and hail. ³¹My voice will destroy Assyria. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 32As I attack them in battle, you will rejoice with the music of tambourines and harps. 33 Topheth, the place of burning, is ready for the Assyrian king. It has lots of wood, and My breath, like burning sulfur, will set it on fire." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 31 Egypt Will Fail

¹How terrible it will be for those who go to Egypt for help, or depend on horses, chariots, and cavalrymen but refuse to look to Me, the Holy One of Israel, for help. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ²I can bring disaster and I can do exactly as I say I will do. I will oppose wicked people and those who help them." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ³Remember, the Egyptians are humans; they aren't God, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and their horses are mere flesh, not spirits. When I, the LORD, oppose the Egyptians, I will destroy them and any who try to help them." {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

Isaiah has two messages for the people of Jerusalem and Judah. First, they will not get any help from Egypt. Isaiah reminds them, "The Egyptians are men, and not God" (v. 3). He predicts "Egypt will be destroyed" (v. 3, ELT). In a second prediction Isaiah says, "Assyria will be destroyed" (v. 8, ELT). By looking through God's predictive eyes, you can see nations rise and fall. Only God remains. Lord, I don't know the future, but I trust You to guide my steps; because You know the future. Amen.

^{6"}Israel, though you have turned from Me, the LORD, turn back. ⁷The day is coming when you will get rid of the silver and gold idols your sinful hands made." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Isaiah predicts the coming golden age of Israel when they will live in peace in the Promised Land. "The time is coming when each of you will stop worshiping the idols of gold and silver that you made" (v. 7). Lord, I live in the midst of sin where people are trying to step over me to get ahead. I look forward to a time of universal peace when each person will worship You wholly, and live for You completely. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

8"Assyria will be destroyed, but not by human swords. Young men will try to escape, but they will be caught and made slaves. 9Their fortress will fall, and their commanders will panic. This is what I, the LORD, say, whose fire of wrath continues to burn." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Isaiah 32 The Righteous

¹A king and his rulers will rule with justice and fairness. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²They will keep others safe from trouble like a storm, and provide refreshment like water in the desert and protection like a big rock that gives shade from the sun. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

Isaiah predicts the coming of a righteous king, that is, the LORD Jesus Christ who will rule over Israel in the coming millennium. This king will be "like a stream of water in a dry land." That reminds us of Jesus who said, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink" (John 7:37). Lord, what You will do physically in the future, do spiritually for me now. When I am faint, I drink from You. When I need satisfaction, I drink from You. Ah... Lord, You are good. Amen.

³Then everyone with eyes and ears will see and hear spiritual truths, {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} 4and they will know the LORD's Word and speak it clearly. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁵Fools and scoundrels will no longer be respected. ⁶Fools are always busy making plans to do sinful things, lying about You, the LORD, {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} and not helping the hungry and thirsty, ⁷Scoundrels are evil, making sinful plans to destroy the poor and the needy. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 8But good people have good plans, and they will live on. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

9"You women who are so smug and feel so secure, listen to me. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} 10 In little more than a year the grape harvest will fail and you will tremble. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} 11 Shudder, you smug, secure women. Wear burlap clothing instead of your regular clothes. {140 Ephesians' Church-Prayer, Rev. 2:4-6} 12 Beat your breasts because your fields and vines 13 are covered with thornbushes. Mourn because happy homes and the city of joy are gone. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ¹⁴The palace and the city will be deserted. Fortresses and towers will be places for donkeys and pastures for sheep. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 15When My Spirit is poured down from heaven, the desert will become as fertile as a forest. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} 16 Justice and fairness will be everywhere, ¹⁷and justice will produce peace, quietness, and confidence. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} 18The LORD said that people will live in peace, security, and rest. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁹Hail may destroy forests and cities may be destroyed, {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 20but people will be blessed as they plant crops by streams as oxen and donkeys roam free. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Isaiah 33 The Righteous Protected

¹How terrible it will be for you, Assyria, who defeated others. Now you will be defeated. You betrayed others; now you will be betrayed. When you stop destroying and betraying others, that's when you will be destroyed and betrayed. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ²LORD, be kind to us. We have waited for You to help us. Give us strength each day and save us when we are in trouble. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

Isaiah tells how God's people will call on Him for help, "O Lord, God give us strength every morning. Save us when we are in trouble" (v. 2, ELT). Lord, that's my prayer every morning, "Help me make it through this day; I'm already saved from sin, but save me in the hour of temptation, and save me from evil trials sent by satan." Amen.

³The enemy runs when he hears Your voice, and when You stand up, the nations scatter. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴We will take loot from the nations much like a swarm of locusts eating every bit of crops. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8}

⁵LORD, You are great and You live in heaven. You provide justice and fairness for Jerusalem. {125 Divine-Purity Praying, 2 Peter 1:3} 6We depend on You, our sure foundation, who gives us much salvation, wisdom, and knowledge as we reverence You. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} ⁷Our ambassadors weep because Assyria has refused to grant them peace. {55 Brokenness-Prayer, Joel 2:12} 8So the highways are empty. The Assyrians have broken their treaty, and have no respect for anyone. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} Our land of Israel is barren, Lebanon withers, the plain of Sharon will come to nothing, and the trees of Bashan and Carmel will lose their leaves. 10"But now I'll be exalted," the LORD says. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} 11"You'll be like conceiving chaff and giving birth not to a baby but to straw. Your own breath will consume you like a fire. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3\} \(^{12}\)You will be burned up like thornbushes set on fire. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹³You who are at a distance and you who are nearby, listen to what I have done and see My power." {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9}

¹⁴Sinners in Jerusalem are afraid as they ask, "Who can live here in this raging fire?" {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb.

5:7} ¹⁵Those who live right, say what is right, reject making money by fraud, don't accept bribes, don't listen to plans to murder, and don't look on evil {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}—16they are the ones who will live in a high, safe place and in a secure, mountain fortress. People will bring them food and water. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹⁷You will see the glorious King and the extent of His kingdom. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ¹⁸You will think of that time of terror and ask yourself, "Where now are those officials who made us pay heavy taxes?" {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} 19Soon those proud people will be gone, those people who spoke a strange, foreign language. ²⁰Instead you will see Jerusalem, where festivals are held. You will see a peaceful city, as secure as an unmovable tent. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, 18:6} ²¹You, LORD, will be our Mighty One, like a wide river protecting us from our enemies and on which no ships can sail. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²²You, LORD, are our judge, lawgiver, and king, and You keep us safe. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} ²³The enemies' sails hang loose on broken masts. Their wealth will be divided by Your people, and even lame people will carry off lots of loot. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²⁴You will forgive our sins and everyone in Jerusalem will be healthy. {417 Samuel Fast and Prayer, 1 Sam. 7:6}

Isaiah 34 Destruction by the Lord's Anger

¹Come near, all you nations, and listen to what I will say. Everyone, please pay attention. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} ²The LORD is angry with all nations, and His fury is against their armies. He will completely destroy them by slaughter. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ³Their dead bodies will be left to stink, and the mountains will be covered with their blood. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ⁴The sky will disappear like a rolled-up scroll. And the stars will fall from the sky like dried-up leaves on a vine or shriveled-up figs on a fig tree. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

5"When My sword has done its works in the skies, it will come down on Edom, a nation I will completely destroy." {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

This chapter shows God punishing Edom, the people who descended from Esau. They have continually persecuted God's people, the Jews. Because God loves the Jews, we shouldn't be surprised when God punishes those who punish His people. Esau's descendants had a historic knowledge of the LORD and His salvation. When Edom rejects God, they reject His salvation; so we should not be surprised when God punishes those who reject Him. Lord, I pray for my unsaved family and friends. Use me when I give them the gospel, convict them of sin and bring them to salvation. I believe You, Lord, when the Bible said, "The LORD is... not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9). Amen.

6"My sword is covered with animal blood and fat. I will slaughter many people in Bozrah, a city in Edom. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ⁷Edom's leaders are like wild oxen, calves, and bulls. The country will be soaked in blood and the ground will be covered with fat. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} 8I have chosen a day and year when I will pay Edom back for what it did to Israel. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 9Edom's streams will become tar, and her nation will be on fire, 10 which will never go out. For generations Edom will be desolate, and no one will travel through it. {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ¹¹Owls and ravens will nest there. I will bring chaos and destruction to Edom. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ¹²Her rulers will have no kingdom, and her princes will all be gone. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹³Her fortresses will be covered with thornbushes, and jackals and owls will live there. 14Wild desert animals, hyenas, wild goats, and creatures of the night will reside there. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ¹⁵Owls will raise their young there, as will falcons." {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

¹⁶As you search the book of the LORD, you will read, "The LORD has given His order and the Holy Spirit will bring these animals to Edom, with none missing. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ¹⁷He has decided where each one will live, and they will be there for generations to come." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

Isaiah predicts the coming millennium of peace in the Holy Land. The land will be transformed and become beautiful and alive. The King James predicts, "The desert shall... blossom as the rose" (v. 1, KJV). It hasn't happened yet, but it looks like a beginning. Israel is back in the Promised Land, and the desert is growing roses and oranges to be shipped to Europe and around the world. Lord, I don't need to see rain in the desert to believe Your predictions about the future. I believe Your predictions in the Bible. You will punish sin (chap. 34) and You will reward Your people who believe in You (chap. 35). Lord, I don't look for rewards, I look to live with You in eternity (John 14:1-3). Therefore, the LORD commands us, "Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come" (Isa. 35:4). Lord, I will be strong in faith, and I will trust You for everything. Amen.

²Flowers will bloom everywhere in the desert and will be happy and shout for joy. The desert will be fertile like Lebanon and as lovely as Mount Carmel and the plain of Sharon. There will be the glory of the LORD, our God. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

³If you have tired hands or weak knees, be strong and encouraged. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ⁴"Don't be afraid, because I'm coming to punish your enemies and rescue you. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ⁵Then the blind will see and the deaf will hear. ⁶The lame will leap like a deer, and those who couldn't speak will shout with joy." {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

Living with the LORD in the future will be healthy. The LORD promises, "The eyes of the blind shall see" (v. 5, ELT), and "The deaf shall hear" (v. 5). The LORD adds, "Crippled people shall jump like deer, and those who cannot talk will shout with joy" (v. 7). Lord, I pray for Your healing on earth while now only some are healed; but when we get to heaven, all will be healed. Amen. The LORD promises, "Streams will flow in the dry land" (v. 6, ELT). Lord, sometime my life is dry like the desert. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} I suffer failure and broken promises. I feel parched and can barely talk. Then I come to You in prayer and You fill my mouth with refreshing water. When I feel faint and feel like giving up, I drink from Your well and am satisfied. Lord, You fill me up. Amen.

7"Water will rush through the desert. Hot desert sand will become a pool, and springs will water the thirsty land. Grass and papyrus reeds will grow where desert dogs used to live. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

8"A good highway will be there and it will be called 'The Highway of Holiness.' Only those who love Me, the LORD, can travel on it. The spiritually unclean and sinful fools will not be allowed to travel on it. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 9No lions or other fierce animals will be on it. Only those I have saved will be allowed on the highway, {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 10 and they will go home on that highway, singing with joy. Happiness will be like a crown on their heads. They will be filled with gladness and joy, because all sorrow and mourning will be gone." {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13}

Isaiah 36 Jerusalem Besieged

was the palace administrator, Shebna, the count secretary, and Joah, son of Asaph, the royal record keeper. 4Sennacherib's representative gave this message to Hezekiah: "The great king of Assyria says, 'Why is he so confident? {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} 5His talk of military strategy and strength is nothing but empty words. On whom are you depending for help? ⁶Your depending on Egypt and Pharaoh is like leaning on a broken stick that pierces your hand. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 7Or if you are depending on the LORD, didn't Hezekiah tear down all except one of His places of worship? {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 8The king of Assyria will give you 2,000 horses if you have enough men to ride them. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ⁹How could you defeat the least of my army master's officials, even with the help of Egypt's chariots and cavalry? {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} 10 Also, remember that the LORD sent me here to destroy your nation." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

The enemy of Israel lied to God's people to coax them to surrender. After he belittled Egypt's power, he promised them 2,000 horses. Then with an outright lie, he said God told Assyria to come destroy Israel. Remember, satan is the father of lies, and the first temptation of Eve was a lie, "You will not surely die" (Gen. 3:4), and "You will be like God" (Gen. 3:5). Lord, give me spiritual insight to recognize the lies of satan; also to determine when people lie to me. Keep me so close to Your heart that lies won't trip me up. Amen.

¹¹Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah told the representative, "Don't speak to us in Hebrew because the people who are listening will know what you are saying. Instead speak in Aramaic; we understand it." {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} ¹²But the representative said, "No way, Sennacherib wants everyone to hear these words, not just you three. And your people will soon have to eat their own body waste and drink their own urine, and so will you three." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ¹³Then the representative shouted in Hebrew, "The great king of Assyria says, {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁴'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you. He can't save you. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} 15Don't trust him when he says the LORD will save you, and Jerusalem will not be given to the Assyrians.' {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1} ¹⁶The king of Assyria says that if you make peace with him, then each of you can continue for a while to have your own vineyard, fig tree, and water cistern. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹⁷Then you will come to Assyria, where you'll have plenty of grain and new wine."

The enemy promised Israel freedom, "Everyone will be free to eat the fruit of his own grapevine... everyone will be free to drink water from his own well" (v. 16). But Assyria always took prisoners and put them in harsh servitude in another country. In the same way Your spiritual enemy lies to you. He may promise you freedom from the "legalistic church" if you will enjoy alcohol... drugs... sex... but the Devil doesn't give you freedom. You'll end up in addiction, with broken health, or you'll die early from a disease related to your sin. You'll be blinded to the truth, and it may be impossible for you to return to God; apart from His mercy and grace. Lord, keep me from sin. When I am blinded by the world, let the Holy Spirit give me sight. When my steps turn toward temptation, stop me! Turn me around! I want to be free in Christ. "Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed" (John 8:36). Amen.

18"Hezekiah says the LORD will rescue you from us. However, has the God of any nation been able to rescue them from us? 19 What about the gods of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvaim, and Samaria? {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} 20 Have they been able to rescue their people from us? What makes you think your God can rescue Jerusalem from Assyria?" {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

²¹The people said nothing because Heze-kiah had told them not to respond. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah tore their clothes in grief and told Hezekiah what Sennacherib's representatives had said. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Isaiah 37 Hezekiah's Prayer

¹When Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes in grief and put on burlap clothing, and went into the temple to pray.

There is a time to pray desperately (see the Prayer of Desperation, Elmer L. Towns, How to Pray (Ventura, CA: Regal Books, 2006), pp. 107-13. Peter asked to come to Jesus, walking on water. When Jesus said, "Come," he actually walked on water until he took his eyes off Jesus and looked at the threatening waves. When Peter began to sink, he cried out desperately. "Lord, save me" (Matt. 14:30). When Hezekiah got the message from the Assyrian general, he put on burlap (a sign of repentance). It's then Hezekiah prayed desperately. Lord, I will stay close to You so I won't need to pray desperately. But when unexpected dangers attack me, I will cry out unashamedly and passionately. Amen.

²Then he sent Eliakim and Shebna and the head priests dressed in burlap clothing to me, Isaiah. ³They told me what Hezekiah said, "This is a day of distress and shame. It's like a mother at childbirth having no strength to deliver her child. ⁴Let's pray that the LORD will hear these words of ridicule by Sennacherib's representatives and then rebuke him. Pray for all us who are left." {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28}

⁵I, Isaiah, then said to them, ⁶"Tell your master Hezekiah that the LORD says,

'Don't be afraid of these words of insult against Me. ⁷I will make sure Sennacherib, on hearing a report of some problem in Assyria, will return to his homeland, where he will be killed." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

8The representative heard that Sennacherib had left Lachish and went to attack Libnah. So that's where he went. 9Then Sennacherib got a report that Tirhakah, king of Ethiopia, was on his way to fight against him. Then Sennacherib sent this message to Hezekiah: 10"Don't let your God deceive you when he says Jerusalem won't be handed over to me. 11Remember what I have done to other countries. destroying them completely. Would it be any different for you? 12My forefathers destroyed the towns of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who lived in Tel Assar. ¹³Also the kings of Hamath, Arpad, Sepharvain, Hena, and Ivvah are all gone."

¹⁴When Hezekiah received this letter, he went to the temple and spread it for the LORD to see. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

Hezekiah went into the temple to pray. That's a good place to go to pray when you've been out of fellowship with God. Technically, God will hear you from any place when you pray, because God is everywhere present at the same time. Lord, I will meet You in Your house to listen to preaching and teaching of Your Word. I will fellowship with other believers and will serve You with them. But I will pray in Your house. Jesus told us, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations" (Isa. 56:7). Amen.

¹⁵Then he prayed, ¹⁶"O LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, you are enthroned above the winged creatures. You alone are God, and You made the Heavens and the earth. ¹⁷Listen and see how Sennacherib has insulted You, the living God. {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ¹⁸True, the Assyrian kings have destroyed these many nations, ¹⁹ and have tossed their idols into the fire. But these gods were made of only wood and stone by human hands. 20 Now, O LORD our God, rescue us from Sennacherib so that all nations will know that You alone, O LORD, are the true God." {464 Striving-Prayer, Rom. 15:30} ²¹Then I, Isaiah, sent this message to Hezekiah: 22"The LORD, the God of Israel, says this to Sennacherib: 'Jerusalem hates you and laughs at you. ²³Sennacherib, you have insulted, and made fun of, and raised your voice against the Holy One of Israel. ²⁴Your messengers have insulted Me, and you said you have conquered the highest peaks of Lebanon and have cut down its cedar and pine trees deep in its forests. ²⁵You also said you dug wells and dried up streams of Egypt. ²⁶Sennacherib, haven't you heard that I planned all this long ago? I am the one who decided to let you demolish walled cities into piles of stone. ²⁷Their people became weak and ashamed. They were like wild flowers, blades of grass on housetops that are scorched in the sun.' {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

²⁸"I know all about you, your comings and goings, and your fierce anger against Me. ²⁹Because of your anger against Me and your disrespect for Me, I will put a hook in your nose, and a bit in your mouth, and I will send you back by the road on which you came." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁰I, Isaiah, said to Hezekiah, "Here is proof that the LORD will protect Jerusalem from Assyria. This year you will eat crops that grow on their own, and the next year you will eat whatever springs up where those crops were. Then in the third year you will plant crops and harvest them. ³¹You who are in Judah will be like a vine with deep roots that bear fruit. ³²A remnant will go from Jerusalem to repopulate the land, and the LORD of the Heavens in His passion will see that this happens." {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

³³The LORD says this about the king of Assyria: "He won't get into Jerusalem, or shoot arrows into the city, or march around it with their shields, or build a siege ramp against it. ³⁴He will return by the way he came, and he will not enter the city. ³⁵I'll defend the city for My reputation and the reputation of David My servant." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁶Then at night the LORD sent an angel into the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 Assyrians. When the surviving Assyrians woke up the next morning, they found the dead bodies everywhere. ³⁷So Sennacherib left and went back to Nineveh. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁸One day while he was worshiping in the temple of his god, Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with the sword, and they escaped to the land of Ararat. Sennacherib's son, Esarhaddon, became the next king of Assyria. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 38 Hezekiah's Deliverance

¹About that time Hezekiah was sick and nearly died. So I, Isaiah, went to see him and I told him, "The LORD says you need to take care of things because you will soon die." {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²Hezekiah turned toward the wall and prayed, {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

God had a purpose in allowing this sickness and announcement of Isaiah's premature death. What was it? Perhaps God wanted to scare Hezekiah so that he would repent so deeply that it would influence his prayer life. Early in life, Hezekiah was not known for spirituality. The announcement of his death so shook Hezekiah that he prayed deeply that God answered and gave him fifteen extra years. But Hezekiah was permanently influenced. He later could pray Israel out of danger when Rabshakeh and Assyria defeated every Judean town and almost conquered Jerusalem. Lord, teach me to get answers to prayer today, so I'll be able to pray and get answers when the day of extreme danger comes. Amen.

⁴Then the LORD gave me this message: ⁵"Go tell Hezekiah that I, the LORD, have heard his prayer and seen his tears. ⁶So I have decided to give him another 15 years to live. And I will rescue him and Jerusalem from the king of Assyria. ^{517} Victory-Prayer, ² Cor. ²:14[}] ⁷As proof that what I've said is true, ⁸I will make the afternoon shadow go back up 10 steps on the stairway of Ahaz." So the shadow on the sundial went back 10 steps. ^{466} Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18[}]

⁹After Hezekiah got well, he wrote these words: 10"I thought I would die in my best years and enter the gates of death. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 11I thought I would never see the LORD or my friends again. 12I thought my life was ending like a tent is taken down by a shepherd, and was being cut short like a weaver cuts cloth from a loom. I thought my life would end any day or night. ¹³During the night I thought You, LORD, like a lion would break my bones. I thought my life would soon end. 14I chattered like a bird and mourned like a dove. My eyes grew tired from looking up for help. LORD, I am in trouble. Please help me. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30}

Obviously, Hezekiah was moved to deep prayer when told he would die of his sickness; then he prayed immediately from the depth of his heart. God uses experiences to motivate us to a deeper walk with Him. Lord, help me go deep with You-not out of fear-but out of love. Give me a deeper love for You. Amen.

15"But there is nothing I can say since You have caused me to be sick. So in my bitterness, I will be humble before You. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} 16People live because of what You do and say. And I am encouraged by those things too. You have restored my health and let me live. 17It was good for me to suffer. And I'm grateful that Your love kept me from dying and that You have forgiven my sins. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹⁸Dead people can't praise You or sing to You. They can't see Your faithfulness in action. 19But only the living, including myself, can praise You, and each generation can tell the next how faithful You are. ²⁰You, LORD, will save me, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} and every day I live I will sing in the temple to the music of stringed instruments."

²¹I, Isaiah, then told Hezekiah to put some mashed figs on his boil and he would recover. ²²Then Hezekiah asked for proof that he would worship again in the temple.

Apparently Isaiah didn't get out of the king's house before God changed His mind and told Isaiah to go back with a second message, "Thus saith the LORD... I have heard thy prayers" (38:5). As a result Hezekiah was the only one in history that knew the year of his death. What would you do if you knew the exact time of your death? Would you goof off until the last moment, and then get right with God? Or would you become neurotic, living a "fast-forward" life of service, trying to get as much done before the appointed time? Lord, I'm glad I don't know the exact time of my death so I can live a normal life for You. I will pray fervently every day as though it's my last day on earth. I will plan and pray patiently as though I have a long life ahead of me. For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Amen.

Isaiah 39 Hezekiah's Indiscretion

¹Merodach-Baladan, son of Baladan, was now king of Babylonia. When he heard that Hezekiah had been sick and now was well, he sent him letters and a gift. ²Hezekiah welcomed the messengers and showed them his storerooms full of silver, gold, spices, and oils. He even showed them the rooms with all his weapons. He showed them everything in his palace and his entire kingdom. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

This chapter introduces the rest of the book of Isaiah, where he focuses on the coming captivity of Israel by Babylon. After Hezekiah got well of his disease, the king of Babylon sent an envoy and letters to congratulate Hezekiah. This incident led to Hezekiah's foolish mistake, done in vanity and pride. He showed the Babylonians "all that was found in his treasures" (39:2). Lord, keep me from bragging about anything that I am, or anything I possess. I give you thanks for everything I possess. May I use all my talents and "things" for Your glory. Amen.

³I went to Hezekiah and asked, "Where are these men from, and what did they want?" Hezekiah said, "They come from the distant land of Babylonia." ⁴I asked, "What did you show them?" Hezekiah answered, "I showed them everything in my palace and in my kingdom."

⁵Then I said to Hezekiah, "The LORD of the Heavens says ⁶that Babylon will carry off everything you and your ancestors have stored up in your palace. ⁷And some of your own sons will be taken to Babylon and made to serve in the palace of the Babylonian king." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁸Then Hezekiah thought, "At least there will be peace in my lifetime. So in a sense that is a good word from the LORD." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Isaiah predicts two things. "All that is in thy house... shall be carried to Babylon," and "thy sons that shall issue from thee... shall be eunuchs in Babylon." With this judgment was a word of hope. Remember, Hezekiah did not have any sons. If he had died in the previous chapter, there would have been no heir to the throne. Also, presumably, the line of the Messiah would have been cut off. So when Hezekiah is told he will have sons—Manasseh was not yet born—it was a sweet promise in his ears. What was Hezekiah's response? "Good is the word of the LORD." Lord, Your word is always good—when spoken in judgment as promised—because You will carry out Your will. I yield to Your good will for my life. Amen.

Isaiah 40 Isaiah's Vision of Redemption

¹God says, "Comfort My people. ²Tell Jerusalem that she can be encouraged because her slavery is past and her sins are forgiven, even though she has been punished fully for her sins." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

When you turn the page into the second half of Isaiah, it's like walking out of darkness into light. (Chapters 1-34 tell of the punishment of God on Israel and the surrounding nations for their sin. Chapters 40-66 tell of the salvation of God after He pardons our sins). The cry of COMFORT follows true repentance, so this is a view of Israel's future, "Her warfare is ended" (40:2). Lord, I yearn to feel your comfort after You pardon my sin. It feels good to feel good because You've renewed my Spirit. Amen.

³Someone is shouting in the desert, "Prepare for the LORD's coming. Make a straight road for Him."

Isaiah predicts the coming ministry of John the Baptist who was "the voice of one crying in the wilderness" (40:3). He predicts the spiritual preparation necessary for the coming of the Messiah, that is, the LORD Jesus Christ. The reference to the "valley... mountain... rough ground" describes the work of God in the hearts, not just the physical transformation of the planet at the end of this age. Lord, smooth out the rough ground in my heart so Your glory will be revealed in my life. Lord, I want to see Jesus as did John the Apostle who said, "We beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father" (John 1:14). Amen.

4"Fill the valleys and level every mountain and hill, and smooth out the rough spots in the road. 5Then everyone will see His glory, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} just as He has said." {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}

This promise is for more than all Israel—the Jews—it is for "all flesh." Lord, You "take away the sins of the world" (John 1:29). Lord, You "reconcile the world to yourself" (2 Cor. 5:19, ELT). Lord, You are "the propitiation... for the sins of the whole world" (1 John 2:2). Lord, not everyone receives Your salvation, but You made it possible "for all flesh shall see it" (40:5). Amen.

⁶I heard someone tell me to shout. I said, "What shall I shout?" The answer came, "Shout that everyone is like grass and flowers that die away. ⁷They died off because God blows on them. ⁸Flowers and grass fade, but God's Word lasts forever." {143 Establishing Doctrine by Prayer, Titus 1:5}

⁹Messenger of good news to Jerusalem, go on a high mountain, and don't be afraid to shout to Judah, "Your God is coming. ¹⁰He is coming with power to rule with great strength, and He will reward people when He comes. ¹¹He will care for His people as a shepherd takes care of his sheep and carries lambs in his arms, holding them close to his heart, while leading mother sheep." ¹²Has anyone ever measured the ocean in his hand? Or has anyone ever measured the sky with a ruler? Who has ever held all the dust in a basket or weighed all the mountains on balance scales? Obviously no one. 13In a similar way no one can fully understand the Spirit of You, the LORD, or given You advice as if he were Your counselor. 14You never asked anyone to teach You or to give You knowledge and understanding. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

¹⁵Compared to You all nations are as small and insignificant as a drop of water on the side of a bucket or like dust on balance scales. All the islands are like mere dust. ¹⁶All Lebanon's forests would not provide enough wood to burn animal sacrifices to You, and all Lebanon's animals would not be enough for offerings for You. ¹⁷All the nations are nothing compared to You. In fact they are less than nothing, totally worthless.

¹⁸Can anyone be compared to You, LORD? Certainly no idol is like You. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁹Idols are made of gold and decorated with silver. ²⁰A person too poor to present an offering to You may ask a worker to make him an idol from wood that won't rot and to set it up so it won't fall over.

²¹Don't you people know? ²²Haven't you heard that God rules from heaven above the earth, and that compared to Him, people are as small as grasshoppers? He spread out the sky like a curtain or like a tent. ²³He judges rulers and brings them to nothing. ²⁴Like plants that start to grow and wither, rulers get established, but then God blows on them, they wither, and the wind carries them off like chaff. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

²⁵You, the Holy One, ask, "Can anyone compare with Me? Is anyone equal to Me?" ²⁶Look at the sky and ask, "Who created all this?" You, LORD, are the one who created each of them and You gave a name to each one. You are so powerful that no star is ever missing. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

God's power will save great numbers in a great way. Isaiah says "don't doubt it" but "lift up your eyes to see His greatness" (40:26, ELT). God created the stars, and He leads them like a mighty army. There are trillions upon trillions of stars according to recent research, yet God, "calleth them all by names." If God can keep up with the stars and call them by name, we can't get lost in God's plan of care. Lord, I marvel that You would care for me, and know me, and guide me. Amen.

²⁷Israel, how can you say God doesn't see you or doesn't care for you? ²⁸Have you forgotten that the LORD is the eternal God, the Creator of the earth? He never gets tired, and no one can measure His wisdom. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

²⁹You, LORD, strengthen tired people and help those who are weak. ³⁰Even young people get tired and worn out and stumble and fall. ³¹But those who trust in You will gain new strength. They will be strong like eagles soaring high. They will walk and run without getting worn out and tired. {453 Spiritual-Stability Prayer, Eph. 5:6}

Isaiah compares the strong young man who runs mightily, to those who "wait upon the LORD." The strong faints and fails, but those who enjoy God's presence renew their strength... walk... run... mount up like eagles. Lord, I am not strong in myself, but I will abide in You for strength. I will pray for energy to walk. Fill me with the Holy Spirit to run. When You take over my life, I will mount up with wings of eagles. Amen.

Isaiah 41 Protection by the LORD

¹The LORD says, "Be silent and listen, you lands beyond the sea. You and all the nations, come and speak. Let's settle the matter. ²Who stirred up this king from the east who has victory in every battle? Obviously only I, the LORD. I have helped him defeat nations and kings, turning them to dust and chaff with his sword and arrows. ³He chases them and is unhurt in the process as he walks over unfamiliar territory. ⁴Who controls things from one generation to another? I, the LORD, do it. I am the first and the last. I am He. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

8"But I have chosen you, Israel, My servant, the descendants of my friend Abraham. ⁹I called you here from the remote parts of the earth and made you My chosen servant. I won't desert you. ¹⁰Don't be afraid, because I am with you. Don't be upset, because I am your God. I will make you strong and help you as I hold you with My hand. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

11"Anyone who hates Me will be shamed, and if he opposes Me, he will vanish. ¹²You'll search for your enemies but won't find them. If they fight against you, they'll become nothing. 13I, The LORD, your God, hold your hand. And I tell you not to be afraid because I will be here to help you. 14As I said, don't be afraid, Israel; even though you may feel small and feel like a worm. I, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, will help you. 15I will make you a threshing sledge with many new teeth to crush all your enemies, turning mountains into chaff. 16Like a wind blowing away chaff, I will blow away your enemies. Then you will be glad and you will delight in Me, the Holy One of Israel. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

give them springs in the valleys. Pools of water will be in the desert, and springs will appear on parched land. ¹⁹In the desert I will plant cedar trees, acacia trees, myrtle trees, olive trees, pine trees, fir trees, and cypress trees. ²⁰Then people will see this and will know that I, the Holy One of Israel, did this. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

²¹"Present your arguments. ²²Can your idols tell what happened long ago, ²³or what will happen in the future, to prove that they are gods? Do something great so we will be shocked and afraid. ²⁴But your idols are nothing, and people who follow you are disgusting. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

²⁵"I, the LORD, will cause a ruler (Cyrus) to come from the north and the east. He will honor My name, and he will defeat rulers like a worker trampling on mortar or a potter treading clay. ²⁶Did any of your idols predict this? No, of course not. ²⁷I, the LORD, was the first to tell Jerusalem he was {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} coming. ²⁸Not one of your idols could answer when I asked them. ²⁹All your idols are false, who can do nothing. They are as empty as the wind."

The LORD rebukes Israel for worshiping idols by asking, can they "show us what will happen" (41:23, ELT)? No, idols "are nothing" (41:24). Then God again says only He can predict the future. Lord, I trust You the Creator, I worship You who has all life in Your hand. Amen.

Isaiah 42 Jehovah's Anointed

¹The LORD says, "Here is My servant! I chose Him and delight in Him. I will put My Spirit in Him, and He will be the Judge of the nations. ²He won't shout or yell or be noisy in the streets. ³If someone, like a bruised reed, is hurting, He won't make him feel worse. And if someone, like a dying flame, is discouraged, ⁴He won't discourage him further. He'll see that justice is done. In fact He'll keep at it till He brings justice to all the world. No wonder people in distant lands will trust in Him." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

Who is the Servant (42:1) that Isaiah introduces? None other than the Messiah, Jesus Christ. In the end times He will judge all people and nations. The reference to "the isles" (v. 4, KJV) and "a light to the Gentiles" (v. 6, KJV) points to the worldwide ministry of Jesus Christ. As great as Jesus Christ is, He is called a "Servant." Lord, I want to be Your servant. May I serve You in every little way, as I live. But also Lord, use my service in a way that is bigger than I could ever imagine or dream. Amen.

5"I am the LORD who created the sky and stretched it out like a tent. And I created the earth and everything in it. I give breath and life to everyone. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 'I have called You to do My will. And I will take Your hand and keep You and help You fulfill My promises. You will be a light to guide nations to Me, ⁷and You will open blind eyes, free captives from prison, and free those who are sitting in a dark dungeon. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ⁸I am the LORD, and I will not share My majesty with idols. ⁹Everything has happened as I said it would, and now I'll tell you what will happen next." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

¹⁰Sing a new song to the LORD; praise Him in song throughout the earth. You sailors and you people who live in distant lands, sing to the LORD. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹¹People living in desert towns like Kedar in Arabia and Sela in Edom should sing of the LORD, shouting from mountaintops. ¹²And they should glorify the LORD and praise Him everywhere. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

Because of what Messiah will do, we are to "sing to the LORD a new song" (42:10). Lord, I sing happily of my redemption. I sing happily of my new assurance. I sing happily because You guide me daily. I give glory to You, my Lord (42:12). Amen.

¹³The LORD will march out like a strong soldier, shouting in victory over His enemies.

¹⁴"I, the LORD, have kept quiet for a long time. But now I will cry out like a woman in childbirth. ¹⁵I will level mountains and hills and dry up green growth on them. I will dry up rivers and pools. ¹⁶I will lead the blind, guiding them along unfamiliar paths. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} I will turn darkness into light and level out rough places. I will do these things; you can depend on it. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} ¹⁷But people who trust in idols as their gods will be ashamed. ¹⁸"You who are deaf, listen, and you who are blind, look. You, My servant Israel, are blind and deaf. 19 You have seen and heard many things, ²⁰but you don't really see or listen. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²¹I, the LORD, was pleased to make My law great. ²²But you have been robbed and trapped in pits and imprisoned. They have been made captives. They themselves are loot, and no one is interested in sending them back. ²³Will you not pay attention to what I am doing? 24I am the one who let you be taken as captives, and that is because you did not obey Me or keep My laws. ²⁵So I poured out My anger on you in violent warfare. Yet even with the flames you didn't understand or do anything about your sin." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 43 God's Care for Israel

¹"Descendants of Jacob, I created you, and formed you into a nation. Don't be afraid; I have rescued you. I have chosen you for a special relationship to Me. You belong to Me. {395 Redemptive Prayer for the Lost, Rom. 10:1} ²When you cross the deep waters of trouble, I will be right there with you and you won't drown. When you walk through the fires of difficulties, they won't harm you. ³I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, who saves you. I gave up Egypt, Ethiopia, and Seba in exchange for your freedom." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

The LORD promises them deliverance through... waters... rivers... fire (43:2). These were both physical and spiritual deliverance. Lord, when I go through deep waters of trials, thank You for being with me. When I go through threatening rivers of sufferings, thank You for not letting them overflow me. When I go through the fires of persecution, the flame will not destroy me (I may die, but I'll live with You in heaven). And Lord, when I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, You will be with me. Thank You and Amen.

4"I traded their lives for yours, because you are precious to Me and I love you.

5"You have no need to be afraid, because I am with you. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} I will gather you and your children from the east and the west, 6 and the north and the south. I will bring My sons and daughters from faraway lands, including 7 everyone I have chosen and created to honor Me." {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

The LORD promises to bring Israel back to the land, long before Babylon destroyed the temple and burned Jerusalem. God says He will bring these back from "the east... the west... the north... the south... and the ends of the earth" (43:5-6). We see the beginning of this miracle in modern-day Israel, yet one day "all Israel will be saved" (Rom. 11:26) and dwell in the Promised Land. Lord, this is too great for humans to expect, but I know it will happen because You promised it in Your word. Help me understand Your greatness and worship You because of it. Amen.

8"Bring My people together, even though they are spiritually blind and deaf. None of their idols predicted this. They may bring in witnesses to say they predicted what I will do. 9Gather the nations together. Can their idols predict anything? Where are the people who can say they told the truth? 10 But You, My servant Israel, whom I have chosen, are My witnesses. You know and understand that I am He. No other God besides Me exists, and there never will be another God. ¹¹Only I, the LORD, am Your Savior. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 12I said I would save you, and I, not some foreign god, did. And you are witnesses that I am your God. 13I am God from eternity to eternity. And no one can set people free from Me or reverse what I do. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6}

One, and this is My message: For your sakes I will send an army against Babylon and take away their people as captives in their very own ships. ¹⁵I am the LORD, your Holy One, and Creator and King. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ¹⁶In the exodus I opened a way for you through the waters. ¹⁷An Egyptian army with chariots and horses lie dead, snuffed out like the fire on a candlestick. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} 18But forget the past, because I'm going to do something new. In fact I have already begun. 19I'm making a road and streams in the desert. ²⁰Wild animals, jackals, and owls will be glad I'll give them water in the desert. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} In fact I'll also provide water for you, 21My chosen people, so that you can praise Me. ²²"But, My people, you haven't asked for My help. You are tired but not from worshiping Me. ²³And you haven't brought Me animals for burnt offerings. And I haven't asked for offerings and incense. ²⁴And you haven't brought Me any sweet-smelling oil or the fat of sacrificed animals. Instead you have burdened Me down with your sins. ²⁵But for My reputation I'll remove your sins and I'll never remember them again. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²⁶"State your case as to why I should forgive you. ²⁷Adam sinned, and your prophets and priests rebelled against Me. ²⁸So I'll shame your temple priests, and I'll destroy them and I'll despise your nations." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 44 Idols Are Useless

¹"Israel, My servant, I have chosen you. ²I created you, and I formed you like forming a baby in the womb. I will help you so you don't need to be afraid. As I said, you are My servant whom I have chosen. ³I will water your land, and I will pour out My Spirit {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and My blessings on your descendants."

How can you not stop reading and start praying when you read what God promises, "I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground" (44:3)? Who doesn't want to be refreshed by the LORD? Lord, I want to be renewed by You. I want to "spring up as grass." Lord, pour water on me that I may live and be fruitful. I live in a desert and everything around me seems dry. Lord, I'm thirsty. Pour right here where I'm standing. Amen.

4"They will prosper like grass and like willow trees by streams. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} 5They'll say, 'I am the LORD's,' or 'I am a descendant of Jacob.' Still others will write My name on the back of their hands to show they belong to Me. 6"I am Israel's king, Redeemer, the LORD of the Heavens, and I have existed forever (I am the First) and will continue forever (I am the Last). I am the only God. ⁷No one is like Me. Can anyone say what has happened since I made you My people? Or can anyone say what will happen? 8So you don't need to tremble in fear. I'll tell you what My plans are for you. Is there any other God? No. Is there anyone who is as reliable as Me like a rock? No. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

humans. They will stand before Me in terror and disgrace." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah emphasizes the high and lofty nature of God. The idols that Israel was worshiping in Isaiah's time were nothing compared to God. God "is the first" and God is "the last," and He says "beside Me there is no God" (44:6). Lord, You are the true God, the only God. You have told me, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" (Exod. 20:3, KJV). Lord, forgive me for putting my schedule before You, and I'm sorry when I put "stuff" before You. Lord, teach me that You are the only God, and there's nothing besides You. Amen.

12"Think of how stupid it is to make an idol. A blacksmith hammers out a piece of metal in the shape of an idol. Then he gets hungry and thirsty. ¹³Then a woodcarver draws an outline of an idol on a piece of wood. He chisels it, and the wood now looks like a person. ¹⁴He uses wood from either cedar, cypress, or oak trees, or even a pine tree he planted that was watered by rain. 15Then he uses some of the wood to make a fire for heating or cooking. From the other part of the wood he makes an idol and worships it. ¹⁶He burns part of the tree to roast his meat and to keep warm. ¹⁷Then he makes an idol from the rest of the wood and bows down to it and asks it to rescue him. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} to think, 'I used half of this wood for fuel for a fire and to cook my bread and meat. How can the rest of the wood be an idol? Why should I bow down to a block of wood?' ²⁰Actually this wood will become ashes. It can give him no help at all. He doesn't realize that the idol in his hand is a lie.

²¹"Israel, you are My servant, and so you need to remember these things. Since I made you, I won't forget you. ²²Come back to Me because I have removed your sins as if they are floating clouds. Come back to Me because I have paid the price to set you free. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²³Heavens and earth, sing and shout. And mountains, forests, and every tree should sing because I have rescued My people and show My majesty. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

²⁴"I am your Redeemer and I formed you like forming a baby in the womb. I, the LORD, made everything, including the heavens and the earth. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} 25I show that false prophets are liars and that fortune-tellers are fools. I turn human wisdom into nonsense. ²⁶By contrast I carry out what My prophets say and predict. If they say Jerusalem will be lived in again and Judah's towers will be rebuilt, it will be done. ²⁷If I tell the rivers to dry up, they will be dry. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁸And when I say Cyrus will be My shepherd and He'll obey Me, He will. He will rebuild Jerusalem and help restore My temple."

Isaiah 45 Prediction of Cyrus

God predicts Cyrus will set Israel free, and "he will rebuild My city" (45:13). God calls one pagan world ruler by name over 150 years before he was born. Why? Because Cyrus moved the forces of history to allow the Jews to return from captivity and rebuild Jerusalem (read Ezra and Nehemiah). Lord, You are the God who controls history. You set nations up and You tear them down. I worship Your awesome power, seen in so many ways. Amen.

4"Israel, you are My servant, and in My relationship to you, I will honor you even though you don't admit that I am the only true God. ⁵I am the only God; there is no other. I will make you strong against your enemies, even though you don't know Me. ⁶From east to west everyone will know that I am the LORD and that there are no other gods. {131 Effective-Prayer, Phil.

4:6-7} ⁷I create light and darkness, good and bad times."

Isaiah makes two unusual statements about God, "I form the light and create darkness" (45:7, KJV). That's easy to explain, before creation there was only God; nothing else existed. There was no light and no darkness. So on the second day God created light and two days later created light holders, that is, the sun and stars. And what is darkness but the absence of light? Then God says, "I make peace and create evil" (45:7, KJV). That's tough to interpret, because it seems that God is the author of evil. The Hebrew word here is "trouble" not "evil," which means God can send problems or difficult circumstances ("good and bad times"). God didn't create evil, but He allowed the situation where evil was formed. God gave Adam and Eve free choice, that is, the liberty to do right or wrong. When they chose to disobey God, sin or evil was introduced into the world. Lord, thank You for freedom. At times my freedom has gotten me in trouble, but on one occasion I chose Christ as My Savior. Now, I am a follower of Jesus Christ. Thank You for freedom to choose Christ. Amen.

8"Let the skies pour out justice like rain. Salvation and justice will spring up like Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} flowers. I, the LORD, will do all this. {364 9"How terrible it will be for anyone who disagrees with his Maker. He is like a clay pot asking the potter, 'Why did you make me this way?" And he doesn't say, 'You are so clumsy, as if you had no hands.' 10 How terrible it will be for anyone who says to his parents, 'Why did you bring me into the world?' 11 As I said, I am the Holy One of Israel and Your Creator. How can you dare ask Me questions about what I will do? ¹²I created the earth, and I put people on it. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21 And I made the heavens and filled it with many stars. 13I will raise up Cyrus, and I will guide him on smooth roads. He will rebuild My city Jerusalem and set My captives free without paying for it at all. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21 Remember, I, the LORD of the Heavens, say all this.

¹⁴"The riches of Egypt and Ethiopia will be yours, Cyrus, and the people of Seba will be your captives. They will say, 'We know God is with you and that there is no other." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} 15You, O God, seem to work behind the scenes, but yet You are our Savior. ¹⁶People who make idols will be ashamed and dishonored. 17But You will save Israel and they will never be ashamed and dishonored throughout endless ages. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁸"I, God, created the heavens, and made the earth, not for it to be empty, but for people to live in it. I could do this because I am the LORD and there is no other. ¹⁹I haven't spoken in secrets, and I didn't tell you to search for me in vain. I always spoke the truth. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ²⁰To every freed captive I say, 'Realize how stupid it is to worship wooden idols or to pray to gods that can't help.' 21 Argue your case with proof that idol worship is good. I told you long ago what would happen. I am the only God, a just God with power to save. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²²"Invite everyone to look to Me for salvation. I am God, and there is no other. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²³What I have said will come true. Everyone will bow down {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} and worship Me. ²⁴They will admit that I am just. And anyone who is angry with Me will come to Me and be ashamed. ²⁵I will give victory to all of Israel." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Isaiah 46 Israel's Folly in Trusting Idols

5"Can you compare Me with anyone? {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 6Some people hire a goldsmith to make an idol from their silver and gold. Then they bow down and worship it. 7In fact they carry the idol around on their shoulders, and when they set it down it can't move. And when they ask it for help from their troubles, it has no answer and no power to help him.

8"Don't forget this, you sinners. 9Remember what I've done in the past, and that I am God and that no one is like Me. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

10 Only I can tell you in advance what will happen, and I do whatever I wish. 11 I will call that bird of prey, Cyrus, from the east, and he will do what I want him to do. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

12 You stubborn people, listen to Me. You are far from doing what is right. 13 But I will come rescue you because I am not far away. I will restore Jerusalem, and I will give my honor to Israel." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

Isaiah 47 Babylon Destroyed

¹"City of Babylon, you were unconquered. But you sit in the dust without a throne. You will no longer be lovely like a tender plant. ²Grind corn. Remove your veil and your fancy clothes as you cross the streams. ³You will be naked and ashamed. I will take revenge against you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁴I am your Redeemer, the LORD of the Heavens, the Holy One of Israel.

5"Babylon, sit in the dark. No one will ever again think of you as their queen. ⁶I was angry with My people, so I let you conquer them, and you even made older people carry heavy loads. ⁷You thought you would be a queen forever. But you didn't think about what could happen to you. {268

Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} *Listen, you wealthy, pleasure-seeking nation, You think you are secure as you brag that you are the greatest. You say you'll never be a widow or lose any of your children. But you are wrong. In a moment you will become a widow and lose your children, in spite of your relying on demonic power and magic.

God knew that Babylon would fall in one day to the Medo-Persians (Dan. 5), so God writes, "In a moment in one day" (47:9, KJV). Lord, You know the big things that will happen in the future, but You also know the small isolated things that will happen in each and every day. It's secure to trust You, a God like that. Amen.

10" You thought no one sees you in all your sin. You thought you were wise in saying that you are the greatest. 11But suddenly disaster will come and you won't be able to buy your way out. This catastrophe will come so quickly you won't know what happened. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

12"You have been involved in demonic power and magic ever since your nation was founded. Keep using these powers and see if they will help you. ¹³You are worn out trying to know the future by studying the stars and making predictions every month. Let these astrologers help you. ¹⁴But they are as worthless as straw burning in a fire. They can't even save themselves, and their fire can't make you warm. ¹⁵People you've known and with whom you've done business since you were a child can't help you." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 48 God Will Redeem Israel

¹"Listen, Israel and you who are from the tribe of Judah, You make promises to Me, but you are lying."

What Isaiah said about the ancient people of Israel is true about many modern Christians. They "make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness. (48:1, KJV). Lord, see through my mask and hypocrisy. I sing, "My Jesus, I love Thee," yet other things cloud my view of You. I sing, "More love to Thee, O Christ," yet I still have love for the world in my heart. Cleanse me O God, and make me pure. Forgive me and deal with me in mercy. Amen.

²"You say you are citizens of Jerusalem and that you depend on Me, the LORD of the Heavens. ³I told what will happen in the future. Then suddenly I made it happen. ⁴"You are so stubborn. Your neck was stiff like iron, and your forehead was as hard as bronze. ⁵I told you what I was going to do so you couldn't say your idols of wood or metal did them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁶You've seen what I predicted, but you won't admit I did it all. Now I will tell you new things I haven't mentioned before. ⁷These are new and recent, so you can't say you already knew it. ⁸You were never willing to hear these things before, because you are so rebellious even from the day you were born. ⁹But I will delay sending My wrath against you, so that you will praise Me."

God should have punished Israel long before Isaiah's day, but He says, "For my name's sake will I defer mine anger" (48:9, KJV). Lord, don't judge me instantly when I sin. I'm weak and I have a sinful nature that tempts me. Be patient with me. Forgive me! Strengthen me to overcome temptations. I want to be strong for Your glory. Take away my bent to sinning. I want to be as perfect on earth as I will be one day in heaven. Amen.

¹⁰"I tested you in your troubles, but not in the way silver is refined in a furnace. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ¹¹I will rescue you because of who I am. I will not let other nations claim their gods helped them.

12"Listen, Israel, My chosen people. I alone have existed forever (I am the First) and I will continue forever (I am the Last).

13With My own hand I made the earth and the sky. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} I spoke, and they came into being. 14Come and listen to Me. Have any of your idols told you that Cyrus, my ally, will destroy the Babylonians? 15Yes, I chose him. I will bring him against you and he will succeed. 16And listen to this too: I have never spoken secretly. I have always spoken plainly so that you would understand."

I, Isaiah, received this message from the sovereign LORD and His Spirit: ¹⁷ I am the one who rescues you; I am the Holy One of Israel. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} I am the LORD your God who teaches you what is best and I lead you on the right path." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

God has promised, "I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go" (48:17, KJV). Lord, I need this promise fulfilled in my life. Teach me Yourself so I can worship You better and in truth. Teach me inner purity so I can be a testimony to You. Teach me how to live so I will obey You implicitly. Teach me how to serve You so I can advance Your work. Amen.

would have had peace like a gentle, flowing river and your upright way would have been as continuous as the waves of the sea. ¹⁹And you would have had as many descendants as grains of sand on the seashore. And you would not be destroyed. ²⁰"Now, Israel, leave Babylon! Be happy for your release and shout for everyone to hear, 'The LORD has rescued His servant

Israel. ²¹When He led us through the desert centuries earlier, we were not thirsty because the LORD gave us water from a rock.' {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²²But I say that the wicked will have no peace."

Isaiah 49 God's Servant

¹Listen, you people in distant lands. Before I was born, the LORD chose me. ²He has made my words pierce like a sharp sword or arrow. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ³He said to me, "You are My servant. And because of you I will display My greatness." ⁴But I said, "My work seems useless and for nothing. Yet I did it all for the LORD, and He will reward me." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

⁵Now as the LORD says, "I formed you in the womb to be My servant, and to lead the people of Israel back to Me." He has honored me and strengthened me. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} 6He also said, "But you will be more than My servant in restoring My people back to Me. You will also be a light for the nations and you will bring salvation to everyone on the earth." {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} 7And the LORD said, "I, the Holy One of Israel, will rescue My people, though many people despise and reject you and treat you like a servant of rulers. But kings and rulers will honor you. I will be faithful for I am the Holy One of Israel who has chosen you." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

⁸The LORD also says this: "At just the right time I will rescue you, My servant, and you will fulfill My promise to Israel to rebuild her land." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

This chapter describes how God will bring His people the Jews back to the Promised Land in the coming millennium. This period is also called the kingdom. Isaiah described the land as "desolate" (49:8, KJV) but God will "raise up the tribes of Jacob" (49:6, KJV). Lord, if You can resurrect the believing Jews and restore them to an earthly kingdom, I know You can resurrect me and deliver me to heaven. You are life-giving and powerful. Amen.

9"And to set captives free to return to their land. My people will find plenty to eat even on hillsides. ¹⁰They won't be hungry or thirsty, and the sun and desert heat won't hurt them. I will guide them with My tender love beside streams of water. ¹¹I will make My mountains level for them, and I will raise my highways. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹²My people will return from lands in the north and the west and from Aswan in Egypt.

¹³"Heavens, earth, and mountains, rejoice in Me, because I will give comfort and tender love. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁴You may say I have forgotten you. ¹⁵But could a mother forget her nursing baby? Could she not love a child to whom she gave birth? Even if she could reject her child, I won't forget you. ¹⁶I have written your name on the palm of My hand. I always think about you." {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

Jerusalem is called the Eternal City, and it has a special place in the heart of God. He says, "I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; Your walls are continually before Me." (49:15-16, NKJV). Lord, because You love Jerusalem, I have a special love for that city. Every time I go back, I feel Your special divine presence there. Lord, I pray for that city and its inhabitants as You told me, "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem" (Ps. 122:6). Amen.

¹⁷"Your descendants will return, and those who destroyed your city will leave. ¹⁸Look up and you will see all your sons coming back. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Your people will be like a bride's jewelry. ¹⁹True, Jerusalem is in ruins now, and your land is deserted. But it will be rebuilt and repopulated, and your enemies will be gone.

²⁰"People born when you were in captivity will say, 'This is too crowded. We need more space.' ²¹But you will ask, 'How could I be their mother when I was all alone as a captive. Who bore these children and raised them?'" {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²²The LORD also says this: "I will order godless nations to bring back your children to you."

This chapter is about more than Jews. It shows God's plan for the Gentiles. Isaiah asks for the distant lands" to listen to God. "Take heed, you people from afar" (49:1, NKJV). Then the LORD says, "Behold, I will lift up Mine hand to the Gentiles" (49:22, ELT). A Gentile is anyone who is not a physical Jew. God has a plan for the Gentiles, God loves the world. Lord, thank You for Your faithfulness to the Jews. Because You didn't disown them because of their sin, I have comfort knowing You won't disown me. You have forgiven all my sin through Christ. "The blood of Jesus Christ God's Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7, KJV). Thank You for "the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29, KJV). You will save every Jew or Gentile who calls on You for salvation (Rom. 10:13). Amen.

²³"Kings and queens will bow down before you. This way you will know that I am the LORD, and by trusting in Me you won't be disappointed. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²⁴Can loot be taken from soldiers? Who can rescue your children from tyrants? ²⁵Captives of warriors will be released, and our loot will be retrieved. I'll fight for you and I'll rescue your children. ²⁶I will make your enemies eat their own flesh and drink their own blood. Then everyone will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and that I, the Mighty One of Israel, will rescue you." {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.}

Isaiah 50 Jehovah's Servant Is Humble

¹The LORD says, "Has your mother gone away because I divorced her? Did I send you away to pay for debts? No, I divorced her, and sold you because of your sins.

²When I come home, the house is silent and empty. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Why? Is it because I don't have the power to rescue? No. Just with a word I can turn the sea and rivers into a desert, and then fish die and stink."

Isaiah is pleading the case why God will save Israel in the future. Isaiah quotes God, "Is My hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem" (50:2, KJV). This question applies to us today. God says His "hand is not shortened that it cannot save" (59:1, KJV). Then God adds a condition, "but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you" (59:2). Lord, I know You won't look the other way when I pray because I come through Jesus Christ my High Priest (Heb. 7:25), and I come through His blood (1 John 1:7). Amen.

3"I can make the sky dark like burlap clothing." {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

⁴The Sovereign LORD gives me the right words to say to comfort the weary. Every morning He wakes me up and I'm eager to learn from Him. ⁵When He speaks, I don't refuse to listen. ⁶I let them beat my back and pull out my beard. I didn't resist when they made fun of me and spit in my face. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

In this passage we have the only reference that Jesus Christ had a beard. Lord, thank You for the physical suffering You endured for me. Thank You for the shame and rejection You went through. Because You suffered for me, I am willing to suffer for You. Amen.

⁷But the Sovereign LORD helped me, and I was not ashamed. So I will not give up; I have determined to do His will and I know He will support me. ⁸He, my Defender, is near. So who can accuse me now? Let my accuser confront me. ⁹Since the Sovereign LORD is my helper, no one can say I'm guilty. In fact they will all be destroyed like old cloths eaten by moths. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4}

¹⁰Not one of you reverences the LORD or obeys His servant. You walk in the darkness of confusion and sin. But you should trust in the LORD. ¹¹Go ahead and walk in the light of your own fires. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

Those who "fear the LORD" may even find themselves walking in "the dark and have no light" (50:10), because the whole world is darkened by sin. What should that believer do? Isaiah says, "Let him trust in the name of the LORD" (50:10, KJV). So that person should "kindle a fire" (50:11, NKJV), then "walk in the light of his fire" (50:11, NKJV). Lord Jesus, You are the light of the world. When You came into my heart, You brought light. So I read the Scriptures daily to "light my own fires" and I will walk daily by the light I get from Your word. Amen.

But the LORD will punish you, and you will lie down in torment. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

Isaiah 51 An Appeal to Israel

¹You who follow the LORD and do what is right, look to the rock from which you were cut. ²Abraham and Sarah, your ancestors, were that rock. From that one man came many descendants and a great nation. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ³Zion is in ruin, but the LORD will comfort her and look on her with tender love. Her deserts will be lovely like the Garden of Eden. She will be joyful and glad, and she will be thankful and will sing. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16}

⁴The LORD says, "Listen, My people. Listen, O Israel. My law will be known, and justice will be a light to the nations. ⁵Righteousness, deliverance, and justice will come to the nations. People who live in far-off countries will wait for Me to rescue them by My power. 6Look up at the sky and the earth. The stars will disappear like smoke, and the earth will wear out like clothes. Everyone will die like flies. But My deliverance will last forever, and My upright rule will never fail. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} 7Listen, you people who know right from wrong and who obey My law, don't be afraid of people's criticisms or insults. 8They will be eaten away like a garment eaten by moths and like wool eaten by worms. But My deliverance will last forever, and My upright rule will never fail." {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

for Egypt. ¹⁰You dried up the Red Sea and made a road in the middle of the sea so Your people could go across safely. ¹¹Those You have rescued will return to Jerusalem, singing along the way. They will be glad and joyful, then sorrow and mourning will disappear. {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12}

God also promises a great entrance into His millennial kingdom. "The redeemed of the LORD should return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head" (51:11, KJV). Lord, I apply this future picture to my weekly entrance into Your house. I will come before Your presence with singing and everlasting joy. Lord, You know I don't sing perfectly, so look into my heart and accept my gratitude and praise as the worship I bring to You. Amen.

¹²"I, the LORD, comfort you. So why do you fear mere humans? They will dry up like grass. ¹³Why have you forgotten Me, the LORD, who made you and the heavens and the earth. Every day you lived in fear of those who in their anger wanted to destroy you. But where are they now? {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ¹⁴Prisoners will soon be set free. They won't die in dungeons, and they will no longer be hungry. ¹⁵I am the LORD your God. I, the LORD of the Heavens, cause ocean waves to roar. ¹⁶I have told you what to say, and you are safe in My hand. I set all the stars in place and I created the earth, and I say to Israel 'You are mine.' [60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24]

¹⁷Wake up, Jerusalem. You have drunk from the cup of the LORD's anger, swallowing every drop. And you can't even walk straight. ¹⁸No one of your many children can guide you or help you. ¹⁹You have experienced death by famine and by the sword, and how can I comfort you? ²⁰On every street corner your children have fainted and lie in the streets, helpless as a deer caught in a net. The LORD is angry with you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²¹"You people who are in a stupor from troubles, but not from drinking, ²²hear what I, the Sovereign LORD, your Defender, say, 'I am taking from you the cup of My wrath. You will never be forced to drink from it again. ²³I will give the cup of My wrath to your tormentors who wanted you to lie down, so they could walk over you and trample on your backs."

Isaiah 52 The Watchmen's Response

¹"Wake up, O Zion, and be strong. Dress in your best clothes, Jerusalem, the holy city. Foreigners who ruined your city will never enter your city again. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²Rise from the dust, Jerusalem, and free yourself, from the chains of slavery around your neck. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ³The LORD also said, "You were sold, but not for money, and you will be freed without any payment. {394

Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ⁴Many years ago you went to Egypt where you lived. Then Assyria oppressed the Egyptians. ⁵Now why are My people slaves again? And those who rule over them mock them and they curse My name. ⁶My people, you will know who I am because I am the one who said this would happen. ⁷"How wonderful are messengers who bring the good news that you are saved

"How wonderful are messengers who bring the good news that you are saved and that I, God, reign." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

This chapter predicts the messengers of the LORD who will go into all the world to carry out the Great Commission given by Jesus. Paul quotes Isaiah 52:7 and applies it to missionary evangelism, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things" (Rom. 10:15, KJV). Lord, I want beautiful feet. When I tell someone about Jesus, may that new convert say my feet are beautiful because I brought them the message of salvation. Also Lord, I want You to say my feet are beautiful because I was a soul winner. And just as I polish my shoes on earth to be attractive, may I polish my spiritual shoes and make my feet potentially beautiful by prayer, Bible preparation, holy living, and instant obedience. Amen.

⁸"You watchmen, sing and shout because they will see Me returning with people to Zion. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ⁹May the ruins of Jerusalem sing because I the LORD comfort My people and rescue them. ¹⁰I will show the nations My great strength, and everyone will see My saving power. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

11"Leave Babylon and don't touch any unclean thing there. Purify yourselves when you carry home My sacred vessels." {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1}

Isaiah exhorts the servants of God, "Be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD" (52:11, KJV). God wants us to be holy because we have a message that is holy. Lord, cleanse me from sin (1 John 1:9). I will separate myself from everything that I know is sin. I want to be pure so You will use me. Amen.

¹²"You won't need to hurry, because I, the LORD, will lead you and protect you from behind. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹³"My servant will succeed. He will be highly honored. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁴Yet many were amazed when they saw him so disfigured that he didn't even look human. ¹⁵He will provide cleansing from sin for many people. Even kings will be silent before him because they will see and hear things they've never seen or heard before." {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4}

Isaiah 53 God's Anointed Suffers

¹Has anyone believed our message about God's great power? ²My servant was like a young plant or a root sprouting out of dry ground. He was not handsome looking to make us interested in Him. {264

Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ³In fact He was hated and rejected. He experienced sorrow and suffering. People didn't even want to look at Him. They detested Him and didn't appreciate Him at all. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

⁴Yet He carried the illness of our souls, and He was burdened down with our grief. People thought He was being punished for His own sins. 5But He was wounded because of our rebellion and crushed because of our sins. He took the punishment we deserved, but it brought us peace, and amazingly, His wounds healed us. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ⁶We are all like sheep getting off the path and going where we want to go. But the LORD punished Him for our sins, not His. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁷Though He was abused and treated cruelly, He didn't say a thing. Like a lamb being quiet when it is slaughtered or a sheep being silent when it is having its wool cut off, so He did not say a word. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 8After being abused and sentenced to die, He was taken away to His death. Few people realized He was dying for their sins. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} He was killed because of their rebellion. 9He was buried like a criminal but in a rich man's grave. Yet He never did anything wrong and never deceived anyone. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

¹⁰The LORD's plan was to crush Him and cause Him to suffer as a sacrifice for sins. {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} He will live to see many offspring who will believe in Him, and He will live forever. He will be blessed because He followed the LORD's plan. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ¹¹After His extensive suffering He will be satisfied. Because He was punished for our sins, He will declare righteous many who will believe. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹²Because He willingly sacrificed His life, the LORD will honor Him like a general receiving loot after a battle. People thought He was a sinner, but He was suffering for their sins not His. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} And He is now praying for them. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19}

The passage on Christ suffering extends from 52:13 to 53:12. Christ is called "My Servant" who sprinkles—purifies—many Gentile people (52:13, KJV). Thank You, Christ, for Your purity so You could purify many, including me. Amen.

Christ's suffering was so extreme that His face was marred (disfigured) so that He was unrecognizable. Christ, thank You for suffering for me. Amen.

Christ shall "grow up" from the line of David, that is, a "root out of a dry ground" (53:2, KJV). Christ, thank You for Your perfect earthly life, You came from the line of David. Amen.

Christ did not have beauty and "no form nor comeliness" (53:2, KJV). This doesn't mean He was ugly or homely, but that He was a common man, not regal like a king. Christ, thank You for becoming common for me. Amen.

Christ was "despised" and "rejected" and suffered "grief" (53:3, KJV). Christ, when the world turned its back on You, I turn to You in worship. Amen.

The idea of substitution is introduced because Christ has "borne our grief" (53:4, KJV). Thank You, Christ, for taking my place. Amen.

Christ was wounded (pierced through) for our transgressions (53:5), a picture of His substitution in our place. Christ, thank You for taking my punishment. Amen.

We like sheep have gone astray into sin, but the Father put our "iniquity" on Christ (53:6, KJV). Christ, thank You for taking my place in punishment. Amen.

Christ became like us. He became a substitutionary sheep, taking our punishment for our sin, and "He opened not His mouth" (53:7, KJV). Christ, thank You for Your willingness to die for me. Amen.

Christ was "cut off" and "taken from prison" (53:8, KJV) where He was tried and no guilt was found in Him. Lord, I know You were innocent; I'm glad the records show the same thing. You, the innocent, suffered for me the guilty. Amen.

Christ was taken from "the land of the living," He died. Then "He made His grave with the wicked" (53:8-9, KJV). Christ, I am overwhelmed that You died for my sin and were buried. Amen.

How could the LORD be pleased "to bruise Him?" This is not the Father's pleasure, but the wrath of God against all my sin was satisfied or propitiated (53:10, KJV; 1 John 2:1-2). The Father saw and was "satisfied" (53:11, KJV). Christ, Your death took away all God's judgment against me. Amen.

The chapter ends in the glorification and exaltation of Christ. The Father "divides Him a portion with the great" (53:12). Christ, because You were raised and exalted to Thy Father's right hand, I too have been raised in You and am seated at the Father's right hand (Eph. 2:5-7). Amen.

Isaiah 54 Zion's Song of Joy

1"Sing and shout, barren woman. Even though you have never had children, you will now have more children than anyone else. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²Enlarge your tent by stretching the curtain wider, and fasten the tent pegs firmly. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} ³You and your descendants will take over the land of other nations and settle in towns that are in ruins.

4"Don't be afraid. You will no longer be ashamed, dishonored, or humiliated. You won't remember the sins of your youth or the shame of being a widow. ⁵I am your husband, I, the LORD of the Heavens, am your Creator, the Holy One of Israel, {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} who will rescue you. I am the God of the whole world."

Isaiah appeals to us to use our faith to believe God for big things, and to work hard to do more for God than we've ever done before. "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings; do not spare; lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes" (54:2, KJV). Lord, sometimes I don't have enough faith to get a bigger tent, and I'm afraid to try to get a bigger piece of ground. Lord, sometimes I hang on to the rope, rather than casting it out to those who are drowning. Lord, I don't drive stakes into the ground, I hide them. Forgive me for my lack of faith. "I believe, help thou mine unbelief" (Mark 9:24, KJV). Amen.

6"I, the LORD, will take you back, you who were a young wife divorced by her husband. True, I rejected you, but now I'm bringing you back with tender love. 7In anger I turned from you for a short while, but now I have mercy and tender love for you forever," says the LORD, who rescues you.

8"In anger I turned from you, but now I, the LORD, who rescues you, will have loyal and tender love for you forever. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 9I promised Noah I would never again destroy the earth with a flood. So now I promise that I will never again get angry and scold you. 10 Mountains and hills may be shaken, but My tender love for you won't be shaken. As I promised, I will give you peace. I, the LORD, have tender love for you. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

¹¹"Jerusalem, your troubles are like your being tossed in a storm, and no one comforts you. But I will rebuild your city on foundations of precious stones. ¹²Your defense towers will be built of rubies, your city gates with jewels, and your walls with precious stones. ¹³I will teach your children, and they will enjoy peace. ¹⁴Your city will be known for right living, and you will have nothing to fear. ¹⁵I'll never again send any nation to attack you, and you'll defeat whoever attacks you. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

¹⁶"I created blacksmiths who make weapons over burning coals, and I am the One who caused other nations to cause destruction. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁷But in the future no blacksmith's weapons will defeat you. And no one's false accusations against you will be a problem. These are the benefits of those who are My servants. Their righteous position is from Me," says the LORD. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

There is a promise of protection to Israel in the future, that we can apply to us in the present; "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper" (54:17, KJV). Just as God will protect Israel in His future kingdom, so God will protect His children today, while not in the same dimension, truly with the same intention. Lord, I know You will protect me from satan's attacks and give me victory. Lord, You can protect me spiritually, so I won't fear the world, the flesh, or the Devil. I may be tortured and martyred, but nothing can take You away from me. Nothing can destroy my soul, because, "Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:7). Amen.

Isaiah 55 Invitation to Zion and All Nations

1"If you are thirsty, come drink water. If you don't have any money, come anyway and eat. You can enjoy wine and milk without paying anything." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

Look at the universal invitation to "come" to God. "Ho, everyone that thirsteth, come ye to the waters... come ye, buy, and eat" (55:1, KJV). God is looking for those who are not satisfied with this world, He's looking for those who deeply yearn for spiritual meaning. Lord, I want You more than anything this world offers... more than money... more than entertainment... more than thrills. I come just as Jesus said to the fisherman, "Follow me, I will make you" (Mark 1:14). Lord, I'm getting up to come. Lord, I'm moving toward You. Here I come! Amen.

²"Why buy food that does you no good? Why work for something that doesn't satisfy? Listen to Me, and I'll help your soul enjoy genuine spiritual food. ³Listen carefully because this affects your spiritual life. I will make with you an eternal agreement of loyal love that I promised to David. ⁴He was a leader and commander of several nations, and he was a witness to them of My plans. ⁵You, Israel, will invite nations you haven't known and they will hurry to you because of Me, the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, who has blessed you with greatness." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

⁶Turn to the LORD while He can be found, and pray to Him because He is near. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

Every life has open doors and closed doors. Scripture promises and warns in the same breath, "Seek the LORD while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near" (55:6, KJV). Every person has a door of opportunity to come to God, but if he refuses God and chooses sin in a selfish way, there may not be more times when God speaks to him. Lord, I will confess my sin and turn my back on sin, with my face and ears toward You. I want Your intimacy and I need Your guidance. Speak, I'm listening. Direct me, I'm looking for guidance. Amen.

7"Wicked people, give up your wicked ways and evil thoughts. If you return to Me, the LORD, I will be merciful and will forgive your sins. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 8My thoughts and My ways are higher than yours, {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} 9 just as the heavens are higher than the earth."

Why do so many people not hear God's voice? For the same reason a thief doesn't look for a policeman. They do not want to know God's ways for their lives. God says, "For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways, My ways" (55:8, KJV). God thinks differently about sin than we do. How differently? God answers, "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are... My thoughts than your thoughts" (55:9, KJV). Lord, I recognize I think like a fallen human, help me think my thoughts as You think. Help me understand salvation as You planned. Help me walk daily, as You developed a plan for Your followers to follow. Lord, I'm deaf if You don't speak above my hard of hearing. I don't know what to do if You don't speak to me. I'm listening. Amen.

10"Rain and snow fall from the sky and water the earth, causing seeds to grow and giving grain to eat. ¹¹In a similar way My words do what I want them to do. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹²In the future you will have joy and peace. It will seem as if mountains and hills will sing, and trees will clap. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹³Pine and myrtle trees will grow where thornbushes grew. This will bring honor to Me, the LORD, and will be an eternal sign of My greatness."

Isaiah 56 The Sabbath

¹The LORD says, "Be just and fair. I will soon deliver you and everyone will see My saving power. ²I will bless those who do this consistently and who do not work on the Sabbath and who refuse to sin. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ³Resident foreigners should not think that I have excluded them, and men unable to become fathers should not call themselves dried-up trees. ⁴To them I say, 'Don't work on the Sabbath, and do what pleases Me, and keep our agreement.' 5If they do, I will set up a memorial for them in the temple with their names written on it which will be better than having children." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

My name is Elmer Towns. What's yours? Would you like a new name when you get to heaven? Sometimes a name means a new position, or a new relationship, or even a great inheritance. God will give us a new name in glory that means all of the above. Lord, give me the new name in heaven that You want me to have. And with my new name, give me everything that goes with it. Amen.

6"Foreign residents who serve, love, and worship Me, and who don't work on the Sabbath, and keep our agreement {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 7will come to Jerusalem, My holy mountain, and will have joy in My house of prayer. I will accept their offerings, and My house, the temple, will be called a house of prayer for all nations. {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14} 8I, the Sovereign LORD, will bring back My people with others who have returned. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6}

themselves and not their sheep. ¹²They say, 'Let's get drunk, and tomorrow we'll do the same.'" {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

Isaiah 57 The Righteous Are Rebuked

The LORD talks about our death in this chapter, saying the world doesn't regard the death of His children. This world is not our home, and everything about us is not as important as what we will receive in the next world. Lord, I will not clutch this world to hang on to any wealth, or houses, or belongings I've got. Lord, You've got so much more on the other side of death's river. I'm not anxious to die, but I know there's a better life for me on the other side of the valley of the shadow of death. Amen.

²Godly people who die rest in peace. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

You will find on many tombstones the phrase, "Rest in peace." However, only the children of the LORD find rest in death. Lord, thank You for the rest I find in sleep after a hard day of work. In the same way, Lord, I'm looking forward to rest at the end after I've worked hard for You all my life. Amen.

³"You offspring of people who practice witchcraft, you sons and daughters of adulterers and prostitutes, ⁴who are you making fun of and who are you scoffing, and at whom are you sticking out your tongues? You are a bunch of rebels, offspring of liars. ⁵You are filled with rust as you worship your idols under every green tree. And you sacrifice your children in valleys and under overhanging rocks. ⁶Your gods are nothing but smooth stones in the valleys. You pour drink offerings to them and give them grain offerings. Does all this make Me happy?

7"You committed adultery on high mountains where you sacrificed to your idols. 8You have placed pagan symbols behind your doors and on your doorposts. You have forsaken Me and then got in your bed and committed adultery. 9You worshiped the Ammonite god Molech with lots of olive oil and perfumes. Some of your people died who went too far away to worship Molech. 10You got tired but you didn't give up. You gained strength and didn't quit. {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1}

11"Have you been unfaithful to Me because you are afraid of someone? Has My long silence kept you from reverencing Me? ¹²I will show you that your so-called good deeds will do you no good. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹³When you have problems, ask your idols to help you. The wind or someone's breath can blow them away. But the person who trusts in Me will inherit the land and My holy mountain, Jerusalem."

¹⁴The LORD, also says, "Clean the road and remove any obstacles so My people, can return from captivity. ¹⁵I, the exalted and Holy One, live forever in heaven, but also with those who are sorrowful and humble. I will refresh the humble and revive the sorrowful." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

God is looking for humility in our life. God says... "I dwell with him... who has a contrite and humble spirit" (57:15, NKJV). Lord, I'm overwhelmed that You—the God of heaven—would come to abide in me and let me abide in You (John 14:20). You never cease to amaze me and humble me. I praise You for Your nearness. Amen.

¹⁶"I won't keep on accusing you, My people, and I won't always be angry with you because that would discourage you whom I have created.

17"I was angry because of your greed, and even though I punished you and didn't show My anger, you kept on sinning. ¹⁸I know what you are like, but I will heal you anyway. I will guide you, and comfort you ¹⁹and help you who are mourning to start singing praise to Me. I will heal them and give them peace. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ²⁰But the wicked are like the sea with waves that never stop and that toss up mud. ²¹I say there is no peace for them." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Isaiah 58 Fasting

¹ Shout aloud like a trumpet blast. Tell My people, Israel, they have sinned by rebelling against Me. ²Every day you seem interested in seeking Me and knowing My ways and doing what is right by obeying My commands. And you seem eager for justice and for Me to be near you. 3Yet when you go without food {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and belittle yourselves, you wonder why I haven't noticed. Here's why: While you are going without food, you do as you please and you take advantage of your workers. ⁴And often going without food you quarrel and fight with each other. So how can you expect Me to answer your prayers? 5Do you think I want you to give up eating {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} just so you look like a bush that's bent over? And does your giving up food involve nothing more than putting on burlap clothing and lying in ashes? Do you think that is all I want from you?" {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

My bestselling book, Fasting for Spiritual Breakthrough, is based on this chapter. Isaiah tells nine different results of fasting and I've given names to each result and how to fast to get those results. They are these:

First, the Disciple's Fast to break addiction or bondage, "Is not this the fast... to loose the bands of wickedness" (58:6, KJV)? Lord, I will discipline my appetite to find freedom over anything that has me captive to sin. Amen.

Second, the Ezra Fast to solve problems, "Is not this the fast... to undo the heavy burdens" (58:6, KJV)? Lord, give me wisdom to solve my problems as I fast and pray. Amen.

Third, the Samuel Fast for revival and evangelism. "Is not this the fast... to let the oppressed go free" (58:6, KJV)? Lord, I abstain from food and pray for revival in my life and ministry, and for people to get saved. Amen.

Fourth, the Elijah Fast to break bad habits and thought patterns, "Is not this the fast... that ye break every yoke" (58:6, KJV)? Lord, I take control of my spirit in prayer; help me control my body and mind. Amen. Fifth, the Widow's Fast, to give my money for the homeless, hungry, and needy. "Is not this the fast... to deal thy bread to the hungry... bring the poor... to thy house... the naked, that thou cover them" (58:6-7, KJV)? Lord, I will sacrifice and fast for the poor, the hungry, the homeless, and the destitute. Amen. Sixth, the St. Paul Fast, to gain "spiritual light" to make correct decisions. "Is not this the fast... thy light shall break forth" (58:6, 8, KJV)? Lord, I will fast to find Your truth so I can make better decisions. Amen.

Seventh, the Daniel Fast for health and healing, "Is not this the fast... (so) thine health shall spring forth speedily" (58:6, 8, KJV)? Lord, I fast from food and drink that would harm my health, and I will pray when I need healing. Amen.

Eighth, the John the Baptist Fast, for a good testimony to others. "Is not this the fast... and thy righteousness shall go before thee" (58:6, 8, KJV)? Lord, I have no righteousness in my life and works. Lord, I only have the righteousness of Jesus Christ who justified me. May Christ in me be a testimony to the world and may they see what Christ has done for me. Amen.

Ninth, the Esther Fast of Spiritual Warfare, for protection from satan. "Is not this the fast... (that) the glory of the LORD shall be thy rear guard" (58:6, 8)? Lord, I fast and pray for spiritual protection from the enemy. Amen.

6"Here's what I prefer as you go without food: Set free the people who have been put in prison unfairly, {119 Disciple Fast and Prayer, Matt. 17:21} free those who have been abused, and set those free who have been mistreated. 7Also share food with those who are hungry, share your home with poor homeless people, provide clothing for those in need, and help your relatives when they are in need. {532 Widow's Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:7} 8When you do these things, I will shed My light, {414 Saint Paul Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:8} My protection, on you, and I will heal you. {98 Daniel Fast and Prayer, Dan. 1:8} And I, your righteous One, will lead you, {265 John the Baptizer Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:8} and My glory will protect you from behind. {144 Esther Fast and Prayer, Est. 4:16} 9When you ask Me for help, I will answer you, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} and I will say, 'Here I am.'

If you avoid mistreating others and falsely accusing them, ¹⁰and if you give food to the hungry and help mistreated people, then your light will shine brightly (I will bless you). {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹¹I will always guide you and give you strength in the desert. You will be like a well-watered garden and a spring that never seems dry. ¹²You will rebuild homes that are in ruins, and you will be known as the Repairman of Broken Walls and the Repairman of City Streets. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

¹³"Don't work or eat on the Sabbath, and don't do whatever you please on the Sabbath. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Call the Sabbath a delight and honor the Lord's Day. Stop doing or saying whatever you please on the Sabbath. ¹⁴If you do these things, then I will be your delight and joy, {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} and you will have spiritual blessings by riding on the highest mountains and you will enjoy the blessings I promised to Jacob by feasting on your inheritance."

Isaiah 59 A Deliverer Promised

1"I, the LORD, am not too weak to save you, and I can still hear your prayers. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} 2But your sins have come between you and Me {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7} and have caused Me to turn from you. {324 Non-Answer to Prayer, Ps. 18:41} 3Your hands are covered with blood and you have been telling lies and mentioning wicked things. 4Not one of you is interested in being fair and honest. You tell lies, and you think up trouble and carry it out. 5Your actions are like snakes hatching poisonous eggs or like a spider spinning a web to catch insects. 6But you can't make clothes from those cobwebs. Your actions are all sinful and violent.

⁷"You are quick to sin and to murder innocent people. All you think about is sin, and you ruin and destroy others. ⁸You don't know what peace is or what it means to be fair. Everything you do is sinful, like going down a crooked road, and people who follow you on that road have no peace. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

9"You are so unfair and unrighteous that it is like you are walking in darkness, not light. ¹⁰You feel your way like a blind person, and you stumble at noon as if it were nighttime. You are as blind as a dead person. ¹¹You growl like bears and mourn like doves, hoping for justice and victory, but there isn't any." {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22}

¹²We know our sins are many {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} and they condemn us. We admit we have sinned. 13We have rebelled against You, LORD, and have turned away from You. We have treated people harshly and revolted against You, telling lies. 14Fairness and justice are far off. Truth stumbles in the streets, and honesty is nowhere around. 15 Truth can't be found, and anyone who rejects evil is attacked. "When I, the LORD, saw there was no justice, I was disappointed. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ¹⁶And I was amazed that no one was doing anything about it. So I decided I had to do something about it to bring victory and justice."

God asks why "there was no intercessor" (59:16, KJV)? LORD, I step forward to intercede for lost men and women. I will pray for their salvation. Amen.

¹⁷"I put on justice as my body armor and the helmet of salvation on My head. I put on the clothes of vengeance and godly anger. ¹⁸"I in My anger will do to My enemies near and far what they have done to My people. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ¹⁹Then people in both the east and the west will reverence Me and glorify Me. I will come against My enemies like a flood driven by My Spirit. {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ²⁰I will rescue Zion and Jacob's descendants who turn from their sins. ²¹I promise to give you My Spirit, and you and your children and grandchildren will obey My words forever, I, the LORD, have spoken these words." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

Isaiah 60 God's Future Blessing

¹"Jerusalem, stand up and shine. Blessings are coming to you, and My glory will shine on you. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ²Darkness covers the earth and everyone on it, but My glory is over you. ³Nations and kings will come to your light." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

Because God's glory has come into our life, we have a new inner transformation from God. Isaiah tells us, "Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee" (60:1, KJV). Lord, You tell me I have light, "thy light." It is a result of Your indwelling. The only light I have is Christ, the light of the world. I will shine Your glory into the life of my friends and relatives, both saved and unsaved. Enlighten them until they get Your light. Amen.

8"Who is sailing along like clouds and is flying to their nests like doves? 9They are the ships of Tarshish that are bringing the people of Israel home with silver and gold, which will honor Me, the Holy One of Israel, and you, My people. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

¹⁰"Foreigners will come and rebuild your city walls, and even kings of other nations will help. In My anger I punished you, but I will now show you tender love. ¹¹You will be so safe that you will never need to shut your gates. And kings of nations will lead their people to you with their many treasures. ¹²But any nation that refuses to serve you will be punished. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹³Lumber from Lebanon's pine trees, fir trees, and cypress trees will be brought to you to adorn My temple, the place of My throne. ¹⁴Descendants of people who mistreated you and hated you will bow at your feet, and they will say that you, Jerusalem, are My city, Zion, the Holy One of Israel. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

15"People hated and rejected you, and they did not travel to your city. But people of all future generations will be proud of you and glad for you. 16 Just as a nursing child gets nourishment from its mother, so you will be nourished by the wealth of foreign nations. This will help you see that I, the LORD, am the one who saved and rescues you, that I am the Mighty One of Israel. 17I will see that they bring you gold and silver, not bronze, wood, stones, or iron. Your "leaders" will be peace and justice. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 18Violence, ruin, and destruction will be gone, and instead you will name your walls 'Victory' and your gates 'Praise.' {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

¹⁹"You won't need the light of the sun or the moon because I, the LORD your God, will be your light and will honor you. ²⁰The sun will never set again and the moon will never go down again, because I will light your way forever and your days of sorrow will end. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²¹Then your people will live right and you will always own your land. You are like plants I have planted so you can honor Me. ²²The smallest group of you will be a great nation. I am the LORD, and when the time comes I will do all this quickly." {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

It seems that we Christians are always in the minority. Yet the LORD has promised us, "A little one shall become a thousand" (60:22, KJV). Lord, I look forward to the day when there shall be an abundance of Your followers everywhere. I want all people saved. Lord, I pray for that day. Amen.

Isaiah 61 The Redeemer Blesses

1"The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me. He has appointed me to bring good news to those who are suffering, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} to comfort the brokenhearted, and to announce that prisoners will be freed. ²He also sent Me to tell those who mourn and grieve that the year is coming when He will be kind to them and will punish our enemies." {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4}

When Jesus Christ returned to the synagogue at Nazareth (His boyhood home) to preach, He read the scroll from Isaiah 61:1-2. Notice Jesus didn't include the very last statement of the prediction: "And the day of vengeance of our God" (61:2). That's because what He read related to His first coming and what He left out related to His second coming. LORD Jesus, I'm glad You interpreted the Scriptures correctly. Thank You for the Old Testament predictions of Your first coming that give me confidence in Scripture because they were fulfilled accurately. The predictions of Your second coming motivate me to live godly and anticipate Your return. Amen.

3"To those who mourn in Zion He will give beauty in place of ashes, joy in place of mourning, and praise in place of despair. They will be like trees the LORD planted for His honor." {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

The LORD promises "beauty for ashes" (61:3). Our rebellious sin is nothing more than ashes. Every selfish ambition is burned to ashes. But when we turn our lives over to Jesus, He transforms everything we give to Him. Only Jesus can take ashes and turn them into something beautiful. Lord, I give my successes and failures to You. Forgive me all my sin. Give me a new nature and a new purpose in life. Give me beauty for ashes. Make something beautiful out of my life. Amen.

4"You, My people will rebuild cities that have been in ruins and desolate for generations. 5Foreigners will tend sheep and care for crops and vineyards. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 6But you will be the LORD's priests {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} and servants, and you will enjoy the riches of nations.

⁷"In place of your shame and disgrace you, like a firstborn son, will receive double honor and inheritance, and you will be joyful forever. ⁸I, the LORD, love justice, and I hate robbery and injustice. I will reward you with an eternal promise. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁹Your descendants will be known everywhere, and everyone who sees you will realize I have blessed you." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁰I, Isaiah, greatly love You, LORD, and I'm happy because of you. Your giving me victory and justice is like wearing nice clothes, or like a groom wearing a headgear or a bride wearing her jewels. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ¹¹Just as seeds grow in a garden, so You, the Sovereign LORD will cause nations to exercise justice and give praise to You. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

Isaiah 62 Watchmen Called to Be Awake

1"I will speak for you, Jerusalem {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} so that your justice will shine and your victory will be bright like a flame. ²Then the nation will see how upright I am and kings will see My greatness. ³You, Jerusalem, will be a great, royal crown in My hand." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

The LORD says that Jerusalem will bring glory to Him. "Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD" (62:3, KJV). Lord, I know You love Jerusalem and it brings glory to You. I also want to glorify

You in my life and through my service. May everything I do glorify You. Amen.

⁴You will be called Hephzibah (meaning "My Delight Is in Her") and your land will be called Beulah (meaning "Married"). (This is because I, the LORD will be married to you and will delight in You.) These names will replace your present names of Deserted and Desolate. ⁵Your children will care for you, just as a young man cares for his bride. I'll rejoice over you as a groom rejoices over his bride.

6"Jerusalem, I, the LORD, have posted watchmen on your walls. They will speak out day and night for Me to fulfill My promises ⁷and to give you no rest till I make you strong and make people everywhere praise Me. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁸I, the LORD, have given My Word and have promised never again to let our enemies eat your grain and crops and to drink your new wine. ⁹Instead those of you who harvest your crops will eat them and praise Me and those who drink My wine will be glad in the temple courtyard. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁰"Jerusalem, open your gates so people can enter. Remove stones from the highway, and raise your flag for nations to see. ¹¹I, the LORD, have announced to everyone, 'I, your Deliverer, Jerusalem, am coming to reward those who love Me and punish those who don't.' {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ¹²My people will be called 'the Holy People, the People He has Rescued, the City People Desire, and the City No Longer Deserted." {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

Isaiah 63 God's Mercy to Believers

¹Who is this coming from Bozrah in Edom with his cloths stained red? Who is this in his royal robes marching in His strength? {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²"It is I, the LORD. I am upright and I will rescue you. Why are your clothes red? They look as if you've been treading on grapes. ³I stomped on the grapes alone, and no nation helped Me. In My anger I stomped on the nations and my clothing got stained with their blood. 4I was taking revenge on My enemies and it was time to rescue My people. 5No one helped Me, and I was amazed that no one gave me any support. But I gained victory by Myself even though I was angry. 6I trampled on nations in My anger and made them drunk, and their blood spilled on the ground." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

This chapter begins by asking a question, "Who is this that cometh from Edom?" (63:1, KJV). Remember Edomites were descendants of Esau; they hated Jacob and rebelled against God. Edom is representative of all those tribe-nations that hate Israel, and thus they hated the God of Israel. So the one coming from Edom—and Bozrah its capital city—is the Jewish Messiah, Jesus Christ. He is "red in thine apparel" (63:2, KJV), meaning this is the picture of Jesus' second coming in judgment. "He was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood; and His name is called The Word of God" (Rev. 19:13, KJV). This is Jesus in judgment. Lord, I know You will judge all rebellion and sin. Thank You for judging my sin at Calvary so I don't have to be punished at the end of the age. You are "mighty to save" (63:1, KJV). Amen.

⁷ LORD, I will tell of Your many acts of loyal love. You are to be praised for all the good things You have done for Israel in accord with Your tender and loyal love. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁸You rescued Your people because they are Yours, and they will not be unfaithful to You again. ⁹You were concerned because they were distressed, but You rescued them in Your mercy and love, and You sustained them all through many years. ¹⁰But then they turned against You and saddened Your Holy Spirit. So You as their enemy fought against them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹¹Then Your people remembered what happened in Moses' day, when he brought our ancestors through the Red Sea and shepherded them like sheep. You gave them Your Holy Spirit, ¹²and Your power strengthened Moses. He became famous when ¹³You led Your people through the sea like horses that don't stumble and like cows grazing peacefully. ¹⁴The Holy Spirit gave them rest. By guiding them in this way You became well known. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

and power and your tender love. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} ¹⁶You are our Father, even though Abraham and Jacob didn't know us. As our Father {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} You have rescued us in times past.

Isaiah calls God his Father, "Doubtless You are our father" (63:16). Then he returns to say, "You, O LORD, are our Father" (63:16). Lord, You are my Father, I come to You with my need, just as a child comes to an earthly father with his need. Give me this day my daily bread. Amen.

¹⁷Why then, do You let us turn from You and let our hearts become stubborn against You? Please return and help us, because we are Your servants who belong to You. ¹⁸For a while Your temple was ours, but then our enemies destroyed it. ¹⁹We have been Yours for centuries, but we sometimes act like You never ruled over us or You never called us Your people. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Isaiah 64 Israel Laments

¹I, Isaiah, wish You, LORD, would come down from the heavens and shake the mountains. ²Just as fire burns wood and boils water, so Your enemies will know who You are and will tremble because of You. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³You did some amazing things, things we didn't even expect; and even mountains tremble when You reveal Yourself. ⁴No one has ever heard or seen any god like You who works for those who trust Him.

⁵You help those who do what is right and who remember and follow You. But when we sinned, you became angry. How then can we be rescued? ⁶We are all unclean with sin, {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} and even our good deeds are like filthy rags. We wither and fall like autumn leaves, and our sins are like wind that blows us away.

Isaiah confesses his unworthiness, "But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away" (64:6, KJV). LORD, I agree with Isaiah that any good thing I have done is just "filthy rags." All my righteousness will fade as a leaf and the wind will blow it away. You are my righteousness, You are my reward, You are my perfection. I have nothing but You. Amen.

⁷Not one of us worships You or prays to You. You ignore us, and You let our sins ruin us. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

⁸You, LORD, are our Father. We are only clay and You are the Potter who shapes us as You wish. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

We must confess with Israel, "We all are the work of Thy hand" (64:8). Lord, work Your beauty in me that I may be beautiful for You. Work Your skill in me that I may serve

You effectively. Work Your faithfulness in me that I may please You. Amen.

⁹Don't be angry with us, LORD, and don't keep remembering our sins. Please think of us as we pray, because we are Your people. ¹⁰Our cities, especially Jerusalem, are desolate like the desert. ¹¹Our holy, wonderful temple where our ancestors worshiped You, has been destroyed by fire, and our beautiful buildings have been ruined. ¹²After all this, LORD, do You still refuse to help us and to be quiet as You punish us? {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

Isaiah 65 Israel to Be Restored

¹The LORD says, "People who never before asked about Me are now seeking Me. My people were not looking for Me, but I told them I am here. ²I held out My hands all day to My stubborn and sinful people who were following their own ideas." {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

God makes a profound statement about the Gentiles, "I was sought by those who did not ask for Me; I was found by those who did not seek Me. I said, 'Here I am, here I am,' to a nation that was not called by My name." (65:1, KJV). The Gentiles were not from the root of Abraham, yet they sought salvation. The Jews were called "a rebellious people" (65:2), and "a people who provoke Me" (65:3). So God rejected His people. Then the Gentiles turned to the God of the Jews, and were incorporated into "the body of Christ." Lord, thank You for receiving me and being gracious to me, a Gentile. I have found You and I rejoice in salvation. Amen.

3"They insult Me to My face by offering sacrifices to idols in their sacred gardens and burning incense on brick altars. ⁴At night they go in the cemeteries and secret places to worship idols. They eat pork, cooked in sauces made of forbidden foods. ⁵They say to others, 'Keep away from us for we are holier than you.' These people are like smoke that irritates My nostrils, a fire that burns all the time. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

6"All this is written down. I won't keep quiet. I will make them pay ⁷ for their sins and the sins of their ancestors. Because they burned incense on the hills and insulted Me with their idol worship, I will make them pay back for what they have done. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 8If a cluster of grapes has some juice left in it, people don't throw away the grapes. So it is with My people; I won't destroy them all. 9I will keep some of My people to possess the land. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} They will inherit the land and be My servants. 10 Sheep will graze in Sharon on the Mediterranean coast, and many herds of cattle will graze in the Achor Valley in the east near Jericho.

¹¹"But if you reject Me and My mountain, and worship the gods of Fate and Destiny, ¹²then You will be killed by swords. You didn't answer when I called you, and you sinned and did what you know I hate. {268

Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³Those who serve Me will eat, but not you; you will be hungry. They will drink, but not you; you will be thirsty. They will be glad, but not you; you will be ashamed. ¹⁴They will sing for joy, but you will cry because of sorrow and pain. ¹⁵Your name will be a curse word among My servants. I will destroy you and give My servants another name. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁶If you bless someone or make a promise, you must do it in My name, because I am the God of truth. I will forget your past troubles and sins. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24}

17"I will create new heavens and a new earth, and things of the past will be forgotten. ¹⁸Be glad, because I will make Jerusalem a place of joy for My people. ¹⁹I will rejoice for Jerusalem and be glad for My people. There will be no more crying or sorrow in the city. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²⁰Infants will not die after living only a few days, and adults will not die young. People who live to be 100 will not be thought of as old. If someone dies younger than that, he'll be considered under a curse.

²¹"People will live in peace in the houses they build, and they will eat grapes from their own vineyards. ²²In the past, enemies destroyed people's houses and took their vineyards. But My people will live to be as old as trees, and will enjoy their work. ²³Their work won't be wasted, and their children won't experience setbacks. That's because I will bless them and their descendants too. ²⁴When they pray, I will answer before they finish praying. ²⁵Wolves and lambs will eat together, and lions and oxen will eat straw together. But snakes will eat dirt. And snakes won't bite or hurt anyone on My holy mountain." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Isaiah 66 The New Jerusalem

God tells all that while we may build a structure to honor Him (tabernacle, Solomon's temple, millennial temple), we may in no way build a house that can contain God. God is immense, "Heaven is My throne" (66:1), so nothing is big enough to contain God. God asks, "Where is the place of My rest?" (66:1). Lord, come dwell in my heart, I want my life to be a living sacrifice for You. I am not perfect, but I will live for You. I am not smart, but I will learn of You. I am not talented, but I will serve You. Use my feeble efforts to glorify You as You live in my body. Amen.

²"I made everything and that's how everything came into existence. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} The people I favor are those who are humble and repentant and tremble when I speak."

Who does God accept? "But on this one will I look: on him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at My word"

(66:2). God rejects the sinful, and rebellious, and filthy, but He accepts those who come to Him humbly and meekly. Lord, I come to You knowing I don't deserve Your mercy and grace. I bow in Your presence to worship Your magnitude and kindness. I plead for Your power to help me live holy and without blame. You are everything; I am nothing. Amen.

3"When you sacrifice a bull, that to Me is like murdering someone. And when you sacrifice lambs, that's like breaking a dog's neck. Or when you offer grain to Me, that's like putting pig's blood on the altar. When you burn incense, you are actually worshiping an idol, not Me. These are your choices in delighting in these disgusting things. 4So I will send trouble on you, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} things you have dreaded. You did not answer when I called you. And you didn't listen when I spoke. Instead you sinned before Me and did what you know I hate. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

5"Some of your own relatives hate Me because you are loyal to Me. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} They mock you and say, 'Let the LORD be honored and let Him make you happy.' But they will be ashamed. ⁶Listen to that noise in the city and the shouts at the temple. That is I, the LORD, shouting as I punished My enemies. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7"Have you ever heard of a woman giving birth to a child before she has labor pains? ⁸Who has ever heard of such a thing? Has a nation ever come into existence in a single day? But Jerusalem has! She is like a mother who had her baby as soon as her labor started. ⁹I would not bring Israel to the point of birth and not let her be born. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁰So if you love Jerusalem, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} then be glad for her. {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4} ¹¹She will nurse you, caring for you, just as a mother nurses her infant. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

17"Some people got themselves ready and went to a garden to worship idols and to eat pork, rats, and other forbidden foods. But I will see that they come to an awful end. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 18 Because of their sins, I will gather all nations together, and they will see My glory. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁹I will send survivors as messengers to the nations—to Tarshish, Libya, Lydians, who are famous as archers, Tubal, Greece, and distant lands. The survivors will tell them of My glory. ²⁰They will bring My people from every nation to Jerusalem as an offering to Me, and they will come on horses, mules, camels, and in chariots. They will be like people who bring grain offerings to the temple. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²¹I will make some of those who return priests and Levites. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

²²"You will always have descendants just as the new heavens and new earth will last forever. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ²³On the first day of every month and on each Sabbath everyone will worship Me. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁴They will see the dead bodies of those who turned against Me. The worms that feed on them will never die, and the fire that is burning their bodies will never go out. And everyone who sees these bodies will be horrified." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

JEREMIAH

Key Words: The Word of the LORD Came (Jeremiah 1:4)

Key Verse: "Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 'Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations'" (1:4-5).

Theme: Jeremiah came from a priestly family living in Anathoth near Jerusalem. He wrote the longest book in the Bible, and his career spanned more than 40 years—during the reigns of Judah's last five kings. Jeremiah was called by God as a young man, and throughout his long turbulent life, he confronted a people who had rejected God's commands and deliberately chose false gods. He warned them of their eventual destruction. Nevertheless God's people refused to repent, so Jerusalem and the temple were destroyed in 586 B.C., and they were deported to Babylon.

In Jeremiah's famous "Temple Sermon," he had told the people that the temple would be destroyed and for that he nearly lost his life. Thereafter Jeremiah was considered as a traitor and was arrested and jailed.

When the city of Jerusalem fell, Jeremiah was given the privilege of remaining in Judah. He wanted to stay in the Holy Land, but renegade Jews forced him to go to Egypt where tradition has it that he died.

Jeremiah was known as the weeping prophet because his burden was so heavy. The Jews would not listen to him and they opposed him and tried to kill him, leading him to periods of deep depression. His was an example of total faithfulness to God, regardless of failure or circumstances. Lord, may I be as faithful to You as was Jeremiah when rejected by an unsaved world. Amen.

Jeremiah 1 The Lord Calls Jeremiah am Jeremiah, son of Hilkiah, a priest from Anathoth in the tribe of Benjamin. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²The LORD first gave messages to me in the 13th year of King Josiah's reign in Judah (627 B.C.), ³and other messages in the reign of Josiah's son, Jehoiakim, and in the reign of Josiah's other son, Zedekiah, when the people of Jerusalem were taken away as captives in August of 586 B.C. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, ⁵before you were born, I chose you to speak for Me to the nations." {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21}

Too often we think life began when we were born, but God had a plan for our lives even before we were conceived in our mother's womb. God is not limited by time. He stands above time and prepares us for His purpose within our limited time. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Lord, I yield to Your divine purpose for my life, and I pray I may find what You want me to do in life and faithfully do it. Amen.

⁶I said, "But, Sovereign LORD, I can't do that. I'm too young." {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18} ⁷Then the LORD said, "No, you aren't too young. You must go wherever I send you and say whatever I tell you. ⁸You don't need to be afraid, because I'll be with you and keep you safe." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

⁹The LORD touched my mouth and said, "I'll give you the words to say, ¹⁰and I'm sending you to speak to the nations to tell them they will be destroyed and then rebuilt." {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

Most of us feel overwhelmed when God calls us to serve Him. We cry out with Jeremiah, "I am only a child." But that's the starting point of success, it's "not I, but Christ." {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} Lord, I can't do what You call me to do. Give me wisdom I don't have, give me strength when I'm weak. Help me make right decisions, and give me courage {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} to never quit. Amen.

11What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "I see an almond tree branch." 12 The LORD said to me, "Correct, Like the almond, which means 'watchful,' I am watching over my Word to do what I say." {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} ¹³Again when the LORD asked me what I saw, I said, "I see a boiling pot in the north." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 14Then He said, "Calamity will come from the north on everyone. 15I'll lead all nations north of you to approach the gates and walls of Jerusalem and all the cities of Judah. 16But I'll punish them for their sin {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} of forsaking Me and offering sacrifices to idols. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁷So be alert, Jeremiah, and speak what I tell you to say. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} And don't be discouraged. 18I've made you like a strong city with an iron column and bronze walls. And you will oppose everyone in Judah, including their leaders and priests. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ¹⁹These leaders will oppose you, but they won't succeed because I'll keep you safe." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Does God have an extremely difficult job for you? {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} Jeremiah's job was not only difficult; it would prove to be lonely and overwhelming. Yet God promised, "They will not defeat you." Some will have jobs where they win. Others may lose the battle and apparently lose everything on earth. But if you do God's task you will win, no matter the outcome. Lord, I don't want to be successful; I want to be faithful. I will speak what You tell me to say. I will go where You send me. I will be what You want me to be. Amen.

Jeremiah 2 Israel Abandons God

¹The LORD told me ²to go to Jerusalem and tell everyone these words: "I remember how as a young bride you loved Me and followed Me even in the desert.

Throughout, Jeremiah kept saying, "The LORD spoke His Word to me." He probably heard the audible Word of God, but you have the written Word of God available to you. Lord, thank You for speaking to me through Your written Word. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} I will study carefully to know what You said, I will obey carefully to please You. Amen.

³"You were Mine completely, like the first fruits of a harvest, and I punished anyone who mistreated you. I, the LORD, have spoken." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

⁴Listen, Israel, ⁵to what the LORD says. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

"What fault did your ancestors find in Me {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} that led them to leave Me and become foolish by worshiping foolish idols? ⁶You didn't ask Me for help though I had rescued you from Egypt {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} and led you through the desert, a dry, dark land where no one travels or lives.

7"I brought you here to this fertile land with its abundant food, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} but you ruined My land by your sins. 8The priests didn't ask about Me, and your prophets and leaders turned from Me. {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} Your prophets gave messages from Baal, and they worshiped foolish idols. So I am bringing a court case against you and your grandchildren. 10Go to Cypress and the Arabian Desert and see if 11 any nation has ever exchanged its gods for other gods, even though its gods are nothing. But you, My people, have exchanged Me, your glorious God, for worthless idols. 12The heavens are shocked and horrified that you did this. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

13" You, My people, have sinned in two ways. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} You have rejected Me, the source of living water, and you have dug cisterns that can't hold water." {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17}

The Lord is a cool refreshing artesian spring of pure water. When the Lord renews thirst, He is enjoyable (v. 13). But the people drink from cisterns, holes in the ground that store dirty water, contaminated water, or stale water. Who wants to drink from a hole in the ground when they can drink fresh cool water? Lord, I come to You to drink; I am tired, thirsty, and bored. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} I drink from Your presence, and I renew myself in Your promises. I want to stay in Your presence and not go into a hot dry world. But I have a task to do and I have obligations to fulfill. But I'll be back. I'll return hot, thirsty and famished. Ah, Your water is good. Amen.

¹⁴"You weren't born slaves but you have been captured. 15Enemies roared against you like lions {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} and now your land is destroyed and your towns are burned and empty. 16 Soldiers from the Egyptian towns of Memphis and Tahpanhes removed your glory, like shaving your head. ¹⁷This all happened because you rejected Me. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 18So why did you go to Egypt and Assyria for water to drink? {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 19You will be punished because of your sins. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Think of how evil and bitter it is for you to reject Me and to have no respect for Me. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

²⁰"Sometime ago I released you from slavery, and yet you refused to serve Me. Instead you bowed down to idols on hill-tops and under green trees like a prostitute. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²¹When I chose you, you were like the best grapevine. So how did you become a useless, wild vine? ²²You may use a lot of soap, but that won't get rid of the stain of your guilt. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²⁶"You are like a thief who feels ashamed when he's caught. This includes your kings, officials, priests, and prophets. ²⁷You call a wooden idol your father, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} and you call an idol made of stone your mother. {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} You have rejected Me, but when you are in trouble you want Me to rescue you. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 28Where are the idols you made? Let them rescue you when you are in trouble. You have plenty of idols, as many as your towns. ²⁹You can't accuse Me of not rescuing you, because you have rebelled against Me. 30I punished you, but it didn't do any good. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} You killed your prophets like a lion killing its prey."

³¹You people, listen to the LORD's words: {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} "Have I left you in the desert and in darkness? You are My people, yet you say you will do what you want. ³²Does a young woman forget her jewelry, or does a bride forget to wear her wedding ornaments? Yet for many years you have forgotten Me. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 33You are good at finding lovers; in fact the most experienced prostitute could learn from you. ³⁴Your clothes are stained with the blood of innocent poor people; you killed them even though they didn't break into your houses. Yet 35 you still claim to be innocent and that I am not angry with you. Do you think I'm not angry with you? Wrong. I will punish you because you claim you haven't sinned. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³⁶You keep changing your ways. You went to Assyria for help, and then you went to Egypt. ³⁷You will be led away from Egypt {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} because I have rejected the nations you trusted. Those nations will not be of any help."

Ieremiah 3 The Unfaithfulness of Israel

1"If a divorced woman remarries, her first husband can't marry her again because that would be like making the land unclean. You, Judah, have had many lovers in your worship of idols. But I still plead for you to come back to Me. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} ²Look around you and you won't find any place where you haven't worshiped idols. You sit like a prostitute beside the road waiting for a client, and like a nomad in the desert. Your sins have made the land unclean." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

The Lord uses the picture of an unfaithful wife to show His anger to Israel who has been unfaithful to Him by her idol worship (v. 8). The New Testament pictures the church as the bride of Christ who enjoys intimacy with Him. Lord, I will abide in You as You abide in me. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} I love You with all my heart for what You did for me on Calvary. Amen.

³"That's why it hasn't rained. Like a prostitute, you are unashamed. 4You call Me your Father and your friend, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 5thinking I won't be angry with you. But yet you keep right on sinning in the worst possible ways." ⁶When Josiah was king of Judah, the LORD said to me, "Notice what Israel does. She has committed adultery against Me by worshiping idols on every hilltop and under every green tree. 7I had hoped that she would come back to me, but she didn't. 8So I divorced her. Her sister Judah saw this, but she too became unfaithful and became a prostitute. 9She wasn't concerned about Israel's sin. And so Judah made the land unclean by worshiping idols of wood and stone. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 10Worse than that, Judah has only pretended to return to Me." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹¹Then the LORD said, "True, Israel is unfaithful, but Judah is worse. 12So give this message to Israel: 'Come back to

Me, Israel, and I won't be angry anymore, because I am merciful. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ¹³Admit that you turned from Me, the LORD your God, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and that you worshiped foreign idols under every green tree and you disobeyed Me. ¹⁴Come back to Me because I'm your husband. I will bring you back to your own land—one from this town, two from this clan. 15I will give you leaders who know Me, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and they will lead you wisely. ¹⁶Then in those days when you have increased in numbers, you won't miss the sacred chest, which the Babylonians took away. 17Then Jerusalem will be My throne, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and all nations will come here to worship Me, and they will no longer be stubborn in their sins. ¹⁸You people of Judah and Israel will again be united, coming back from Babylon in the north to the land I promised your ancestors.' {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 19"I want to treat you as My own children {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} and give you this beautiful land. I wanted you to call me 'Father' and not turn from Me."

The second picture of Israel is of unfaithful children who have not obeyed the Lord (v. 25). Lord, You are my heavenly Father and I will obey You in every small detail. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I know I have been born again, and I have a new nature. Thank You for new life and new desires to please You. Amen.

²⁰"But you have been unfaithful to Me like a wife who is unfaithful to her husband. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. ²¹On the hilltops you can hear the Israelites weeping and pleading for Me to help them. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} But they have wandered from the right path and have forgotten Me, the LORD their God. ²²If your faithless people will come back to Me, I will cure you of your straying from Me." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

"Yes, we will come back to You because You are the LORD our God. ²³We realize now that our worship of idols and our loud noises were false, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} and that only You can save us. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁴Since the days of our ancestors these shameful idols have taken our crops and livestock and our children. ²⁵We now lie down ashamed. We admit that we have sinned against You, the LORD our God, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and that like our ancestors we have not obeyed You."

Jeremiah 4 Return to God

¹The LORD said, "Okay, return to Me. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} And if you really mean to, then get rid of your terrible idols. ²Make promises in My name. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} Then you will bless the nations {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and they will praise You." {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ³The LORD says to Judah and Jerusalem, "Plow up the hard ground of your hearts, and don't let your hearts be like land with thornbushes. ⁴Dedicate yourselves to Me. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} If you don't, My anger will burn like fire that no one can put out because of all your sins. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 5Shout to Judah and Jerusalem and sound the trumpet. ⁶Tell them to hurry and run for their lives to Zion or any walled town. Why? Because I am bringing terrible destruction from the north. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7An army will come like a lion. As a destroyer of nations it will leave your towns in ruins with no one in them. 8So put on burlap clothing and mourn because I am still angry with you. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ⁹In that day the king and his officials will be discouraged, and priests and prophets will be shocked and frightened."

¹⁰Then I, Jeremiah, said, "Sovereign LORD, why have you fooled everyone by promising peace {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} when the sword is at our throats?" ¹¹The LORD answered, "I am sending a windstorm from the desert. But it won't be like a breeze that winnows grain." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah describes the judgment of God as a scorching wind, that is, the Babylonians are a coming windstorm bringing death (vv. 11-13). Remember God is both a windstorm to judge and He is the breath of God to renew. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} Holy Spirit, breathe on me to give me new life. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} Lord, breathe on me in love. I repent of all known sin. I will follow You as closely as possible. Breathe on me, breath of God. Fill me with new life. May my desires be Your desires. Amen.

12"It will be a strong gust from Me. Now I will announce your destruction. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 13Look! The enemy sweeps down like heavy rain, and his chariots are swooping down like a whirlwind. Their horses are swifter than eagles. Then you will say, 'How terrible it will be for us. We are doomed.'14Jerusalem, cleanse your hearts of your sin and be saved. Don't keep thinking evil thoughts. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁵Your destruction is being announced as far north as Dan and in the Ephraim hills. ¹⁶"Tell the nations and Jerusalem that an army is coming from a distant country against Judah. 17 Because you have rebelled against Me, this army will surround you like laborers guarding a field. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸"Your own actions have brought this bitter punishment on you, which will pierce your heart. ¹⁹You will say, 'I feel terrible. I'm in great pain. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} My heart pounds, and I can't keep quiet. I hear the trumpet sound and battle cry." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

Lord, I know You will judge people because of their sin, but I'm not like Jeremiah. My heart doesn't pound inside me. Forgive me for not being more concerned for lost people. I don't weep and I don't intercede for them as I should. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Forgive me. Give me a heart like Jeremiah, the weeping prophet. Give me a burden to pray for the lost. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} Amen.

²⁰"One wave of destruction follows another till the whole land is in ruins. Tents and shelters are destroyed instantly. ²¹How long will I see the enemy flags and hear the trumpet calls to battle? {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ²²My people are fools; they don't know Me. They are like foolish children who don't understand anything. They are good at sinning, but they have no idea how to do good." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

²³I, Jeremiah, saw that the earth was formless and empty, and that the sun, moon, and stars did not shine. ²⁴I saw the mountains and hills shaking. ²⁵All the people were gone, and birds had flown away. ²⁶The fertile land was a desert, and towns were in ruins, because of the LORD's anger. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁷The LORD said, "Your land will be in ruins but not destroyed completely. ²⁸The earth will mourn {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} as the sky turns black with smoke. ²⁹I will not go back on what I said. Hearing many cavalrymen and archers, your people will hide in bushes and behind rocks. Every town is empty. ³⁰Jerusalem, you lie in ruins. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} So why are you acting like a prostitute, wearing red clothes, putting on lots of gold jewelry, and using eye shadow? All this is of no use because your lovers hate you and plan to kill you."

³¹I, Jeremiah, hear screaming and groaning like a woman in labor. This is Jerusalem gasping for breath, {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} pleading for help, and saying, "I'm dying. The enemy has murdered me.

Jeremiah 5 The Rebellion of Jerusalem

¹The LORD said, "Search in the streets and squares of Jerusalem for even one person who is honest and wants to know the truth. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} If you find one, I will forgive the city."

God challenges Jeremiah to search Jerusalem to see if there are any who search for truth and live honestly, who love their Lord with all their heart. Lord, I will totally commit myself to You, even if no one else does so. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Lord, search my heart to find any disobedience or sin; reveal it to me. I will repent of all sin and I plead the blood of Christ for cleansing from all sin (1 John 1:9). {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I will live honestly and righteously. Amen

²"Many people may make promises, saying, 'As surely as the LORD lives,' and yet they are lying." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ³I, Jeremiah, said, "LORD, I know You look for truth. You punished

Your people because they were untruthful, but in spite of their pain, they became more stubborn, refusing to change their ways." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

God accuses the people of being "more stubborn than a rock" (v. 3). Lord, I want to have a tender heart toward You. I will read and obey Your Word to make my heart soft toward You. I will pray for lost people and I will yield my heart to You. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Give me a new heart. Amen.

⁴The LORD, thought, "These are the poor, foolish people who don't know My ways or what I require of them. 5So I will speak to their leaders because they know what I require. But they too decided not to follow Me, as if that would get them out of slavery. 6So your enemies will attack you like a lion from the forest or a wolf from the desert. Like a leopard they will pounce on and tear to pieces anyone who goes outside. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7"People of Judah, why should I forgive you? {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Even your children turned against Me by worshiping gods that are not really gods. I gave you everything you needed, and yet you still committed adultery and went to prostitutes. 8You are like strong stallions, always wanting someone else's wife. 9Obviously I should punish you for this. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

10"Go through your vineyards and damage the grapevines. But don't destroy them. Cut off the branches because you people, like these branches, don't belong to Me. ¹¹Judah and Israel have been so unfaithful to Me. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²The prophets have lied, saying I won't harm them, and they won't experience war or famine. ¹³But these prophets are full of wind and are not speaking My words. So they themselves will experience war and famine." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

¹⁴Therefore this is what the LORD, the God of the Heavens, says: "Because the people are talking like this, I will give you words to say that will be like a fire burning up these people like wood being burned. ¹⁵Israel, I will bring against you a distant and ancient nation, who speak a language you won't understand. ¹⁶The arrows of these warriors bring death. ¹⁷They will eat your crops, kill your children, eat your livestock, and eat your grapes and figs. You may feel safe in your walled cities, but they will destroy those cities. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

18"Yet I won't let the enemy destroy you completely. ¹⁹When your people ask why the LORD has done all this, tell them, 'Since you left Me to serve idols of foreign gods, you will now serve foreigners in their land." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰The Lord said: ²¹You foolish people. You have eyes, but you don't see, and you have ears, but you don't listen. ²²Why don't you reverence Me {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} and tremble in My presence? After all, I'm the one who made the sandy shore to hold back the oceans. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} The waves may crash against the beach, but they can't cross it. ²³Yet you stubborn people have turned from Me. ²⁴You don't say, 'Let's reverence the LORD our God. He's the one who sends rain and gives a good harvest for several weeks each year.' ²⁵But because of your sin I hold off the rain and your harvesting. Your sin has robbed you of these good things. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁶"Some of you people trap humans like hunters trapping birds. ²⁷Just as cages are full of birds, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} so your houses are full of deceit. By cheating you have become rich and powerful ²⁸ and well fed. You sinful ways are unlimited. You refuse justice to orphans and the poor. ²⁹Obviously you deserve to be punished, so I will take revenge. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁰Think of the shocking things going on in your country. ³¹Prophets are telling lies, and priests assume authority that isn't theirs, and you, My people, seem to love it that way. But when disaster comes, what will you do then" {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

Jeremiah 6 Enemies Surround Jerusalem

daughter. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³Enemy shepherds will set up their tents around you and divide your pastures for their flocks. ⁴The enemy is prepared for battle to attack at noon. But now that the day is fading and evening shadows are extending, ⁵the army will attack at night. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁶The LORD of the Heavens, said to the enemy, "Cut down trees and build ramps up against Jerusalem's walls. This city is to be punished because of her wickedness. ⁷She spouts evil like water from a spring. Sounds of violence and destruction are heard in her. And I see her sickness and wounds. ⁸Heed my warning, Jerusalem: If you don't, I will make you empty and no one will live there." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

God told Israel, "If you don't listen, I will turn my back on you" (v. 8). Have you ever come to that place where God doesn't hear your prayers? {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} Maybe God turns a deaf ear toward you because you stopped listening to Him. Why should God listen to you if you don't listen to Him? Lord, forgive me for not reading Your Word more, and forgive me for not meditating on You more. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} I am guilty of not listening to You. Forgive me. I will listen for Your voice speaking to me through Scripture. I will listen for Your still small voice when I pray. Speak, Lord, for Your servant is listening. Amen.

⁹The LORD of the Heavens said this: "You, enemy of Israel may destroy the few remaining people in Israel much as a farmer goes over each vine again to gather the grapes he missed the first time." 10 I, Jeremiah, say, "Who will listen to my warning? {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} The people refuse to listen, and they reject the LORD's Word. 11I am full of the LORD's wrath, and I can hardly hold it in any longer." The LORD answered, "I will pour out My wrath on children playing in the streets, on young men, and on husbands, wives, and older adults. 12I will turn over to others their houses, fields, and wives when I punish these people. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁶"I told you to walk in the old, godly path your ancestors took, {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} and you would find rest. But you said, 'We won't walk on that road.' ¹⁷I also set watchmen over you to tell you to listen to the warning of the trumpet blast. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} But you said you wouldn't pay attention to it. ¹⁸Therefore, you nations, listen. My people ignored Me and rejected My laws, ¹⁹so now the evil they planned to do will happen to them. {267 Judgment Prayer,

Rev. 17:5} ²⁰I don't want your incense from Sheba {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} or perfume from some distant country. I don't want your burnt offerings, and I'm not pleased with your sacrifices. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

Have you ever felt like a prisoner to your problems and troubles? {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} Lord, help me when I see troubles surrounding me. Don't let me be swallowed by my problems. I look to You for help. Show me what to do; tell me how to solve my dilemma. I will think about life the way You want me to think. I will solve my problems the way You tell me. I will do what You want me to do. Be glorified in my life. Amen.

²⁵The LORD said, "Don't work in your fields or walk by the roads because the enemy is everywhere and is well armed. ²⁶Put on burlap clothing and sit in ashes.

{161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} Mourn, My people, as if your only son had died, because the enemy will come against you suddenly.

²⁷"Jeremiah, test and observe My people as if you are testing metals. ²⁸You'll see that as rebels, full of slander, they are as hardened in their ways as bronze and iron. ²⁹Fire in a furnace purifies metals, but My people can't be purified of their sin. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³⁰I have rejected them, so they are like rejected silver."

Jeremiah 7 The Lord Speaks to Jeremiah

¹The LORD told me ²to stand by the temple gate and tell the people there,

Some people think they are getting closer to God because they walk into a church building. But there's nothing magical about a dwelling. The people of Jeremiah's day were trusting the temple to save them from their enemies. But the answer is not to get into God's house, but to get the God of the house into our lives. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Lord, I will not put my trust in a physical house, even though You dwelt in that house in the past. Lord, come into my heart, make my life Your house. Live in my house, possess my house, and control my house. Amen.

³Hear this message from the LORD of the Heavens: "If you change your ways, I'll let you live in your country. ⁴But don't think that just because the temple is here I will protect you. ⁵I'll let you live here if you treat people fairly, ⁶and stop taking advantage of foreign residents, orphans, and widows; and if you stop killing innocent people and stop worshiping idols. ⁷Then I will let you live here in the land I gave your ancestors. ⁸But you are trusting in worthless lies.

9"Do you think you can steal, murder, commit adultery, lie in court, and worship Baal and other gods, ¹⁰and then come to My temple and say you are safe and then keep on sinning? ¹¹You have made the temple a place for robbers. I have seen all you've done. ¹²Go to the place where I had My tabernacle for a while. Because of your sins, I destroyed Shiloh. ¹³And while I was doing all this, I spoke to you over and over, but you wouldn't listen. ¹⁴And I will do the same thing to My temple. I will destroy it, ¹⁵and I'll send you away as captives, just as I sent away the people of Ephraim.

²¹The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, also says this: "I won't accept sacrifices from you, but go ahead and offer them and eat the meat yourselves. ²²When I rescued your ancestors out of Egypt, I wanted more than burnt offerings from them. ²³I told them, 'If you obey Me, I will be your God, and you will be My people, and all will go well for you."

The Lord says, "Obey me, and I will be your God, and you will be My people... good things will happen to you" (v. 23). Lord, I pray for good things in my life, but I will go further; I will obey You so good things can come to me. Teach me the truth of that old hymn, "Trust and Obey." When obedience is hard for me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} make me obey. I want good things of life that come only from You. Amen.

²⁷"Jeremiah, when you tell them all this, they won't listen. ²⁸Therefore say to them, 'You have not obeyed your God and you haven't changed your ways. You are not truthful. ²⁹So shave your heads in mourning, and weep on the mountains. God has rejected this generation that has made Him angry.'

³⁰"You people have sinned before My very eyes. You have set up your terrible idols right in My temple which has made the temple disgusting. ³¹You have built altars as Topheth in Hinnom Valley, where you sacrifice your children in fire to other gods. Obviously I never thought of telling you to do such an awful thing. ³²The time is coming when that place will be called Slaughter Valley because you will bury your dead there till there'll be no more room for graves. 33Corpses on the ground will be eaten by birds and wild animals, and no one will be there to scare them off. ³⁴The sounds of joy at weddings will no longer be heard in Judah's towns or Jerusalem's streets."

The Word of the Lord Is Rejected

he gets up again. And when he realizes he took a wrong road, he turns and goes back. ⁵Why then do you refuse to turn back to Me and continue on your false ways? {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁶I listen carefully to your talk, but no one admits he has done wrong. ² {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Everyone rushes down his own path of sin like a horse rushing to a battle. ⁷Storks, doves, swifts, and swallows know when to migrate. But you, My people, are ignorant of My laws.

8"How can you say, 'We are wise because we have the LORD's laws, when your teachers have turned them into lies?'
9"They think they are wise, but they will be shamed and trapped because they rejected what I say. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} Obviously they aren't so wise after all. 10 I'll give your wives and fields to strangers. Everyone, great or small, prophet or priest, is greedy and dishonest."

The people of God are guilty of being "Greedy for money" (v. 10). That's probably the number-one sin in modern society, people worship the dollar. They give their strength, their lives to get more money. Lord, we pray for money and You give it to us. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} Then we trust in the money You give, rather than trusting in You, the Giver. Forgive me my blindness. Help me control the money You give me, and don't let money control me. Amen.

11"You treat My people's wounds as if they aren't serious, {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} and you speak of peace when there is only war. ¹²You aren't ashamed of your disgusting sins, and you don't even blush. But you will lie dead with other corpses. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³I will wipe out your harvests of figs, grapes, and fruit trees. Every good thing I prepared for you will be gone. I, the LORD, have spoken these words." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴Then the people will say, "Why are we sitting here? What are we waiting for? Let's go to our walled cities and die there. Because we have sinned against the LORD our God, He has determined to destroy us by our drinking poisoned water. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 15We had hoped for peace, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} but none came. We hoped for healing, but all we got was terror. 16We can hear the snorting of enemy horses all the way from Dan, and we tremble with fear. The enemy is coming to destroy Jerusalem and our nations." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷The LORD says, "I'll send against you this army like poisonous snakes. You won't be able to charm them, and they'll bite you."

¹⁸My grief is terrible, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} and my heart is broken. ¹⁹All across the land people are asking, {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} "Has the LORD left Zion? Is the king no longer there?" The LORD answered, "You made Me angry by worshiping carved images and foreign idols." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23}

The people knew enough to cry to God when they got into trouble asking, "Isn't the LORD still in Zion?" (v. 19). Yes, God is still at the place where we walked away from Him. Lord, I come back to the place I left Your presence. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I repent of my sin. I confess I need You and can't go on without You. Forgive me! {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Accept me back! Restore me to fellowship and let me feel Your presence again. Amen.

²⁰You people say, "Harvest time and summer are gone, {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} and yet the LORD has not rescued us." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

²¹You people are crushed because of God's anger. And I too feel downhearted. I mourn and I'm horrified. ²²Surely there are doctors and medicine in Gilead. Why then are your people not healed? {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

Jeremiah 9 Jeremiah Laments the Sins of the People

¹If my eyes were a fountain of tears, I would weep day and night for my people who were killed. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

Did you see Jeremiah's heart? He said, "I wish my heart were like a spring of water... then I could cry day and night" (v. 1). Lord, I have a hard heart, and I don't weep over lost people. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} I know there is a hell for those who reject You. I know You offer salvation to all who will come to You in faith, but I also know You will judge all people who reject You and send them to hell. Forgive my hard heart, soften me with Your love and mercy. Teach me to pray for the lost. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Amen.

²I wish I could go find a traveler's shack in the desert and get away from you people {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} who are so unfaithful to the LORD. ³The LORD said, "My people tell lies like they are shooting arrows from a bow. ⁴Jeremiah, your friends and relatives are telling this about you, so don't trust them. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ⁵People tell lies about their friends, wearing themselves out with their sins. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁶They deceive each other, and refuse to come to Me."

⁷The LORD of the Heavens also says, "I'll punish My people's hearts like metal is purified in a furnace. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} Because of their sin I have no other choice."

God says, "I will test my people as a person tests metal in fire" (9:7). Lord, I don't like to be tested; it hurts and I'm weak. I don't like testings because they are uncomfortable and disruptive. {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} But I know I love You, and I know I'll live for You, no matter what. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} When I've sinned, forgive me. When I've strayed, restore me. I'm weak, make me strong. But I know I love You and will not deny You. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} When I'm tested, may I come forth as pure gold. Amen.

11"I, the LORD, will make Jerusalem and Judah's towns piles of ruins where only wild dogs live." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 12I said, "LORD, who can understand {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} why the land has been so ruined: Have you told anyone so he can explain it to others?" 13The LORD replied, "This is because My people disobeyed Me {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and rejected My laws. 14They stubbornly followed their own desires and worshiped images of Baal, as their ancestors did. 15So I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, will feed them bitter food and make them drink poisoned water. 16I will scatter them around the world as strangers in distant lands. And their enemies will kill every one of them with swords." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁷The LORD of the Heavens also says this: "Send for the women who are paid to weep at funerals. ¹⁸Tell them to begin weeping quickly {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} and to let tears flow from their eyes. ¹⁹The people of Jerusalem will weep, saying, 'We are ruined. Our homes have been destroyed so we must leave our land and our homes."

²⁰Listen, you women, to what the LORD says. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Teach your daughters and your neighbors to wail at funerals. 21Death has crept in through our windows and has killed our young people. So children, now dead, no longer play in the streets, and young men are not in the city squares. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²²The LORD says, "Dead bodies will be scattered on the fields like dung or stalks of lengthened grain." 23 And the LORD says, "Don't brag about your wisdom or strength or riches. ²⁴Instead, boast in the fact that you know and understand Me, {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} the just God, and that My love is steadfast. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁵A time is coming when I will punish pagans whose hearts are not right with Me, including 26Egypt, Edom, Ammon, and Moab. And even Israel is like these pagans."

Jeremiah 10 Listen to God, Not to Idols

¹Israel, listen to what the LORD says. ²Here's His message: "Don't be like other nations who are frightened when they see signs in the sky."

God wants us—His people—to be different. God says, "Don't live like the people from other nations" (v. 2). Today God wants Christians to live differently from unsaved people. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} Lord, I will live differently from the unsaved. Because I have a new nature I will live by the new desires You've put within my heart. I will flee the world, the flesh, and the devil. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} But sometimes I fail to obey You. Forgive my sin. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Give me strength to live differently than sinners. Amen.

⁶LORD, You are great and powerful. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} No one is like You. ⁷Everyone should worship You because You are King of the nations. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} No one anywhere is wise like You. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁸Idols made of wood are worthless, and so are those who worship them. ⁹Skilled workers make idols by hammering out silver from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz. Then they dress the idols in blue and purple. ¹⁰But You are the LORD, the only true and living God, the eternal King. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} When You are angry, the earth trembles, and nations perish under your wrath. ¹¹So-called gods, who did not create the heavens and the earth, will be destroyed.

¹²But God, You made the earth by Your power {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} and wisdom and you spread out the stars in space. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹³When You speak, clouds in the heavens roar, and You send clouds, lightning, rain, and wind. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁴Everyone who worships idols is foolish and stupid, and even goldsmiths are shamed by their idols because the idols are a hoax and are not alive. 15 Idols are worthless, and people make fun of them. The time will come when they will all be destroyed. 16But You, LORD, the God of Jacob, are not like them. You created everything, {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} and You chose Israel to be Your very own. You are the LORD of the Heavens.

¹⁷The LORD says, "Gather your things and get ready to leave. ¹⁸The enemy is coming. I will toss you from this land and bring trouble on you and you will be captured." ¹⁹Then I, Jeremiah, said, "How terrible, it will be because our wound can't be cured, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} but we must endure the pain. ²⁰Our homes are destroyed and our children are dead, and no one is left to help us rebuild our homes. ²¹Even our leaders are stupid and don't follow You, the LORD. Therefore they fail and their flocks are scattered. ²²Listen. Hear the noise of the armies from the north. Judah's towns will be in ruins and wild dogs will live there. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²³"LORD, we humans can't plan and control our lives. ²⁴Correct me, LORD, {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} but don't be angry with me, or I will die."

Jeremiah knows we are weak. He says, "No one can control his own life" (v. 23). So Jeremiah prays, "O LORD, correct me, but be fair" (v. 24). Lord, that's my prayer. {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10} I'm not perfect, but I try. I try to live above sin, but I have a sinful nature (1 John 1:8, 10). I need Your strength to stand against sin. Make me strong in Your strength. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} Make me pure in Your holiness. Amen.

²⁵"Pour out Your wrath on nations that don't believe in You {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and don't worship You. They have wiped out Israel and made the land a desolate wilderness."

Jeremiah 11 God's Covenant with His People

¹The LORD spoke to Jeremiah again and said, ²"Remind the people of Judah and Jerusalem of the agreement I made with their ancestors ³and tell them that I, the God of Israel, will put a curse on anyone who doesn't keep the agreement. ⁴When I brought them out of Egypt, which was like a furnace for melting iron, I told them that if they obeyed Me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} they would be My people and I would be their God. ⁵Then I brought them into the land where you are now." {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} I answered, "Yes, LORD, that's true."

⁶Then the LORD told me to tell everyone in the town of Judah and on the streets of Jerusalem, "Be sure to follow the terms of My agreement with you. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷I warned your ancestors over and over to obey Me, ⁸but they didn't listen. They were stubborn in their sins, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} so I brought on them all the calamities stated in the agreement."

⁹Then the LORD added, "Jeremiah, the people of Judah and Jerusalem are plotting against Me. 10 They have sinned as their ancestors did, refusing to listen to Me. By worshiping and serving other gods, Israel and Judah have broken our agreement. ¹¹Therefore I will bring trouble on them, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and they won't have any way out. They will plead for Me to relieve them, but I won't listen. ¹²Then they will beg their idols to help them, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} but the idols won't be able to save them from disaster. ¹³You have as many gods as towns in Judah and as many incense altars to Baal as there are streets in Jerusalem, but they can't help you.

8:34} in their time of distress, because I won't listen."

Because of their continued sin and hardened hearts, God will not listen when they call to Him for deliverance. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} But God will listen to any sinner who cries out for salvation. Jesus said, "Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37). Lord, I have come to You and was saved. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} Thank You for hearing me when I pray. Thank You for salvation. Amen.

¹⁵The LORD then said to the people, "What right do you, My beloved people, have to enter My temple while you are carrying out your evil plans? Your sacrifices won't protect you from My punishing you and they won't give you joy when you are sinning. ¹⁶You were like a beautiful olive tree full of fruit, but in My eyes I will send a noisy enemy to burn it and break off its branches. ¹⁷I, the LORD of the Heavens, will destroy you, this tree, because you sinned and burned incense to Baal." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸Then the LORD told me that you people were plotting to kill me. But I didn't know it;

The people tried to kill Jeremiah for his prophecies. They said, "Let's destroy the tree and kill its fruit" (v. 19), but God protected him. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Charles Spurgeon, the 19th-century preacher from London, England, said, "God's man is indestructible until God is finished with him." Lord, I live in Your hand (John 10:

27-29) and You protect me. Help me finish the task You've given me on earth. Then when I've done all You want me to do, receive me into glory. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Amen.

¹⁹I was like a gentle lamb being led away to be slaughtered. They said, "Let's chop him down like a tree, and kill him so no one will remember him." ²⁰But, LORD of the Heavens, You always do what is right and You know what everyone is thinking. So repay them for what they have done. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} I look to You to help me.

²¹The men of the town of Anathoth tell me they will kill me if I keep on prophesying. {491 Trial-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:7} ²²But You, LORD of the Heavens, say that You will punish them by dying in battle or by famine. ²³Not one of them will survive when You punish them. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Jeremiah 12 Jeremiah Complains to the Lord

¹Whenever I complain to You, LORD, You are fair and just. But here's a concern I have: Why do wicked people prosper? Why do they have an easy life?

God gives everyone the choice of life or death. Everyone knows in his heart there is a Creator (Rom. 1:18-21) and they are responsible to Him. They are "without excuse" because they don't worship the Creator as they should (Rom. 1:20-21). Because everyone sees the sins of others, and accuses them of sinning, they themselves "are without excuse," because they don't follow what they know is right (Rom. 2:1-6). Everyone has a conscience but disobeys his conscience (Rom. 2:14-15. Therefore they are without excuse. Lord, I honestly believed what You said about sin, and I repented of my sin. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I knew in my conscience what was right, and I followed my heart; I did the right thing in receiving Christ as my Savior. Thank You for giving me a choice of salvation. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} As for me, I choose to follow You. Amen.

²You plant them like trees, they grow and bear fruit, and they praise You but they don't mean it. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ³But You know me, LORD, and You know what I think. So drag my enemies away like sheep to be slaughtered. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ⁴How long will the land be dry and parched? Even birds and animals have died and the people are saying, "You won't see them sinning." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23}

5"Jeremiah, if you get tired running in a race, how can you run against horses? If you fall in an open field, what will you do in the forest by the Jordan River? That is, if you find your present situation difficult, your future will be worse. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} 'Even your own family members are against you. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy,

Ps. 31:18} They may sound friendly, but don't trust them.

7"I have forsaken My people, My special possessions. I love them, but their enemies will defeat them. 8They are like a lion roaring at Me; that's why I hate them. 9My people are like a vulture, surrounded by other vultures ready to attack. Wild animals can come and eat the corpses. ¹⁰Shepherds will ruin My vineyard and make My land desolate. 11 The whole land will be desolate, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and no one will care. 12 Armies march along desert roads, destroying the land. They are like My sword, killing people everywhere. No one will be safe. ¹³You planted wheat, but reaped only thorns. You work hard, but gain nothing. You will harvest only shame because of My fierce anger." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴The LORD also said, "Enemies have attacked Israel, My special possessions, but I will uproot them from their lands just as Judah will be uprooted from them. ¹⁵Later I will have compassion on those nations and bring them back to their lands." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

When God speaks to us, it should humble us and make us different from the unsaved. We should not boast in anything God does for us. We deserve death, but He gives us life. Lord, I will not boast in anything that I am or anything that I have accomplished for You. I will not boast in who I am; but will boast in the fact that I know You and serve You. {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} You are the only thing I can boast of. Amen.

¹⁶"If these nations learn to worship Me and reject Baal, then they will also become My people. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} ¹⁷But if any nation doesn't obey Me, I will uproot and destroy them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 13 The Linen Belt

¹The LORD said to me, "Buy and wear a linen belt, but don't wash it." ²So I did. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³Then the LORD said, ⁴"Take the belt and go to Perath, a village a few miles northeast of Jerusalem, and hide the belt in the rocks." ⁵So I did as the LORD told me.

6Sometime later the LORD said, "Now go get the belt." ⁷So I dug it up, but it was ruined and useless. ⁸Then the LORD said, ⁹"In a similar way I will destroy the pride of Judah and Jerusalem. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰These wicked people who refuse to listen to Me and who stubbornly serve and worship other gods will be completely useless like this belt. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹¹Just as a belt clings to a man's waist so I have held you, Israel and Judah, close to Me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} I wanted you to bring Me praise and honor, but you refused to listen.

to do that,' 13then say, 'The LORD says that He will make everyone in Jerusalem drunk, including kings, priests, and prophets.' 14Then I will smash them against each other, even parents against their children, and I will have no mercy or compassion on them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁵The LORD has spoken, so don't be so proud to pay attention. 16Honor Him before darkness comes {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} and you stumble. You will want light, but you will have only deep darkness. ¹⁷If you are too proud to listen to the LORD, I will weep alone. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} Tears will fill my eyes because you, the LORD's sheep, will be taken as captives. 18Say to the king and his mother, "Come off your throne and take off your crowns." 19No one will be able to go in or out of the cities in the Southern Desert. Everyone in Judah will be taken away as prisoners. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰Look to the north and you'll see the enemy coming toward you. The flock you hoped would help you will not be around. ²¹The nations that were your allies will now be your enemies, and you will be in pain like a woman in childbirth.

²²"If you ask, 'Why has this happened to me?' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} It's because of your sins. That's why you were raped. ²³It's as impossible for you to do good as it is for an Ethiopian to change his skin color or a leopard to remove its spots."

God recognizes a man cannot change his nature. But God can transform a person from the inside out, "If a man be in Christ, he is a new creation" (2 Cor. 5:17). Lord, thank You for changing me inwardly. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} Because I am born again (John 3:1-7), I have new desires and a new nature; because I know You, I am Your child and You dwell in my heart (John 14:23). Thank You for inward riches, {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} while I don't have worldly riches. Amen.

²⁴The LORD says, "I will scatter you to foreign nations like a desert wind that blows away grain husks. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁵This is what I have planned for you because you rejected Me and trusted in false gods. ²⁶I will expose you to shame because of your adultery and lust and prostitution to idols. ²⁷I am aware of your disgusting idol worship on hilltops and in the fields. How terrible it will be for you, Jerusalem. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} How long will you continue in your sins?"

Jeremiah 14 Drought, Sword, and Famine

¹This message came to me from the LORD about the lack of rain: "Judah and Jerusalem mourn {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} as the land dries up. ²Nobles go to cisterns for water, but the wells are dry. {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} ³So they return with empty pitchers, and in their depression they lower their heads. ⁴The ground is cracked, and farmers too cover their heads. ⁵A deer gives birth to a fawn but then leaves it because there is no grass, ⁶and wild donkeys pant like thirsty wild dogs, and they go blind from lack of grass." ⁷We realize how sinful we've been and how terrible is our backsliding. But, LORD, please do something to defend Your reputation. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 8You are our hope, and our Savior in times of trouble. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} But why are You like a stranger, stopping only overnight? 9Why are You taken by surprise and with no ability to rescue us? You are here among us and we are Your people. So don't abandon me. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

¹⁰The LORD says this about these people: "You love to wander off. So I don't accept you. I'll remember your sins and punish you for them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The Lord says, "They really love to wander from Me" (v. 10). God understands the rebellion of the natural heart. God wants our worship (John 4:23), but man tends to worship everything but God. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Lord, give me hatred against sin. May I hate sin as much as You do. Keep me from the sin I love, and turn my heart toward You. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Amen.

¹¹Then the LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, don't pray for these people. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹²They go without food and they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, but I won't accept them. Instead I will destroy them with the sword, starvation, and disease." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 13I said, "Prophets keep telling them they won't die in battle or from lack of food, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} and they say I will give them peace." 14Then the LORD said to me, "These prophets are telling lies, based on false visions, fortune-telling, idol worship, and their own imaginations. 15But I did not send them. Yet they insist on saying that battles and shortage of food will not happen. However, those same prophets will in fact die in battles and from lack of food. 16 And the bodies of the people who will listen to them will be thrown into the streets of Jerusalem, dying because of the sword and lack of food. No one will be left to bury them. Husbands, wives, sons, and daughters will all be dead. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁷"Jeremiah, tell the people these words: 'My eyes will be filled with tears day and night, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} because my daughter, My people, is suffering from a terrible wound. ¹⁸In the country I see people killed by the sword, and in the city I see people dying from starvation. Prophets and priests have been taken captives to Babylon.'"

¹⁹Have you, LORD rejected Judah? Do you hate Zion? Why have You wounded us so severely? We hoped for peace and healing, {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} but we found only fear and trembling. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁰LORD, we admit our own sin and the sins of our ancestors too. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²¹So don't despise us because of Your reputation, and keep the agreement You made with us. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8}

The people pray, "For Your sake, don't hate us" (v. 21). The people are wrong, God doesn't hate them; He loves them (John 3:16). God hates their sin. Do you see the vicious triangle? God loves people, the people love sin, and in turn God hates their sin that keeps them from loving Him. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} Lord, I admit I am a sinner; forgive me my sin. Cleanse me by the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7). I confess my sin {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} and turn from it (1 John 1:9). Cleanse me from all unrighteousness. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} I will worship You for Your love toward me and Your kind acts. Amen.

²²No idols can bring rain, and showers don't fall by themselves. You, O LORD our God, {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} are the one who sends rain. That's why we trust in you.

Jeremiah 15 The Lord Is Angry with His People

¹The LORD said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel were praying for these people, I wouldn't change My mind. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} So send them away. ²If they ask you where to go, tell them I said that some of them will die, others will be killed in battle, some will starve to death, and others will be taken captives.

{267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³I will destroy them in four kinds of ways: by the sword, dogs, birds, and wild animals. ⁴They will be repulsive to all the nations because of the terrible things Manasseh, king of Judah did. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵People of Jerusalem, no one will feel sorry for you or mourn because of you or ask how you are."

⁶The LORD says, "You turned from Me and kept on sliding away. So I will destroy you, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} because I'm tired of showing you mercy. ⁷I will scatter you like grain at the city gates. Since you haven't changed your ways, I will bring sorrow and death on you. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 8Your widows will be greater in number than the grains of sand on a beach. At noon I will bring an enemy against the mothers of young men, and the mothers will suddenly feel agony and fright. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9A mother of seven will grow faint and gasp for breath. She will be shamed and humiliated. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} And if any survivors are left, they will be killed. I the LORD have spoken these words." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁰I said to my mother, "I wish I had never been born. Everyone is against me. I never lend or borrow money, yet everyone speaks against me. ¹¹Then the LORD said, "I'll protect you, and even your enemies will beg you for help. ¹²Just as you can't break iron or bronze, so you can't defeat your enemy. ¹³They will take your wealth and valuables because of all your sins. ¹⁴I will make you slaves in a foreign country because My anger is like a fire." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁵LORD, you know how I am suffering. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} So take revenge on those who persecute me. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹⁶Your words give me strength and joy. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} I belong to You, O LORD, God of the Heavens. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁷I don't join with party-goers. I keep to myself {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} because I'm angry at their sins. 18I'm in constant pain {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} with a wound that won't heal. Will You disappoint me like a stream that is dry in the summer? {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17}

¹⁹The LORD replied, "Return to Me and speak worthwhile words, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and I will make you My prophet again. Encourage the people to turn to you, but don't you follow their ways."

God will always hear the honest plea of a sinner who cries for forgiveness and salvation. Lord, thank You for saving me. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} Thank You for receiving me because I repented of my sin and I asked for salvation. I worship You, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} the God of my salvation. Amen.

²⁰"I will make you strong like a bronze wall. They will fight against you, but they won't defeat you {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} because I will rescue you. ²¹I will rescue you from wicked people {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} and set you free from cruel people." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

God emphasizes the fact, "They will die" (v. 2), predicting disaster will come. God says, "My anger is like a hot fire. And it will burn against you" (v. 14). Even though the world thinks it can get away with sin, and even though the world thinks there is no punishment after death, God who created all things and God who sent Jesus Christ to die for them, will become God the Judge who will punish them for their sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Lord, I believe there is a hell because I believe in You and the things you say in Your Word. I pray for my unsaved family and friends; save them. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} I pray for my testimony to them; use me to point them to You. I pray sincerely and I pray repeatedly, because I believe there is a hell. Amen.

Jeremiah 16 The Lord's Judgment

¹Then the LORD said to me, ²"Jeremiah, do not get married and have children."

The book of Jeremiah is filled with symbolic actions. These are events in Jeremiah's life where his actions carry a message to the people of Israel. Jeremiah was told (1) not to get married (v. 2), (2) not to go to a funeral (v. 5), and (3) not to go to a feast (v. 8). He was not to do the things people normally do, warning Israel there was coming a time of crisis when they couldn't perform normal activities. In one sense, Christians do symbolic actions by going to church on Sunday, and taking their Bibles. When a Christian doesn't smoke or drink alcoholic beverages, or curse in God's name, their actions send a message to the unsaved that they serve a holy God. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Lord, speak to unsaved people by my holy life. I realize I am not perfect, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} but use me as a testimony to bring someone to salvation. Amen.

3"Why? Because children born in this land will be left on the ground like trash. ⁴They will die in battles or by starvation, and birds and wild animals will eat them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵The LORD says, "Don't go to their funerals and express sympathy because I no longer love or pity these people. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁶Rich and poor will die, and they won't be buried, and no one will show sorrow by cutting himself or shaving his head. ⁷No one will give food or wine to comfort those who mourn the death of their parents. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

8"Don't go to their festivals to eat and drink. 9I the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, will end their parties and songs and wedding celebrations. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10When you tell people this and they ask why I have planned such disasters and what they have done wrong, 11then say, 'This is because your ancestors left Me, and served and worshiped other gods and disobeyed My laws. ¹²But you have done worse than that. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} You have stubbornly sinned instead of obeying Me. {284 Limitation-Praying, Jude 3} ¹³That's why I will send you away into a foreign land, and there you will worship other gods day and night, and you will get no sympathy from Me. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

14"However, a time is coming when you will no longer refer to Me as the God who rescued you from Egypt, 15 but you will refer to Me as the God who rescued you from the north and other nations. I will bring you back to this land. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 16 But now your enemies will be like fishermen catching you and hunting you down in the hills and caves. 17 I see everything they are doing; their sins are not hidden. 18 I will pay you double for your sins because you have defiled the land with lifeless idols." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁹O LORD, You give me strength, and You protect me like a fortress in times of trouble. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} People will come to You from distant nations and will say, "Our ancestors worshiped false gods but they were of no help."

Why don't you cry out like Jeremiah and run to God when you are in trouble? O Lord, here I come for help. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} I need You today. I need You right away. Be my protection. Amen.

²⁰They made their own gods, but they weren't actually gods at all. ²¹So the LORD said, "I will teach them My power and strength, and then they will know that I am the LORD." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹The LORD says, "Judah's sin is as permanent on their hearts as if it were chiseled in iron with a diamond point on the corners of their altars. ²Even their children worship at altars to Baal and Asherah poles beside large trees and on high hills. ³I will give all your wealth and everything you own, including your hilltop shrines, to your enemies because of your sin. ⁴You will lose the land I gave you, and you will become slaves in a foreign country because you have caused My anger to burn forever." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The LORD also says, "You are cursed if you trust in people and turn away from Me. 6You will be dry like a desert bush, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} with no hope for the future, {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} You will live in the dry, salty desert. 7But I will bless those who trust in Me. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} 8They will be like a tree beside a stream, {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} with roots that reach to the water. Heat and drought do not bother it, and it always bears fruit. {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4}

9"Human hearts are so deceitful they can't change."

Why do people sin when they should know better? Why are people blinded to truth? The answer is the deceitful heart. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; who can know it" (v. 9, NKJV). This verse suggests you can't even know your own heart. Lord, I admit I have an old deceitful heart. {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23} It tempts me to sin, and it blinds me to Your perfect truth. My heart lies to me, and makes me critical and uncaring. Thank You for salvation. Thank You for giving me a new nature with a new desire for righteousness. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} My new nature tells me the truth. I will say "no" to my old nature and say "yes" to my new nature. I want to know You and do Your will. Amen.

10"I search people's hearts and I know what they think, and I will see that they get what they deserve. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} ¹¹If you get wealthy by cheating, you are like a bird that hatches eggs it didn't lay. When a man loses his wealth, everyone will see that he was a fool." {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7}

¹²LORD, Your temple is a glorious throne. ¹³LORD, You are Israel's only hope, so anyone who turns from You, the spring of living water, will be ashamed and will be swept away like words written in dust. ⁴⁸⁵ Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17 ¹⁴LORD, You alone can heal ²¹⁴ Healing-Prayer,

James 5:15} and save me. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} You are the one I praise. ¹⁵People keep asking me, {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} "Why don't the LORD's predictions come true?" ¹⁶LORD, You know I have been faithful as a spiritual shepherd to Your people. I have announced upcoming disaster but not because I have wanted to. ¹⁷Don't frighten me now because You are my only hope in times of trouble. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ¹⁸Bring shame and fear on people who persecute me, but keep me from shame and fear. Send destruction on them.

¹⁹The LORD said, "Jeremiah, stand at each city gate in Jerusalem including the one that the kings use. ²⁰Say to the people, 'Hear God's Word, kings and people of Judah. ²¹The LORD says not to do any work on the Sabbath: Don't carry anything through the gates 22 or out of your houses. But keep the Sabbath holy. I gave this command to your ancestors, ²³but they were stubborn and refused to obey and would not respond to discipline. ²⁴But if you obey Me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁵then a descendant of David will always be on his throne. The king and his officials will ride through the city gates in chariots and on horses, and the people of Judah and Jerusalem will join them, and people will always be living in Jerusalem. ²⁶People will come here from nearby villages, from Benjamin, the western foothills, the hill country, and the Southern Desert. They will bring burnt offerings, grain offerings, incense, and thank offerings to the temple. {544 Worthy-Worship

Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ²⁷But if you don't obey Me and don't keep the Sabbath holy {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and you keep on carrying things through the city gates on the Sabbath, then I will set the gates of Jerusalem on fire and it will also burn the fortresses."

Lord, I want my life to count for something. I want to do something for You that lasts. Jeremiah tells me, "A person who quits following the LORD will be like a name written in the dust" (v. 13). That means it will be blown away with the wind. Lord, write my name in Your book, I want You to remember me. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} "So a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who meditate on His name" (Mal. 3:16, NKJV). Amen.

Jeremiah 18 The Potter and the Clay

¹The LORD told me to ²go to where clay jars are made and He would give me a message there. ³So I did, and I saw the potter working at his wheel. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ⁴But the jar he was making didn't turn out the way he wanted, so he shaped it into a different jar.

The Bible says we are like pots or vessels. "If anyone cleanses himself... he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the master" (2 Tim. 2:21, NKJV). Jeremiah saw a potter using his hands to shape the pot the way he wanted it to be. Lord, I want to be a vessel that You can use. {432 Service-Response Prayer, Heb. 5:4} Use Your hands to make me what You want me to be. I yield to the pressure of Your fingers. Give me Your eyes to see the lost. Give me Your hands to help people. Give me Your ears to hear the cries of the anguished. Give me Your voice to speak Your Word. Give me Your heart {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} to love You more. Amen.

⁵Then the LORD said, ⁶"Israel, I'm like this potter and you are like this clay. ⁷If I tell a nation I will destroy it, ⁸and it turns from its sin, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} then I won't destroy it as I had planned. ⁹Or if I plan to build up a nation ¹⁰but its people sin and don't obey Me, then I won't bless that nation." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The clay didn't yield in the potter's hand, so he crushed the pot and began again. Does God use some people, then comes a time when they refuse to let the divine Potter mold his life? Does God give up on some people? {I Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} Lord, I want You to use me. Don't give up on me, and don't turn Your back on me if I fall one time. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I will get up and follow You again. I fear the thought of being rejected by You, the divine Potter. Amen.

Prayer, Rev. 17:5} unless you turn from your sins and change your ways.' 12But you people will continue on in your stubborn evil ways." So the LORD says, 13"Ask the nations and see if they have ever heard of a horrible sin like yours. 14The snow on Lebanon's mountains never melt, and the streams from those mountains never run dry. 15Yet you, by contrast, My people, are unreliable. You have deserted Me and burned incense to worthless idols. In fact these idols have caused you to stumble off the right path. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁶Your land will be ruined, and people will despise you. Everyone who passes by will shake their heads in amazement. 17I'll scatter you before your enemies like dust blown by an eastern wind. I'll turn My back on you when you are in distress." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸Some of the people said, "Let's get rid of Jeremiah. We will always have our priests, wise people, and prophets. Let's accuse him and ignore what he says." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁹Jeremiah responded, "Hear what my accusers are saying, LORD. {284 Limitation-Praying, Jude 3} ²⁰I tried to help them, but they are digging a pit to put me in it. I pleaded for You not to be angry with them. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²¹So now I'm asking You to let their children starve or be killed in war. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} And let their wives become widows and their young men be killed. ²²They have dug a pit to put me in it and have set traps for me. Let them scream in fear when enemy troops attack their homes. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³LORD, You know they plan to kill me, so don't forgive their sins. Defeat them and deal with them, not us, in Your anger." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Jeremiah 19 The Broken Jar

¹The LORD said, "Jeremiah, go buy a clay jar from a potter. Then take with you some of the elders and priests 2 and go to the Hinnom Valley near the Potsherd Gate. ³Then I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, will bring so much trouble on this valley {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} that everyone will be shocked. ⁴They have rejected Me, and worshiped foreign gods here, and burned sacrifices to those gods, and they have shed innocent blood. 5They have built hilltop shrines and burned their children as sacrifices to Baal. This is something I never commanded nor even thought of. People will change the name of this place from Topheth or the Hinnom Valley to Slaughter Valley. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

7"I'll ruin your plans, Judah and Jerusalem, by letting your people be slaughtered. And your dead bodies will be eaten by birds and wild animals. ⁸People who see this city in ruins will be shocked. ⁹When the enemy is attacking, people will eat your children and friends. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁰"Jeremiah, after you say these words, break the jar I told you to buy as the people are watching. ¹¹Then say, 'I, the LORD of the Heavens, will smash this nation as I smashed this jar. You will bury bodies in Topheth till there is no more burial room. ¹²I will make Jerusalem unclean like Topheth by filling it with dead bodies.'" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

There is a terrible conclusion to the smashed jar. "It cannot be put back together again" (v. 11). Those who refuse to listen to God and do His will, will be smashed as Jeremiah broke the jar. Lord, I forget the finality of eternal decisions. When someone says "no" to You in this life, it means eternal damnation. Forgive me for not praying more for my lost friends and relatives. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Use me to turn some from darkness to Your light. Amen.

13"'This is because you people burned incense on your rooftops to the stars and poured drink offerings to foreign gods." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴So I went to Topheth and in the temple court I said to the people, ¹⁵"The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says He will bring disaster on Jerusalem and surrounding towns. Why? Because you were stubborn and refused to listen to Him." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah took a jar near a gate to Jerusalem and told the people that God would judge them, then he smashed the jar as a symbolic action. Lord, use my life as a symbolic action to communicate a message to the lost. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} May those who need to hear of your judgment, be convicted of their sin. May some see Christ in me and turn to Him. Lord, use my life as a testimony. Amen.

Jeremiah 20 Pashhur the Priest Is Judged

¹Pashhur, son of Immer, was priest and chief officer in the temple. When he heard my words, ²he beat me and put me in chains {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} by the Upper Gate of Benjamin near the temple. ³The next day after Passhur released me, I said to him, "Passhur will no longer be your name. Instead I'll call you Magor-Missabib (meaning 'Terror on Every Side'). 4You will see your own friends killed by the sword. I will let the king of Babylon take everyone in Judah as captives. He will kill some and take others as prisoners. 5And he will take to Babylon all the wealth and valuables of the city. ⁶You, Passhur, and your relatives will be prisoners in Babylon. And there you'll die and be buried because you told lies." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁷O, LORD, I thought people would welcome my message. But not so. They ridicule me all day long. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ⁸When I tell them destruction is coming, they insult and criticize me. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

Jeremiah complained that when he delivered God's message, "This only brings me insults. The people make fun of me all day long" (v. 8). Have you ever had people ridicule you because of your Christian faith? Maybe not to your face, but what about behind your back? Lord, I don't like to be mocked or laughed at. But Jesus took much more than that for me. I will stand for You no matter what people say to me. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} I will gladly identify with Jesus and suffer insults for Your name. Amen.

⁹When I thought of not giving Your messages to them, Your word sounds intensely like a fire in my bones. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} I can't hold it in.

When Jeremiah decided not to speak any more for God. It was then, "The LORD's message becomes like a burning fire inside me" (v. 9). Have you ever felt God's message was burning you up? {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} Lord, I am different since I've been saved. Your Word burns within me. I must speak for You and I must tell others what You've done for me. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} Use me to be a witness for You. Amen.

¹⁰I hear people whispering about reporting me. Even my friends are watching for me to make a mistake so they can get even with me.

¹¹But, LORD, You are like a strong soldier at my side. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} My enemies will stumble and fall {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and be terribly ashamed and dishonored. ¹²O LORD of the Heavens, You know people who do right; {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} You know what everyone is thinking. Please get even with them for what they have done to me. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹³I sing praises to You, LORD {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} for rescuing needy people like me from the wicked.

¹⁴I wish I had never been born. ¹⁵I wish my father had never heard the words, "You have a son." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁶May the man who gave my father that news be like towns you defeated. May he hear wailing and battle cries. ¹⁷I wish he had killed me in my mother's womb. ¹⁸I wish I had not been born because now all I see is trouble and sorrow. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

Jeremiah 21 The Way of Life and the Way of Death

¹King Zedekiah of Judah sent Pashhur, son of Malkijah, and the priest Zephaniah, son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah ²to ask him to ask the LORD to work a miracle for them to get Nebuchadnezzar to back off from attacking Jerusalem. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³But I said, "Tell Zedekiah that ⁴the LORD, the God of Israel, says that your weapons will be useless against the Babylonians. They are outside the city walls, but they will break into the city. ⁵He'll fight against you in His anger and wrath, ⁶and men and animals will die of a plague. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷Some will survive war, hunger, and disease, but Nebuchadnezzar will capture them and Zedekiah and his officials. He will kill you and have no mercy or compassion. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

8"Also tell the people that I'll let you choose life or death." {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6}

God gives everyone the choice of life or death. Everyone knows in his heart there is a Creator (Rom. 1:18-21) and they are responsible to Him. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:12} They are "without excuse" because they don't worship the Creator as they should (Rom. 1:20-21). Because everyone sees the sins of others, and accuses them of sinning, they themselves "are without excuse," {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} because they don't follow what they know is right (Rom. 2:1-6). Everyone has a conscience but disobeys their conscience (Rom. 2:14-15), therefore they are without excuse. Lord, I honestly believed what You said about sin, and I repented of my sin. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I knew in my conscience what was right, and I followed my heart; I did the right thing in receiving Christ as my Savior. Thank You for giving me a choice of salvation. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} As for me, I choose to follow You. Amen.

9"If you stay in the city, you will die by war, hunger, or disease. But you'll live if you surrender to the Babylonians. ¹⁰I will not rescue Jerusalem. Instead the king of Babylon will burn it to the ground." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹Tell the royal family that the LORD says, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹²"Be sure justice is done {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} and rescue those who are being robbed. If you don't, My anger will be like a fire that can't be put out. ¹³You people of Jerusalem think you are safe because you are above the valley, ¹⁴but I will punish you {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} with fire that will burn up everything around you."

Jeremiah 22 A Message to the Kings of Judah

¹The LORD sent me to the king's palace to speak to him, and his officials and his people and ²to say, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ³"The LORD says to do what is just and right. Help people who have been robbed, don't mistreat foreign residents, orphans, or widows, and don't murder innocent people. ⁴If you obey Me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} a descendant of David will continue to rule Judah. They will ride on horses and in chariots. ⁵But if you don't obey Me, I promise that this palace will be in ruins."

⁶The LORD also says this: "The king's palace is as pleasant as Gilead with its green hills and as majestic as Mount Lebanon. But it will be like a desert of a ghost town.

7I'll send troops against it, and they'll put all its cedar beams in the fire. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} *People from various nations will see Jerusalem in ruins, and they will wonder why I did this to this great city. *Others will answer, 'It's because they broke the agreement the LORD their God made with them {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and they worshiped and served other gods.' ¹⁰Don't cry for the dead {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} King Josiah or his son King Jehoahaz who was taken captive and will never see his country again."

¹¹Then the LORD said this about Shallum (also known as Jehoahaz): "You will not return to Jerusalem.

This chapter reveals the terrible anger of God against the kings of Judah, and His people who rebel against Him. It shows God's destructive judgment against the empty religion in Jerusalem and the temple. Not only was empty religion worthless, it was damaging the testimony of God. So God uses a ruthless people to destroy His people. Lord, I know You hate the sin of my nation. You hate its greed, its worship of egotistical "stars," its corrupt politicians, its drunkenness, its uncontrolled sexual deviations, and its atheistic beliefs in evolution, humanism, and worship of science. Lord, forgive our sin. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} The world will not confess its sin to You, so I confess their sin. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} Do not judge my nation. God bless our nation. God save our nation. God, revive our nation. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} Amen.

¹²"You'll die in the place where they'll lead you as a captive. ¹³How terrible it will be for you, because you were unfair to your workers. ¹⁴You made them work for no pay in building your big palace with large upstairs rooms, big windows, cedar paneling, and red paint. ¹⁵But lots of cedar doesn't make you a great king. Your father, Josiah, always had plenty to eat and drink, and he did what was right, so I blessed him."

Jeremiah asks, "Does having a lot of cedar in your house make you a great king?" (22:15). The answer is no. Also beautiful clothes don't make you a beautiful person and expensive cars don't make you important. Inward character makes you beautiful, doing right makes you important, and following God makes you great. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} Lord, I want to be beautiful inwardly, so I will learn Your Word and follow its teaching. I want to be powerful, so I will fellowship with You and let Your strength flow through me. I want to be important so I will fill my life with Your presence and let people see Your life flowing through me. Amen.

¹⁸The LORD said this about Jehoiakim, Josiah's son: "Your family will not mourn for you when you die. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ¹⁹You will be buried like a dead donkey dragged outside the city gates. ²⁰All your allies are gone. You can ask Lebanon in the north, {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} Bashan in the northeast, and Abarim in Moab in the southeast, but they can't help you because they are crushed. ²¹When you felt safe, I warned you but you refused to listen. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} Ever since you were young, you were like that. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Your leaders will disappear like being blown away by wind, and your allies will be taken as captives. ²³You may live in a palace paneled with cedar from Lebanon, but you'll groan in pain like a woman in child labor. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

²⁴"King Jehoiachin, son of Jehoiakim, if you were like a ring I wear as a sign of My power, I would pull you off. ²⁵I will hand you over to the enemy you fear, Nebuchadnezzar and his army who want to kill you. ²⁶I will throw you and your mother to a foreign country where you will both die. ²⁷You will never return to your homeland. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁰"You Jehoiachin will be as if you are childless, because none of your descendants will sit on the throne of David to rule in Judah." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 23 The Righteous Remnant Will Return

¹The LORD says, "How terrible it will be for leaders who like shepherds are scattering My sheep. ²Therefore I, the LORD, the God of Israel, say, 'Because you have chased away My flock and haven't cared for them as you should, I'll punish you. ³I'll bring back to their land the rest of My people {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} from the countries where I've scattered them. And they will grow in number. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ⁴I will choose leaders who will care for them, and no one will be afraid or missing. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36}

5"In a future day I will appoint as king, an honest branch (descendant) of David {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} to sit on his throne. He will be wise and just. 6When he is king, Judah and Israel will be safe. His name will be 'The LORD is Just.' {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

7"A time is coming when people will no longer refer to Me as the one who rescued Israel out of Egypt, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 8but as the one who rescued you from the north and other countries where you were taken captives. Again you'll live in your own land." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

⁹My heart is broken when I think of false prophets. I tremble and I stagger like a drunk person when I think of their lies in contrast to Your holy words. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁰They are unfaithful to You like prostitutes, and so their pasturelands have become like dry deserts. The prophets do evil and abuse their powers. The LORD says, ¹¹"The priests are godless, just like the prophets. They even sin right in the temple. ¹²They will slip and fall in the darkness when I punish them." {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17}

¹³The prophets in Samaria were so disgusting. They voice false predictions as if they were from Baal, and this led the people away from the LORD. ¹⁴And the false prophets in Jerusalem commit adultery, tell lies, and encourage others to sin so that no one turns from his sin. They are like Sodom and Gomorrah. ¹⁵Therefore the LORD says this about them: "Because they have led people everywhere to sin, I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁶The LORD of the Heavens says, "Don't listen to the lies of these false prophets, because they give you false hopes. They make up their messages; they are not from Me. ¹⁷They keep saying that I say they will have peace, and to those who are stubborn in their sins they say everything will be okay. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ¹⁸But they have never been in heaven to listen to My Word. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 19Look, My anger will come on them suddenly like a storm or a whirlwind on their heads. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 20 I'll continue in anger until I've finished what I plan to do. 21I haven't sent these prophets, yet they claim to speak for Me. ²²If they had been in a meeting in heaven with Me and My angels, {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} they would have spoken My words to My people, and they would have turned from their evil ways.

God says the false prophets were wrong, but "if they stood in a meeting of My counsel" (v. 22), then they would have spoken the right message. We can speak with assurance because we have been close to the "counsel" of God in His Word. We cannot get any closer to truth than in the Scriptures. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} Lord, I love Your Word because it gives me truth (John 17:17). I will study Your Word to know as much truth as possible. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} I will live according to Your Word so I can walk and speak truthfully. Amen.

²³"I'm everywhere, both near and far.
 ²⁴No one can hide where I can't see him.
 {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} I'm everywhere in heaven and earth."

We see the omnipresence of God in this chapter. God is far from us. God's transcendence means God is great, and boundless. But God is also immanent, meaning God is near or close. As a matter of fact Paul said, "He is not far from each one of us; for in Him we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17:27-28, NKJV). Lord, I come to You, the Lord of the universe, {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:12} and I worship You for Your greatness and power. I also come because You are near to me. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} You indwell my heart and know my thoughts. I worship You as my personal Lord who is as near to me as breath itself. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} Amen.

²⁵"I've heard the lies of these false prophets. They claim to have dreams I gave them. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ²⁶This seems to continue on with their lies and deceptions. ²⁷They think their dreams will get My people to reject Me, just as their ancestors did by worshiping Baal. ²⁸Compared with My words, their dreams are as different as straw and wheat. Anyone who has My Word must tell it faithfully. ²⁹My Word penetrates like a fire {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} and is strong like a hammer breaking a rock in pieces.

³⁰"Therefore I am against these prophets who get their messages from each other and not from Me. ³¹They say I gave them these prophecies, but I am against them. ³²I oppose anyone who prophesies by false dreams which leads My people away from Me. I didn't send them, and no one benefits at all from them.

³³"Jeremiah, if a prophet or a priest or someone else asks if you have a message from me, the LORD, just say, 'You people are a bother. I will forsake you.' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁴Or if a prophet or priest or anyone else says, 'Here is a message from the LORD,' I will punish him. ³⁵You may ask him, 'What answer has the LORD given?' or 'What has the LORD said?' ³⁶But don't use the words 'prophesy from the LORD' because this twists My words into a lie. ³⁷You may say to a prophet, 'What answer has the LORD given you?' or 'What has the LORD said?' ³⁸If someone says, 'Here is a message from the LORD,' ³⁹I'll forget him and cast him away from Me, and I'll desert Jerusalem, which I gave to you and your ancestors. ⁴⁰You'll be ridiculed, and your shame will never be forgotten." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 24 Good Figs and Bad Figs

¹Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took King Jehoiachin, his officials, and skilled workers as captives to Babylon. Then the LORD gave me a vision of two baskets of figs. ²One was filled with ripe figs, and the other was filled with rotten figs that couldn't be eaten. 3When the LORD asked me what I saw, I said, "I see some very good figs and some that are very bad." ⁴Then the LORD told me to tell this to the people of Judah: 5"The good figs stand for those of you who were taken captives to Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶I will watch over them and bring them back here. I'll build them up, not tear them down, and I'll plant them, not uproot them. 7They'll want to know Me, {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} and they'll be My people and I'll be their God. They'll finally turn back to Me with all their heart. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

8"But the bad figs stand for King Zedekiah, his officials, and those who were left in Jerusalem or went to Egypt. 9Nations will be horrified at them. They will be ridiculed and cursed, wherever I send them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10War and hunger and disease will be against them until they are completely destroyed from their land." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The good figs represent the "saved" Jewish people of that day. God promises He will look after them in captivity, and in the future will bring them back into the land. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} "They will know that I am the LORD. They will be My people, and I will be their God" (v. 7). This is a picture of the future resurrection when Israel will be brought back to the land in righteousness. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Lord, I believe in the resurrection. I believe You will raise the believing Jews to live with Jesus Christ in the millennium. I believe I will be raised at the rapture to go live with Christ. He promised, "Where I am, there you may be also" (John 14:3, NKJV). I worship You {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} because You have the power of resurrection. Amen.

Jeremiah 25 Seventy Years of Destruction

¹This message came to me in Jehoiakim's fourth year as king of Judah and Nebuchadnezzar's first year as king of Babylonia (605 B.C.). ²I told the people of Judah, "For 23 years now, ³ ever since Josiah's 13th year as king of Judah to today, I've told you what the LORD said for me to say to you. But you refused to listen. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 4The LORD sent you other prophets, but you didn't listen to them either. 5These prophets told you that if you turn away from your sinful practices, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} you may stay in the land. 6And if you refuse to serve and worship other gods and don't make Him angry, then He won't harm you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But you didn't listen to Him and so your hand-made idols made Him angry. So you brought on yourselves all the problems you now face. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁸Therefore the LORD of the Heavens says, "Because you didn't listen to Me, ⁹I will order armies from the north and Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylonia to attack you. I will destroy you and nearby nations, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and others will be horrified when they see you in ruins. ¹⁰The happy voices {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} of brides and bridegrooms will not be heard. No one will grind grain, and your homes will be dark. ¹¹"This country will be a dry desert, and all of you will be slaves of the king of Babylon for 70 years. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹²"Then after the 70 years I will punish Babylonia and her king. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} And that country will be a barren desert. ¹³I will bring against them all the problems I've mentioned in this book. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁴They made slaves of other people, and now they will be slaves of other nations and kings. This will be repayment for what they have done to others."

God predicted Israel would be in captivity for 70 years. Nebuchadnezzar took a few captives in 607 B.C. (including Daniel) and 70 years later when Cyrus defeated the Babylonians, he allowed the first return to the land in 531 B.C. under Zerubbabel (a total of 70 years). Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Jerusalem in 587 B.C. and 70 years later Ezra returned with more captives and reinstituted sacrifice and worship in 517 B.C. (a total of 70 years). God who lives in the future, tells Jeremiah the Jews "will be slaves to the king of Babylon for 70 years" (v. 11). Lord, You know my future, so guide me this day. Don't allow more pressure to be put upon me than I can stand. With each trial make me stronger. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} You know the good things that will happen to me, be glorified in all of them. I worship You, {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21} the one who lives yesterday, today, and tomorrow (Rev. 1:8). Amen.

¹⁵The LORD, the God of Israel, then said to me, "Jeremiah, take this cup filled with the wine of My anger and make the nations to whom I send you drink it. ¹⁶When they drink it, they will stagger and go crazy because of the war I'll send against them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷So I took the cup and made various nations drink it. In this way they experienced God's wrath. 18These nations included Jerusalem and Judah and her kings and officials, which became an object of horror and cursing. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹Also included were Pharaoh king of Egypt and his officials and people ²⁰and foreigners living there; the kings of Uz, the Philistines (those of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and Ashdod), ²¹Edom, Moab, Ammon, ²²kings of Tyre and Sidon, and the coast lands; ²³Dedan, Tema, and Buz, in tribes in the Arabian Desert, and others in distant places, ²⁴kings of Arabia and of foreigners in the desert; 25kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media; and ²⁶kings of the north, near and far, all the kingdoms of the world. And then the king of Sheshach (that is, Babylon) drank it too." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁷Then the LORD said to me, "The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says to get drunk and vomit and when I send war against you, you'll be completely defeated. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

God describes His judgment on sin as, "The cup of My anger" (v. 27). When Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane, "Let this cup pass from me" (Matt. 26:39, NKJV), He was anticipating the physical agony He had to suffer when He suffered the sin of the world. But Jesus, knowing the torment, nevertheless prayed, "Your will be done" (Matt. 26:42, NKJV). Lord, I know Your holiness hates sin, and I know Your judgment punishes sin. Now I know the extent of Your love because Jesus suffered for my sin, "the just for the unjust" (1 Peter. 3:18, NKJV). Because You loved me, You drank the "cup of God's anger." I don't deserve forgiveness, I worship You {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} because "the blood of Jesus Christ God's Son cleanses us from all sin" (1 John 1:7, NKJV). Amen.

²⁸If they refuse to drink it, tell them they must. ²⁹I'll bring disaster on Jerusalem, where my name is honored, so I can't let these other nations not be punished. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁰"Prophesy this message to them: 'The LORD will roar loudly from heaven like thunder against His land. He will shout against everyone, like those who tread grapes or a winepress. ³¹His voice will be heard everywhere as He brings charges against all nations, and He brings charges against everyone, and kills the wicked.'" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

32The LORD of the Heavens says, "Disaster is spreading from nation to nation like a terrible storm. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³³I will kill many people everywhere No one will mourn for them or bury them. Their bodies will cover the ground like trash. 34Weep and moan, you leaders. In your grief roll in the dust. Your time to be slaughtered like sheep has arrived, and you will be shattered like clay pottery. 35 You'll have no place to hide, and no way to escape. ³⁶Listen to the cries of the shepherds as I am destroying your pasturelands. ³⁷Your peaceful meadows will be like deserts. ³⁸I've left you like a lion leaves its den. The land will be made desolate by the enemy's swords and because of My fierce anger." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 26 Jeremiah Is Threatened with Death

¹Early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, king of Judah, the LORD gave me this message. ²He told me to stand in front of the temple and to speak His words to everyone who came there to worship. ³Hopefully they will listen this time and turn from their sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} If they do, then I won't punish them as I've planned. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 4Tell them this is what I say: "If you don't listen to Me and obey Me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 5and if you don't listen to My prophets whom I've sent to you over and over, ⁶then I will destroy this temple just as I destroyed the town of Shiloh, and people everywhere will curse Jerusalem.

⁷The priests, prophets, and all the people heard what I said. ⁸And as soon as I finished, the priests, prophets, and people grabbed me and said, "You ought to die for saying this about Jerusalem. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁹How dare you say the temple will be like Shiloh and Jerusalem will be empty." And they crowded in on me.

Because Jeremiah was faithful to preach God's message that the temple would be destroyed, He was grabbed and they said, "You must die" (v. 8). Jeremiah was faithful to preach the message of the Lord and was willing to die. Jeremiah embodied what Jesus later challenged, "Be faithful until death" (Rev. 2:10, NKJV). Lord, I know I am weak, but I will be faithful to You, {154 Faithfulness-Praying, I Thess. 5:24} I know I am not bold, but I will not deny You. I will not rebel against You. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} I will not embarrass You. See the determination of my heart and give me strength to be faithful unto death. Amen.

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard about this, they went to the temple by the New Gate. ¹¹Then the priests and prophets told the officials that I should die because I had prophesied against Jerusalem. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹²Then I said, "This isn't my message. This is from the LORD. ¹³So if you change your ways {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and obey the LORD your God, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} He'll not bring the disaster He announced. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 14As for me, do what you think is right. 15But if you put me to death, you and everyone in Jerusalem will be killing an innocent person because what I preached is from the LORD." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

¹⁶The officials and others told the priests and prophets that I should not be put to death because my messages are from the LORD. ¹⁷Some elders said to the people, ¹⁸"Years ago when Hezekiah was our king, Micah of Moresheth said, 'Zion will be plowed like a field and will become a pile of junk, and the temple mount will be covered with thorns.' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹No one put Micah to death for saying that. Instead Hezekiah prayed and the LORD did not bring the disaster He had announced. So if we kill Jeremiah, we'll bring a terrible disaster on ourselves." {375 Pre-Answer to Prayer, Isa. 65:24}

²⁰Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-Jearim prophesied the same things Jeremiah did. ²¹When King Jehoiakim and his officials heard Uriah, the king tried to arrest and kill him. But Uriah escaped to Egypt. ²²So Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Acbor and some other men to Egypt, ²³and they brought him back to Jehoiakim, who had Uriah killed and his body buried in an unmarked grave.

There was a previously unknown prophet Uriah the son of Shemaiah who also preached against Jerusalem (v. 20). He was one of the many unsung martyrs who was a faithful witness, {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} who suffered and died by the sword under King Jehoiakim. Lord, teach me the lesson of total surrender from Uriah, {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} help me be as faithful to You as he was. I know You have an eternal reward for me, {409 Reward for Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} just as You had for Uriah. Amen.

²⁴Ahikam son of Shaphan supported me, and so I was not killed.

Some die for their faith as did Uriah. Some escape martyrdom as did Jeremiah. Lord, whether I live or die, my life is in Your hands. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

You know whether I shall die by accident, or peacefully, or as a martyr. I yield {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} my future to You. Amen.

Jeremiah 27 Do Not Listen to False Prophets

¹Soon after Zedekiah son of Josiah became king of Judah, the LORD gave me this message: 2"Jeremiah, make a wooden yoke with leather straps, and put it on your neck. ³Then send a message to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon through their ambassadors who are meeting with Zedekiah. 4Give them this word for their masters: 'The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says for you to tell your masters that 5in My great power I created the earth and its people and animals, and I give these things to anyone I please. {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} ⁶I will give your countries over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. He will even rule over wild animals. ⁷All the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson. Then many nations and their kings will conquer Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

8'This yoke stands for Nebuchadnezzar, and any nation that doesn't serve him will be punished with war, starvation, and disease.

It is senseless to rebel against God, since He has ordained what shall come to pass. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} It was useless for Israel to revolt against Nebuchadnezzar since God had decreed Israel's judgment. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} Lord, I will not fight Your will for my life. I submit to Your plans. Use me to accomplish Your will. When I've fought against You in the past, I've always lost. I again surrender {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} to You for this day. Amen.

⁹Don't listen to false prophets, fortune-tellers, dream interpreters, psychics, or anyone who seeks to talk with the dead, and who say, "Don't worry. You won't be taken captive to Babylon." ¹⁰If you listen to these lies, {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} I'll remove you from your lands and you will die. ¹¹But if you submit to the yoke of the king of Babylon, I'll let you stay in your country and farm your land. I, the LORD, have spoken these words."

¹²I gave this same message to Zedekiah. I said to him, "If you want to live, then be under the yoke of the king of Babylon. ¹³But if you don't, you'll die by war, starvation, or disease. ¹⁴Those prophets who say you won't be slaves in Babylon are lying. ¹⁵I didn't send them. So if you follow them, you and they will be thrown out of your country and will die." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁶Then I told the priests and the people not to listen to the prophets who are saying that the Babylonians will soon return to our temple the gold utensils they stole. They are lying. ¹⁷Don't listen to them. Instead serve the king of Babylon and you will live. If you don't, the city will be a trash heap. 18 If they really are My prophets, they should pray that I let not anything else be taken from the temple and the king's palace. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁹The bronze columns, the bronze water tank, the bronze water carts, and other articles in the temple and the city 20 were not taken by Nebuchadnezzar when he took Jehoiachin son of Jehoaikim and other leaders to Babylon. ²¹I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, say that the items left in the temple and the palace ²²will later be taken to Babylon. They will remain there till I decide to bring them back.

Nebuchadnezzar took the smaller vessels from the temple the first time captives were taken to Babylon. Jeremiah predicts the large vessels would be taken the second time (v. 19-21). But Jeremiah's predictions didn't stop there. The Lord said, "I will bring them back and return them to this place" (v. 22). Lord, I believe Your Word, because everything You have predicted in the past has come true. So what You say about today is true. And what You promise about the future will happen. Amen.

¹Later in the summer of that same year, Zedekiah's fourth year as king of Judah, Hananiah son of Azzur from Gibeon, a prophet, said to me while the priests and people were listening, ²"The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, will break the yoke that Nebuchadnezzar put on you. ³In two years He will bring back all the temple treasures that he took. ⁴And Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim and all the captives taken to Babylon will be allowed to return. I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon."

There will always be false prophets who speak contrary to God's Word. Hananiah predicted that in two years God would break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar on Judah. Also, that the stolen vessels would be returned to the temple. This was the opposite of Jeremiah's prophecy (22:26-27; 27:16). There will be false prophets today who say something like, "All religions lead to heaven," or, "There are mistakes in the Bible so we can't trust it." Lord, keep the influence of false prophets away from me. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} I believe everything You said in Your Word. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} I believe You will do exactly what You said, and I believe You will do it in Your way and in Your time. Amen.

⁵Then I, Jeremiah, said, as the priests and peoples were listening, ⁶"Amen. May this be so. I hope the temple articles will be returned and the captives released. ⁷However, listen to my words. ⁸Long ago prophets before us predicted war, disaster, and disease against many countries. ⁹So if you are predicting peace, we will know you are a true prophet only if that comes true." {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13}

¹⁰Then Hananiah took the yoke off my neck and broke it, ¹¹and he said, "In two years the LORD says He will break the yoke of Babylon in this way." Then I left the temple. ¹²Soon after that the LORD said to me, ¹³"Go tell Hananiah, you broke this wooden yoke, but I'll put a yoke of iron {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁴on the necks of many nations to make them serve as slaves of Nebuchadnezzar. And as I said before, I will even let him rule over wild animals."

¹⁵Then I said to Hananiah, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} "I know the LORD didn't send you to speak to us. But you urged the people to believe your lies. ¹⁶So the LORD says, 'This very year you will die {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} because you rebelled against the LORD."

God condemned Hananiah because, "You have made the people of Judah trust in lies" (v. 15). Therefore Jeremiah predicted, "You will die this year" (v. 16). Then the prediction was vindicated, "Hananiah died... that same year" (v. 17). Lord, seal Your Holy Spirit to guide my study. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} Help me accurately teach the Bible so that I tell the people what You've said. I want to be as truthful as Your Word. {498 Truth in Love Commitment-Prayer, 2 John 1} Keep me from error. Amen.

Jeremiah 29 A Letter from Jeremiah to the Exiles

¹I sent a letter to the Jewish captives in Babylon, including the priests, prophets, and others Nebuchadnezzar took from royal officials, leaders, craftsmen, and other workers who were captives in Babylon. ²This was after King Jehoiachin, his mother, and court officials, leaders, and workmen were taken captives. ³I gave this letter to Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah, when they were sent to Babylon by King Zedekiah. The letter said:

⁴"The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says to all the captives in Babylon. ⁵Build houses and settle there. Plant gardens and eat food you grow. ⁶Marry and have children, and help your sons find wives and your daughters husbands so you will have grandchildren. Increase in numbers; don't get smaller in number. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁷Work for Babylon to be peaceful and prosperous. If it prospers, so will you. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁸I say, Don't let prophets and fortune-tellers trick you.

Jeremiah wrote a letter to the exiles in Babylon, gathered in their own settlements. Jeremiah told them to settle down, and to "pray for the peace of Babylon," because, "if there is peace in that city, you will have peace also" (v. 7). Loyalty to country by the Jews has been a guiding principle wherever the Jews have gone. That principle has preserved the Jews through the centuries. Lord, help me to learn the principle of praying for my nation and its leaders. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} I will be loyal to my nation and pay my taxes. Bless me {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} and bless my nation. Amen.

¹⁵"You may say I sent prophets to you in Babylon. ¹⁶But ¹⁷I'll send war, starvation, and disease against the king on David's throne and the people left in Jerusalem and Judah, and they'll be like rotten figs. ¹⁸I'll pursue them, as I said, with war, starvation, and disease As a result nations will be horrified at you, and will curse, scorn, and mock you. ¹⁹All this will happen because you've not obeyed Me, even though I sent My servants the prophets to you again and again. And you captives didn't listen either. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁰"You captives in Babylon, ²¹listen to what I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, say about the false prophets Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah. I'll have Nebuchadnezzar put them to death while you look on. ²²Then when you captives curse someone, you will say, 'May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom Nebuchadnezzar burned alive.' ²³They did terrible things, such as committing adultery with their neighbor's wives and telling lies." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁴The LORD said to me, "Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite, 25the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says you sent letters to the people in Jerusalem and to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah the priest and all the other priests ²⁶that the LORD had appointed Zephaniah to be priest in place of Jehoiada. So you should put in stocks and iron collars anyone who claims to be a prophet. ²⁷Jeremiah from Anathoth says he is a prophet, so why haven't you done anything about him? ²⁸Jeremiah wrote to the people here in Babylonia, saying we would be here a long time and we should build homes and plant gardens and grow our own food." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

²⁹When Zephaniah received Shemaiah's letter, he read it to me, Jeremiah. ³⁰Then the LORD told me ³¹to write another letter to the captives, which said, "I, the LORD, say this about Shemaiah the Nehelamite: He has prophesied to you, but I didn't send him. He has tricked you into believing a lie. ³²So I will punish him and his family. They will not live to see what good things

I will do for My people because he has encouraged you to rebel against Me." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 30 Israel and Judah Will Be Restored

¹Again the LORD said to me, ²"I the LORD, the God of Israel, want you to write on a scroll everything I have told you. ³In the future I'll bring My people Israel and Judah back home from captivity {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} to the land I gave their ancestors." 4Then the LORD told me to give them this message: 5"I, the LORD, say, 'I hear the people crying terror, {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} and there is no peace. 6A man can't give birth to children, so why is every man pressing his hands against his stomach like a woman in child labor, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} with their faces pale? ⁷A time of trouble is coming for Israel, and nothing like it has ever happened before. But I will rescue My people.

The Lord promises both punishment and redemption to His people. But this prediction was not Israel's present punishment, but a future punishment that will be worse than Babylon's destruction. God promises, "The time of Jacob's trouble" (v. 7), which is the coming tribulation promised by Jesus (Matt. 24:4-26). Jesus called it "the great tribulation" (Matt. 24:29). It will be followed by 1,000 years of peace when Israel returns to the land. "I will bring again the captivity of My people Israel and Judah" (v. 3). David will rule over Israel (v. 9). Lord, I believe You have a great plan for Israel. I don't understand why, but I marvel at Your love for the Jews when they were so hardhearted and rebellious. That means You will be kind to me and deal with me in mercy. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} Lord, be gracious to me. Amen.

8"In that future day," says the LORD of the Heavens, "I'll break off your yokes and chains and you'll no longer be slaves of other nations. 9You'll serve Me your God and David your king whom I'll raise up. 10So Israel, don't be afraid or discouraged. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. I'll bring you back home from a distant land, and you will again be at peace and have no fears. 11I'm with you. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} I'll completely destroy the nations where I'll scatter you, but I won't completely destroy you. Yet I will punish you as necessary." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹²The LORD said, "Your wound can't be cured, {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}
¹³and no one can defend you just as no one has a remedy for your sore. ¹⁴Your allies don't remember you and don't care for you. I've wounded you as if I were your enemy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Why? Because of your great guilt and many sins. ¹⁵Why cry about your pain when there is no cure? {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} I've done all this to you because of your great guilt and many sins. ¹⁶Those who destroy you will themselves be destroyed, and I'll rob those who rob you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷I'll restore you to health even though you Jerusalem are like an outcast no one cares about."

¹⁸The LORD also says, "I'll bring you home from being captives and I'll be kind to you. Jerusalem, in ruins, will be rebuilt and the king's palace reconstructed. {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} ¹⁹You'll sing and rejoice, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} your numbers will increase, and other people will honor you and you'll not be despised. 20 Your children will prosper, and your nation will be well established. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} I'll punish anyone who hurts You. ²¹One of your own people, not some foreigner, will be your ruler. When I invite him to come worship Me, he will respond. ²²So you'll be My people, and I'll be your God. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²³Remember that My anger can be like a strong storm, or a driving wind on those who are wicked. ²⁴My anger will continue until I've finished all I plan to do. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Someday you'll understand all this."

Jeremiah 31 The Return of God's People

me and said, "I'll always love you and be kind to you. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁴I'll rebuild your nation, {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} and you'll dance for joy and play your tambourines. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52}

What a lovely promise. God promises, "I will build you up." Then, "You will be rebuilt." Lord, build me up in the faith, make me a strong believer. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} I don't want to be weak, so I will study to learn Your Word. I will obey Your commands {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} so I will be strong. Then I claim Your promise, "You will be rebuilt." Amen.

⁵You'll plant vineyards on the hills of Samaria and you'll enjoy the grapes. ⁶Those who guard Ephraim will say, 'Let's go to Jerusalem to worship the LORD.'' {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

⁷The LORD says, "Sing for joy for Israel, {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} the greatest of the nations. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} Say, 'O LORD, save what is left of Your people.' {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ⁸I'll bring them from the north and from distant places on the earth. A great many will return, including the blind and the lame and expectant mothers. ⁹They'll weep with joy {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} as I lead them home. {106 Definition of Prayer, Heb. 11:6} I will lead them beside pleasant streams, and they'll walk on a level road and not stumble. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} I'm like a father to Israel, and I love Ephraim as if he were my oldest son.

A picture is seen of "Rachel's weeping for her children" (v. 15). Although Rachel's exact burial place is unconfirmed, when I first visited a stone marking her grave outside Bethlehem, it was surrounded by shepherds' fields. Today, there's a fast food restaurant next to it, and it's surrounded by condos and apartments. Rachel is weeping prophetically from her grave over descendants who are slaughtered. This was fulfilled when Herod slaughtered the children two years and younger in and around Bethlehem (Matt. 2:16). Herod was trying to kill the Christ-Child born to Mary (Matt. 2:1-11). Then Matthew added, "A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted, because they are no more" (Matt. 2:18, NKJV). Lord, give me a sad heart over the death of Your martyrs, and give me crying eyes over the slaughter of Your children. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} May I weep in prayer for the protection of Your people. Teach me to intercede for all. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} Amen.

¹⁶But the LORD says, "Don't weep anymore {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} because your children will come home from captivity. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ¹⁷So there is hope," {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} says the LORD. ¹⁸"The people of Israel moaned when I disciplined them {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} for being like an unruly calf, and they said, 'Restore us, LORD, {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} for You alone are the LORD our God: 19We turned from you, and then were sorry. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} We were ashamed of all the things we did in our youth.' 20 Israel, you are My dear son, My delightful child. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} I often make threats against you, but I still love you. I long for you, and I'll have mercy on you. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

²⁶Then I, Jeremiah, woke up and looked around. I had had a pleasant sleep. ²⁷Then the LORD said, "The day will come when the people of Israel and Judah and their livestock will grow in numbers like a plant. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} ²⁸In the past I uprooted and tore you down by a terrible disaster. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But in the future I'll plant you and build you up. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ²⁹People have said, 'Parents eat sour grapes and their children have a sour taste in their mouths.' 30But in the future everyone will die for his own sins. Those who eat sour grapes, not someone else, will have a sour taste."

³¹The LORD also said, "The day will come when I'll make a new agreement with Israel {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and Judah. ³²This agreement will differ from the one I made with our ancestors after I recused them from Egypt. They broke that agreement, though I was committed to them like a husband is committed to his bride. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ³³This is the agreement I'll make with them. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} I'll put My laws on their hearts and minds. I'll be their God, and they'll be My people. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ³⁴No one will need to teach someone to know and obey Me, {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} because everyone, both rulers and common people, will know and obey Me. I'll forgive them their wickedness {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and never again think of their sins."

³⁵The LORD provides the sun to light the day and the moon and stars to light the night. He who stirs up the sea and makes its waves roar is the LORD of the Heavens. ³⁶The LORD says, "Just as these things in nature will not vanish, so My people Israel will continue as a nation. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁷I would reject you, Israel, only if the heavens can be measured and the depths of the earth explored {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} in spite of your sins.

³⁸"The day will come," the LORD says, "when Jerusalem will be rebuilt {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} from the Hananel Tower to the Corner Gate. ³⁹From there the city boundary will go to Gareb Hill and then toward Goah. ⁴⁰Even the Hinnom Valley, with its corpses and ashes, and the hills that slope down to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the Horse Gate will be sacred to Me. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} And the people of Jerusalem will never again be captured or the city destroyed."

Jeremiah 32 Jeremiah Buys a Field in Anathoth

¹In the 10th year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the 18th year that Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me again. ²The Babylonian army had surrounded Jerusalem, and I was in prison in the courtyard of the royal guards. ³Zedekiah had put me there because I had said, "The LORD says, 'I'll soon hand over this city to the king of Babylonia. 4He'll capture Zedekiah and the two of them will speak face to face. ⁵Nebuchadnezzar will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and I'll deal with him there. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will lose." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶Then when I was in prison the LORD said, 7"Your cousin Hanamel, son of your uncle Shallum, will come see you, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and he'll say, 'Buy my field in Anathoth. You have the right to do it because you are my nearest relative." 8Then as the LORD had said. Hanamel came to see me and asked me to buy his fields in Anathoth in Benjamin. I knew the LORD wanted me to do this, so 9I bought the field for 17 pieces of silver. 10I signed and sealed the deed of sale and had it witnessed. 11I took the sealed copy of the deed and an unsealed copy, ¹²and gave them to Baruch, son of Neriah, and grandson of Mahseiah, as witnesses and Jews who were sitting in the temple courtyard looked on. ¹³I told Baruch, ¹⁴"The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says for you to put the sealed and unsealed copies of the deed in a clay jar. That way they'll last a long time." ¹⁵The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says, "This purchase, Jeremiah, was a good idea because in the future houses, fields, and vineyards will again be purchased here." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁶I gave the deed to Baruch, and then I prayed, {106 Definition of Prayer, Heb. 11:6} 17"O Sovereign LORD, You've made the heavens and the earth by Your great power. Nothing is too difficult for You. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} 18 You show steadfast love to thousands, and yet the fathers' sins affect their children. You are the great and powerful God, the LORD of the Heavens. 19 Your plans and Your works are great. You see what everyone does, and You reward them. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²⁰You performed amazing miracles in Egypt, and You continue to do so in Israel and elsewhere, which has made You famous. 21 You rescued Your people from Egypt by performing great miracles with Your great power and You brought terror on all the Egyptians. ²²You gave Your people this land {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} that You had promised to our ancestors. ²³They conquered the land, but they didn't obey You {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and Your laws. Since they didn't do what You told them to do, You brought this disaster on them. ²⁴The Babylonians have built siege ramps against Jerusalem's walls, and the Babylonians will defeat the city, and people will die by the sword, starvation, and disease. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} ²⁵Though the Babylonians will conquer the city, You, O Sovereign LORD, told me to buy Hanamel's field."

²⁶Then the LORD spoke to me {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} saying, ²⁷"I am the LORD, the God of the whole world. Nothing is too difficult for Me."

Jeremiah prayed, "There is nothing too wonderful for You to do" (v. 17, NKJV). Then God repeats Jeremiah's words in a question, "I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is there anything too hard for Me" (v. 27, NKJV)? Lord, I believe You are all-powerful, therefore I worship You for what You've done in the past. {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} I praise You for what You will do in the future. Although Jerusalem was destroyed, You allowed the Jews to return and build the walls under Nehemiah's leadership. And You will do it again in the future. There's nothing too hard for You. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} So, do something wonderful in my life today. Amen.

²⁸"I will hand this city over to the Babylonians and their king Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹They will attack it and enter the city and set it on fire. They will burn down the houses where the people made Me angry by burning incense on the rooftop to Baal and pouring out drink offerings to other gods. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁰From their earliest years Israel and Judah have done nothing but evil. And the idols they have made have made Me angry. ³¹So I have decided to get rid of the city. ³²The sins of the kings, officials, priests, prophets, and everyone in Jerusalem have made Me very angry. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³³They turned from Me. I tried over and over to teach them to obey Me, but they wouldn't listen and wouldn't respond to My discipline. {284 Limitation-Praying, Jude 3} ³⁴They even set up their disgusting idols in My temple, ³⁵and they built altars to Baal in the Hinnom Valley where they sacrificed their children to Molech. I never told them to do that, and such a terrible thing never entered My mind. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁶"Jeremiah, you are correct in saying that the city will fall to the king of Babylon by war, starvation, and disease. However, that's not the full story. ³⁷I will bring My people back from the places where I scattered them, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and they'll be safe again. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ³⁸They'll be My people, and I'll be their God. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ³⁹I'll give them a new heart and a new mind so that they will reverence and worship Me {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} for their own good and the good of their children. 40I will make an agreement that will last forever, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and I'll continue doing good for them and I'll encourage them to worship Me and not turn from Me. ⁴¹I'll bless them and plant them in their land again." {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

⁴²The LORD says, "Just as I sent terrible calamities on them, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} so I'll prosper them as I promised. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ⁴³You have said, 'This land is like a desert, destroyed by the Babylonians.' ⁴⁴But you will buy land in Benjamin, and villages around Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah, and the hill country, the western foothills, and the Southern Desert, and deeds of purchase will be signed, sealed, and witnessed. In this way I'll make them rich again." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Jeremiah 33 Hope for God's People

¹While I was still being held prisoner in the courtyard of the palace guards, the LORD said to me, ²"I am the LORD, who created the world. The LORD is My name. ³Ask Me and I'll show you some mighty things {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} that are about to happen."

The phrase, "You have never heard these things before" (v. 3) means I don't realize all the things God does for me when He arranges small details to answer my prayers. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Also God does mighty miracles to answer my prayers, when I don't even know He is working. Lord, I call on You today for Your mighty work in my life. You know the small and large things for which I pray. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} I rest in Your promise, "I will answer You" (v. 3). Amen.

4"Many of the houses in Jerusalem and the king's palace have been torn down to use materials to strengthen the city walls against the siege ramps ⁵ of the Babylonians. But they will enter the city anyway, and I'll fill the city with dead bodies of the men of this city in My anger. I will ignore the prayers of My people because of their evil. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

6"But the time will come when I'll heal this place and My people, and they'll enjoy peace and security. 7I'll bring Judah and Israel back from being captives, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} and rebuild their cities. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} 8I'll forgive them of their rebelling against Me. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 9'Then Jerusalem will bring Me joy and honor. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} All the nations will see the good things I'll do for My people, including giving them peace and prosperity, and they'll tremble with fear. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4}

¹⁰"You say this land is a dry desert with no people or animals in it. But in the deserted towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, you'll again hear ¹¹happy voices and the joyful sounds of brides and grooms and songs of people bringing thank offerings to the temple. They'll say, 'Thank the LORD of the Heavens, for He is good, {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant

Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} and His stead-fast love will last forever.' I will make the land prosperous, as it was in the past." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹²The LORD of the Heavens says, "This land is now desolate with no people or animals, but the time is coming when shepherds will take care of their flocks 13 near towns in the hill country, the western foothills, the Southern Desert, the land of Benjamin, and villages around Jerusalem and in Judah. I the LORD have spoken these words. ¹⁴The time is coming when I will keep the promise I made {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} to Israel and Judah. 15At that time I'll appoint a king from David's family {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} who will do what is right and fair. 16In those days Judah will be safe and Jerusalem will be at peace, {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} and Jerusalem will be named 'The LORD Is Just.' 17A branch (descendant) of David will always be king, 18 and priests of the tribe of Levi will always offer sacrifices to Me." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁹The LORD then gave me this message: ²⁰"I made an agreement with the day and the night. But if the sun and moon fail to shine, ²¹only then will I break the agreement I made with David and with the priests who serve in the temple. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ²²In fact the descendants of David and the priests who serve Me will be more in number {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} than the stars in the sky {93

Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} or the grains of sand on the seashore."

²³The LORD also said, "No doubt you've heard people say, ²⁴'How strange. The LORD chose the two nations of Judah and Israel and then rejected them.' So they are now saying they are no longer a nation. ²⁵But I say, 'Just as I'll never change My agreement with the sun and the moon, ²⁶so I'll never reject My people and David My servant or change My plans to have a descendant of David rule as king over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I'll be king of My people and bring them back to their land." {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21}

The mysteries of eternity that I don't know yet are available to me only when I call. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} Lord, I call boldly; give me bold answers. I call patiently; teach me to wait on You. I call in emergencies; answer quickly. I call when discouraged; give me courage. I call when scared; let me hear, "Fear not, for I am with you" (Isa. 41:10, NKJV). Amen.

Jeremiah 34 Jeremiah Warns Zedekiah

¹When Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and his army and the armies of every nation in his kingdom were attacking Jerusalem and towns, the LORD gave me this message: ²"Go to King Zedekiah of Judah and tell him that I, the LORD, the God of Israel, will let the king of Babylon capture Jerusalem and burn it to the ground. ³You'll be taken captive, and he'll speak with you personally, and he'll take you over to Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴Yet I won't let you be killed in battle. ⁵You'll die peacefully. People will burn a fire in your honor, just as they did for your ancestors. They'll mourn your death saying, 'How terrible. Our king is dead.'" {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁶I told this to Zedekiah in Jerusalem, ⁷while Nebuchadnezzar was fighting against three remaining cities in Judah—Jerusalem, Lachish, and Azekah.

8Zedekiah had made an agreement with everyone in Jerusalem 9that they should free all Hebrew men and women who were slaves. No Jew was to keep another as a slave. ¹⁰So the officials and all the people freed their slaves. 11But then they changed their minds and made them slaves again. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 12So the LORD gave me this message: 13"I, the LORD, the God of Israel, made an agreement with your ancestors when I rescued them from slavery in Egypt. 14I told them they were to set slaves free after six years. But you didn't do this. 15Recently you decided to do the right things and you set your slaves free. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 16But now you have disgraced My name {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} by taking back the slaves you had set free.

¹⁷"Since you haven't obeyed Me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I'll now give you 'freedom'—freedom to die in war or by starvation or disease. And nations will be disgusted with you. ¹⁸Since you haven't kept the agreement we had, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I'll cut you apart just as you cut apart a calf and then walk between the two parts. 19 All those who walk between the pieces of the calf leaders, court officials, priests, and all the people—20 will be taken captives by your enemies. The wild birds and wild beasts will eat their dead bodies. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²¹The army of the Babylonian king will capture Zedekiah and his officials. If Nebuchadnezzar leaves the city, ²²I'll have him and his army come back. They'll conquer the city, burn it down, and they'll destroy all the towns of Judah and leave them completely empty." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 35 The Rechabites Used as an Example of Obedience

¹When Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah, the LORD told me, ²"Invite the Recabite clan to meet you in one of the temple side rooms and offer them wine." ³So I went to Jaazaniah, son of Jeremiah, and grandson of Habazziniah, and all his brothers and sons, ⁴and took them to the temple to the room of Hanan, son of Igdaliah, a prophet. This room was next to the room of the officials, which was directly above the room of Maaseiah, son of Shallum. 5I set out large bowls of wine and some cups for them to have some wine. ⁶But they said, "No, we don't drink wine. Why? Because Jonadab, son of Rechab, Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt.

1:1-17} our ancestor, told us, 'Don't ever drink wine."

There will always be a godly remnant that will obey God, who separate themselves from sin, and live according to the Scriptures, as did the Rechabites. Lord, I will be one of the godly remnant who live for You. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} I will separate myself from sin and I will not compromise. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} What I learn from the Scriptures, I will live according to the Scriptures. Be glorified in my life. Amen.

7"Never build houses or plant crops or vineyards. Instead live in tents. And if you follow these commands, you'll live a long time." 8So we have never drunk wine, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

The Rechabites were offered wine. They refused based on their obedience to God. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} So God used their faithfulness as an example to Judah. God would punish Judah for their disobedience. Lord, while the world around me gets drunk on alcohol, I will be sober in body and sober in soul. I will be a clean vessel as a testimony to You of my faithfulness. I want to be filled with the Holy Spirit, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} I will not be filled with wine (Eph. 5:18). Amen.

9"or built houses, or had vineyards, farms, or crops. ¹⁰We have lived in tents and have obeyed our ancestor Rechab. ¹¹But when Nebuchadnezzar invaded this land, with the armies from Babylonia and northeast Mesopotamia, we decided to move to Jerusalem."

¹²Then the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, said, ¹³"Tell the people of Judah and Jerusalem, 'Come learn a lesson about obeying Me. 14Jonadab son of Rechab told his sons not to drink wine, and they haven't. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} And yet I have spoken to you over and over, and you haven't obeyed Me. ¹⁵I've sent you one prophet after another to tell you to turn from your sinful ways {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and not serve false gods, so that you may live in the land. But you've not listened. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁶The Rechabites have obeyed their ancestor Jonadab, but you have not obeyed Me."

God is looking for obedient followers today just like the Rechabites. Lord, I desire to obey Your commands inwardly and outwardly—bless me. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} I desire to keep Your precepts in thought and deed—bless me. I desire to do according to all Your principles with intent and actions—bless me. Amen.

17" Therefore, I'll bring on you all the disasters I've mentioned, all because you didn't listen to Me or respond to My call." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁸Then I said to the Rechabites, "The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says to you, 'You have obeyed the command of Jonadab, following all his instructions. ¹⁹Therefore his descendants will always serve Me faithfully." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

Jeremiah 36 King Jehoiakim Burns the Scroll

¹In the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king in Judah the LORD gave me this message: ²"Write down on a scroll all My messages about Israel, Judah, and other nations beginning with My messages in the days of Josiah. ³Perhaps when you read these to Judah, and they hear about the terrible things I plan to bring on them, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} they will turn from their sin. If they do, I'll forgive their wickedness." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

⁴So I dictated to Baruch, son of Neraiah, everything the LORD had told me, and Baruch wrote it all down. 5Then I said to Baruch, "Since I'm a prisoner here in the courtyard of the king's guard, I can't go to the temple. 6So you go instead on the next day of fasting {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and read aloud these words on the scroll to the people of Judah. ⁷Maybe they'll realize how angry the LORD is with them, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and they'll ask Him to forgive them." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ⁸Baruch read these messages from the LORD to the people who were at the temple. 9This happened in the fall of Jehoiakim's fifth year as king of Judah. This was a time of fasting {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} when people came from all the towns of Judah to Jerusalem. ¹⁰Baruch read my words from the scroll to the people who were at the temple. He then read in the room of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, the secretary, which was near the upper courtyard, near the New Gate entrance. 11Gemariah's son, Micaiah, heard Baruch read what the LORD said. 12Then he went to his father's room in the king's palace, where he was meeting with his officials, including Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah son of Hananiah. 13Micaiah told them what Baruch was reading to the people. ¹⁴Then the officials sent Jehudi, son of Nethaniah, and Shelemiah, son of Cushi, to tell Baruch to bring the scroll. So he did, 15 and they asked him to sit down and read the scroll to them, {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} and Baruch did. ¹⁶After hearing these words, they were worried and they said, "We must tell the king what we've heard. 17But first, Baruch, how did you get these messages?" 18 Baruch answered, "Jeremiah dictated the words, and I wrote them down." 19 Then the officials said, "Baruch, you and Jeremiah should go hide somewhere."

²⁰The officials put the scroll in Elishama's room and then told the king about it. ²¹When the king heard this, he had Jehudi get the scroll, and Jehudi got it and read it to the king and his officials. ²²This was late fall and the king was sitting in front of a fire to keep warm. ²³Every time Jehudi finished reading three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off and threw them into the fire until the whole scroll was burned up.

What a terrible thing to reject God's Word, cut it to pieces, and then burn it in the fire. No wonder King Jehoiakim was punished. Lord, I love Your Word, {40 Bible-Comforting Prayer, I Thess. 4:18} I will defend Your Word, and I will oppose those who reject the Scriptures. There are some who don't actually cut up Bibles, nor do they burn Bibles, but their criticism of Scripture is just as bad. I will oppose them with all my ability. Amen.

²⁴The king and his attendants showed no fear {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} about what they had read. ²⁵Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah begged the king not to burn the scroll, but he did anyway. ²⁶Then the king told Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch and me. But the LORD kept us hidden.

²⁷Since Jehoiakim had burned the scroll, the LORD told me to 28 make another scroll and write on it everything that was on the first scroll. 29"Also tell Jehoiakim, 'You burned the scroll because it said that the king of Babylonia would destroy the land and people and animals in it. 30 Therefore because you questioned the LORD, He says that no descendant of yours will sit on David's throne. And your body, Jehoiakim, will not be buried. It will be exposed to the heat of the day and the cold of the night. 31I'll punish you and your children and your servants because they are all evil. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I'll bring on you all the disaster

I promised, because you would not obey Me."

³²I gave Baruch another scroll and dictated to him again all the words on the first scroll that Jehoiakim had burned and I added other words to it.

Many have denied the Bible, and many teach there are mistakes in the Bible. Others have attacked the Bible with no results. But the Bible has bigger sales today than at any other time in history. The Bible is read by more people than ever, and more people accept it as the accurate authority of God. The Word of God will continue forever! Lord, I will believe the Bible, love the Bible, read the Bible, and will memorize its words. {39 Bible-Bless Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} But most importantly, I will obey the Bible and live according to its commands. Amen.

Jeremiah 37 Jeremiah Is Sent to Prison

¹King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylonia had removed Jehoiachin, son of Jehoiakim, from being king of Judah, and made Zedekiah, son of Josiah, king of Judah. ²But Zedekiah, his officials, and all the people ignored everything the LORD told me, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Jeremiah, to tell them. ³Yet Zedekiah, sent Jehucal, son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah, the priest, son of Maaseiah, to ask me to pray for them. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ⁴This was before I was imprisoned.

⁵At that time Pharaoh's army from Egypt marched toward Judah. When the Babylonians heard this, they withdrew from surrounding Jerusalem. 6Then the LORD said to me, "Tell the king of Judah, who sent you to ask Me what will happen, 7that Pharaoh's army will soon return to Egypt. ⁸Then the Babylonians will come back and capture Jerusalem and burn it down. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9Don't think the Babylonians will leave again as they did before, because they won't. 10 Even if you were to defeat the entire Babylonian army, their wounded soldiers would get up and burn this city down." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹After the Babylonian army left Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army, 12I started to leave Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to see the property I had bought. ¹³But when I got to the Benjamin Gate in Jerusalem, Irijah, son of Shelemiah, and grandson of Hananiah, the guard captain, arrested me, because he thought I was joining the Babylonians. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 14I told him that wasn't true, but he wouldn't listen. He brought me to the officials 15who were angry with me and had some soldiers beat me, and he put me in the home of Jonathan the secretary, which they made into a prison. 16I was put into a cell in a basement room, where I was kept for a long time.

¹⁷Later Zedekiah had me brought to the palace where the king asked me, "Do you have any messages from the LORD?" I said, "Yes, I do. You'll be captured by the king of Babylonia. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁸What crime have I committed against you and your officials or other that I've been imprisoned? ¹⁹Where are the prophets who told you Babylon will not attack this land? ²⁰I have a request: Please don't send me back to the prison cell in the basement, or I'll die there." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

There is a time to be a martyr, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and there is a time to avoid martyrdom. Some have died for the Lord, such as Zacharias (Matt. 23:25) and Antipas (Rev. 2:13). On this occasion Jeremiah begged the king not to let him die (Jer. 37:18-20). On another occasion Jesus said, "When they persecute you in this city, flee to another" (Matt. 10:22-23). Lord, if I'm privileged to die for You, be glorified in the hour of my death. If I should run away from my persecution, guide my flight, and hide me from my enemies. May I die well. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Amen.

²¹So King Zedekiah had me taken to the courtyard of the king's guards. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} And he told officials to give me a loaf of fresh bread every day until the city ran out of grain. So I was there in the courtyard prison.

Jeremiah 38 Jeremiah Is Rescued from the Dungeon

¹Four of the king's officials—Shephatiah, son of Mattan, Gedaliah, son of Pashhur, Jucal, son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur, son of Malkijah—heard what I was telling the people: ²"If you stay here in Jerusalem, you'll die in battle or by starvation or disease, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} but whoever surrenders to the Babylonians will live. ³This city will certainly be captured by the Babylonians." ⁴These four men went to King Zedekiah and said, "This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers and everyone else. He's trying to harm us, not help us." ⁵Zedekiah said, "Okay. Do with him what you want. I won't stop you."

⁶So the officials lowered me with ropes into an empty well that belonged to Malkijah, the king's son. Now water was in the well, but I sank down in the mud. 7Ebed-Melech from Ethiopia, an official in the king's palace, heard what they had done to me. He went to speak with the king who was sitting by the Benjamin Gate. 8He said to the king, 9"These men have done a terrible thing by putting Jeremiah in Malkijah's well. He will starve to death {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} down there when the city runs out of bread." 10So the king said, "Take 30 men and lift Jeremiah out." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹¹Eded-Melech and 30 men went to a room in the palace below the treasury and got some old rags and worn-out clothes. He lowered these on a rope to me, ¹² and he said, "Put these old rags and clothes under your armpits so the ropes won't hurt you. I did this, ¹³ and they pulled me up out of the well. Then I was kept in the courtyard of the palace guards. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

God has His servants who suffer, and God has His servants who help those who are suffering. Because Jeremiah predicted the fall of Jerusalem, the leaders accused Jeremiah, "He weakens the hands of the men of war" (v. 4). So they cast Jeremiah into a cistern (a place where water was stored). But Jeremiah sank in the mud for there was no water. He would have died, but Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian went to the king to get Jeremiah freed. He asked the privilege of releasing Jeremiah, "Before he died." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Lord, thank You for Jeremiah's willingness to suffer. I am also willing to suffer for You. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} Lord, thank You for Ebed-Melech who delivered him. Let me be one who delivers those who are suffering. Whether I suffer or I am in good health, I will serve You with worship {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and praise. Amen.

¹⁴Then King Zedekiah had me brought to his private entrance to the temple, and he said, "I want to ask you something. Don't hide anything from me." ¹⁵I said, "If I tell you the truth, you'll kill me. And will you listen to my advice?" ¹⁶But the king said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I won't kill you." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷Then I said, "The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says, 'If you surrender to Babylon, you won't be killed and Jerusalem won't be burned. ¹⁸But if you won't surrender, the Babylonians will capture Jerusalem and burn it down, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and you'll not escape."

¹⁹Zedekiah then said to me, "I'm afraid to surrender because the Babylonians may hand me over to the Judeans, {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} and they may torture me." 20I said, "The Babylonians won't do that. Just obey the LORD, and then your life will be spared. ²¹But if you don't surrender, ²²all the women in your palace will be given to officers of the Babylonian army. ²³The women will make fun of you and say, 'The friends you trusted in have misled you. You are trapped in mud, and they have left you.' The Babylonians will take your wives and children captives, and you'll be captured and not escape, and the city will be burned down." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁴Then Zedekiah said to me, "Don't tell anyone what we talked about, or you might die. 25 If my officials hear that I talked with you, they may ask what we talked about. 'If you don't tell us, we'll kill you.' {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ²⁶Then tell them that you were begging me not to send me back to the basement cell in Jonathan's house where I would die."

²⁷Soon the king's officials did come and asked me what I and the king talked about. I told them what the king said for me to tell them about the basement cell. So nothing more was said, and they left. ²⁸I remained a prisoner in the courtyard of the king's guard until Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah 39 Jerusalem Falls

⁴When King Zedekiah and his soldiers saw them, they tried to escape that night. They went by the king's garden through a gate between two walls and headed toward the Jordan Valley. 5But the Babylonian army chased them and caught up with them near Jericho. They arrested Zedekiah and took him to Nebuchadnezzar at the town of Riblah in the land of Hamath. The king of Babylonia sentenced Zedekiah to die. ⁶Then at Riblah the king of Babylonia killed Zedekiah's sons as he looked on. and Nebuchadnezzar also killed all the leaders of Judah's ruling families. ⁷Then he blinded Zedekiah and put him in bronze chains and sent him off to Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁸The Babylonians burned the royal palace and people's houses, and broke down Jerusalem's walls. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁹Then Nebuzaradan, commander of the guards, led everyone away as captives, people who remained in the city along with others who had deserted to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁰But Nebuchadnezzar left in Judah some of the poor people who owned no land, and he gave them vineyards and fields.

¹¹Nebuchadnezzar told Nebuzaradan ¹²to take care of me and give me whatever I want. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

God did not forget His promise to deliver Jeremiah (1:8). So Nebuchadnezzar gave orders, "Take him, look well to him, and do him no harm" (v. 12, KJV). Lord, I know You will protect me until I've finished Your task for me on earth. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} When it's done, receive my soul, Lord Jesus. Amen.

¹³So Nebuzaradan and other officers of the king, including Nebushazban and Nergal-Sharezer, ¹⁴had me taken from the courtyard prison and turned me over to Gedaliah, son of Ahikam, and grandson of Shaphan, who took me home. So I stayed in Jerusalem with my people. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

¹⁵While I was still in prison in the courtyard of the palace guard, the LORD said to me, ¹⁶"Tell Ebed-Melech the Ethiopian that I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, will soon do to Jerusalem everything I have predicted, {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} and you'll see it happen. ¹⁷But, I'll rescue you from those you fear. ¹⁸Because you trust in Me, I will keep you alive." {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

Jeremiah 40 Jeremiah Is Freed

¹I was taken in chains with other captives from Judah who were being taken to Babylon. When we arrived in Ramah, ²Nebuzaradan said to me, "The LORD your God has brought this disaster on your land ³as He said He would. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But your people continued to disobey Him, and that's why this happened. ⁴I'll now take off your chains {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} and set you free. If you want, you can come to Babylon. Or if you don't want to, you can go wherever you wish."

Jeremiah was released from prison and freed by order of Nebuchadnezzar. But when the deportees were rounded up in Ramah, Jeremiah was caught up in the crowd and chained. When the captain realized Jeremiah was in shackles (vv. 2-3), he announced, "I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thy hand" (v. 4, KJV). Lord, thank You for honoring the promise made to Jeremiah, thank You for working through the memory of the captain of the guard. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} Lord, work through my memory so I always do the things I promise. Work through the memory of others so they will perform the things You want me to experience or have. Thank You for our recessive-memory where secrets of yesteryears are stored. When I need facts hidden away in my mind, bring them to remembrance. Amen.

5"Nebuchadnezzar appointed Gedaliah governor of Judah, so you can stay here near him or wherever you wish." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} Then Nebuzaradan gave me some food and money and let me go. 6So I lived near Gedaliah in Mizpah with others who were left in the land. {325 Non-Anxiety Prayer, Phil. 4:6, 7}

⁷The officers of the army of Judah in the countryside heard that Nebuchadnezzar had appointed Gedaliah governor of Judah and that poor people had not been taken to Babylonia. 8So several leaders went to see Gedaliah. They were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, and all their men. 9Gedaliah told them, "It's okay to surrender to the Babylonians. If you settle down here, all will go well. 10I'll stay here at Mizpah and meet with the Babylonians when they come visit us. But you are to harvest grapes, summer fruits, and olives."

¹¹Many Jews had escaped to Moab, Ammon, Edom, and elsewhere. Then when they heard that the king of Babylonia had appointed Gedaliah governor of Judah, ¹²they returned to Judah and harvested a lot of grapes and summer fruit.

¹³Johanan, son of Kareah, and some army officers went to see Gedaliah. ¹⁴They said, "Did you know that Baal is king of the Ammonites sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you?" But Gedaliah didn't believe them. ¹⁵So Johanan said to Gedaliah, "Let me kill Ishmael. Why should we let him take your life and cause us to be scattered and perish?" {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:8} ¹⁶But Gedaliah said, "Don't kill Ishmael. What you said about him can't be true." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

Jeremiah 41 Jeremiah Freed

Jonathan, one of Israel's guerilla leaders went to Gedaliah to warn him of a plot by Ishmael to assassinate him. Gedaliah didn't believe it and wouldn't let Jonathan help him. So Gedaliah was assassinated. Lord, give me wisdom to understand the truth in rumors brought to me. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:8} Give me wisdom to act properly, as You would have me respond to "reported" dangers. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} Protect me when I can't protect myself. Amen.

³Then they killed the Jews who were with Gedaliah and Babylonian soldiers who were there.

The assassination came in October, that is, on the Day of Atonement, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} or the Feast of Tabernacles. Ishmael had royal blood in his veins, so maybe he was avenging the injustice done to his relative Zedekiah. But his treacherous acts don't justify killing 70 pilgrims. Lord, many have wrongly thought they served You with blinded zeal. Deliver me from foolish zeal, may I serve you with eyes wide open to obey the Word of God exactly. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:8} Give me wisdom and common sense {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} to do all things wisely in Your name. Amen.

⁸Ten of them then offered him wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in a field. So Ishmael didn't kill them. ⁹The well where Ishmael dumped the bodies of the men he killed was the well King Asa had made years earlier to protect himself against King Baasha of Israel.

¹⁰Ishmael took as captives King Zedekiah's daughters and others in Mizpah under Gedaliah, and he headed toward Ammon. ¹¹Johanan and the army officers with him heard what Ishmael had done. ¹²They chased him and caught up with him at the pool of Gibeon. ¹³When Ishmael's prisoners saw Johanan and the army officers with him, they were glad, ¹⁴and they left Ishmael and went to be with Johanan. ¹⁵Then Ishmael and only eight of his men escaped and went to Ammon.

¹⁶Johanan and his officers rescued the soldiers, women, children, and court officials. ¹⁷They took them to the village of Geruth-Kimham near Bethlehem and went on from there to Egypt.

Hospitality was sacred in Bible cultures; therefore Ishmael violated the laws of hospitality when he killed Gedaliah. Ishmael's warped patriotism caused him to break God's law, commit murder, and leave God's remnant without wise leadership. As a result, the remnant went to Egypt, and eventually disappeared. Lord, help me see the ramification of all the things I do. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:8} Help me make good choices in life and keep me from doing stupid things that hurt Your work. I want to do right, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} and do those things that bless Your work. Amen.

¹⁸They were afraid of what the Babylonians might do when they found out that Ishmael had killed Gedaliah, the ruler appointed by Nebuchadnezzar.

Jeremiah 42 Jeremiah Prays to God for the People

¹All the army officers, including Johanan, son of Kareah, and Jezaniah, son of Hoshaiah, and everyone else came ²to me and said, "Please pray to the LORD your God for us. We used to have many people, but now only a few of us are left. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ³Ask the LORD to tell us what we should do." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁴I said, "I'll pray to the LORD {106 Definition of Prayer, Heb. 11:6} and then tell you everything He says."

⁵Then they said to me, "The LORD will witness against us if we don't do what He says. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁶Whether we like it or not, we will obey the LORD our God so that all will go well for us." {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ⁷Ten days later the LORD gave me an answer.

The people came to Jeremiah, "Pray to the LORD your God" (v. 4, NKJV) and they then promised, "We will obey the voice of the LORD our God" (v. 6, NKJV). Notice this principle about prayer. God doesn't always answer immediately. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} "And it happened after ten days that the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah" (v. 7, NKJV). Why doesn't God always answer immediately? Perhaps God wants to see our sincerity. Lord, teach me patience in prayer. {345 Patience Prayer, James 5:7-8} When You don't answer immediately, give me patience to wait for Your answer, and give me faith to continue to trust You for answers. Amen.

⁸So I called for Johanan and the army officers and all the people ⁹and told them, "This is the LORD's reply: {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ¹⁰'If you stay here in the land, I'll build you up and plant you. I'm sorry I had to bring disaster on you. ¹¹But don't be afraid of the King of Babylonia. I'm with you {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and I'll rescue you from him. ¹²I'll force him to be king to you and give back your farms." {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

The Lord told the people, "If you will still remain in this land,... I will show you mercy" (vv. 10-12, NKJV). Even though the people promised to obey God, "All the people would not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah" (43:4, NKJV). Isn't that one of the reasons God doesn't answer our prayers? {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} God knows we won't do what we promise Him. Lord, forgive me when I did not do what You told me to do. Forgive me for the times I promised to do Your will, but I didn't do what I promised. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Now I understand why You haven't always answered my prayers, because You know what would happen in the future. {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} You know my deceitful heart. Forgive me and make me strong to obey. Amen.

¹³"But if you disobey Me by not staying in Judah ¹⁴and going to Egypt to try to be free from war and hunger, ¹⁵then you'll face ¹⁶war and starvation there and you'll die there. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁷If you insist on going to Egypt, you'll all die there by war, starvation, or disease. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

¹⁸"I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, say that if you go to Egypt, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} My wrath will be on you just as it was on those in Jerusalem. People will be horrified at your situation and will mock and curse you. And you'll never see your homeland again." ¹⁹Judah, the LORD has told you not to go to Egypt. 20 You asked me to pray and ask the LORD what He wants you to do. But that was a mistake. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²¹I told you what He said, and You said you would do it, but you are still not obeying Him. ²²And so in Egypt, where you insist on going, you will die from war, starvation, and disease. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Jeremiah 43 The People Do Not Listen to Jeremiah

¹When I finished telling the people what the LORD told me to tell them, ²Azariah, son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan, son of Kareah, and some proud men said to me, "You are lying. The LORD didn't tell you to say we can't go live in Egypt. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ³Baruch, son of Neriah, has encouraged you to say this so the Babylonians will kill us or take us captives to Babylonia." {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

⁴So Johanan and his army officers and all the people disobeyed the LORD's command to stay in Judah. ⁵Johanan and his officers led to Egypt the captives who were now back in Judah. ⁶They also led to Egypt everyone whom Nebuzaradan had left with Gedaliah and me and Baruch.

This chapter has a graphic lesson on obeying the Word of God. God had previously told Jeremiah and the people, "Do not go to Egypt" (42:19, NKJV). If they stayed in Judah, God promised, {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} "Do not be afraid of the King of Babylon... for I... will deliver you from his hand" (42:11, NKJV). But, "They went to the land of Egypt" (43:7, NKJV). Lord, teach me to obey You exactly, and to obey You quickly. Amen.

⁷So in disobedience to the LORD they went to Egypt as far as Tahpanhes. ⁸In Tahpanhes the LORD told me, ⁹"Take some large stones to the entrance to Pharaoh's palace and bury them under the brick pavement."

God instructed Jeremiah to do another symbolic action. Jeremiah buried large stones in the pavement of Pharaoh's headquarters at Tahpanhes in the sight of the people of Judah. Then Jeremiah announced Nebuchadnezzar would set his throne on those stones. A fragmentary inscription in the British Museum records Nebuchadnezzar actually invading Egypt in 568 B.C., killing many Jews and taking others to Babylon. Lord, teach me to listen carefully to Your commands, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} and give me insight to know Your will. {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} Then give me strength to obey You. Now I know that You punish disobedience, because You punished Jewish disobedience in Egypt, and You've punished disobedience in my life. Help me understand the bitter consequences of disobedience, {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} and always obey You totally. Amen.

10" Then tell the people that I, the LORD of the Heavens, to the God of Israel, will bring My servant Nebuchadnezzar here to Egypt, and he will set his throne and his royal tent right over the stones you buried. ¹¹He'll attack Egypt, and kill many Egyptians; {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and take others captive. 12He'll burn the temples of Egypt's gods and carry off the idols. Just as the shepherd wraps his garment around himself, so Nebuchadnezzar will wrap Egypt around himself and will return to Babylonia unharmed. 13He will demolish the columns in the temple of the sun-god and burn down the temples of Egypt's gods."

Jeremiah 44 Jeremiah Speaks to the Jews in Egypt

¹The LORD gave me this message to the Jews living in Northern Egypt in the cities of Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis and those in Southern Egypt: ²The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says, "You saw Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah. They are now empty and in ruins ³because of the evil they did. They burned incense and worshiped other gods that neither they nor your ancestors knew, and this angered Me greatly. 4I repeatedly sent My servants the prophets to urge them not to do these terrible things that I hate. 5But they wouldn't listen or turn from their wicked ways. And they kept right on burning incense to these gods. 6Therefore My fierce anger raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem so that they are in ruins today. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

7"Now I, the LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, ask why are you destroying yourselves? This coming disaster will destroy you and every man, woman, child, and baby who has come here from Judah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 8Why have you insisted on making Me angry by burning incense to idols you've made here in Egypt? You'll destroy yourselves, and people of other nations will curse and mock you. Don't forget all the sins of your kings and queens and the sins you and your wives committed. 10Even now you haven't humbled yourselves before Me or reverenced Me, and no one follows My laws and teachings I gave you and your ancestors. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

horrified at your situation and will curse and mock you. ¹³I'll punish you in Egypt just as I punished those in Jerusalem, with war, starvation, and disease. ¹⁴None of you who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or return to Judah, except for a few of the fugitives." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁵A large number of Jews from both northern and southern Egypt listened to me, including many wives who were burning incense to idols. They said to me, ¹⁶"We won't listen to your message. ¹⁷We'll continue to burn incense to Astarte, the Queen of heaven, and pour out sacrifices of wine to her {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} just as we, our ancestors, our kings, and officials did in Judah. When we did that, we had plenty of food and were well off and had no problems. ¹⁸But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of heaven and stopped giving her drink offerings, we've had nothing and have been dying from war and famine." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23}

God had destroyed Jerusalem and the temple because of the people's idolatry. Yet theirs is an example of the blindness and rebellion in this chapter. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} But now in Egypt the Israelites were saying, "Since we stopped burning incense to the queen of heaven...we have...been consumed by the sword and by famine" (44:18, NKJV). Isn't that like many in our nation today? They blame the church or God when things go wrong. Lord, forgive me when I am blinded by my sin and blame You for the hardships in my life. Help me see that it's my sin {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} that causes me problems. Forgive me my sin. Amen.

¹⁹The women added, "When we worshiped the Queen of heaven and offered her drink offerings and made cakes shaped like her, our husbands knew about it." {378 Pretend-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²⁰Then I said to all of them, ²¹"Do you think the LORD didn't know that you, your ancestors, your kings, officials, and everyone was burning incense to idols in Judah and Jerusalem? ²²When He could no longer stand your disgusting actions, He placed a curse on your land and turned it into an empty desert, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} as it is now. ²³This disaster happened because you sinned against the Lord {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} by burning incense, and disobeying His laws, teachings, and regulations." {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²⁴Then I said to everyone, including the women, ²⁵"Hear what the LORD says, you people of Judah in Egypt. The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel says, 'You said you would continue to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of heaven. So go right ahead and do what you promised. ²⁶But remember that I've said no Jew living here in Egypt {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} will ever be able to make promises in My name by saying, "As surely as the Sovereign LORD lives." {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} bring you harm and not good. You'll suffer war and starvation until all of you are dead, ²⁸ except for a very few who will be able to return to Egypt. Then you'll know whose word is true—Mine or theirs. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

²⁹"Here's how you'll know that what I've said will happen. ³⁰I'll hand over King Hophra of Egypt to those who want to kill him, just as I handed Zedekiah over to Nebuchadnezzar." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jeremiah 45 Jeremiah Speaks to Baruch

¹In Jehoiakim's fourth year as king of Judah, Baruch, son of Neraiah, wrote down on a scroll everything I told him to write. Then I said, ²"Baruch, the LORD, the God of Israel, says ³'You, Baruch, are feeling terrible {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} because of your sorrows and pains and that you can't get any rest." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

Baruch, Jeremiah's secretary, became discouraged in the work of God. So, God rebuked Baruch, "You said, 'Woe is me now. For the Lord has added grief {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} to my sorrow" (v. 3, NKJV). Lord, keep me from discouragement; help me see Your plan for my life. I yield to Your will for today. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Help me be encouraged by Your encouragement. Amen.

4"The LORD says, 'I'll tear down what I've built, and I'll uproot what I planted. ⁵So don't think of making big plans for yourself. True, I'll bring disaster on My people, but you'll escape with your life." {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

God told Baruch, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} "Seekest thou great things for thyself? Seek them not" (v. 5, KJV). Perhaps we get discouraged because we are self-consumed and things don't go the way we plan. Lord, teach me to seek Your glory and not my own. Teach me to seek great things for You {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} and not for selfish reasons. Amen.

Jeremiah 46 Jeremiah Speaks about Egypt

¹The LORD gave me several messages to give to various nations. ²Concerning Egypt He gave me these words about the army of Pharaoh Neco of Egypt who was defeated by Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylonia at Carchemish on the Euphrates River, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim's reign over Judah.

This chapter introduces Jeremiah "a prophet against the Gentiles" (nations, v. 1). Jeremiah predicts the defeat of Egypt "by the River Euphrates" (v. 10, NKJV). This was the battle of Carchemish, an important city at the ford of the Euphrates, where Nebuchadnezzar defeated Pharaoh-Necho in one of the most decisive battles in Near Eastern history. Never again was Egypt a world power. Lord, You hold the nations in Your hand and You accomplish Your plan through pagan leaders and nations. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} I worship Your majesty and power. I marvel at the "things" You use to accomplish Your will. Amen.

¹³The LORD gave me these words {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 14to announce in Migdol, Memphis, and Tahpanhes about Nebuchadnezzar's attack on Egypt: "Get ready to defend yourselves, because people everywhere are dying. 15 Your soldiers are being killed because the LORD is defeating them. ¹⁶These hired soldiers from other countries keep tripping over each other, and they want to go home. ¹⁷Yet they say Pharaoh talks big but has missed his opportunity to defeat Nebuchadnezzar. 18Egypt, I am King, the LORD of the Heavens, {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} but you need to know that the one coming against you is as tall as Mount Tabor or Mount Carmel by the sea. ¹⁹So pack up and get ready to leave as captives. Memphis will be empty and in ruins. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁵"The LORD of the Heavens, said, "I'll soon punish Amon, god of the city of Thebes, and I'll punish Pharaoh and all Egypt's gods and kings and those who trust in Pharaoh. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁶I'll hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar and his army officers. Yet later

Egypt will recover. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

²⁷"But Israel, My servant, don't be afraid or discouraged. I'll bring you home from distant lands. You and your descendants will return from captivity, and you'll again enjoy peace and security with no need to fear. ²⁸Don't be afraid, Israel, because I, the LORD, am with you. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} I'll destroy the nations {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} that have taken you captive, but I won't destroy you. Yet I must discipline you."

But in the midst of the nations that rise and fall, God promises to protect His people, the Jews. "Do not fear... I am with you... I will not make a complete end of you" (v. 28). Lord, You deal specially with the small, and Your focus is not on the multitude. Look to me, I'm small. Protect me and help me. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} Bless me and use me. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} I want my life to make a difference. Amen.

Jeremiah 47 Jeremiah Speaks about the Philistines

¹This is the message from the LORD concerning the Philistines before Pharaoh attacked Gaza: ²"An army is coming from the north like a flood. It will destroy the land and towns and people in them. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ³People will cry in terror as they hear the hooves of galloping horses and the noise of enemy chariots. Fathers will be so frightened that they will run and won't turn to help their children. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ⁴"The time has come for the Philistines to be destroyed, and no one will be able to help Tyre and Sidon. I'll destroy the Philistines, who've come from Crete. 5People of Gaza will shave their heads and Ashkelon will be silenced in grief, and others will cut themselves as they mourn. 6Now will My sword rest? Sword, I'd like for you to go back to your scabbard. ⁷But I know you can't rest until I destroy Ashkelon on the seacoast." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev.

Judgment is predicted against the Philistines, Gaza, Tyre, Sidon, and Ashkelon. "How can God's sword of judgment be quiet, seeing the LORD has given it a charge" (v. 7, NKJV)? Lord, I know judgment is inevitable without repentance, so I repent of my sins; {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} forgive me, cleanse me, and protect me in Your care. Amen.

Jeremiah 48 Jeremiah Speaks About the Destruction of Moab

¹The LORD of the Heavens gave me this message concerning Moab: "How terrible it will be for you Nebo and Kiriath-Aim, for they will be ruined and shamed, and the fortress will be broken down. ²No one will ever brag about Moab again, and men in Heshbon will plot her downfall. The town Madmen (meaning 'Silence') will be silenced because of the sword killing so many people. 3When Horonaim is being attacked, people will cry for help. 4Moab will be shattered, and even her little ones will weep bitterly {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 5on the way to Luhith on the road to Horonaim. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 6Run for your lives and hide in the desert. ⁷Your power and wealth won't save you. You'll be taken captives along with your God Chemosh and your priests and officials. 8Every town will be destroyed, the valleys will be ruined, and the flatlands destroyed because I have spoken. Spread salt on the ground to keep crops from growing, Her towns will be in ruins and empty.

10"If anyone refuses to do the work I've given you, I'll put a curse on you. 11Moab has always lived in peace. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} She is like wine left to settle, never poured from one jar to another, and her aroma is the same. 12But I'll send men to pour out the wine and smash the jars. 13Then Moab will be ashamed because Chemosh can't save her, just as the God of Bethel couldn't save Israel.

people of Dibon, sit on the packed ground and mourn, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} because those who destroy Moab will destroy you too. ¹⁹The people of Aroer will see people fleeing, and they'll ask why. ²⁰They'll answer, 'Moab has been defeated.' Weep in shame {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} as you tell everyone by the Arnon River that Moab is destroyed. 21 The cities of the flatland lie in ruins, including Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath, ²²Dibon, Nebo, Beth-Diblathaim, ²³Kiriath-Aim, Beth-Gamul, Beth-Meon, 24Kerioth, and Bozrah. ²⁵Moab's strength is broken like an animal's horn; and her arms have been broken." The LORD has spoken these words. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁶"You nations make Moab drunk because she has defied Me. She will wallow in her vomit {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and be laughed at. ²⁷You made fun of Israel and you treated them like thieves caught in the act. ²⁸Go live in the caves like doves making their nests in rocks. ²⁹We've heard of Moab's pride and conceit, her arrogance and haughtiness. 30I know her pride but it is useless, 31 and accomplishes nothing." ³²So I, Jeremiah, weep for Moab {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} and the men of Kir-Hareseth. You people of Sibmah were like a vineyard with lots of grapes. Your branches spread to the sea and north to the town of Jazer. But your enemy has destroyed your fruit and grapes. 33Your joy is gone, and no one is happy. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} You can no longer tread grapes in the winepress. 34Weeping {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} in Heshbon can be heard as far away as Elealeh and Jahaz, and weeping in Zoar can be heard as far away as Horonaim and Eglath-Shelishiyah. And even the Nimrim River is dried up.

35"I'll punish Moab," says the Lord, "because they offer sacrifices at their shrines and burn incense to their gods. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁶I groan for Moab and Kir-Hareseth like playing a flute, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} because all their wealth is gone. ³⁷In mourning people there shave their heads and cut their hands and wear burlap clothing. 38Crying is heard in every home in Moab {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} and on every street, because I have shattered Moab like breaking a jar no one wants. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁹Moab is broken and you can hear the wailing. Nations are horrified at what has happened and they make fun of her." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

⁴⁰The LORD says, "An enemy is swooping down over Moab 41 to capture its cities. Moab's soldiers will be weak like a woman in child labor. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ⁴²Because Moab defied Me, I'll destroy her. ⁴³So you people of Moab will experience terror and a trap. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 44If someone runs from terror, he will fall into a pit. And if he climbs out of the pit, he will be caught in a trap. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 45"You'll experience traps near Heshbon. A fire burns in Heshbon and a blaze from Sihon to devour the entire land with its rebellious people. 46Moab, your destruction is certain. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴⁷But in the days to come I'll restore your good days even though you worshiped your god Chemosh." This is the end of God's words of judgment on Moab.

Jeremiah delivers a prophecy against Moab because they had constantly fought God's people, and rejoiced every time persecution or destruction fell to God's people. The city Nebo was named on the Moabite stone erected by King Mesha of Moab (around 840 B.C.) to commemorate his victory over Israel (2 Kings 3:4-27). Lord, You will judge those nations who persecuted Your people Israel. I don't relish in their punishment, I pray for their salvation. I pray for those who attack Christianity and try to destroy Your work. Lord, save. Amen.

¹The LORD of the Heavens gave me this message concerning the Ammonites: The LORD says, ²"The people of Ammon worship the god, Molech, so I'll destroy the town of Rabbah and it will become a pile of ruins, and villages around it will be burned. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

those people who worship the false god Molech will be taken captives with their priests and officials. ⁴So don't boast of your beautiful valleys with all their good fruits. ⁵People all around you will make you afraid, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} but in the future I'll bring you back to your land." ⁶The LORD has spoken these words.

⁷The LORD Almighty gave me this message concerning Edom: "Where are all the wise men of Teman? Is there no advice from the wise counselors? Is their wisdom fading away? 8You people in Dedan, run and hide in caves because I'll bring disaster on Edom as a way of punishing them. 9People who harvest grapes leave a few on the vines for poor people. And thieves at night don't take everything. 10But I'll make the land of Edom so desolate that no one will be able to find a place to hide. Everyone in Edom, including your children, relatives, and neighbors, will perish. 11But I'll take care of your orphans and widows. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹²"Innocent people often suffer, so you'll certainly be punished, like drinking a cup of wrath. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹³I affirm by Myself that your city of Bozrah and its nearby towns will become a heap of trash forever and people will be horrified." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴The LORD told me He sent a messenger to say to the nations, "Prepare for battle against Edom." ¹⁵The LORD also said, "Edom, you will be a weak nation, and everyone will hate you. ¹⁶You're proud that you make others afraid, but your pride tricks you. And you are proud that you live in rock cliffs and high in the mountains. You build your nest as high as the eagle's, but I'll bring you down. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷People who pass by Edom will be horrified and shocked, and they'll ridicule you because of all your wounds. ¹⁸Your destruction will be like that of Sodom and Gomorrah and nearby towns. No one will live there anymore.

19"I'll come on Edom like a lion leaping from near the Jordan suddenly attacking sheep. I'll chase Edom from its land, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and I'll not choose just anyone to attack you. I'll do it Myself, because no leader can oppose Me. ²⁰This is what I've planned for Edom, including those who live in Teman. Little children, like lambs, will be dragged off, and I'll destroy their homes, like a sheep's pasture. 21When Edom falls, the whole earth will shake and your wailing will be heard hundreds of miles away at the Red Sea. ²²Like an eagle, the enemy will swoop down over Bozrah, and your strong soldiers will be terrified like a woman in labor." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

²³The LORD gave me this message concerning Damascus: "Hamath and Arpad are afraid because of the bad news they have heard. They are discouraged and are troubled like raging waves. ²⁴The people of Damascus have lost their courage, and in a panic they turn and run gripped by anxiety {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} and pain like a woman in labor. ²⁵Your famous city is now empty, the town I enjoyed. ²⁶Your young men will fall dead in the streets, and your soldiers will all be killed," says the LORD Almighty. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁷"I'll start a fire at the city walls, and it'll burn down the fortresses of King Ben-Hadad."

²⁸The LORD gave me this message concerning Kedar and Hazor which Nebuchadnezzar attacked: "Advance against Kedar and kill the people of the East. ²⁹Take their tents and flocks and camels and all their goods. Everywhere people will hear shouts of terror. ³⁰You people will run for your lives and stay in caves," says the LORD. "Nebuchadnezzar has plotted against you and is getting ready to destroy you. ³¹You live alone, self-confident that you are safe, even though you have no city gates or walls. 32But Nebuchadnezzar will take all your camels and cattle, and people living in distant deserts will be scattered and will face disaster from every direction. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 33Wild dogs will live in Hazor, which will be desolated forever."

³⁴Early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah the LORD Almighty gave me this message concerning Elam: ³⁵"I'll kill your archers, the best of your marksmen. ³⁶I'll bring enemies from all directions to attack you, and I'll scatter you in every direction, and you'll be captives to every nation on earth. ³⁷I'll shatter you before your enemies, and in My fierce anger {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I'll bring disaster on you. Your enemies will chase you with swords until everyone of you is killed. ³⁸I'll kill your king and officials, and I'll rule over you. ³⁹But in the future I'll bring your descendants back to your land."

This chapter begins with a prediction against the Ammonites. Like the Moabites, they were the product of an incestuous relationship (Gen. 19:38 ff.) and constantly plagued Israel. Jeremiah predicts God's judgment on the Ammonites (the territory east of the Jordan River). Lord, I know You will eventually judge Your enemies; give me patience to see Your plan on this earth. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} Give me wisdom to always act right and may I always bring glory to You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Amen.

Jeremiah 50 Jeremiah Speaks about Babylon

¹The LORD gave me this message concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians: 2"Announce what will happen and leave nothing out. Raise a flag and say, 'Babylon will be captured and her God Marduk (also called Balthazar) will be shamed and terrified.' ³A nation will attack her from the north and devastate the land. People and animals will run away, leaving the land empty. 4Then the people of Israel and Judah will weep and seek Me. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 5They'll ask the way to Jerusalem, and they'll join with Me in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt.

6"My people, you are like lost sheep; your shepherds have led you astray in the mountains. And you've even forgotten where your field is located. ⁷When your enemies found you and destroyed you, {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} they said, 'We're not guilty for attacking them, because they sinned against the LORD, their hope of their ancestors.'"

8"Israel and Judah escape from Babylonia and lead the way home. 9I'm raising against Babylonia a group of nations from the north who'll attack and capture her people. The arrows of their skilled soldiers hit their target every time. 10 Babylonia will be defeated, and soldiers will carry off anything they want. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 11You people of Babylonia were glad to rob My people. You jumped around like a calf threshing grain and made noises like a horse. 12 Babylon was like a mother to you, but she'll be the least of nations and a dry, desolate desert. ¹³No one will live there because of the LORD's anger. All who pass by her will be horrified, and they'll ridicule you because of all your wounds. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ready to attack. Archers, shoot your arrows and don't spare any, because she has sinned against Me. ¹⁵Shout on every side. She is surrendering, her towers are falling, and her enemies are tearing down her walls. I am taking revenge on Babylon {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} by doing to her what she did to others. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹⁶No one will be left in Babylon to plant or harvest crops. Let the captives hurry back to their homelands to avoid being killed by the attacking armies. ¹⁷Israel is like a flock of sheep scattered by lions. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} The king of Assyria ate them up, and then Nebuchadnezzar crushed their bones. ¹⁸Therefore I, the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel will punish the king of Babylon just as I punished the king of Assyria. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹I'll bring Israel back to their homeland, and like sheep they'll graze on Mount Carmel and in Bashan and in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead. ²⁰In those future days I'll forgive them, and their sin and guilt will be gone. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

²¹"My warriors, attack the towns of Merathaim and Pekod. Chase them and kill them all. ²²Sounds and the noise of destruction are heard in the land. 23Babylon was like a hammer pounding all the earth, but now it is broken and shattered. Babylon is desolate among the nations. ²⁴Babylon, you opposed Me, so I have set a trap for you and you are caught. ²⁵I have brought out My weapons to pour out My wrath on you. This is the work of Myself, the Sovereign LORD of the Heavens. ²⁶You enemies of Babylon come against her. Pile up the grain in her storehouses and destroy it completely with everything else. And leave no survivors. ²⁷Kill her young bulls. How terrible it will be for them too. For the time has come for them to be slaughtered. ²⁸Listen to the refugees, My people, who have escaped from Babylon. They'll tell everyone in Jerusalem how the LORD took revenge against Babylon for destroying My temple. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁹"Call for archers to attack Babylon and to surround the city so no one can escape. She has defied Me, the Holy One of Israel, so do to her what she has done to others. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ³⁰Her soldiers, all young men, will die in the streets. ³¹You proud people, I am against you. The time has arrived for you to be punished. ³²You will stumble and fall, and no one will be able to help you up. A fire in your towns will burn up everything in them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³³The LORD of the Heavens also says, "The people of Israel and Judah have been mistreated by their captors who refuse to let them go. 34But I, your Redeemer, am strong. {395 Redemptive Prayer for the Lost, Rom. 10:1} I am the LORD of the Heavens. I'll defend your case and give you rest again in Israel. {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} But for the people of Babylon there'll be no rest. ³⁵A sword will kill the people of Babylon and her officials, wise men, ³⁶ false prophets who'll be shown to be fools, and soldiers who'll be filled with terror, ³⁷horses and chariots, and foreigners who'll be weak as women. Also all her treasures will be taken away. 38 Your rivers and canals will dry up. All this will happen because Babylon is filled with idols, and the people are madly in love with them. ³⁹No one will live in the city from generation to generation. Only desert creatures, hyenas, and owls will live there. ⁴⁰The city will be destroyed just as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah and neighboring towns. No one will live there anymore.

the Jordan suddenly attacking sheep. I'll chase Babylon from its land, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and I'll appoint the leader I choose. No one can oppose Me. ⁴⁵Listen to My plans against Babylon and the land of the Babylonians. Young children will be dragged off and their homes destroyed. ⁴⁶When Babylon is captured, the earth will shake, and her cry will be heard among many nations."

Jeremiah originally exhorted Judah to submit to Babylon. Now he predicts judgment against the Babylonians. Jeremiah is not a politician, but a prophet. He explains why God used the evil nation Babylon to judge the sins of His people in Jerusalem. Why? Because God hates the lesser sins of His people. Because God's people sin with greater light; they sin against God. Lord, give me godly terror when I sin against You. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} Forgive me, cleanse me, and cast my sin away from You, as far as the East is from the West. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Don't judge me in Your anger. I plead the blood of Jesus.

{264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} Look on me in love. Amen.

Jeremiah 51 God's Judgment against Babylon

¹The LORD also says this about Babylon: "I'll send a destroyer against Babylonia and its capital Babylon (also called Leb Kamar). ²These foreigners will winnow her, blowing her away like chaff. They'll come from every direction in her day of trouble. ³Don't let Babylonian archers string their bows or soldiers put on their armor. Don't let anyone live; kill all her soldiers. ⁴Their soldiers will fall dead in Babylon's streets.

5"Israel and Judah, you are guilty before the Holy One of Israel, and yet I, their God, the LORD of the Heavens, have not forsaken you.

6"Escape from Babylon. Run for your lives. Don't stay and be killed along with Babylon because of her sins when I take revenge on her. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷Babylon has been like My gold cup from which I made nations drink the wine of My wrath and caused them to go insane. ⁸Babylon will fall suddenly. Weep for her, and give her medicine for her pain. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} Perhaps she can be healed. The foreigners answered, 'We would have helped her if we could, but nothing can help her now. We may as well go home because her judgment will be so great.' 10 The people of Israel say, 'The LORD has taken revenge on Babylon for what she did to us. Let's tell everyone in Jerusalem what the LORD our God has done.' {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15}

11"Kings of Media, sharpen your arrows and take up your shields. The LORD will use you to destroy Babylon {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} because she destroyed My temple. 12 Raise the flag and attack the city walls. Post more guards and prepare for an ambush. I'll use you to carry out My plans against Babylon. 13 Your city, Babylon, is by the Euphrates River and you have many canals. You are a wealthy city. But your end has come. 14I, the LORD of the Heavens, affirm by My own name that your city will be filled with enemy soldiers, like locusts filling a field, and they will shout their victory over you." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁵God, You made the earth by Your power {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} and wisdom, and You spread out the stars in space. ¹⁶When You speak, clouds in the heavens roar, and You send clouds. lightning, rain, and wind. 17Everyone who worships idols is foolish and stupid, and even goldsmiths are shamed by their idols because their idols are a hoax and are not alive. 18 Idols are worthless and are lies. The time is coming when they will all be destroyed. 19But You, LORD, the God of Jacob, are not like them. You created everything, {392 Recognizing God's Creative Power-Prayer, Ps. 97:5} and You chose Israel to be Your very own, and You are the LORD of the Heavens.

²⁰Then the LORD says to Babylonia, "You were my battle ax and sword. I used you to shatter nations and destroy kingdoms. ²¹I used you to destroy horses and riders and to shatter chariots and drivers. ²²I used you to shatter adult men and women, old men and young people, and young men and women. ²³I used you to shatter shepherd and flock, farmer and oxen, and governors and officials. ²⁴But now I'll repay you for what you did to My people in Jerusalem. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁵"Babylon, you are strong like a mountain in destroying the earth. But I'm your enemy. I'll raise My fist against you to roll you off cliffs and leave you a burned-out mountain. ²⁶You will be desolate forever. Even your stone blocks will never be used again for cornerstones or foundations.

²⁹"Babylon trembles and is in pain because I won't change My mind about My purposes against you. I plan to make your land a desert where no one can live. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁰Babylon's soldiers have stopped fighting. They stay in their fortresses, and they are weak like women. Houses in the city have been set on fire, and soldiers broke down her city gates. ³¹One messenger after another runs to the king to tell him his city is captured, ³²the escape routes are closed, the marshes are set on fire, and the soldiers are terrified."

³³The LORD of the Heavens, the God of Israel, says this: "The people of Babylon will soon be like wheat being trampled on in a threshing place." ³⁴Jerusalem says, "King Nebuchadnezzar has stuffed himself with our treasures, made us confused, and left us with nothing like an empty jar. Like a snake he gobbled down our riches and then spit out what he didn't want. ³⁵May Babylon be repaid for all the violence she brought on us and the blood she shed." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

³⁶The LORD, says to Jerusalem, "I'll take revenge on Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I'll dry up her river and her water supply, and ³⁷Babylon will become a pile of rubbish, haunted by wild dogs. People will be horrified and will sneer at her where no one lives. ³⁸The Babylonians will roar like hungry lions. ³⁹So I'll give them a banquet and make them so drunk they'll fall asleep and never wake up. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴⁰"I'll bring them like lambs to the slaughter or like rams and goats to be sacrificed. ⁴¹Babylon (also called Sheshach) will be captured. Babylon was praised everywhere, but nations will be horrified when they see her downfall. ⁴²Her enemies will rise over her like ocean waves and flood the city. ⁴³Babylonia's cities will be a desolate, dry desert where no one lives or even travels there. ⁴⁴I'll punish your god Marduk (also called Bel), and make him vomit everything he swallowed from other nations. The nations will no longer worship him for Babylon's walls will crumble.

⁴⁵"My people, run for your lives before I strike the city in My anger. ⁴⁶Don't be afraid when you hear rumors of armies fighting to defeat Babylon. Rumors keep coming each year. ⁴⁷But the time will come when I'll punish the idols of Babylon. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} The whole land will be disgraced and her dead will lie in the streets. ⁴⁸Then the heavens and the earth will be glad that Babylon will be attacked by armies from the north. ⁴⁹Babylon has killed many people of Israel and others throughout the world. So now her people will be killed. 50Go, you who escaped Babylon's sword. Run while you have a chance. Think about the LORD and Jerusalem even though you're in a distant land.

⁵¹"You feel ashamed and disgraced because foreigners entered My temple. ⁵²But days are coming when I'll punish her idols, and the groans of the wounded will be heard throughout the land. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ⁵³Even if Babylon's walls reach the sky and she fortifies her strongholds, I'll send destroyers against her. I, the LORD spoke these words."

54The LORD also said, "Hear the cry of Babylon and the sound of destruction throughout the land. I am destroying Babylon and silencing her. ⁵⁵Enemies are coming against her like ocean waves, and the noise of battle is heard throughout the city. ⁵⁶An enemy is attacking and destroying Babylon, capturing her soldiers and breaking their bows. I am a just God and I take revenge on nations that do not obey Me. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵⁷I, the LORD, am the King, the LORD of the Heavens who will make drunk her officials, wise men, governors, officers, and soldiers, and they'll fall asleep and never wake up again."

⁵⁸This too is what the LORD of the Heavens says: "The wide walls of Babylon will be torn down and its huge gates burned. The builders from other countries worked for nothing because their work will be destroyed by fire."

This chapter continues Jeremiah's prediction of God's judgment against Babylon. Lord, I know every sin will one day be judged. I don't rejoice in punishment of evil people. I pray for myself. Thank You that my sin was punished at Calvary {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} and now I am free from my guilt. I rejoice in Your salvation. Amen.

⁵⁹I, Jeremiah, gave this message to Zedekiah's staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah when he went to Babylon in the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign. 60I had recorded on a scroll all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon. 61So I said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, read aloud everything on this scroll. 62Then say, 'The LORD has said He'll destroy Babylon so that neither people or animals will remain there. It will be like an empty desert forever.' 63After you've read the scroll, tie it to a stone, and throw it in the Euphrates River. ⁶⁴Then say, 'In this same way Babylon and her people will sink, never again to rise because of the disasters I'll bring on her." This ends Jeremiah's messages.

Jeremiah 52 Rule of King Zedekiah

¹Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah and he reigned in Jerusalem 11 years. His mother was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. 2But Zedekiah disobeyed the LORD, just as Jehoiakim had done. ³The LORD in His anger turned His back on the people of Jerusalem and Judah and caused them to be taken into captivity. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴So on January 15, in Zedekiah's ninth year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar led his army against Jerusalem. They surrounded the city and built siege ramps against its walls. ⁵Jerusalem was under siege for a year and a half.

⁶By July 18 of Zedekiah's 11th year, the food in Jerusalem was gone. ⁷Then the Babylonians broke down a section of the wall, and Zedekiah and the soldiers in Jerusalem left the city at night through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden, though they knew the city was surrounded. They ran toward the Jordan River valley.

⁸But the Babylonians chased them and caught Zedekiah in the Jericho plains, but Zedekiah's men had scattered in various directions. ⁹The Babylonians brought Zedekiah to Nebuchadnezzar at Riblah in the land of Hamath, where Zedekiah was put on trial and found guilty. ¹⁰At Riblah the king of Babylon made Zedekiah watch while his sons and leaders of Judah were killed. ¹¹Then they gouged out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him in bronze chains, and took him to Babylon and kept him in prison till he died. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

We see "the wages of sin" in this chapter. There are consequences whenever a people reject God, or rebel against Him. Yes, God is merciful to forgive when we repent and ask for forgiveness. That's because God is a loving God. But God is also holy and He must punish all sin—whether in wicked people or in His children—so Israel was punished. Many were killed in battle, or by disease, or by execution. Only a few went into captivity. Lord, give me a holy horror for any sin in my life. I will repent and beg Your forgiveness. Lord, I fear You and worship You because Christ died for my sin. Amen.

¹²On August 17 of that year (586 B.C.), which was Nebuchadnezzar's 19th year as king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, arrived in Jerusalem ¹³and burned down the temple, the royal palace, and every house and important building in Jerusalem. ¹⁴The army then tore down all the walls around the city. ¹⁵Nebuzaradan took some of the poorest people into captivity and others who with craftsmen and troops had said they would be loyal to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁶But Nebuchadnezzar left in Jerusalem some of the poorest people to work the fields and vineyards.

¹⁷The Babylonians broke up the bronze columns, movable stones, and the bronze water tank at the temple and took the bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes, and other bronze utensils used in making sacrifices. ¹⁹They also took the bowls, fire pans, pots, lampstands, ladles, and bowls used for drink offerings, and all other utensils made of gold or silver. ²⁰They also took the two bronze columns in front of the temple, the water carts, and the water basin with the 12 bulls beneath it, which King Solomon had made. All this bronze was more than could be weighed. ²¹Each column was 27 feet tall and 18 feet around. They were hollow with the walls 3 inches thick. ²²The bronze capital on top of each column was 7 and a half feet high and was decorated with bronze pomegranates all the way around. ²³Ninety-six pomegranates were on the sides, and 100 pomegranates were on the network around the top.

²⁴Nebuzaradan took captive Seraiah the chief priest, his assistant Zephaniah, and the three gatekeepers. ²⁵Then he arrested the army commander, seven of Zedekiah's advisers, and an army officer in charge of recruitment, and 60 other citizens. ²⁶Nebuzaradan took all of them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. ²⁷And at Riblah, the king had them all killed. So the people of Judah were taken as captives from their land.

²⁸The number of captives taken to Babylon in Nebuchadnezzar's 7th year (597 B.C.) was 3,023. ²⁹In his 18th year (586 B.C.) he took 832 more, and ³⁰in his 23rd year he sent his captain of the guard, Nebuzaradan, to take 745 more. This was a total of 4,600.

Chapter 52 is nearly identical to 2 Kings 24:18-25:30. It demonstrates the prophecies of Jeremiah were fulfilled verbally, accurately, and within a short period of time. God says what He means, and God means what He promises. {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} Lord, You've promised me eternal life, and I enjoy it. You promised me a new nature, and I praise You for an inward compass to live for You. Thank You for all you've promised and for its performance. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} You are surely great! Amen.

³¹In King Jehoiachin's 37th year as a captive in Babylon, Evil-Merodach became king of Babylonia. He was kind to Jehoiachin and released him from prison on March 31 of that year (561 B.C.). ³²He was kind to Jehoiachin and treated him better than the other kings who were captives. ³³He even gave him new clothes to wear in place of his prison uniform, and he was allowed to eat at the king's table every day. ³⁴And each day until he died, Jehoiachin was given a daily allowance.

LAMENTATIONS

Key Word: Affliction found 9 times (see Lamentations 1:12)

Key Verse: "It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness" (3:22, 23).

Theme: This book was written within three months after the fall of Jerusalem in the summer of 586 B.C., before the remnant departed for Egypt (Jer. 39:2, 41:1, 18, 43:7). Jeremiah sat on a Judean hill and watched the city smolder while the few remaining inhabitants scavenged through garbage and trash looking for food. The tears of the weeping prophet are never more evident than in his crying over the destruction of the temple, the priestly sacrificial system, the Jewish culture and life as it once prospered in Jerusalem.

In the midst of the gloom, the author framed the chapters with a beautiful literary acrostic style. Chapters 1, 2, and 4 each has 22 verses, corresponding to the 22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet. The first word of each verse begins with a Hebrew letter, progressing in order through the entire alphabet. Lamentations 3 does the same thing in blocks of three verses, for a total of 66 verses (22x3 = 66). Although Lamentations 5 also has 22 verses, no acrostic mechanism is present.

The Septuagint (a Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament, 285-247 B.C.) has this introduction, "It came to pass that after Israel was taken captive and Jerusalem was made desolate, Jeremiah sat weeping and lamented with this lamentation over Jerusalem, and said..."

Jeremiah realized it was God's mercy that the remnant was not destroyed, even when God afflicted (keyword) His children for their sin and rebellion. He thanks God that His mercies are "new every morning." Then Jeremiah praised God, "Great is thy faithfulness." Lord, thank You for Your faithfulness to draw me to Yourself. Amen.

Lamentations 1 The Sorrows and Desolation of Jerusalem

¹Jerusalem used to be crowded with people, but it is now empty. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} Known all over the world, the city is now lonely and in grief like a widow. Once queen of the nations, she is now a slave. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2} ²Every night she cries, and tears run down her cheeks. Her former lovers offer her no comfort, and her friends have betrayed her and are now her enemies. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ³The people of Judah are slaves, suffering in captivity. She has no rest in foreign nations. Her enemies have chased her and defeated her. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴Even roads leading to Zion mourn because no one is traveling on them to celebrate her festivals. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} Her city gates are deserted, her priests mourn, her young women grieve, and she is bitter. ⁵Here enemies are now her masters and they prosper. She is grieving because You, the LORD, are punishing her for her sins. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Her children are captives to her enemies.

⁶Jerusalem's glory is gone. Her leaders are like starving deer that can't find pasture, and they are too weak to run. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 7In her sadness and wandering she remembers the good life she had. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} Now that she is in the hands of her enemies, she has no one to help her. In fact her enemies even laughed when their city was defeated. {104 Defenseless Cry for Help-Prayer, Ps. 109:31} 8Jerusalem's terrible sins have resulted in her being spiritually unclean. People who used to respect her now hate her because they have seen her nakedness. And she groans and hides her face. {465 Suffering-Prayer,

1 Peter 4:12, 13} 9Her sins have made her clothes filthy, and she doesn't think about what will happen. When Jerusalem fell to her enemies, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} no one comforted her. She prayed, "LORD, see my problem. {112-+ Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} The enemy has defeated us."

¹⁰The enemy stole her treasures, and she saw pagan nations enter the temple, which You, LORD, had forbidden. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} ¹¹Everyone in Jerusalem groans as they search for food. And they even trade their treasures for food to stay alive. They pray "LORD, {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} see how despised I am." ¹²Your people who pass by Jerusalem don't care about her suffering which the LORD brought on her in His anger. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

¹³You, LORD, sent a fire that burns in my bones. You set a trap for my feet and turned me back. You have left me miserable {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and weak all day. ¹⁴You bound my sins around my neck like a yoke. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} You have sapped my strength and handed me over to my enemies, and I'm helpless to do anything about it. ¹⁵You have rejected all Jerusalem's soldiers, and You have called for a foreign army to defeat her young men. And they trampled on Jerusalem, the Virgin Daughter of Judah like grapes in a winepress. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁶I weep and tears flow down my cheeks because no one comforts or encourages me. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, the enemy has defeated us. ¹⁷Zion pleads for help, but no one offers comfort. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} You, LORD, have planned that Judah's neighbors become our enemies. To them Jerusalem is like a filthy rag. 18 You, LORD, are right, but Jerusalem did not obey commands. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Everyone, look on Jerusalem's suffering because her young people have been taken away as captives. 19 Jerusalem asked her allies for help, but they betrayed her. Her priests and elders died of starvation while they were searching for food. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ²⁰Jerusalem says, "LORD, see my misery and torment. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} My heart is broken because I turned from You. In the streets people are dying by the sword and at home there is death. 21People have heard my groaning, {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} but no one offered comfort. My enemies know of my trouble and are glad for what You have done. You have promised to destroy them just as You destroyed me. ²²Look on their sins {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} and punish them just as You punished me for my sins. I groan continually, and I've lost all hope." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

KJV} My children are in distress because

Jeremiah is grieved over the sin and rebellion of God's people. It's not their loss of gold, or fine clothing, or food, or earthly things. Israel has lost the blessing of God, and Jeremiah weeps for Israel's spiritual emptiness. Lord, I've never prayed as deeply as Jeremiah; give me a burden for my lost family and friends who are destroying themselves. Teach me to cry inwardly for my sin and the sins of Christians I know. Break my heart so I will intercede for others. Amen.

Lamentations 2 God Punishes His People

¹LORD, You have cast a cloud of anger over Jerusalem, the Daughter of Zion. You have tossed Israel's beautiful city down from heaven to earth, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and in Your anger You no longer think of it as a city over which You rule. ²Without mercy You have destroyed all Israel's homes. In Your wrath You have broken down every fortress wall of Jerusalem and have tossed to the ground Jerusalem, the Daughter of Judah, and her leaders, leaving them in shame. ³In Your intense anger You have killed every leader in Israel by not protecting them when the enemy attacked. You consumed everything in Israel like a raging fire. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 4You were like an enemy shooting arrows at us, killing our loved ones. You poured out Your wrath like fire on the tent of the Daughter of Zion. 5You defeated us as if You were our enemy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} You destroyed our palaces and fortresses. And everyone in Jerusalem, the Daughter of Judah, is moaning and sobbing. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 6You destroyed the temple, Your meeting place, in Your anger You rejected both king and priests. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁷You abandoned Your altar and temple. You let Jerusalem's enemies capture her palaces. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} And Your people shouted so loudly in agony that it sounded like they were celebrating at an annual festival. 8You were determined to tear down the wall around Jerusalem, the Daughter of Zion, measuring it carefully to be sure it was all demolished, including ever fortress and every part of the wall. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 9Jerusalem's gates have fallen, and the bars to the gates are smashed. The city's king and royal family have been taken away as captives. The law is not followed, and no prophetic vision guides them. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} ¹⁰In grief Jerusalem's leaders sit on the ground in silence, have sprinkled dust on their heads, and wear coarse clothing. Young woman hang their heads in sorrow. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹¹My eyes are filled with tears {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} because of my inner pain, and I am drained emotionally {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} because many of my people are killed, and children and babies are fainting in the streets. 12 They cry to their mothers for something to eat and drink, but they faint like wounded soldiers {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} and they die in their mothers' arms. {341

Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ¹³How can I comfort you, O Daughter of Jerusalem?

{182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} as if it were a mere hut in a garden. Your people forgot its festivals and Sabbaths, and

To what can I compare your agony? Who can heal your wounds that are as deep as the sea? {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹⁴Your prophets have had visions that are false and useless. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} They did not point out your sins in order to keep you from being taken captives. Instead they gave you false and deceptive messages. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 15People who pass by make fun of you, Jerusalem, and shake their heads and say, "Is this the city people called "the Most Beautiful in All the World" and "the Joy of All the Earth?" {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ¹⁶Your enemies curse you and scoff and grind their teeth and say, "At last we have defeated Jerusalem. This is the day we've been waiting for." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁷LORD, this is what You did just as You planned long ago. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} You destroyed Jerusalem without showing any mercy, and You let our enemy boast that they were able to be strong against us, like a bull with its horns. ¹⁸LORD, our people of Jerusalem, the Daughter of Zion, cry out to You and their tears flow in sorrow like a river {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} with no relief or rest. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10}

for mothers to kill and eat their own children? Is it right for priests and prophets to be killed right in the temple? {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²¹Young and old lie dead in the streets, and boys and girls have been killed by the sword. You have killed them, LORD in Your anger, slaughtering them without mercy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²²You invited our enemies to come destroy us like inviting them to a festival. In Your anger no one escaped or survived. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} The enemy has killed all our children.

Israel thought she enjoyed a protected and privileged place in the world because of her covenant relationship with God. But in her sin, she forgot her spiritual obligation to God. Now Israel has reaped a whirlwind, because she sowed to the wind (Hos. 8:7). Lord, my nation has forgotten all that You've done for her in the past. We've won wars, we've prospered financially, and we've given to missionary endeavors around the world. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} But we've sinned against You. We've forgotten personal integrity and holiness. We've forgotten marriage fidelity and sexual purity. We've thrown public Bible reading out of the public schools, and we've forced the recognition of Christianity out of public places and our text-books. God, forgive us. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} May my nation repent before You judge her, as You judged Jerusalem. God be merciful to my nation and send a revival of Christianity {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} before it's too late. Amen.

Lamentations 3 Turn Back to God for Hope

¹I, Jeremiah, have seen much trouble because of Your wrath, God. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²You have put me in the dark, ³and You have turned against me over and over again. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁴You made me grow old and You broke my bones. ⁵You attacked me and were bitter toward me. ⁶You forced me to sit in darkness like a dead person. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

⁷You built a wall around me so that I can't escape, and You held me down with chains. ⁸When I prayed for help, You didn't listen. ⁹You put large stones in my way so that I had to follow a crooked path. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 10You even waited for me like a bear or lion, 11 and then dragged me from the road and tore at me, leaving me helpless. ¹²And You treated me as target practice, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³piercing my heart with arrows. 14My people laugh at me, and all day long they sing mocking songs. 15You have filled me with bitterness, and made my life sour. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21}

¹⁶You have even made me eat gravel, which has broken my teeth, and You have rolled me in dust. ¹⁷I have no peace and I can't remember what it's like to be successful. ¹⁸Everything I had hoped for from You is gone. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ¹⁹As I think of my suffering and bitterness, ²⁰I am emotionally discouraged, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²¹but then on the other hand I do have hope.

²²Because of Your steadfast love we are not destroyed completely, and Your tender love never fails, {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²³and it is fresh every morning. How great is Your faithfulness. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24}

In the middle of Jeremiah's lamentation (his cry of grief), he realizes that afflictions serve to keep him humble. Jeremiah turns his thoughts to the faithfulness of God by worshiping God with the phrase, "Great is Thy faithfulness" (v. 23). Lord, focus my prayers to hope in Your faithfulness. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} May I always remember the great things You've done for me in the past. May I survey the good things I have now because of Your gifts to me. So, I will look to the future with hope because "Great is Your faithfulness." Amen.

²⁴I say to myself, "You, God, are what I possess, and therefore I can depend on You." {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ²⁵You are good to everyone who trusts You and who turns to You. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ²⁶Therefore I will wait patiently for You to rescue me."

The only thing the inhabitants of Jerusalem have left is their life. "It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed" (v. 22, KJV). They are not dead. Why? "Because

His compassions they fail not" (v. 22, KJV). "LORD, thank You for life; I will live it for You. My life with You is more important than houses, clothes, food, even health. Thank You for Your compassion toward me. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} Help me to put first my relationship to You. Let things be second. Amen.

²⁷It is good for young men to be disciplined {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²⁸and to be silent before You. ²⁹After lying in humility in the dust, they may have hope. ³⁰They should let their enemies strike them on their cheeks and experience shame. ³¹But You don't desert Your people forever. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ³²You bring grief, but You also show tender love. Your steadfast love is so great. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³³You don't enjoy bringing trouble and grief to anyone.

³⁴Some people mistreat prisoners, ³⁵and deprive them of their rights in Your sight, ³⁶and refuse to be fair to them. But You, LORD, see such things. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³⁷Only what You have planned will happen, ³⁸including both calamities and good things. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ³⁹No one then should complain when he is being punished for his sins. ⁴⁰We should think about how we are living and turn back to You, ⁴¹lifting our hearts and hands to You, God of Heaven. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} ⁴²And we should admit that we have sinned and rebelled against You {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and that You have not forgiven us.

⁴³You have pursued us in Your anger and have killed many of us without any mercy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 44You have hidden behind a cloud so that our prayers can't get through to You. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 45And foreign nations treat us like garbage, 46 and they speak against us. ⁴⁷We are afraid and trapped, and are desolate and destroyed. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 48And because of this, my eyes are filled with tears. ⁴⁹I will get no relief from my tears {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} 50until You, LORD, look down from heaven and respond. 51My heart is breaking because of what enemies are doing to the young women of my city. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

⁵²My enemies, whom I never harmed, hunted me down like a bird. ⁵³They tried to kill me by putting me in a pit and throwing rocks at me. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ⁵⁴Water in the bottom of the pit covered my head, and I thought I would die. ⁵⁵But I prayed to You, LORD, {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁵⁶and You heard me say, "Listen to my plea for help. Save me." ⁵⁷Then You answered my prayer {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} and You said, "Don't be afraid."

⁵⁸LORD, I'm glad You answered me. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁵⁹You saw how they abused me, and You made things right. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ⁶⁰You saw how they plotted against me, ⁶¹and You heard their insults and evil plans against me, {374

Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ⁶²and their verbal attacks against me all day long. ⁶³No matter what they are doing, they make fun of me in their songs. ⁶⁴Pay them back, LORD, {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} for everything they have done. ⁶⁵Harden their hearts and put a curse on them. ⁶⁶Chase them in Your anger and destroy them completely beneath Your heavens. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lamentations 4 The Aftermath of the Fall of Jerusalem

¹The finest gold has lost its shine and is dull, and jewels are scattered at every street corner. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²In a similar way the people of Zion, valuable as fine gold, are treated like pots of clay.

Jeremiah reminds us that gold loses its shine, and jewels can be lost, but people are precious. Lord, remind me again of the preciousness of life. Jesus died for every unbeliever so each lost person is precious to You. You have a wonderful plan for each individual, but so many miss Your goodness and blessing. Lord, I pray for the salvation of all unsaved because they are precious to You. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} I pray for Your full blessing on all believers because they are precious to You. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} Amen.

³Wild dogs nurse their young, but my people are like ostriches that ignore their babies' cries. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁴Babies' tongues stick to the roofs of their mouths, and when children beg for bread, no one gives them any. ⁵People who ate expensive foods are now begging in the streets. They used to be dressed in royal clothing, but now they lie in piles of ashes. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁶You punished my people worse than You punished Sodom, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} which was destroyed in a moment without anyone to help.

The sins of Sodom and Gomorrah were so great that God rained down brimstone and fire upon them in judgment (Gen. 19:24). But the sin of Judah—idolatry—was worse in God's sight. "The evil of my people's city was worse than the sin of Sodom" (v. 6). God hates the sin of Christians more than the sin of unbelievers because Christians sin against more light, they know what they are doing; they sin personally against God. Lord, I will never justify my sin because it is just a "little thing." All sin is offensive in Your sight. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} Forgive me. Give me a passion for purity and obedience. Keep me from sin. Make me righteous in Your sight. Amen.

⁷Our princes were healthy with skin as bright as snow and bodies that were shining like jewels. ⁸But now they are blacker than soot and no one recognizes them. Their skin sticks to their bones and is dry and withered. ⁹Being killed by the sword is better than slowly dying of starvation. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰Tenderhearted mothers have even cooked and eaten their own children.

¹¹You, the LORD, were so angry that You burned the city of Zion to the ground. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 12No one, including even kings, believed that enemies could break through Jerusalem's gates. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹³But it happened. Why? Because the prophets and priests had sinned against You, even killing innocent people. 14Now these prophets and priests wander blindly through the streets. They are so covered with blood that no one dares touch them. ¹⁵People tell them to go away and not to touch them because they are unclean. So if they go to some foreign country, people there will say, "You can't stay here." {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} 16You, LORD, have scattered Your people, and You don't help them. No one respects the priests and leaders. ¹⁷We keep looking for some nation to come rescue us, {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} but none comes. 18We couldn't even walk in our streets because enemies were following us. We knew our end was near and our days were up. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁹Our enemies swoop down on us faster than eagles. They hunt us in the hills, and they try to catch us in the desert. ²⁰We had hoped that Your leader could help us, but he was caught in their trap. We had thought he would keep us safe no matter where we were. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²¹You people of Edom who live in the land of Uz may rejoice now. But you will suffer under God's wrath and be drunk and go around naked. ²²Daughter of Zion, you have paid for your sins, and the LORD will let you return home from captivity. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} But you people of Edom will be punished and your sins will be made known.

Lamentations 5 A Prayer of Jeremiah

¹Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us and see our disgrace. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ²Foreigners have taken our land and homes. ³We are orphans and have no fathers, and all our mothers are widows. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 4We have to buy water to drink and wood to burn. 5Our enemies are right behind us, and we are tired out. 6We begged for bread from Egypt and Assyria. ⁷Our fathers sinned, but we are left to pay for their sins. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} 8Slaves are now our rulers, and no one can rescue us. 9We went into the desert to get food, but we risked death from our enemies.

¹⁰Our skin is black from fever and hunger. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ¹¹Women and girls in Zion and all Judah have been raped, ¹²our rulers are hung up by their arms, and no one respects our leaders. ¹³Young men are forced to grind grain at the millstone, and boys are forced to carry heavy loads of wood. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ¹⁴Old men no longer sit at the city gate to decide court cases, and young people no longer play music.

¹⁵We have no joy. We moan instead of dance. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ¹⁶Our glory is gone, and how terrible it is for us all, because of our sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Jeremiah voices the heart cry of the people of Israel after Jerusalem is destroyed. This is a cry of suffering people who are sorry for their sin, "We have sinned" (v. 16). Learn four lessons from this prayer:

First, suffering has done its work. God allows His people to suffer to bring them back to Himself. Lord, I have suffered because of my sin. Sometimes my suffering is slight; sometimes it's almost too much to bear. I've learned my lesson. Forgive me. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Amen. Second, we sometimes suffer because of the sins of those who lived before us. "Our forefathers sinned... now we must suffer because of their wrong" (v. 7). Lord, forgive my sins, and don't punish my children because of my sins. But also I am suffering because of my forefathers' sin. I confess their sins, but that doesn't forgive their iniquity, but I pray to alleviate the consequences I bear (this is called identificational repentance {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} in which we acknowledge the sin of our fathers to remove the curse or consequences on our generation). Amen.

Third, God is glorified when the sins of His children are punished, because it shows God's hatred of evil and His reward for righteous living. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Lord, I know You hate my sin; forgive me. I repent and turn away from my sin. I pray like Jeremiah, "Restore our days—like they used to be" (v. 21). Amen.

Fourth, when it looks like God's work is destroyed, God is sitting on His throne in heaven. The success of God is not measured by the success of His people on earth. Not at all. The chief end of mankind is to glorify God, and God is glorified when His people do right, so He rewards them. {409 Reward for Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} God is glorified when He manifests His holiness by punishing His people when they do wrong. Lord, I worship You on Your throne. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Be glorified in my life by what I do right, and be glorified in punishment when I do wrong. But most of all be glorified in everything. Amen.

¹⁷We feel weak and tired, and our eyes are dim because of tears. ¹⁸Mount Zion is empty with wild dogs prowling in it. ¹⁹But, LORD, You remain the same forever, and You rule from one generation to another. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ²⁰Why then have You forgotten us for so long? ²¹Please bring us back to You, and make us like we were before. ²²Or have You completely rejected us and are still very angry with us? {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24}

Key Words: Son of Man found 107 times (See Ezekiel 2:1)

Key Verse: "The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him" (1:3).

Theme: Ezekiel was born into the priestly tribe (1:3), but God gave him visions, and commanded him to tell (prophesy) them to the nation of Israel. Ezekiel was carried into Babylon in the first deportation (606 B.C.). He kept before the nation the sins which led to their captivity. He also predicted Israel's return to the land of promise (Ch. 37) and described the temple in Jerusalem during the coming millennial kingdom (Ch. 40-48). Ezekiel also predicted judgment upon the surrounding nations that had oppressed Israel. There are two reoccurring phrases in Ezekiel that establish the authority of his messages; "the hand of the LORD was there upon him" (Ezek. 1:3; 3:14, 22) and "The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel" (1:3).

God calls Ezekiel "Son of Man" to remind him of his humanity because he comes from flesh; yet God used him in supernatural ways. Jesus used the same term (80 times in Luke in reference to Himself, that is, "Son of Man" to accentuate that God had come from the flesh.) Lord, Ezekiel was just human, yet You spoke to him supernaturally and used him to communicate Your message to others. In the same way, I am just human; but You speak to me supernaturally through Scripture, so I will tell Your message to others. Amen.

Ezekiel 1 Ezekiel's Vision of the Glory of the Lord

July 31st, when I (Ezekiel) was 30 years old, while I was with the Judean captives besides the Kebar River, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²This happened during the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity. ³The LORD spoke to me, {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} Ezekiel, son of Buzi, a priest, by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians. The LORD placed His hand on me.

God is waiting for you when your dreams fail, {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} just as the Lord had another task for Ezekiel when he couldn't minister in the temple. Lord, take my eyes off human things, and human expectations. Help me to see You {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} through my crushed spirit and broken dreams. When the bottom drops out of everything, {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} I will worship You sitting on Your throne. Amen.

⁴I saw a great windstorm blowing in from the north. Lightning flashed from a huge cloud, and the cloud was surrounded by a brilliant light. ⁵In the fire were four living creatures that looked like humans. ⁶But each one had four faces and four wings. ⁷Their legs were human-like, but their feet were split like calves' feet and were like polished bronze. ⁸Beneath their wings I could see human-like hands. ⁹The wings of each creature touched the wings of the two beings beside it. The creatures moved together in any direction, without turning their bodies. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

¹⁰Each creature had the face of a human in front, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of a bull on the left, and the face of an eagle on the back. ¹¹Each creature had two wings that touched two wings of the living creatures on either side of it, and the other two wings covered his body. ¹²Wherever the spirit led them, they went in that direction straight forward without turning. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

¹³The winged creatures looked like bright coals of fire, like bright torches, and lightning flashed among them. ¹⁴And the creatures themselves darted in every direction, as quickly as lightning. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

¹⁵As I looked at these creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each one. ¹⁶The wheels sparkled like a green mineral. The four wheels looked alike, but each wheel had another wheel turning crosswise within it; ¹⁷so they could go in any direction without the wheels turning. ¹⁸The rims of the wheels were large, and had eyes all around the edges. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

¹⁹When the winged creatures moved, the wheels moved too. And when the creatures flew upward, the wheels moved up too. ²⁰Wherever the spirit moved the creatures, the wheels moved too. And when the spirit moved, the creatures and the wheels moved. {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14} ²¹When the creatures moved, the wheels moved, and when the creatures stopped, the wheels stopped. And when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose too, because the spirit of the creatures was also in the wheels.

²²Above the winged creatures I saw what looked like an expanse sparkling like crystal. ²³Each creature's wings and each creature had two wings covering its body. ²⁴Whenever they flew, their wings sounded like the roar of waves washing against the shore, or like the voice of the LORD of the Heavens or the shouting of an army. When they stopped, they let down their wings. {542

Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6} ²⁵As they stood with their wings lowered, I heard a voice from above their heads.

²⁶I saw what looked like a throne made of sapphire, and high above on the throne was what looked like a human. ²⁷From His waist up He looked like glowing hot metal and from the waist down He looked like a burning flame, and surrounding Him was a bright light ²⁸like a rainbow in the clouds. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} This was the brightness of the LORD's glory. Then I fell face down, and I heard the voice of someone speaking.

Ezekiel didn't understand everything that was happening to him, and neither will you. Lord, I don't understand everything You're doing in my life. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} By faith I will serve You and leave the results to You. Amen.

Ezekiel 2 Ezekiel Is Chosen by God

¹The voice said, "Son of man stand up and I will speak to you." ²The Spirit came into me and raised me to my feet. I listened to His words. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18}

Ezekiel was filled with the Spirit (v. 2) just as believers today are commanded, "Be filled with the Spirit" (Eph. 5:18). Lord, I'm empty, and I feel so useless when I'm empty. Fill me with the Holy Spirit so I can be used by You. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} I confess my sins, and repent of them.

Cleanse me by Your blood (1 John 1:7). Use me in Your service. {432 Service-Response Prayer, Heb. 5:4} Amen.

³He said, "Son of Man, I am sending you to the Israelites, a nation that has rebelled against Me, they and their ancestors to this very day. 4They are a hardhearted and stubborn people. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.' Here's what I want you to say to them. ⁵Of course they may not listen, because they are a rebellious people, but yet they will know that a prophet has spoken to them. Don't be afraid, though you may feel at times as if you're in a thornbush or among scorpions. Don't be afraid of what they say or be frightened by them. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} 7Speak My words to them, whether they listen or not, for they are a rebellious people."

God told Ezekiel, "Don't be afraid of them (people)" (v. 6). This is the same thing God told Jeremiah (1:8). Lord, I let people intimidate me, especially unsaved people. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} Forgive me. Take away my fear of people and make me a bold witness for You. Amen.

8"You, Son of man, listen to what I say to you. Don't rebel against Me as they've done. Open your mouth and eat what I'll give you." {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} 9"Then I saw a hand stretched out to me, and it held a scroll, 10 which the hand unrolled for me. On both sides of the scroll were words of sorrow, mourning, and grief. {267

Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Ezekiel 3 Ezekiel Is Appointed as a Watchman of Israel

¹The LORD said, "Ezekiel, after you eat this scroll then go speak to the people of Israel." ²So I opened my mouth and He gave me the scroll. ³Then He said, "Eat this scroll." So I did, and it tasted like honey. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ⁴He then said, "Son of man, go to the people of Israel with My message. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁵I'm not sending you to people who speak a language you can't understand. ⁶No, I'm not sending you to people with a strange, difficult language. If I did, they wouldn't listen."

God told Ezekiel to go speak to Israel, "You are not being sent to a people whose speech you cannot understand. Their language is not difficult..." (vs. 5, 6). We are like Ezekiel; we are sent to witness to people who speak our language. Lord, I don't need a foreign tongue to witness for You. You can use the language I already know. I don't need to learn another language; I just need to speak to people I know and tell them what You've done for me; {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} but I'm usually scared or intimated. Forgive me for not being bold. Forgive me for my silence. Amen.

7"I'm sending you to the Israelites, but they won't listen to you because they didn't listen to Me. All of them are stubborn and hardhearted. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} But I've made you as hard and stubborn as they are. ⁹I've made your forehead as hard as a rock. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} So don't be afraid of them or terrified by them, even though they are such rebels."

God told Ezekiel, "I have made you as hard as a diamond" (v. 9). Lord, my problem—I'm soft. Make me hard against criticism and persecution. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} May I be hard in trials, yet have a tender heart to You. Amen.

¹⁰Then He added, "Son of man, listen carefully to what I'll say to you and then think carefully about My words. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹¹Then go to your people and say to them, whether they listen or not, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says.'" ¹²Then the Spirit of the LORD lifted me up, and as the glory of the LORD rose from its place, I heard behind me the rumbling sound of an earthquake. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ¹³This was the sound made by the wings of the creatures brushing against each other, and the sound of the wheels beneath them. {542 Worship-Roar Prayer, Rev. 19:6}

¹⁴The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I was angry and bitter. The LORD's power was on me. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ¹⁵Then I went to the Judean captives in Tell-Abib, beside the Kebar River. I sat with them for a week, overwhelmed at what had happened.

¹⁶At the end of the seven days, the LORD gave me this message: ¹⁷ Son of man, I have appointed you to be a watchman for Israel.

{529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} When you get a message from Me, pass it on to them right away. 18When I tell wicked people they'll die because of their sins, but you don't give them this warning, they'll die in their sins and you'll be responsible. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} 19If you warn them and they keep on sinning, they'll die in their sins and you won't be responsible. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁰If good people turn bad and don't listen to My warning, they'll die. So if you don't warn them of the consequences of their sins, they'll die in their sins and their previous good deeds won't help them. I'll hold you responsible for their death. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ²¹But if you warn them and they turn from their sin, they'll live, and you'll not be responsible." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

²²The LORD took hold of me and said, "Get up and get into the valley, and I'll talk with you there." 23I got up and went, and there I saw the glory of the LORD as I had seen it in my vision by the Kebar River. And I fell with my face to the ground. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ²⁴Then the Spirit took control of me, and I got up. He said, "Go, lock yourself in your house. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²⁵You'll be tied up so you can't go out. ²⁶I'll make you unable to talk with your rebellious people. ²⁷But when I give you a message, I'll enable you to talk. Then you'll say to them, 'This is what the sovereign LORD says.' Some of them will listen, {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} but others will refuse to listen because they are rebellious."

Ezekiel 4 The Siege of Jerusalem Portrayed

4"Then lie down on your left side for 390 days as a sign of Israel's punishment, {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} one day for each year of its suffering. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} of After that, lie or your right side for 40 days, one day for each year of Judah's sin. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

God tells Ezekiel to do a symbolic action, just as God instructed Jeremiah. Ezekiel would play "toy soldiers" like children use things to represent armaments, soldiers and defensive positions. Ezekiel was told to lie first on his left side, then his right. God used visual symbols because they effectively communicate truths or principles that are hard to see with the naked eye. God likes symbols because they take away any excuses, such as: I didn't understand. Lord, I will be baptized to tell the world I died with You, was buried; and rose again. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I will eat the bread of communion to know Your body was broken for me, and I will drink the cup because Your blood was spilt to take away my sin. I will respect the symbols of Christianity and learn from them. Amen.

^{9"}Get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt, and mix them together for bread. This will be food for you while you're lying on your left side 390 days. ¹⁰Eat about eight ounces of bread each day, ¹¹and drink about a quart of water each day. ¹²Make your bread like barley cakes. While the people are watching, bake it over a fire using dried human waste as fuel." ¹³The LORD then said, "Israel will eat defiled bread in Gentile lands where I'll scatter them."

¹⁴I said, "O Sovereign LORD, I have never defiled myself by using human waste. I've never made myself ceremonially unclean by eating any animal that died of sickness or was killed by wild animals or anything that You said is unclean." ¹⁵"Okay," the LORD said, "You may bake your bread using cow dung instead of human waste." ¹⁶Then He said to me, "Son of man, food and water will be rationed, and the people will be anxious and hopeless. ¹⁷Food and water will be so scarce that the people will look at each other in fear, {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} and they'll waste away under God's punishment."

The last statement of the chapter says, "They will become weak because of their sin" (v. 17). Sin weakens the will, because you've done something you know you shouldn't do. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Then sin weakens the character and inner perception of yourself. Lord, help me realize every sin has its consequences. Strengthen me {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} to stand against sin. May others see Christ in me. Amen.

Ezekiel 5 The Sharp Razor

⁵This is what the Sovereign LORD says, "This is an illustration of what will happen to Jerusalem. I have set her in the center of the nations. ⁶But she has rebelled against My laws and regulations and has been more wicked than those nations. She has refused to obey the laws I gave her."

Here's what God says about Israel's sin, "You cause more confusion (about God) than the nations around you" (v. 7). That means when Christians sin, that causes more confusion about salvation in the minds of the unsaved than anything else. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Think of all the claims of salvation from the Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, and secular attacks on Christianity. Christians harm Christianity with their sin more than criticism from any other source. Lord, forgive me when I sin against You, but please forgive me for hurting the cause of Christianity with my sin. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} I would rather die than harm Christianity. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} Keep me from sin; keep me from harm. Amen.

⁷So the Sovereign LORD says, "Since You have refused to obey My laws and regulations and are more sinful than your neighbors, ⁸I, the Sovereign LORD, am now your enemy. I'll punish you while all the nations watch. ⁹Therefore, I'm against you, Jerusalem, and I'll punish you as the nations look on. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰Parents will eat their own children, and children will eat their parents. And those who survive I'll scatter in every direction.

¹¹"As surely as I live," says the Sovereign LORD, "I'll not favor you and I'll show you no pity, because you defiled My temple as a place to worship Me with your detestable images and terrible practices. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The Lord allowed Nebuchadnezzar to destroy Jerusalem to demonstrate how strongly He felt about Israel's sin. But worse than that, the Father let Jesus Christ be tortured and suffer on the cross to tell us how strong He felt about our sin. Lord, forgive me for not taking the death of Christ seriously. It is the most important thing in eternity. Forgive me of my sin. I worship Your holiness of justice for all You did on the cross for me. Amen.

¹²"A third of you will die in Jerusalem from starvation or disease, a third will be slaughtered by the enemy outside the city walls, and a third will be scattered to the winds and pursued by soldiers with swords. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³Then My anger will be finished, and I will be avenged. Then you'll know that I the LORD spoke in My jealous anger. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴"Everyone who walks by your city will laugh at your destruction ¹⁵and every nation will make fun of you and will be horrified at what I did to you. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁶I'll shower you with deadly arrows of famine to destroy you. The famine will become so severe that you'll have no more food. ¹⁷Also wild beasts will attack you and kill your children. Disease and war will work against you, and your enemies will defeat you with their swords. I the LORD have spoken." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Ezekiel 6 Prophecy against False Worship

¹Again a message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, look toward Israel's mountains and tell them: 3'Listen, you mountains, hear what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains hills, ravines, and valleys. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} 4I'll smash every altar and I'll slay you in front of the idols of the people who worship them. 5I'll lay their dead bodies in front of the idols, and I'll scatter their bones around the altars. Every town in Israel will be destroyed, and every hilltop shrine and altar and other religious objects you have made will be smashed. ⁷Then when your people have died, the survivors will know that I, the LORD, did all this.' 8"I'll let a few of My people escape and they'll be scattered among the nations. ⁹Those who escape will remember how I've been grieved by their rebelling against Me and worshiping idols. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} They will hate themselves for all their sinful ways."

God tells Ezekiel to tell Israel, "They will remember how I was hurt when they desired to worship their idols" (v. 9). Most Christians don't realize how much God is hurt when they disobey Him and turn from Him to their sin. God has feelings of emotions, and He can be grieved. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} Lord, turn my thoughts to You; forgive me of thinking only of my happiness, or my pleasure. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Help me do things that bring joy and happiness to You. Lord, be pleased with my obedience; {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I offer to You my devotion and I will obey You today. Amen.

¹⁰"They'll know that I am the LORD, and that I'm serious when I told them all this would happen."

¹¹The Sovereign LORD says, "Son of man, clap your hands and stomp your feet in horror. How terrible it will be for Israel because of the disgusting things they did. Now they'll die by the sword, starvation, and disease. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 12Those who live far away will die from diseases, those who live nearby will die by the sword, and those who remain will die of starvation. They will all experience the fury of My wrath. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³Their dead will lie scattered by their altars on every hilltop and under every green tree and great oak tree, places where they offered incense to their idols. Then My people will know that I am the LORD. 14I'll make their country desolate from the Southern Desert to Diblah in the north. Then they'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Ezekiel 7 The End Has Come

¹Another message came to me from the LORD: ²"Son of man, tell the people of Israel that this is what the Sovereign LORD says: 'Israel has come to an end! Your whole country–north, west, east, south—is finished. ³I'll release My anger against you because of your sins and your detestable idol worship.'"

There is a point when God's patience comes to an end. God's people can sin only so long. God says to Israel, "The end has come for you" (v. 3). Is your sin wearing out God's patience? Lord, sometimes I don't pay attention to the clock. Lord, help me realize what time is left on Your clock. I want to be instant in doing the right things. I want to quickly shun evil influence. Help me to repent instantly because time means so much to You. I'm calling on Your mercy now. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} Amen.

4"'I'll show you no pity and I'll repay you for your conduct and your disgusting practices. Then you'll know that I am the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}
5The coming disaster will be terrible. 6The end has finally come. 7O Israelites, your doom has finally arrived. Soon you'll experience panic, not joy. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}
8I'll pour out My wrath and punish you for all your repulsive sins. 9I'll have no pity on you. I'll repay you for your detestable ways. Then you'll know that I, the LORD, am the one who is punishing you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

10""The day is here. Like a plant, doom has budded, and arrangence, has blessomed.

1044 The day is here. Like a plant, doom has budded and arrogance has blossomed. 114 Your violence will fall back on you as punishment for your wickedness. No one will survive, and they'll lose everything of value. 12 The time has come. Buying and selling will stop. 13 People who sell property won't be able to buy it back. Everyone must be punished for his sins. No one will survive, and I'll not change My mind. ¹⁴The trumpet is sounded to call Israel's soldiers to battle, but no one will go to war because in My anger I'll strike everyone down. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁵"People who live in the countryside will be killed by enemy swords, and people in the cities will die by starvation and disease. ¹⁶If any escape to the mountains they'll moan like doves because of their sins. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30}

¹⁷"Your hands will be limp, and your knees will be weak as water. 18In mourning you'll wear burlap, as you face terror. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} Your faces will be covered with shame, and you'll shave your heads. 19 You'll throw away your silver and gold like trash. In the day of My anger your money won't be able to save you. It won't satisfy your hunger. In fact it'll make you stumble into sin. 20 Proud of your beautiful jewelry, you used it to make detestable and worthless idols. So I'll make your idols disgusting to you. ²¹I'll give your wealth to wicked foreigners as loot. ²²I'll look away as robbers desecrate My temple. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

²³"Get chains ready to drag away dead bodies. Bloodshed and violence are everywhere. ²⁴I'll have the most wicked nations come and occupy your homes. But I'll also end their pride and ruin their temples. ²⁵You'll be terrified and you'll long for peace but none will be found. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ²⁶One tragedy will follow another, and bad news will follow other bad news. You'll want some word from a prophet, some teaching from the priests, or some counsel from the elders, but it won't be available. ²⁷Your king and his princes will be in despair, and your people will tremble in fear. I'll treat you the way you treated others, and I'll punish you for your sins. Then you'll know that I am the LORD.'" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Ezekiel 8 Ezekiel's Second Vision

¹On September 17, 592 B.C., during the sixth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, as I was talking with the leaders of Judah in my home, the Sovereign LORD took hold of me, ²and I saw something shaped like a human. He was like fire from the waist down, and bright as polished metal from the waist up. ³He reached out what seemed to be a hand, and He grabbed me by my hair. Then the Spirit lifted me up and took me to Jerusalem to the north gate of the temple's inner courtyard {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} where there was an idol that provoked God to jealousy, making Him very angry. 4Then I saw the glory of the God of Israel, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} just as I had seen it in the valley near the Kebar River.

God said to me, "Son of man, look north." And when I did, I saw that disgusting idol by the altar near the gate. God then said, "Son of man, do you see the awful sins My people are committing? {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} These detestable sins are driving Me from My temple. You'll see even worse sins than these." ⁷Then He took me to the courtyard entrance where I saw a hole in the wall. ⁸God said, "Son of man, dig into this hole." When I did, I saw a doorway there. ⁹God said, "Go in and see the wicked and detestable things the people are doing there." ¹⁰Inside I saw the walls were covered with pictures of reptiles and disgusting, unclean animals. I also saw the idols the Israelites were worshiping. ¹¹Seventy Israelite leaders were standing there, including Jaazaniah, son of Shaphan. Each one was holding an incense burner, and the room was filled with the smell of incense. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹²God said, "Son of man, do you see what terrible things these leaders are doing in the darkness, each in his own room with his idol? They say I can't see them, because they think I've deserted them. ¹³But I'll now show you something worse than this." ¹⁴Then He brought me to the temple's northgate. There I saw women mourning for the god Tammuz. ¹⁵He said, "I'll now show you even greater sins than these." {331 Old Nature-Praying, Eph. 4:22, 23}

¹⁶He brought me to the temple's inner courtyard, and there at the entrance, between the porch and the bronze altar of burnt offering, were about 25 men standing with their backs to the temple, and they were bowing down, worshiping the sun. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Chapters 8-11 include a series of visions that show Ezekiel the evils of Israel. When Ezekiel dug into the wall he found all types of unclean (abominable) animals. Ezekiel is shown 70 men (the Sanhedrin) with their backs to God in the temple, but they were worshiping the sun. Women were seen worshiping Tammuz, the Babylonian deity husband of Ishtar. Lord, You see the sins of people that they keep hidden from others. Even when people try to hide their sins, You see everything. Lord, forgive my sins; {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} cleanse me. Don't look on my sins, but look at the blood of Christ who forgives my sin. Look on me through the eyes of Jesus Christ. Amen.

¹⁷God said to me, "Have you seen this, Son of man? Is it nothing to the people of Judah that they commit these awful sins? They have also spread violence and injustice throughout Israel and have made Me very angry. They have thumbed their noses at Me and caused Me to be very angry with them. ¹⁸So in My anger I'll punish them without mercy, and when they shout to Me for help, I won't listen to them." {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Some sin is against nature and the lower animals; other sins are against persons; still other sin is against ourselves. But the worst sin of all is against God. The first of the greatest commands is "You shall have no other gods before me" (Exod. 20:3). Israel was involved in just about every type of idolatrous worship possible. No wonder God says, "I will act in anger" (v. 18). Lord, keep me from all types of sins, {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} especially sins against You. Idon't want You angry with me.

I repent of all sins {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}, and I want to be clothed in the righteousness of Jesus Christ. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} I want to stand perfect before You. Amen.

Ezekiel 9 God Punishes the Idolaters

¹Then the LORD spoke in a loud voice, "Come to Jerusalem, you men I've chosen to destroy the city. Bring your weapons." ²I saw six men come from near the city's upper gate which faces north. Each one had a deadly weapon. With them was a man clothed in linen who had things to write with. They all stood beside the altar of burnt offering. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³God's glory went from the winged creatures {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and moved to the temple entrance. The LORD said to the man in linen with a writing kit, ⁴"Go through Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of those who are sad about the disgusting things being done in the city." {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21}

God sent men (angels) who had charge over Jerusalem to go through the city, "Put a mark on the foreheads of the people who groan" (v. 4). The term groan meant both surprise and anguish. Are you surprised when sin creeps into your life or the life of other Christians you know? {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Do you even groan when you see sin in any Christian? {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} Lord, surprise or shock me when I see sin in my life. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} Then may my sigh turn to groans of conviction and displeasure. Lord, give me a hatred for sin. Amen.

⁵I heard the LORD say to the six men, "Follow him and kill everyone who does not have a mark on his forehead. Show no mercy. ⁶Kill old men, young people, women and children. But don't harm anyone who has the mark. Begin here at the temple." So the men began with the old men who were in front of the temple. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Those who sinned were killed in the vision. But good news; those who were marked because they groaned, were not touched but were protected. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} (vs. 6, 11). Lord, I know You preserve those who love and obey You. Because I love and obey You, I have confidence {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} that You will preserve me in the day of judgment. Amen.

⁷Then the LORD said to the six men, "Defile the temple by filling the courtyards with the corpses of those you kill." So they went through the city and did as they were told. ⁸While they were carrying out their orders, I was alone. I fell to the ground on my face and I said, "O Sovereign LORD, in Your anger will You wipe out everyone in Jerusalem?" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 'He answered, "The sins of Judah and Israel are so great. The land is filled with blood, and the city is full of injustice. The people think that because I've forsaken the land, I don't see them. ¹⁰Therefore I'll not spare them or have pity on them. I'll repay them for what they've done." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹¹Then the man in linen with the writing kit said, "I've done as you commanded."

Ezekiel 10 The Creatures

¹Above the winged creatures I saw what looked like a throne of sapphire. ²The LORD said to the man in linen, "Go between the whirling wheels under the creatures and take burning coals in your hands and scatter them over Jerusalem." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I watched as he followed the LORD's instruction.

³The winged creatures were standing at the south side of the temple when the man went in, and the cloud of the LORD's glory filled the inner courtyard. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁴The LORD's glory rose from above the winged creatures and moved to the temple entrance. The cloud filled the entire temple, and the courtyard was glowing brightly. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁵The sound of the wings of the winged creatures could be heard in the outer courtyard. It was like the voice of the LORD of the Heavens when He speaks. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

6The LORD told the man in linen to take some burning coals from between the wheels under the winged creatures. So the man went in and stood beside a wheel.

⁹Each of the winged creatures had a wheel beside it, and the wheels sparkled like a green mineral. 10 All four wheels looked the same, and each had a wheel turning crossways within it. 11 The wheels moved together whenever the creatures moved so they could go in any direction without the wheels turning. 12The creatures' bodies including their backs, hands, and wings, and also the wheels, were covered with eyes. 13I heard a voice referring to the wheels as "the whirling wheels." 14The winged creatures each had four faces-the faces of a bull, a human, a lion, and an eagle. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7}

¹⁵Then when the winged creatures, the ones I saw by the Kebar ¹⁶River, moved, the wheels beside them moved, and when the creatures spread their wings to rise from the ground the wheels were by their side. ¹⁷When the creatures stopped, the wheels stopped. And when the creatures rose into the air, the wheels rose with them. This is because the spirit of the winged creatures was in the wheels. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD moved from the temple entrance and stopped above the winged creatures. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁹They spread their wings and flew into the air with the wheels beside them. They stopped at the east gate of the temple, and the glory of the LORD was over them. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁰These were the winged creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ²¹Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings were what looked like human hands. ²²They had the same four faces as those near the Kebar. Each creature moved straight ahead without turning.

Ezekiel sees a horrifying vision that begins (v. 8:4, KJV) when "He saw the glory of the God of Israel." This was the Shekinah (this word means glory) cloud that led Israel daily through the desert for 40 years. This was the cloud that went up to stand between Israel and the menacing army of Pharaoh (Exod. 14:19-20). This cloud sat on the top of Mount Sinai because God's presence was in the cloud when the LORD dwelt with His people.

When Solomon dedicated the temple, this cloud filled the temple. The fire came down from heaven... "the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house" (2 Chron. 7:1, KJV). Why was this a horrifying vision? Because Ezekiel saw the slow departure of God from the temple. Since God was going to allow the Babylonians to destroy the temple, he would no longer be the temple's protector, and surely no enemy could tear down the temple when God was present in it.

First, Ezekiel saw the Shekinah cloud lift up into the air from its usual place on the sacred chest. "The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub where upon He sat" (9:3). It was as if God was waiting for someone to cry, "God, don't leave us." But there was no warning. No one cared that God was leaving.

Next, "The glory of the LORD... stood over the threshold of the house" (10:10). Doesn't someone linger at the front door before they leave? That's what God did. He was lingering because He wanted someone to ask Him to stay. The people were so spiritually blinded; they couldn't see God was leaving. Next, "The glory of the LORD... departed from off the threshold" (10:18). God lifted high above the temple. Was God waiting high above the temple so all could see that He was leaving? But only Ezekiel, 500 miles away, could see the vision of God leaving. Finally, God went to the East of the city and tarried over the Mount of Olives. "The glory of the LORD... stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city" (11:23). In the Old Testament, God's glory left His people from the Mount of Olives. In the New Testament, Jesus ascended back into heaven from the same place (Acts 1:9-12).

Lord, don't leave me or my church the way You departed from the temple. Stay with me; I need Your protection and power, but most of all, I want to worship You.

Lord, thank You for tarrying and giving Israel another chance to repent. If I ever sin against You, tarry in my life; give me another opportunity to repent and call out to You. I need You desperately.

Also, there is another interesting picture that Ezekiel saw. An angel took coals of fire from off the offering and scattered them throughout the city (10:2). Was this the fire of conviction spread over the people of Israel to bring them back to God? {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Or, was this the fire of judgment, that is, that God was coming to punish them? Lord, before You punish my nation for her sins, give her an opportunity to repent {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} and cry out for revival. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} Amen.

Ezekiel 11 Judgment against Jerusalem

¹The Spirit of the LORD lifted me up {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and took me to the east gate of the temple where I had seen 25 men, including two leaders: Jaazaniah, son of Azzur, and Pelatiah, son of Benaiah. ²The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these men are giving wicked counsel to the people of Jerusalem and are making evil plans. ³They say, 'Now is not a good time to build more houses. This city is like a cooking pot, and we are the meat.' ⁴Therefore prophesy against them, Son of man." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

⁵Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me, and he told me to say this to the people: "This is what the LORD says: 'I know what you are saying, but I also know what you are thinking. 6You have murdered so many people that the city is filled with dead bodies. 7Yes, the slain bodies are the meat, and the city is like a cooking pot. So I'll force you out of Jerusalem. 8You fear the sword, but that is exactly what I will bring against you,' says the Sovereign LORD. 9'I'll force you out of the city and I'll send armies to attack you, and punish you. 10 You'll be slaughtered all the way to Israel's borders, and then you'll realize that I, the LORD, have done these things. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ¹¹No, this city will not protect you like a cooking pot. I'll execute judgment on you at Israel's borders, not in the city of Jerusalem. 12You'll know that I am the LORD, {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} and that you have not obeyed My decrees or kept My laws, but instead have become like the nations around you." 13As I was prophesying, Pelatiah, son of Benaiah died. Then I fell on my face and said loudly, "LORD, do you plan to kill everyone in Israel?" {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

¹⁴The LORD said to me, ¹⁵"Son of man, the people still left in Jerusalem claim that their relations who were taken captive to Babylonia are too far away to worship Me and so He has given this land to us. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁶Therefore I the Sovereign Lord, say to the captives in Babylonia, 'Although I scattered you among the world's nations, I will be with you wherever you are so you can worship Me."

Even though the glory cloud was leaving Jerusalem, God was not completely forsaking His people. God promises, "yet I have become a temple to them in the countries where they have gone" (v. 16). When they couldn't have the temple, they could have God's presence as a personal or "little sanctuary." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Now in the New Testament, the Holy Spirit is not only with us, He dwells within us, {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} "He dwells with you and will be in you" (John 14:17). Lord, come dwell in my body and be glorified in the things I do. I worship You for Your holiness, and I praise You for Your indwelling. Amen.

17"'I, the Sovereign LORD will gather you from the nations and bring you back from where you were scattered, and I'll give you the land of Israel again. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁸When that happens, you are to remove all disgusting idols. 19Then I'll give you a singleness of heart, and I'll put a new Spirit in you. I'll take away your stubborn hearts of stone and give you tender hearts. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ²⁰Then you'll follow My regulations and obey My statutes. You'll be My people and I'll be your God. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 21But I'll punish those who worship idols, I, the LORD, have spoken."

²²Then the winged creatures with the wheels beside them, spread their wings that were above them. {14 Angel-Appreciation

Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ²³Then the glory of the LORD went up from Jerusalem and stopped above the mountain east of the city. ²⁴The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the captives in Babylonia in the vision God gave me. Then the vision of my visit to Jerusalem faded away, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} ²⁵and I told the captives everything that the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12 What the Exile Will Be Like

¹Again a message came to me from the LORD: "Son of man, you are among a rebellious people. They have eyes but they don't see and ears but they don't hear. ²So pack your things as if you were going into exile. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ³And in the daytime as they watch you go from Jerusalem to another location, perhaps they will understand, though they are rebellious. 4Then in the evening while they are watching, go out as though going on a long march into captivity. 5Then while they are watching, dig a hole through the wall in your house and carry out your things with you. 6Load them on your shoulders while they are watching, and go out like those going into captivity. Cover your face so you can't see the land. All these actions are a sign to the people of Israel." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

⁷So I did as the LORD told me. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I packed some things as if I were going into captivity.

Then in the evening I dug through the wall of my house with my hands. While the people watched, I went out in the evening, carrying my few things on my shoulder. ⁸The next morning the LORD said, ⁹"Son of man, those rebellious people asked what you were doing. 10So say to them, 'The Sovereign LORD says these things pertain to Zedekiah and all of Israel.' 11"Say to them, 'I am a sign to you, to show you what will happen to you. You will be taken away as captives.' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 12Zedekiah will place things on his shoulder and leave at night through a hole dug for him in the wall. And he'll cover his face so he can't see the land. 13I'll spread out a net for him and catch him in My snare as he tries to leave Jerusalem. I'll lead him away to Babylon, but he'll never see it, though he'll die there."

Ezekiel is told the people are spiritually rebellious to God, "They have eyes to see, but they do not see. They have ears to hear, but they do not hear" (v. 2). Just as in Ezekiel's day, there are many today who are blinded to spiritual truth. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} Why? Because they don't want to see or hear what God wants them to do. Lord, speak, I will listen. Lord, show me truth in Scripture, I will see what You say, and I will obey. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} If I ever miss your words, shout in my ears; don't let me wander into hardness, only to become brittle. Give me a soft heart. Amen.

¹⁴"I'll scatter in every direction his officials and troops, and I'll track them down with the sword. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁵Then when I force the remaining people in Jerusalem to live in foreign countries, they'll know that I am the LORD."

While Israel will not acknowledge the Lord before the captivity, after God punishes Israel, "Then they will know that I am the Eternal One, the LORD." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} Lord, I will acknowledge You before You punish my sin, so I will not suffer any consequences of my transgressions. Forgive me {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} before I cry, and cleanse me before I ask, {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} for You are my God. You are a pardoning God, full of mercy and forgiveness. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} Lord, I plead Your mercy. Amen.

starvation, and disease. That way, they can confess to their captors how terrible their sins were. Then they'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷Again the LORD said, ¹⁸"Son of man, tremble as you eat your bread and shudder as you drink your water. ¹⁹Then tell the Israelites, 'The LORD says that you people will eat your food and drink your water in fear because your land will be stripped bare because of your violence. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ²⁰Every town will be destroyed and the land will be like a desert. Then you'll know that I am the ²¹Again the LORD said to me, ²²"Son of man, you know that proverb that says, 'As time passes, every prophet is proved a liar.' ²³Tell your people I'll put an end to that saying and people will no longer quote it because I'll replace it with this proverb: 'The time is near when every prophecy will be fulfilled.' {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ²⁴There will be no more false visions or misleading predictions about peace in Israel. ²⁵What I predict will be fulfilled without delay, you rebels of Israel. I'll fulfill My predictions about you," says the Sovereign LORD.

²⁶The LORD said to me, ²⁷"Son of man, the people of Israel are saying that My visions won't come true for many years from now, and that all My prophecies pertain to the distant future. ²⁸So give them this message from Me: 'My words will soon come true; there'll be no more delay. {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7} I'll now do everything I have predicted."

Ezekiel 13 Judgment against False Prophets

¹The LORD said, ²"Son of man, speak against the false prophets of Israel who are giving their own prophecies. Tell them to listen to My Word. ³I say, how terrible it will be for false prophets who make up their own prophecies and say nothing. ⁴⁸⁶ Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. ^{3:7}} ⁴Your prophets, Israel, are like wild dogs digging around for food among ruins.

⁵They haven't repaired breaks in the city walls to help it be firm in the battle on the day of the LORD. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 'Your visions are false and your predictions are a lie. They say, 'My message is from the LORD,' but I never sent them. Yet they still think their words will come true. ⁷They say their messages are from Me, but I never sent them." 8Therefore the Sovereign LORD says, "I'm against you because of your false words and lying visions. 9I'll be against prophets whose visions are false and whose prophecies are lies. They'll not be allowed to call themselves Israelites and they'll not be allowed to be in My land. Then you'll know that I am the Sovereign LORD."

The false prophets will not inherit eternal life, for God condemns their "vanities" and "lies" (v. 9). The King James describes "neither shall they be written in the writings" (v. 9). This is a reference to the "Book of Life" (Rev. 3:5; 20:15); their names will not be written there. Lord, I believe in You, and have accepted Jesus Christ as my Savior. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} My name is written in the Book of Life. Thank You for that inner confidence. Amen.

10"These prophets tell My people there will be peace, but there's no peace anywhere. They are people who built a flimsy wall and then tried to strengthen it with paint. 11Tell these painters that the wall will collapse under rainstorms, hailstorms, and windstorms. 12Then the people will ask the workers, 'Why didn't the paint hold up the wall?'

¹³"Therefore, I the Sovereign LORD, say, 'I'll make a violent wind, hailstorms, and a rainstorm fall in My anger to destroy your city. ¹⁴I'll tear down your painted wall, leveling it to the ground with only the foundation showing. When it falls, it will crush you. Then you'll know that I am the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁵The city of Jerusalem and the prophets will feed My anger. Then I'll announce that the ¹⁶prophets in Jerusalem who predicted peace when there was no peace are dead.' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

17"Now, Son of man, condemn the women of Israel who preach messages they make up. 18 Say to them, 'How terrible it will be for women who wear magic charms on their wrists and make veils of various lengths to trick people into thinking they can predict the future. Will you trap the lives of My people but preserve your own? 19 You charge My people a few handfuls of barley and a couple pieces of bread and then give messages that insult Me. By lying to My people who love to listen to lies, you kill those who should live, and you let live those who should die." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

know that I am the LORD. ²²You discouraged the righteous with your lies, and you encouraged the wicked by promising them life if they continue sinning. ²³But you'll no longer talk about visions you didn't see or make false predictions. I'll save My people from your grasp. Then you'll know that I'm the LORD." {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

The false teachers and those who encourage others to false doctrines will be punished by God. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} First, because they disobey God's commands, and second, because they harm others. "By your lies, you counsel the heart of the person... not to stop being evil" (v. 22). Lord, keep me from the influence of false teachers. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} Holy Spirit, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} I ask You to guide me into truth (John 16:13). May I never influence others to believe the wrong thing about the Bible. I want my doctrine to be accurate and I want to teach others accurately. Amen.

Ezekiel 14 Judgment against Idolaters

¹One day some of Israel's leaders came and sat in front of me. ²Then the LORD said, ³"Son of man, these men have set up idols secretly in their hearts, and these idols will cause them to stumble in sin. So I refuse to give them a message."

A group of men came to Ezekiel "and sat down in front of me" (v. 1). That meant they wanted to inquire of the LORD through Ezekiel. God told Ezekiel, "These men love to worship idols" (v. 3). Then God said, "Shall I allow them to ask Me for help" (v. 3)? God, who knows the hearts of all, hates hypocrisy. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} Lord, I want to be totally honest with You, {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} but sometimes I don't even know my own heart (Jer. 33:3-4). Forgive my ignorant sin, and cleanse me. Keep me from hypocritical sin; help me deal honestly with my sin. "Search me O God, {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} and know my heart, try me and know my way: and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting" (Ps. 139:23-24). Amen.

4"Therefore tell them that if they worship idols, even in their hearts secretly, and then they go to a prophet to see what I'll say, I'll answer them Myself. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 5And I'll do this to capture the hearts and minds of My people who have turned from Me to worship idols.

6"Therefore tell the Israelites to turn from their idols and stop all their atrocious practices. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 7When any one of your Israelites or any foreign resident rejects Me and sets up idols in his heart and falls into sin, and then goes to a prophet to ask My advice, I'll answer him Myself. 8I, the LORD, will turn against him and punish him by making him a byword, one people talk about, and I'll answer him Myself. Then you'll know that I am the LORD." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

9"If a prophet is deceived and gives a message anyway, I am the One who caused him to lie. I'll reject him and cut him off from My people. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10 And anyone who goes to a false prophet will be punished in the same way. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} 11I'll do this so Israel will return to Me and stop defiling themselves with their disgusting sins. They'll be My people and I'll be their God," says the sovereign LORD. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

¹²Then the LORD said, ¹³"Son of man, suppose an entire nation sins against Me, and I punish it by destroying the crops by a famine, resulting in both people and animals dying of starvation. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁴Even if Noah, David, and Job lived there, they would only be able to keep themselves alive because of their righteousness," says the Sovereign LORD. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

¹⁵"Or if I send wild beasts into the country and they kill all the children, and leave the country desolate, ¹⁶even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, they couldn't rescue their sons or daughters. Only they alone would survive. ¹⁷Or if I bring a sword against the country to kill men and animals, ¹⁸again I affirm that if these three men were there, they couldn't rescue their sons and daughters. Only they alone would survive. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

¹⁹"Or suppose I poured out My wrath by sending a terrible disease that killed both people and animals. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were living there, they could not rescue their sons or daughters. Only they alone would survive because of their righteousness.

²¹"I, the Sovereign LORD, will punish Jerusalem by sending war, starvation, wild animals, and disease to kill all your people and animals. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²²Those who survive will be taken to Babylonia. When you see how sinful they are, you'll realize why I did these things to Jerusalem. ²³You'll be convinced that I've done the right thing."

Ezekiel 15 Jerusalem Is Like a Useless Vine

¹Again the LORD, said to me, ²"Son of man, how does the wood of a grapevine compare to a tree branch? ³The wood of a grapevine can't be used to make anything, not even pegs to hang things on. ⁴It can be used only as firewood. But after a fire burns the ends and chars the middle, it is useless. As fuel it burns too quickly. ⁵Before it was burned, it was useless, and after it is burned, it is completely useless. ⁶"I, the Sovereign LORD, promise that just as the wood of a grapevine is burned as firewood, ⁷so I'll punish Jerusalem with fire. If they escape from one fire, they'll fall into another. When this happens, you'll know that I am the LORD. ⁸And I'll make Israel's land a desolate wasteland because the people have been unfaithful. I, the Sovereign God, have spoken." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

God says Israel is like a vine, and the nature of a vine is fruit bearing. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}. A vine is useless for lumber to build or to heat. When a vine's fruit bearing ceases, pull it up and burn it up. Thus, Israel is no longer useful to God, so the nation will be destroyed. Lord, I want to be fruitful to You; {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} it grieves me when I don't produce fruit for You. Let the Holy Spirit fill me {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} to produce the fruit of the Spirit in character (Gal. 5:22-23). Let the Holy Spirit use me to win someone {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} to salvation. Amen.

Ezekiel 16 Israel Worshiped Idols and Foreign Gods

¹The LORD spoke to me yet again. ²"Son of man, confront the people of Jerusalem about their terrible sins. ³Give them this message from Me: 'Jerusalem, you were born in the country of the Canaanites, and your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴When you were born, no one cut your cord or washed your body. No one rubbed you with salt or dressed you in warm clothing. ⁵No one loved you enough to do these things for you, and no one felt sorry for you. You were despised and thrown out into a field left to die.

6""Then I saw you lying there, kicking in your own blood. I said, "Live." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 7I helped you grow like someone caring for a tender young plant: you grew up to be a beautiful young woman with full breasts and long hair, and yet you were still naked. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} When I saw you again, you were old enough to be married. So I covered you with My own robe. Then I promised that you belong to Me, and that I, the Sovereign LORD, will take care of you. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 9I washed the blood off of you and rubbed you with olive oil. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁰I gave you expensive clothes of linen and silk, and sandals made from the best leather. 11I gave you jewelry, bracelets, and a necklace, 12 and a ring on your nose, and earring for your ears, 13 and adorned you in gold and silver, and your clothes were made of only the finest material and embroidered cloth. Your food was fine flour, honey, and olive oil. You became very beautiful, much like a queen. {33 Beautiful-Prayer, Rev. 21:19} ¹⁴Your beauty I gave you became known around the world.

¹⁵"Unfortunately you trusted in your beauty and fame and you became a prostitute. You offered yourself to every man who came along. ¹⁶You made shrines and decorated them with some of your clothes, and you carried on your prostitution there. These things should never have happened.

¹⁷You made idols out of the gold and silver jewelry I gave you and you worshiped those idols. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ¹⁸You put on them some of the clothes I gave you, and you offered them oil and incense. ¹⁹I gave you fine flour, olive oil, and honey to eat, but you sacrificed them to the idols.

²⁰"But worse than that, you sacrificed your sons and daughters as food to the idols. 21You slaughtered My children and sacrificed them to the idols. ²²You never once thought about the days when you lay naked in a field, covered with your own blood. 23'How terrible for you,' says the Sovereign LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Besides all these wicked things, ²⁴you made a shrine for every public square. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁵By these shrines you offered your body to everyone who passed by. ²⁶You even offered yourself to the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors, and that increased My anger. ²⁷So I punished you by letting the Philistines take over some of your land. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Even they were shocked by your sinful conduct. ²⁸Then you slept with the Assyrians. But still you weren't satisfied, ²⁹so also you had sex with the Babylonian merchants but that didn't satisfy you either. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

³⁰"You have such a sick heart,' says the Sovereign LORD, 'that you do such things, acting like a disrespectful prostitute. ³¹You build shrines on every street corner and altars to idols in every city square. You were so eager for sex that you refused payment for your services. ³²As an adulterous wife you prefer love with strangers rather than your husband. ³³Prostitutes receive payment for sex, but you give gifts to your lovers bribing them to come to you. ³⁴You aren't like other prostitutes. No one pays you; you pay them. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

35" Jerusalem, you prostitute, hear this message from the LORD. ³⁶You exposed yourself to your lovers, you worshiped disgusting idols, you sacrificed your children to those idols. ³⁷Therefore I, the LORD God, will gather all your lovers, those you liked and those you didn't. I'll strip you naked in front of them and they'll stare at you. ³⁸I'll judge you for being an unfaithful wife and a murderer, and I'll cover you with blood in My jealous anger. ³⁹Then I'll give you over to your lovers, those many nations, and they'll tear down your altars and shrines. They'll take your clothes, and your jewelry, leaving you naked and ashamed. 40An angry mob will stone you to death and cut you to pieces with their swords. 41They'll burn down your houses and punish you as other women look on. I'll stop you from being a prostitute and paying your lovers. 42Then I'll be calm and no longer be angry and jealous. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴³You didn't remember how I took care of you in your youth, but instead you made Me mad with all these disgusting things you've done. You made things worse by acting like a prostitute. So I'll punish you," says the Sovereign LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴⁴"People will quote this proverb about you: 'Like mother, like daughter.' ⁴⁵Your mother hated her husband and children, and your sisters hated their husbands and children. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite. ⁴⁶Your older sister was Samaria, the city to the north. Your younger sister was Sodom, the city to the south. ⁴⁷You followed their wicked ways and soon became more sinful than they were.

⁴⁸"As surely as I live," says the Sovereign LORD, "the people of Sodom and its villages were not as sinful as you are. ⁴⁹They were arrogant, gluttonous, and lazy, but she did nothing to help the poor and needy. ⁵⁰They were haughty and did terrible things before Me, and so I destroyed them.

⁵³"Someday I'll bless Sodom and Samaria, and you too, Jerusalem. ⁵⁴Then you'll be ashamed of what you've done. And they'll feel good in comparison to you. ⁵⁵Your sisters, Sodom and Samaria, and their villages will be like they were before. And so will you. ⁵⁶Jerusalem, you were so arrogant you wouldn't even mention Sodom. ⁵⁷But now Edom and the Philistines and their villages hate you and despise you. ⁵⁸You'll pay for all the disgusting things you've done. I, the LORD, have spoken. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁵⁹"Jerusalem, you'll be punished because you didn't keep our agreement. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5] ⁶⁰But I'll keep the agreement I made with you when you were young, {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} and I'll make an everlasting promise. ⁶¹You'll be ashamed when I make your sisters, Samaria and Sodom, as your daughters, even though they aren't part of our agreement. ⁶²I'll keep this promise, and you'll know I am the LORD. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ⁶³I'll make a substitutionary payment for your sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} But you'll be too ashamed even to mention your sins," says the Sovereign LORD. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

God shows a picture of His love for Israel where He chose Israel to be His wife. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} He abundantly lavished His protection and riches on her. Even when Israel defected from the LORD, He dealt with Israel in grace and mercy. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} But adultery and idolatry are intermingled. In idolatry, Israel turned to love idols, then worshiped foreign gods, and venerated them. As always, when the heart turns from the LORD, love of the world's system quickly follows. Lord, keep me from spiritual adultery; {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} may I never love or serve anything in place of You. I know I have a double-minded heart; forgive my inclination to sin. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Keep my eyes focused on You. I love You with all my heart. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} May I always do so. Amen.

Ezekiel 17 A Parable about the Eagles and the Vine

¹The LORD said to me, ²"Son of man, tell this story to the people of Israel. ³A big eagle with strong wings and pretty feathers flew to Lebanon. He grabbed the top branch of a cedar tree, ⁴and broke it off and carried it away to a city of merchants where he planted it. ⁵He took some seed from Israel and planted it in fertile ground beside a river like a willow tree. ⁶It grew into a spreading vine. Its branches grew up toward the eagle, and its roots grew strong beneath it. It had lots of strong branches and lots of leaves. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

7"Then another eagle with strong wings and thick feathers came along. The vine extended its roots and branches toward the eagle for water. 8The vine was already planted in good soil by lots of water so it would become a good vine with lots of leaves and delicious grapes. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} 9So I, the Sovereign LORD, ask, 'Should I let this vine grow? No, I'll pull it out by the roots. Its fruit will be cut off and its leaves will wither and die. It won't take a strong arm or a large army to pull it up by the root. ¹⁰Even if its transported, it won't survive. It'll wither when the desert wind blows against it."

¹¹The LORD said, ¹²"Say to the rebels of Israel, 'Do you know what this story means? I'll tell you,' says the Sovereign LORD. 'The king of Babylonia came to Jerusalem and carried off her king and officials to Babylon as captives. ¹³He chose a member of the royal family of Jerusalem and signed a treaty with him and made him agree to be loyal. He also led away many of Judah's top leaders. 14So Judah could never be strong again. 15But this new king of Judah rebelled against Babylonia, sending to Egypt for horses and troops. Can Israel get away with breaking her treaty with Babylonia? {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁶No. For as surely as I live,' says the Sovereign LORD, 'the king of Israel will die in Babylon because he'll break the treaty he made with the king of Babylonia. ¹⁷Pharaoh and his army in Egypt won't help Judah when the king of the Babylonians builds siege ramps against the wall of Jerusalem. He'll kill many in Jerusalem. 18 Because the king of Israel broke his treaty, he won't escape.' {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹⁹"As surely as I am the living Sovereign LORD, I'll punish him for breaking the agreement he said he'd keep. He has despised My name, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁰so I'll throw a net over him to trap him. Then I'll bring him to Babylon and punish him there because he was unfaithful to Me. ²¹His troops will run away, but they'll be killed in battle, and survivors will be scattered in every direction. Then you'll know that I, the LORD have spoken these things. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²²"I'll take a tender branch from the top of a tall cedar, and I'll plant it on the top of Israel's highest mountain. ²³It will grow branches and produce large fruit. All kinds of birds will find shelter in the tree under its branches. ²⁴Every tree will know that I, the LORD, can cut down tall trees and make green trees wither, and I can give life to dead trees. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I said."

Ezekiel speaks God's predictions. First, Nebuchadnezzar will take King Jehoiakim to Babylon (that is, 597 B.C. v. 12). Second, Nebuchadnezzar will make Zedekiah a "puppet king" to rule for Babylon (v. 13). Third, Zedekiah will break his treaty (covenant) and seek help from Egypt (vs. 13-17). Fourth, Zedekiah will break his covenant with Babylon and rebel against God (vs. 18-19). Fifth, Zedekiah will die and his troops be defeated (vs. 20-21). Lord, You know the future because You live there. You predicted what will happen in the future. You know Your people will rebel against You, but You still give them opportunity to repent. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} You are a merciful and tender Lord; thank You for forgiveness {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and kindness to me. Help me be worthy of Your love. Amen.

Ezekiel 18 The Righteous Person Will Live; The Sinner Will Die

¹Again the LORD said, ²"You people quote this proverb: 'The parents have eaten sour grapes, and a sour taste is in their children's mouths.' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³But tell the people they'll no longer say this proverb. ⁴Everyone belongs to Me, both parents and children. And only those who sin will be put to death." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

The people of Jerusalem were hiding behind the proverb that said, "The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge" (v. 2, KJV). Israel was saying Jerusalem was suffering from the sins of their fathers. While there are cumulative outward consequences of sin, each person is accountable for his own sin (v. 4). "This is a lesson of accountability and responsibility. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} The people of Jerusalem would be punished for their sin. Lord, I will not blame my life or any misfortune on my parents. I am responsible for my life and what I make of it. Forgive me for any sin I commit, and give me strength to live above any consequences that come from my sin. {516 Victory Over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12} Help me be victorious because I want to live above sin. I want to serve You in holiness. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Amen.

5"Suppose a man is righteous and always does what is right. 6Suppose he doesn't eat meat sacrificed to foreign gods at hilltop shrines and worship those idols. Suppose he doesn't have sex with someone's wife or with a woman having her monthly period. 7Suppose he never cheats anyone and always returns anything he took as security for a loan. And suppose he gives food and clothing to the poor. 8Suppose he doesn't charge interest on loans, and is fair to everyone, 9and follows My teachings {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} and faithfully obeys My laws. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} This man is good and will live," says the Sovereign LORD.

¹⁰"Suppose a man has a violent son who sheds blood and sins, ¹¹doing things his father never did. He eats meat sacrificed to idols, has sex with someone else's wife, ¹²cheats the poor and needy, and keeps what is given to him as security for a loan. He worships idols and does disgusting things, ¹³and he charges high interest when he loans money. Such a man will not live. He'll be put to death because he has done all these detestable things. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴"But suppose that sinful son has a son who sees his father's sins but decides not to do them. ¹⁵Suppose he refuses to worship idols at hilltop shrines, does not commit adultery, ¹⁶and does not cheat anyone or demand the security for a loan. He gives food and clothes to the needy, helps the poor, ¹⁷and does nothing evil. He charges no interest on loans, and he follows My teachings and obeys My laws. He will not die for his father's sins, he will live. ¹⁸But the father will die for cheating and robbing and doing evil. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁹"But why isn't a son punished for the sins of his father? That's because the son is doing what is right and obeys My laws. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰But the son who sins will die. A child won't be punished for his parents' sins, and parents won't be punished for their child's sins. Good people will be rewarded for their goodness, and wicked people will be punished for their wickedness.

²¹"Suppose wicked people stop sinning and start obeying My laws and doing what is right. They will live and not be put to death. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Their past sins will be forgiven and they'll live. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²³I the Sovereign LORD, don't like to see wicked people die. I like to see them turn from their wicked ways and live. ²⁴However, if good people start sinning and doing detestable things, will they live? No. They'll die because of their sinful deeds. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁵"Do you think I'm not being fair? But who is unfair? You are, not Me. ²⁶When righteous people turn from being good and start sinning, they'll die for it. ²⁷And if wicked people turn from their wickedness, obey My laws, and do what is right, they'll live. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁸They thought about it, and turned from their sin. They will live and not die. ²⁹And yet you people of Israel keep saying I'm unjust. But you, not Me, are the ones who are unjust.

³⁰"Therefore I'll judge each of you for what you've done," says the Sovereign LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} "Turn from your sins, or you'll be punished. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³¹Get rid of your evil ways, and get a new heart and a new spirit. Why should you die? {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ³²I, the Sovereign LORD, don't want to see that happen. So stop sinning and live."

God wanted a person to live for Him from the innermost part of his being that came from a new heart and a new spirit. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} Lord, search me thoroughly (Ps. 139:23, 24) to find my hypocrisy or ignorant sin. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} Forgive me when I don't walk uprightly. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Keep me from intentional sin, and make me pure. Amen.

Ezekiel 19 A Song of Sorrow for Israel's Sins

¹"Son of man, sing this funeral song for two of Israel's leaders (Jehoahaz and Jehoiachin). {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ²What a brave lioness your mother was. She raised her cubs among lions. ³She raised one of them to be a strong lion, hunting prey and being a man-eater. ⁴When the nations heard about him, they trapped him in a pit. Then they led him with hooks to Egypt.

5"When his mother saw that he would not return, she taught another of her cubs to be a strong lion. ⁶Prowling with the other lions as a leader, he devoured prey and he too became a man-eater. ⁷He destroyed fortresses and ruined towns. When he roared people were afraid. ⁸Then nations planned to kill him. They spread out a net and caught him in a trap. ⁹They put him in a cage and took him to Babylonia. They locked him away so his roar could never be heard again in Israel." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Ezekiel sings a lament of sadness over God's people. They are likened to two young treacherous lions, that is, Johoahaz and Jehoiachin, just as treacherous as they were dumb. Jehoahaz was devious, so he was led prisoner to Riblah in Egypt with a ring in his nose (2 Kings 23:33). Jehoiachin was taken prisoner to Babylon for 37 years (2 Kings 24:14). Lord, I want to have pure inward motives. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Make me truthful and honest in all things. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} Keep me from being cruel to people and deceitful in dealings with others. Amen.

10"Your mother was like a vine, planted by a river. She had many branches and lots of grapes. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ¹¹Her branches became strong. And she became very tall, above all other trees. She stood out because of her height and green branches. 12But in anger I pulled her up by the roots and threw her to the ground. The desert dried up the grapes and its branches withered, and its stem was destroyed by fire. 13She was growing in the hot, dry desert, 14where her stem caught fire and flames burned her branches and grapes. No branch is left, except for a ruler's scepter." {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} The time for the funeral has now arrived.

God's people are pictured as a fruitful vine (vs. 10-14), which was exalted by the nations. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

She was "pulled up by its roots in anger" (v. 12). There will be no king over God's people until Jesus returns to rule Israel during the coming Kingdom, when He shall rule with a rod of iron (Rev. 19:15). Lord, I look forward to the return of Jesus to sit on the throne of David to rule Israel with a rod of iron. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} Now come sit on the throne of my heart, rule me from the inside, so outwardly I'll be a testimony {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} for You. Amen.

Ezekiel 20 Israel Rebelled against God

¹On August 14, 591 B.C., in the seventh year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, some of Israel's leaders came to ask if there was a message from the LORD, and as they waited they sat in front of me. ²Then the LORD said, ³"Son of man, these men have come to ask for My help. But tell them I'll give them no answer."

Again, the elders come to Ezekiel to inquire of God (previous 14:1, now v. 1). The phrase "set before me" meant they went to a prophet to inquire of God. But God, who knows all hearts, saw their insincerity, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} "I will not be inquired of by you" (v. 3). Is this a picture why God doesn't answer our prayers? {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} God sees our sins, or our insincerity, or our hypocrisy, and refuses to answer us. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} "The Lord does not hear sinners" (John 9:31). Lord, forgive all my sin so I can pray effectively. Lord, I have ignorant sin, and sometimes my doubtful heart hides my sin from view. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} Forgive me all my sin. Sometimes I don't think You hear my prayers, and You turn a deaf ear. Hear me, O Lord, when I cry (Jer. 33:3). Amen.

God is known by those who want to know Him. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} He said, "I made myself known to Israel" (v. 9). Lord, I want to know You; show me Your majesty and glory so I can worship You in a greater way. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} Show me Your love and kindness, so I can know You intimately. Show me Your forgiveness and grace so I can praise Your eternal compassionate nature. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} Amen.

6"I promised I would rescue them from Egypt and lead them to a land with lots of milk from cows and lots of honey from bees. 7I told them to get rid of their disgusting idols and not to worship the gods of Egypt, because I am the LORD their God. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17} 8"But they rebelled against Me and wouldn't listen. They kept on worshiping their idols and foreign gods. So in My anger I decided to pour out My wrath on them in Egypt. ⁹But I didn't because I had promised to rescue them, and I didn't want other nation to think I couldn't keep My word. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ¹⁰So I brought the Israelites out of Egypt and into the desert. ¹¹I gave them My laws and regulations so they would know how to live. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²I told them to respect the Sabbath as a way of showing they belong to Me.

13"But in the desert they rebelled against Me, refusing to obey My laws and regulations and not respecting the Sabbath. So in My anger I decided to destroy the Israelites in the desert. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 14But that would have been a problem because several nations knew I rescued the Israelites from Egypt. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8 15So I told the Israelites in the desert that I wouldn't lead them into the land I had promised them. 16Why did I tell them this? Because they ignored My laws and regulations, and didn't keep the Sabbath and they worshiped idols. ¹⁷Yet I felt sorry for them and decided not to let them die in the desert. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

¹⁸"I warned their children not to follow their parents by worshiping idols. ¹⁹I told them I'm the LORD their God and that therefore they should obey My laws and teachings. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁰Also I told them to keep Sabbath days holy, because that shows that they are My people. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22}

²¹"Their children rebelled against Me too. Like their parents, they rebelled against Me, and refused to obey My laws and regulations and had no regard for the Sabbath days. So I decided to punish them in the desert. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²But then I decided not to because nations had seen Me rescue them from Egypt. 23Then in the desert I promised that I would scatter the Israelites to other nations, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁴because they didn't obey My laws and didn't keep the Sabbath days holy and worshiped idols their ancestors had made. ²⁵I gave them laws and customs that would not lead to life. 26I let them offer unacceptable sacrifices, including their firstborn children as offerings to their gods. I did this so they would know that I, the LORD, am God.

²⁷"Son of man, tell the Israelites that their ancestors criticized Me and insulted Me. ²⁸They offered sacrifices, incenses, and wine to gods at every hilltop shrine and under every large tree. This made Me very angry. ²⁹When I asked them where they went to worship these gods, they said, 'At the hilltop shrines.' And those places of worship are still called Bamah ('hilltop shrines') or shrines. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ³⁰"You Israelites, you follow the example of your ancestors ³¹by worshiping idols and sacrificing your children as offerings. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} But don't think you can commit these sins and then ask Me for a message. As surely as I live," says the Sovereign LORD, "that won't happen. ³²You think you can be like other nations in worshiping idols of wood and stone. But not so,

³³"As surely as I'm the living LORD, I'll rule over you in a strong way in anger and power. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³⁴I'll gather you from the nations where you'll be scattered, and I'll judge you, ³⁵and I'll lead you into a desert ³⁶where I'll punish you just as I punished your ancestors in the desert. ³⁷I'll force you to obey the regulations of our agreement. ³⁸As surely as I live, I'll separate the rebels from you. I'll bring them from the countries where they'll be scattered and in captivity, but they'll never be allowed to return to Israel. Then you'll know that I am the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁹"Go right ahead and worship your idols, but don't turn around and offer Me gifts. ⁴⁰In a future day, everyone in Israel will worship Me on Mount Zion, My holy mountain in Jerusalem. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} You'll serve Me, and I'll accept your offerings and sacrifices. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴¹When I bring you home from the places where you are scattered, I'll be pleased with you just as I am pleased with the smoke of your sacrifices. Every nation will see that I am holy. 42And you'll know that I am the One who brought you back to Israel, the land I promised your ancestors. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ⁴³Then you'll remember your sins, and you'll hate yourselves for doing such terrible sins. 44You'll know that I am the LORD when I treat you with mercy when you deserve to be punished."

⁴⁵The LORD then said, ⁴⁶"Son of man, speak against the Southern Desert, and say to people there ⁴⁷'O, the LORD God, will start a fire that will burn every tree, whether green or dry. Nothing will be able to put out the fire. Everything in its path from south to north will be burned. ⁴⁸Everyone will know I started it and that it can't be put out." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴⁹But I said, "LORD God, I don't want to give them that message. Already they say I confuse them with my messages."

Ezekiel 21 The Swords of Judgment

¹The LORD said, ²"Son of man, speak against the temple in Jerusalem and warn everyone in Israel 3that I'll soon punish them. I'll have My sword ready to kill both the righteous and the wicked. 4I'll not spare even the righteous, and many people will die. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} 5Everyone will know that I, the LORD, have done this. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Groan in sorrow and despair. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 7When people ask you why you are groaning, say to them, 'Every heart will faint and tremble in fear {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} and lose courage." ⁸Then the LORD said, ⁹"Son of man, give the people of Jerusalem this message: 10'I've sharpened My sword to kill; it's strong and polished. Punishment is coming because people have ignored My warnings. {267

Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹¹My sword is sharpened and polished, ready to kill.' ¹²"Son of man, cry out in sorrow {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} and beat your thigh because that sword will kill My people and their leaders. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} They'll all die."

God tells Ezekiel, "Cry and yell." {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} Judgment is not a time for mirth and joyfulness. We should never gloat when a sinner is punished, and that goes double when God punishes a saved person. Lord, I will not rejoice when You punish any wicked person. I will pray for Your blessing on their life and for their salvation. The Lord commands me to "love your enemies... pray for them which despitefully use you" (Luke 6:27, 28). So Lord, I will prosper as I pray for those who are Your enemies. Amen.

¹³"It will put them all to the test, so what chance will they have for survival?" asks the LORD God. ¹⁴"Son of man, clap your hands together. Wave the sword twice, in fact, three times, as a sign of the great massacre My people will face. ¹⁵They'll lose courage, {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} because a sword is at every gate, flashing like lightning and ready to kill. ¹⁶The sword will slash to the right and to the left wherever it wishes. ¹⁷I too will clap My hands and I'll stop being angry. I, the LORD, have spoken." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

of Babylonia to follow when he comes with his sword. Put a signpost where the two routes separate and go in different directions. ²⁰Show that one road leads to Rabbah, the capital of the Ammonites, and that the other road leads to Jerusalem. 21 The king of Babylonia will ask his magicians to foretell which route to take. They'll shake arrows, ask his idols, and examine the liver of a sacrificial animal. ²²By these means they'll decide to go to Jerusalem. They'll attack the city gates with battering rams, announcing the battle cry. Then they'll put up siege ramps against the walls. ²³The people of Jerusalem will think this is a mistake because they had made a treaty with the Babylonians. But the king of Babylonia will think of their rebellion against him, and so he'll attack and defeat them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁴The LORD God says, "Again and again you are guilty because of your continued wickedness. All your actions are sinful, so now you will be punished. 25Zedekiah, you wicked ruler of Israel, your final day has arrived. 26I, the Sovereign LORD, tell you to take off your crown. Things are now changing. The poor will be in charge, and the rich will be nobodies." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The picture of "remove the diadem, and take off the crown" (v. 26, KJV) is God removing the high priest from the office, and the crown is a reference of God removing the king from the throne. The kingdom of Israel will never be fully restored. There will be high priests, and kings that is, Caiaphas and Herod during the time of Jesus; but they will not be God's anointed servants in those offices. Lord, Jesus is my High Priest {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13} who makes intercession for me (Heb. 7:25) and Jesus is the King who sits on the throne of my life. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Amen.

²⁸"Son of man, prophesy against the Ammonites who mocked Israel. Tell them, My sword is ready to slaughter you. It is polished and sharpened and flashes like lightning. ²⁹Your magicians and false prophets have lied in telling you false visions and untrue messages that your gods will save you from the Babylonians. But the sword will come on the wicked and you'll be slaughtered. 30I won't put My sword away till I punish you. I'll destroy you in your own country. 31I'll pour out My fury on you, and My anger will be like a flaming fire. I'll hand you over to cruel men who are experts in killing. 32 You'll be burned, and you'll die in your own country, you'll be wiped out and completely forgotten. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I, the LORD, have spoken."

Ezekiel 22 Jerusalem Is Guilty of Sin

¹The LORD said, ² Son of man, get ready to judge Jerusalem as a city of murderers.

Announce the people's sins publicly, ³and give them this message from Me, the Sovereign LORD: 'You are a city of murderers and a city full of idols. ⁴You are guilty of both murder and idolatry, so your day of doom has come, and you've reached the end of your years. Nations around the world will laugh at you. ⁵And people everywhere will mock you, an infamous, confused city. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁶"Every leader in Israel is a murderer. ⁷"You don't honor your parents, and foreign residents are required to pay for protection, and orphans and widows are treated wrongly. 8You despise My sacred places and you treat the Sabbath like other days. ⁹People tell lies about others, resulting in their deaths. Idols are worshiped at every hilltop shrine and people take part in sexually immoral acts. ¹⁰Men have sex with their father's wives and with women who are having their monthly period. 11Some men have sex with someone else's wife or with their daughters-in-law or sisters. ¹²Others accept money to murder someone and some get money illegally. And they don't even think of Me and My commands,' says the Sovereign LORD. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

¹³"I shake My fist in anger at your dishonest gain and your murders. ¹⁴But your strength and courage will disappear when I deal with you. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I'll do all I said. ¹⁵I'll scatter you among the nations, and I'll stop your wicked ways. ¹⁶Other nations will look down on you, and then you'll know that

I am the LORD." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

¹⁷The LORD said, ¹⁸"Son of man, the people of Israel are as worthless as the leftover metal in a furnace after silver is purified. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ¹⁹So give them this message: 'Because you are worthless metal, I'll bring you to My furnace in Jerusalem, where ²⁰I'll melt you down in the heat of My anger, just as copper, tin, iron, and lead are melted in a furnace, ²¹I'll blow the fire of My wrath on you, ²²and you'll melt like silver in intense heat. Then you'll know that I, the LORD, am the One who poured wrath on you." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²³The LORD said, ²⁴"Son of Man, tell the people of Israel, in My wrath you'll be like an uncleared wilderness or a desert without rain. ²⁵Your prophets are against you, like lions stalking prey. They put many people to death, and they steal treasures, and make many women widows. ²⁶The priests disobey My laws, and have defiled My temple. They make no distinction between what is holy and what is not, and the Sabbaths are like any other day, so that My reputation is greatly dishonored by them.

I'll punish them in My anger because of all their sins," says the Sovereign LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Jerusalem is again condemned. Some readers today may ask, "Why does Ezekiel keep repeating this theme?" Because these are different messages that Ezekiel actually preached against Israel. These are the many evidences that God loved His people and wanted them to repent. Lord, Your written Word is a continuing message for people to repent and turn to You, but they will not. So I pray for the unsaved to have "eyes to see" so they will realize their sin and turn to You. Amen.

Ezekiel 23 Samaria and Jerusalem, the Sinful Sisters

¹The LORD said, ²"Son of man, two sisters were ³young and in Egypt, and they became prostitutes. ⁴The older was Oholah, which stands for Samaria, and her sister was Oholibah, which stands for Jerusalem. I married them and they gave birth to My children.

9"So I gave Oholah over to the Assyrians, and their gods, whom she loved very much.

¹⁰They took off her clothes and killed her, and then took her children away as slaves. Every woman in the area talked about her sinful behaviors. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

In this chapter is a picture of God's people giving themselves to the nations around them in spiritual adultery when they worship the gods (idols) of the pagan. God accuses them, "As soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted on them and sent messengers to them" (v. 16, KJV). The phrase, "She doted on them" is translated in this version, "She wanted to have sex with them." Doesn't sin usually get to us through the eyes? We want the illicit things we see with our eyes.

Lord, keep my eyes from looking on sin to desire it. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} When I happen to see sin, make me look away and forget what I saw. Keep me pure in eyes and heart so that I may be pure in my body. Amen.

¹⁸"Oholibah let everyone see her naked body, and she didn't care if they knew she was a prostitute. ¹⁹She became even more immoral, living as if she were back in Egypt. ²⁰She wanted to have sex with every Egyptian man. ²¹And she longed for the days when she was a young prostitute." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

²⁸"The Sovereign LORD says, "You can be sure that I'll hand you over to your enemies whom you now despise. ²⁹Hating you, they'll rob you and they'll strip you naked. Your terrible sins ³⁰led to this. You were determined to have sex with men from other nations and to worship their idols. ³¹You followed in your sister's footsteps, so now you must be punished as she was." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

What will Israel's lovers do? God says, "They will treat you with hatred" (v. 29). Have you ever noticed that the thing you love you will eventually hate? {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} Then, that thing you love, will hate you and destroy you. The youth loves his alcohol, but it will destroy his will-power and body. And what he loved, he ends up hating. The one who loves promiscuous sex will end up with a sexual disease that hates his physical life. Lord, give me a hatred for sin before it hates me and destroys me. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} Give me a passionate desire for purity of mind and body. Amen.

³²I, the LORD God, gave your sisters a large cup filled with My anger. Everyone will mock you because you must drink from this cup too. ³³You'll reel like a drunkard because the cup is filled with insults and distress. ³⁴You'll drink every last drop. Then you'll smash it and beat your breast in anguish. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken these words. ³⁵Because you turned your back on Me, and lived as a prostitute, you must be punished." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁶The LORD said, "Son of man, tell Oholah (Samaria) and Oholibah (Jerusalem) they are guilty of their sinful ways. ³⁷They are guilty of both adultery (by worshiping idols) and murder (by sacrificing their children as offerings to idols). ³⁸Also they make My temple unfit for worship and did not keep the Sabbath day. ³⁹When they murdered their children in front of the idols, they went into My temple to worship. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

⁴⁶"So I, the LORD God, say to those sisters: 'I'll call together an angry mob to crush and rob you. ⁴⁷They'll stone you and kill you and your children with swords and burn your houses. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴⁸I'll get rid of prostitution and idolatry in this country. This will be a warning everywhere for women not to act as these women have. ⁴⁹I'll punish you for becoming prostitutes and for worshiping idols, and you'll know that I'm the LORD God." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

Ezekiel 24 The Rusty Boiling Pot

¹Nine years after King Jehoiachin and others of who were led as prisoners to Babylonia, the LORD spoke to me. This was in January, 588 B.C. ²"Son of Man, write down today's date because this is the day the king of Babylonia has begun his attack against Jerusalem. ³Then give this illustration to My rebellious people. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Put a pot of water on the fire to boil. ⁴Fill it with the legs and shoulders of sheep and all the tender cuts. ⁵Use the best sheep from the flock. Pile wood under the pot, and boil the meat until it is well done."

On the very day that Nebuchadnezzar set the siege against Jerusalem, Ezekiel prepared a stew pot with water and meat, symbolic of the people in Jerusalem that will be cooked "to death." Have you noticed that God's timing is impeccable? He's not late or early. The Psalmist tells us, "My times are in Your hand" (Ps. 31:15). Lord, I will watch my time and not waste it. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} I will redeem the time (Eph. 5:16) so I can do more for You than some who waste time. Thank You for the gift of time. When I give my time to You, use it for Your glory. Amen. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 6"I, the LORD God, say, 'How terrible it will be for Jerusalem, a city of murderers. She is like a rusty pot. Take out the meat piece by piece in whatever order they come. ⁷The people of Jerusalem murdered innocent people and didn't even bother to cover up their blood on the ground. ⁸The blood on the ground cries out to Me for revenge.'

9"I, the LORD God, say, 'How terrible it will be for Jerusalem, city of murderers. I'll pile logs of fuel under her. ¹⁰Heap on the wood, light the fire, and cook the meat. Then boil away the broth and let the bones be burned. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 11Set the empty pot on the coals to clean the pot and burn off all the rust. ¹²The rust (that is, the corruption) is still remaining, despite the hottest fire. 13 This is the rust of your sexual sin and your worshiping idols. I tried to cleanse you, but you refused. So you'll remain filthy until My fury against you has been satisfied. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 14I, the LORD, have spoken these words. I won't change My mind. You, Jerusalem, will be punished for your wicked actions." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁵Again the LORD said, ¹⁶"Son of man, I'll take the life of your wife. She'll die suddenly. But don't express sorrow. Don't weep. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} ¹⁷You may sigh, but only quietly, don't wail at her grave, {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} don't remove your turban or take off your sandals. And don't accept food brought to you by your friends."

When God took away "the desire of your eyes" (v. 16), which was his wife, Ezekiel was not to show the normal signs of mourning and grief. He wasn't even allowed to eat the bread that neighbors brought into him. Lord, prepare me when a loved one or friend dies. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} May I mourn properly, but also, may I glorify You in the hour of their death. Amen.

¹⁸Then I told this to my people, and suddenly at sunset my wife died. ¹⁹The next morning people asked me why I wasn't mourning for my wife and what it all meant.

²⁰I announced, "The LORD God said, ²¹'I'm ready to destroy the temple {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} in which you take pride. Your sons and daughters in Jerusalem will be killed. 22 Then you'll do the same things I, Ezekiel, have done. You'll not mourn in public; and you'll refuse to eat food brought by friends. ²³You'll not take off your turbans or your sandals. You won't weep or mourn {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} but you'll mourn privately because of all your sins. ²⁴Ezekiel is an example. Everything he's done, you'll do. Then when that time comes, you'll know that I am the LORD. ²⁵"Son of man, I'll soon destroy the temple, {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} your stronghold, joy, {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} and glory in which you are proud. I'll also take away your sons and daughters. ²⁶On that day someone will leave Jerusalem to tell you in Babylon what has happened. ²⁷On the day he arrives, your voice will return to you so you can talk to him. You'll be a symbol for these people, then they'll know that I am the LORD." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

Ezekiel 25 Prophecy against the Ammonites

¹The LORD God said, ²"Son of man, prophesy against the Ammonites and its people 3 and tell them, 'Listen to what the Sovereign LORD says. You were glad when My temple was destroyed, {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} and you were glad when Israel was taken into captivity, and you were glad when Judah was taken captive. 4Therefore because you did this, I'll cause some tribes from the east to set up their camps among you and pitch their tents there. They will steal your fruit and your livestock. ⁵And your capital city of Rabbah will be pastureland for camels, and your entire country will be pastureland for sheep. Then you'll know that I am the LORD."

6"The Sovereign LORD says, "Out of hatred for Israel you clapped and cheered when Israel was taken captive. ⁷Therefore I'll give you over to other nations. You'll no longer be a nation. I'll destroy you. Then you'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The Ammonites lived on the other side of the Jordan River, northeast of Jerusalem. They came from the incestuous relationship between Lot and a daughter (Gen. 19:38). The Ammonites always had animosity to Israel and waged several wars against God's people. When Nebuchadnezzar destroyed Jerusalem, the Ammonites grabbed whatever territory they could from Israel. Ezekiel announces judgment against the Ammonites (v. 1-7), then Ammon "shall know that I am the LORD" (v. 7). Lord, old family hatreds seem to never die; give me love for all my family. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} May I forgive the sins of family to me, as You forgive my sins {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and trespasses (Matt. 6:12). Amen.

8"'And because Moab thought Judah was no different from other nations, 'I'll let Moab's eastern towns along its border be attacked, including Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon, and Kirjathaim. ¹⁰The same eastern tribes that invaded Ammon will invade Moab, and Moab too will no longer be a nation. ¹¹I'll destroy Moab, and they'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Moab also lived on the other side of the Jordan. They, like Ammon, came from the incestuous relationship between Lot and another daughter (Gen. 19:36-37). They constantly fought Israel and would not recognize God's special covenant with Israel. Nebuchadnezzar conquered both Ammon and Moab five years after destroying Jerusalem. Lord, families seem to fight over position and relationships. I will love and pray for all my family. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} I will not glory over earthly relationships, but I will rejoice in my relationship {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} with You. Amen.

¹²The LORD God then said, "The people of Edom are guilty of taking revenge on Judah. ¹³Therefore I, the Sovereign LORD, will punish Edom, killing all its men and animals. From Teman to Dedan. ¹⁴I'll send My own people to take revenge on the Edomites. They'll feel my wrath and anger and My vengeance," says the Sovereign LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Edomites were descendants of Esau, Jacob's twin brother. Edom was located south of the Dead Sea in a mountainous terrain that seemed unconquerable to invaders. Edom always hated Israel; probably going back to Jacob's tricking Esau out of the birthright and blessing (Gen. 26-27). The Lord says of Edom, He will "take vengeance" (v. 12) which means, "revenging with revenge." Lord, may I not hate any family, and I forgive those who hate me. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} I pray for all my family. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} Bless them. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} Save them. Use me as a testimony to win them to Christ. Amen.

¹⁵The Sovereign LORD also says this: "The Philistines have tried repeatedly to take revenge on Judah and to destroy it. ¹⁶Therefore I say, I'll treat the Philistines as My enemies. I'll cut off the Kerethites and others on the seacoast. In My anger ¹⁷I'll take revenge on them. When I punish them, they'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The Philistines came from Mizraim, the son of Ham (Gen. 10:13, 14). They originally settled in the Aegean Sea region, but moved and conquered southern Israel. They were always hostile to Israel. Notice the Philistines; "have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred" (v. 15, KJV). Lord, I pray for any old enemies I have. Help me be a testimony {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} of love and forgiveness. I pray for their salvation. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Bless them and use me to bring Your love into their life. Amen.

Ezekiel 26 Tyre Will Be Destroyed

¹Eleven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us were taken captive in Babylon (586 B.C.), the LORD spoke to me the first day of this month. He said, ²"Son of man, Tyre is rejoicing over Jerusalem's fall, saying, 'Jerusalem controlled the north-south trade routes along the coast and also the routes to the Jordan River. But now that she is destroyed, I'll be heir of her wealth.' ³Therefore the Sovereign LORD says, "I'll bring many nations against you like waves crashing against the shore. ⁴They'll destroy the walls of Tyre and your towers, and I'll scrape away your soil and make you bare rock. ⁵Your island will be uninhabited, a place where fishermen spread their nets. I have spoken these words," says the Sovereign LORD. "The nations will rob you, ⁶and your villages on the mainland will be destroyed. Then you'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷The Sovereign LORD says, "From the north I'll send against you Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylonia like a king of kings, with a great army and many chariots and horsemen. 8He'll destroy your villages and then put up siege ramps against your city walls and set up rows of shields around you. 9He'll pound your walls with battering rams, and he'll destroy your watchtowers with sledgehammers. 10 The hoofs of his many horses will choke your city with dust. As his chariots and horsemen enter your broken-down gates, your walls will shake. 11His horsemen will trample every street, murdering your people and toppling your huge pillars.

down your walls. They'll also destroy your homes and throw your stones, timber, and rubble into the sea. ¹³I'll stop all music in your city, and harps will not be played. ¹⁴I'll make your island a bare rock, a place where fishermen will spread their nets. You'll never be rebuilt, for I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

The Phoenicians lived north of Israel and were known as a maritime nation. Nebuchadnezzar besieged the city for 13 years (585-572) and finally destroyed it. The city was re-built on an island close to the shore of the Mediterranean Sea. Alexander the Great built a causeway out to the city to capture and destroy it. He threw the debris into the sea. Today fishermen's nets can be seen drying on the rocks of the causeway. God predicted, "the spreading of the nets in the midst of the sea." Lord, I'm amazed at Your accuracy to predict the future. So I have confidence {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} that what You predict for me after death will happen. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} And I know Your prediction of the end times will happen as You said. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} Thank You for confidence; it's good to eliminate my doubts. Amen.

¹⁹The Sovereign LORD says, "Tyre, I'll make you a city of ruins with no people. You'll sink beneath the ocean depths, and the seas will swallow you up. ²⁰I'll send you to the world of the dead, to be with those who went there years ago. Your city will lie in ruins like people who've gone to the world of the dead. You'll never return to the land of the living. ²¹You'll come to a horrible end. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} People will look for you, but won't find you. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken these words."

Ezekiel 27 Lament over Tyre

¹The LORD said, ²"Son of man, sing this funeral song for Tyre, {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} 3the city that trades with nations along the coast. Give Tyre this message: 'Tyre, you boast about your beauty, 4and you've extended your boundaries into the sea. Your builders made you great. 5Builders used cypress trees from Mount Hermon to build your ships, including your sail mast. From the oaks of Bashan they carved oars, and made your decks from pine trees from Cyprus, which they covered with ivory. ⁷Sails are made from linen from Egypt, and they were sailed like banners. Blue and purple awnings were made bright with dyes from eastern Cyprus.

8""Your oarsmen came from Sidon and Arvad and your own helmsmen were from Tyre itself. 9Men from nearby Gebal repaired your ships, and sailors came from many places to barter for your goods. 10Men from Persia, Lydia, and Libya served in your army. They honored you by hanging their shields and helmets on your walls. 11Men from Arvad and Cilicia were your guards, and men from Gammad manned your towers. They hung their shields on your walls, thus adding to the attractiveness of your city.

16"'Edom sent merchants to buy your goods in exchange for turquoise, purple cloth, embroidered material, fine linen, coral, and rubies. ¹⁷They bought from you your finest wheat, best figs, honey, olive oil, and spices. ¹⁸Damascus brought you wine from Helbon and white wool from Zahar. ¹⁹Vedan and Juvan brought iron and spices to trade for your goods. 20 Dedan traded their expensive saddle blankets, ²¹ and people from Arabia and Kedar traded lambs, sheep, and goats. ²²Merchants from Sheba and Raamah brought spices, jewels, and gold in exchange for your items. ²³You also traded goods with merchants from Haran, Canneh, Eden, Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, 24 and they brought to you expensive clothing, purple cloth, and embroidered material, colored rugs, and strong rope. ²⁵Large ships of Tarshish carried your goods wherever you wanted to take them. And with all your trading, your warehouse was filled from wall to wall and from floor to ceiling.

wrecked by strong winds from the east. ²⁷Everything on that ship will be lost—your riches, wares, sailors, helmsmen, ship builders, merchants, and soldiers. Everything that day will sink into the depths of the sea.

Tyre is pictured as a great commercial ship (v. 1-9) that travels the waters of the Mediterranean. At the end of the chapter she shipwrecks (vs. 26-36). Her material riches are lost. Lord, I realize all material wealth comes from You; thank You for the gift You've given me. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} I will use all the material resources that You've given me for Your glory. Give me a gracious heart to share, a willing heart to give, and a thankful heart {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} for the privilege to serve You with my resources. Amen.

Ezekiel 28 The King of Tyre Will Fall

¹The LORD God said to me, ²"Son of man, give this message to the prince of Tyre: 'You are so arrogant. In your pride you even claimed, "I am a god, I sit on a divine throne in the heart of the sea." But you are only a mere human, not a god. ³You think you're wiser than Daniel, and that you know everything. ⁴With your wisdom {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} you have become very rich, and your storehouses are filled with gold and silver. ⁵Yes, you are extremely wealthy, and your wealth has made you very proud.

6"Therefore, I, the Sovereign LORD, say since you think you are as wise as a god, 7I'll bring ruthless foreigners against you. They'll draw their swords against you and destroy all the belongings you worked so hard to get. 8They'll kill you, and you'll die there on your island home. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 9When these enemies come against you, will you still claim to be a god? To them, you'll be a mere human, not a god. 10You'll die by these foreigners like an outcast. I, the LORD, have spoken these words." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹The LORD God said to me, {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ¹²"Son of man, sing this funeral song for the king (satan) of Tyre: 'At one time, king of Tyre, you were perfect in wisdom and beauty. ¹³You were in Eden, the garden of God. You wore jewelry made of brightly colored gems and precious stones, including ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire, turquoise, and beryl. They were all set in gold, and were ready for you when you were created. ¹⁴I appointed you as a winged creature to guard my holy mountain where you walked among stones of fire.

¹⁵"From the day you were created you were blameless until you started being wicked. ¹⁶The great wealth you gained from trading with other nations led you to be violent, and to sin. So I forced you to leave My mountain, I caused you to leave the mountain, O guardian winged creature, where you had been among the stones of fire.

Lucifer is described as "full of wisdom and perfect in beauty" (v. 12). Since God is perfect, it's the only way He could create an angel, that is, an incorporeal being who could think, feel, and possess free choice. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} Lucifer was the highest in the order of angels, and is called "the anointed cherub" (v. 14). The word "covereth" (v. 14) suggests Lucifer guarded or protected the throne of God. Also, as a person's hair that covers the head gives beauty, Lucifer gave beauty to God. {33 Beautiful-Prayer, Rev. 21:19} But, it's impossible to make God more beautiful, for God is the originator and embodiment of beauty.

Lucifer had access to "the holy mountain" (v. 14) which suggests he entered the actual presence of God. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Lucifer was closer to God than any other angel. When it describes Lucifer "walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire" (v. 14), it suggests Lucifer could go or carry out decisions God made. Lucifer was in God's presence when God was deciding the rest of creation.

Lucifer is described as "perfect in your ways from the day {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} you were created" (v. 15). Then "iniquity was found in you" (v. 15). Lucifer's sin was not an outward transgression of turning to evil things, such as prohibited in the Ten Commands. Lucifer's sin was in the free choice he was given to worship God, but he chose to follow a selfish urge to magnify himself and lift himself into God's place. Sin is not a thing; sin is an act or attitude. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Lucifer sinned when he said, "I will ascend into heaven" (Isa. 14:13). Then he said, "I will exalt my throne above the stars (angels); I will sit in the mount of the congregation" (where God sits, Isa. 14:13). Then Lucifer added two more expressions of pride, "I will ascend above the heights of the clouds"

(get God's glory), and "I will be like the Most High" (Isa. 14:14), meaning Lucifer wanted God's rulership.

Ezekiel concludes, "Iniquity was found in you" (Ezek. 28:15). So God said, "You sinned; therefore I cast you as a profane thing out" (Ezek. 28:16). Lord, may I never seek to take Your glory for anything I do. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} Keep me humble. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} Lord, may I never do anything for pride or self-exaltation. Selfishness is my seat of sin; it is ever with me. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} Holy Spirit, enlighten me to any wrong attitude. Help me remember, "Not I but Christ" (Gal. 2:20). Amen.

¹⁸"Your places of worship are corrupt because of your many sins and you cheat your merchants. So I caused your city to be on fire and I burned it down. Now everyone sees only ashes where your great city was located. ¹⁹Every nation that knew you is amazed. You have come to a horrible end and you are gone forever." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁰The LORD said to me, ²¹"Son of man, prophesy against the city of Sidon, ²²and give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: 'I, the LORD God, am your enemy, Sidon, and when I punish you and show you My holiness, you will know that I am the LORD. ²³I'll send a disease against you, and I'll send enemy nations against you from every direction. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Blood will flow in your streets from people who will be killed by the enemy. Then you'll know that I'm the LORD.'

²⁴"No longer will Israel's neighbors be like painful thorns to them. The Israelites will know that I am the Sovereign LORD." ²⁵Then the Sovereign LORD said, "I'll gather the people of Israel from the nations where they've been scattered, and those nations will see that I am holy. My people will again live in their own land which I promised to them and to My servant Jacob. ²⁶They'll be safe and will build houses and plant vineyards. And I'll punish their neighboring nations who hated them. Then Israel will know that I am the LORD their God." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Ezekiel 29 The Prophecy against Egypt

¹In January 587 B.C., the tenth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity in Babylon, the LORD spoke to me and said, 2"Son of man, prophesy against Pharaoh, king of Egypt and against all Egypt. ³Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD. 'I am your enemy, Pharaoh. You were like a big crocodile lying in the Nile. You said, "The Nile River is yours and you made it for yourself." 4I'll put hooks in your jaws and pull you out of the water and I will leave you and all 5your fish on the desert to die. You'll be unburied, and wild animals and birds will eat your flesh. 6Then everyone in Egypt will know that I am the LORD.

"'You've been like a broken stick when Israel looked to you for help. 7When they looked to you for help, you were like a cracked stick broken in half, and you stabbed her in the armpit. When Israel leaned on you, you gave way and her back was thrown out of joint. 8So I, the LORD God, will bring an army against you, Egypt, and they'll kill your people and animals. 9Egypt will be a desolate desert, and you Egyptians will know that I am the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} "You said you made the Nile River, and it is yours. 10 But I'm now against you and your river. I'll make your nation a desolate waste from Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south, all the way to the border of Ethiopia. 11For 40 years Egypt will be completely uninhabited, so no human or animal will travel there. 12 Egypt will be surrounded by other desolate nations, and Egypt will be barren. Every city in Egypt will be desolate for 40 years, and Egyptians will be scattered to other nations." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³The Sovereign LORD also says, "After those 40 years, I'll bring the Egyptians back to their land. ¹⁴Again they'll live in Pathros and I'll make them prosperous again. But Egypt will remain a weak kingdom, ¹⁵unable to rule other nations, as in the past. ¹⁶My people Israel will no longer trust in you, Egypt, for help. Your condition will show Israel how wrong they were to turn to you for help. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Then Israel will know that I alone am the Sovereign LORD."

¹⁷In the 27th year after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us were taken captive to Babylonia (571 B.C.) the LORD spoke to me in the spring. He said, 18"Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, made his army fight hard against Tyre. In carrying heavy loads, their heads were rubbed bald and their shoulders were red and sore. But Nebuchadnezzar and his army still could not capture the city. 19So I'll give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar. He'll take their wealth, looting everything of Egypt in order to pay his own soldiers. 20 I've given Egypt to him as a reward for following My orders. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²¹"The day will come when I'll restore Israel's glory, and then your words will be respected. Then Israel will know that I am the LORD." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2

Ezekiel predicts the destruction of Egypt and Tyre in this chapter. The Pharaoh had come to the aid of Jerusalem, so Babylon left to fight Egypt. Nebuchadnezzar had previously laid siege to Tyre for 13 years producing economic loss. His soldiers got nothing from Tyre, so he went to Egypt for "wages for his army" (v. 19). God says, "I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar ... and take her spoil" (v. 19). Babylon invaded Egypt (vs. 8, 9). Egypt never again became a world power, "They shall no more rule over the nations" (v. 15). Lord, I'm amazed how accurately You've predicted in the Bible. Give me more trust {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} to believe everything You've said. Amen.

Ezekiel 30 Egypt Will Be Punished

¹Another message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, give Egypt this message from the Sovereign LORD: ³ Weep because the terrible day, the day of the LORD, is almost here. It'll be a time of darkness and gloom, a day of despair for the nations. 4Your own nation Egypt will be attacked, and the corpses of people who are killed will cover the ground. Their wealth will be taken away. Ethiopia will be involved too. ⁵Libya, Lydia, and Arabia will be destroyed. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 6All of your allies will fall, and their strength will end. People from Migdol in the north to Aswan in the south will die, says the Sovereign LORD, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7'Egypt will be terribly deserted with its cities in complete ruins. 8I'll set Egypt and her allies on fire. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9I'll send messengers to Ethiopia to frighten them {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} out of their complacency. And they'll be terrified at the thought of their coming destruction.

¹³The Sovereign LORD also says to Egypt: "I'll smash all the idols you Egyptians worship in the city of Memphis. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} No ruler will be left in the land; only terror will exist. ¹⁴Pathros will be in ruins and Zoan will be burned. Thebes, your capital, will also be destroyed. ¹⁵Pelusium will feel My fierce wrath, and all the soldiers at Thebes will be killed. 16I'll set fire to all of Egypt. Pelusium, Thebes, and Memphis will all be terrified. ¹⁷Young soldiers, Heliopolis, and Bubastis, will be killed in battle, and the women will be taken as slaves. ¹⁸When I break the power of Egypt, it will be a sad day for Tahapanhes too. A dark cloud will cover the land as your daughters are being led away as captives. 19I'll greatly punish you, Egypt, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and you'll know that I am the LORD."

²⁰Eleven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us were taken captive to Babylonia (586 B.C.) the LORD spoke to me in April of that year, and said, 21"Son of man, I, the LORD, have defeated the king of Egypt. I broke his arm, but no one has put a cast on it or put it in a sling to make it strong enough to hold a sword. ²²So tell him that I, the Sovereign LORD, will break both his arms, and his sword will drop from his hand. 23 and I'll scatter the Egyptians throughout various nations. ²⁴I'll strengthen the arms of Babylon's king, and I'll break the arms of the king of Egypt. He'll lie there wounded, moaning in pain. ²⁵I'll strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall weak and limp. When I put My sword in the hands of Babylon's king and he uses it against Egypt, then Egypt will know that I am the LORD. ²⁶Also when I scatter the Egyptians among the nations, then they will know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Because Egypt was a wealthy nation, she hired mercenary soldiers for defense, "They that uphold Egypt shall fall" (v. 6) and "all her helpers will be destroyed" (v. 8). The wealth of Egypt was seized and multitudes of Egyptians were carried off captive, mostly to Babylon. Lord, You cause the rise and fall of nations {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}; large and small. You do the same to individuals. Because I've trusted in You {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}, I'm not worried about the future. Day by day, and in the passing minutes, I trust You to work Your plan in my life. Amen.

Ezekiel 31 Egypt Is Like a Fallen Cedar Tree

¹Eleven years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us were taken captive to Babylonia (586 B.C.) the LORD spoke to me in June of that year and said, ²"Son of man, tell the king of Egypt these words: 'You are great and powerful. ³You are as Assyria was, a mighty nation. Assyria too was once like a cedar tree in Lebanon, with large branches reaching to the sky. ⁴Deep springs watered it and helped it grow tall. And nearby streams watered nearby trees. ⁵But this tree was taller than the other trees, and it grew long, thick branches.

6""Birds rested in its branches, and animals enjoyed its shade. All the nations of the world lived in its shadow. 7It was beautiful and strong because it had lots of water. 8It was taller than all the cedar trees in the garden of Eden. No cypress tree could match it, nor did any tree in the garden compare with its beauty. 9Because I made this tree so majestic, all the trees in Eden wanted to be like it.

10""Therefore, king of Egypt, this is what I say about this tree: Because it grew so tall and was proud of its height, 11I, the LORD God, will hand it over to a nation that will destroy it because of its wickedness. 12A foreign army will cut it down and leave it on the ground. Its branches will be scattered across the mountains and valleys. Nations who lived beneath its shadow went away and left it lying there. ¹³Birds nested on the fallen trunk, and wild animals lay among its branches. 14No other trees should ever grow as tall as this tree, for every tree, no matter how tall or how well watered will not survive. They are all destined for death with all the proud people of the world." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁵The Sovereign LORD says, "When this tree died, I, the LORD God, caused rivers and streams to mourn its death. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} I held back the rivers and streams. When I cover Lebanon with darkness, all the trees will wither. ¹⁶This tree will crash to the ground {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} and I'll send it to the world below. Then the nations will tremble. The trees of Eden and of Lebanon, already in the world of the dead, will be glad when this tree falls. ¹⁷The tree's allies were destroyed and sent to the world below to join the dead.

¹⁸"Egypt, you were like this tree—taller and stronger than anyone on earth. You'll be brought down to the world of the dead with all the other nations. There you'll join the many godless and the wicked who have died by the sword. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I, the LORD God, have spoken."

God compares Egypt to Assyria. We see Assyria as the most beautiful and lofty cedar tree in Lebanon, greater in beauty than any other tree (nation). "O Egypt... You too, will be brought down to the pit with all these other nations" (v. 18, NLT). Lord, the nation Egypt served Your purpose, then You allowed it to be cast aside. Help me see Your plan on earth, and use me in Your plan. I want to make a difference in eternity {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22}, so use me today. Amen.

Ezekiel 32 The Pharaoh Is Like a Sea Monster

water with your feet and muddying the water. ³Therefore I, the Sovereign LORD, say this: "I'll send many people to catch you in My net and bring you out of the water. 4I'll leave you on the land to die. Birds will land on you, and wild animals will eat your flesh. 5I'll spread your rotting flesh on the mountains and in the valleys, ⁶and your blood will fill up the streams. ⁷I'll darken the stars with thick clouds and the sun and moon will stop shining. ⁸Your country will be in total darkness. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken these words. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9"""When I tell foreign nations that you never heard of how I destroyed you, they'll be shocked. 10I'll bring terror to many lands, and their kings will be horrified because of what could happen to them when I wave my sword before them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹The Sovereign LORD says, "I'm bringing the king of Babylon against you, Egypt. 12The swords of mighty soldiers who terrify the nations—will destroy you. They'll shatter your pride, Egypt, and all your many soldiers. 13I'll destroy all your cattle that graze beside the streams. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} And the feet of men and animals will never again muddy those streams. 14Then I'll let your waters, Egypt, be calm again, and they'll flow as smoothly as olive oil. 15 And when I smite Egypt, strip you bare, and strike all your people, you'll know that I am the LORD. 16Here is the funeral dirge people will sing for Egypt. 'Let all nations weep. Let them mourn for Egypt and its masses.' I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken these words."

¹⁷In the spring of the 12th year of King Jehoiachin's captivity (585 B.C.) the LORD gave me another message: 18"Son of man, weep for the many soldiers of Egypt and of other nations for I'll send them to the world below. ¹⁹Say to them, 'O Egypt, are you lovelier than other nations? Obviously not. So you'll go down to the pit and be there where those godless people are.' 20 You Egyptians will be slaughtered with others who have died by the sword. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} You'll be dragged off for judgment, 21 mighty leaders, already down in the grave will welcome you there, Egypt, along with your allies. They'll say, 'Now that you are here, lie with the ungodly and all the victims of the sword.

²⁸"You Egyptians will be defeated by the sword and buried with the godless soldiers. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁹Edom's kings and leaders are in the grave. They used to be mighty, but they now lie buried with other godless leaders in the grave. 30 All the princes of the north and the Sidonians are in the grave. They too are victims of the sword. They used to be a terror to other nations, but now they lie in shame with the other dead who are in the grave. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³¹"When Pharaoh arrives in the grave, he'll be relieved to know that his soldiers are not alone," says the Sovereign LORD. 32"He had spread terror among other nations, but now he and all his soldiers will be lying with the godless who died by the sword. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken these words." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Pharaoh likens himself to a young lion to be feared, but God says he is like an ugly crocodile that only muddies the Nile (v. 2). The crocodile may be feared in water, but will be taken from the waters and left on the land to die. All will scavenge him. "The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you" (v. 11). Lord, You will judge evil nations for their wickedness, and the individuals in them for their sin. Your judgment will be great and just. I pray {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} for the unsaved; send revival in nations so that a great multitude will turn to You. Amen.

Ezekiel 33 Listen to the Watchman

¹Again the LORD spoke to me, saying, ²"Son of man, give your people this message: When I bring an army against a country, have a watchman ³sound a warning that the army is coming. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} 4Then if any of the people hear the warning but ignore it, then it is their fault if they are killed in battle. 5If they hear the warning but disregard it, they are responsible. If they had paid attention to the warning, they could have saved their lives. ⁶But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn't sound the alarm, he is responsible for their deaths if some die. They'll die in their sins, but the watchman will be responsible." ⁷The Lord said, "I have made you, son of man, a watchman for Israel. Warn the people when I give you a message. 8If I say to the wicked, 'You are on a slippery road to death' and you don't warn them to repent; they will die in their sins and I will hold you responsible for their death. But if you warn the wicked and they don't repent, they will die in their sins. But you will have saved your life."

Ezekiel is a spiritual sentry—watchman—for God. Just as a "look out" on the wall warns of a potential attack {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}, Ezekiel was responsible to warn God's people of an attack by wickedness. He was responsible to point out sin and call the people to repent by turning to the Lord. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer,

Eph. 4:22} Lord, give me eyes to see the danger of sin in the lives of Your people. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} Give me a mouth to warn Your people of spiritual attacks. Then give me a heart to intercede {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} in spiritual warfare to defeat satan. Amen.

¹⁰The LORD said, "Son of man, the people are complaining that their sins are causing them to waste away. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} 11 As surely as I live," says the Sovereign LORD, "I don't like to see wicked people die. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} I prefer to see them turn from their sins and live. Turn from your sins, you people of Israel, so you'll live. 12Tell them that the people's good deeds won't save them if they sin, {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} nor will the sins of evil people destroy them if they turn from their sins. ¹³If I promise good people they'll live and then they start sinning, thinking their good deeds in their past will save them, then they'll be put to death and I'll not remember their good deeds. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 14Or suppose I tell some wicked people they'll die but then they turn from their sins and start doing what is right. 15 They might return something they've taken as a security for a loan, or return what they've stolen, and begin obeying My laws and stop sinning, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} then they'll live. ¹⁶I'll forget their past sins, and they'll live because they have done what is right.

¹⁷"Ezekiel, your people are saying I'm being unfair. But they are the ones who are unfair. ¹⁸As I said before, if good people start doing evil, they'll be put to death. ¹⁹But if wicked people turn from their sins and do what is right, they will live. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁰You Israelites think I'm not fair. But you'll be judged by your deeds."

²¹Twelve years after King Jehoiachin and the rest of us were taken as captives to Babylonia (B.C. 585) a man had escaped from Jerusalem and told me, "The city has fallen." ²²The previous evening the LORD healed me so that again I could speak when this man arrived in the morning.

²³Then the LORD said, ²⁴ Son of man, the people living in the ruined cities keep saying, 'Abraham was one man, and the LORD gave him the whole land of Israel. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} There are many of us, so the land should be ours.' 25 So Ezekiel, give this message to the Sovereign LORD: 'How can you think the land is yours when you eat meat with blood in it, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} worship idols, ²⁶murder innocent people, are unfaithful in marriage, and spread violence? {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁷As surely as I am the living LORD God, you people in the ruined cities will be killed by the sword. Those living in open fields will be killed by wild animals. And those hiding in caves and fortresses will die of diseases. ²⁸I'll make the country desolate and your pride will come to an end. Even the mountains will be bare so that no one will cross them. ²⁹When I've made the land desolate because of your sins, then you'll know that I'm the LORD.' {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁰"Son of man, your people are talking about you in their houses, and they are saying, 'Let's ask Ezekiel what the LORD has said today.' ³¹So they come and listen to you, but they don't intend to do what I tell them. They talk about love, but they are interested only in money. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ³²They treat you as if you are only singing love songs and playing musical instruments. They listen to what you say, but they don't put those things into practice. ³³When those terrible things happen, as they certainly will, then they'll know that you are a prophet."

Ezekiel 34 A Prophecy against the Shepherds of Israel

¹This message came to me from the LORD: ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds, the leaders of Israel, and give them this message. 'How terrible it will be for you shepherds who only take care of yourselves and neglect your sheep. ³You drink their milk, make clothes from their wool, and butcher the best animals. 4You haven't helped the weak ones, or taken care of the sick, or bound up the injured. You haven't looked for those who wandered off. Instead you treated them harshly. 5 They are scattered without a shepherd and are prey for wild animals. 6They have wandered over mountains and hills, and no one has searched for them. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁷Therefore, you shepherds, hear the Word of the LORD: 8"As surely as I live," says the Sovereign LORD, "because My flock; lacks a shepherd, they have been attacked and eaten by wild animals. And My shepherds, you didn't look for My flock when they were lost. And you took care of your own needs and not those of My flock; you let them starve." "Therefore, you shepherds, hear the Word of the Sovereign LORD: 10" "These shepherds are My enemies, and they are responsible for what has happened to My flock. I'll not allow them to tend their flock, {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} and I'll not let them butcher and eat the sheep."

¹¹This is what the Sovereign LORD says, "I'll look for My sheep and care for them. {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7} ¹²I'll be like a shepherd looking for his lost sheep. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} I'll find and rescue them from the places where they were scattered on that dark, cloudy day. {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} 13I'll bring them back to their land of Israel from the nations where they've been scattered. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} 14I'll let them enjoy grazing in the hills and mountain pastures of Israel. 15I'll care for them and keep them safe," says the Sovereign LORD. 16"I'll look for and bring back home the ones who've strayed away. I'll bandage the injured and strengthen the weak. I'll destroy the powerful, fat shepherds. I'll feed the flock, yes-I'll feed you punishment." {59 Care-Casting Prayer, 1 Peter 5:7}

Ezekiel pronounced judgment against the shepherds of Israel, that is, false prophets, priests, kings and elders who lead God's people astray. The sheep are described as "sick, diseased, broken, and scattered" (vs. 4-6). Then Ezekiel becomes prophetic by describing the re-gathering of Israel from the nations where God scattered them. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Phrases such as "good pasture" and "lie down" reflect God's future blessing on Israel (vs. 13-16). Lord, You have an eternal plan to re-gather Israel in the future. I worship You for Your faithfulness to Your people. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} But Israel's leaders in the past sinned against You, just as some leaders sin against You today. Lord, I pray for pastors, teachers, elders, deacons and counselors. {432 Service-Response Prayer, Heb. 5:4} May they be faithful to You. Amen.

¹⁷The Sovereign LORD says this to His sheep, the people of Israel: "I'll separate the sheep, and also the sheep from the goats. ¹⁸You eat the greenest grass and trample down the rest. And you drink the clean water, and then walk in the water to make it muddy. ¹⁹Other sheep have only grass that's been trampled on, and only muddy water to drink." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

²⁰Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: "I'll separate the fat sheep from the weak sheep. ²¹You fat sheep push and butt My weak sheep so that they are scattered. ²²I'll rescue My flock, {416

Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} and they'll no longer be abused. I'll know which of My sheep is fat and which ones are weak. ²³I'll give you one shepherd, My servant David, and he'll provide for and care for you. ²⁴I, the LORD, will be your God, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} and My servant David will be a prince. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

²⁵"I'll give My people peace, and I'll force out the dangerous animals from the land. My people will be able to camp peacefully in wild places and sleep in the woods. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²⁶I'll bless you and the places around My holy hill. I'll send rain, showers of blessings, and they will come at just the right time. {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ²⁷Trees will produce their fruit, and crops will grow, and everyone will be safe. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3\ When I've set you free from slavery, then you'll know that I am the LORD. ²⁸No longer will other nations defeat you, nor will wild animals attack you. You'll be safe and unafraid. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

²⁹"Your land will be known for its abundant crops, and you'll never go hungry and never be laughed at by foreigners. ³⁰You'll know that you, the people of Israel, are My people," {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} says the Sovereign LORD. ³¹"You are My flock, the sheep of My pasture. You are My people, and I am your God," {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} says the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 35 Judgment against Mount Seir and Edom

¹Again the LORD spoke to me: ²"Son of man, prophesy against the people of Mount Seir (Edom). ³Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: 'I'm your enemy, Mount Seir, and I'll destroy you completely. ⁴I'll destroy your cities and make your land a desert waste, and then you'll know that I am the LORD:" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Seir means rugged country, and Edom was the nation south of the Dead Sea inhabited by the descendants of Esau. They had hated God's people ever since Jacob tricked Esau out of the birthright for a mess of pottage. When God's people were judged, Edom gloated and killed the survivors fleeing from danger. God says to Edom, "I will stretch out my hand against you" (v. 3). Lord, there are people in my life that hate You and Your commands. They may not use the word "hate," but they reject You and resist Your rule. I pray for them to be saved. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Open their eyes to see their sin against You. Convict them of their sin and bring them to repentance. Amen.

⁵"Your hatred for the people of Israel led you to kill them when they were helpless and being punished for their sins. ⁶As surely as I live,' says the Sovereign LORD, 'since you enjoy blood so much, I'll give you a bloodbath. {268

Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 7I'll make Mount Seir deserted, and I'll kill any who try to escape and any who return. 8Dead bodies will cover your mountains, hills, and valleys, and your streams will be filled with people killed by the sword. 9You'll be deserted forever, and your cities will never be rebuilt. Then you'll know that I am the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10""You thought Israel and Judah belonged to you, and that you could take over their land. ¹¹But as surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, 'I'll pay back your angry deeds with Mine. I'll punish you for being angry and hateful toward My people. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} I'll honor My name by what I did to you. ¹²Then you'll know that I, the LORD, heard every disrespectful word you said against Israel. You said, 'They've been destroyed, and now we can take their land.' 13But in saying that, you were speaking against Me, and I heard all that you said." ¹⁴The Sovereign LORD says, "Everyone will be glad {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} when they hear that I have made you desolate. 15 You rejoiced that the land of Israel became deserted. Now I'll rejoice that your land, Edom, will be desolate. You, Edom, will be desolate. Then you'll know that I am the LORD." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹The LORD said, "Son of man, prophesy to Israel's mountains, and say, 'Mountains of Israel, hear the Word of the LORD.

Ezekiel 36 A Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

²Your enemies said your mountains belong to them.' {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 3So, Son of man, give the mountains this message from the Sovereign LORD. 'Your enemies attacked you from every side, and now foreign nations have possessed you and make fun of you. ⁴Therefore, Mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. All you mountains, hills, streams, and valleys, listen to Me. Your towns will lie in ruins and are deserted and foreign nations have destroyed them and made fun of you. 5But My anger is against these nations, especially Edom, because they laughed at you and took over your land." 6Therefore the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains, hills, streams, and valleys, "I am very angry because you have suffered at the hands of foreign nations. ⁷Therefore I now promise that those nations will suffer shame. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

8"Trees on your mountains will produce lots of fruit for My people who will soon return home. 9Israel, I'll take care of you and help you by plowing your soil and sowing your crops. 10I'll increase the population of Israel, and the people will rebuild their ruined cities. 11Also, your flocks and herds will multiply. Mountains of Israel, I'll bring people to live on you again. And I'll make you more prosperous than before. Then you'll know that I am the LORD. 12I'll cause My people to walk on you again, You'll belong to them. And you'll never again be a place where they burn their children alive to idols." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

¹³The Sovereign LORD says, "Other nations have made fun of you saying, 'Israel is a land that devours her people.' ¹⁴But you'll never do that again," says the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁵"I'll not allow these nations to make fun of you, and they'll no longer put you to shame."

¹⁶This message also came from the LORD: ¹⁷"Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their land, they made it unclean by their sins. Their conduct was filthy as a bloody rag. ¹⁸They committed murder and worshiped idols, which further polluted the land. So I poured out My wrath on them, ¹⁹ and I scattered them to other nations {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} to punish them for their sins. ²⁰But when they were in these other countries, they dishonored My holy name. The nations said, 'These are the LORD's people, and He couldn't keep them safe in His own land.' 21 Then I was concerned that My holy name had been dishonored throughout the world.

²²"Give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: 'You don't deserve it, but I'm bringing you back to your land. ²³Why then am I doing this? To protect the reputation of My holy name, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} which you dishonored. And My bringing you home will show the nations that I am the LORD. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁴I'll gather you from the nations and bring you home again. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

²⁵"This will be as if I sprinkle clean water on you, and you'll be clean. I'll wash away the filth of your sins, and you'll no longer worship idols. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²⁶I'll give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you. This will replace your present stony heart of sin with a new, obedient heart." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Israel is the key to understanding God's timetable of the future. Because of Israel's sin in the Old Testament, she was judged and scattered among the Gentile nations. In God's time He sent His Son Jesus to live among the Jews and die for the sins of the world. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} Ezekiel's prediction will have a double fulfillment. Ezekiel says God will give a "new heart... and a new spirit... within you {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} and I will take away the stony heart" (v. 26). This is a picture of our regeneration when Christians are born again and given new desires to serve God. But it also has a second fulfillment when Israel is brought back to the land of promise and they are transformed inwardly. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Lord, thank You for a new nature to love You and hate sin. {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} I couldn't live for You if You had not given me a new heart and a new nature. I will obey {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} the impulses to do righteously and reject impulses to sin. Amen.

²⁷"And I'll put My Spirit in you {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} to help you obey

My laws and do what I command." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Ezekiel also promises the double fulfillment of "I will put my Spirit within you" (v. 27). Jesus promised the Holy Spirit, "He dwells with you and will be in you" (John 14:17). We have a double enablement that will help us obey God. First, we have a new nature, and second; we have the indwelling Holy Spirit. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} Lord, I will follow the positive desires of my new nature. I will let the indwelling Holy Spirit lead me. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} Lord, I want to be holy and I want to be spiritual. I yield to the power of the Holy Spirit to make it happen. Amen. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

²⁸"You'll again live in the land I gave your ancestors. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} You'll be My people, and I'll be your God. ²⁹I'll cleanse you of your sins, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and give you abundant crops, and you'll never again have famine in the land. ³⁰You'll have abundant crops from your fruit trees and fields, and never again will your neighboring nations make fun of you for having famines.

³¹"You'll remember your sinful ways and despise yourselves for what you did. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³²But remember,' says the Sovereign LORD, 'T'm not doing this because you deserve it. In fact, you should be ashamed of what you've done. I, the LORD, have promised this, and I'll do it."

33The Sovereign LORD says, "When I cleanse you from your sins, {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} I'll bring people to live in your cities, and the ruins of houses and cities will be rebuilt. ³⁴Fields that used to be empty and desolate will again be farmed, after 70 years when the people were first taken into captivity. 35People will be amazed at the difference between the deserted land and the land that now looks like the Garden of Eden. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ³⁶Then surviving nations will know that I, the LORD, rebuilt the ruins and planted crops in the desert. I, the LORD, make this promise."

³⁷This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "I'll once again hear your prayers, and I'm ready to grant these requests. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ³⁸The towns will be filled with people, and in the festivals Jerusalem will be filled with flocks. Ruined cities will be filled with people once again, {403 Restoration of Fallen Believers-Prayer, Gal. 6:1} and everyone will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 37 The Valley of Dried-Up Bones

¹The Spirit of the LORD {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} carried me to a valley filled with bones. ²He showed me the old, dry bones scattered on the valley floor. ³Then He said to me, "Son of man, can these bones come alive again?" "Sovereign LORD," I replied, "only You know the answer to that." {549 Yielding-Prayer,

Luke 22:42} ⁴Then He said, "Tell the bones this: 'Dry bones, listen to the Word of the LORD. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ⁵I, the LORD, will put breath in you. {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ⁶I'll put muscles and skin on you, and breathe life into you. Then you'll know that I am the LORD." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

⁷So I spoke those words, and immediately I heard a rattling noise all across the valley. ⁸The bones were coming together and attaching to each other. Muscles and skin covered the bones, but they had no life in them.

Israel had given up hope when the people heard Jerusalem had fallen and was destroyed, "Our hope is lost" (v. 11.). The dead bones are Israel, and this chapter is a message of hope and encouragement. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} There are two aspects of the resurrection; first, it will be a national re-emergence of the nation Israel as individuals are brought together without life, that is, bone to bone. This is a reference to the nation Israel coming together politically in May, 1948 in the land of Israel. They did not recognize Jehovah as their Lord, so they were in unbelief. Lord, I know Your plan involves the Jews, and You bless those who bless the Jews (Gen. 12:2, 3). So, I pray for Israel and I pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps. 122:67). Amen.

Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁰So I gave them this command and they came back to life and stood up. There were so many, it was like a vast army. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

The second resurrection refers to the spiritual regeneration of physical Jews into the future millennium. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Jews will repent and return to their Lord, and then they will be regenerated. The Jews who died in faith will be resurrected and join them in the land. King David will be raised and will be their vice president (vs. 24, 25). Jesus will be the ruler (President). Israel will no longer defile themselves (v. 23). Lord, I believe You have a great plan for the Jews and You will raise them. I also believe You will raise me in the resurrection {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} and I shall live with You (John 14:2, 3) in heaven. Amen.

¹¹Then the LORD said, "Ezekiel, the people of Israel are like these dead bones. They complain that they are old and dried out and that they have no hope. {226 Hope-Inspired Prayer, Titus 1:2} ¹²So say to them that the Sovereign LORD says He'll open your graves and bring you out. And He'll bring you back to the land of Israel. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ¹³Then when I do this, {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} you'll know that I'm the LORD. ¹⁴"I'll put My Spirit in you and you'll live and I'll settle you in your land. Then you'll know that I've done as I said, and that I've spoken these words."

15 Again the LORD said, "Get a stick and write on it 'The kingdom of Judah.' 16 Then get another stick and write on it 'The kingdom of Israel.' 17Join them together so that they are like one stick. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁸When people ask you what this means, ¹⁹tell them, 'I, the Sovereign LORD, will join Israel and Judah, making them one.' {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²⁰Hold these sticks together, ²¹and tell the people of Israel that I'll bring them home from the nations where they are scattered. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²²They'll be one nation in the land with a king over them. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} They'll no longer be two nations. ²³They'll no longer worship idols and commit other sins. I'll wash them from their sins and make them clean, and I'll keep them from backsliding. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} They'll again be My people, and I'll be their God."

God's desire is to "Be their God" (v. 27) and "Be with them" v. 27). He will make His sanctuary—Tabernacle (vs. 26, 27)—with them. Lord, today I want You to live in my life; make my heart Your dwelling place. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} Come make my heart Your Tabernacle, and rule my life from the inside out. Amen.

²⁴"My servant David will be their king, and he'll be like a shepherd to them. They'll obey My regulations and keep My laws. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁵They'll live in the land where their ancestors lived, the land I gave My servant Jacob. ²⁶I promise to give them eternal peace. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} I'll multiply them as a nation, and I'll have My temple stand in the land forever. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} ²⁷I'll live among My people, and I'll be their God and they'll be My people. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ²⁸Everyone will know that My temple is in Israel and that I've set the Israelites apart to be holy to Me."

Ezekiel 38 Prophecies against Gog

¹The LORD said, ²"Son of man, speak against Gog, in the land of Magog, who rules over Meshech and Tubal. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: 3'I, the LORD God, am your enemy, 4and I'll put a hook in your jaws, and drag away you and your army, with your cavalry, and shields and swords. 5Your army includes soldiers from Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with their shields and helmets, ⁶and also Gomer and Beth-Togarmah in the far north. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7"Be prepared for your armies to fight 8because in the future I'll command you to invade Israel, a people recovered from war but who'll have returned from foreign nations where they once lived. They now live in safety in the mountains of their own land. 9But you'll attack them, advancing like a storm and surrounding them like a cloud. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 10"'In that future day you'll have evil thoughts and you'll devise a wicked plan. ¹¹You'll plan to invade a land of unwalled villages where the people are peaceful and living in safety and in towns without walls, gates, and bars. 12 You'll rob people in towns that were once in ruins. They are now filled with people who were captives in foreign nations, but they have now returned to Israel and are rich in livestock and goods. ¹³People of Sheba and Dedan and merchants from southern Spain will be your allies. You'll loot some of their silver and gold and livestock and goods.'

¹⁴"Son of man, prophesy against 'Gog and say in that day, when My people are living in peace, {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁵you'll lead your powerful cavalry, ¹⁶and go against My people like a cloud. In the future days, 'Gog, I'll bring you against My land. Then every nation will know that I, the LORD, am holy." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

¹⁷The Sovereign LORD says, "Years ago I had My prophets warn the people of Israel that I would send an enemy to attack them. ¹⁸But when you invade Israel, I'll be very angry, ¹⁹and in My anger I'll send a terrible earthquake. ²⁰All living things: wild animals, reptiles, and humans will tremble in fear of Me. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} Mountains will be overturned, cliffs will crumble, and cities will collapse. ²¹I, the LORD, will summon the sword against you," says the Sovereign LORD.

"Your soldiers will be so frightened that they'll attack each other. ²²I'll punish you with disease and death. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I'll pour rain, hail, and burning sulphur on you and your army. ²³In this way I'll show My greatness and holiness and I'll make Myself known to the nations. Then they'll know that I, the LORD, am holy." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Note the following timeline. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 1. Israel will be scattered among the Gentiles, without a home of her own. (First by Babylon, 586 B.C., then by Rome, A.D. 70). 2. The United Nations recognized Israel's home west of Jordan in May, 1948. 3. Some Jews returned in unbelief, but not all. 4. After the rapture of the church, the antichrist will make a covenant with Israel to give them safety for 7 years in their home land (Dan. 9:26-27). 5. Israel will lose her religious liberty (Matt. 24:15-16; Rev. 13:1-8). 6. The antichrist will do miracles and impose himself as deity upon the world, including Israel (2 Thess. 2:4; Rev. 13:4-10). 7. A coalition of the nations will make war against Israel (Rev. 16:13-16). 8. The Lord Jesus will return from heaven (Rev. 19:19) and overcome them (Rev. 19:20-21). 9. Then Israel will repent and turn to the Lord, and be ushered into the Millennium, and saved Israel will be resurrected and join them. Lord, I see Your program for Israel and I worship You, the Lord God of Israel. Just as You will keep Your promises to Israel, I know You will keep Your promises to me. Amen.

1"Son of man, prophesy against Gog and tell him, 'You are the leader of Meshech and Tubal, but I, the LORD, am your enemy. ²I'll drag you from the north, and I'll bring you to the mountains of Israel. ³I'll knock the bow out of your left hand and the arrows out of your right hand. ⁴You and your vast army will die on the mountains. Birds and wild animals will eat your dead bodies ⁵in the open fields. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken. ⁶I'll set Magog on fire as well as nations on the coast. They'll know that I am the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

7"'My people will no longer desecrate My holy name. Everyone will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. 8The day is coming when these things will happen just as I have said. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9When that day comes, people in the towns of Israel will collect the weapons of their enemies—shields, bows and arrows, spears, and clubs—and will use them for fuel for seven years. 10They won't need to gather wood from the fields or chop down trees. This will be the Israelites' way of taking revenge on those who robbed and looted them.

¹²The Israelites will spend seven months burying dead bodies. ¹³Everyone in Israel will help, and the LORD will honor them when they see My glory. ¹⁴After those seven months people will be appointed to bury those that remain on the ground. ¹⁵When one of them finds a human bone, he'll set up a marker beside it. Then the gravediggers will bury those bones in "the Valley of God's Army." ¹⁶A town named Hamonah (meaning "Gog's Army") will be nearby. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

²¹Therefore the Sovereign LORD says, "I'll bring back My glory among the nations. Everyone will see the punishment I've inflicted on them. ²²Then the Israelites will know that I am the LORD their God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²³Foreign nations will realize the Israelites had to leave their land because of their sin against Me. ²⁴They deserved to be punished because of their wicked ways." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁵Now the Sovereign LORD says, "I'll show mercy to the Israelites and bring them back from the nations where they'll be captives. ²⁶They'll be safe in their land, but they'll be ashamed of their sinful ways. ²⁷⁻²⁸Foreign nations will know that I am the LORD their God when I bring them back to their land. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²⁹I'll never again turn My back on the people of Israel, and My Spirit will live in them," says the Sovereign LORD. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

Most biblical scholars agree that Gog (38:1) is a symbolic name for the nations as a whole north of Israel. Meshech is Moscow. Tubal, a son of Japheth (Gen. 10:2), lived in the Caucasus Mountains. Persia is today's Iran, Ethiopia is today's nation in Northern Africa, and Libya another nation in Northern Africa on the Mediterranean Sea. Gomer is modern-day Germany, and Togarmah is modern Turkey (38:2-6). Some of these nations are Arabic in opposition to Israel.

Israel's enemies appear to oppose Israel to the end, just as some people will hate you because of your faith. They will not change their hatred until God transforms them through the new birth. Lord, I pray for those who hate me. Save them, transform them {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}, and may they follow You, as I am Your disciple. I pray against Israel's enemies, because they are Your enemies. I pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps. 122:6). Amen.

Ezekiel 40 A Vision of the House of the LORD

⁵The first thing I saw was a wall surrounding the temple area. The man took his measuring rod, which was 10 feet long, and he measured the wall. It was 10 feet high and 10 feet thick. ⁶Then he went to the gate that faced east, and he walked up steps that led to a long passageway. It was 10 feet deep. ⁷Guard alcoves were built into the gateway passage. ⁸Each alcove was 10 and a half feet deep, and they were separated by a distance between them of 8 feet. ⁹The gateway's inner threshold, which led to the foyer at the end of the passage, was 10 feet deep, and faced the temple. The last guardroom was 13 feet from the doorway to the opposite wall, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was three feet. ¹⁰The three guardrooms on each side of the passageway were the same size, and the walks that separated them were the same thickness.

¹¹Then the man measured the width of the passageway, and it was 22 feet, and the two doors of the gate were 16 feet wide. ¹²In front of each alcove was a wall 21 inches thick. And the alcoves were 100 feet square. ¹³He measured the entrance room at the far end of the passageway, and it was 42 feet. The entrance room at the far end of the passage was 34 feet wide. 14He also measured the inside walls of the gate complex, it was 90 feet from the porch to the courtyard. ¹⁵The man also measured the length of the passageway, and it was 85 feet. ¹⁶The three walls in the guardrooms had small windows in them, like the ones in the entrance room. The walls along the passageway were decorated with carved palm trees.

¹⁷The man then led me {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} through the passageway and into the outer courtyard of the temple. Thirty rooms were built against the outer wall, and in front of them was a sidewalk around the courtyard. ¹⁸This was called the lower sidewalk, and it was 85 feet wide. ¹⁹I saw the gates leading to the temple's inner courtyard, and I saw that they were higher than the gates leading to the outer courtyard. The distance between the outer and inner gates was 175 feet.

²⁰Then the man measured the north gate leading to the outer courtyard. ²¹This gate also had three guardrooms on each side of the passageway. The measurements of these rooms and of the walls between them, and the entrance room at the far end of the passageway were the same as those of the east gate. The north gate was also 85 feet long and 42 feet wide. ²²The windows, the entrance room, and the carvings of palm trees were exactly like those in the east gate. The entrance room also faced the courtyard and had seven steps leading up to it. ²³On the north side was another gateway leading to the inner courtyard opposite the outer gateway. The distance between the outer and inner gates was 175 feet.

²⁴The man then took me to the south gate. He measured the walls and the entrance room of this gate, and the measurements were the same as those of the other two gates. ²⁵Windows were in the guardrooms of this gate and in the entrance room, like the others, and this gate was 85 feet long and 42 feet wide. ²⁶Seven steps led up to the gate, and palm tree decorations were along the dividing walls. ²⁷Another gateway led into the inner courtyard. The distance between the two gateways was 175 feet.

²⁸Then the man took me to the south gate that led into the inner courtyard. It had the same measurements as the other gateways. ²⁹Everything along the passageway was the same size, and this included the guardrooms, the walls separating them, the entrance room at the far end, and the windows. This gate was like the others, 85 feet long and 42 feet wide. ³⁰Its guardrooms and entrance and exit halls and windows were identical to the others. ³¹The one difference is that eight steps, not seven, led up to the gate. Palm tree decorations were on the passageway walls.

³²Next we went through the east gate to the inner courtyard. This gate had the same measurements as the others. ³³The guardrooms, the walls separating them, the windows, the entrance rooms, and everything along the passageway was the same size. This gate was 85 feet long and 42 feet wide. ³⁴The entrance room faced the outer courtyard, and palm trees decorated the walls. Eight steps led up to this gate.

³⁵Then the man took me to the north gate. Its guard rooms, the walls separating them, ³⁶and its entrance rooms were the same size as the others. The guard rooms, the walls separating them, and the entrance room were the same size as the other gates. The entrance room had windows and the gate was 85 feet long and 42 feet wide. ³⁷The entrance room faced the outer courtyard, and the passageway walls were decorated with carvings of palm trees. Eight steps led up to this gate.

³⁸A door led from the foyer of the inner gateway on the north side into a side room ³⁹where there were four tables where animals to be sacrificed were killed. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ⁴⁰Outside this room was a small building used for washing animals before they were offered as sacrifices to the LORD. ⁴¹Outside the foyer were two more tables leading to the north entrance. So there were eight tables in all, four inside and four outside. At these eight tables the sacrifices were cut up and prepared. ⁴²Four stone tables were 21 inches high and 31 inches square where animals were butchered for burnt offerings. The butchering knives and other implements were kept on the tables. ⁴³Hooks, each three inches long, were attached to the walls. The flesh of the offerings was to be laid on the tables.

⁴⁴The man then took me to the inner courtyard where there were two one-room buildings, one beside the inner northern gate facing south, and one beside the inner southern gate facing north. ⁴⁵The man said to me, "The building beside the north gate is for the priests who supervise the temple, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ⁴⁶and the building beside the south gate is for the priests who serve at the altar. They are descendants of Zadok, the only Levites allowed to serve as the LORD's priests.

⁴⁷The man measured the inner courtyard, and it was 175 feet square. An altar was in front of the temple. ⁴⁸Then he measured the doorway of the porch. Ten steps led up to it from the inner court. The doorway was 24 feet long, eight feet wide, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was five feet. ⁴⁹The entry hall was 34 feet by 20 feet, with steps leading up to it with a column on each side.

Ezekiel is transported in a vision to the temple mount. What is this temple? 1. Some say it describes Solomon's temple that was destroyed. 2. Some say it is the blueprint for Zerubbabel to rebuild the temple. 3. Some say it is the place for the returning Jews to build during the Tribulation. But notice what is left out, that is, the sacred chest, the mercy seat, the Table of Showbread, and the golden lamp stand. 4. Some say this is an allegory of the future temple in heaven where the Body of Christ will worship. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 5. Perhaps all these views are wrong, and that Ezekiel is describing a real temple in Jerusalem in the future. Lord, I believe You will keep Your promises to Israel and they will worship You in this temple in Jerusalem in the future Millennium. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} But I don't need a temple, because wherever Your presence is located, that's Your sanctuary. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Come make Your home in my body. Be glorified through me. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} I will worship You for Your indwelling in my heart. Amen.

Ezekiel 41 The Temple Measurements

¹Then the man brought me into the holy place, {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} the large main room of the temple. He measured the doorway to this room, and it was 10 feet wide, ²17 feet long, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on either side was eight feet. This main room was 68 feet by 34 feet. ³Then the man walked to the far end of the holy place, and he said, "Beyond this doorway is the most holy place." He measured the doorway. It was three feet wide, 10 feet long, and the distance from the doorway to the wall on each side was 12 feet. ⁴The most holy place was 34 feet square.

In verse 4, Ezekiel is shown "the most Holy Place" which is the "Holy of Holies." This is the room where the sacred chest was located, and the High Priest entered with blood on the Day of Atonement to make redemption for God's people. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} It is the Holy of all Holies, because a holy God came to dwell in that room. Nothing can be more holy than God. Lord, make my heart a "holy of holies." Come make Your home in the sanctuary of my body. Because You are holy, make my life holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} I will separate myself from sin to reflect glory to You. Thank You for the blood of Christ Jesus that cleanses me from all sin (1 John 1:7). Amen.

⁵The man then measured the wall and found that it was 10 feet thick, with a row of rooms along the outside wall, each seven feet wide. ⁶These rooms were in three levels, one about the others, with 30 rooms in each level. They rested on ledges attached to the temple walls, so that nothing was built into the walls. ⁷The temple walls were thicker at the bottom than at the top, so that the level of rooms at the top were wider than those at the bottom. A stairway at the side of the temple led from the bottom level to the middle level to the top level.

⁸The temple was built on a stone base 10 feet high, which was also the foundation for the storage rooms. ⁹The outside walls of the storage rooms were eight feet thick. ¹⁰The nearest buildings were 34 feet away from a row of rooms in the inner court. ¹¹One door led into the storage rooms on the north side of the temple, and another door led to the storage rooms on the south side.

¹²Another building faced the west end of the temple. It was 117 feet wide, 150 feet long, and its walls were over eight feet thick. ¹³The man measured the length of the temple, and it was 175 feet. The court-yard around the back wall of the temple was also 175 feet. ¹⁴And the distance across the front of the temple was 175 feet. ⁽³⁹⁴ Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12) ¹⁵The length of the west building with its side rooms was also 175 feet.

The inside walls of the temple porch and the holy place and most holy place were paneled with wood 16 along with the window frames and side rooms. ¹⁷The space above the door leading into the most holy place was also paneled. ¹⁸The walls were decorated with carvings of creatures. Each had two faces, and a carving of a palm tree was between each winged creature. ¹⁹One face was that of a man, and it looked to one of the palm trees. The other face was that of a young lion, and it looked to the palm tree on the other side. These figures were carved all along the inside of the temple; ²⁰ from the floor to the top of the walls. ²¹Square pillars were at the entrance to the holy place and the most holy place. ²²A wooden altar in front of the doorway to the most holy place was five feet high and four feet square. Its corners, base, and sides were all made of wood. The man said. "This altar is a reminder of the LORD's presence." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

²³The doorway to the main room of the temple and the doorway to the most holy place had two doors, ²⁴and each door had two sections that could be opened. ²⁵The doors leading into the holy place were decorated with carvings of winged creatures and palm trees like those on the walls. And there was a wooden covering over the porch outside these doors. ²⁶Small windows decorated with carvings of palm trees were on each side of the porch.

Ezekiel 42 Chambers to the North and South

¹The man {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} led me into the outer courtyard and brought me to the rooms against the north wall of the courtyards. ²This set of rooms was 175 feet long and 87 and a half feet wide. 3The rows of rooms were on the inner wall of the courtyard. The rooms were on three levels with doors opening toward the north, ⁴and in front of them was a walkway 18 feet wide and 175 feet long. 5Each level of rooms was narrower than those below it. 6Since the levels did not have supporting pillars as the courtyards, the central and top levels were set back from the level below it. 7An outer wall separated the rooms from the outer courtyard. It was 87 and a half feet deep. ⁸But the rooms closest to the temple measured 175 feet. 9A door led from the outer courtyard to the lower level of rooms.

¹⁰Also a set of rooms was on the south side of the outer courtyard, opposite the outer wall. ¹¹These were like rooms on the north, and had the same length and width. Also a walkway was in front of these rooms. ¹²The door to the beginning of the passageway to these rooms was like the passageway on the wall on the east.

¹³Then the man said to me, "The rooms on the north and south sides of the temple are for the priests to eat the food from the holy offerings. These include grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ¹⁴After the priests enter these rooms, they are not to go into the outer courtyard until they leave behind the garments in which they minister, for they are holy, and are to put on regular clothes."

¹⁵When the man finished measuring the inside of the temple area, he took me back through the east gate and measured the wall around the entire area. ¹⁶The east side was 840 feet long, ¹⁷the north side was 840 feet long, ¹⁸the south side was 840 feet long. ²⁰The distance was the same on all four sides, making the temple area a perfect square. The wall separated the holy from the common.

Because Ezekiel was born in the Tribe of Levi, and had been a priest (1:3), he was concerned with the rooms in the temple and gave their exact measurements. Lord, I want to handle the temple of my body as carefully as Ezekiel wrote about the coming temple in the Millennium. {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} Lord, I want to do everything You want me to do; teach me what to do. I want You to dwell in every part of my body; I yield it all to You. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} I want You to be glorified in every part of my body; come possess every part of my temple. I only have this one body; I give it to You for Your purpose. Amen.

Ezekiel 43 The Glory of the LORD Returns to the Temple

¹Then the man brought me to the gate facing east, ²and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} I heard a sound like the roar of rushing water, and the land was radiant with His glory. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ³The vision was like what I had seen when he came to destroy the city of Jerusalem and like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River, {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} and I fell facedown. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ⁴The LORD's glory entered the temple through the eastern gate.

Ezekiel saw the glory of God return to Jerusalem through the East Gate. This is the same gate by which God's glory left Jerusalem (10:19). There is a principle to remember: God returns the way He left. When you sin in any area of your life, you must get God back through the door He left. {399

Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} You must confess the sin of that area, and apply the blood of Christ to that area. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Lord, I want You to live in every area of my life. When I've sinned in any area, I confess the sin of that area—forgive me—cleanse me—restore me. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} Come back into that area to live and reign. Amen.

⁵The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13}

Lord, I will go to a church building every Lord's Day. I want to meet You there. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:I, 2} Speak to me when I obey Your command to gather with other believers (Heb. 10:25). Speak in Your house. Amen.

⁶The man was standing beside me, and I heard the LORD say from inside the temple, {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} 7"Son of man, this temple is My throne on earth. I'll live here among the Israelites forever. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} They and their kings will never defile My holy name again by their prostitution and their worship of lifeless idols at their hilltop shrines. ⁸They built their idol temples right next to Mine, with only a wall between them. This and their evil ways ruined My holy name and so I destroyed them in My anger. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9But if they stop worshiping these idols and tear down the pillars to honor their kings, I'll live among them forever. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

¹⁰"Son of man, describe the temple to the Israelite, ¹¹so they'll be ashamed of their sins. Show them the plan, explaining the design and shape. Then if they are truly sorry for having sinned against Me, explain to them the gates and measurements, and the regulations about worshiping there. Then write these things down so they can study and obey them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹²The most important thing about My temple mount is its holiness. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

13"These are to be the measurements of the altar. Around the altar at the bottom there is to be a gutter 20 inches wide and 20 inches deep, with a 9 inch ledge on the outer rim. 14 The altar is to rest on a base of three sections, each of them square. The bottom section is to be 27 feet on each side and three feet high. ¹⁵The middle section is to be 24 feet on each side and 7 feet high, with a 10 inch rim around the outer edge. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ¹⁶The top section, which is to be 20 feet on each side and 7 feet high, is where sacrifices were burned. 17The four corners of the altar looked like the horns of a bull. Steps leading up to the altar were on the east side."

¹⁸The LORD God said to me, "Son of man, the Sovereign LORD says that after the altar is built, it must be dedicated to Me by {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ¹⁹having the priests of the family of Zadok slaughter a young bull as a sacrifice for sin. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} ²⁰Smear some of the animal's blood on the four horns of the altar, the four corners of the upper ledge, and the rim that runs around that ledge. This will cleanse it and make atonement for the altar. ²¹Then take the young bull for the sin offering and burn it at the appointed place outside the temple area. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

²⁵"Every day for seven days sacrifice a male goat and young bull, and a ram as a sin offering. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} These animals are to have no physical defects. ²⁶Do this each day for seven days, thus setting it apart for Me. ²⁷On the eight day and each day after that, the priests are to sacrifice on the altar the burnt offerings and thank offerings of the people. Then I'll be pleased with you," says the Sovereign LORD.

Ezekiel 44 The Laws Concerning the House of the LORD

¹The man took me back to the outer courtyard and near the east gateway, but the doors to this gate were closed. ²Then the LORD said to me, "This gate must remain closed because the LORD, the God of Israel, entered here. No one must use it."

Ezekiel deals with those who may minister in the new temple. Ezekiel sees the East Gate is shut permanently, "It shall not be opened" (v. 2). That's because the Lord came through that gate and a human would desecrate it. But it also suggests the Lord will never again depart from His temple. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Lord, You've entered my life and I've become Your sanctuary (1 Cor. 3:16; 2 Cor. 6:16). Dwell in me and be glorified in my body. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} You have given me eternal life and I shall have it forever. Amen.

³"The ruler of Israel may come here to eat a sacrificed meal that's been offered to Me, but he must use only the entrance room of this gate."

⁴Then the man took me through the north gateway. I saw that the glory of the LORD filled the temple, {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} and I fell with my face to the ground. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16}

Again Ezekiel "looked and behold the glory of the LORD filled the house of the Lord: and I fell on my face" (44:4). Lord, I too fell on my face in worship because You dwell with Your people. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} You are Emmanuel, "God with us" (Matt. 1:23). You came to live among us in the incarnation, now You come to live in me in salvation. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17} I worship You with my face to the ground. Amen.

⁵Then the LORD said, "Son of man, I'll give you laws for My temple. So listen carefully to what I tell you who can be admitted to the temple and who is to be excluded. 6Say to these rebellious foreigners {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} that you have sinned greatly by letting godless pagans enter My temple. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 7You let them enter My temple to offer sacrifices to Me, ⁸and you have put foreigners in charge of worship at My temple. 9And so I, the LORD God, say that no godless foreigners will be allowed in the temple. And this includes foreign residents living in Israel." ¹⁰The LORD said, "The people of the tribe of Levi who worshiped idols must be punished. 11 They'll be allowed to serve only as temple workers by guarding the gates and killing animals to be sacrificed and helping the worshipers. ¹²But because these Levites worshiped idols, I, the LORD God, will see that these Levites will be punished. These priests did not stop the Israelites from sinning. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 13So now I'll no longer let the Levites serve as My priests. They may not touch any of My holy things or the holy offerings, because they must bear the shame of all the sins they've committed. 14All they'll be allowed to do is maintenance work and helping the people in a general way.

15"The Levitical priests who are descendants of Zadok were faithful to Me when other Israelites disobeyed Me. So these priests will continue to stand in My presence {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and offer the fat and blood of sacrifices," says the Sovereign LORD. 16"They are the ones who'll enter where they'll offer sacrifices at My altar. ¹⁷When they enter the inner courtyard, they must wear their linen priestly garments. My priests must never wear anything made of wool when they are on duty in the courtyard or the temple. ¹⁸Their turbans and undergarments must also be of linen, because wearing wool will cause them to perspire. ¹⁹Before they return to the outer courtyard, they must remove their linen garments and leave them in the sacred rooms and put on their regular clothing. That way no one will touch their garments and be consecrated by them.

²⁰"They must not shave their heads or let their hair grow long, but they must keep it properly trimmed. ²¹They must not drink wine before entering the inner courtyard. ²²They may marry only virgins from Israel or widows of another priest. ²³Priests must teach My people the difference between what is sacred and what is ordinary, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} between what is clean and what is unclean. ²⁴They'll make decisions in different legal cases, according to My laws. They must also observe the religious festivals My law requires {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and must respect the Sabbath.

²⁵"A priest must not go near a dead body unless it's one of his parents or children, or his brother or an unmarried sister. ²⁶If a priest touches a dead body, he is unclean and must go through a ceremony to make himself ceremonially clean. Seven days later ²⁷he must go to the inner courtyard and offer a sacrifice for sin. After that he may again serve as My priest. I, the LORD God, have spoken these words. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22}

²⁸ The priests are not to own any property, because I'll provide for them. 29Instead they'll receive part of the grain sacrifices and part of the sin offerings and part of the guilt offerings. They'll also receive anything in Israel that has been completely dedicated to Me. 30Also the first part of every harvest will belong to the priests. And they'll receive part of all gifts and offerings the Israelites bring to Me. The first part of the people's flour must be given to the priests, and I'll bless the homes of the people who do this. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} ³¹The priests must not eat any bird or animal that dies a natural death or that has been killed by a wild animal."

Ezekiel 45 The Division of the Land

¹"When you divide the land among the tribes of Israel, you must first give a section of it to Me. This area will be eight miles long and three miles wide. ²The temple will be on a piece of land 840 feet square, and the temple will be surrounded by an open space 84 feet wide. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³The most holy place will be located on a sacred piece of land eight miles long and three miles wide. ⁴I'll give half of my sacred land, eight miles long and three miles wide, to the priests who serve in My temple. Their houses and the temple will be in this half."

Ezekiel described the portion of land that is designated for the priest. It is to be on a high hill (v. 2) with walled courts for privacy and protection (v. 4). Notice the place they live "shall be holy" (v. 1). That suggests we must dedicate our house (apartments, condos, or rooms) to God to be holy for Him. Lord, I give You my house; come live there and be glorified there. I will not keep evil things there, nor will I do evil there. Come live in my house, and may people who visit me realize it is a holy place that is dedicated to You. Protect my dwelling from harm. I will use my house to glorify You. Amen.

5"I'll give the other half of My land to the Levites who work in My temple, and the towns where they live will be there.

6"Next to the larger sacred land will be an area eight miles long and two miles wide. This will belong to the people of Israel and will include the city of Jerusalem."

The LORD said, "The area west and east of My sacred land and the city of Jerusalem will belong to the ruler of Israel. He'll have the region between the western edge of My land, the Mediterranean Sea, and between the eastern edge of My land and the Jordan River. The length of this property will be the same as the sections of land given to the tribes. ⁸These sections of land will be for the prince of Israel."

The LORD God then said, "You leaders of Israel will no longer oppress and rob My people. Assign the rest of the land to the people, giving an allotment to each tribe. 9You must do what the Sovereign LORD says. 'You princes of Israel, start doing what is right and stop expelling people from their homes. 10 Use only honest weights and scales, honest dry volume measures, and honest dry and liquid volume measures. 11 The homer (about six and a half bushels) will be your standard dry measure, and the ephah will be one-tenth of a homer for dry measure and the bath will be one-tenth of a homer for liquid measure. 12 The standard unit of weight will be the shekel (about half an ounce). One shekel will equal 20 gerahs, and 60 shekels will equal one mina.

¹³"'You must give the prince a bushel of wheat or barley for every 60 you reap, ¹⁴one percent of your olive oil, ¹⁵and one sheep for every 200 in your flocks. These will be the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings that will be substitutionary payment for sin,' {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} says the Sovereign LORD. ¹⁶'The people must join the prince in bringing these offerings. ¹⁷The prince is to provide offerings that are given at religious festivals, the new moon celebrations, the Sabbath days, and all similar occasions.'" {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10}

¹⁸The Sovereign God says, "In early spring, on the first day of each new year, sacrifice to Me a young bull that has no physical defects. This is to purify the temple. ¹⁹The priests are to put some of the blood of this animal on the doorposts of the temple {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} and on the four corners of the altar and on the doorposts of the gates that lead into the inner courtyard. ²⁰The same must be done on the seventh day of the month, so that anyone who sins accidentally without knowing it will help keep My temple holy. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

²¹"Each year celebrate the Passover, beginning on the 14th day of the new year and continuing for seven days. Eat only bread made without yeast. ²²On the first day of the Passover the prince is to offer a young bull as a sin offering for himself and the people. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²³Each day of the Passover the prince is to bring seven bulls and seven rams without any physical defects as a burnt offering to the LORD. Also a male goat is to be offered each day for a sin offering. ²⁴The prince will give half a bushel of flour as a grain offering and a gallon of olive oil with each bull and ram.

²⁵"During the seven days of the Festival of Shelters which occurs every year in early autumn, the prince is to provide these same sacrifices for the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the grain offering, along with the required amount of olive oil."

Ezekiel 46 The Prince and the Offerings

¹The Sovereign LORD says, "The east gate of the inner courtyard is to remain closed

during the six work days of each week. Then it is to be opened on the Sabbath and on the days of the new moon festival. ²The prince will go into the entrance room of this gate and stand by the doorpost while the priest offers a burnt offering and a fellowship offering. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12} He is to worship inside the gate passage and then go out the way he came in. And the gate is to stay open till the evening. ³Each Sabbath day and on the days of new moon festivals the people of Israel are to come worship Me the LORD in front of the east gate. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

4"Each Sabbath day the prince is to present to Me a burnt offering of six lambs and one ram with no physical defects. 5With the ram he is to bring a grain offering of half a bushel of flour and with each lamb he may bring whatever amount of flour he wishes. Also he must offer a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel of flour. ⁶For the new moon festival he is to offer a bull. six lambs, and one ram with no physical defects. 7With the bull he is to bring a half bushel of flour for a grain offering, and the same with the ram. And with each lamb he may bring whatever amount of flour he wishes. Also he must offer a gallon of olive oil for each half bushel of flour.

8"The prince must enter the temple area through the entrance room of the east gate and exit the same way. But when the people come through the north gateway to worship Me in the religious festivals, {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} they must leave through the south gateway. And those who enter through the south gateway must leave by the north gateway. They must never go out the same way they came in; they must always use the opposite passageway. ¹⁰And on these occasions the prince will enter and leave with the people."

Notice the attention given to details in this chapter, suggesting the details of our life should be disciplined so they bring glory to God. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} Lord, I will give attention to the small details of my life. Keep sin from entering my life in small ways. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, I John 5:16} May small details glorify You. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} The world says "the devil is in the details," but I believe You are in the details. Amen.

11"For the special festivals the grain offering will include half a bushel of flour with each bull, another half bushel of flour with each ram, and as much flour as the prince chooses for each lamb. Also a gallon of olive oil is to be given with each half bushel of flour. ¹²Whenever the prince offers a voluntary burnt offering or fellowship offering to the LORD, {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} the east gateway to the inner courtyard will be opened and he'll offer his sacrifices as on the Sabbath. Then he'll leave, and the gate will be closed.

the lamb a grain offering is to be given to Me consisting of about three pounds of flour and half a gallon of olive oil to mix with the flour. This law must never change. ¹⁵The lamb, the flour, and the olive oil must be given every morning to Me."

¹⁶The Sovereign LORD also says this: "If a prince gives some land to his son, it will belong to him and his descendants forever. ¹⁷But if the prince gives some land to a servant of his, the servant may keep it till the Year of Jubilee, which comes every 50 years. Then it will be returned to the prince. Only what the prince gives to his sons will be permanent. ¹⁸The prince must never take land from someone by force. If he gives property to his sons, it must be from his own land. I don't want My people losing their property by force."

¹⁹The man brought me through the entrance between the gateway {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} and took me to the sacred rooms assigned to the priests that faced north. He showed me a place at the west end of these rooms, ²⁰and said, "This is where the priests are to boil the meat of the trespass offerings and the sin offerings and to bake the flour from the grain offerings into bread. They are to do these things here so they won't have to carry the offerings through the outer courtyard where someone could accidentally be sanctified by them."

²¹Then the man brought me back to the outer courtyard and took me to each of its four corners. ²²In each corner was an area 70 feet long and 52 and a half feet wide enclosed by walls. ²³Around the inside of these walls was a low ledge of stone and fireplaces along the ledge. ²⁴The man said, "These are the kitchens where the temple workers will boil the meat of sacrifices offered by the people."

Ezekiel 47 The Waters Flowing from the House of the LORD

¹Then the man brought me back to the temple entrance. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} There I saw a stream flowing from beneath the temple flowing eastward to the right of the altar. ²Then he brought me outside the wall through the north gateway and around the east gate. The stream was flowing east through the south side of the east gateway. ³He measured along the streams for 1,680 feet. Then he told me to wade across, and I did, {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} and the water was up to my ankles. ⁴He measured off another 1,680 feet, and told me to wade through it there. When I did, the water was up to my knees. Another 1,680 feet downstream and the water came to my waist. 5After another 1,680 feet the stream was a river that was so deep I could cross only by swimming.

⁶He told me to keep in mind what I'd seen. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} We then went back along the riverbank.

Ezekiel saw a river "trickling" (v. 1, NASB) out from under the throne. This is a picture of the grace or mercy of God that "trickles" down to us. The water kept getting deeper: "to the ankles" (v. 3), "to the knees" (v. 4), "to my waist" (v. 4), "water to swim" (v.

5). Even when storms {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} and deep water threaten us, we can swim in God's grace. The more we need God's forgiveness, the more He has for us. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Lord, thank You that Your grace meets my needs, and that no matter how deep the troubles, You have grace to cover all my sin. Amen.

⁷I was surprised to see trees growing on each side of the river. ⁸He said to me, "This river flows east to the Jordan River valley and enters the Dead Sea, where it turns salt water into fresh water. ⁹Wherever this river flows, fish will abound, for its fresh waters will bring life." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Ezekiel was told, "Everything will live wherever the river goes" (v. 9). This will happen literally in the Millennium; {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} but for us today, symbolically, the grace of God gives us new life. We are regenerated, transformed {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}, and given a new purpose in life. Lord, thank You for Your grace that forgives me when I sin. Thank You for Your grace that renews me when I get tired spiritually, or when I give up. Thank You for Your grace that uses me far beyond my abilities and my usefulness. Thank You for grace. Amen. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

¹⁰"From En-Gedi to En-Eglaim people will fish in the sea and dry their nets along the coast. Fish of every kind will fill the Dead Sea just as they do the Mediterranean. ¹¹But marshes along the coast will still be salty, so that in that way people will have access to salt.

12"All kinds of fruit trees will be growing on both sides of the river and will produce fresh fruit every month. These leaves will never fade and drop. The trees will be watered by the river flowing from the temple, {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} and the leaves will be for healing the people."

13 The Sovereign LORD says this: "These are the instructions to follow in dividing the land for Israel's twelve tribes. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} The tribe of Joseph will receive twice as much as each of the other tribes. ¹⁴Each tribe will receive an equal share, as I promised to your ancestors and which you'll receive. The borders of the land are these.

15"The northern border will run from the Mediterranean Sea toward Hethlon, then on through Lebo-Hamath to Zedad. ¹⁶Then it will run to Berothah and Sibraim, which are on the border between Damascus and Hamath, and finally to Hazer-Hatticon, on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷So the northern border will run from the Mediterranean Sea to Hazar-Enan, on the border between Hamath to the north and Damascus to the south.

¹⁸"The eastern border will start at a point between Hauran and Damascus and run south along the Jordan River between Israel and Gilead, past the Dead Sea and as far south as Tamar. This will be the eastern border.

¹⁹ The southern border will go west from Tamar to the waters of Meribah at Kadesh and then follow the course of the brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern border.

²⁰"On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea itself will be your border from the southern border to the point where the northern border begins, opposite Lebo-Hamath.

²¹"These are the boundaries for the land of Israel. ²²The land is to be an inheritance for you and foreign residents with their families. They are to be like native-born Israelites and their children are to receive an inheritance in the land with the same rights as your own children. ²³These foreign residents are to receive a share of the land in the territory of the tribe with whom they now live. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken these words."

Ezekiel 48 The Division of the Land

¹"Here is a list of the tribes and the territory each is to receive. The territory of Dan is in the extreme north. Its boundary line follows the Hethlon road to Lebo-Hamath and then runs on to Hazar-Enan on the border of Damascus, with Hamath to the north. Dan's territory extends all the way across the land of Israel from east to west. ²Asher's territory lies south of Dan's and also extends from east to west. ³Naphtali's land lies south of Asher's, also extending from east to west. ⁴Then comes Manasseh south of Naphtali, and its territory also extends from east to west. ⁵South of Manasseh is Ephraim, ⁶and then Reuben, ⁷and then Judah, all of whose boundaries extend from east to west.

8"South of Judah will be land set aside for a special purpose. It will be eight miles long and its width will run from Israel's eastern border to the Mediterranean Sea, with My temple in the center." {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

This chapter indicates where each tribe will be located. Each tribe is given a portion without any regard to the original assignment given in Joshua 13-21 after the conquest. The northern tribes were Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Ephraim, Reuben and Judah. The three tribes located farthest from the temple were born to Jacob's concubines, that is, Dan and Naphtali were born to Rachel's maid, Bilhah, and Asher was born to Leah's maid, Zilpah (Gen. 30:5-13). Gad is farthest away from the temple; the son of a concubine, Judah is closest to the sanctuary because of the Messianic prophecy (Gen. 49:8-12), and he superseded Reuben the first born. Simeon, Issachar, and Zebulun were born to Leah. Benjamin and Joseph were born to Rachel. Lord, some were closer to the sanctuary than others {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}; I want to be as close to You as possible. I realize my closeness to You is determined by my spiritual passions, so I'm going to do everything possible to get close to You. Here I come searching! Amen. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

9"The area for the temple will be eight miles long and three miles wide. ¹⁰Half of this land will be for the priests, with the strip of land eight miles long and one and a half miles wide. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 11 This land is for the descendants of the Levitical tribe of Zadok who were faithful to Me when the Levites and other Israelites started sinning. 12 The land will be their special portion, and the other Levites will live next to the descendants of Zadok. ¹³The land I give to the Levites is to be the same size and shape as for the Zadok priests—eight miles long and one and a half miles wide. 14None of this land is to be sold or traded for it belongs to Me. ¹⁵"South of My sacred land will be a section eight miles long and two miles wide. It will belong to the people and will include the city of Jerusalem with its houses and pastureland. 16 The city will be a square of one and a fourth miles on each side. ¹⁷An open area for pasture of about 20 feet wide will surround the city. ¹⁸The land on the east and west sides of the city will be farmland for the people of Jerusalem. Both portions will be three miles long and two miles wide. 19People from the city may farm the land no matter which tribe they belong to. ²⁰This special section of land, including the city, will be a square of eight miles on each side. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16}

²¹"The land on both sides of this area, for eight miles to the eastern and western boundaries of Israel, will belong to the prince. ²²This land will include everything between the territories allotted to Judah and Benjamin, with Judah being the northern border and Benjamin the southern border, except for the area set aside for the sacred lands and the city. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

²³"These are the territories allotted to the rest of the tribes. Benjamin's territory lies south of the prince's land, and it extends across the entire land of Israel from east to west. ²⁴South of Benjamin's territory lies that of Simeon, also extending across the land from east to west. ²⁵Next is the territory of Israehar with the same eastern and western boundaries.

³⁰"The city of Jerusalem will have 12 gates, ³¹three on each side of the city wall. These gates will be named for the 12 tribes of Israel. In the north the gates will be named for Reuben, Judah, and Levi. ³²On the east wall, the gates will be named for Joseph, Benjamin, and Dan. ³³The south wall will have gates named for Simeon, Issachar, and Zebulun. ³⁴And on the west wall the gates will be named for Gad, Asher, and Naphtali. Each side of the wall will be a mile and a half long, ³⁵and so the total length of the wall will be six miles. And from that day the name of the new city will be 'The Lord Is There.'" {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

God gives the sanctuary a new name, "The name of that city from that day shall be: THE LORD IS THERE" (v. 35). This is another name of God, Jehovah-Shammah. God has been active in all the earth and universe, but now He has gone there to rest (Gen. 2:1, 2). Lord, wherever You are located, I want to be there. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} You will be in the eternal city, so I want to be there, to be with You, and to worship You eternally. Amen. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

DANIEL

Key Words: Dreams and Visions (Daniel 7:1)

Key Verse: "Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, "The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; but there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days" (2:27-28).

Theme: Whereas most prophets speak primarily to the Jews, God's people; Daniel focused on secular world empires. Daniel properly predicts the coming of four empires that conquered the Western civilized world (Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, Rome 2:31-43). But Daniel's focus was on the coming world dominion by God and His Son, Jesus Christ. The reader should pray for worldwide evangelization and for the coming of the Jewish Messiah, Jesus Christ, who will judge all evil when He establishes His worldwide rule. Lord, thank You for the plan You had for the Jews, and thank You for Your command to me and the church to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every people group (Matt. 28:19, 20). Amen.

Daniel 1 Daniel and His Friends Are Tested

¹ In the third year of Jehoiakim's reign over Judah (605 B.C.) Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, went to Jerusalem and surrounded it. ²He took Jehoiakim and some articles from the temple to his god Marduk in Babylonia and put them in his treasure room. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} ³Nebuchadnezzar told Ashpenaz, his chief official, to bring to him some Israelite captives who were of Jewish royalty.

God wants His people to have healthy and holy bodies. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Our bodies enable us to do God's will and they are a testimony to the world that we serve Jesus Christ. Daniel was chosen from among those of the nobility because of his healthy body. That suggests some of the nobility were passed over because of their unhealthy bodies. Doesn't it suggest the child of God shouldn't smoke (it takes 6 to 10 years off your life) nor should they get involved in drugs, alcohol, etc. "What, know you not that your body is the temple of God?" (1 Cor. 6:15). Lord, I will take care of my body, it's the only one I'll ever have. Be glorified in my healthy habits, {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} dress, grooming, bathing and exercising. Make me like Christ. Amen. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁴He wanted young men who were physically attractive, mentally strong, well informed, and capable of serving in the king's palace. Ashpenaz taught them the language and literature of the Babylonians, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and each day they were served food from the king's table. After a three year training period, they would be qualified to serve the king.

⁶Four of these men were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷The chief official gave them new Babylonian names: Belteshazzar, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁸Daniel asked permission not to eat non-kosher food, which would violate the Mosaic law. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Daniel and his friends refused to eat the same kind of food the king ate. Was it fattening? Was it against the Jewish ritual law? Was it offered to idols? Or, was it alcohol? We're not sure of the problem, but Daniel had deep convictions about eating the food put before him. {98 Daniel Fast and Prayer, Dan. 1:8} "Daniel purposed in his heart." He was more concerned with displeasing God, than he was of disobeying Nebuchadnezzar. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} Lord, help me make decisions to please You and not the people of this world. Even when my decisions create a crisis, help me remain true to You. Then protect me after I've decided against the world. Amen.

⁹Ashpenaz liked Daniel, but he said, ¹⁰"The king would kill me if I did that because he would see you looking pale and thin compared to the other young men." {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ¹¹Daniel said to the guard who was over him and his friends, ¹²"Here's a suggestion. For 10 days give us only vegetables and water. {98 Daniel Fast and Prayer, Dan. 1:8} ¹³Then see how we look compared to the others who eat the king's food." ¹⁴The guard agreed to this. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

¹⁵After 10 days the four young men looked healthier than any of those who ate the king's food. ¹⁶So he continued to give them a vegetable diet. ¹⁷These four gained knowledge in all kinds of literature and other subjects. And David could interpret visions and dreams. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3}

¹⁸At the end of three years they were presented to Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹As he talked with them, he realized the four were tops in every way, and so they were made servants of the king. ²⁰As Nebuchadnezzar questioned them on various subjects, he found them much wiser than his magicians and enchanters. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²¹Daniel lived in Babylon till the first year of Cyrus, king of Persia (539 B.C.).

There were long-range results of a healthy diet. "Daniel continued to be the king's personal servant until the 1st year that Cyrus was king" (Dan. 1:21). Daniel must have been in his teen years when he was first tested. Then he lived 70 years in captivity in Babylon, plus another few years under Cyrus the Persian. Daniel lived to be almost 100 years old. If you want long physical health, keep your body healthy. Lord, I take the Daniel pledge, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} I will be healthy. I will not eat or drink anything that will tear down my body. I will be healthy for Your glory. Amen.

Daniel 2 King Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

¹In Nebuchadnezzar's second year, one night he had dreams and he couldn't go back to sleep. 2So he asked his magicians, enchanters, sorcerers (who supposedly made contact with spirits), and astrologers to tell what he dreamed. ³He told them he had a troubling dream and he wanted to know its meaning. {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} 4They said, "Tell us your dream, and we'll interpret it." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 5The king said, "If you don't tell me my dream and interpret it, I'll cut you into pieces and turn your houses into rubble. ⁶But if you tell it to me and explain what it means, I'll give you many gifts and honors." ⁷Again they said, "You're asking the impossible. How can we interpret it if you don't tell us what you dreamed?" ⁸The king said, "You are stalling for time. ⁹If you don't tell me the dream, you'll be killed, as I said. You plan to tell me lies, hoping I'll change my mind. But if you tell me the dream, then I'll know you can interpret it." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁰The astrologer replied, "No one can tell you what you dreamed. That's impossible. No king has ever asked a magician, enchanter, or astrologer to do such a thing. ¹¹That's a difficult thing to do. Only the gods could do that, and they aren't available to us." {221 Hidden Answers-Prayer, Rom. 11:33-36} ¹²This made the king so angry that he ordered all his wise men to be executed. ¹³So men were sent to find and kill all the wise men, including Daniel and his three friends. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

¹⁴When Arioch, commander of the king's guard, went to execute all the wise men, Daniel spoke tactfully to him, ¹⁵and said, "Why such a harsh order?" After Arioch explained the situation, ¹⁶Daniel went to the king and asked that the execution be delayed so he would have time to know the king's dream. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18}

¹⁷Daniel went home and explained to his friends what happened, ¹⁸and he asked them to ask the God of heaven for mercy and to tell the dream and its meaning so they wouldn't be executed. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Have you ever noticed how God chooses the young and calls them to serve Him? David was probably under 20 years when he was chosen to interpret the dream. God chose to use Daniel in his teen years because Daniel chose God. "Daniel purposed in his heart" (Dan. 1:8). Lord, I love it when young people choose to serve You, and I love it even more when You choose to use them. Lord, help me see potential in young believers, and may I encourage them toward greater usefulness. Amen. {521 Yow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

¹⁹Then in the night God revealed the mystery in a vision, ²⁰and Daniel praised the God of heaven {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} by saying, "Praise to the LORD forever because You are wise and powerful. ²¹You change the times from one season to another, and You set up kings and You dethrone them. You increase wisdom and knowledge to the wise, ²²revealing things hidden in the darkness. And You dwell in the light. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} 23I thank you, God of my ancestors, because You have given me wisdom and power. You answered our request, making the king's dream known to us." {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11}

Did you see how Daniel got his three friends to pray with him about the crisis? That's a great principle, because Jesus said, "If two of you will agree concerning anything that you ask, it will be done for you by My Father in heaven" (Matt. 18:19). Lord, I will seek my prayer partners when I face a crisis. Amen. {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10}

²⁴Then Daniel told Arioch, "Don't execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I'll explain and interpret his dream." 25So Arioch hurried to the king and said, "Found! I've found one of the captives from Judah who can explain your dream." {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} ²⁶The king asked Daniel, "Is it true that you can tell me what my dream was and what it means?" 27Daniel replied, "No wise man, enchanter, magician, or fortune-teller can interpret the dream. ²⁸Only the God in heaven who reveals secrets can do so. He has shown you what will happen in the future. I will now explain to you your dream and your vision." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18}

Daniel didn't take credit for interpreting the dream. He gave God the credit. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} Nebuchadnezzar asked, "Are you able to make known to me?" (2:26). Daniel answered, "There is a God in heaven who reveals secrets" (2:28). Lord, forgive me for times when I've taken credit for Your work in my life. I am nothing without You. I now give You credit for every good thing You've done in my life. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} I pledge to take my hands off any self-praise, and give You glory for everything You do in my life. Amen.

mysteries, has shown you what will happen. 30 And this is not because I am wiser than anyone else, but because God wanted you to know what went through your mind. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³¹You saw a huge, bright statue, awesome in appearance. ³²The head was made of fine gold, its chest and arms were of silver, its stomach and thighs were of bronze, ³³its legs were of iron, and its feet were of iron and clay. 34As you watched, a rock, cut out supernaturally from a {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} mountain, struck the feet of iron and clay and smashed them. ³⁵Then the statue collapsed and the pieces were like chaff on a threshing floor, blown away by the wind without a trace. The rock became a huge mountain that covered the earth. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

³⁶"Now here's the meaning of the dream. ³⁷To you, O king, the God of heaven has given you power and glory 38 and has made you ruler over humans and animals and birds. You are the head of gold. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} 39The kingdom after you will be inferior to yours. Then a third kingdom of bronze will rule over the earth. ⁴⁰A fourth kingdom will smash everything just as iron breaks things to pieces. And it will demolish the other three kingdoms. 41 The feet and toes, made partly of clay and partly of iron, will be a divided kingdom, 42 partly strong like iron and partly weak like clay. ⁴³The people will be a mixture and will not be united. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7

44"In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed or left to others. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} It will demolish them, but it will endure. ⁴⁵This is the meaning of the rock cut out supernaturally from a mountain which will crush the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold to pieces. God has shown the king in this dream what will happen in the future. And you can rely on the truth of this dream and its interpretation." {181 Future-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:21}

Daniel put himself, his God, and his faith-life on the spot when he volunteered to interpret Nebuchadnezzar's dream. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} It wasn't a leap in the dark; Daniel stepped out into the light of the God of the Hebrews. Daniel didn't know the interpretation, but he knew God could interpret the dream. You could step out into the unknown like Daniel, if you know God as intimately as Daniel. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} Lord, I don't know You as intimately as I want to know You. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} And Lord, I don't do as much by faith as I want to do. I will learn to know You intimately, how to live for You, and how to take steps of faith into the unknown. Amen.

⁴⁶Nebuchadnezzar honored Daniel by falling down in front of him and ordering that an offering and incense be brought to him.
⁴⁷He said to Daniel, "The fact that you could reveal this secret shows that your God is the God of gods, and the LORD of lords." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ⁴⁸Then the king put Daniel in a high position of authority, gave him many gifts, and made him ruler over the province of Babylon, and chief of all the wise men. ⁴⁹Also Daniel asked if Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego could be made administrators over the province of Babylon while Daniel was in the royal court. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Daniel 3 The Golden Idol

¹King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue 90 feet tall and 9 feet wide and set it up on the Dura in the province of Babylon. ²He then invited all his officials—princes, prefects, governors, counselors, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and others—to come to the dedication of the statue. ³So as all these officials stood in front of the statue, ⁴a herald announced, "You people of every nation and language, 5when you hear musical instruments being played -the horn, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and others-bow down and worship the gold statue Nebuchadnezzar has set up. 6If you don't bow down, you will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."

Have you ever noticed how people make idols to themselves, just like Nebuchadnezzar made a gold idol of himself, and demanded that everyone worship it? People make idols of their jobs, their achievements, their homes, or cars. Remember an idol is anything that gets between a person and God. Lord, I will not let anything or any person get between You and me. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} But sometimes I'm blind and I don't see what I don't see. If anything gets between us, show it to me and I'll remove it immediately. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} Amen.

⁷So as soon as these musical instruments were being played, people of every race, nation, and language bowed and worshiped the statue. {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2}

The world always has a fiery furnace for those who don't do what they command, and the furnace gets hotter if we don't deny our God or compromise as they tell us. The world's fiery furnace is not always an actual furnace. Sometimes it's a prison, or a martyr's death. But for our modern society, it's public embarrassment, or it's being passed over for a promotion, or a financial penalty. Lord, I have decided to follow You, I'll not look back, or think about turning back, or even turn back. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Lord, I'm coming. Amen.

⁸Some astrologers went to Nebuchadnezzar and complained about the Jews. ⁹They said, "Long live the king. ¹⁰You ordered that everyone is to bow down and worship the gold statue when they hear the musical instruments being played, ¹¹and that those who don't will be thrown into a blazing furnace." The three young men knew when they made a positive decision for God, that it might be God's will to intervene. They knew they might have to die in that furnace. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} They said, "Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us... but if not..." (Dan. 3:17-18, KJV). When the three young men refused to worship the idol, they realized they could die for their decision. Lord, I know You have the power to deliver me in times of persecution, but if not, I'm willing to die for You. "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Phil. 1:21). Amen.

12"But some Jews—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who are over the affairs of the province of Babylon—have refused to serve your gods and to worship the statue you have set up." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹³Nebuchadnezzar was very angry when he heard this. So he ordered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be brought to him. ¹⁴He said, "Is it true that you won't serve my gods or worship the gold statue I set up? 15I'll give you another opportunity to obey me. If you bow down and worship the statue when you hear the music, all will be okay. But if you don't, you'll be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god can rescue you?" {133 Emergency-Prayer, Ps. 91:3-4} ¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied, "We don't need to defend ourselves. If you toss us into the blazing furnace, ¹⁷the God we serve can rescue us. 18But if He doesn't we'll still never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you set up." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

¹⁹Nebuchadnezzar was so mad at them that his face was distorted with rage. He had the furnace heated seven times hotter than usual, ²⁰and he ordered some of his strongest soldiers to tie up the three Jews and throw them into the blazing furnace. ²¹So these three, fully clothed, were tied up and tossed into the furnace. ²²The fire was so hot that the flames killed the soldiers, ²³and the three Jews fell into the blazing furnace. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

²⁴Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in amazement. He asked his advisers, "Weren't three men tied up and thrown into the fire?" They said, "Yes, O king." ²⁵He said, "But look. Four men are unbound, walking around in the furnace. And the fourth looks like a divine being." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

When Nebuchadnezzar looked into the fire, he expected to see three burned corpses, but he exclaimed, "Lo, I see four men loose... and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God" (3: 25, KJV). Nebuchadnezzar saw a Christophany, that is, an Old Testament appearance of Christ. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} Isn't it good to know when God doesn't deliver you from fire, He will be with you in the furnace? {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} Lord, I know I will be tried for my faith and I know there are probably some fiery furnaces in my future. I know You can deliver me so I don't have to go into the furnace. But if not, I know You will be with me in the fire and You may get me out alive, too. I'll come out victorious on the other side. I may come out in death; that will be even more glorious. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} Amen.

²⁶He then went to the opening of the furnace, and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out and come over here." So they came out of the fire, and the king's officials crowded around them. ²⁷The officials saw that the fire hadn't hurt the bodies of the three. And their hair was not singed, their clothes weren't scorched, and they didn't even smell of smoke. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

²⁸Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He sent His angel to rescue His servants. They trusted in Him and were willing to die rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore if any person of any race, nation, or language says anything against the 3 men's God, they'll be cut in pieces and their houses turned into rubble. Obviously no other God can rescue like this." {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ³⁰Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to higher positions in the province of Babylon. {516 Victory over Trials-Prayer, James 1:12}

Daniel 4 The Second Dream of Nebuchadnezzar

¹King Nebuchadnezzar sent this message to the people of every race, nation, and language in his empire: "I wish you well. ²I'm pleased to tell you about the miracles the Most High God has done for me. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ³His signs are great, and His wonders are powerful. His kingdom will last forever, and His rule will last for generations.

⁴"One night when I was in my palace, contented and prosperous, ⁵I had a dream and visions that frightened me. ⁶So I ordered all the wise men to come and tell me what my dream means. ⁷When the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and future-tellers came, I told them the dream, but they didn't know what it meant. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ⁸Then Daniel came and I told him the dream. He was called Belteshazzar after my god and the spirit of the God that is in him.

9"Belteshazzar, chief magician, I know that the spirit of the gods is in you, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and that you can solve great mysteries. Tell me what my dream last night means. ¹⁰While I was lying bed I saw a huge tree in the middle of the earth. ¹¹It grew very tall and strong. It was so tall that everyone could see it. ¹²It had lots of leaves and fruit for everyone. Wild animals lived in its shade, birds made nests in its branches, and everyone was fed from it. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18}

and bronze. Let him be drenched with dew, and have him live with the animals. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁶Let him be like an animal instead of a human for seven years. ¹⁷Heavenly messengers have decreed that the Most High is sovereign over the world's kingdoms and gives those kingdoms to anyone He chooses including even the least qualified.' {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ¹⁸That was my dream. Now what does it mean? None of my wise men can interpret it, but I'm sure you can, because the spirit of the gods is in you." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹⁹At first Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) was puzzled and alarmed. The king said, "Don't let the dream or its meaning upset you." Daniel said, "I wish the dream applied only to your enemies. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²⁰You saw a huge and strong tree that everyone can see. ²¹It had lots of leaves and fruit and was a shelter for animals and birds. ²²You are that tree. You are strong and great, and your greatness everyone can see, and your rule is to the ends of the earth.

²³"You saw a messenger, a divine being, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Cut down the tree, but leave the stump, with a band of iron and bronze while it remains in the ground. Let him be drenched with dew, and have him live like wild animals for seven years.'" {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁴This is what the dream means, and what the Most High has said will happen to you. ²⁵You'll be removed from people and will live with wild animals, and you'll eat grass like a cow, and be drenched with dew. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} After living like this for seven years, you'll realize that the Most High is over all the world's kingdoms and gives them to anyone He chooses. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁶But why leave the stump of the tree with it? This means that you'll receive your kingdom back again when you've admitted that heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, O king, stop sinning and do what is right and be kind to oppressed people. Then you will be well again." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

²⁸All these things happened to Nebuchadnezzar, just as Daniel said. 29A year later as he was walking on the flat roof of his palace in Babylon, the king said, 30"I have built this great city of Babylon and my palace, by my own power and to express my royal authority." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ³¹As he was still saying these words, he heard a voice from heaven saying, "Your royal authority will be taken from you. 32You'll be removed from people, and you'll live with wild animals, and you'll eat grass like a cow. You'll be like this for seven years until you realize that the Most High is over all the world's kingdoms and that He gives them to anyone He chooses." {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11

³³Immediately these things happened. Nebuchadnezzar was removed from people, and he ate grass like a cow. His body was wet with dew, and his hair grew like an eagle's feathers and his nails grew like bird's claws.

There is an eternal struggle in the hearts of all people over who will control their lives. Everyone wants to be a king. Will they let God control their lives, or will their ego sit on the thrones of their lives? Who will be glorified with your life? Will God get the glory over all you say and do, or will you glorify yourself? {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} The problem in this chapter is that Nebuchadnezzar had conquered more territory than anyone else before him. No one could defeat him, and no nation could defend itself against him. Yet God demonstrated that He is greater than Nebuchadnezzar. Lord, I realize Your absolute power; You can do anything You want. I realize Your absolute sovereignty; You are supreme. Forgive me when I've exalted myself for selfish reasons; I realize You have given me all I have, I praise You for giving me what You want me to have. Not I, but Christ. You must increase, I must decrease, Amen.

³⁴"After the seven years, I, Nebuchadnezzar looked up to heaven, and I was no longer insane. Then I praised and worshiped the Most High, who lives forever. I said, 'His rule is forever, and His kingdom will last for generations. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³⁵People are nothing compared to Him. He does as He pleases in heaven and on earth. No one can challenge Him by asking, 'What are You doing?' {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

³⁶"When I was no longer insane, God restored my honor and glory and my kingdom. My advisers and officials looked up to me again, and I was restored as head of my kingdom and with greater honor than before. ³⁷Now I praise and exalt and glorify the King of heaven, because He always does what is just and true, and He can humble those who are proud." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Perhaps Nebuchadnezzar was converted after this humbling incident. He recognized that the LORD is the "Most High God." He recognized that "God gave me back my great honor and power as king" (4:36). God won the battle and Nebuchadnezzar became a worshiper of the Lord of heaven. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} Lord, will I see Nebuchadnezzar in heaven? If I do, Nebuchadnezzar won't be the greatest ruler there. It will be Jesus Christ, the King of the Ages, and the King of Kings. Amen. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

Daniel 5 The Handwriting on the Wall

¹In the year 539 B.C. King Belshazzar gave a great festival for a thousand of his nobles and they all drank wine together.
²He gave orders to bring in the gold and silver cups that his predecessor Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem. Belshazzar wanted him and his nobles to drink wine from them.
³So the cups were brought in, and Belshazzar and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines drank from them, and ⁴as they did so, they praised their gods made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16}

There had been other drunken festivals that were not judged by God. There were probably many other sins that didn't destroy the Babylonian kingdom. The thing that angered God was that "they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple of the house of God which had been in Jerusalem; and... drank from them" (5:3). What sacrilege! What blasphemy! It's almost as if Belshazzar wanted to defy God. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} Lord, I will be careful never to blaspheme Your name or any sacred thing. I will never defy You, I fear Your anger and judgment. Lord, be merciful to me in my ignorance and blindness. Amen.

⁵Suddenly they saw the fingers of a human hand writing on the plaster wall near a lampstand. The king watched as the hand wrote, ⁶and his face turned pale and he was so terrified his knees knocked together and his legs were so weak he couldn't stand. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} ⁷Belshazzar called in the enchanters, astrologers, and future-tellers, and he said to them, "Whoever can read this writing and can tell me what it means will be clothed in purple, the color of kings, and will have a gold chain around his neck, and he'll be the third ruler in the kingdom, after Nebuchadnezzar and Nabonidus. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} 8The king's wise men couldn't read the writing or explain what it meant. {48 Blinded-Prayer,

James 4:2-3} So king Belshazzar grew more afraid and his face grew more pale. Also his nobles were mentally shattered. ¹⁰When the queen mother heard what was happening, she went to the banquet hall, and she said, "O king, may you live forever. Don't be alarmed. And don't look so pale. ¹¹A man in your kingdom has the spirit of the gods in him. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} In your father's days this young man had great insight, intelligence, and wisdom. In fact Nebuchadnezzar made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and future-tellers. 12 Daniel has a sharp mind and has a lot of knowledge, and he can interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} He can tell you the meaning of the writing." ¹³So when Daniel was brought to the king, the king asked, "Are you Daniel, one of the captives my predecessor brought here from Judah? 14I've heard that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that you have intelligence and unusual wisdom. 15My wise men and enchanters couldn't read this writing on the wall or tell me what it means. ¹⁶I've heard that you can interpret things like this {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} and can solve difficult problems. If you can read and explain this wording, I'll clothe you in royal purple robes and place a gold chain around your neck, and make you the third highest ruler in my kingdom."

¹⁷Daniel answered, "No need to give me any gifts or rewards. Give them to someone else. But I'll read and explain the words on the wall. {466 Supernatural-Praying,

Acts 15:18} 18 The Most High God gave your predecessor Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty, majesty, glory, and honor. 19People of every race, nationality, and language feared him. He killed those he wanted to kill and kept alive those he wanted to live. He promoted those he wanted to promote, and demoted those he wanted to put down. ²⁰But when he became filled with pride, God took from him his throne and his majesty. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ²¹He was removed from being with people and he had the mind of an animal. He lived with wild donkeys and ate grass like a cow, and his body was drenched with dew. Then he realized that the Most High God rules over the world's kingdoms and appoints anyone He wants to rule over them. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

²²"You, his successor, O Belshazzar, have not humbled yourself before God, though you knew all this. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²³You have defied the Lord of heaven {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} by drinking from the cups brought from the temple. You and your nobles and wives and concubines all drank wine from them as you praised the gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone, idols that can't see or hear or know anything. You have not honored the God who gives you life and controls your future. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²⁴Therefore He sent the hand that wrote on the wall. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ²⁵This is the message: Mene, Mene, Tekel, Parsin. 26 These words mean this: 'Mene' means 'Numbered'—'God has numbered the days of your reign and brought it to an end.' ²⁷'Tekel' means 'Weighed'—'You have been weighed on the balances and you have been found lacking.' ²⁸'Parsin' means 'Divided'—'Your kingdom will soon be divided and given to the Medes and Persians.'" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁹Then Belshazzar had Daniel clothed in a royal purple robe and placed a gold chain around his neck, and made him the third highest ruler in the kingdom. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ³⁰That very night Belshazzar, the Babylonian king, was killed, {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ³¹and Darius the Mede ruled over Babylon, starting at age 62. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

The reaction of God was swift in two ways. {169 Fleece-Prayer, Judg. 6:36-40} First God sent a message, "The same hour" (5:5). Talk about a way to kill a party. A man's hand began writing on the wall. Then the second reaction by God was that the Babylonian kingdom fell in one night. It was October 12, 529 B.C., when the Medes and Persians took the city of Babylon in one night. Sometimes the siege of a city as big as Babylon would last several years, but God's reaction was swift. Lord, teach me the principle of instantaneous obedience. Because You sometimes punish instantaneously, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} I will obey quickly. When I'm slow to obey, have mercy. Sometimes I don't know better because I'm blind. Show grace and teach me what to do. I will do it as quickly as possible. Amen.

Daniel 6 Daniel Is Thrown into the Lion's Den

¹Darius the Mede divided the kingdom into 120 provinces with a governor over each province. ²He also chose Daniel and two others to supervise the governors and to watch out for the king's interests. ³Daniel was more capable than all the other 122 leaders, and so Darius planned to put him over the whole kingdom. ⁴The 120 governors didn't like this idea so they tried to find some fault in the way Daniel handled his government affairs. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} But they couldn't find anything wrong, because he was faithful and always responsible.

There is much jealousy in the work place. People who are ruled by their sin natures will hate you because of your ethnic background, language, your education or lack of it and because of your work ethic or walk with God. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} There seem to be several reasons why the co-presidents "sought to find some charge against Daniel" (6:4). Lord, I can't help how fellow workers respond to me, but I am responsible how I react to them. I will love them for Christ, and like Daniel; I will pray for them and I will be faithful to You, as was Daniel. Amen. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

⁵They said, "The only way we can accuse Daniel is in connection with his religion." {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24}

Daniel was always faithful to God in every situation. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} He was faithful when first taken captive as a teenager, and later as an elderly statesman. Daniel was faithful to God whether his king was Nebuchadnezzar or Belshazzar, and whether he was ruled by Babylon or Medo-Persia. Lord, I pledge myself to You to always be faithful. Even like Daniel, I will be faithful to death. I will be faithful to You because You have been faithful to me. "Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it" (1 Thess. 5:24, KJV). Amen.

⁶So the 122 went as a group to the king and said, "O King Darius, may you live forever. ⁷We princes and advisers and others have agreed that anyone who prays to any god or man in the next month except to you should be thrown to the lions. ⁸So we suggest you issue an order that can't be changed like a law of the Medes and Persians. ⁹So King Darius signed the law. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18}

¹⁰Daniel heard that the law had been signed. But he kept on praying as usual in his upstairs room {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} with its windows opened toward Jerusalem. He prayed on his knees three times every day just as he had always done. 11 The officials went to Daniel's house and found him praying. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} 12So they went to the king and reminded him that if anyone prayed to any god or man except to him, that person would be thrown to the lions. The king said, "Yes, the order still stands, as part of the laws of the Medes and Persians, which can't be withdrawn." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹³Then they said, "Daniel, one of the captives from Judah, has ignored your order. He still prays three times a day. ¹⁴This upset the king because he wanted to rescue Daniel. He spent the rest of the day trying to find a way to get Daniel out of this situation. {222 Hindrances to Prayer (See Blocked-Prayer, and Various "No" Answers to Prayer)} 15In the evening the men went again as a group to Darius and said, "Remember that the laws of the Medes and Persians can't be changed." ¹⁶So the king gave the order and Daniel was thrown into the lion's den. Darius said to him, "I hope the God you serve will rescue you." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷A stone was placed over the opening to the den, and the king sealed it with his royal seal and the seals of his officials, so that no one could rescue Daniel. 18 Darius ate no supper and had no evening entertainment, and that night he couldn't sleep. {144 Esther Fast and Prayer, Est. 4:16}

We see a remarkable fact in this story. An unsaved pagan king is concerned about Daniel and spends the night fasting for Daniel. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} Lord, may I have such a deep influence on the unsaved around me that they would seek You as their Lord. Amen.

¹⁹Early in the morning the king got up and ran to the den. ²⁰He called anxiously to Daniel, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you worship been able to rescue you from the lions?" {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²¹Daniel answered, "O king, may you live forever. ²²God sent an angel who shut the lions' mouths so that they couldn't hurt me. I'm innocent, having done you no wrong." {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

Did you see in the story that God sent an angel to shut the lions' mouths? {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} How did the angel do it? Did the angel take away the lions' hunger? Did the angel put up an invisible fence that the lions couldn't cross? Did the angel constrain the hungry lions to not eat? Whatever way, God used an angel as an instrument to save Daniel. Lord, I claim the protection of Ps. 91:11, "You, Lord, will give Your angels charge over me, to keep me safe in all my ways" (ELT). Amen.

²³The king ordered that Daniel be lifted out of the den. Not a scratch was on him because he had trusted in his God. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ²⁴Then the king gave orders to throw into the den the men who had falsely accused Daniel, along with their wives and children. The lions jumped on them and killed them before they even reached the floor of the den. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

The world has a slogan, "Don't get mad, get even." That was not Daniel's way. Daniel was a man of prayer, and we too must pray, that is, pray for protection and pray for those who persecute us. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} Jesus said, "Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who spitefully use you" (Luke 6:27-28). {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} Why? "For in doing so you will heap coals of fire on his head" (Rom. 12:20). Don't try to get even. God keeps score. Let God punish them as God punished the king's cabinet who conspired against Daniel. Remember, God can hit back harder than you. Lord, I will keep my spirit sweet, and I will not return evil for evil. When someone criticizes me, I will not retaliate, but I will pray for him to get saved. I will bless my opponents. Lord, send angels to protect me. Amen.

²⁵Then Darius wrote to all the people, races, and languages in his kingdom: "May all of you enjoy peace and success. ²⁶I now issue an order that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence the God of Israel. He is the living and eternal God. His kingdom will never be destroyed and His reign will never end. ^{{74} Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²⁷He rescues and He performs amazing miracles in the heavens and on earth. And he has rescued Daniel from the lions." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ²⁸Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and on into the reign of Cyrus, the Persian. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

Daniel 7 Daniel's Dream about the Four Animals

5"Then the second beast I saw looked like a bear. It was raised on one side and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. I heard a voice saying, 'Get up, and devour many people.'

6"A third beast looked like a leopard. It had four wings like those of a bird on its back, and it had four heads. It had great authority to rule.

7"The fourth beast I saw was frightening and powerful. With large iron teeth it crushed and devoured its victims and stomped on whatever was left. It was unlike the other three beasts. And it had 10 horns. ⁸Suddenly another small horn appeared, and it tore out three of the 10 horns, roots and all. This small horn had human-like eyes and it spoke boastful words. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

9"As I watched, thrones were put in place, and the Ancient One, the LORD, sat down to judge. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} His clothing was white like snow, and his hair was white like wool. His throne was aflame with wheels ablaze, ¹⁰and a fiery river was flowing from Him. Millions of angels served Him. The court session began, and books were opened." {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Here is a picture of God the Judge who will judge the world at the end of this age. He is seen having a fiery river flowing from Him (7:10). Lord, Your judgment in the future at the end of the age will be vicious and complete. But then the judgment of sin by the death of Jesus Christ was vicious and complete. Lord, because You have judged my sins in Christ, I will not be punished by the future coming judgment. Thank You for Your grace. Amen. {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

little longer. ¹³Then I saw someone who looked like a man, coming in the clouds. He approached the Ancient One and was led into His presence. ¹⁴He received authority, honor, and royal power over all the world's nations. People of every race, nationality, and language worshiped Him. His rule will be forever; it will never be destroyed. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁵"I was troubled by what I had seen, and my visions bothered me. ¹⁶So I asked one of the angels standing by the throne what this all meant. {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} He gave me this explanation: ¹⁷'These four large beasts represent four kingdoms. ¹⁸But in the end the saints of the Most High will be given the kingdom and they will rule forever.'{18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

¹⁹"Then I asked about the fourth beast, which differed from the other three and was so fierce-looking. It devoured its victims with its iron teeth and bronze claws. and stomped on whatever was left. 20I also asked about the 10 horns on the fourth beast and the little horn that appeared later and destroyed three of the other horns. This was the horn that looked worse than the 10 and that had humanlike eyes and spoke boasting words. ²¹This little horn was fighting against the saints and was winning. ²²But then the Ancient of Days judged in favor of the saints of the Most High. Then the saints possessed the kingdom. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67: Matt. 6:9}

It will differ from the other three, devouring the world and trampling it down. ²⁴Its 10 horns are 10 kings that will rule that empire. Then another king, different from the 10, will destroy three of the 10. ²⁵He will speak against the Most High, make life hard for the saints, and try to change the Jewish festivals and laws. And they will be under the little horn's control for three and a half years. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁶"Then the court will decide the case, and take away his power and destroy him completely. ²⁷Then the power and greatness of all the kingdoms in the world will be given to the saints of the Most High. They will rule forever, and all rulers will worship and obey him.' {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²⁸That concludes the dream and its interpretation. I was frightened by all of this and my face was pale with fear. But I didn't share this with anyone." {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

Daniel 8 Daniel's Vision of the Ram and the Goat

everyone to the west, the north, and the south. No one could stop it and no one could help its victims. It did as it pleased, and it became great. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

⁵Suddenly a male goat appeared from the west. It was going so fast its feet didn't touch the ground. This goat had a big horn between its eyes, ⁶and it was going toward the two-horned ram that was standing beside the Ulai River. The goat charged at the ram in anger. ⁷He hit the ram so hard that he broke off the ram's two horns, and the ram was helpless. The goat knocked him down and trampled on it.

8The goat became very powerful, but at the peak of his power its large horn was broken off. In its place grew four big horns pointing to the north, east, south, and west. ⁹From one of these four came a small horn with great power. It moved toward the south and east and toward the wonderful land of Israel. 10 It was so powerful it even attacked the angels, and threw some of them on the ground and trampled on them. ¹¹He even opposed the Commander of the angels by doing away with daily sacrifices and destroying the temple. 12But some angels wanted to destroy him, but they were kept from doing so. But the temple ceremonies were not carried out properly. The horn succeeded in everything it did, and yet truth was not upheld. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³Then a saint asked another, "How long will these events last? How long will the daily sacrifices be withheld and how long will the rebellion continue that causes things to be desolate? And how long will the temple and the angels be trampled on?" ¹⁴The other answered, "It will take 1,150 days counting the morning and evening sacrifices, and then the temple will be restored." {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

¹⁵As I was trying to understand this vision, someone who looked like a human suddenly appeared in front of me. ¹⁶Then a voice near the Ulai River said, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of his vision." ¹⁷As Gabriel approached me, I was terrified and I fell to the ground. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} He said, "Son of man, the events you saw relate to future times." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 18I went into a deep sleep and then he touched me and helped me get up. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} 19 Then Gabriel said, "I'm here to tell you what will happen in the time of wrath. Your vision pertains to future times. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ²⁰The ram with two horns represents the kings of Media and Persia, ²¹ and the male goat represents the king of Greece. The large horn between its eyes represents the first king of the Greek Empire. ²²The four large horns on the goat represent four sections of the empire with four beings, but not one of them will be as great as the first king of Greece. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.}

saints. ²⁵He'll be very deceitful and think of himself as better than anyone else. When they think they are safe, he'll destroy them. And he'll even stand against the Prince of princes. He'll be destroyed, but not by a human. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁶This vision about the 1,150 days is true. But these things won't happen for a long time, so don't tell anyone about them yet." {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4}

²⁷I was exhausted, and I was sick for several days. Then I got up and carried on with my work for the king. But I continued to be troubled by the vision because I couldn't fully understand it. {7 Affliction-Prayer, Ps. 102:2}

Daniel didn't understand what he saw. heard, or even wrote down. At the end he wrote, "I was very disturbed about the vision. I did not understand what it meant" (8:27). An important principle is that "The New Testament reveals what the Old Testament conceals." We learn about God's coming kingdom on earth and His final judgment in the pages of the New Testament. Lord, I will study Your Word to understand as much as I can. Sometimes I don't get it the first time I read a passage, but I know there is something there, because usually I see it later on. The more I understand Christ, the more I understand the Old Testament. Amen. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

Daniel 9 Daniel Prays for Israel

¹Darius the Mede, son of Xerxes, became king of the Babylonians in 539 B.C. ²In that year as I was reading the prophecies of Jerusalem, I learned that Jerusalem was to be desolate for 70 years. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} ³I pleaded with the Lord God in prayer and fasting; and I wore burlap clothing and sprinkled ashes on my head. {98 Daniel Fast and Prayer, Dan. 1:8}

Daniel read what Jeremiah wrote and believed it. Daniel read that Israel would be enslaved to the Babylonians for 70 years. Daniel realized the 70 years were over, so he began praying for the Lord to take him and his people back to the Promised Land. Lord, I will believe what You promise, and I will claim Your promises in prayer, just as did Daniel. Amen. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13}

⁴I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed: "O Lord, you are a great and awe-some God. You keep Your agreement of unfailing love to those who love You and obey You. ⁵Our people have sinned and done wrong by rebelling against You and ignoring Your commands and regulations. ⁶We have not listened to Your servants the prophets who represented You in giving Your messages to our kings, princes, ancestors, and all our people. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6}

7"Lord, You are righteous, and we are ashamed. This is true of all of us, including our people in Judah and Jerusalem and all Israel, and those who are in distant lands. wherever You scattered them because of our being unfaithful to You. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 8O LORD, we and our kings, princes, and ancestors are ashamed because we've sinned against You. 9But You, the Lord our God, are merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against You. 10We've disobeyed You, the LORD our God, and we've not followed the laws You gave us through Your servants, the prophets. ¹¹In fact every one of us has disobeyed your law and turned from You, refusing to obey You. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

"Therefore the punishments written in the law of Moses, Your servant, have been poured out on us because of our sin." {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6}

There is a principle of "identificational repentance." {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} That means we identify with the sins committed by our forefathers, and confess them to God. God doesn't forgive their personal sins because we confess their sins. No, each person is responsible to God for his own sin. But we identify with their sins because the consequences of their sin affects us. We confess their sins so the consequences (the curses) of their sins are removed and we don't have to suffer them. Daniel is in captivity because of his people's sins, so he confesses their sins to God so he can return to the Promised Land. Lord, forgive the sins of America, and don't judge us. Be merciful to America and hold back Your hand of judgment. Send revival to America and bring my nation back to You. Amen.

12"You have done exactly what You warned us and our rulers about. No disaster has ever matched what You did to Jerusalem. 13 The disaster on Jerusalem has come about just as it is written in the law of Moses. Yet we have not asked for Your favor by turning away from our sins and attending to the truth. 14 You have brought on us the disaster You planned, because You are righteous in everything. And yet we did not obey You. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

15"O Lord our God, You brought honor to Yourself by rescuing Your people from Egypt with great power. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} But we have sinned and done wrong. 16O Lord, in view of Your righteous deeds, please turn Your anger away from Jerusalem, Your city, Your holy hill. Because of our sins and the sins of our ancestors, other nations ridicule us. {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} ¹⁷Our God, please hear Your servant's prayer. For Your reputation, Lord, look with favor on Your desolate temple. ¹⁸O my God, please listen to my prayer {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} and see the desolate condition of the city that bears Your name. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} I'm not asking these requests because we deserve help, but because You are so merciful. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ¹⁹O Lord, please hear my request, and O Lord, please forgive us. O Lord, please hear and act. For Your sake, O my God, please do not delay; because Your people and Your city bear Your name." {511 Urgent-Prayer, Luke 11:1-11}

²⁰I kept on praying, confusing my sins and the sins of my people Israel, pleading with the LORD my God for Jerusalem, His holy hill. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²¹As I was praying, Gabriel, the angel I saw in an earlier vision came to me swiftly about midafternoon, the time of the evening sacrifice. ²²He said, "Daniel, I've come to give you insight and understanding. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²³As you began to pray, I received an answer, and I've come to tell you because God thinks highly of you. So here is the meaning of the vision. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

²⁴"A period of seventy 'sevens' has been decreed for Your people and Your holy city. In that time transgressions will be ended, sin will be done away with, guilt will be atoned for, eternal righteousness will be brought in, prophetic visions will be confirmed, and the temple will be anointed." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

This is the closest we come to actually predicting the time Jesus Christ would come on earth the first time. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} The vision says it begins when the command is given to rebuild the walls. The vision says 69 weeks. (A week means the number 7. So 69 x 7 = 483 years till Messiah comes, that is, until Jesus comes.) Lord, I see this truth because I believe Your Word. This is an amazing prediction. It all comes in answer to Daniel's prayer when he asked You, "When?" Thank You for the answer. Amen.

²⁶"After this 69 sets of 'sevens' the Anointed One will be killed and will be left with nothing. Then a ruler will arise and his armies will destroy Jerusalem and the temple. The end will come rushing in like a flood, and wars and desolate times will continue from them to the end. ²⁷He'll make a treaty with Israel for one set of seven, but after half that time he'll stop the sacrifices and offerings. Then he'll set up a repulsive object in the wing of the temple that will cause desolation. Then the end that is predicted for him will occur." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Daniel 10 Daniel's Vision of a Man

¹In the third year of Cyrus, king of Persia (536 B.C.) a message was given to Daniel, also known as Belteshazzar. The message pertained to events that will happen in the future, in times of great wars. ²Daniel wrote, "For three weeks I mourned in sorrow. {196 Government Leaders-Intercession, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³I ate no rich food or meat and drank no wine and I put no olive oil on my body." {98 Daniel Fast and Prayer, Dan. 1:8}

For three weeks, Daniel was on a limited fast. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} He didn't eat "fancy foods" like desserts or "cheftype" meals. He ate only vegetables. Today, this is called a Daniel Fast. (See The Daniel Fast For Spiritual Breakthrough, by Elmer L. Towns, 2010 www.elmertowns.com.) Daniel was fasting because he was sad. We might want to follow this limited fast when praying seriously about grave matters. Lord, when I need to concentrate on intercession, I will fast and pray. I will hunger and thirst after righteousness, so I can "feed" on Your Word. Amen.

4"On the 24th day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the Tigris River, ⁵I saw a man dressed in linen and wearing a solid gold belt. ⁶His body was like a green mineral, his face bright like lightning, his arms red like flaming torches, his arms and legs like polished bronze, and his voice like the shouting of many people. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12}

7"Though the people with me didn't see the man, they were so frightened that they ran and hid. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} 8So as I was alone, watching this vision; I felt very weak, and my face turned pale. 9Then at the sound of his voice I fell face down in a deep sleep. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36}

10"He raised me up to my hands and knees, {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} 11and said, 'Daniel, God values you highly, and He has sent me to you. Stand up and listen carefully to my words.' So I stood up, still trembling with fear. 12 Then he said, 'Don't be afraid, Daniel. From the day you asked for understanding, God in heaven heard you, and I have been sent in answer to your prayer. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} ¹³But the demon over the Persian Empire blocked my way for three weeks. Then one of God's chief angels came to help me. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 14Now I'll explain what will happen to your people, the Jews, in the future. This vision concerns a time yet future."

Many times satan or demons oppose us, and we don't even know it. Too often we accept defeat as part of life. Only those who live close to God realize what's happening. Did Daniel know what was happening to him? Not until he was told. Lord, I believe "He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world" (1 John 4:4). Lord, protect me even when I don't realize I'm in trouble. When there is evil, give me wisdom to know what's happening and how I should react. Give me this wisdom only if You think I need it. Amen. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

¹⁵While Michael was speaking, I looked at the ground, unable to say a word. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ¹⁶Then one who looked like a man touched my lips, and I said, "This vision has frightened me, and I am very weak. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} ¹⁷How can I, your servant, talk to you, my lord, when I am so weak and can hardly breathe."

Spiritual warfare takes all our energy away. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} Daniel said, "As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me" (10:17). Lord, give me strength as I need it. I claim Your promise, "As the day demands, so shall thy strength be" (Deut. 33:25). Teach me to get strength from You so that "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me" (Phil. 4:13). Amen.

¹⁸ He touched me again and said, ¹⁹"Don't be afraid. God thinks highly of you. Calm yourself, take heart, and be strong." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} As he spoke these words, I felt stronger and I said, "Please speak, my lord, for you have made me feel strong." {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27}

²⁰He replied, "Do you now see why I have come? I must leave soon to fight the demon of the Persian Empire, and after that to fight the demon of the Greek Empire. ²¹But first I'll tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. (No one is here to help me against these two demons, except Michael, who guards the nation Israel.)" {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7}

Daniel 11 The Future after Darius

¹"Also I have been protecting and helping Darius the Mede in his first year as king."

This is one of the most difficult chapters in Scripture to understand. It deals intricately with people and places in the Near East. I cannot understand it without help. Lord, help me to understand what is difficult. Help me to act on what is plain to know. Amen. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

²"What I am about to tell you will certainly happen. Three more kings will rule over Persia. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} Then a fourth one, who will be very wealthy, will use his wealth to turn everyone against the Greek Empire.

5"The king of the South will become strong, but one of his own officials will become even more powerful. ⁶Years later they'll become allies, and the daughter of the king of the South will marry the king of the North. But she'll lose her power and she, her husband, and her supporters will be killed. ⁷Later one of her relatives will become ruler of the southern kingdom. He'll enter the fortress of the king of the North and defeat him. ⁸He'll take their idols, metal images, and valuable articles of gold and silver to Egypt. Then he'll not bother the king of the North for a long time. ⁹Years later the king of the North will invade the southern kingdom, but he'll go back to his own country. ¹⁰The sons of the king of the North will gather a great army, will sweep down like a flood, reaching the fortress of the king of the South. ¹¹This will make the king of the South angry, and he'll defeat the king of the North. ¹²This will make the king of the South proud, ¹³but the king of the North will gather an even larger army than he had before, but he'll be defeated.

¹⁴"Many will rise against the king of the South, but the forces of the king of the South will be defeated. ¹⁵Then the king of the North will capture a fortified city. The best troops of the South won't be able to stand against this onslaught. ¹⁶The invader will do as he pleases, including even capturing the Holy Land. ¹⁷He'll try to make peace by giving the king of the South a bride from the northern kingdom, but this plan won't work. ¹⁸Then he'll defeat some coastal cities, but a military commander will defeat him and he'll lose his pride. ¹⁹He'll go back to his own country but will be defeated and will never be seen again.

²⁰"The next king of the North will try to collect taxes to advance the glory of his kingdom. But in a few years he'll be dead, but not in battle or because of someone's anger. ²¹The next king of the North will be a scoundrel, who didn't come from a royal line. He'll take over the kingdom by flattery and deceit. ²²He'll destroy armies including a priest. ²³He'll make a treaty but he'll break it. ²⁴He'll invade a wealthy province, something his ancestors never did. Then he'll share with his followers the wealth of the rich.

²⁷ The two kings will meet at a conference table, and lie to each other. But their plans will not succeed because God has already decided what will happen. ²⁸The king of the North will go home with great treasures. On the way he'll oppose the people of the holy covenant.

²⁹"At God's appointed time the king of the North will invade the southern kingdom again, but this time it'll be different. ³⁰Warships from the west will come to attack him, and he'll be discouraged and will return home. On the way he'll take out his anger on God's people of the holy covenant and he'll reward those who turn from the covenant. ³¹He'll send troops into the temple to pollute it and to do away with the daily sacrifices. Then he'll set up a repulsive object that will cause desolation. ³²He'll flatter those who are unfaithful to God and influence them to side with him. but the people who are faithful to God will resist the king.

³³"Those who are wise will teach many people, though many of them will die by the sword or be burned alive, and others will be robbed and jailed. ³⁴They'll receive a little help, but many of them will not be honest. ³⁵Some of the wise people will suffer, but this will result in their being pure and spotless until the end, which is yet to come.

³⁶"This king will do as he pleases. He'll claim to be greater than any God, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} even blaspheming the true God. He'll be successful until God is no longer angry with His people." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

We see many characteristics of the antichrist in this passage. (1) He will exalt himself (11:36), (2) he will reject God (11:37), (3) he is a strong, self-willed man (11:36), (4) he will desecrate the temple in Jerusalem (11:31; Matt. 24:15), (5) he shall be a persuasive speaker (11:36), (6) he knows a strange god (satan) (11:38-39), (7) he has hatred toward the Jews (11:41). Lord, keep me from the Spirit of the antichrist (1 John 2:18); I will worship my LORD and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

³⁷"He'll reject the gods of his ancestors and the god desired by women. He'll reject all gods, ³⁸and he'll worship only the so-called god of fortresses, whom his ancestors never knew. He'll give it gold, silver, precious stones, and other expensive items. ³⁹With the help of this so-called god, he'll capture many fortresses. And he'll honor people who worship the idol, and he'll give them positions of authority and wealth and land.

against them like a flood, ⁴¹including the Holy Land. But Moab, Edom, and Ammon will escape. ⁴²Egypt is one of the many countries that will not escape. ⁴³The king of the North will take Egypt's great treasures of gold and silver, and he'll conquer Libya and Ethiopia. ⁴⁴He'll be disturbed by news from the east and the north, and he'll set out in anger to destroy many. ⁴⁵Then he'll set up his royal tents between the Mediterranean Sea and Mount Zion. His time will come to an end, and no one can help him." {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19}

Daniel 12 The End of Days

"At that time Michael, the great angel who protects your people, will come at a time of suffering {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} greater than any since nations came into existence. But every one of your people whose name is written in the Book will be rescued." {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14}

You can have confidence in your relationship with God {82 Confident-Praying, 1 John 5:13} because, "Everyone whose name is written in God's book will be saved" (12:1). Lord, You don't terrorize Your followers, neither do You threaten to excommunicate them. Rather, Lord, Your followers have great confidence. "This is our confidence that we have in Him" (1 John 5:14). Lord, I rest in the assurance of my salvation, and I will not give away my confidence for fear of doubt. Amen.

²"Many whose bodies are dead and buried will rise from the dead, some to everlasting life {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} and others to eternal shame and dishonor. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³Those who are wise will shine as bright as the sky, and those who show others how to live uprightly will shine like the stars forever." {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30}

God promises David will be raised in the resurrection, "Many people who have died will live again, some of them will wake up to have eternal life. But some will wake up to find shame and disgrace forever" (12:2). Lord, my body shall sleep in death until the resurrection, then it will awake to eternal joy with You. Amen.

4"But you, Daniel, seal up this book until the end times. Many people will go everywhere, searching for the knowledge in it." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

⁵Then I, Daniel, saw two angels, one on this side of the Tigris River and one on the other side. ⁶One of them said to the man clothed in linen, who was standing above the river, "How long will it be before these shocking things will happen?" {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ⁷The man clothed in linen, who was above the river, lifted his hands toward heaven and said, "In the name of God who lives forever, I state that it will all happen in three and a half years. When the suffering of God's people comes to an end, then all these things will have happened." {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17}

⁸I heard his answer, but I didn't understand. So I said, "How will all this finally end?" {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

⁹He replied, "Don't continue to be concerned about this, Daniel, because the message is sealed up until the end times. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24}

¹⁰Many people will have their lives made pure and clean, but the wicked will continue to be wicked. The wicked won't understand any of this, but the wise will understand. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

¹¹"From the time the daily sacrifices are stopped and the repulsive object that results in desolation is set up, there will be 1,290 days. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²God will bless those who reach the end of the 1,335 days. ¹³And so Daniel, be faithful until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of time you will rise from the dead and receive your reward." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Daniel is promised death and that he will not return to the Promised Land, for which he prayed. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} He was told he will die, "You, go your way till the end; for you shall rest, and will arise to your inheritance at the end of the days" (12:13). The Lord has promised all of us will die, "It is appointed unto men once to die" (Heb. 9:27). But we have the promise of Jesus, "I will come again and receive you to Myself" (John 14:3). Lord, I put my future in Your hands. I know I must die, and I'm not good with pain, so "I want to die well," as John Wesley said. But maybe, Lord, I'll live until the rapture. "Even so, come Lord Jesus" (Rev. 22:20). Amen. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

HOSEA

Key Words: Not my people (Hosea 1:9)

Key Verse: "For ye are not my people, and I will not be your God" (1:9).

Theme: Hosea is told to marry a woman with a predisposition to adultery as a picture of Israel who has a predisposition to worship false gods. God established a "covenant of love" with the Jews when He led them out of Egypt. But Israel constantly worshiped the idols and gods of the surrounding nations. The rough language of Hosea 2:2-7 is a picture of the Lord's disgust at Israel's spiritual adultery. In Israel, the penalty of adultery was death (Lev. 20:10), so when God tells Hosea to receive back his wife, it's a picture of the grace of God to receive back Israel who rejected Him. Then Israel will say, "Thou art my God" (2:23).

In Hosea you'll learn that the Lord is a demanding God who punishes our unfaithfulness to Him, but He has another side. God is long-suffering to you and will forgive and receive you. Pray that you will be protected from backsliding, but also pray for forgiveness when you sin, "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7). Lord, forgive me of all my sin—ignorant sin, and otherwise—cleanse me by the blood of Jesus Christ, Your Son. Amen.

Hosea 1 Hosea's Wife and Children

Hosea son of Beeri. The LORD gave me these messages when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah and Jeroboam, son of Jehoash, was king of Israel. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

²The LORD said to me, "Hosea, Israel has been unfaithful to Me. So go marry a prostitute and have children by her." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ³So I married Gomer, daughter of Diblaim, and she became pregnant and bore a son. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ⁴The LORD told me to name the boy Jezreel. He said this because the descendants of King Jehu had murdered people in Jezreel. ⁵In fact God said that in Jezreel he would break Israel's power. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁶Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. The LORD told me to name her Lo-Ruhamah, which means "Not-Loved," because He said He would no longer show love to the Israelites or forgive them. ⁷"But," the LORD said, "I'll show love to the people of Judah. I'll deliver them, but not by the sword or bows or cavalry. Only I will save them." {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁸Gomer became pregnant again and had a second son. ⁹The LORD said, "Name him Lo-Ammi, which means 'Not My people,' because Israel is not My people, and I'm not their God." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, this story is difficult to understand, but You deal with people in difficult situations. You accept people where You find them, and lift them to where they should be. Do that with me; lift me up to where I should stand for You. Amen.

¹⁰"However, the time will come when Israel will become a great nation and its people will be as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They are now called 'Not My People,' but in the future they'll be called, 'You Are Children of the Living God.' ¹¹Israel and Judah will be united under one leader and they'll return back to their land. This will be a great day for Jezreel." {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

Lord, make me sensitive to You every time I open the Bible to read Your Word. Because You speak, I will answer. Because You reveal Yourself, I will learn. Because You direct, I will obey. Amen.

Hosea 2 Unfaithful Gomer–Unfaithful Israel

1"You'll call your brothers Ammi (meaning 'My People'), and you'll call your sisters Ruhammah (meaning 'The Ones I Love'). ²"Tell Israel she is no longer My wife and I'm no longer her husband. Tell her to remove her suggestive clothing and quit being a prostitute. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ³If she doesn't I'll strip her naked as she was on the day she was born. I'll let her die of thirst and be like a dry desert. ⁴I'll not love her children, because they are not My own. They were conceived in adultery. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 5 Their mother was a prostitute and she said, 'I'll run after my lovers and sell myself to them for food, water, wool, linen, and olive oil.' {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

6"I, the LORD, will block her with thorn bushes so that she can't find her way. 7She'll chase after her lovers but won't catch them. She'll look for them but not find them. Then she'll think, 'I may as well go back to my husband. I was better off with him than I am now.' {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} 8She didn't realize that I was the one who gave her grain, new wine, olive oil, and even gold and silver she used in worshiping Baal.

festivals. ¹²She said her vines and fig trees were her lovers' payment for sex. But I'll ruin those vineyards and fig trees; they'll become weeds, and wild animals will eat them. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹³I'll punish her for all the times she burned incense to Baal, and wore jewelry and earrings to attract her lovers. I, the LORD have spoken these words." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹⁴"I'll win you back again by leading you into the desert and speaking tenderly to you. 15I'll give back your vineyards to you, and I'll change Trouble Valley into Valley of Hope. You'll respond to Me as you did long ago when I rescued you from Egypt. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ¹⁶From then on you'll call me your husband, not your master. 17I'll no longer let you even mention the names of the Baals. 18 I'll encourage the animals, birds, and creatures that move on the ground not to harm you. And I'll remove all weapons of warfare from the land so you can live in peace. {45 Blessing of Victory in Warfare-Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁹You'll be My wife forever, and I'll show you justice, fairness, love, and compassion. 20 I'll be faithful to you. Then you'll know Me as your LORD. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

²¹"In that day I'll tell the sky to send rain on the earth. {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²²The earth will answer the cries of the grain, grapes, and olive oil for rain. And they'll sing together 'Jezreel' (meaning 'God Plants'). ²³I'll plant you, Israel, for Myself in the land, and I'll show love to those I called 'Lo-Ruhamah' (meaning 'Not My Loved One'). And I'll say to those I called 'Lo-Ammi' (meaning 'Not My People'), you are now My people. And they'll say, 'You are my God.'" {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, once I was a stranger to grace; I followed my selfish ways and rebelled against Your laws. Thank You for the Holy Spirit who convicted me of sin, and thank You for forgiveness that comes through the cross of Christ. Now I am Your child and I belong to You. I submit to Your plan for my life. Work Your perfect will in my life. Amen.

Hosea 3 Hosea Accepts His Unfaithful Wife Again

¹Then the LORD said to me, "Go love your wife again even though she was an adulteress. This will show that I love Israel, even though they worship idols and enjoy the cakes made with raisins." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²So I bought her back for 15 pieces of silver and 10 bushels of grain and some wine. ³I said to her, "You are to remain in my house and be faithful to me and not have sex with anyone including me." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁴This illustrates that for a long time the Israelites will be without a king or prince, and without sacrifices at the temple, and any way of getting guidance from God. ⁵But later Israel will turn back to the LORD and David their king. They'll come to the LORD with fear and trembling, and He'll be good to them. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

The prophet predicts five things about Israel, "The children of Israel shall abide many days without a (1) king... (2) prince... (3) sacrifice... (4) priestly vest... (5) teraphim" (3:4, KJV). This prophecy has been remarkably fulfilled in Israel since the time of Christ (that is, A.D. 70). Israel has retained her identity, "shall abide many days" (3:4) but without a king, or kingly succession, sacrifices, or temple. Lord, I believe You are not finished with Israel, but will fulfill Your promises to restore her to prominence and they shall occupy the Holy Land in peace. Because You will keep Your promise to a nation, I know You will keep Your promises to me. I'm waiting in faith. Amen.

Hosea 4 LORD Blames Israel

¹You Israelites, listen to the LORD's Word as He files a lawsuit against you with these charges: "You are not faithful to the LORD, and you do not show kindness, and you have no knowledge of God. ²You swear, lie, kill, steal, and commit adultery. Violence is everywhere and one murder follows after another. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³This is why your land is a desert and everyone is dying, including people, wild animals, birds, and fish.

⁴"Don't try to blame someone else. You priests are at fault. ⁵You and your prophets will stumble in daylight. ⁶And you Israel are being destroyed because you don't know Me. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} Your priests are to blame because you refuse to obey Me. So now I refuse to recognize you as My priests. Because you've forgotten My laws, I won't bless your children. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} By adding more priests you increased your sin against Me. They exchanged their high position for the disgrace of idols.

⁸"The priests like it when the people bring sin offerings to them because then the priests can eat. ⁹Since the priests are wicked, so are the people. That explains the saying, 'Like priests, like people.' ¹⁰The priests will eat, but they'll still be hungry. And though the people are prostitutes, they won't have children. That's because they have rebelled against Me and been unfaithful to Me.

11"You drink wine and so you can't think straight! 12How stupid that you are asking a piece of wood to tell you what to do. Do you think the way a stick falls can tell you the future? How foolish! Wanting sex at pagan shrines has caused you to serve other gods and to desert God. 13 You offer sacrifices to idols in hilltop shrines, and you burn incense to your gods in the shade of oak, poplar, and other trees.

"Your daughters and daughters-in-law became prostitutes. ¹⁴But I won't punish them because you men are sinning with harlots and shrine prostitutes. You are so foolish! And so you will come to ruin. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

worshiping idols at Gilgal and don't go to Beth-Aven (which means 'House of Wickedness'). {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁶Your worship is not genuine as you take oaths in like a heifer, so much so that I can't put you out to pasture like lambs. ¹⁷Israel, forget about your idols. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁸You men get drunk and then sleep with prostitutes, and you love your shameful ways. ¹⁹A whirlwind will sweep you away, and you'll die in shame." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, by Your holiness You should destroy me and all Your people because we are not perfect. We fall short in so many areas. Forgive us. Look on us in mercy, not judgment. When You see our sins, look on the cross of Christ who died for our sins. Thank You for Your love and acceptance in Christ. Amen.

Hosea 5 LORD Judges Israel

¹"You priests, leaders of Israel, and members of the royal family, listen to these words that are for you. You trapped My people with idols at Mizpah and Tabor, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²and you dug a deep pit to trap them. ³I know all about you, Israel; you can't hide from Me. By turning to prostitution, you have become spiritually corrupt. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁴You can't return to Me because of your sinful deeds. You are so given over to prostitution that you can't know Me.

⁵"Your arrogance works against you, and you'll stumble in your sin, and so will Judah. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁶When you come with your flocks and herds to offer sacrifices to Me, it'll be too late. You won't find Me because I've turned from you. ⁷You've been unfaithful to Me, giving birth to illegitimate children. So at the new moon festivals, you and your wealth will disappear. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1}

¹³"When Israel and Judah saw how weak they were, Israel turned to Assyria's great king. But he couldn't cure them. ¹⁴Israel and Judah, I'll be like a lion, tearing them to pieces and carrying them off and no one will be able to rescue them. ¹⁵Then I'll leave them alone and go back to Jerusalem until they admit their guilt and look to Me for help from their misery." {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

Lord, teach me to properly pray. When my prayers are not answered, teach me why. Correct me when I pray for the wrong thing. Correct me when I don't properly intercede. And when I have sin in my life, convict me of my sin so I can repent. Forgive me for any hidden sin, or if I sin presumptuously (Ps. 19:13). Thank You for Your patience and grace. Amen. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3}

Hosea 6 Return to the Lord

¹Let's return to the LORD. He has torn us to pieces, but He can heal us and bandage our wounds. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²He'll restore our strength so we can live in His presence. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³Let's do our best to know Him, and He'll respond to us as surely as the dawn will come each morning and rain will come in early spring. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord, I'm parched and thirsty, so come rain on me. I have some "mercy drops" falling on me, but I want a refreshing shower. I'm stagnant, I want the showers that awaken and grow fruit in my life. Lord, I'm waiting for rain. Amen. {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

⁴"Israel and Judah, what shall I do with you? Your love for Me vanishes like the morning mist or dew. ⁵That's why I sent My prophets to cut you to pieces and to slaughter you with My words. My judgments on you were as sharp as lightning. 'I'd rather you show mercy than offer Me sacrifices. And I'd rather you know Me than bring Me burnt offerings. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

7"Like Adam, you betrayed Me by breaking our agreement. ⁸Everyone in Gilead is wicked, and your hands are covered with the blood of your victims. ⁹Gilead's people are robbers, lying in ambush for their victims. Your priests are robbers in ambush, murdering travelers on the way to Shechem, and they practice every kind of sin. ¹⁰What a terrible thing I've seen in Israel. My people have defiled themselves by worshiping false gods. ¹¹Judah, your time of punishment is coming, but I wanted so much to bless you." {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14}

Lord, You punish Your people to correct them so they will live righteously. I will learn from Your discipline, I will live as holy as I can in my sinful flesh. Amen. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

Hosea 7 Israel Rebels

¹"I wanted to heal you, Israel, but your sins were too great. Everyone in Samaria is a liar, a thief, or a bandit. ²You don't seem to realize I'm watching you." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

O Lord, I wish I were perfect, but I am "prone to wander." When I give into my fleshly passion, I feel the temptation of sin. Forgive me for paying attention to my fleshly passion. Cleanse me by the blood (1 John 1:7). Create a clean heart within. Amen. {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

3"Your king and princes are glad to know about your sins. ⁴You are all adulterers, burning with desire like a hot oven, whose fire smolders in the night and in the morning flames like a raging fire. ⁵⁻⁶On royal holidays, your princes get drunk, and the king makes a fool of himself as he drinks with those who make fun of him. ⁷You killed your kings, and no one calls for help. ⁵⁰³ Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3}

8"You Israelites associate with foreigners who are as worthless as a small cake cooked on only one side." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Lord, I don't want to be a cake half-baked. Give me balance in all things. May I balance prayer with outward service. May I balance inward love with outward worship. Amen. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

9"Worshiping foreign gods has sapped your strength, and you don't seem to realize it. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} You are like an old man with graying hair who is weak. ¹⁰Your pride has kept you from returning to Me your God. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

11"Also you Israelites have become like a senseless bird, going first to Egypt and then flying to Assyria. ¹²But I'll catch you in a net, and I'll punish you for your sinful ways. ¹³How terrible it will be for you, My people, who have rejected Me. Because you rebelled, you deserve to die. I wanted to rescue you, but you told Me lies. ¹⁴You don't pray to Me with sincere hearts. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} Instead you sit on your couches and wail. And you cut yourselves as you ask Baal and other false gods to give you good crops. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

¹⁵"I taught you and made you strong, but now you plot against Me. ¹⁶You look everywhere for help except to Me, the Most High God in heaven. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} You are no more useful than a crooked bow that misses its target. Your leaders will die because they insulted Me, and the Egyptians will laugh at you." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Hosea 8 Israel Continues to Sin

1"Sound the alarm. The enemy descends like a vulture on My people, because they've broken our agreement and ignored My laws. ²Israel, you asked that I help you. {324 Non-Answer to Prayer, Ps. 18:41} ³But it's too late. Your enemies will chase you because you rejected everything that is good. ⁴You chose kings and princes but you didn't check with Me. You made idols from silver and gold and that has led to your downfall. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁵Samaria, I'll have nothing to do with this calf-idol you made; I'm so angry with you. Will you never be innocent again? ⁶Some human hands made this calf. I certainly didn't. Therefore it must be smashed to pieces. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

7"You've sown the wind, and so you'll reap the whirlwind. The stalks of wheat wither and produce no grain. If you do harvest some grain, enemies will steal it and eat it."

Lord, forgive every sin I've ever done, and forgive my thoughts of sin that never become acts. Please don't judge me for any of my sins, Christ took my punishment. I will sow seeds of love, joy, peace, patience, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and self-control (Gal. 5:22-23). Amen. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

8"Israel you are ruined. You are useless as a broken pot. 9Like a wild donkey looking for a mate, you've gone to Assyria. In fact you've sold yourself to many lovers. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8 10 But yet I'll gather you together, and then you'll suffer under the burden of the great king. 11"You built many altars for sin offerings, but they are altars of sin. 12I wrote out My many laws, but you said they weren't for you. {38 Bible-Application Prayer, Heb. 4:12} ¹³You eat the meat of your own sacrifices, but they mean nothing to Me. I'll remember your sins and punish you. Then you'll go again to Egypt. 14You've forgotten Me, your Creator. You built palaces and great fortified cities. But now I'll send fire on your cities and burn your fortresses." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I will remember You when I arise in the morning because You created sleep to give me enjoyable rest. {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2} I will remember You when I work because You have given me strength to do my task in life. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} I will remember You when I sit down to eat because You bring food out of the earth to strengthen me. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} I will remember You all day for each day that I live. But most of all, I'll remember You as my Maker. Amen. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:12}

Hosea 9 Hosea Announces the Punishment of Israel

1"Don't rejoice as others do, for you've been unfaithful to Me and you've been like a prostitute, earning wages at every threshing floor. ²Your harvests won't give you enough food to feed your people, and you won't have enough grapes for wine. ³I won't let you stay here in the land. You'll be taken to Egypt and Assyria where you'll eat ceremonially unclean food. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁴You won't pour out wine offerings to Me, and I won't be pleased with your sacrifices. They'll be polluted like the food eaten by mourners. You may eat this food to feed yourselves, but you may not offer it to Me. 5"What will you do on your festivals? ⁶Even if you escape alive from Assyria, Egypt will conquer you and you'll be burned in Memphis. Your silver treasure will be covered with weeds, and thorns will grow in your tents. 7Your time of punishment has arrived. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} You'll get what you deserve, and you will know it. You say the prophets are fools and God's messengers are crazy, and this is because your sins are so many and you're filled with hatred. 8The prophets are My watchmen, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} but you set traps for them and you hate them even in My temple. 9You are as bad as what they did in Gibeah years ago. God won't forget; He'll punish you for your sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

10"When I found you, loving you was like finding grapes in the desert. When I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing first ripe figs. But then you deserted Me for Baal-Peor, giving yourselves to that awful idol. Soon you became as vile as that god. 11 Your glory will fly away like a bird. And your children will die at birth, or die in the womb, or not even be conceived. 12 Even if your children do survive, I'll take them from you. How terrible it will be when I turn from you. 13 Israel, you like Tyre, are in a pleasant location. But you'll lead your children to be slaughtered." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁴LORD, give them wombs that don't give birth and breasts that give no milk. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹⁵"I hated you at Gilgal because of your sin there. So I'll no longer love you because your leaders are rebels." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, this verse scares me, for I'm not perfect; I have ignorant sin in my life. Don't ever stop loving me. I claim Your promise, "He retaineth not His anger forever" (Mic. 7:18). I claim Jesus my High Priest "who ever liveth to make intercession for me" (Heb. 7:25, ELT). I claim life because You promised "he shall live forever" (John 6:51). Amen. {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1}

¹⁶"Like a plant you, Israel, are blighted, your roots are withered, and you bear no fruit. If they bear children, I'll slay them. ¹⁷I'll reject you because you've disobeyed Me, and you'll roam from one nation to another." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Hosea 10 The Coming Judgment

¹"How prosperous you are, Israel. You are like a vine loaded with grapes. But as you grew more grapes, you built more altars to foreign gods. And as you prospered, you built more idols."

Lord, I will live for You first, then for my family, and then friends, next for the poor, and finally for my nation. Forgive me of my selfish obsession with my pleasure, or my belongings, or my ambition. May I find joy in living for others. Amen. {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4}

²"You're deceitful, so you must now be destroyed. I'll break down your foreign altars and smash your sacred stones. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³You'll say, 'We don't have a king because we don't reverence You. But so what? What could a king do for us?' ⁴You make promises you don't intend to keep. So justice is like poisonous weeds in the fields.

⁵"You people in Samaria are concerned about the calf-idol at Beth-Aven. People and priests mourn over it because its glory has been stripped away. ⁶When you are taken as captives to Assyria, your idol will be carried there. But then people will laugh at you for worshiping this idol. ⁷Your king will disappear like a chip of wood in a stream. ⁸The pagan shrines at Bethel (which means "House of God") will be destroyed. Thorns will grow over those altars, and you'll beg the mountains and hills to fall on you. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, serving You is easy, like the heifer treading in the grain mill. But serving sin is hard and agonizing. I will serve You joyfully for the joy it gives me. Amen.

12"Plant seeds of justice and you'll harvest My love. Now is the time for you to seek Me so I can shower righteousness on you. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ¹³But you've planted evil and harvested deception. You have depended on your own strength and on armies to keep you safe. 14But now war will break out, and your fortifications will fall just as they did when Shalman destroyed Beth-Arbel. Mothers and their children were beaten to death against rocks. ¹⁵Bethel, this will be your fate too because of your great sin. When that day comes, your king will be destroyed." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Hosea 11 LORD Still Loves His People

1"Israel, when you were a child, I loved you as a father loves his son. And I called you out of Egypt." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

God says of Israel, "I... called My son out of Egypt" (11:1). It's a picture of God delivering the nation of Israel from Egypt. But these words are quoted by Matthew and applied to Jesus (Matt. 2:15), because there are 3 similarities. First, both Jesus and Israel were objects of the Father's love. Second, both were called "My son" because Jesus was eternally begotten (Ps. 2:7, John 3:16) and Israel was generated by the Father's promise (Gen. 12:2-3). Third, both were in Egypt. Jesus as a refugee from the tyranny of Herod, and Israel held in slavery by Pharaoh. Lord, thank You for prophecy given here that was fulfilled in the baby Jesus. I know everything about Jesus is true because what was predicted about Him was fulfilled accurately. I praise You for working all things together for good. Amen.

²"But the more I called you, the more you rebelled, and you kept on sacrificing to Baal and burning incense to idols. ³I taught you how to walk, leading you by the hand. But you ignored Me. ⁴I led you with kindness and love. I lifted the yoke from your neck so you could eat. I bent down to feed you. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

5"But since you refused to listen to Me, you'll go back to Egypt and Assyria will rule over you. ⁶War will enter your cities, and your enemies will break through your gates. ⁷You are determined to reject Me. You call Me the Most High, but I won't honor you. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁸"Israel, I can't give you up. I can't destroy you as I destroyed Admah and Zeboiim. My heart goes out to you. ⁹I won't destroy you in My fierce anger, all because I'm God and not some human. I'm the Holy One, so I won't demolish you. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

¹⁰"When I roar like a lion, you'll come trembling from the west. ¹¹You'll come from Egypt like a flock of birds and from Assyria like doves. I'll bring you home again and settle you in your homes," says the LORD. ¹²"You, Israel, tell Me lies and are deceitful, and you, Judah, reject Me, the faithful Holy One." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

Hosea 12 The Nation of Israel Is a Liar

"You people of Israel chase the wind and feed on the whirlwind all day long. You're filled with lies and violence; you've made a treaty with Assyria, and you've sent gifts to Egypt." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Lord, I recommit myself to You this day, to do Your will today. I will feed on Your Word and I will fellowship with You in prayer. I will not feed on the wind, for I get nothing from the world, the flesh, and the devil. Amen. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

²"Now I'm bringing a lawsuit against Judah, and I'll punish you for your sins. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³Before you were born, you struggled with your brother Esau in the womb; and when you became a man, you fought against Me. ⁴At Bethel you wrestled with an angel and won. Weeping, you begged the angel to give you a blessing. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁵There at Bethel you met Me—the LORD God Almighty—face to face—The LORD is My name. ⁶So return to Me, show love and justice, and always wait patiently for Me. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

very rich, and I've gotten all this wealth by myself. I didn't get it by sinning.' {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 'I'm the LORD your God who rescued you from Egypt. You'll live in tents again, as you do every year in the Festival of Shelters. ¹⁰By visions and parables My prophets have warned you of My coming judgment. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

¹¹"Gilead is wicked and worthless. And in Gilgal people sacrifice bulls on altars that are like stones lined up in a field. ¹²Jacob, you went to Syria to get a wife by tending sheep. ¹³Then I used Moses, a prophet, to rescue Israel from Egypt and to care for them. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ¹⁴You people of Israel have angered Me, so I'll now make you pay for your sins." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Hosea 13 LORD Is Very Angry with Israel

¹"It used to be that when your leaders spoke, every one of you in Israel shook with fear and respect. But then you sinned by worshiping Baal, and this sealed your doom."

Lord, remind me that compromise with sin will lead to spiritual weakness, and when I add one sin to another sin, I will weaken myself so much that I can't stand. Lord, strengthen me by Your standards, as I take my stand for righteousness. Amen. {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18}

²"But now you keep on sinning by using silver to make idols that are skillfully designed by craftsmen in the shape of calves. You offer humans as sacrifices, and you kiss these idols shaped like calves. ³Therefore you'll vanish like the morning mist and early dew, and you'll disappear like chaff blowing away from a threshing floor and like smoke from a chimney. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

4"I'm the LORD your God, who rescued you from Egypt. I'm the only God you know and the only one who can take care of you. 5I cared for you in the dry, hot desert 6When you had eaten and were full, then in your pride you forgot Me. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} 7So I'll attack you like a lion and like a leopard watching for you on the roadside. 8And I'll rip you to pieces like a bear robbed of her cubs. I'll devour you like a lion.

9"Because you are against Me, your Helper, I'll destroy you. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁰You wanted a king and rulers. So now where is your king and your leaders? ¹¹In My anger I gave you kings, and then I removed them.

¹²"Israel, I've kept a record of your sins. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹³You're like a child who refuses to be born when it's time. ¹⁴Yet I'll free you from death and the grave. One day, O Death and the Grave, I'll destroy you and I'll show no mercy."

Lord, I trust Your Word and I know one day I'll be raised to stand with Jesus before You, the Father. I rest on Your promise. Amen. 15"The tribe of Ephraim prospered more than the other tribes. But I'll send from the desert an east wind that'll dry up the land. 16 Your springs and wells will disappear, and your treasures will be looted, all because you rebelled against Me. You'll be killed in war. Children will be dashed to death against the ground, and pregnant women will be ripped open." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Hosea 14 Hosea Pleads with Israel to Change

¹"Israel, return to Me," your LORD. "Your sins have caused you to fall. ²When you return to Me, say, 'Please forgive our sins and receive us back so we can praise You. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I will worship You with my lips, for they speak what is in my heart. Nothing I could give You would be greater than to give You my heart. Amen. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23}

3""We now admit that Assyria can't save us. We'll never again worship idols we've made and call them our gods. Only You show mercy to orphans.' {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

^{4"}Israel, I'll cure you of your idolatry, and My love for you will know no limits, for My anger is gone. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁵I'll refresh you like dew from heaven. Then you'll blossom like lilies, and your roots will go deep like cedars in Lebanon. ⁶Your branches will spread out like an olive tree and be as fragrant as the cedars of Lebanon.

7"You'll return from captivity, and people will enjoy your shade and they'll grow like grain. You'll blossom like a well-watered vineyard and be as well-known as the wine from Lebanon. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 8O Israel, stay away from idols. I'll take care of you. I'll be to you like an evergreen tree, giving you fruit all year long. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} °If you are wise, you'll know what I mean and if you are discerning, listen carefully. My paths are true and right. If you're righteous, you'll follow My paths. But sinners stumble and fall." {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

Lord, I love You and I understand what You say about sin; but more importantly, I will show my love by obeying Your words. Thank You for giving me spiritual insight. Amen. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

JOEL

Key Words: The Day of the LORD (Joel 1:15)

Key Verse: "Whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered" (2:32).

Theme: Joel predicts a coming locust-judgment from God on the nation because of her sins against God calling it "The day of the LORD." The plague and drought will be so devastating that the nation cannot sacrifice offerings to God. The second half of Joel (2:28-3:21) predicts the future repentance and restoration of the Jews. Joel teaches us to pray for the true meaning of revival, that is, "God pouring His presence on His people" (2:28-32) and God is safety for all who call upon Him (2:28-32). Lord, forgive me of all my sin and restore me to Your fellowship. Pour out Your presence on me in revival. Amen.

Joel 1 The Threat of Locusts

Joel son of Pethuel. This is the message the LORD gave to me.

1 1 2 Listen, you leaders and everyone else in the land. Has anything like this ever happened before? Tell your children about it. And have them tell your grandchildren and great-grandchildren. After the cutting locusts ate crops, the swarming locusts ate what was left. Then came two other kinds of locusts. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} You drunkards, wake up and weep because all your grapes are gone. Like locusts, a powerful nation with troops too numerous to count has invaded your land. They have teeth and jaws like a lion. This army of locusts has destroyed My grapevines and fig trees, stripping off their bark and leaving the branches white. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, open my eyes to sin in my life so I can repent before judgment comes. Lord, I pray against the sin of my nation, I repent for my nation before judgment comes. Forgive us! Have mercy! {232 Identificational Repentance-Prayer, Neh. 1:6} Amen.

⁸Grieve like a young woman mourning for her fiancé who died. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁹No grain offerings or drink offerings are available to offer in the temple and the priests mourn. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁰The fields have no crops, and the grain, wine, and olive oil are gone. ¹¹You farmers and vine growers, weep, because there's no wheat or barely or other crops. ¹²Grapevines have dried up. And so have the fig trees, pomegranates, date palms, and apple trees, so that all joy is gone. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹³You priests who serve at the altar, wear burlap clothing in your grief. Lie all night at the altar, weeping because there are no more grain offerings or drink offerings at the temple. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁴Announce a time to not eat {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and call the people together. Urge the leaders and all the people to go to the temple and pray. {417 Samuel Fast and Prayer, 1 Sam. 7:6} ¹⁵Soon destruction from Shaddai, the Almighty, will come. That will be a terrible day. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ¹⁶Our food is gone, and there's no more celebrating at the temple.

Lord, I call my own private solemn assembly (serious meeting). Show me any hidden sin or ignorant sin. Forgive me by the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7-10) and don't judge me. Be merciful. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Amen.

¹⁷Seeds rot in the ground and grain crops die. Our barns are empty with no grain stored in them. ¹⁸Cattle groan with hunger for pasture and wander around, and sheep bleat because of lack of food. ¹⁹LORD, we need Your help. Heat has devoured our pastures and burned up all the trees. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ²⁰Wild animals have no water because the streams are dried up and the pastures are burned. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, my service is not about me, but about You. I submit to You the source of my ministry. Fill me with Your power, and Your message. Guide me to the place of ministry, and give me spiritual power to accomplish what You send me to do. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Amen.

Joel 2 The Day of the LORD Is Near

¹"Blow the trumpet in Zion to sound an alarm. All you people tremble because the day of My judgment is at hand. ²That day will be dark and gloomy, with black clouds overhead. A mighty army will appear like dawn spreading across the mountains. This army is powerful like no other army before or after it." {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

³Flames surround them. Before they invaded, our land was like the Garden of Eden, but now it is a desert. ⁴These "soldiers" look like horses, and they run like fast chariots. ⁵They sound like chariots as they leap over mountains. They make a terrible noise like the rumbling of chariots, or like a fire sweeping across a field to consume straw, or like an army going into battle. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4,

9) The sight of them is frightening. They climb over walls like soldiers, and they march in line, without losing rank. 8They don't push each other; they keep marching straight ahead. No weapon can stop them. ⁹They swarm over city walls and enter into our homes, crawling through windows like thieves. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9\ \(^{10}\)As they approach, the earth shakes and the heavens shake. The sun and moon grow dark, and the stars don't shine. ¹¹The LORD leads this army with countless troops, and they follow His orders. The day of the LORD's judgment is so terrible that no one can endure it. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

12"Return to Me now," says the LORD. "Come back to Me with all your heart. Give up eating, and cry and mourn. {417 Samuel Fast and Prayer, 1 Sam. 7:6} 13Don't tear your clothes in your grief; instead come to Me with broken hearts. Return to Me {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} because I'm gracious and merciful, I don't easily get angry, and I'm full of love. I'm not anxious to punish you." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

Lord, serious sin demands serious fasting and repentance. All sin is serious to You, so open my eyes to see the comprehensiveness of my sin so I will repent with all my heart. Help, Lord. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} Amen.

14"Who knows? Perhaps I'll bless you {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} so that you'll again have enough for grain offerings and drink offerings for Me, your God. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} one together and show your sorrow by going without food. {417 Samuel Fast and Prayer, 1 Sam. 7:6} ¹⁶Have everyone come, including adults, children, babies, and even newlyweds. ¹⁷You priests, serving in My presence, should weep {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} between the porch and the altar and pray that I'll spare My people. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} Don't let other nations make jokes about us. Don't let them say, 'Where is their God? He must be helpless.'

¹⁸"I'm concerned about My land, and I take pity on My people. ¹⁹You prayed and I said, 'I'm sending you enough grain, new wine, and olive oil to satisfy your needs. I'll never again let the nations laugh at you. ²⁰I'll chase the army from the north away from you, sending them into a parched desert where they'll die. Some will be driven into the Dead Sea and some into the Mediterranean Sea. The stench of the rotting corpses will be terrible. I'll do great things for you. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ²¹So don't be afraid, but be glad and rejoice because of these great things I'll do for you.'" will be filled with new wine and olive oil. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²⁵"I, the LORD your God, will give you back the crops the locusts ate. They were like a great army I sent to you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 26Again you'll have plenty of food, and you'll praise Me, the LORD your God, {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} who has done miracles for you. You'll never be put to shame again. ²⁷You'll know that I'm here with you {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} and that I alone am the LORD your God and there is no other god. As I said, you'll never be put to shame again. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

²⁸"Later I'll pour out My Spirit on everyone, {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} and your sons and daughters will prophesy. Your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions. ²⁹In those days I'll also pour out My Spirit on My servants, both men and women. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} ³⁰I'll work wonders in the sky and on the earth. There'll be blood and fire and clouds of smoke. ³¹The sun will turn dark, and the moon will be red like blood before My terrible day of judgment arrives." {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

Lord, I want Your Spirit poured out on me. I will find the pitcher and stand under the spout so the oil of the Holy Spirit will pour on me. I'm here! {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} Amen.

32"I'll save everyone who calls on My name. As I said, My people on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem {417 Samuel Fast and Prayer, 1 Sam. 7:6} will escape judgment, for I've chosen some to survive." {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7}

Joel 3 The LORD Will Judge the Nations

4"You people of Tyre and Sidon and you Philistines, are you trying to get even with Me for something I've done? If so, I'll get even with you quickly. ⁵You've taken My silver and gold and treasures and have taken them off to your pagan temples. ⁶You've sold My people to the Greeks, who took them far away from their homeland. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ⁷But I'll bring them back home, and I'll do to you what you did to them. ⁸I'll sell your sons and daughters to Judah, who'll sell them to the Sabeans far away. I, the LORD, have spoken these words."

9"Announce to the nations: 'Prepare for war. Get the soldiers ready for the attack. ¹⁰Melt your plows into swords and make spears out of garden tools. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Let the weak say that I'm strong."

Lord, there is a time for war, so I will prepare for an enemy. There are also times of peace, so I will live peacefully in Your presence. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} Amen.

¹¹All you nations, come quickly, and LORD, bring Your warriors. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ¹²Bring the nations' armies to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, where the LORD will judge them. ¹³Let the sickle do its work, for the harvest is ripe. Tread the nations like grapes in the winepress and let the vats be filled, for the nations' wickedness is great. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ¹⁴⁴Thousands are waiting in the valley of decision for My decisions, because the day of judgment will soon come. ¹⁵The sun and the moon will be dark, and the stars won't shine." {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2}

Lord, I read in Scripture what will happen in the end times. Since I know what will happen, I am spiritually prepared. I know You as Savior, and in the end times, I will be saved. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} Amen.

¹⁶"I'll roar from Zion like a lion, and I'll thunder from Jerusalem. Then the sky and the earth will shake. But I'll be a refuge and a strong fortress for My people. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷Then they'll know that I'm the LORD their God in Zion, My holy hill. Jerusalem will be holy, and foreign nations will never again invade her. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

¹⁸"New wine will drip from the mountain vineyards, and cattle and goats will produce lots of milk. Water will fill Judah's dry riverbeds, and a stream will flow from My temple to water Acacia Valley, east of the Dead Sea. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁹Egypt and Edom were both cruel to Judah, killing innocent people. ²⁰Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem will endure for many generations. ²¹I, the LORD, will live on Mount Zion with My people, {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} and I'll forgive them of their sins." {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Lord, I live in a time of testing where I must live triumphantly over sin. I must face threats of all types, and triumph over them. Lord, I yearn for peace and security. I yearn to live with You. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} Amen.

AMOS

Key Word: Prepare (Amos 4:12)

Key Verse: "Prepare to meet thy God, O Israel" (4:12).

Theme: Amos predicts the coming destruction of Israel, Judah and the surrounding nations. He prophesied the destruction of Jeroboam's kingdom when it was strong and prosperous, and his prediction seemed unlikely to happen. Yet 50 years later the kingdom was completely destroyed. This teaches us to claim the promises of God in prayer, even when it seems an answer may not be in sight. Lord, I will heed Your warnings and will turn away from sin. I know You speak the truth and will punish sin. Protect me by the blood of Christ (1 John 1:7). Amen.

Amos 1 Punishing Israel's Neighbor Nations

Amos. I raised sheep near Tekoa when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam was king of Israel. Two years before the earthquake (in 760 B.C.) the LORD gave me several messages about Israel. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²I said, "LORD, when You roared like a lion from Your temple on Mount Zion and thundered from Jerusalem, the shepherds' pasturelands and the grass on Mount Carmel dried up and turned brown." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³The LORD answered, "The people of Damascus, Syria's capital, have sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm angry with them. They threshed My people in Gilead as grain is threshed with iron teeth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴So I'll send fire on King Hazael's palace, and I'll destroy Ben-Hadad's fortresses. ⁵I'll break the gate of your city, and I'll destroy the king in the Valley of Aven (meaning 'Wickedness') and I'll destroy the king in Beth-Eden. And you people of Syria will be taken back to Kir as slaves. I, the LORD, have spoken." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁶The LORD then said, "The people of Gaza in Philistia have sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm angry with them. They sold My people as slaves to Edom. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷So I'll set fire to the walls and fortresses of Gaza. ⁸I'll kill the people of Ashdod and the ruler in Ashkelon and the people of Ekron. The few remaining Philistines will perish. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

9"I, the LORD, then said, 'The people of Tyre have sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm angry with them. Like Gaza, the people of Tyre sold My people as slaves to Edom, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} breaking their treaty with Israel their brother. ¹⁰So I'll set fire to the walls and fortresses of Tyre.' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹¹"I, the LORD, then said, 'The people of Edom have sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm angry with them. They chased their relatives, Israel, with the sword, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and they were fierce in their anger. ¹²So I'll set fire on Teman, and Bozrah's fortresses will be destroyed.' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹³"I, the LORD, said, 'The people of Ammon have sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm angry with them. When they attacked Gilead to extend their property, they ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁴So I'll send fire on the walls of Rabbah, and its fortresses will be destroyed. War cries on the day of battle will be heard, and violent winds will blow. ¹⁵Her king and his officials will be taken into captivity.' I, the LORD, have spoken." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, it's not I, but Christ. You are my message to others. May I faithfully tell others what You will do for them, before I tell them of Your punishment for sin. Lord, keep reminding me that punishment begins with those closest to You. I repent of my sin, and seek forgiveness. I turn from my sin and cling to You. Amen. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16}

Amos 2 Moab, Judah, and Israel

¹Then the LORD said, "The people of Moab have sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm very angry with them. They burned the homes of Edom's kings. ²I'll send fire on Moab and I'll destroy the palace in Kerioth. Shouts of battle will be heard, along with the trumpet blast. ³I'll destroy Moab's ruler and his officials will go with him. I, the LORD, have spoken." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁴Then the LORD said, "Judah has sinned not just three times, but four. They have rejected My law and refused to follow My decrees. They have been led astray by the false gods their ancestors worshiped. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵So I'll send fire on Judah and burn down Jerusalem's fortresses." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

6Then the LORD said, "Israel has sinned not just three times, but four. And so I'm angry with them. They've sold honest people for money, and they sold needy people for the price of a pair of sandals. ⁷They take advantage of poor people, and they aren't fair to people who are oppressed and helpless. My holy name is not honored, because a man and his son sleep with the same woman. ⁸They lie down beside altars wearing clothing taken as security for loans. In the temple of their god they drink wine bought with money received from fines. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

9"When you entered Canaan, I destroyed the Amorites, who were as tall as cedar trees and as strong as oak trees. I destroyed their fruit and their roots. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} 10I brought you out of Egypt and led you in the desert 40 years. Then I gave you the land of the Amorites. 11Also I chose some of your sons to be prophets and others to be Nazarites. You know this is true, you people of Israel," says the LORD. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 12"You sinned by making the Nazarites drink wine and by telling the prophets not to prophesy. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³"So I'll crush you as a cart crushes when it is loaded with too much grain. ¹⁴Your fast soldiers will stumble as they run to escape. Your strong soldiers will lose their strength and their lives. ¹⁵Your archers will fall; fast runners won't be fast enough to get away; and horsemen won't be able to run fast enough. ¹⁶Your bravest soldiers will run away. I, the LORD, have spoken." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, You also punish those close to You. I'm close to You so I will discipline my mind so I'll not think about evil. I'll keep my heart so I'll not desire sin. I'll guard my hands and feet so I'll not take sin to myself. I desire holiness; keep me pure. Amen.

Amos 3 They Ignore God

³"Two people don't walk together unless they've agreed to do so. ⁴And a lion doesn't roar unless it has caught a victim. And he doesn't growl in his den if it hasn't caught anything. ⁵A bird doesn't get caught in a trap if no bait has been set out. A trap doesn't spring shut when nothing is there to catch. 6In a similar way people aren't afraid if a trumpet doesn't signal an attack. And disaster doesn't come to a city unless I've planned it. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7In fact I, the Sovereign LORD, do nothing without revealing My plans to My servants the prophets." {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} 8The LORD has roared like a lion, so naturally people are afraid. Since the Sovereign LORD has spoken, I'll prophesy His message. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁹Announce this to Ashdod in Philistia and to Egypt, and tell them to come to the mountains of Samaria in Israel so they can see the unrest and injustices in that city. ¹⁰"My people," the LORD says, "don't know how to do what is right. They load their fortresses with loot that has been robbed."

¹¹The Sovereign LORD says, "An enemy will overrun the land and destroy your fortresses and loot your belongings. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹²Only a few in Samaria will escape alive. Like a shepherd pulling a lamb's two leg bones or part of an ear from a lion's mouth, so I'll rescue a few people in Samaria with just parts of their beds and couches." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹³The Lord, the LORD God Almighty, says this against Israel: ¹⁴"When I punish Israel for her sins, I'll demolish the pagan altars at Bethel {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and even the corners of the altars will be cut off and fall to the ground. ¹⁵I'll destroy the beautiful winter and summer homes of the wealthy. Their houses and palaces decorated with ivory will be demolished." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, I search my heart and actions for sins; I don't want to offend You. If I have hidden sins, show them to me. If I have unconfessed sins, remind me and I will repent and beg forgiveness. I fear Your punishment of sins among Your followers. I love You with all my heart, and I seek Your blessing on all I do. God, remember me in mercy. Amen. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Amos 4 Oppression

⁴"Go ahead and sin in Bethel and Gilgal. Bring sacrifices every morning and a tenth of your crops every third day. ⁵Present bread made with yeast as a thank offering. Also bring freewill offerings you can brag about. For you Israelites love to do this," says the Sovereign LORD. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

6"I caused food to be lacking in every town, and yet you haven't returned to Me," says the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 7"Also three months before harvest time I hold back the rain. I let it rain on some towns but not on others, and some fields had rain, and others didn't and they dried up. 8People staggered from one town to another for a drink of water, but there was never enough. Still you didn't come back to Me," says the LORD.

9"I struck your farms with blight, and locusts devoured your fig trees and olive trees. But still you didn't come back to Me," says the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10"Therefore I did terrible things to you just as I did in Egypt. Your young men died in war and their horses were slaughtered. Your camp was filled with the stench of death. But still you didn't come back to Me," says the LORD. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹¹"Therefore I destroyed some of your cities, as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. You who survived were like a burning stick snatched from fire. But still you didn't come back to Me," says the LORD. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹²"Therefore I'll bring on you all these calamities I've mentioned. So get ready to meet Me, your God, when I come in judgment. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³I created the mountains and the wind, and I reveal My thoughts to man. I turn dawn into darkness and I tread on mountains under My feet. I am the LORD God Almighty." {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

Lord, I repent of my sin and beg Your forgiveness. Do not punish me, but look on Christ who was punished for my sin. You are powerful; strengthen me to serve You. You are high and lofty, I worship You. Speak Your will to me, I will listen. You created all things; I realize everything I have comes from You. You are the high and lofty One, I adore You. Amen. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

Amos 5 A Song of Grief

¹Listen, Israel, to this lament song: ²"Israel, you have fallen and you'll never rise again. You lie deserted in your land with no one to help you get up." {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} ³The Sovereign LORD says, "For every thousand soldiers, who go to battle only a hundred will survive, and for every hundred only 10 will come home alive. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴I keep saying to Israel, 'Return to Me and live. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁵Don't go worship idols in Gilgal, Bethel, or even Beersheba. The people of Gilgal will be carried off into captivity, and Bethel will end up as nothing. ⁶Return to Me and you'll live. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} Otherwise I'll attack like a fire and you'll be devoured, and Bethel, your gods won't be able to save you from the flames. ⁷You wicked people twist justice and reject upright living.

8"'I created the stars including the wellknown constellations Pleiades and Orion. I turn darkness into the light of dawn and day into night. I draw up water from the oceans and pour it down as rain. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ⁹I destroy strong soldiers and strong fortresses. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10""You hate judges and honest witnesses. ¹¹You mistreat poor people and force them to give you grain. You've built expensive homes, but you won't live in them. You've planted vineyards, but you'll drink no wine from their grapes. 12 I'm aware of your many sins and the many times you've rebelled against Me. You cheat good people by taking bribes, and you keep the poor from getting justice in court. ¹³In these evil times wise people keep quiet.

¹⁴"If you want to live, then start doing what is right and stop doing what is sinful. Then I, the LORD God Almighty, will be with you as I've promised. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁵Hate sin and love what is good, and see that justice is carried out in the courts. Then I, the LORD of the Heavens, will have mercy on you people of Joseph's descendants (that is, Israel) who are left. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁶"Therefore, I, the Lord, the LORD of the Heavens say this: "Crying will be heard in every town and every street. Farmers will be asked to weep with you and with those who are hired to mourn. ¹⁷People will wail in every vineyard, because I'll pass through and destroy them. I, the LORD, have spoken these words."" {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21}

¹⁸How terrible it'll be for you who wish the day of the LORD were here. You think the LORD will rescue you from your enemies. But you're wrong. That day will bring darkness, not light, gloom, not joy. ¹⁹You'll run from a lion, but you'll meet a bear. You'll escape from the bear, but when you're home you'll lean your hand against a wall and a snake will bite you. ²⁰The day of the LORD's judging will be a day of darkness. It'll be pitch dark with no ray of light. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²¹"I hate your religious festivals and assemblies. ²²I won't accept your burnt offerings and grain offerings, and I'll have no don't want to hear your noisy songs, ²⁴and what I want is justice and fairness being like a river that never runs dry. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁵"For 40 years you wandered in the desert without bringing Me offerings or sacriregard for your fellowship offerings. 23I without bringing Me offerings or sacrifices. ²⁶No, you're interested only in your pagan gods—Sakkuth, your king god, and Kaiwan your star god. ²⁷So I'll force you to become captives in a land beyond

Damascus. I, the LORD of the Heavens, have spoken these words." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, there is "a time to weep" (Eccl. 3:4, KJV). May I weep over the sins of family and friends, and may I mourn over those who reject You. I know they will be judged in the future, but I weep over them today because I believe the severity of Your promise to judge unrepentant rebellion. Amen. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21}

Amos 6 Israel Will Be Destroyed

¹You rulers in Zion and Samaria think you are safe. You are famous and popular, and people go to you for help. But you'll face trouble. ²Look what happened to Calneh, Hamath, and Gath in Philistia. You're no better than they are. ³You try to forget the thought of coming disaster, but your actions bring the day closer. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁴You rich people lie around on beds with ivory posts, while you dine on the meat of the most choice lambs and calves. ⁵You sing songs on your harps as David did and on other instruments. ⁶You drink bowls of wine, and you wear expensive perfumes. But you have no concern about the ruin of your nation. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ⁷Therefore you'll be the first to be led away as captives, and your feasting and lounging around will end.

8The Sovereign the LORD of the Heavens, says, "I hate Israel, your pride and your fortresses. I'll surrender your city and your belongings to your enemies. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 9If 10 of you survive by hiding in a house, they too will die. 10 And if a relative of theirs comes to carry out the corpses to bury them, he may ask, 'Is anyone with you?' And if he answers 'No,' the relative may say, 'Be quiet. Don't mention the name of the LORD." 11 The LORD has ordered that big and small houses shall be smashed to pieces. ¹²"Horses can't run on rocks, and oxen can't plow rocks. But that's how you are when you turn justice into poison and you make fairness bitter. 13You're also stupid in claiming you defeated Lo-Debar and Karnaim on your own. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 14But I, the LORD of the Heavens, will send a nation against you, Israel. They'll capture Lebo-Hamath in the north and the Arabah Valley in the south." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

LORD, I am uneasy in a world of sin. I am uneasy when Your people are hard-hearted and think only of enjoyment and pleasure. LORD, make me uneasy in an evil world, and give me ease in Your presence. Then I will seek You and worship You. Amen. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Amos 7 A Vision of Locusts

¹The Sovereign LORD gave me a vision of locusts attacking our crops. "This will happen," He said, "after the king's share has been harvested and before the rest of the grain has been harvested." 2When the locusts ate every crop in the land, I said, "O Sovereign LORD, how can our nation survive when it's so small?" {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 3The LORD decided then not to fulfill this vision. He said, "I won't let the nation be destroyed." ⁴Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision in which He was getting ready to punish His people with a great fire {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} that would burn up everything on earth and the ocean. {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} 5Again I said, "O Sovereign LORD, won't You please stop? How can our nation survive when it's so small?" 6Again the LORD decided not to do this either. {131 Effective-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7}

⁷Then the LORD showed me a vision of Himself standing beside a wall that had been built using a plumb line. He was checking to see if the wall was straight. Then He said to me, "Amos, what do you see?" I said, "A plumb line." Then the LORD said, "I'm using this plumb line to show My people they don't measure up and I won't ignore their sins. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} The pagan shrines of your ancestors will be destroyed, and I'll bring a sword against the family of King Jeroboam." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent this message to Jeroboam king of Israel. "Amos is plotting against you right here in the center of Israel. Our nation can't put up with this any longer. ¹¹He's saying that you'll be killed and the people will be taken into captivity." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 12Then Amaziah said to me, "Amos, get out of here and go back to Judah and prophesy there. ¹³Don't prophesy any more here in Bethel, especially at the king's sanctuary." 14I answered, "I'm not a prophet or the son of a prophet. I was a shepherd and I took care of sycamore-fig trees. 15 Then the LORD told me to leave my flocks and go prophesy to His people Israel. ¹⁶You are now telling me not to prophesy against Israel and to stop preaching against the house of Isaac (that is, the people of Israel.) {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁷Here's what the LORD says to you: 'Your wife will become a prostitute, and your sons and daughters will be killed. Your land will be divided up and you, Amaziah, will die in a foreign country. Israel will be captives away from their homeland." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, my nation is given over to pleasure and they ignore Sunday worship. Lord, forgive them and draw them to worship. My nation is consumed by greed, and they worship money. Lord, forgive them and give them a passionate love for You. Their time is spent fulfilling the lust of the flesh (sex) and the lust of the eyes (stuff) and the pride of life. Lord, forgive my nation; teach them to make the main thing, the main thing. Amen. {248 Intercession-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

Amos 8 A Vision of a Basket of Summer Fruit

¹The Sovereign LORD showed me {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} a basket of ripe fruit, ²and He asked me, "What do you see, Amos?" I replied, "A basket of ripe fruit." Then the LORD said, "This fruit means that My people are ripe for punishment. I'll wait no longer. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ³Instead of singing in the temple, people will cry. Dead bodies will be everywhere, so you should be silent. I, the LORD, have spoken these words. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

4"Listen to this, you who crush the needy and wipe out the poor. ⁵You want the new moon festival to be over so you can sell grain, and you want the Sabbath day to be over so you can sell wheat. You want to reduce the amount of grain you sell and increase the price by cheating with dishonest weighing scales. ⁶You mix chaff with the wheat. And since the poor don't have any money, you buy them as slaves for a piece of silver or even a pair of sandals." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

⁷The LORD says, "You take pride in your ancestor Jacob, but I'll remember your sins. ⁸The earth will tremble because of your deeds, and everyone will mourn. The land will be like the Nile River that rises up at flood time and then sinks back down. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁹In that day, I, the Sovereign LORD, will make the sun go down at noon, and I'll turn daylight into darkness. 10I'll turn your religious festivals into times of mourning and your singing into weeping. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} In sorrow you'll wear burlap clothing and shave your heads. This will be like mourning for the death of an only son. It will be a terrible day. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 11"The days are coming," says the Sovereign LORD, "when there'll be not only a shortage of food and water, but also a famine of hearing My words. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ¹²You'll go everywhere from sea to sea and from north to east and south to west, searching for a message from Me, but you won't find it. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ¹³In that day lonely young women and strong young men will faint because of thirst for My Word. 14You who worship the idols of Samaria, Dan, and Beersheba will fall and will never rise again." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

LORD, teach me instant obedience, because You mean what You say. I don't want any of my shortcomings to move You to judgment. If I don't instantly obey, it's not because of my lack of love; it's my old heart of unbelief. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Transform me, LORD; keep my heart soft toward You. I pray for unsaved Jews everywhere today that they may be saved. I know You have a great plan for them in the future, but for today, save Israel. Amen.

Amos 9 Israel Cannot Escape the LORD

¹Then I saw a vision of the LORD standing by the altar in the temple. He said, "Smash the tops of the temple pillars so hard that the foundations will shake. Make the pillars fall on the people below and kill them. Others who are left I'll kill with the sword. No one will escape. ²They may dig to the depths of the grave, but I'll reach down and get them. Or if they climb to the heavens, I'll bring them down. 3If they escape to Mount Carmel, I'll find them. If they try to hide from Me at the bottom of the ocean, I'll tell My sea monster to bite them. ⁴If they are taken as captives by their enemies, I'll kill them with the sword; I'll hurt them, not help them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁵When the LORD of the Heavens touches the earth, it melts and the people mourn. He makes the ground rise and then fall, like the Nile River. ⁶He built His palace in the heavens, and its foundation is the earth. He draws up the water from the ocean and pours it down as rain. He is the LORD. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2}

7"Israel, I'm the LORD God, and you and the Ethiopians are equally important to Me. I brought you out of Egypt, but I also brought the Philistines from Crete, and the Arameans from Kir. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 8I've seen what a sinful nation you are, and so I'll destroy you from the face of the earth. But I'll not completely destroy the descendants of Jacob," says the LORD. {160

Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 9"At My command you Israel will be persecuted by other nations as grain is sifted in a sieve with not one kernel falling to the ground. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10 All you who are sinners will die by the sword, including those of you who say you'll never get caught.

11"In that future day I'll restore David's fallen kingdom. {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} I'll build it from the ruins and set it up just as it used to be. ¹²And you Israel will capture Edom and other nations that follow Me. I, the LORD, have spoken, and My words will come true. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} ¹³The days are coming when there'll be such a harvest that the grain and grapes will grow faster than they can be harvested. The mountains will be covered with vineyards. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁴I'll bring back My people from captivity, and they'll rebuild their towns and live in them. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} You'll plant vineyards and gardens and eat their crops. 15I'll firmly plant you in the land I've given you, and you'll never be uprooted from your land again. I, the LORD God, have spoken these words." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Lord, I bless Your holy name from the depths of my heart. I lift holy hands to worship You in Your presence. I stand before You with praise on my lips and in prayer, I magnify You. Thank You for the transforming power of worship. Amen. {541 Worship Prayer, John 4:23}

Obadiah

CH 1: THE EDOMITES	WILL BE HUMBLED 12	71
--------------------	--------------------	----

Key Word: Edom (Obadiah 1:1)

Key Verse: "The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, who shall bring me down to the ground? Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD" (1:3, 4).

Theme: Obadiah prophesies against a tribal nation named Edom or Esau. Edom means "red," and perhaps the people got their name when Esau was born, "The first (Esau) came out red, all over like a hairy garment" (Gen. 25:25). So the Edomites came from Esau, and were named "red" after their father. But Esau "despised" the spiritual birthright of the people of God. He didn't want to be God's man to carry on the Abrahamic promise. They are also called "red" because they lived up in the "red" rocks south of the Dead Sea.

Nothing is known about Obadiah except that his name means "servant of the LORD." Nothing! This tells us four things. First, being a servant of God is more important than your family background or experiences or preparations. Second, the message of the servant of the Lord is more important than the messenger. Third, don't bring attention to yourself in ministry, but rather bring attention to the message God gives you to deliver. Finally, the greatest thing that can be said of all of us is we are "a servant of the Lord." Lord, may I be like Obadiah; may I be Your faithful servant and deliver Your message faithfully. Amen.

Obadiah 1 The Edomites Will Be Humbled

The LORD God gave Obadiah a message about Edom, {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} and this is what He said: "I, the LORD, have sent a messenger with orders for the nations to attack Edom." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, family is important, and Esau, the family head, made a bad decision out of his greedy heart that influenced his line. The people took on the characteristics of Esau and continually

"fought" against the children of Jacob. Lord, I am not responsible for the family into which I am born, but I am responsible for my future. Lord, I will rise above the weaknesses of my parents and be strong for You, my God. My decisions will always be governed by the principle, "The Lord first." Amen.

²"Edom, I'll make you small among the nations and they'll despise you. ³You will live in a rock fortress, making your home high in the mountains. In your pride {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} you ask, who can reach us up here? ⁴You may soar as high as an eagle and build your nest, as it were, among the stars, but still I'll bring you down. I, the LORD, have spoken. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

5"If thieves break in at night, they take only what they want. People who harvest grapes always leave some on the vines." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

The Edomites trusted in their mountain stronghold, but they were vanquished and their territory occupied. Only those who trust in God have any security at all. Lord, I do not trust in houses, policemen, armies, or retirement funds. I trust You to protect me. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} I will use those resources for protection, but my trust is in You. Amen.

6"But Edom, you'll be completely wiped out and all your hidden treasures stolen.

7Your allies can't be trusted. They'll trick you and set a trap for you, but you won't be aware of it. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁸"In that future day," the LORD says, "I'll destroy all your wise men. ⁹Soldiers from Teman will be frightened, and your descendants of Esau will be wiped out. {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.} ¹⁰Because you were cruel to your relatives, the descendants of Israel, you'll be ashamed and destroyed forever."

Just as Esau swore to kill Jacob, so the Edomites hated the sons of Jacob from that day on (Gen. 27:41). Lord, family prejudice is strong, and it's passed from father to children. Hatred and prejudice will stop with me. I will love and pray for my physical and spiritual relatives. Lord, transform my negative feelings into Your love and compassion. Amen.

11"You stood and watched as foreign soldiers went to Jerusalem and carried off their wealth and cast lots to divide the loot. You were just like one of Israel's enemies. 12"You looked down on your brother Israel in the time of his misfortune. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} You shouldn't have been glad and boasted when your relatives were taken as captives. ¹³You shouldn't have looted their towns in the day of their disaster or gloated over the destruction of your relatives in the day of their disaster. 14You shouldn't have stood at the crossroads, killing your relatives who tried to escape. You shouldn't have handed the survivors over to their enemies in that terrible day of trouble."

The Edomites rejoiced when Jerusalem and the temple were destroyed by the Babylonians and Nebuchadnezzar. Then they joined the looters to pillage the treasures of Israel. Finally, when Jews were trying to escape, the Edomite army captured them and sold them into slavery. Lord, the Edomites did a hateful thing, and You never forgot. You sent Obadiah to announce a punishment greater on Edom than on the Israelites. They would be wiped out completely. That scares me. Don't wipe me out for I have sinned. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} I plead the blood of Christ to forgive all my sin, and You promised to remember my sins no longer. Thank You, Lord, for cleansing and forgiveness. Amen.

¹⁵"The day of the LORD's judgment for all nations is approaching. As you have done to Israel, so it will be done to you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 16I forced the people of Judah to drink the wine of My wrath. Now the nations will do the same, drinking continually and disappearing without a trace. ¹⁷But Mount Zion will be a refugee {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} for those who escape. It will be holy, and Jacob's descendants will possess its land. 18 Jacob's descendants will be a fire that will burn Edom like straw. No survivors will be in Edom. I, the LORD, have spoken." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁹People from the Southern desert will occupy Edom's mountains, and those who live in the foothills of Judah will possess Philistia, {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Ephraim, and Samaria. And Benjamin will occupy Gilead. ²⁰Those who return from captivity to their land of Canaan will occupy the Phoenician coast as far as Zarephath. And those who return from captivity who are in Shepharad will capture the towns of the Southern Desert. ²¹Those the LORD has saved will go up to Mount Zion and will rule over Edom. And the kingdom will be the LORD's. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

JONAH

Ch 1: Jonah Disobeys the LORD	276
Ch 2: Jonah Prays to the Lord1	277
Ch 3: Jonah Obeys the Lord	278
CH 4: JONAH BECOMES ANGRY AT THE LORD	279

Key Word: Prepare (Jonah 1:17; 4:6, 7, 8)

Key Verse: "And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?" (4:11).

Theme: Jonah was a bigoted Jew who was unwilling to preach repentance to an enemy of Israel, that is, Nineveh. This book tells how God dealt with Jonah to motivate him to preach to unsaved Gentiles.

Jonah is a picture (type) of Christ who was raised from the dead then carried salvation to the Gentiles. Jesus gives credibility to the historical reliability of Jonah (Matt. 12:39-41) and the fish's belly was a picture of Jesus' entombment. To reject the historical accuracy of Jonah being swallowed by a great fish is tantamount to rejecting Jesus' credibility and reliability. As you read Jonah, search your heart for any excuses or resistance to your obligation to share the gospel with lost people. Lord, I will go give the gospel to any person or race. Forgive me for any racism I've had in the past. Give me a love for all people, everywhere. Amen.

Jonah 1 Jonah Disobeys the LORD

LORD gave this message to me, Jonah son of Amittai: ²"Go to the great city of Nineveh and say to the people, 'The LORD has seen how wicked you are and so He'll punish you.'" {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ³But Jonah went in the opposite direction to Joppa and boarded a ship headed for Tarshish in Spain, hoping to escape from the LORD. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴The LORD sent a strong wind over the sea, {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} causing a violent storm that threatened to break the ship in pieces. ⁵All the sailors were afraid, and so they prayed to their gods. They threw a lot of cargo overboard to make the ship lighter. Jonah had gone below deck and was sound asleep. ⁶The captain went to Jonah and said, "How can you sleep in a storm like this? Pray to your God. Maybe He'll have pity on us and will keep us from perishing." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁷The sailors said, "Let's cast lots to see who is to blame for this terrible storm." So they did, and the lot fell on Jonah. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 8They asked Jonah, "What have you done to bring this storm on us? Where are you from? What's your nationality?" {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 9Jonah answered, "I'm a Hebrew, and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, the one who made the sea and the land." {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ¹⁰This frightened the sailors because he had already told them he was running away from the LORD. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹¹The storm kept getting worse so they asked Jonah, "What shall we do to you to stop this storm?"

¹²Jonah said, "Toss me into the sea and the storm will stop. I'm the cause of this terrible storm." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹³The sailors tried even harder to get the ship to the shore. But they couldn't, and the storm kept getting worse. 14Then they prayed to the LORD, "Don't make us die for this man's sin. {510 Unsaved-Prayer, Acts 10:2} Don't hold us guilty for killing an innocent man. You sent this storm on us for Your good reasons." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹⁵Then they tossed Jonah into the sea, and the storm stopped immediately." {124 Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer, Gen. 32:30} ¹⁶This caused the sailors to recognize the LORD's great power, and they offered Him a sacrifice and made promises to Him. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁷Then the LORD sent a big fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Jonah 2 Jonah Prays to the Lord

¹When he was in the fish, Jonah prayed to the LORD, his God. ²He said, "I prayed to you, LORD, when I was in trouble, and You answered me. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} From deep in the world of the dead I called to You for help, and You listened. {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} ³You threw me to the bottom of the ocean, and great waves swirled around me and over me. 4I felt I was no longer in Your presence and would never see Your temple again. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 5I was almost drowned by the waves that closed in around me, and seaweed was wrapped around my head. ⁶I sank below the underwater mountains, and I felt I would be a prisoner there forever. But You, LORD, rescued me from the pit. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} 7"My life was slipping away, but I remembered You, LORD, and I prayed to You in Your holy temple. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 8People who worship false gods turn from You who offers them mercy. 9But I'll offer sacrifices to You with songs of praise, and I'll keep the promises I made to You. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} I'm so grateful that You can deliver me from problems."

Lord, I call out to You because You've answered in the past. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} Also, I call to You because You've promised to answer those in trouble. "This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles" (Ps. 34:6). Lord, thank You for hearing and answering in the past. Also, thank You for the promise that You will answer in the future. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} Thank You for Your care of me. Amen.

¹⁰Then the LORD told the fish to vomit up Jonah on the shore. And it did. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Jonah 3 Jonah Obeys the Lord

¹The LORD spoke to Jonah a second time. He said, ²"Go to the great city of Nineveh and give My message of judgment. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ³This time Jonah obeyed and went to Nineveh. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} It was such a large city that it took three days to walk all through it.

Lord, thank You for every time in the past You've delivered me. I would not be faithful to follow You today if You had not been faithful first to bring me back to Yourself. Amen.

⁴After walking in the city for a day, Jonah said, to the people, "In 40 days Nineveh will be destroyed." {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ⁵But the people of Nineveh believed God's message, and they all decided to go without eating and to wear burlap clothing to show their sorrow for their sin. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19}

⁶When Nineveh's king heard what was happening, he too wore burlap clothing. And he sat down in the dust. ⁷He and his officials sent this order throughout the city. "Not one of you or your animals is to eat or drink anything. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} ⁸Wear burlap clothing and even cover your animals with burlap. Pray to the LORD with all your heart, and give up your sinful ways and stop all your violence. ⁹Perhaps God will have pity on us and hold back His fierce anger so we won't perish." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I have seen You do supernatural things to deliver me and others. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} Thank You for Your power to accomplish Your will. Thank You for Your grace to give me a second chance, Amen.

¹⁰When God saw that the people of Nineveh stopped their evil ways, He had pity on them and didn't destroy them as He had threatened to do. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Lord, help me see beyond the sin of any person, to see Your greater plan in the world. Lord, thank You for not completely rejecting me each time I disobey because of ignorance, or because of weakness, or because of a rebellious heart. I yield to You, now. I will do what You command. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} I will speak what message You give me. I worship You for giving me mercies and a second chance. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Amen.

Jonah 4 Jonah Becomes Angry at the Lord

¹When Jonah learned that the Ninevites turned from their evil ways, he became very angry. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²He complained to the LORD and said, "Before I left home, I knew You would do this to Nineveh. That's why I went toward Tarshish. I know You are gracious and loving, slow to get angry, and filled with love. And I know You can easily cancel Your plans to destroy wicked people. ³But, LORD, let me die. I'd rather be dead so that what I predicted about Nineveh's downfall won't happen." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Lord, forgive me for my stupid anger when I've gotten peeved at You, or became angry at the way things were going in my life. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Give me eyes to see Your plan. Amen.

⁴The LORD said, "Do you have a right to be angry?"

⁵Jonah went east of the city and made a shelter and sat within its shade, and he waited to see what would happen to the city. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶Then the LORD made a vine grow up over Jonah to give him some shade. Jonah was very pleased with this. ⁷At dawn the next day God had a worm chew the vine, and it withered. ⁸When the sun came up, a scorching wind from the east beat down on Jonah's head and he became faint. Jonah said, "I wish I could die. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ⁹But God said to Jonah, "Do you have a right to be angry about the vine?" Jonah said, "Yes, I do. I'm so angry I want to die." {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

¹⁰The LORD said, "You're concerned about the vine, though you didn't take care of it. And it grew overnight and then died. ¹¹But Nineveh has more than 120,000 people living in spiritual darkness, and many cattle are there too. Shouldn't I be concerned about that great city?" {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Lord, I believe You bring small things into my life to prepare me for Your will. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Help me see Your hand in the small things that enter my life (such as a vine and worm), as well as the large things (national revival). {273 Large-Praying, Acts 4:23-31} Lord, give me wisdom to always do Your will when I know it, and to reflect a Christian attitude at all times. Amen.

MICAH

Key Word: Hear (Micah 1:2; 3:1; 6:1)

Key Verse: "Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple" (1:2).

Theme: Micah prophesied between 750 and 725 B.C. and was a contemporary of Isaiah, Hosea, and Amos. He focused on Samaria (Israel the Northern Kingdom) and Jerusalem (the Southern Kingdom of Judah). He had a dual theme of judgment of sin followed by future restoration. He had a strong sense of social justice in the courts (3:11; 7:3) in business (6:10-12), in places of authority and power (2:1-9; 3:1-10; 6:12; 7:2-6).

Micah preached against a Jewish religious system that had much ritual but little repentance or holiness. Therefore a person's responsibility was "to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God." (6:8). Lord, keep me from looking for my spirituality from religious tradition and meetings. May religious "things" only be methods that point me to You. Amen.

Micah 1 Micah Warns the People

Micah from Moresheth. The LORD gave me these messages in the form of visions about Samaria and Jerusalem when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. ²"Listen, everyone. All the people in the world, listen carefully. I, the Sovereign LORD, have accusations against you from My holy temple. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ³I'm coming down from heaven to walk on the high places of the earth." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

Lord, I know You are everywhere present, but sometimes I act like the unsaved, that is, that You are only in heaven. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Forgive me when I think You don't know what's happening on earth. Help me feel Your constant presence with me in all I do. Help me do everything for Your approval. Amen.

4"They melt beneath Me and valleys split apart like wax in a fire and like water rushing down a hill. ⁵This is happening because of the sins of Israel, Jacob's descendants. Samaria led Israel to sin, and the pagan altars at Jerusalem made Judah sin. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

6"So I'll make Samaria a heap of rubble, a place where only vineyards can be planted. I'll roll the stones of her walls to the valley below, and expose her foundations. 7I'll smash her idols to pieces, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and the wages paid to the temple prostitutes will be destroyed by fire. The temple gifts provided to prostitutes in Samaria will be used as wages to pay prostitutes in other countries."

⁸Because of this I, Micah, will weep and walk around naked and barefoot in sorrow. I'll howl like a wild dog and moan like an owl. ⁹The peoples' wounds can't be healed. It has come to the attention of Judah even to the gates of Jerusalem. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34}

¹⁰Don't tell our Philistine enemies in Gath, and don't even cry. You people in Beth-Leaphrah (meaning "House of Dust"), roll in the dust to show your grief. ¹¹And you people of Shaphir (meaning "Beautiful"), you'll go as captives naked and ashamed. The people of Zaanan (meaning "One Who Goes Out") will not go outside their walls. The people of Beth-Ezel (meaning "House Next Door") mourn because no one helped them. ¹²The people of Maroth (meaning "Bitter") wait for help, but disaster has come from the LORD even to the gate of Jerusalem. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³You people of Lachish, get your chariots ready. You caused Jerusalem to sin. 14Give a going-away gift to Moresheth. The town of Achzib (meaning "Deception") deceived the kings of Israel, because it promised help but couldn't give it. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 15You people of Mareshah (meaning "Conqueror") I'll bring a conqueror to capture your town. And Israel's glorious king will go hide in the Adullam Cave. ¹⁶Shave your heads in mourning, for the children you have will be taken away as captives. Make yourselves as bald as a buzzard in your grief for your children who'll be taken to a foreign country. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Micah 2 Judgment against Those Who Oppress Others

¹How terrible it will be for you who lie awake in bed, plotting evil plans. Then at dawn you quickly carry out those plans you have the power to do. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

Holy Spirit, come guard the doorway into my mind. Turn evil thoughts away. Put positive thoughts there about You so I can worship You always. Amen. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

²You grab any field or house you want, and you cheat people out of their homes and their land. {218 Help the Oppressed by Prayer, Ps. 10:8-9} ³Therefore the LORD says, "I'm planning disaster against you, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and you won't be able to escape. You'll no longer be able to walk proudly in the streets.

⁴"People will make fun of you by singing, 'We're ruined, and God takes Israel's fields and has given them to traitors."

Lord, I accept the truth that everything I own and have is given to me by You. I yield it all to You. Help me manage it all for Your glory. Amen.

⁵So you'll have no one to say how your land is to be divided.

⁶You'll say, "Don't prophesy such things." These disasters will never happen. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, give me a loving heart when I share with others the message of Your holiness and punishment of sin. {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9} May I never use the message of Your judgment in a callous way. Amen.

⁷Descendants of Jacob, don't say the LORD did these things because He was angry. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} If you do what is right, He'll bless you. ⁸Yet you people, like an enemy, steal clothes from soldiers returning home from battle. ⁹Also you take over the homes of women and cheat their children of their inheritance. ¹⁰You thieves, get out of here. This is not your land {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} because of all your sin that has ruined the land completely. ¹¹The only kind of prophet you want is the one who says he'll prophesy if you pay him enough wine. But he's a liar and a deceiver.

¹²"In that future day I, the LORD, will gather together those of you who are left. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} I'll bring you together as a shepherd gathers his sheep, and there'll be many of them. ¹³I'll break down the gate and lead them out of captivity. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} I, your King, will guide you." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Micah 3 Judgment against the Leaders

¹You rulers of Israel, listen. You're supposed to know right from wrong, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²but you hate what is good and you love what is evil. You skin my people alive, tearing their flesh from their bones.

Lord, forgive my rebellion and if there's only a small rebellious attitude hidden in my heart, reveal it to me. I will confess it and repent of it. Give me a passionate love of goodness and a passionate hatred of evil. Amen. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:2}

³You eat their flesh, break their bones, and cook it in a pit. ⁴Someday you'll ask the LORD to help you, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} but He won't because of your sins.

Lord, I don't want any sin or dumb thing on my part to block my prayers. Forgive all my sin—known and hidden—give me a sensitive heart to know Your will. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} When You don't answer my prayers, I yield all results to Your plan and purpose. Amen.

⁵This is what the LORD says to false prophets: "You're leading My people astray. If someone promises you security, you give him food. But if he refuses to pay you, you declare war on him. ⁶You'll live in the dark with no visions or messages from Me. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} The sun will set for you prophets and the daytime will be dark. ⁷You prophets and fortune-tellers will be ashamed, covering your face because you have no message from Me." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, I don't want to be a hypocrite. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} I Know You are with me, I experience the fruit of Your abiding life (John 15:1-8). Thank You for the satisfaction I get from Your presence. Amen.

⁸As for me, Micah, I'm filled with power from the Spirit of the LORD, {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} I'll speak about justice and tell Israel his sins. ⁹So you leaders of Israel, listen to my message. You hate justice and you twist the truth. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁰You build Zion by murdering people and you build Jerusalem by your wickedness. ¹¹You leaders accept bribes for dishonesty, and you priests and prophets teach and prophesy but only if you are paid for it. You say that because you are depending on the LORD, then no disaster will come to you. ¹²Therefore Zion will be plowed like an open field, and Jerusalem will be a heap of ruins, and a hill with thorns will cover the area where the temple now stands. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Micah 4 The LORD Will Rule Forever

¹In that future day, {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem will be the most important place on earth. People from every nation will go there to worship. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 2Many nations will say, "Let's go to the mountain of the LORD God of Jacob. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} He'll teach us His ways so we can obey Him." In those days Jerusalem will be the place where God's teachings and His Word will be taught. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 3He'll settle disputes between many distant nations. The nations will beat their swords into plows {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} and their spears into pruning hooks. Nations will stop going to war against each other, and will stop training for war. ⁴Everyone will live peacefully and without fear with his own grapevines and fig trees. The LORD of the Heavens has promised this. 5Other nations will worship their idols, but we'll follow the LORD our God forever. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7}

Lord, I like figs and I enjoy resting in the shade of a tree. Help me to work hard today and fight against evil knowing future rest is coming. Amen. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

⁶The LORD says, "In that future day, I'll gather My people who are lame, and who were captives, and all those into whose lives I brought grief." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Lord, I'm glad You love lost, straying sheep. You went after Paul the Apostle and brought him home. You also come after me. I wouldn't be saved, except You chose me, came after me, and convicted me of my sin. Then You put me under Your loving care and healed my "crippledness." Now Lord, I pray for my friends and relatives who are straying, bring them back home. Amen.

7"The lame and the former captives will be strong again. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} I, the LORD, will rule from Mount Zion as their King forever. Berusalem, you are like a watchtower looking over My people, or like a hill over My people, the Daughter of Zion. You'll rule again as you did before. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} Perusalem, why are you screaming? Don't you have a king? Have you no counselors? Why are you in pain like a woman in childbirth? Yes, you should groan in pain because you must leave the city for the open fields, and then you'll be taken as captives to Babylon.

{267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} But later I'll rescue you from there from your enemies. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹¹"Many nations are surrounding you, and they are anxious to see you destroyed. ¹²But those nations don't know I, the LORD, have gathered them together to grind them like grain on a threshing floor. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³O inhabitants of Jerusalem, destroy these nations," says the LORD. "You can break them to pieces as if you had iron horns and bronze hoofs. You'll give their wealth to Me, the LORD of the earth." {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Micah 5 A Ruler Will Come from Bethlehem

¹Jerusalem, call your troops together because the enemy is surrounding your city. They'll strike Israel's ruler in the face. ²But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are one of the smallest towns in Judah. But one of your people will rule Israel, one whose ancestry goes back to ancient times. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

God predicted the Messiah would be born in Bethlehem (5:2). This prediction is historically verified by the Septuagint and the Dead Sea Scrolls. Then God moved Mary and Joseph from Nazareth to Bethlehem by the decree of Caesar Augustus, another historically verified date. Bethlehem demonstrates God's power to predict the future and His ability to control contemporary events so that "all things work together for good" (Rom. 8:28).

"O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie! Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by; yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light; the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight." Amen. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

³"I, the LORD, will abandon Israel until this ruler is born, and his family returns from captivity. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 4I'll take care of them as a shepherd cares for his sheep, in My power and My reputation as the LORD their God. My people will live securely, and everyone will know of My greatness, 5 and I'll give them peace. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} If Assyria attacks you, I'll raise eight rulers to lead you against him. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 6You'll defeat the Assyrians, and I'll rescue you from them if they cross our borders to invade our land. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

7"Some of Judah's descendants will survive and will be refreshing like dew and rain. 8They're now scattered, but they'll be strong like a lion pouncing on sheep, with no one to rescue them. 9They'll defeat their enemies, and all foes will be destroyed." {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7}

Lord, You seemed to be the victim on the cross, but You were victorious over death by the resurrection. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2

Cor. 2:14} Now come be victorious in my life. I yield myself to You, come take control of my life. Come give me victory over any sin in my life, and give me victory over trials and problems I face on this earth. I look forward to the final day of victory with You in heaven, when I shall at last be triumphant over all things. Amen.

¹⁰"In that future day," says the LORD, "I'll destroy your horses and chariots, ¹¹and your cities and fortresses. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹²I'll put an end to your witchcraft and your fortune-telling. ¹³I'll destroy the idols and sacred stones you've made so that you'll no longer be able to bow down to them. ¹⁴I'll also get rid of your Asherah poles and destroy the towns where those idols stand. ¹⁵I'll take vengeance in anger against all the nations that refuse to obey Me." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Micah 6 The LORD Speaks Out against Israel

¹The LORD said to His people, "State your case before the mountains and the hill. ²I call on the mountains and the earth's foundation to hear My complaint and charge. ³My people, how have I wronged you? Answer Me. ⁴I rescued you from Egypt where you were in slavery, and I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to lead you. ⁵Don't forget that Balak, king of Moab, wanted to have you cursed and that Balaam, son of Beor, blessed you instead.

And remember how I, the LORD, taught you as you traveled from Shittim to Gigal." {91 Correction-Response Prayer, Heb. 10:9, 10}

⁶What can we bring to the LORD to make up for what we've done? {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Shall we sacrifice year-old calves? ⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of sheep and thousands of rivers of olive oil? Or shall we offer the firstborn child in each of our families as payment for our sins? ⁸No, the LORD doesn't want any of these! Instead he wants us to do what is good, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} to see that justice is done, to love mercy, and to walk in humility before Him.

Lord, I won't try to impress You with a gift of money, things, or wonderful feats done for You. I give You myself and pledge to walk as honestly as I know how. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} Give me a love for mercy and give me the ability to treat others fairly. Amen.

9"I'm the LORD, and it makes sense for you to respect Me. I'm calling everyone in Jerusalem to pay attention to My rod of punishment. ¹⁰You wicked people, I won't forget the treasures you've stolen and your cheating by using dishonest weighing scales. ¹¹I'll punish your merchants for using dishonest scales and weights. ¹²You rich people are violent, and everyone tells lies.

¹³"Therefore I'll wound you because of your sins. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴You'll eat but not be satisfied. You'll store up goods but end up with nothing. What you save will be captured by your enemies. ¹⁵You'll plant crops but not harvest them. You'll press your olives but not get enough olive oil to do you any good. And you'll tread your grapes but you'll get no juice for wine. ¹⁶You've followed the sinful ways of King Omri and King Ahab. So I'll now destroy you, and people of other nations will ridicule and insult you." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Micah 7 Do Not Put Your Trust in Men

¹I'm so miserable. After the harvest I can't find any grapes or figs to eat. ²Godly people are all gone, and no one is left who does right. Everyone is a murderer, setting traps for their own brothers. ³They use both hands in doing evil. Rulers and judges demand bribes. Powerful people work with others in getting what they want. ⁴Even the best of them is prickly as a thorn bush, and the most honest of them are worse than a hedge of thorns, injuring any who come in contact with them. The judgment your prophets predicted is coming swiftly, and you'll be confused.

Lord, when everyone else does their own thing, and calls evil good, I will follow You. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Though no one else is concerned with personal integrity, I will be holy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Lord, I judge myself by Your standard, not my standard. I want to be like Jesus. Amen.

⁵Don't trust anyone, not even your neighbors or friend or your wife. ⁶Sons dishonor their fathers, and daughters despise their mothers. Daughters-in-law oppose their mothers-in-law. Your enemies are right in your own home. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁷But I, Micah, determined to look to You, the LORD, for help. I wait for You, and I know You'll hear me. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} 8My enemies, don't be glad because of my troubles. I've fallen, but I'll get up. I'm sitting in darkness, but You, LORD, are my light. 9I've sinned against You, and so I must bear Your wrath. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} But I know You'll take up my case and make things right for me. You'll bring me out of darkness into light, {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} and I know You'll make things right. 10 My enemy will be ashamed and yet will say, "Where is the LORD your God? Can't He help you?" But I'll see my enemies trampled in the mud in the streets. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12}

¹¹Judah, the day is coming when your towns will be rebuilt and your borders extended. ¹²People from Assyria, Egypt, and Babylonia, and elsewhere will come and honor you. They'll even come from the Euphrates River and from many distant seas and mountains. ¹³But the lands will be desolate because of the sins of the people who live there. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁴Lord, shepherd Your people in open pasturelands. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} We are isolated like sheep in a fortress. So let us enjoy the pastures in Bashan and Gilead as we used to do.

Lord, that's my prayer; come Shepherd, lead me beside still waters. Let me lie down in Your green pastures. Lead me in right paths. Walk with me through the valley of the shadow of death. Protect me from the fear of evil. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Protect me with Your rod and staff. Feed me from Your table, prepared in the presence of enemies. Anoint me with healing oil and let me dwell in Your house forever. Amen.

¹⁵The LORD says, "Yes, I'll work miracles for you just as I did when I rescued you from Egypt. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁶Nations will be ashamed when they see what I'll do for you. Embarrassed, they'll be speechless and they'll not even be able to hear. ¹⁷They'll realize they are lowly creatures, like snakes and other creatures that crawl on the ground. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} They'll come trembling out of their dens and will reverence Me, and none will be afraid of you, Israel." {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

¹⁸No other God is like you, LORD. You pardon the sins of Your people, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} and You don't stay angry forever because You enjoy showing mercy. ¹⁹You'll have compassion on us, {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} and You'll trample on our sins and toss them into the sea. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²⁰You'll be true to Jacob and Abraham, as You promised our ancestors years ago. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2}

Nahum

CH 1: THE LORD IS ANGRY	.1292
Cн 2: Nineveh Will Be Destroyed	.1293
CH 3: NINEVEH IS DOOMED	.1294

Key Word: Nineveh (Nahum 1:1)

Key Verse: "The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him. But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies" (1:7, 8).

Theme: Little is known about the prophet Nahum, the Elkoshite (1:1) and nothing is known about Elkosh; even its location is unknown. Nahum prophesied 200 years after Jonah preached repentance (852 B.C.), to Nineveh and the city turned to God (Jonah 3:1-10). But Nahum does not call for repentance, but warns of the city's destruction that occurred in 612 B.C. Therefore, Nahum preached around 650 B.C.

Nineveh stands for false religions among Gentiles, and thus represents all morally corrupt cultures that will be judged by God. "There is no healing" (Nah. 3:19) for morally corrupt apostasy, only complete judgment by God (Rom. 1:18-32). But in the middle of a message of God's awesome vengeance is a picture of God's protection for those who put their trust in Him, "A strong hold in the day of trouble" (Nah. 1:7). Yes, "God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth" (1:2), but "the LORD is good" (1:7). LORD, I look for Your mercy to me as You judge sin. Amen.

Nahum 1 The LORD Is Angry

Nahum from Elkosh. This is the message the LORD gave me about Nineveh. [267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5] 2"I'm a God who wants you to worship only Me. In My anger I take revenge on those who oppose You and I express My wrath to My enemies. [267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5] 3I'm slow to get angry, and I'm powerful. I don't let the guilty go unpunished. [364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5] I show My power in whirlwinds and storms, and clouds are like dust under My feet. 4I rebuke the ocean and it dries up, and I can make rivers run dry, the pastures of Bashan and Carmel wither, and the flowers of Lebanon fade. [367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21] 5Mountains quake in My presence, and hills melt away." The earth and people on it tremble at

Your presence. ⁶Can anyone endure Your wrath and anger, which flashes out like fire and shatters rocks? {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36}

Lord, sometimes You do things so quickly I'm amazed. Sometimes it seems like circumstances dictate that You can never solve a problem. Yet You do. So Lord, when the daylight is almost gone and hope is lost, I trust in You. Amen.

⁷LORD, You're so good. You protect those who face trouble, and You care for those who trust in You. ⁸You destroy Your enemies, including Nineveh, like a terrible flood, and You pursue Your enemies into the darkness of night. ⁹Don't plot against the LORD. He'll stop you in your tracks, and He won't need to do it again. ¹⁰You'll be tangled in thorns, and you'll be so drunk you'll be like dry thorn bushes burning in a fire. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹¹Who is this king of yours, Nineveh, who is making evil plans against You?

¹²The LORD says this: "Assyria, you are great in numbers, but you'll be cut down. I've punished you, but I won't do it again. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ¹³I'll break the yoke of the Assyrians from your neck and release you from them." ¹⁴Assyria, the LORD says this about Nineveh: "Your name will be forgotten. I'll destroy the carved images and idols in your temple. And I'll send you to the grave because you are of no account."

Lord, You may delay judgment, but You will never cancel it. I have come to You for forgiveness of sin and I trust You for eternity in heaven. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} I know it will happen, Hallelujah! Amen.

down from the mountain with good news of peace. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} Celebrate your festivals. Keep the promises you made to God. The enemy from Nineveh will not invade your country again, for they'll be completely destroyed.

Lord, I trust You to take me through the valley of the shadow of death. If my destination is earthly life on the other side of the valley, I trust You for it. If my destination is heaven on the other side of the valley, I trust You for it. {215 Heaven's Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} I will go anywhere as long as You go with me. Amen.

Nahum 2 Nineveh Will Be Destroyed

¹Nineveh, you are surrounded by enemy troops: so guard your fortresses, and prepare for battle. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²The land of Israel lies empty after your attacks; they're like trees with broke branches. But the LORD will restore their honor and power. ³Nineveh, your enemies' shields are red and their uniforms are scarlet. The metal on their chariots glistens in the sun, and the soldiers swing their spears. ⁴The chariots rush through the streets like flaming torches and lightning. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁵An officer gives a command, but his soldiers stumble as they hurry to the walls to set up their defenses. ⁶The river gates are open, the enemy has entered, and the palace collapses.

⁷Nineveh's people will be taken captives, and slave girls will mourn like doves. They'll beat their breasts in sorrow.
⁸Nineveh is like a pool with leaking water. People shout, "Stop!" but the people keep going.
⁹Enemy soldiers shout, "Loot the silver and gold. The city is full of treasures and vast wealth."
¹⁰Nineveh is doomed. Her people's hearts melt and their knees are weak. People tremble and their faces are pale. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, teach me to believe that nothing is impossible for You. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} If You can destroy world empires, then You can remove any barrier that blocks Your work today. Amen.

¹¹Where now is that great Nineveh, lion of the nations, where the people, like lions and cubs, had nothing to fear. ¹²Nineveh was like a lion, crushing your enemies to feed your cubs and filling your city with captives. ¹³"I'm against you, Nineveh," says the LORD of the Heavens. "I'll burn your chariots, and an army will kill your young soldiers (lions). You'll never again bring back loot. And you'll never again send messengers to demand submission." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Nahum 3 Nineveh Is Doomed

¹How terrible it will be for Nineveh, the city of murders and lies. She is full of loot and victims. ²Listen to the cracking whips, rumbling wheels, galloping horses, ³clattering chariots, swords and spears flashing, and soldiers stumbling over numerous dead bodies. ⁴This is all because Nineveh was a beautiful prostitute, using her charms and witchcraft to enslave nations. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

5"I'm against you," says the LORD of the Heavens. "I'll lift up your skirts over your face so the nations can see your nakedness and shame. ⁶I'll cover you with filth and show everyone how terrible you are. ⁷All who see you will be amazed that you are in ruins. Yet no one regrets your destruction." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁸Nineveh, do you think you're safer than the city of Thebes on the Nile, protected by the water? ⁹Thebes trusted in Ethiopia and Egypt, and Put and Libya were her allies. ¹⁰But Thebes was taken captive, and her babies were dashed to death at every street corner. Soldiers drew straws to see who would get Egypt's officers as servants. All her leaders were taken away in chains. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

¹¹Nineveh, you'll stagger like a drunkard and will hide in fear. ¹²Your fortresses are like first-ripe figs. They'll fall to the attackers as easily as figs fall into someone's mouth. ¹³Your troops will be weak and helpless as women. Fire has consumed the bars on your gates, and the enemy will rush right in your city. ¹⁴You are under siege, so draw water and strengthen your defenses. Start making bricks to repair your walls. ¹⁵Yet fire will devour you, and swords will cut you down. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} The enemy will consume you like wheat attacked by locusts. You'll not escape even if you multiply like locusts. ¹⁶Merchants, numerous as the stars, filled your city with vast wealth. But like locusts they'll strip the land and then fly away. ¹⁷Your guards and officials are like locusts. They settle on a fence on a chilly day, but when the sun comes out, they fly away. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

¹⁸King of Assyria, your officials and leaders lie dead. Your people are scattered on the mountains, but there is no shepherd to gather them and lead them. ¹⁹Your wound can't be healed; your injury can't be cured. Everyone who hears this news about you is glad because you were so cruel to so many.

Lord, You are concerned with the cities of the world. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} You are concerned about New York, London, Tokyo, Beijing, and New Delhi. During the Bible times You were concerned with the great cities that influenced world culture, peace and war. But Lord You are most concerned with Jerusalem then, and Jerusalem now. I will keep an eye on Jerusalem to see what You are doing in the world. Lord, my schedule is not important; Your schedule is all that matters. I yield my life to do Your will. I yield my times to do what You want me to do. I pray for the peace of Jerusalem, and hence; I pray for the peace of the world. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} Amen.

CH 1: HABAKKUK COMPLAINS TO THE LORD	1297
Ch 2: The Lord's Vision from the Prophet	1298
CH 3: HABAKKUK PRAYS TO THE LORD	1299

HABAKKUK

Key Word: Silence (Habakkuk 2:20)

Key Verse: "But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him" (2:20).

Theme: Habakkuk never mentions the nation of Assyria which was destroyed in 612 B.C. so we assume he wrote after that date. He describes Babylon as a great force, but God's people are not yet subdued to them (began in 605 B.C.) so he writes between these two dates. Habakkuk asks why God's justice is silent. Habakkuk is like people today who ask when trouble approaches, "Where is God?" People today see victorious evil winning over God's people, and ask, "Why is God silent?"

Habakkuk announces God will judge Judah for her spiritual sins and rejecting the Lord. But Babylon is so violent and morally wicked Habakkuk asks, "Why is God's judgment silent against this Gentile nation?" He was not reluctant to question the purpose of God.

Finally, Habakkuk realizes God reigns in heaven no matter what happens on earth, "But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him" (2:20). Lord, forgive me when I question You in unbelief, or I don't trust Your plan for my life. Amen.

Habakkuk 1 Habakkuk Complains to the LORD

Habakkuk the prophet. And this is the message the LORD gave me in a vision. ²How long, O LORD, must I call for help, but You don't listen. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} I cry out "Violence," but You don't save us. ³Why do I have to keep looking at injustice, {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} destruction, violence, strife, and conflict? {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ⁴Laws aren't enforced, and justice is not carried out in the courts. There are more wicked people than righteous ones, and they twist the laws.

⁵The LORD answered, "Look at the nations and be completely amazed. I'm going to do something that will amaze you. You won't believe it even if someone told you. {466

Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18] ⁶I'm raising up the Babylonians, a cruel and vicious nation who'll march across the world defeating many towns. ⁷People fear them and they do as they please. ⁸Their horses are swifter than leopards, and they are more fierce than wolves hunting at sunset. Their horsemen come from distant lands, and they swoop down like falcons to pounce on their prey.

9"They are determined to be violent, as they swoop down like the desert wind, picking up captives like sand. ¹⁰They make fun of rulers and all their defenses. And they pile up mounds of dirt against their walls and capture cities. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹¹They sweep past like the wind and are gone. They worship their own strength."

¹²O LORD, my God, my Holy One, You are eternal, and You'll not let us die. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} O LORD our Rock, You are cursing Babylonians to punish us for our sins. ¹³You can't tolerate sin in any form. So why are You silent when the wicked take advantage of people like us who are better than they are?

¹⁴We are like fish to be caught and killed. We are like sea creatures with no ruler. ¹⁵Our wicked enemies pull us up with hooks and fishing nets, and they are glad. ¹⁶Then they worship their nets and burn incense in front of their nets. They say that these nets have made them rich and provide choice foods. ¹⁷Will You let them keep hauling in their nets and destroying nations with no money? {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, forgive me for every time I've complained in the past. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Help me see Your purpose in my life, and give me faith to accept what I can't understand. I don't like all the evil I see around me. I yearn for a place like heaven where people live together in harmony. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} When You take the sin nature out of me, and everyone else, then maybe we'll have that peace in heaven that so many of us desire. Amen.

Habakkuk 2 The Lord's Vision for the Prophet

¹I'll climb to my watchtower and wait to see what the LORD will say to me and how He'll answer my complaint. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7}

Lord, I too will meet You in a private place where I can focus my whole mind on You. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} I will go there on a regular basis to watch and pray. When I reach out to touch You, Lord, reach back and touch me. Amen.

²The LORD replied, "Write My answer in large letters on a tablet, so that a runner can read it and tell others what it says. {370 Prayer-List Prayer, 1 Tim. 2:1 ff.} ³These things won't happen right away. My words, which speak of the future, will be true so wait for them patiently. {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14}

4"Proud people trust in themselves, but the righteous will live by their faith." {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31}

Lord, I will write down the lessons You are teaching me. {369 Prayer-Journey Prayer, Ps. 126:5-6} Make them clear to me as I attempt to write them in an understandable format. Amen.

⁵Wine betrays these proud Babylonians, and they are never at rest. They are as greedy as death itself, taking people as captives. ⁶But all their captives will mock them and will say, "How terrible it will be for you who pile up loot you've stolen and who cheat others." ⁷Your debtors will demand payment, and this will frighten you. ⁸You robbed many nations so they'll rob you. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} And you've murdered many people and destroyed their property.

⁹How terrible it will be for anyone who gets rich by unjust means. You tried to be free from harm like an eagle building a high nest. ¹⁰You've brought shame on yourself and your family because of what you've done to others. ¹¹The stones in the walls of your houses and the ceiling beams will speak against you.

¹²How terrible it will be for you who build cities with money gained from murders and robbery. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³The LORD of the Heavens has promised that the nations' wealth will turn to ashes. They work hard but all for nothing. ¹⁴But the time will come when people will know and honor the LORD

{136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} just as the waters fill the sea.

¹⁵How terrible it will be for people who get their neighbors drunk so they can gaze on their nakedness. ¹⁶Soon it'll be your turn, and you'll be filled with shame instead of praise. So drink and be exposed. Drink from the cup of the LORD's judgment and vomit will cover you. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁷You cut down the trees of Lebanon, and now you'll be cut down. You terrified wild animals you caught in your traps. Now you'll be in terror because of your murders and violence everywhere. ¹⁸What did you gain by worshiping manmade idols? It's a lie to think they could help you. And it's foolish to trust in idols you made and that can't talk. 19 How terrible it will be for those who tell wooden idols to come to life and tell stone images to wake up. They can't guide you in any way. They may be covered with gold and silver, but they have no life. ²⁰The LORD is in His holy temple, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} and so everyone should be silent in His presence. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3}

Habakkuk 3 Habakkuk Prays to the LORD

¹I Habakkuk sang this prayer before the LORD. ²"I've heard about You, LORD, {230 Hymn-Prayer, Col. 3:16} and I'm amazed at what You've done. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} Turn from Your anger and be merciful, {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} and help us as You helped our ancestors in the past."

Lord, that's my prayer today. I am filled with awe as I read Your Word; do such miracles again in my life. Revive Your work in my heart. Revive Your church. Revive our nation before it's too late. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} Do it quickly, do it now. Amen.

³You're the God who led us across the desert to Teman in Edom and came from Mount Paran. Your brilliance fills the heavens, and people everywhere praise You. ⁴From Your hands flash rays of brilliant light, and You rejoice in Your great power. ⁵You caused evil people to be struck with terrible diseases. ⁶When You stopped, the earth shook and You made the nations tremble in fear. Old mountains and hills may collapse, but Your ways, O LORD, will last forever. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁷The people living in tents in Cushan and Midian are in fear of You.

⁸O LORD, were You angry with the rivers and streams when You attacked with Your horses and chariots? ⁹You were ready with bows and arrows. You split open the earth with rivers. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ¹⁰The mountains watched and trembled, as raging waters swept by. The deep waters cried out in surrender to You, the LORD. ¹¹The brilliance of the sun and moon faded in view of the brightness of Your lightning.

¹²In Your anger You walked across the land and trampled on the nations. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹³You rescued Your people and saved Your chosen people. You crushed the leaders of the wicked, and stripped him from head to foot. ¹⁴With their own weapons You defeated them when they rushed out to destroy us, thinking they could easily defeat Israel. ¹⁵Then You trampled the sea with Your horses, and the water piled high. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁶When I heard this message, my heart pounded, my lips quivered with fear, {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} and my legs were weak. But I'll wait patiently for the disaster that will strike the people who invaded us. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14}

¹⁷Fig trees may have no blossoms, no grapes may be on the vines, and no olives may be on the trees. And the fields may be barren, and flocks may die in the fields, and cattle stalls may be empty. ¹⁸Yet I'll rejoice in the LORD and be joyful in the God of my salvation. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ¹⁹You, my Sovereign LORD, give me strength. You make my feet as sure as those of a deer, and You help me stand on the mountains. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} For the music director to be accompanied with stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

Ch 1: The Day of the LORD's Ange	ER IS COMING1302
Cн 2: Seek the LORD	1303
CH 3: THE SINS AND SALVATIONS OF J	ERUSALEM 1304

Key Words: The day of the LORD's anger (Zephaniah 2:3).

Key Verse: "Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger" (2:3).

Theme: Zephaniah (means the LORD hides) was the great-great-grandson of Hezekiah, the king who reformed and brought revival to Jerusalem. Then Zephaniah prophesied during King Josiah, also a revival king. Zephaniah wrote before A.D. 612 because he predicted Nineveh will fall. He also prophesied prior to Josiah's 18th year (622 B.C.)

Zephaniah's key words, "The day of the Lord's anger" described Nebuchadnezzar's invasion—judgment, but he also predicts the restoration of Israel and God's blessing on them. Lord, I know You judge sin because You punished Christ for my sins, and now I enjoy restoration to Your favor and I enjoy spiritual prosperity. Amen.

Zephaniah 1 The Day of the LORD's Anger Is Coming

Thand great-great-grandson of Gedaliah, great-grandson of Amariah, and great-great-grandson of Hezekiah. The LORD gave me this message when Josiah, son of Amon, was king of Judah. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

2"I, the LORD, will destroy everything on the earth. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

3I'll destroy people, animals, birds, and fish. I'll reduce the wicked to heaps of rubble along with all of the human race. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

4I'll crush Judah and Jerusalem, and Baal will be completely wiped out. I'll destroy Baal's priests so that no one will even remember them. ⁵People go on their rooftops to worship the sun, moon, and stars, and the god Molech while claiming to follow Me, the LORD. ⁶I'll destroy those who used to worship Me but no longer do and those who no longer ask for Me to guide them." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

⁷Be quiet in the presence of the Sovereign LORD, for the day of the LORD's judgment is near. The LORD has prepared His people for a great slaughter and has consecrated those He has invited. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3}

Lord, everything is in Your hands. Humankind will not pollute itself to death, nor will mankind populate itself into extension. Mankind will not finish the earth with a nuclear explosion. Judgment is in Your hands. I accept it. Amen.

8"On that day," the LORD says, "I'll punish the princes and the king's sons and all those who wear pagan clothing. 9I'll punish those who follow the pagan practices of stepping over the threshold and those who fill their pagan temples with loot gained by violence and deceit. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 10On that day crying will be heard at Jerusalem's Fish Gate and the New Quarter, and a great noise will be heard in the hills. 11If you live in the market area, you should wail because everyone who buys and sells there will die. 12"I'll search Jerusalem with lanterns to find and punish those who are not worried, thinking I won't do anything good or bad. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹³Their belongings will be looted, and their homes ransacked. They won't live in the new homes they've built, and they won't drink wine from the vineyards they've planted." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁴That terrible day of the LORD will come soon and quickly. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} On that day strong men will cry bitterly. ¹⁵"My anger will be poured out, and it will be a day of darkness, gloom, clouds, and blackness. ¹⁶A trumpet and a battle cry will be sounded against walled cities and strong fortifications. ¹⁷Because you have sinned against Me, you'll be helpless like a blind person. ¹⁸Your blood and your insides will be poured out into the dust. Your silver and gold will not be able to save you on that day of My wrath. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} The whole land will be overrun by the fire of My jealousy. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} I'll speedily get rid of all the people of Judah."

Lord, I fall on my face in humble submission to Your omnipotent plan for the ages. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} I wait silently for Your will to be done. Shhh, everyone, I'm worshiping. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} Amen.

Zephaniah 2 Seek the LORD

¹Gather together and pray, you shameless nation, before it's too late. ²Gather while there's still time, before judgment begins and that day of the LORD's wrath sweeps you away like chaff. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³Seek the LORD, you who are humble before Him, and obey Him. Do what is right and be humble, and perhaps you'll be safe when the LORD releases His anger. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6}

Lord, I am ready for judgment on this earth because Christ lives in my heart. I'm as sure for heaven as the promise of Christ who said, "Those who come to Me, I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37, ELT). And, I've confessed my sins clearly according to John 1:9, so I'm walking in fellowship with You. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} Amen.

⁴The Philistine cities of Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, and Ekron will be left in ruins. ⁵How terrible it will be for you people of Philistia who live along the coast and in Canaan because He'll be against you too and will destroy you completely. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁶The coastal area will become a pasture, a place for shepherds' huts and sheep pens. ⁷The survivors of Judah will pasture their flocks there and in the evening they'll sleep in abandoned houses in Ashkelon. The LORD will care for them {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} and bring His people home from captivity.

8"I, the LORD, have heard Moab and Ammon mocking My people and invading their land. 9Now, as surely as I live," says the LORD of the Heavens, "Moab and Ammon will be completely destroyed like Sodom and Gomorrah. Their land will be covered with weeds and salt pits and eternal desolation. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} Those of My people who are left will loot their belongings and will take over their land. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹⁰They'll be punished by Me, the LORD of the Heavens, because of their pride and their making fun of My people. 11I'll frighten them as I destroy all their idols. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Then people of nations from around the world will worship Me. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹²And you people of Ethiopia will be killed by the sword.

Assyria and make Nineveh a desolate dry desert. ¹⁴Wild animals will live in its rubble, and desert owls will live among its ruins and will hoot from its windows. Rubble will block all the doorways, and the cedar paneling will lie open to the wind and weather. ¹⁵This is the great city that was secure and boasted, 'No city is as great as I.' But now it is in complete ruins, a place for wild animals to live. Everyone who passes that way will sneer at the city and shake their heads in unbelief." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Zephaniah 3 The Sins and Salvation of Jerusalem

¹"How terrible it will be for Jerusalem that rebellious and corrupt city. ²In her pride she doesn't listen to Me. In fact she refuses correction and doesn't trust Me or draw near to Me. ³Her leaders are like boisterous lions hunting for lions, and her judges are like wolves, who attack in the evening and leave nothing in the morning." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, there are corrupt rulers today, just as in Zephaniah's time. Deliver us from the sins of politicians. Lord, there are unscrupulous ministers today, just as in Zephaniah's time. God, save people from those who corrupt Your Word. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} Lord, revive Your people. Amen.

4"Jerusalem's so-called prophets are proud and unreliable. And her priests defile the temple and disobey My laws. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} 5But I'm there in the city and I do no wrong. Every morning I see that justice is done, {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} yet the wicked pay no attention and know no shame.

6"I, the LORD, have wiped out many nations, and demolished their fortresses. Now their cities are in ruins and are deserted with no survivors. With the cities destroyed, no one is left to tell what happened. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁷I thought that you would listen to Me and obey Me. Then I wouldn't punish you. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} But you were eager to go on sinning. ⁸Then I said, 'The time is coming when I'll accuse the nations of their sins. I'll gather all the nations together {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and pour out My anger. I'll consume the earth in My jealousy."

Lord, I don't fear the final judgment throne because I am safe in Christ. But I know that all will be judged by two criteria. First, they will be asked if they have believed in Christ. If so, their name is listed in the Lamb's book of life (Rev. 21:27). Second, people will be judged by the "Book of works," that is, what have they done with the light they have (Rev. 20:12, 13). This will determine the severity of their punishment. Lord, it's good to know You are truthful to reward good, and You are truthful to not let one evil deed go unpunished. Amen.

9""On that day I'll purify the speech of everyone, so that they may worship Me together. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 10My people who live beyond Ethiopia will bring Me offerings. 11Then you'll no longer need to be ashamed. I'll get rid of the proud people among you, and there'll be no arrogance on My holy mountain. 12 Those who are left will be the humble and those who trust in Me. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹³The survivors will live right and won't tell lies or deceive each other. They'll eat, live peaceful lives, and lie down in safety with nothing to fear. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁴"Sing, O daughter of Zion, and shout, O Israel. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} Be glad with all your heart. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁵I'll cause your enemies to leave. And I, the King of Israel, will live with you. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Your troubles will finally be over, and you won't have to worry about harm. ¹⁶In that future day people will say to you, "Don't be discouraged or weak. ¹⁷I, your God, am with you, and I can rescue you. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} I'll take great delight in you, I'll calm all your fears with My love, and I'll sing with joy because of you.""

Lord, when You sing over me, I sing back to You the melody and words, I sing: "Holy, Holy, Holy... early in the morning, my song shall rise to Thee." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} Amen.

¹⁸"You who were mourning because of My religious festivals, will no longer be a burden to you. 19I'll punish those who mistreated you, and I'll save the weak and helpless ones. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I'll regather those who have been scattered, and I'll honor My people who were captives, and were mocked and shamed. 20At that time I'll gather you together {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} and bring you home again. I'll give you a good name and I'll praise you among all the nations of the earth. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} They'll honor you when I restore your prosperity in your homeland. I, the LORD have spoken these words."

CH 1: REBUILD THE HOUSE OF THE LORD	1309
CH 2: THE LORD'S HOUSE WILL BE FILLED WITH Glory	.1310

HAGGAI

Key Word: Consider (Haggai 1:5, 7; 2:15, 18)

Key Verse: "Consider your ways. Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD" (1:7, 8).

Theme: Haggai preached to the Jews who came back from the Babylonian captivity (beginning in 520 B.C., Zech. 1:1, 7). He called the people to proper worship as his first priority. He motivated the Jews to rebuild the temple, that is, the house of worship. To do this, he motivated the people to gather the materials to start the work (Hag. 1:7, 8). His key phrase was to "think about" or "consider" the consequences if they didn't, but also consider that the glory of God would fill the house (2:9).

Haggai reminds us that God and His work are more important than our homes, jobs, and material things. If we don't put God first, our prayers won't be answered. Lord, I surrender everything I have to You—all my belongings—to be used to worship and glorify You. Amen.

Haggai 1 Rebuild the House of the LORD

August of the second year of the reign of King Darius over Persia, the LORD told me, Haggai the prophet, to give this message {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} to Zerubbabel, Judah's governor, and to Joshua, the high priest. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²"I, the LORD, said, 'You say it isn't time to rebuild the temple.'" {486 Today's Response in Prayer, Heb. 3:7} ³Then the Word of the LORD came by Haggai, saying, ⁴"But is it right for you to live in expensive houses when the temple is in ruins?" {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁵"But I, the LORD of the Heavens, say, 'Look at what's happening. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} ⁶You've planted a lot, but you've harvested only a little. You never have enough food to eat, or wine to drink, or enough clothing to keep you warm. Your income disappears as if you were putting it in pockets with holes.'" {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

Lord, show me where to spend everything. Guide me in managing my money. I will give back to You what I am supposed to give to You. {539 Worship-Ministry Prayer, Heb. 13:15} I will get happiness from You, not from money. Amen.

7"Think of what I said," {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} says the LORD of the Heavens. 8"Go to the hills, bring down timber, and rebuild My temple. Then I'll be pleased with it and I will be worshiped there. 9You hoped for rich harvests, but when you brought your harvest home, I blew it away. Why did I do this? Because My temple is in ruins and you don't seem to care." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3}

The people were greedy. The greater their greed for money, the greater their disappointment with life. Those who find their satisfaction in God find the true meaning of a satisfying life. Lord, I will seek first the Kingdom of God and Your honor in my life, then I will find the secret to the meaning of life. {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} Amen.

10"That explains why I'm holding off morning dew and the rain and you have no crops. ¹¹So a drought will wither your grain, grapes, and olives and all your other crops. So you and your cattle will starve, and the drought will ruin everything." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3}

¹²Zerubbabel and Joshua and a few others who returned from being captives obeyed Haggai's message from the LORD {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and started worshiping Him sincerely. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³Then I, Haggai, gave this message from the LORD: "I'm with you, and I'll bless you." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁴Then the LORD of the Heavens gave them a desire to work on the temple. {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ¹⁵And the work began in September of Darius' second year as king.

Haggai 2 The LORD's House Will Be Filled with Glory

¹The next month the LORD told Haggai to ²ask Governor Zerubbabel and High Priest Joshua and all the others this question: {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} 3"Does anyone here remember how wonderful the temple used to be? {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} Now by contrast it seems like nothing. 4But take courage, because I, the LORD of the Heavens, will be with you to help you. I'm with you," {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} says the LORD of the Heavens. 5"When I rescued you from Egypt, I promised your ancestors that My Spirit would be with you. So don't be afraid. 6"I, the LORD of the Heavens say in just a little while I'll shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. 7I'll shake the nations {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev.

22:20} and encourage them to bring their treasures to the temple. Then the brightness of My glory will fill the temple." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Haggai pointed the people to the coming Messiah—Jesus Christ—who eventually would be the final answer to political problems. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} "The desire of all nations shall come" (Hag. 2:7, KJV). Lord, I will work to make my nation the best it can humanly become. Yet, I will look for Jesus who will set up His Kingdom and He will rule the world in peace. Amen.

8"All silver and gold are Mine," says the LORD of the Heavens. 9"So the future of this temple will be greater than the first temple. And here I'll bring peace," says the LORD of the Heavens. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Usually the work we do for God is not as big as we want it to be, nor is it as perfect as we want it to be. In the same way the prophet Haggai was encouraging the people not to look at the present size or beauty of the temple. He wanted them to focus their attention on the future temple and what a glorious thing it would be. Lord, put within me a spirit of perfection that no matter what I do, I can always do it better. {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6} Lord, keep me from getting discouraged with today's church, and remind me of what the future will be like. May I always have a great desire for the One who will come, even Jesus. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} Amen.

¹⁰In the next month the LORD of the Heavens told Haggai ¹¹to ask the priests this question: ¹²"If one of you is carrying some meat in your robe to be sacrificed to God and the clothing rubs against some bread or stew or wine or olive oil or some food, would those foods that were touched be acceptable for sacrifice?" The priests answered, "No." ¹³Then Haggai said, "If someone becomes ceremonially unclean by touching a dead body, and then brushes against those foods, would the meat for sacrifice be defiled?" The priests answered, "Yes."

Haggai said that contaminated food when it touches good food doesn't become good just by touching it. So the new altar will not become good, just by building it on the site of the former altar (Hag. 2:12-14). Lord, remind me that one little sin pollutes all it touches and one little wrong action corrupts my entire life. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} Lord, I will be holy in heart so I may be holy in life. Amen.

¹⁴So Haggai then said, "You people {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} were defiling your sacrifices by selfish attitudes and evil hearts. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁵But from now on things will be better. Before you started laying the temple foundation, {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ¹⁶when you hoped for a 20-bushel crop, you harvested only 10. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

And when you hoped to get 50 gallons from the winepress, you got only 20. ¹⁷I sent blight and mildew and hail on the work of your hands, but you still didn't return to Him. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁰That same day the LORD gave this message to Haggai: 21"Tell Governor Zerubbabel that I'll shake the heavens and the earth and ²²I'll overthrow kings and their kingdoms. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} I'll overturn chariots and their drivers, and horses and their riders will fall as the troops slaughter each other. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³Then when that happens," says the LORD of the Heavens, "O Zerubbabel My servant, I'll honor you like a signet ring on My finger, for I, the LORD of the Heavens, have chosen you to be My servant." {42 Blessing A Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26}

ZECHARIAH

Key Words: The Lord of hosts (Zechariah 4:6)

Key Verse: "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts" (4:6).

Theme: Zechariah began prophesying in 520 B.C. about 2 months after Haggai prophesied. The Babylonian kingdom had previously fallen to the Medo-Persian Empire in 539 B.C., and a year later, King Cyrus specifically predicted by Isaiah 44:24-28; 45:1-13, issued a decree which allowed some of the Jews to return to their homeland (2 Chron. 36:22-23 and Ezra 1:1-11; 2:1 ff.). Approximately 42,000 of the exiles made the long trip under the leadership of Zerubbabel and Joshua (Ezra 2:2, 64). By 536 B.C., the first group had arrived in Palestine and laid the foundation of the temple. However, because of opposition from neighboring peoples, work on the temple stopped (4:4-5).

Construction was not resumed until God raised up two prophets (Haggai and Zechariah) 16 years later. They preached to motivate the Jewish people to complete the reconstruction project. The combined preaching of these two prophets—Haggai and Zechariah—was perhaps the most effective preaching ever. The people began building the temple immediately, and didn't stop until it was finished. Lord, thank You for effective preachers of Your Word. May Your preachers be effective today. Use me as You used Haggai and Zechariah. Amen.

Zechariah 1 Return to the LORD

Prayer, Eph. 4:22} and said, 'LORD of the Heavens, You have punished us as You said You would do.'" {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Lord, You never change. You are always angry with disobedience and rebellion. I repent of my laziness, disobedience, and procrastination. Forgive me for my rebellion. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} Help me obey instantly when You speak. Don't deal with me in judgment, but look at me through eyes of grace. Amen.

⁷In February of the second year of Darius' reign, the LORD gave me, Zechariah, another message. 8I said, "In a night vision {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} I saw a man on a red horse standing among some myrtle trees in a valley. Behind him were riders on red, brown, and white horses. An angel was standing near me, ⁹and so I asked him who these riders were. 'I'll tell you,' the angel answered. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ¹⁰Then the man standing among the myrtle trees said, 'These are the ones the LORD has sent to find out what's happening on the earth. ¹¹Then the riders said to the angel of the LORD, 'We have gone everywhere and have seen that the whole world is at peace.' {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} ¹²Then the angel of the LORD said, 'O LORD of the Heavens, You've been angry with Jerusalem and the towns of Judah for 70 years. Will You ever show mercy to them?"

¹³The LORD answered with kind words to the angel who then spoke to me. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} 14 The angel said, "Shout this message for everyone to hear: 'I, the LORD of the Heavens, love Jerusalem. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} 15I'm very angry with other nations that enjoy security. I was a little angry with My people, but the nations punished them more than I intended. ¹⁶Therefore I'll show mercy to Jerusalem {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} and My temple will be rebuilt. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ¹⁷I, the LORD of the Heavens, say again that the towns of Israel will prosper and I'll comfort the people of Zion." {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2}

Lord, I love those places You love. I love those places where You manifest Yourself to me. I will go back to them when I feel empty. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} But when I can't go physically, I will visit them in my mind. I will seek Your presence everywhere. You have said, "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world" (Matt. 28:20, KJV). Amen.

¹⁸Then I saw four animal horns. {519 Vision-Motivated Prayer, Prov. 29:18} ¹⁹I asked the angel what they were. And the angel answered, "These horns represent the nations that scattered the people of Jerusalem, Judah, and Israel." ²⁰Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths, ²¹and I asked, "What will they do?" The LORD replied, "They will terrify and crush the four horns." {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19}

Zechariah 2 Man with a Measuring Line

¹Then when I looked up, I saw a man with a yardstick in his hand. 2When I asked him where he was going, he said, "To measure the width and length of Jerusalem." {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} 3Then the angel who was talking with me left and another angel came to meet him. 4This other angel said, "Hurry and tell that man with the yardstick that someday Jerusalem will be so full of people and animals that many will have to live outside the city walls and yet they'll be safe. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} 5The LORD Himself will be a protective wall of fire around Jerusalem, and He'll be the splendor of the city." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Lord, I know Your protection for Jerusalem will be great, but Your protection of me will be even greater. As much as You love a city, You love people even more. {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} Lord, I feel secure when You protect me. Amen.

⁶The LORD then said, "My people in captivity, run from the land of the north, from Babylon. I scattered you to the four winds, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁷but I'll bring you back to Jerusalem." ⁸Then the LORD of the Heavens sent me, Zechariah, against the nations that oppressed You {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} because He said that anyone who harms you is like hurting His eye. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19}

Lord, I pray daily, "Deliver me from evil" which means I ask You to deliver me from the evil one. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} If satan can't tempt me to sin, he will try to destroy me with persecution or trials. He even uses accidents to destroy Your people. Protect me by Your presence. Amen.

9"I'll raise My fist against your enemies and their slaves will become their rulers. Then you'll know that the LORD of the Heavens has sent Me.

¹⁰"Shout, O Daughter of Zion, for I'm coming to live among you. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2} ¹¹Many nations will turn to Him and be His people, {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} and they'll know that the LORD of the Heavens sent Me to you. ¹²Judah will be part of the Holy Land, and He'll again choose Jerusalem as His very own city. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ¹³So everyone, be silent before the LORD because He has come to earth from heaven." {437 Silent-Worship Prayer, Rev. 8:1}

Zechariah 3 A Vision about Joshua

¹Then the angel who had been talking with me showed me Joshua the high priest standing in front of the angel of the LORD. And satan was there standing at Joshua's right side, accusing him of many things. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ²The LORD said to satan, "Satan, these accusations are wrong. I've chosen Jerusalem as My holy city, {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} and Joshua, like My people, has been snatched from the fire of captivity."

Lord, I've never seen satan in my presence, but I believe it because You said satan would come to tempt me. Thank You for this picture so I'll protect myself with prayer and the Word of God. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} Lord, give me wisdom to know how to thwart satan's attacks, and give me power to do Your will in victory. Amen.

³Joshua's clothing was filthy as he stood before the angel. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ⁴So the angel told some people there to remove his clothing. Turning to Joshua the angel said, "Removing these clothes of yours means you and my people are foreign. Now I'll give you new clothes." {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

⁵I, Zechariah, then said, "Could he also have a clean turban?" So they gave him priestly clothes and a turban. ⁶Then the angel of the LORD said to Joshua, ⁷"This is what the LORD of the Heavens says: 'If you follow Me and obey My commands, {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} then I'll put you in charge of My temple and the courtyard. I'll let you be with Me and those angels. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁸Listen carefully, Joshua the high priest and the other priests with you. You are a sign of good things to come, because you, Joshua, represent My Servant, the Branch Descendant of David, whom I'll send." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

Christ is called a Branch, which is a description of a live sprout that springs up out of a dead stump. The Kingdom of David that ruled from Jerusalem was cut down by Nebuchadnezzar in 586 B.C. But the great tree that was the Kingdom of David will come back in a sprout—a branch—that will grow. Jesus is the Branch who will rule from Jerusalem in the future millennium. Lord, thank You for the promise that Christ will come back as the Servant-King. What I see predicted in the Old Testament is fulfilled in the New Testament. Truly, Yours is a supernatural book and its promises have transformed me. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} Amen.

9"'And Joshua, I've set a stone in front of you with seven sides. I, the LORD of the Heavens, will engrave this inscription on each of the seven sides: "I'll remove the sins of this land in a single day." 10 On that day, says the LORD of the Heavens, 'you'll live in peace and you'll invite your neighbors to sit under your vineyard and fig tree." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

Zechariah 4 The Golden Lamp Stand

'Then the angel who had been talking with me woke me up ²and said, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a golden lampstand {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} with a bowl of olive oil on top of it. Around the bowl are seven lamps, each with seven flames. ³And I see two olive trees, one on each side of the lampstand." {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ⁴I asked the angel what these mean. ⁵He said, "Don't you know?" I said, "No, I don't." ⁶Then he said, "This is what the LORD says to you: 'I'm the LORD of the Heavens. So don't depend on your power or strength, but on My Spirit." {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4}

Lord, I will look to the Holy Spirit who does the real spiritual work. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} It is not me, nor is it human effort. Lord, it's Your Spirit. So today, Holy Spirit come to me, indwell my heart, anoint my words; use me in the work of Jesus Christ. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} I can't do it without You! Amen.

7"'Zerubbabel, no mountain, however high, can stand against you. It'll be leveled to the ground. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} Then you'll set in place the east stone of the temple and everyone will shout, "May God bless it, He is very kind.""

⁸Then the LORD gave me another message. He said, ⁹"Zerubabbel laid the foundation of the temple, and he'll complete it.

(Then everyone will know that the LORD of the Heavens sent this message to me.) ¹⁰Don't make fun of this small beginning, {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} because I'm glad to see a work begin and to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand. These seven lamps represent My eyes that see everything in the world." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

The Jews who returned to Jerusalem from Babylon were a small remnant and the wall, temple, and houses of Jerusalem would not be as glorious as the city destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Lord, I will not compare Your inward work within the heart to the outward show of the world. Outwardly the church seems small, but it is powerful to transform drunks, make godly women out of prostitutes, and turn a murderer into an apostle Paul. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} Lord, give me Your eyes to see Your work from the Divine perspective. Forgive my pessimism, and complaint about being small. Lord, help me see Your work or potential for what You're doing and will do. Amen.

¹¹Then I asked the angel, "What are those two olive trees on each side of the lamp-stand? ¹²And what is the meaning of the two olive branches that pour oil through two gold tubes?" ¹³He asked, "Don't you know?" I said, "No, I don't." ¹⁴Then he said, "They represent two chosen leaders who'll serve the LORD, that is, Joshua the priest and Zerubbabel the leader speaking of the Messiah, who is both Priest and King." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35}

Zechariah 5 The Flying Scroll

¹When I looked up I saw a scroll flying through the air. ²When the angel asked what I saw, I said, "A flying scroll that is about 30 feet long and 15 feet wide. ³Then the angel said, "This scroll records God's curse that is going out over all the land. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} One side says that those who stole will be destroyed, and the other side says that those who tell lies will be destroyed. ⁴"I, the LORD of the Heavens, say that I'm sending this curse into the home of every thief and everyone who lies. And the curse will be there until every piece of wood and stone is destroyed."

Lord, I will not swear or curse with Your name. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} When and if I have cursed in the past—forgive me. {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} Indwell my heart and guard my mouth so I might not sin with a curse or swear word. Amen.

⁵Then the angel who was talking with me said, "Look up and tell me what you see." ⁶"I don't know what it is," I said. So he told me, "It's a measuring bushel, and it's filled with the sins of everyone in the land." ⁷Suddenly the lead cover came off the basket and in the basket was a woman. ⁸The angel said, "The name of the woman is Wickedness," {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and he pushed her back into the basket and put the lead cover back on it.

⁹Then I saw these women flying toward us. They had wings like those of a stork, and they took the basket and flew off with it. ¹⁰I asked, "Where are they taking the basket?" ¹¹He said, "To Babylonia. They'll build a place for the basket, and there it'll stay." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Zechariah 6 The Four Chariots

¹Then I looked up again and saw four chariots coming from between two bronze mountains. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} ²The first chariot was led by red horses, the second by black horses, 3the third by white horses, and the fourth by spotted gray horses. 4When I asked the angel who was talking with me what these were, 5he said, "These are the angels of heaven who stand before the Lord of all the earth. They are going east to do His work of judgment. 6The chariot with black horses is going north to Babylon. The chariot with white horses is going west after them. The chariot with spotted gray horses is going south."

⁷The red horses were eager to be off and to patrol the earth, {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} so the LORD told them to go so they left at once. ⁸Then the LORD said, "Those who went north have quieted my wrath there." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Perhaps God allowed four world rulers to conquer the known world so we could see what could be done—that one day Christ will rule the world. Also, God allowed these empires to express their evil ambitions to show us that human government will never be perfect. But when Christ rules, then peace will come and all men will trust all other men rightly. Lord, I pray the Lord's Prayer, "Thy Kingdom come... on earth as You rule in heaven." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Amen.

⁹In another message the LORD said, 10"Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah have returned from Babylon. Meet them at the home of Josiah, son of Zephaniah. They'll bring silver and gold from the captives in Babylon, and 11 from their silver and gold make a crown and put it on the head of Joshua the high priest. 12 Tell him that I, the LORD of the Heavens, say, 'You represent the One who will come who will be called the Branch {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} and He'll build My temple. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} 13He'll receive royal honor {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} and will rule as king. He'll also serve as priest, and there'll be perfect harmony between His two roles as king and priest. 14The crown will be kept in the temple to honor those who gave silver and gold for it—Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, along with Josiah, the son of Zephaniah. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

15"Many people will come from other nations to help build the temple. And this will help you know My messages have been from Me, the LORD of the Heavens. All this will happen if you obey My commands." {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2}

Zechariah 7 Show Justice and Mercy toward Others

¹In December of the fourth year of King Darius' reign as king of Persia, the LORD gave me this message. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²The people of Bethel sent Sharezer and Regem-Melech and their men to ask the LORD's favor. ³They asked the prophets and priests at the temple of the LORD of the Heavens, "Shall we continue to mourn and go without food in the fifth month of each year, as we've done for so long?" {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19}

Has a tradition ever lost its meaning to you? Israel fasted and held a solemn service {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} to ask for forgiveness in the 5th month. That was the month the temple and Jerusalem were destroyed. Now the temple was being rebuilt. They asked God, "Do we still have to fast on the 5th month?" Lord, it's good to remember my failures because there I see Your forgiveness and restorative power. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} Lord, I will look back and praise You for Your patience.

Thank You for not destroying me. Now I will serve You with all my heart. Amen.

⁴The LORD of the Heavens told me ⁵to tell everyone including the priests, "During your 70 years of captivity when you mourned and went without eating every August and October, did you really do this for Me? {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁶And during your holy festivals you don't think of Me, you think only of pleasing yourselves. ⁷This is the same message I gave the prophets years ago when Jerusalem and the towns in Judah were filled with people, including the Southern Desert and foothills."

⁸Then the LORD gave Zechariah this message: 9"This is what the LORD of the Heavens says: 'See that justice is done, be honest, and show mercy and kindness to each other. 10Don't mistreat widows, orphans, foreign residents, and poor people, and don't plan to hurt each other. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 11Your ancestors turned against Me, and they put their fingers in their ears to keep from hearing My message. 12They hardened their hearts, afraid to hear the words I, the LORD of the Heavens, sent them by My Spirit through the prophets. This is why I was so angry with them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹³"When I called to them, they refused to listen. So now when they call to Me, I refuse to listen,' says the LORD of the Heavens. {503 Unanswered-Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁴'So I scattered them among distant nations like a whirlwind scattering debris.

They lived there as strangers, and their own land became like a desolate desert. No one traveled through it. The land that had been so pleasant was now empty of people and in ruins." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Zechariah 8 Jerusalem Will Be Restored

¹The LORD of the Heavens gave me another message: ²"My love for Zion is so great that I'm angry at what her enemies have done to her. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³I'll return to Mount Zion and live in Jerusalem. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} Jerusalem will be called The Faithful City, The Holy Mountain, and The Mountain of the LORD of the Heavens."

One of the great promises God made to His people was "I will dwell inside Jerusalem." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Jesus' greater promise is, "I am with you always, even to the end of the age" (Matt. 28:20, NKJV). Lord, I am overwhelmed that You would live with me, and You dwell in me (John 14:20). Lord, help me be a good testimony to Your indwelling. {239 Indwelling-Strength Prayer, Eph. 3:16-17} Thank You for Your presence. I will talk to You as I go about my daily activities. Don't ever leave me. Amen.

⁴"I say that again older people will walk on her streets using canes, and will sit together and visit. ⁵And boys and girls will be playing on the street. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 6"All this may seem impossible now for you, a small and discouraged number of people. But it is not impossible for Me, the LORD of the Heavens. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} 7You can be sure that I'll rescue My people from the east and the west, {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} 8 and I'll bring them back to Jerusalem. They'll be My people, and I'll be their God, faithful and just to them."

Lord, thank You for what You will do for Your people, Israel. I look forward to living with You in the future. {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} Now for today, I look to You to protect and guide me. May I glorify You today. Amen.

9"I, the LORD of the Heavens, say, 'Finish the job. Think about what the prophets said {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} when you began laying the foundation of the temple. 10 Before work on the temple began, there were no jobs. And if you left the city, you wouldn't be safe because enemies are everywhere. 11But things are different now, says the LORD of the Heavens. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} 12'I'm planting seeds of peace and prosperity among you. Grapevines will have lots of grapes, your ground will produce crops, and dew will be plentiful. Judah and Israel, you'll be a blessing to other nations. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} ¹³You were cursed by them, but no longer. I'll rescue you and make you a blessing to them. So don't be afraid or discouraged. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

¹⁴"When your ancestors made Me angry, I decided to punish them. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁵But now that I've decided to bless Jerusalem and Judah with kindness, I won't change My mind. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} So don't be afraid. ¹⁶You must always tell the truth, be fair in court decisions, and be at peace with each other. ¹⁷Don't make plans to hurt each other, and don't say something is true when it isn't. I hate all these things' says the LORD." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

¹⁸Here's another message to me from the LORD of the Heavens: 19"The times of mourning and going without food {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} that you have kept in July, August, October, and January will now become festivals of joy. So love truth and peace." {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ²⁰The LORD of the Heavens says that people from around the world will go to Jerusalem. ²¹People in one city will say to friends in another city, 'Let's go to Jerusalem together to ask the LORD to bless us. {372 Prayer-Walking, Gen. 13:17} Come join me.' ²²So people from every nation, even powerful ones, will come to Jerusalem to seek Me, the LORD of the Heavens, and to ask Me to bless them. {373 Praying about Prayer, Matt. 6:5-13} ²³In those days, 10 men from 10 different nations will grab a Jew and will say, 'May we go with you to Jerusalem? We've heard that God is with you."

{249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1}

Zechariah 9 The LORD Will Judge Israel's Enemies

¹This is the LORD's message {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} against Hadrach and Damascus, cities in Syria. "I'm watching everyone, including all the tribes of Israel. ²I'll judge Hamath, near Damascus, and also Tyre and Sidon, though they are shrewd. ³Tyre built a strong fortress, and she's piled up silver and gold like dust in the streets. ⁴But now I'll make her poor, toss her fortresses into the sea, and burn her to the ground. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

5"Ashkelon, Gaza, and Ekron will be filled with fear when they see what will happen to Tyre. Gaza's king will be killed, and Ashkelon will be deserted. ⁶Foreigners will occupy Ashdod, the Philistines' great city. 7I'll keep her from eating meat with blood in it or any other unclean food. Surviving Philistines will worship Me and become part of My people. The Philistines of Ekron will join My people, as did the Jebusites. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 8I'll guard My temple from invading armies. I'll watch these enemies closely {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} so that no foreigners will again overrun My land. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 9"O My people, rejoice. Everyone in Jerusalem, shout with joy. Why? Because your King is coming. He is righteous {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} and victorious and humble, riding on a donkey's foal." {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14}

The people were worried about world-conquering armies. Nebuchadnezzar and Cyrus had turned the world upside down. Now God predicts the Messiah will be greater than any conqueror. {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} He would enter the world scene on a donkey (a peace animal used for work). Messiah would not come on a giant conquering horse as Alexander the Great. Messiah would be gentle. Jesus fulfilled this prophecy on Palm Sunday. He didn't come to sit on a political throne (eventually He would do this) but Jesus came to sit on the throne of our hearts. When Jesus conquers individuals, He also conquers nations. He will rule from the inside out. Lord, come sit on the throne of my heart; conquer me, rule me, and use me. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Amen.

¹⁰"I, the LORD, will take away chariots and horses from Israel and warhorses from Jerusalem. I'll break all the weapons of warfare, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and your King will bring worldwide peace and He'll rule from sea to sea. His kingdom will extend from the Euphrates River to all the earth. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹¹"Because of the agreement I made with you, sealed with blood, I'll free your prisoners from death in a waterless pit. ¹²Return to Jerusalem, your place of safety, for there is hope for you. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment

Prayer, John 10:10} ¹³Judah is My bow, and Israel is My arrow. I'll take the people of Zion as My sword to attack the Greeks. {391 Race-Preparation Prayer, Heb. 12:1} 14"I'll appear over you, My people, as you are in battle. Your arrow will fly like lightning. I, the Sovereign LORD, will sound My trumpet, and I'll go against My enemies like a whirlwind from the desert in the south. ¹⁵I, the LORD of the Heavens, will protect you, My people, and will defeat your enemies with sling stones. You'll shout in battle like men who are drunk. You'll shed your enemies' blood, enough to fill a bowl. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

¹⁶"I'll rescue you, My people, much as a shepherd rescues a sheep. You'll sparkle in My land like jewels in a crown. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ¹⁷How wonderful everything will be. Young people will thrive on the great amount of grain and new wine." {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

Zechariah 10 The Lord Restores His People

1"Ask Me for rain in the spring, and I'll give it. I make storm clouds and send rain to make your fields produce. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ²Idols give bad advice, fortune-tellers tell lies, and interpreters of dreams tell what doesn't come true. My people wander like sheep who have no shepherd to guide them.

³"I'm angry with the shepherds (leaders), and I'll punish them. {267 Judgment

Prayer, Rev. 17:5} I, the LORD of the Heavens, will look after My flock of Judah, and I'll make them strong like a warhorse in battle. ⁴From Judah will come leaders who'll be strong like a cornerstone, {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} a tent peg, and a battle bow."

Jesus is the Stone on which God built His work. The people were looking for physical stones for the physical temple, but God tells them He will send the Cornerstone (Eph. 2:20), who is the Messiah. They wanted a place of worship; God tells them to seek the person of worship. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} The Jews wanted to approach God in the new temple; God was telling them their Messiah was the temple. Lord, help me not seek You in places but help me seek Your person. Lord, I will come to You, and build You up as the sanctuary. Lord, I will seek You as the most important object of my worship. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} Amen.

5"They'll be like mighty soldiers, trampling their enemies in the mud. I'll be with them as they fight, and their enemy is doomed. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

6"I'll strengthen Judah and Israel because I love them. I'll hear their prayers, {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} and it will be as though I had never rejected them. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} 7Israel will be like strong soldiers, happy as with wine. And their children will see this and be happy in the LORD. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} 8I'll signal for them, because I've rescued them. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} From their few members, their population will grow again."

Lord, when You whistle for me, I will come. There were times I didn't come home immediately; forgive me. {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} When I come home at Your call, feed me. Amen.

9"I've scattered them like seeds among the nations, but they'll remember Me. They and their children will return {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ¹⁰from Egypt and Assyria and will settle them again as far away as Gilead and Lebanon. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} There'll scarcely be enough room for everyone. 11My people will go safely through a sea of troubles. I'll hold back the waves, and even the Nile River will become dry. Assyria's pride will be put down, and the rule of Egypt over My people will end. 12I'll strengthen My people, and their conduct will glorify Me." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

Zechariah 11 The Two Shepherds

Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} because their pastures are burned. Listen to the roaring of the lions because the Jordan Valley is in ruins."

⁴Then the LORD my God said to me, "Go take care of those sheep who are to be slaughtered. ⁵The people who bring them go unpunished. And the people who sell them will say, 'Praise the LORD, {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} I'm rich.' ⁶I'll no longer have pity on the people of the land. Their wicked leaders will kill them, and they'll turn the land into a desert, and I won't rescue them." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

⁷So I pastured the sheep who were to be slaughtered. I took two shepherd staffs and named one Favor and the other Union. 8In a month I became impatient with three evil shepherds and got rid of them. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 9I told them I wouldn't be their shepherd any longer. Let the dying die, and the perishing perish; I don't care. And let the others destroy themselves. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹⁰I broke my staff called Favor to show that the LORD had broken His contract with everyone. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} 11Those who bought and sold sheep knew that this was a message from the LORD. 12I told them to pay me my wages if they thought they should. So they gave me 30 pieces of silver. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

Hundreds of years before Judas betrayed Jesus for 30 pieces of silver, Zechariah predicted the event. God, who knows the future, willingly sent His son to be betrayed. Notice the phrase, "broke the covenant" (v. 10). Judas covenanted to sell Jesus for 30 pieces. God covenanted to make Israel His people. Do you think when Judas made a different covenant that God broke His covenant with Israel? Note the text said, "This act broke the covenant which God had made with His people" (v. 10). And today the Jews are out of Divine favor (Rom. 11:13-26). Lord, I make a covenant to love and obey You. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} I will follow You and serve You. Thank You, Jesus, for going to the cross for me, even though Judas sold You for 30 pieces of silver. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Amen.

¹³The LORD told me to toss the coins to the potter in the temple. So I did.

The prediction of the 30 pieces of silver is so accurate that it even describes Judas trying to return it to the priest, but it was used to buy a potter's field (Matt. 27:3-10). Lord, I am amazed at how accurately You predicted the "selling" of Jesus. I wonder how many people missed this fact when reading Scriptures. Help me not to miss important facts in Scriptures, but give me even deeper insight as I study Your Word. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Of all the small details about the crucifixion of Christ, this one small detail is included, probably because it grieved Your heart and probably because it technically broke Your covenant with Israel, Amen.

¹⁴Then I broke the staff called Union to show that the union between Judah and Israel had been broken. ¹⁵The LORD said to me, "Act like a worthless shepherd. This will picture how ¹⁶I'll give this nation a shepherd, a worthless leader, who won't care for lost sheep and won't heal the sick or feed the healthy. Instead he'll dine on the fattest sheep and even tear off their hooves. ¹⁷How terrible it will be for the worthless shepherd who deserts his flock. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} A sword will cut his arm and make it useless, and it will pierce his right eye and blind him."

Zechariah 12 Jerusalem's Enemies Will Be Destroyed

¹This is a message from the LORD about Israel: "I'm the LORD, who made the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth, {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} and gave breath to humans. 2I'll make Jerusalem and Judah like a drink that makes nearby nations drunk {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} when they send their armies against Jerusalem. 3And I'll make Jerusalem like a heavy stone {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} that will crush anyone who tries to lift it. 4In that future day I'll make every horse panic and every rider frustrated. I'll watch over Judah, but I'll blind her enemies' horses. 5The leaders of Judah will say, 'The people of Jerusalem are strong because they are trusting in their

God, the LORD of the Heavens.' {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

6"In that future day I'll make the clans of Judah like a fire pan in a woodpile, or like a burning torch in a haystack. They'll burn up all the neighboring nations, but Jerusalem will be secure. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁷The LORD will give victory to the rest of Judah first, so that Jerusalem and David's royal line won't be proud of their success. 8On that future day I, the LORD, will defend Jerusalem. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3) Even the weakest person there will be as strong as David. And his descendants will be like God, like the angel of the LORD going before them. 9On that future day I'll destroy every nation that attacks Jerusalem. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

¹⁰"Then I'll pour out a spirit of grace and prayer on everyone in Jerusalem, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and they'll look on Him whom they pierced and mourn for Him as for an only son who died." {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31}

When Jesus returns, the Jews "will look at Me (Jesus) the One they have pierced" (v. 10). Then they will mourn. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} This is a two-fold mourning. Some who reject Jesus Christ will mourn for the judgment and punishment awaiting them. Other Jewish believers will mourn in regret for what the nation did to Jesus. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} Lord, I will mourn because my sins put Jesus on the tree. If it had not been for me, Jesus would not have had to suffer and die. Yes,

He died for others also, but I mourn for my responsibility. Amen.

11"In that future day everyone in Jerusalem will mourn like the people who mourned for Hadad Rimmon in Megiddo. ¹²All Israel will mourn with each family mourning, {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} and with the men mourning separately from the women. David's family will mourn, as will the family of Nathan, ¹³the family of Levi, and the family of Shimei, ¹⁴and all the other families, with husbands and wives mourning separately."

Zechariah 13 God's People Cleansed

¹"On that future day, there'll be a fountain where David's descendants and the people of Jerusalem {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} can wash away their sins and impurities. {441 Sin-Stopping Intercession, 1 John 5:16} 2On that day, I, the LORD of the Heavens, will get rid of every idol. Even their names will be forgotten. And I'll get rid of false prophets and evil spirits that control them. 3If anyone begins prophesying as a false prophet again, his parents must warn him to stop because he's telling lies in the LORD's name. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} If he doesn't stop, then his parents must kill him with a sword. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 4"No one will then boast of being a prophet, and no one will deceive people by wearing prophet's clothes. 5Instead they'll say, 'I'm not a prophet. I've been a farmer all my life.' 'If someone asks him, 'What are these scars on your body?' he'll answer, 'I was wounded at the house of my friends.'"

Zechariah begins this chapter with the Lord speaking (v. 2). Then the Lord describes false prophets and the punishment that will come upon them. Then the Lord speaks for the discredited false prophets who make excuses to turn away punishments. Suddenly the conversation switches to the time when Messiah (Jesus) returns and regathers Israel; they will see His pierced hands, then ask, "What are these wounds?" {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Lord, I believe You died for my sins, and You rose the 3rd day to give me new life. I don't have to put my fingers in Your wounds to believe. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} You said, "Blessed are those that have not seen, and yet have believed." Amen.

7"Awake, O sword, against, My shepherd, the one who is My partner," says the LORD of the Heavens. "Attack the shepherd, and the sheep will scatter, and I'll be against the lambs."

The Scriptures predict the disciples would run away when Jesus was arrested and crucified. "Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered" (v. 7). I can't imagine the excruciating agony on Jesus to be abandoned by those closest to Him. Lord, I know it pains You when followers turn back. Lord, I will not deny You, nor will I turn back from You. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} I re-commit myself to You, and will follow You. {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} Amen.

8"Only a third of the people in the land will be left alive in the land. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} "This third that remains I'll bring through the fire to purify them, just as silver and gold are tested and purified. They'll call on Me, {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} and I'll answer them. I'll say, 'You are My people,' and they'll say, 'The LORD is our God." {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9}

Zechariah 14 The LORD Will Be King

³"Then I, the LORD, will fight against those nations. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ⁴On that future day I'll stand on the Mount of Olives east of Jerusalem, {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} and the mountain will split, forming a wide valley running from east to west." {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1}

The Bible predicts Jesus will return to earth at the same spot from which He left earth, that is, the Mount of Olives. {274 Last-Days Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:1} The angels told the disciples Jesus would return as He left (Acts 1:11). Have you seen all the similarities how Jesus left? He left unexpectedly, and no one knows the time of His return. He went up into heaven, so shall He return from heaven. He went up gradually which is how He will return. His followers saw Him leave, and they shall see Him return. He left when angels were present, so they shall be present when Jesus returns. The certainty of His ascension should give all of us assurance about His return. Lord, I look forward to Your return. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} Amen.

5"You'll escape through the valley for it will reach to Azal, near Jerusalem. You'll run as you ran from the earthquake when Uzziah was king of Judah. Then I'll come with all My angels and the saints in heaven.

6"The sun, moon, and stars won't shine {221 Hidden Answers-Prayer, Rom. 11:33-36} 7because it will be one continuous day. I know how this can happen. There'll be no normal daytime and nighttime. In the evening it will still be light. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} 8In summer and winter life-giving water will flow from Jerusalem, some toward the Dead Sea and some toward the Mediterranean. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 91'll be King over all the earth and only

I, the LORD, will be worshiped." {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13}

¹⁰From Geba, north of Jerusalem, to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, all the land will be flatlands, with Jerusalem raised up to its original height. It'll be full of people from the Benjamin Gate to the Old Gate, and to the Corner Gate, in the northeast part of the city, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹Jerusalem will be filled with people and will be safe, never again to be destroyed. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

12"I'll send a terrible disease on every nation that fought against Jerusalem. While standing there, their flesh will rot away, their eyes will shrivel in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³On that future day I'll cause them to panic in fear. They'll fight against each other. 14And Judah will be fighting in Jerusalem. And the wealth of the neighboring nations will be looted, including gold, silver, and clothing. 15The same terrible disease will hit horses, mules, camels, and donkeys, and all other animals in the enemies' camps. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} ¹⁶"Survivors from those nations that attacked Jerusalem will go every year to Jerusalem to worship Me, the LORD of the Heavens, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. ¹⁷If any nation refuses to go to Jerusalem to worship Me, the King, the LORD of the Heavens, they'll have no rain. 18If Egyptians refuse to join with Israel in celebrating My festivals, I'll punish them with the same disease I'll send on other nations that refuse to go. 19Their terrible disease will strike Egypt and other nations that don't go to celebrate the festival. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5}

²⁰"On that future day the words 'Dedicated to the LORD' {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} will be engraved on the horses' harness bells. And the cooking pots used in the temple will be as sacred as the bowls used at the altar. ²¹In fact every cooking pot in Jerusalem will be sacred to Me, the LORD of the Heavens. People who come with sacrifices to the temple can use any of the pots to cook their sacrifices. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} There'll be no more merchants trading in My house, the LORD of the Heavens."

MALACHI

Key Word: Messenger (Malachi 3:1)

Key Verse: "Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts" (3:1).

Theme: The name Malachi means "my messenger." Malachi speaks for the Lord who calls him, "My messenger" (3:1). He is also called, "the Messenger of the Lord of hosts" (2:7). The emphasis of this book is on the message, and not the messenger, that is, Malachi. Therefore, 47 of the 55 verses are personal messages from the Lord. The Lord has always loved Israel in spite of her $\sin(s)$. He will still love Israel, and will always love Israel in the future. But Israel has not honored the Lord as a child should honor its father, or a slave should honor its master. Israel's \sin —dishonest worship and deceitful rituals.

Malachi emphasizes giving God the best of everything in worship. This principle is still true. Lord, I give You my whole heart. Pry open my hands from holding tightly to this world. Fix my grip on You. Amen.

Malachi I The LORD Loves His People

Malachi. And this is the message the LORD gave me for Israel.

1 m²"I've loved you deeply," I say. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} But you answer, "How have You loved me?" {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} I reply, "I showed you My love by loving your ancestor Jacob, instead of Esau, Jacob's older brother." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

Lord, thank You for Your love to me. Thank You for all You've done for me. You've given me a good conscience to know right and wrong. You've given me the Scriptures to guide me. You've given Jesus Christ to die for my sins. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} Thank You for everything. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} Amen.

³"I rejected Esau and I destroyed Esau's mountains and turned his land into a desert for wild dogs."

This chapter tells how God "hated Esau" (KJV), but wasn't it Esau who first rejected the spiritual birthright, that is, the opportunity to be the "priest" of the family and intercede for family members (Gen. 25:26-34)? Is God's hatred to Esau a reaction of Esau's rejection? Remember, "Esau despised his birthright" (Gen. 25:34). So Esau did more than turn his back on God, he hated God. Lord, I love You, and all the truths of Your salvation. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:10} I do not understand how anyone could despise You or Your offer of salvation. But they do! I will pray for them. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} Amen.

4"If Esau's descendants say, 'We'll rebuild the ruins,' then I, the LORD of the Heavens will say, 'They may try to rebuild, but I'll destroy them again. Their country will be called The Land of Wickedness, and their people will be called Those with Whom the LORD Is Angry. 5When you see this destruction, you'll say "Truly, the LORD's power reaches beyond our borders." {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5}

6"I, the LORD of the Heavens say to the priests, 'A son honors his father and a servant respects his master. I'm your father and master, so why don't you respect Me? You priests despise Me. But you ask, "How have we ever despised You?" "You've despised Me by offering defiled food on

My altar.' And you say, 'the LORD's altar deserves no respect.' 8Isn't it wrong to offer blind animals as sacrifices? And to offer crippled and diseased animals? If you offer gifts like this to your governor, he certainly won't be pleased. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

9"You ask Me to be merciful to you. But why should I when you bring that kind of offering? 10I wish one of your priests would lock the temple doors so these worthless sacrifices could not be offered. I'm not at all pleased with you and I, the LORD of the Heavens, refuse to accept any more of your offerings. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} 11My name is honored by other nations all day long. They offer sweet incense and offerings to honor Me. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} My reputation is great among the nations," {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} says the LORD of the Heavens. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} 12"But you, Israel, insult Me {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} by bringing worthless sacrifices and saying that it's okay to defile My table. 13You say, 'It's too difficult to serve the LORD,' and you turn up your nose at My commands," says the LORD of the Heavens. "You bring stolen animals and those that are crippled or sick. Should I accept these? ¹⁴Cursed is the man who promises to bring a fine ram from his flock, but then offers a sick animal to Me. I'm a great King," says the LORD of the Heavens, "and I'm worshiped by many nations." {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7}

Lord, I will give You the best of everything I have. You can have my money, my belongings, everything. I give my time, talent and testimony. Use everything I offer to You. Amen.

Malachi 2 The LORD Commands the Priests

¹"Listen, you priests. This message is for you from Me. ²If you don't listen and determine to honor Me, {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} the LORD of the Heavens, I'll bring a curse on you. I'll curse even the blessings you receive. In fact I've already done this because you haven't taken My warnings seriously. 3I'll punish your descendants {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} and rub your faces in the manure from your animal sacrifices. Then I'll add you to the dung pile. 4Then you'll know that I sent you this warning {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} so My agreement with Levi may continue," {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} says the LORD of the Heavens. 5"I gave Levi life and peace; and he reverenced Me {543 Worthy-Praying, Rev. 4:11} and stood amazed at My reputation. 6The Levites taught the truth about Me. They didn't lie or cheat, and they walked with Me, living upright lives and turning from sin. ⁷The priests should guard knowledge so My people will learn My laws. The priests are the messengers of Me, the LORD of the Heavens. 8But you priests have turned from My paths, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and you've caused many to fall into sin. You've corrupted the agreement I made with Levi," says the LORD of the Heavens. 9"So I caused everyone to hate you {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} because you disobeyed Me and have been partial to people who've disobeyed Me.

10"We are all children of the same God, and we are all created by the same God. Why then are you faithless to each other by violating the agreement God made with your ancestors? 11Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem have all defiled the temple {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} by marrying women who worship idols. 12I'll cut off any man in Israel who does this {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and yet brings an offering to Me, the LORD of the Heavens. ¹³ Also you cry and weep at My altar {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} because I refuse to accept your offerings. {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} 14You ask why I'm not pleased with you. It's because I witnessed the vows you and your wife made to each other on your wedding day. But you were not faithful to her, the wife you promised to care for. ¹⁵I made the two of you one person in body and spirit. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} And I want godly offspring from your union. So guard yourself, and be faithful to your wife.

¹⁶"I, the LORD, the God of Israel, hate divorce. Divorce is being very cruel to your wife. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} So guard yourself and be loyal to your wife. ¹⁷You have worn Me out with your words. And yet you ask, 'How have we worn You out?' {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} You have done so by saying I'm pleased with evil everyone does and by saying that I won't punish injustice." {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24}

Lord, You don't want me to question, "Why?" You want me to obey Your principles and commands. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} Lord, when my old flesh creeps out and I answer, "Why?," forgive my ignorance and sin. Open my blind eyes to Your commands. Give me a good heart to obey You without asking, "Why?"

Malachi 3 Judgment Is Coming

1"I'll send My messengers who'll prepare the way for Me. Quickly the one you are looking for will come to My temple {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} and bring you great joy. Yes, the messenger you are looking for is coming," says the LORD of the Heavens. 2"But when He appears, who can stand up to Him? He'll be like a furnace that purifies silver {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} or like strong soap that whitens clothes. 3He'll purify the Levites like refining gold or silver, watching as the dross is burned away. Then they can again offer sacrifices I'll find acceptable. 4I'll accept these offerings the people of Judah and Jerusalem bring to Me, as I did before. 5I'll put you on trial, and I'll testify against you who practice witchcraft and you adulterers and liars.

I'll also testify against people who cheat their hired hands, who take advantage of widows and orphans, and who don't give justice to strangers, {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} and who don't reverence Me," says the LORD of the Heavens. 6"I the LORD do not change. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} That's why I haven't destroyed you, O descendants of Jacob, ⁷even though you have not obeyed Me or kept My commands. If you return to Me, I'll return to you," says the LORD of the Heavens. "But you ask, 'How can we return?' {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 8I answered, 'Will a man rob God? No, but yet you have robbed Me.' Then you ask, 'When did we ever rob You?' {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} You robbed Me of the 10 percent and the offerings you owe Me. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} 9That's why the whole nation is under My curse. ¹⁰Bring the entire 10 percent {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} into the temple storehouse so there'll be enough food there. If you do, I'll open the windows of heaven and pour blessing after blessing on you." {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV}

In this chapter, God tells us to "put Me on the spot." God wants us to obey Him, and when we put God to the test, He will open the windows of heaven. {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} Lord, I will accept Your challenge, I will put You on the spot. I will give financially to You. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} But Lord, I'm not looking for financial reward. I want heaven's spiritual blessings to be poured out on my life. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} Lord, it's good to stand under the spout when You start pouring out blessings. Amen.

11"I'll keep locusts from destroying your crops and your vineyards," says the LORD of the Heavens. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} 12"And all the nations will call you blessed and will talk of your wonderful land," says the LORD of the Heavens. ¹³"You've said terrible things about Me," says the LORD. {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} 14"But you say, 'What have we said that we shouldn't have said?' You have said it's foolish to serve God. What good does it do to obey His laws and to sorrow and mourn for your sins? {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8 ¹⁵Proud people are happy, and sinners prosper. In fact, people who challenge God to punish them go free of harm. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

16"Those who reverence Me spoke of Me to each other, and so I had their names written in a Book of Remembrance. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ¹⁷You are precious to Me like jewels," says the LORD of the Heavens. "I'll protect you {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} just as a man protects his obedient son. ¹⁸Then you'll see the difference between those who obey Me and those who don't."

The phrase "windows of heaven" (v. 10) is a revival term. {408 Revival-Prayer, Ps. 85:6} Revival is "God pouring out His presence on His people." It's described as "God's atmospheric presence." It's the presence of God working among His people, like on certain days one can feel moisture in the atmosphere, before it starts raining. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} Lord, I'm standing outside, waiting for the rain of Your blessing. Rain on me. Lord, I'm waiting... praying... and yielded. I want to feel Your presence in my life. Rain, Lord... rain. Amen.

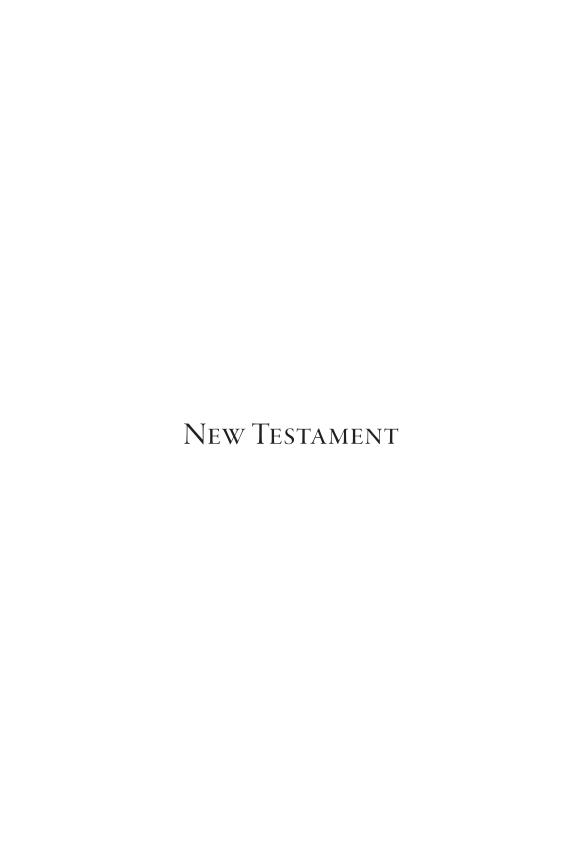

Malachi 4 The Day of the LORD Is Coming

1"The day of judgment is coming, burning like a furnace that will burn up the proud and wicked like straw. And that will be consumed like the branches and roots of a tree," says the LORD of the Heavens. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 2"For you who reverence My name, righteousness will be as prevalent as the sun. The restorative wings (rays) of the sun picture the amazing power of righteousness. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} And you'll be free, jumping around like calves let out to pasture. ³Then you'll tread on the wicked like they're ashes under your feet," says the LORD of the Heavens. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 4"Be sure to obey the laws I gave for you through My servant Moses on Mount Horeb (Sinai). {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

come and destroy their land with a curse." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

The last word in the Old Testament is "curse." The law was given in the Old Testament and no one could keep the law, therefore we all are under the curse of failure and punishment. But the New Testament promises grace, Jesus Christ is coming. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth come by Jesus Christ" (John 1:17). Lord, I don't want a curse, but that's what I deserve for not keeping the law. Lord, I want Your grace, I need it to go to heaven. Jesus, I need Your grace for forgiveness. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} Thank You for heaven and eternity. Thank You for fellowship with You. I worship You as my Lord and Savior. Amen.

MATTHEW*

Key Word: King (Matthew 2:2, NKJV)

Key Verse: "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him" (Matt. 2:2).

Theme: Matthew wrote to show Jesus as the King of Israel who fulfilled the Old Testament predictions of the coming King of Israel as demonstrated by His lineage (Matt. 1:1-18), His birth in Bethlehem, and worshiped by wise men as a King. Matthew described the forerunner of the King—John the Baptizer—the sermons (speeches) of the King, the ministry of the King and Israel's rejection of her King. In His first coming, Jesus didn't come to sit on a throne in Jerusalem, but to die for the sins of the world. Jesus wanted to sit on the throne of His follower's hearts and rule from the inside out.

When reading Matthew, be wise like the wise men who asked, "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews?" (2:2). When you discover Jesus, follow the example of the wise men and "worship Him" (2:2). Then "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (6:33) and let the influence of Jesus—the King of your heart—rule your life and influence your world. Lord, come sit on the throne of my heart and rule my life. I want to be Your servant. Amen.

Matthew 1 An Angel Speaks to Joseph is the record of the genealogy of Jesus Christ who was the descendant of both David and Abraham: {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ²Abraham was the father of Isaac, who was the father of Jacob, who was the father of Judah and his brothers, ³who was the father of Perez and Zerah (whose mother was Tamar). Perez was the father of Hezron, ⁴who was the father of Ram, who was the father of Amminadab, who was the father of Nahshon, who was the father of Salmon, ⁵who was the father of Boaz (whose mother was Rahab). Boaz was the father of Obed (whose mother was Ruth), and Obed was the father of Jesse, ⁶who was the father of King David, who was the father of Solomon (whose mother was Uriah's wife). 7Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, who was the father of Abijah, who was the father of Asa, 8who was the father of Jehoshaphat, who was the father of Joram, who was the father of Uzziah, 9who was the father of Jotham, who was the father of Ahaz, who was the father of Hezekiah, 10 who was the father of Manasseh, who was the father of Amon, who was the father of Josiah, 11who was the father of Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the Babylon captivity. ¹²After the Babylonian captivity Jeconiah was the father of Shealtiel, who was the father of Zerubbabel, ¹³who was the father of Abiud, who was the father of Eliakim, who was the father of Azor, 14who was the father of Zadoc, who was the father of Akim, who was the father of Eliud, 15who was the father of Eleazar, who was the father of Matthan, who was the father of Jacob, who was the father of Joseph, ¹⁶who was the husband of Mary, who gave birth to Jesus called Christ. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁷The genealogy of Jesus Christ is traced for fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen generations from David to the captivity of Babylon, and fourteen generations from the deportation to Christ. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14}

His Birth in Human History

¹⁸The birth of Jesus Christ took place this way. When Mary was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was discovered to be pregnant by the Holy Spirit. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude

20} ¹⁹Joseph, her future husband, was a good man and not wanting to see her put to shame, planned to divorce her quietly. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ²⁰But while he was thinking this over, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife! She has conceived a Son through the Holy Spirit, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ²¹and she will give birth to a son, whom you will call Jesus ('the Savior') for it is He who will save His people from their sins."

Lord, the greatest event in history was the coming of Jesus Christ to live among people. The greatest event in my life was when Jesus came to live in my heart. Amen.

²²All this happened to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet, ²³"Behold, a virgin shall conceive and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which means 'God with us.'" {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ²⁴When Joseph woke up he did what the angel had told him. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} He took Mary as his wife ²⁵but had no physical relations with her until she had given birth to a son. Then he called His name Jesus. {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13}

We did not choose our parents, God did. Just as God sovereignly chose the parents for Jesus, He also has chosen our parents. What should be our prayer attitude toward our parents: (1) thank God for life, and the sacrifices made for us by our parents; (2) don't complain or make excuses about our childhood difficulties or deficiencies; (3) learn the lessons God wants to teach us from our parents; (4) pray for God to use us in our present situation. Lord, I thank You for my human life with all its strengths and limitations. I praise You for my development to this hour. Be glorified in my body and life. Amen.

Matthew 2 The Wise Men Visit the Child Jesus

¹After Jesus was born in Bethlehem, wise men-astrologists-came from the East {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ²looking for the baby that is born King of the Jews. They told King Herod that they saw His star in the East and followed it so they could worship the baby. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} 3King Herod was disturbed at this news because the Roman Senate had declared him King of the Jews. ⁴Herod assembled Jewish leaders to find out where the prophets predicted the Deliverer would be born. ⁵They quoted the Scripture, 6"You, Bethlehem in Judah, are not the least important town because the Deliverer will come from You who will rule the people of Israel." {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁷Herod met privately with the wise men to find out exactly when the star appeared. {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} ⁸Herod then sent the wise men to search for the baby, and report back to him so he could also worship Him, he said deceptively. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} The wise men started toward Bethlehem and the Star appeared again and led them, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2) stopping where the child was. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁰When they saw the star again, they were very happy. ¹¹Going into the house, they saw the child with His mother and falling to their knees, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} they gave Him their gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹²The wise men were warned in a dream not to return to Herod, so they went home a different way. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6}

Lord, I worship You as did the wise men. As they gave You earthly wealth, I also surrender all my earthly goods to Your use but most importantly, I give You my heart. Amen.

Slaughter of Babies in Bethlehem

¹³After the wise men left Mary and the child, the angel of the Lord spoke to Joseph in a dream, {128 Dream-Motivated Prayer, Hab. 2:2-4} "Get the child and His mother and escape to Egypt. King Herod will try to kill Him; {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} stay there until I tell you to come back." ¹⁴Joseph immediately took the child and His mother and left for Egypt. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁵Then the prophecy of the Lord was fulfilled, "I will call my Son out of Egypt." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Joseph would not have known of danger if the angel had not warned him. Today we face all kinds of danger—known and unknown—from those who would intentionally harm us to accidents; from spiritual dangers to toxic dangers. Lord, protect me when I am ignorant of danger, and when I face threatening situations. Protect me by my guardian angel, just as You protected Joseph and his family. Amen.

¹⁶When Herod realized the wise men deceived him, he sent soldiers to Bethlehem to kill every child who was two years old or younger. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁷Then, the prophecy of Jeremiah was fulfilled, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ¹⁸"Screams and mourning were heard in Ramah; Rachel was sobbing for her children and she would not be comforted because they no longer lived." {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

Jesus' Exile in Egypt

¹⁹The Lord sent an angel to Joseph after Herod died, {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁰telling him to return to the land of Israel because "Those who tried to kill Jesus are now dead." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²¹So Joseph took the child and Mary and headed toward the land of Israel. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Then Joseph heard that Archelaus was now king so he was afraid to go to Bethlehem. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} So, the Lord spoke to Joseph in a dream telling him to go back to

Galilee and his home in Nazareth. ²³Then the prophecy was fulfilled, "He [Jesus] shall be called a Nazarene." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Heavenly Father, just as the wise men searched for Jesus to worship Him, so I search to know Jesus to worship Him according to the worship He deserves. Amen.

Matthew 3 John the Baptizer Begins Preaching

¹The Word of God came to John the Baptizer and he went through all Judea ²preaching baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³John quoted the Book of Isaiah proclaiming, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, make ready the way for the Lord, make straight paths for Him." {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ⁴John had a coat woven of camel hair, and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and honey. ⁵Many in Jerusalem and Judea, and the area around the Jordan, heard about him ⁶and went to be baptized by him, confessing their sins.

⁷When John saw the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to hear him, he said, "You are snakes...who warned you to escape the coming wrath? {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁸Show good fruit, repent. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁹Do not think you can escape judgment just because you are Abraham's children. God can make children of Abraham from these stones in the desert. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} 10 Every tree that doesn't grow good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire; {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} the axe is ready to cut down your tree." 11The crowd cried out, "What must we do?" Everyone anticipated their Deliverer would soon appear, and many thought John was the Messiah. John answered them, "I only baptize with water but the One following me will baptize with fire and with the Holy Spirit. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} I am not worthy to unloose His sandal straps. 12The One following me will separate real believers (who are represented by good grain) from chaff (representing false believers). He will store the good grain in His barns, but will burn the chaff in eternal fire." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

John the Baptizer preached, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" (Matt. 3:2). The word "repent" comes from metanoia, which means "to change the mind." True repentance begins inwardly. Legalism is only the outward expression of repentance. Lord, I repent of all sin, both inwardly and outwardly. But my change is not enough; come fill me, Holy Spirit, and transform my inward desires. Amen.

John Baptizes Jesus

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. ¹⁴But John tried to prevent Him. "You need to baptize me," the Baptizer said. "Why do You come to me?" {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ¹⁵But Jesus replied, "It is the right thing to do. This will meet all the law's demands—let it be done now." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁶Then John agreed to baptize Him. Jesus came up out of the water, and suddenly the heavens opened and He saw the Spirit of God coming down like a dove and resting on Him. ¹⁷A voice spoke out of heaven saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17}

The early church said to understand the Trinity, go to the Jordan River. Watch Jesus the Son of God being baptized, see God the Holy Spirit come on Him as a dove, and listen to the voice of God the Father saying, "You are My beloved Son; in You I am well pleased" (Luke 3:22). {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} Father, I am well pleased with Jesus as You are. Holy Spirit, come on me as You came on Jesus, and help me glorify Jesus in all I do. Amen.

Matthew 4 The Temptation of Jesus

¹Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert, to be tempted by the devil. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} ²After fasting for forty days and nights He was hungry. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ³"If you are the Son of God," said the tempter, "tell these stones to turn into bread." {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer,

Rom. 1:16} ⁴Jesus answered, "The Scripture says, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes out of the mouth of God." {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14}

⁵Then the devil took Him to the holy city, and set Him on the highest pinnacle of the temple. ⁶"If You are the Son of God," he said, "jump down. For the Scripture says, 'He shall give His angels charge over you and on their hands they shall lift you up, lest you smash your foot against a stone." {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ⁷Jesus answered, "And the Scripture also says, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God." {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12}

⁸Again the devil took Him to a high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹"I will give you these kingdoms," he said to Jesus, "if You will fall down and worship me." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ¹⁰"Get out of here, satan!" replied Jesus. "The Scripture says, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and Him only shall you serve." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹¹Then the devil left Him alone, and angels came to Him to strengthen Him. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13}

¹²Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, He went back to Galilee. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ¹³He left Nazareth and came to live in Capernaum, a lakeside town in the Zebulun territory. ¹⁴In this way Isaiah's prophecy came true: ¹⁵"Light shall come to the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, beyond Jordan, beside the lake of Galilee of the Gentiles; ¹⁶the people who sit in darkness will see a great light, and to them who sit in the shadow of death, light will spring up." {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹⁷From that time Jesus began preaching saying, "Repent, change your hearts and minds, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2}

Jesus Calls Fishermen

¹⁸As Jesus was walking by the Sea of Galilee he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, casting their net into the water. They were fishermen. {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} ¹⁹So Jesus said to them, "Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men!" {391 Race-Preparation Prayer, Heb. 12:1} ²⁰Immediately they left their nets and followed Jesus. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ²¹Then Jesus went farther and saw two more fishermen, also brothers, James and John, in the boat with their father Zebedee mending their nets, and He called them. ²²Immediately they left the boat, and their father, and followed Jesus. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, when You call me, I will drop what I'm doing and follow You just as the disciples left their nets. I want to be a fisher of men. Amen.

²³Jesus now traveled through all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and disability among the people. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ²⁴His reputation spread throughout the area and people brought to Jesus those who were sick, suffering from all kinds of disease, including the demon-possessed and the paralyzed. He healed them all, {218 Help the Oppressed by Prayer, Ps. 10:8-9} ²⁵and was followed by large crowds from Galilee, Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea, and from beyond the Jordan River. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19}

Lord, I will learn the Scriptures so I can use them to protect me when temptations come, just as Jesus used the Scriptures to turn back temptations. Help me understand the Scriptures, and give me wisdom in how to apply them when I'm tempted. Amen.

Matthew 5 The Sermon on the Mount

This sermon is turned into a prayer so you may pray the Scripture.

¹When Jesus saw the multitudes following Him, He went to the top of a hill to teach His disciples and the multitudes. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ²Lord, thank You for blessing me: ³When I am poor in spirit and totally dependent on You, the kingdom of heaven is mine. {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} ⁴When I mourn—broken over sin in my life—You will give me consolation. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom.

2:4} 5When I am meek—willing to set aside my rights—You will give me possession of the earth. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} 6When I hunger and thirst after righteousness—having a desire for outward holiness—I will be satisfied by Your presence. {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} 7When I am merciful looking on others-mercy will be shown to me. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} 8When I am pure—desiring inward holiness—then I shall see You. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 9When I am a peacemaker—building relationship in others—I will be called a child of God. {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ¹⁰When I am persecuted for righteousness' sake-suffering for You-mine will be the kingdom of heaven. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 11When I am persecuted falsely—because of my loyalty to the person of Christ—12I will accept it as a rich reward because this is what the enemies of God did to the prophets and to Jesus Christ. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

The word "happy" in this Bible is translated "blessed" as in most versions of the Bible. It comes from the prayer of greeting, "God bless you." Happiness is a result of God's blessing in our lives. So when God blesses our life, we end up being happy. Lord, I will seek You with all of my heart and make You first in my life, then I'll experience true happiness. Amen.

¹³Lord, I want to be like the salt of the earth so I can make people thirsty for Jesus. If I lose my ability to influence people, I might as well be thrown away like salt that has lost its saltiness. {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7}

Lord, make me salt that creates a thirst for You in the unsaved. Amen.

¹⁴I want to be a light to the world so people will know how to find their way to Jesus. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹⁵People don't put a candle under a bucket; they put it in a candle-holder so it can light a whole room. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ¹⁶Let my light shine to all people so they can see Your works through me and glorify the Father in heaven.

¹⁷Lord, I know Jesus didn't come to do away with the teachings of the Old Testament but to fulfill the prophecies about Him. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ¹⁸I know not one dot and comma can be changed in the Old Testament Scriptures; everything it promises will come to pass just the way it was predicted. ¹⁹Any one who breaks one commandment of the law, or teaches people to break them, will be last in the kingdom. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} When I keep or teach others to keep the commands, I will be great in the kingdom. {49 Blind-Obedience Prayer, Ps. 42:9}

²⁰I accept Your imputed righteousness to me which is greater than the self-righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter

3:12} ²¹I know You said whoever kills will be in danger of eternal judgment. ²²May I never become so angry with anyone that I condemn them to hell {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} because You said I would be in danger of going to hell myself. {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5} ²³As I begin to pray and remember someone who is mad at me, ²⁴I will stop praying and go reconcile myself with that offended person, and then I will pray to You. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ²⁵I will come to terms with those who sue me before I meet them in court, lest the judge agrees with my opponent and they put me in jail ²⁶or make me pay the full cost. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

²⁷Lord, I know You said for us not to commit adultery; {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ²⁸I won't even have impure intentions, lest I commit adultery in my heart. {433 Sexual-Defense Praying, Prov. 7:18} ²⁹If anything entices me to sin, I will rid it from my life. It's best for me to get rid of a stumbling block than to lose my testimony or life. If part of my body is a snare to me, I will ignore it, as though it's not there. ³⁰It's best to lose the use of part of my body than to destroy my whole body and perhaps even my soul. {430 Separation-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17}

Lord, sin begins in the heart; transform my heart to seek righteousness. Amen.

³¹Jesus quoted the Old Testament that a notice of divorce must be given before putting away a spouse. ³²Then Jesus said, "If you put away a wife for any reason, other than unfaithfulness, both you and she have become adulterers." {427 Self-Control Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:5}

³³Jesus again quoted the Old Testament. "You shall not swear falsely, but shall do what you swear as a commitment to the Lord." ³⁴Then Jesus added, "But I say to you, do not swear at all; neither by heaven, or God's throne, ³⁵nor by the earth for it is God's footstool, nor by Jerusalem because it is God's city. ³⁶Don't swear by anything because you can't make one hair black or white." {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} ³⁷Jesus commanded us to tell people what we will do, and we should do what we say; our word of promise should be enough. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22}

Lord, I pledge to do Your will; give me strength to do it and tenacity to reject any temptation to be otherwise. Amen.

³⁸Jesus quoted the ancients, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth," ³⁹but that principle is not our standard. Jesus also said don't take revenge; if someone hits you on the right cheek, offer them the left cheek. {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ⁴⁰If a man asks to take away your coat, give him your overcoat also. ⁴¹If anyone orders you to go one mile, go two miles with him. ⁴²If anyone wants to borrow something, do not turn that person down. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12}

⁴³Lord, You said to love my enemies. ⁴⁴I will do good to those who hate me, {291

Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} bless those who hate me, and pray for those who despitefully use me. 45I will treat them as I want to be treated so that I will be accepted of my heavenly Father, because He made the sun rise on evil people and good people, and sends rain on the evil and the good. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 46Jesus said, "If you love only those who love you, there is no spiritual reward in that; even sinners love those who love them," {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} 47I will love my enemies and do good things to those who hate me, ⁴⁸because You said, "I would receive a rich reward, and should show everyone that I am a child of the Most High." {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9}

Lord, it's hard to love some people who seem so evil; give me Your eyes to see them as You see them, and Your love to love them as You love them. Amen.

$Mat thew \, 6 \$ Giving, Praying, Fasting, Trusting

¹Lord, I will not practice my piety before people, to be "holy" in their eyes, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} because You will not reward it. ²I won't show off when I give money because that would be hypocritical; recognition is the only reward a hypocrite gets. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ³When I give my money secretly, I won't let my left hand know what my right hand is doing. ⁴Lord,

You know all intentions, and see all gifts, and will reward me if I give humbly and honestly. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24}

⁵Lord, I will not be like the hypocrites when I pray, because they love to pray before people to get attention and that's all the reward they'll get. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 6I will go to my prayer closet where no one can see or hear me, then I'll pray to You, my Father, in secret. Then You'll see my sincerity in private and reward me openly. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} 7I'll not rattle off long prayers like the unsaved who think they'll be heard because they pray a long time. 8I realize You know everything in my heart and my needs before I pray. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 9Lord, when I pray, I'll follow this pattern: {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2} "My Father in heaven, may Your name be holy, {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} in my life on earth as Your name is holy in heaven. 10 May Your kingdom come in my life on earth {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} as Your kingdom rules in heaven. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} May Your will be done in my life on earth as Your will is done in heaven. 11Give me daily bread for this day. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 12And forgive the consequences of my sin, as I forgive the sins of those who hurt me. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ¹³Do not let me be tempted to do evil {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} and protect me from the evil one,

{387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} for You have the ability to answer this prayer. Let Your kingdom rule my life, and may You get credit when these prayers are answered."

Lord, I will pray the Lord's Prayer each day because it embraces every petition I must make to You, and it leaves out nothing that is imperative to my prayer relationship with You. {288 Lord's-Prayer, Matt. 6:9-13} Amen.

¹⁴Lord, if I forgive the failings of others, You will forgive my faults. ¹⁵But if I refuse to forgive others You will not forgive me. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

¹⁶Lord, I will not fast with an outward "religious" face {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} for that is just to get attention from others; {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} the "attention" they get is their reward. ¹⁷I will dress my normal way ¹⁸when I fast so no one will know I'm fasting. My fast will be a secret between You and me and You will reward me with the answers I seek. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

Fasting is a spiritual discipline that strengthens our inner person to pray more effectively, just as physical discipline strengthens our bodies. Jesus said, "When you fast...," suggesting it is a non-required discipline. Remember, God does not answer our prayers based on what food enters the body, but what comes out of our hearts. We fast to "hunger and thirst after righteousness" (Matt. 5:6).

Lord, I withhold food so I can focus on Jesus the Bread of Life (John 6:32) and the water of satisfaction (John 7:38-39). I fast to know You more intimately, and to get answers to prayer. Amen.

¹⁹Lord, I'll not pile up wealth on earth where inflation or corruption will destroy it. 20I'll deposit my wealth in Your heavenly bank, where nothing can destroy it. ²¹Therefore I will put my treasure where I make a heart commitment. ²²Lord, may I see things clearly, give me light and understanding in my heart because 23when my eye is clouded with lust and evil thoughts, my heart will be blinded by darkness; I'll not understand or seek spiritual things. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²⁴I'll not serve two masters—God and money—because I'll naturally love one and reject the other. So Lord, what must I do? {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ²⁵I won't worry about clothes, entertainment, or food. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} My life is far more important than what I eat or wear. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²⁶The birds will be my example; they don't worry about sowing, reaping, or eating food. Lord, I'm more important to You than birds. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²⁷I know worry will not give me anything I need. ²⁸I'll let the lilies of the field be my example for clothing; they don't worry about their appearance.

²⁹Yet Solomon in all his glory was not as beautiful as the lilies. ³⁰So Lord, since You wonderfully care for the flowers that are here today, and gone tomorrow, I know You can take care of me. Lord, forgive me when I have so little faith, about the necessities of life. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³¹Lord, I'll not worry about having enough food and clothing because You know I need them; ³²these are the things unsaved people worry about. ³³I'll seek first Your kingdom and righteousness, then all these things will be added to me. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

Lord, come sit on the throne of my heart to rule all I say and do. I want the abundant life that comes when You control a person. Amen.

³⁴I'll not be anxious about tomorrow since You'll take care of tomorrow's needs; I'll live one day at a time. {380 Priority-Faith Praying, Matt. 6:33}

Since prayer is being related to God, we are asking God (1) to help us establish a good relationship with Him; (2) to keep the relationship healthy; (3) to deepen the relationship; (4) to keep away distractions and temptations that would destroy our relationship with Him. Lord, I confess my need for You, and if I can't know You; nothing in life is meaningful. Help me stay close to You because You know my weaknesses. Deepen my fellowship with You so I can be used by You. Amen.

Matthew 7 Relationship to Others

¹Lord, I'll not criticize others, so they won't criticize me, {385 Propitiation Intercession-Prayer, 1 John 2:2} 2because the way I treat others is the way they'll treat me. What I give to others is what they'll give me, so Lord, make me a gracious giver. ³Lord, I'll not criticize the small trash in another's eye, {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} when my eye is full of garbage. 4I can't say, "Let me clean out your eye" when my eye is full of dirt and filth. 5I must first cleanse my eyes before I can help anyone else see more clearly. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 6Lord, I will not give beautiful pearls to pigs, they will stomp them into the mud and then they will turn to attack me, so I'll not give "holy things" to evil people. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16}

⁷Lord, I will ask in prayer for the things You can do, for You answer those who ask. I will seek for the things I need, {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} 8 for You supply those who seek. When a door is closed for the things I need, I will constantly knock, for You will open and allow me to find. {252 Intermittent-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:17} 9I would never give anyone a stone when he needs bread to eat. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ¹⁰I would never give anyone a snake when he asks for a fish to eat. 11Since hardhearted people give good things to their children, then I know that You the heavenly Father will give good gifts to Your children when they ask. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7}

There are reasons why we should pray continually about a request; (1) to demonstrate our faith and sincerity to God; (2) to search our hearts for any sin that would hinder our request; (3) for circumstances to change or evolve where our request could be filled; (4) to become more intimate with God so our request could be heard and answered; and (5) for God to change our desires to a request that is within His will. Lord, I will keep praying until the answer comes. I believe You will answer this request, so I will continue praying until You answer. Give me faith to trust You for bigger and better things. Amen.

¹²Lord, I will do good things for other people, just as I want them to do good things for me. {246 Integrity-Praying, Ps. 101:2} ¹³Lord, I will enter Your presence by the narrow door since the road to hell is wide and inviting, and most of the crowd takes this road. ¹⁴But the door to Your presence is small and the path to eternal life is narrow. So only a few find it. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

¹⁵Lord, I will watch out for false preachers disguised as sheep, because they are ravenous wolves who will eat up young Christians. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁶I can tell good people by their fruit just as I can tell the difference between good fruit and weeds, so false preachers are known by their evil deeds. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹⁷Good trees grow good fruit, and evil trees grow evil fruit. ¹⁸A good tree can't grow bad fruit, and an evil tree can't grow good fruit. ¹⁹A tree that produces bad fruit is cut down and thrown in the fire. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁰So everyone is known by his fruit.

²¹Lord, those who cry publicly, "Lord, Lord," will not enter the kingdom of heaven. {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} But those who do Your will will be able to enter Your presence. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²²Others will cry out, "Lord, Lord, I preached in Your name and cast out demons and did miracles." ²³Then You'll say to them, "I never knew you. Get out of My sight." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ²⁴Lord, those who listen to this sermon and obey Your words, will be like a sensible man who builds his house on a rock foundation. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 25 The rains came, floods swirled, and the wind blew on this house but it didn't fall, because it was founded on a rock. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ²⁶But those who hear this sermon and reject Your words, are like a stupid man who built his house on sand. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} ²⁷The rains came, floods rose, and gale winds blew, and it collapsed with a mighty crash. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

²⁸When Jesus finished this sermon, the people were amazed at its content {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²⁹because Jesus taught them with authority not like the scribes and other religious preachers.

People from all religions pray, just as do those in Christian cults. Their prayers will not be heard if they don't come to the Father through Jesus Christ. No amount of sincerity, persistence, or any human persuasion will be the basis for their prayers. The only prayer God will answer is when they come to the Father through Jesus Christ when they pray, "God be merciful to me a sinner" (Luke 18:13). Lord, thank You for receiving all who come to You through Jesus Christ. I have accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Savior, so I come confidently to You through Jesus my Intercessor (1 Tim. 2:5). Amen.

Matthew 8 Miracles of Jesus

¹Large crowds followed Jesus when He came down from the hillside. ²A leper came and knelt in front of Jesus. "Sir," he said, "if You will, You can make me clean." {80 Conditional-Praying, Matt. 8:2} ³Jesus stretched out His hand and placed it on the leper saying, "Of course I will. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} Be clean!" And immediately he was healed of the leprosy. ⁴"Say nothing to anyone," {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} Jesus told him. "Go show yourself to the priest and make the offering that Moses prescribed."

The leper asked for healing, "If You are willing," (Matt. 8:2). Because we do not know the perfect will of God, we sometimes must pray conditionally, that is, "If You will." Why? (1) Because we are not sure our prayer fits the scriptural requirement for prayer; (2) because we are not sure about our fellowship with God; (3) because of sin in our life; (4) because our lack of faith; (5) because we are not abiding in Christ (John 15:6, 7); (6) because the object of our prayer may not be God's will, or in this case, may not fit into God's priority. Lord, teach me when to pray boldly in faith, and when to pray conditionally. Give me wisdom when I'm not sure what to do; give me faith when mine is weak, give me courage to pray boldly when I should. "Lord, I believe; help my unbelief!" (Mark 9:24). Amen.

⁵Then as Jesus was coming into Capernaum, a centurion approached Him. 6"Sir," he begged, "my servant is in bed at home paralyzed and in terrible pain." {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} 7"I will come heal him," Jesus said. 8The centurion replied, "I'm not important enough for You to come into my house. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} Only give the order and my servant will be healed. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18} ⁹I'm under authority and I have soldiers under me. I can say to one man, 'Go' and I know he'll go, or I can say, 'Come' to another and I know he'll come—or I can say to my slave 'Do this' and he'll do it." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 10When Jesus heard this, He was astonished. He said to those who were following Him, "I have never seen faith like this even in Israel! {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} 11I tell you that many people will come from the east and west and sit with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67;

Matt. 6:9} ¹²while those who should have belonged to the kingdom will be banished to the darkness outside, where there will be tears and gnashing of teeth." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ¹³Then He said to the centurion, "Go home. It will happen as you have believed it would." And his servant was healed at that moment. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23}

Lord, give me faith to believe the things You want to do for me, and give me faith to ask for them in prayer. Amen.

¹⁴Then, on coming into Peter's house, Jesus saw that Peter's mother-in-law had been put to bed with a high fever. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ¹⁵He touched her hand and the fever left her. And then she got up and began to serve them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹⁶When evening came, they brought to Jesus many who were demon-possessed, which he expelled with a word. Jesus healed all who were ill. ¹⁷Thus was fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy, "He took our infirmities and bare our diseases." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord, give me faith to believe You can heal, and answer when I call to You for healing. Help me accept the fact You do not heal everyone, and You do not always heal every affliction. (Trophimus was sick, 2 Tim. 4:20), and Paul wasn't healed (2 Cor. 12:7-10). Amen.

Giving Up Everything

¹⁸When Jesus saw the large crowd, He commanded His disciples to cross over to the other side of the lake. 19But one of the scribes came to Jesus and said, "Master, I will follow You wherever you go." {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ²⁰Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, birds in the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²¹Another of His disciples said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4} ²²But Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8}

Jesus Calms the Storm

²³Jesus went aboard the boat, and His disciples followed Him. ²⁴Then a terrific storm sprang up and the boat was about to sink with the waves. ²⁵Jesus was sleeping soundly and the disciples awakened Him. "Lord, save us!" they cried. "We are about to drown!" ²⁶"Why are you so frightened, O you with little faith?" He replied. Then He got up and rebuked the wind and the waters and there was a great calm. ²⁷The men marveled and kept saying, "What sort of man is this—even the winds and the waves obey Him!"

Lord, when storms enter my life, I will cry out to You for courage and help. Teach me to trust You. Save me in the storms of this life. Amen.

Jesus Heals a Violent Demon-Stricken Man

²⁸When He arrived on the other side at Gadara, He was met by two demon-possessed men who came out from among the tombs. They were so violent that no one came in that area. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} 29"What have You got to do with us, O Son of God?" they screamed. "Have You come to torture us before our time?" 30 There was a large herd of pigs feeding nearby. ³¹So the demons begged Him, "If You cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs!" 32"Go!" {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} Jesus said. And the demons came out and went into the pigs. Suddenly the whole herd stampeded down the steep cliff into the lake and drowned. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 33The herdsmen ran to the town and told the whole story of what happened to the two men who had been demon-possessed. 34Then the whole town came out to meet Jesus, and commanded Him to leave their territory.

Lord, I will follow wherever You lead; give me a willing spirit, courage to endure, and strength to do it. Amen.

Matthew 9 Getting a Friend to Jesus

¹So Jesus got back into the boat and went back across the lake, and came to His own town. ²Some people brought Him a paralytic lying on his bed. {435

Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} When Jesus saw the faith of those who brought him, He said to the paralytic, {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} "Be of good cheer, My son! Your sins are forgiven." ³Immediately some of the scribes thought to themselves, "This man is blaspheming." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ⁴But Jesus knew what they were thinking, and said to them, "Why do you have evil thoughts in your minds? 5Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven' or 'Get up and walk'? But so you will know that the Son of Man has authority to forgive sins"—Jesus spoke to the paralytic, "Get up, pick up your bed and go home." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁷And the man got up and went home. 8When the crowds saw it, they were afraid and praised God for such power. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Lord Jesus, You know my thoughts, just as You knew the religious leaders' thoughts when You were on this earth. Forgive me for any sin or doubt that hides in my heart. Teach me to think Your thoughts. Amen.

The Call to Matthew

⁹Jesus left there and as He passed on, He saw a man called Matthew sitting at his table at the tax-collector's place. "Follow Me!" He said to him and Matthew got up and followed Jesus. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26}

¹⁰Later as Jesus was in a house sitting at the dinner table, many tax collectors and other disreputable people came and sat down with Him and His disciples. ¹¹The Pharisees saw this and said to the disciples, "Why does your master eat His meals with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹²But Jesus heard them and replied, "It is not the well who need a doctor, but those who are sick. ¹³Go and learn what the Scripture means when it says, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.' I did not come to invite the 'righteous' to salvation but 'sinners.'" {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30}

¹⁴Then John's disciples approached Him with a question, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often but Your disciples do not?" {265 John the Baptizer Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:8}

Lord, teach me when to fast and how to fast.

May I fast to know You more intimately.

Amen.

15"Can the wedding guests mourn while they have the bridegroom?" replied Jesus. "The day will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them—they will certainly fast then! {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} 16No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on to an old coat, for the patch will pull away from the coat and the hole will be worse than ever. 17Nor do people put fresh wine into old wineskins—otherwise the skins burst, the wine is spilt, and the skins are ruined. But they put fresh wine into new skins and both are preserved." {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}

The Woman and the 12-Year-Old Girl

¹⁸While He was saying these things to them, an official came up to Jesus and knelt before Him saying, "My daughter has just died. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} Please come and lay Your hand on her and she will live." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 19Jesus arose and followed him with His disciples. ²⁰And on the way a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years came at Him from behind and touched the hem of His cloak. 21"If I can only touch His cloak," she kept saying to herself, "I shall be healed." {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²²But Jesus turned around and saw her. "Be of good cheer, my daughter," He said, "your faith-not your touch—has healed you." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} And the woman was completely cured from that moment. ²³Then when Jesus came into the official's house and saw the flute players and mourners, ²⁴He said, "Depart, the little girl is not dead, but asleep." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} They laughed at Him with scorn. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put out, He took her by the hand, and the girl got up. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁶And this was reported to the whole district. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord Jesus, You were interrupted as You were going to Jairus' house, when You stopped to heal a woman with an issue of blood. Both the woman and Jairus' daughter were important, so teach me the importance of people and give me compassion so I'll know when to let people interrupt me. Amen.

²⁷As Jesus passed on His way, two blind men followed Him, crying out, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!" {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ²⁸And when Jesus had gone inside the house the two came to Him. He asked, "Do you believe I can heal you?" {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} "Yes, Lord," they replied. ²⁹Then He touched their eyes, saying, "So shall it be." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³⁰Then their eyes were opened, but Jesus sternly warned them, "Don't tell anyone." ³¹Yet they went and spread it throughout the whole district. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord, give me faith to believe You for marvelous things. Amen.

³²Later, when Jesus and His disciples were coming out of the town, they brought to Him a dumb man who was demon-possessed. ³³As soon as the demon had been cast out the dumb man began to talk. The crowds were amazed saying, "Never has this ever happened in Israel." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ³⁴But the Pharisees' comment was, "He cast out demons by the power of demons." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

The Twelve Sent Two by Two

³⁵Jesus traveled through the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} and healing all kinds of illness and disability. ³⁶As He saw the crowds coming to Him, He was deeply moved with compassion for them, for they were helpless and lost and like a flock of sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷"The harvest is great," Jesus remarked to His disciples, "but the reapers are few. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ³⁸Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} to send laborers to harvest the fields." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

Lord, give me compassion for hopeless people who need help just as Jesus had compassion on them. Amen.

Matthew 10 Choosing the Twelve

¹Jesus called His twelve disciples to Him, and gave them authority over the demons, so they could cast them out, and so they could cure any disease or sickness. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²Here are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, who was named Peter, and his brother Andrew, James the son of Zebedee and his brother John, ³Philip, and Bartholomew (Nathaniel), Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector, James the son of Alpheus, and Thaddeus (Judas), ⁴Simon the zealot, and Judas Iscariot, who afterward betrayed Him.

⁵Jesus sent these twelve out, after giving them the following challenge. {199 Great

Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} "Do not go to the Gentiles, or to any Samaritan town, 'but rather go to the lost sheep of Israel. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ⁷And as you go continue to preach, 'The kingdom of heaven is near.' {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁸Keep on healing the sick, raising the dead, cleansing lepers, and casting out demons. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} You received so you must give and take no pay." {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12}

Lord, give me an open heart to see needy people, and give me a willing heart to help them. Then open my hands to help them. Amen.

9"Do not accept gold or silver or even copper money and do not take a purse for your journey,10 nor two shirts, nor shoes, nor a staff, for the workman is worthy of his pay. {386 Prosper Bless-Prayer, Deut. 28:1-4} ¹¹Into whatever town or village you go, find some deserving person, and stay at his house until you leave the place. ¹²As you go into his house, bless it, ¹³and if the house should prove deserving, pray for peace on it. 14And whoever will not welcome you, or listen to your words, on leaving that place shake off the dust from your feet. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹⁵I tell you, the punishment in the day of judgment will be easier for Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town. {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} ¹⁶I am sending you out as sheep threatened by wolves. So you must be wise like serpents and harmless like doves. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹⁷Watch out, some men will turn you over to the courts and they will beat you in the synagogues, 18 and you will be brought before governors and kings for My sake. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ¹⁹When they bring you before the courts, you must not worry what you should say, for it will be given you at that hour what you should say. ²⁰Because it is not you who is speaking, but the Spirit of your Father who is speaking through you. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²¹One brother will turn another to be killed, and a father his child, and children will take a stand against their parents, and will have them put to death. ²²And you will be hated by all men because you bear My Name; but whoever endures to the end will be saved. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²³But whenever they persecute you in one town, flee to another. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} For I say you will not go to all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man returns." {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Lord, I know there will be persecution because You predicted it while on this earth. Prepare me mentally for persecution, and use me in suffering to bring glory to You. Amen.

to become like his master. If men have called the head of the house Beelzebub, how much worse names will they give to the members of the family! ²⁶So you must never be afraid of them; for there is nothing covered that will not be uncovered and there is not a secret that will not be revealed. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ²⁷What I speak to you in the dark, proclaim in the light, and what you hear whispered in your ears, shout from the housetops. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁸You must not be afraid of those who kill the body, {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} but can't kill the soul. But rather fear God who can destroy both soul and body in hell. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ²⁹Do not sparrows sell for a penny apiece? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your heavenly Father knowing it. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} 30Even the hairs on your head are numbered by God. ³¹So do not fear; you are worth much more than many sparrows. ³²Therefore everyone who will testify of Me before men {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} I will testify of them before My Father in heaven, ³³but anyone who denies Me before men I will deny him before My Father in heaven."

Lord, I will confess You at all times in all places. I will not be ashamed of You. Amen.

³⁴ Many think I have come to bring peace into the earth. But no, I have come to bring a sword. {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ³⁵For I have come to put a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. ³⁶A man's enemies may be members of his own family. ³⁷Anyone who loves father or mother more than he loves Me is not worthy of Me, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³⁸and anyone worthy of Me must take up his cross and follow Me. {172 Forgetting the Past-Prayer, Phil. 3:10 ff.} ³⁹Anybody who gains only human life will lose heavenly life, and anybody who loses his human life for My sake will gain heavenly life. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

Lord, I love You more than any earthly relative. When I found You, I found life—eternal life—that is satisfying life. Amen.

⁴⁰Whoever welcomes you as My disciple, also welcomes Me, and whoever welcomes Me also welcomes the Father who sent Me. ⁴¹Whoever receives a prophet will receive only the reward of a prophet, and whoever receives an upright man will only receive the reward of an upright man. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ⁴²And I truly say to you, no one who gives a cup of cold water to the least of My disciples will fail to get his reward." {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23}

Matthew 11 Jesus and John the Baptizer

¹When Jesus had finished His sermon to His disciples, He left to teach and preach in their towns. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

The Doubts of John the Baptizer

²Now John was in prison when he heard what Jesus was doing. He sent this message by His disciples: ³"Are you the One who was to come, or should we keep on looking for a different Messiah?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁴Then Jesus answered, "Go tell John what you have heard and seen: ⁵the blind are seeing and the crippled are walking, the lepers are being healed and the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} and the poor are having the good news preached to them. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁶And happy is the man who does not lose faith in Me."

Lord, increase my faith; I want unquestioning allegiance. Amen.

⁷As John's disciples were leaving, Jesus began speaking to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8} A reed that is tossed about by the wind? ⁸If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who dress that way are found in the courts of kings. ⁹What did you really go to see? To see a prophet? {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ¹⁰This is the One of whom the Scripture says, 'Behold! I am sending My messenger before you; He will prepare the road ahead of the Messiah.' ¹¹I solemnly say to you, no one born of women is greater than John the Baptizer, {200 Greater-Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:6} and those who make themselves least important in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹²And from the days of John the Baptizer until now the kingdom of heaven has been attacked by violence, and those who capture it are seizing a precious prize. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹³For until the days of John all the prophets and the law prophesied its coming ¹⁴and if you will listen, John himself is the Elijah who was to come. ¹⁵Let him who has ears use them to listen!" {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord, You said the one who was more humble than John the Baptizer was greater than him. Don't compare me to any other person; just use me. My prayer is that of John the Baptizer, "He must increase, but I must decrease" (John 3:30). Amen.

this age are like? They are like little children sitting in the marketplaces playing their games and singing their songs, {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ¹⁷ We played the wedding march for you, but you did not dance; we sang the funeral dirge, but you did not cry. ¹⁸ For John came neither feasting nor drinking, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and yet they said, 'He has a demon.' ¹⁹ The Son of Man came enjoying eating with others, and they say, 'He is a glutton and a wine-drinker, a friend of tax collectors and notorious sinners!' So what's the conclusion? A wise man is vindicated by his results!" {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

²⁰Then Jesus began to condemn the cities in which His many miracles had been done because they did not repent. 21" Judgment on you, Chorazin! Judgment on you, Bethsaida! {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented in burlap clothing and ashes long ago. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²²Moreover, I tell you, on the day of judgment the punishment will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon than for you! {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? No, you will be thrown to the regions of the dead! For if the miracles done in you had been done in Sodom, that city would have lived until today. ²⁴But I tell you, on the day of judgment the punishment will be easier for the land of Sodom than for you!" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, please forgive and restore our nation. You have poured out blessings and we have forgotten Your provision. May we return to You and be spared the fate of Sodom and Capernaum. Amen.

²⁵At that time Jesus prayed, "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank You for concealing these matters from wise and intelligent men, and for showing them to little children. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²⁶Yes, Father, I thank You that You do Your will. {367

Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ²⁷All the things I do have been entrusted to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son but the Father; and no one but the Son knows the Father. And the Son makes Him known to whom He wills." {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Lord Jesus, I want to know You; I will spend my life learning about You. Amen.

²⁸"Come to Me, all who are tired and carry heavy burdens, {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take My yoke, and learn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. {187 God's Prosperity-Prayer, Gen. 39:2, 3, 21, 23} ³⁰My yoke is easy, and My load is light." {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

We all have heavy loads; they are part of life. Job said, "Yet man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward" (Job 5:7). The good thing is that Jesus knows about our heavy loads and will help us bear them if we bring them to Him by prayer. Lord, I have this problem right now. It is big and it really bothers me. Help me bear this heavy load, and help me solve it, and help me get through it. Amen.

Matthew 12 Debate about the Sabbath

¹As Jesus walked through the wheat fields one Sabbath, His disciples were hungry, {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} so they pulled the heads of wheat and ate them. ²When the Pharisees saw it, they said to Jesus, "Look! Your disciples are doing what the law forbids on the Sabbath!" {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} But Jesus said to them, "Did you ever read what David did when he and his soldiers became hungry? {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14} 4How he went into the house of God and ate the sacred loaves, which was against the law to eat? It was wrong for anyone except the priests. 5Or did you ever read in the law that the priests in the temple break the Sabbath every Sabbath day, yet they are not guilty? {209 Guilty-Blocking Prayer, 1 John 3:21} But something is greater than the temple here! {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 7If you only understood the Scriptures that say, 'It is mercy and not sacrifice that I want, \{365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} you would not have condemned My disciples who are not guilty. 8For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath." {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Lord, I will celebrate Your day—the Lord's day—in the proper way. I will worship You, the Lord of the Sabbath. Amen.

The Shriveled Hand Healed

⁹Leaving there Jesus went into their synagogue. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ¹⁰Now there happened to be a man there with a shriveled hand. And to find something against Jesus, they asked, "Is it legal to cure people on the Sabbath?" {214

Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 11But Jesus said to them, "If any of you has only one sheep and it falls into a ditch on the Sabbath, will you not pull it out? {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹²And how much more is a man worth than a sheep! So it is right to do good on the Sabbath." {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:13 Then Jesus said to the man, "Reach out your hand," and he held it out {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and it was cured. It became like his other hand. {253 Interventional-Prayer, Matt. 17:20} ¹⁴But the Pharisees left and planned to put Jesus to death. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

Lord, I am needy; I stretch out my hand to You. Amen.

Multitudes Healed

¹⁵Because Jesus knew about their plots, He left that area. Many people followed Him, and He cured them all, 16 and charged them not to call attention to Him. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹⁷In this way Jesus fulfilled the saying spoken by the prophet Isaiah, 18"Behold, my Servant whom I have chosen, my Beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased. I will put my Spirit on Him, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} and He will declare a judgment to the pagan. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} 19He will not strive nor challenge anyone; His voice will not be announced in the streets; ²⁰a bruised reed He will not break, a tiny flame He will not put out until He turns

His judgment into victory. ²¹And the pagan will hope in His name." {36 Better-Jesus Praise, Heb. 1:4, 8:6}

The Long Day

²²A man under the power of demons who was blind and dumb was brought to Jesus. He cured him so that he could talk and see. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²³The crowd was dumbfounded, and began to say, "This is the Son of David." {360 Power-Seeking Prayer, Matt. 9:8} 24When the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This man is casting out demons by the power of Beelzebub, the prince of the demons." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²⁵But Jesus knew their thoughts so He said to them, "Any kingdom that is divided against itself will fall and no town or family that is divided against itself will last. ²⁶Now if satan is driving out satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom last? {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²⁷And if I am driving out demons by the help of Beelzebub, by what authority are your sons casting them out? {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²⁸But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} then the kingdom of God has come to you. 29How can anyone get into a strong man's house and carry off his goods {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} unless he first binds the strong man? After that he can carry off everything out of his house. 30 Whoever is not with Me is against Me, and whoever does not gather with Me scatters." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

The Unpardonable Sin

³¹"So I tell you, every sin and all blasphemy will be forgiven men, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} but blasphemy against the Spirit cannot be forgiven. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ³²And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this world or in the world to come." {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16}

The sin that could not be pardoned didn't come just from words, it came from a heart that hated God and rebelled against Him. To blaspheme is to smite with words, to denote injurious speaking against God's nature, attributes, or works (miracles). Lord, keep my heart. I love You and worship You. I will never say anything to anger or turn You against me. Guard my lips. Amen.

33"You must choose a good tree and get good fruit or choose an evil tree and get evil fruit, because a tree is judged by its fruit. {120 Disciplined-Prayer, Luke 11:1} 34You brood of snakes! How can you, evil as you are, say anything that is good? For out of the mouth the heart speaks. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} 35A good man out of his good heart speaks good things. The evil man out of his evil heart speaks evil things. 36So I tell you, for every careless word that men speak, {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8} they will have to give account on the day of judgment. 37By your words you will be free, and by your words you will be judged." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁸Then some of the scribes and Pharisees asked Him, "Teacher, we would like to see You do a spectacular miracle." {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

It is an insincere prayer when people ask God for a demonstration of His power, and when they do so without a desire to know Him, to understand His plan for them, or to obey Him. This could be called a hypocritical prayer, or a deceitful prayer. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} So Jesus told those who hypocritically asked for a miracle to look in the Scriptures to see God's demonstration of power. Lord, I will not ask for You to show me a miracle, for I can experience no greater miracle than the miraculous transformation of my heart when You saved me. Amen.

³⁹But Jesus answered, "Only a wicked and treacherous age will ask for a spectacular sign, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} but no sign will be given to them but the sign of the prophet Jonah. {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} ⁴⁰For as Jonah was in the great fish's stomach for three days and nights, the Son of Man will be three days and nights in the heart of the earth. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁴¹The men of Nineveh will condemn the leaders of this age at the judgment. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} The men of Nineveh turned and believed the message preached by Jonah. There is One greater than Jonah here. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} 42The queen of the south will condemn the leaders of this age at the judgment {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} because she came from the farthest limits of the earth to listen to Solomon's wisdom. There is One greater than Solomon here! {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 43Whenever the evil spirit goes out of a man, it wanders about in deserts in search of rest, but cannot find it. 44Then it says, 'I will go back to my house which I left,' where it finds the house unoccupied, swept, and ready for use. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ⁴⁵Then the evil spirit goes and gets seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and make their home. So the end of that man is worse than the beginning. This is what will happen to the wicked leaders of this age." {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20}

⁴⁶While Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and His brothers came to stand outside the house to speak to Him. {434 Sibling-Intercession Prayer, Gen. 27:11} ⁴⁷Someone said to Jesus, "Your mother and brothers are waiting outside to talk with You." ⁴⁸But Jesus answered, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?" ⁴⁹And with a gesture toward His disciples Jesus said, "Here are My mother and My brothers. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of My heavenly Father is My mother and brother and sister." {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3}

Matthew 13 The Sermon by the Sea

¹Jesus left Peter's house to teach the ²multitude from a boat beside the shore of the Sea of Galilee. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} 3"Look," Jesus said, pointing to a farmer sowing seed in his field, which was nearby. Jesus said, 4"Some seed fell on the path next to the field; birds quickly came to eat up the seeds." Jesus noted next, 5"Other seed fell among the rocks and because there was little dirt, the grain sprang up fast, ⁶but withered when the hot sun beat upon it, because the roots had little nourishment." Jesus continued, 7"Other seed fell among thorns and the thorns choked their growth." Jesus told, 8"Still other seed fell on rich soil and produced a crop, some places a hundredfold, some other places sixty, and some places thirty." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} Finally Jesus said, 9"If you have ears to hear, then you will understand the spiritual application of this parable." {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2}

We must do all we can humanly to serve God, then we must pray for God to work in hearts to get His work done. Lord, help me do Your work, in Your way, with the right tools, at the right time, and for the right motivation. Give me wisdom to do it right and human strength to get the job done. Amen.

¹⁰The disciples asked, "Why do You use stories to teach?" Jesus replied, ¹¹"Because you have the privilege of understanding the secrets of the kingdom, but the unbelievers don't understand spiritual truth." {221 Hidden Answers-Prayer, Rom. 11:33-36} Jesus continued, 12"When a person does something for Me, he will be given more till he has plenty. If a person does nothing for Me, what he has will be taken away. 13This is why I am speaking to them in stories, because they look but do not see, they listen but do not really hear or understand." {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} 14Jesus quoted Isaiah to describe those who rejected Him. "They listen with their ears, but they don't understand what God says. 15 They see with their eyes, but don't perceive because their heart is hardened to God. So they hear the good news, but don't understand how God wants them to respond, so they won't believe and become converted." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, give me eyes to see Your truth. Take away my blindness, give me a heart to obey Your commands and take away any doubt. Amen.

16"But blessed are your eyes, for they are beginning to see, and your ears, for they are beginning to hear. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹⁷For I solemnly say to you, many prophets and upright men yearned to see what you are seeing, and did not see it, and to hear what you are hearing, and did not hear it." {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ¹⁸Jesus then explained the story for the disciples because they had believing hearts to understand what the story meant. 19"When a person hears the message of the kingdom and does not respond, the devil comes to snatch away the message, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} as the birds take the seed from the path. When a person receives the message but doesn't understand, he gives up when trouble or persecution comes. He is like the grain sown in the rocks. ²⁰And what was sown on the thin rocky soil illustrates the man who hears the message and, bubbling over with joy, at once accepts it. ²¹But because the seed takes no real root in him, he lasts only a little while, and just as soon as suffering and persecution come for the truth's sake, he at once yields and falls. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 22When a person hears the message but gives up because of worldly things or pursuit of money, it is like the seed sown among the thorns. This illustrates the man who hears the message, and the worries of the times and the pleasures of being rich choke the truth out, {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} and he yields no fruit. ²³But when someone hears and believes the message, he brings forth fruit: {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} thirty, sixty, or a hundredfold, he is like seed sown on rich soil." {345 Patience-Prayer, James 5:7-8}

Lord, may my heart be good soil to receive and believe; take away the thorns of sin, and the stubbornness of unbelief. Amen. ²⁴Jesus then told another parable of a farmer who planted seed in his field. ²⁵"While he slept the enemy sowed weeds among the good seed. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁶And when the wheat plants grew up and yielded their ripened grain, the weeds appeared too. {528 Warfare-Prayer, Rev. 12:7} ²⁷The workers told the owner, 'You planted good wheat, so where did these weeds come from?' 28 The farmer said, 'An enemy has done this!' The workers asked, 'Do you want us to pull up all the weeds right now?' {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} ²⁹ 'No,' the farmer said, 'if you pull up the weeds, you'll also pull up the good grain. 30Let them both grow till harvest, then burn the weeds but put the grain in the barn." {346 Patient-Teaching Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:2}

Lord, I know the enemy tries to destroy everything that is godly. Give me wisdom to know the difference between seeds and weeds. Protect me in this world as I work for You. Amen.

³¹Jesus then told another parable that His kingdom was like a tiny mustard seed sown in a field. ³²While it is the smallest of seeds, it grows into the largest of trees, and many birds rest in its branches. {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, I know Your message seems weak to the unsaved, but it is the power of God to salvation that will attract many to You. Amen. ³³Jesus then said His kingdom is like yeast. When put in flour, the bread swells up much larger. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2}

Lord, help me to work for You out of sight from the crowds. I believe the statement, "It's amazing what one can do for God if he doesn't care who gets the credit." Amen.

³⁴When Jesus continued to speak to the crowd in parables, the disciples asked why He used parables. {346 Patient-Teaching Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:2} ³⁵Jesus told them He was fulfilling the prophecy of Israel, "I will open My mouth with parables to explain God's eternal mysteries." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

³⁶Then He left the crowds and went into the house. And His disciples came up to Him and said, "Explain to us the story of the wild wheat in the field." {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ³⁷And He answered, "The sower of the good seed is the Son of Man; 38the field is the world; the good seeds are the members of the kingdom; the wild seeds are the followers of the evil one. ³⁹The enemy who sowed them is the devil, the harvest is the close of the age and the reapers are angels. 40 Just as the wild seeds are gathered and burned up, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} so it will be at the close of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send out His angels, and they will gather from out of His kingdom all those who cause evil and are disobedient. ⁴²He will throw them into the furnace of fire, where they will weep and grind their teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. {94 Crown of Righteousness-Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:8} Let him who has ears listen and do!" {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39}

Lord, I believe You will judge all sin, so I will live godly. Amen.

⁴⁴Again Jesus told that His kingdom was like a treasure that was buried in a field. Someone found the treasure, then went to sell everything to get money to buy the field. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22}

⁴⁵Again, Jesus told the story of someone searching for pearls to buy. ⁴⁶When he found the greatest pearl ever, he sold everything to buy it. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Lord, You are the pearl of infinite price; I will give up everything to have You. Amen.

⁴⁷Jesus told the final story of a big net that was thrown into the sea. ⁴⁸"When it was full, the fisherman pulled it to shore. They put the good fish in a barrel but threw away the bad ones. ⁴⁹So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will go out to separate the wicked from the upright, ⁵⁰and will throw them into the furnace of torturing punishment. There they will wail and grind their teeth." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

Lord, I know at the end of the age You will separate the righteous from the evil ones who will be thrown into the flames of hell. Those who are righteous will go to heaven because Jesus died for them. Amen.

51"Do you understand all these parables?" They answered Him, "Yes." ⁵²He said to them, "Everyone who knows the law and has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like a house owner who can bring out of his storeroom new things as well as old." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ⁵³When Jesus had finished these stories, He left there.

⁵⁴He went to His own country and kept teaching in their synagogue in such a way that they were amazed, {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} and said, "Where did this Man get His wisdom? 55Is He not the carpenter's son? Is not His mother's name Mary? Are not His brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶And are not His sisters living here with us? Where then did He get all this knowledge?" 57And so they were offended because of Him. But Jesus said to them, "No prophet is ever honored in his own town and in his own home." {434 Sibling-Intercession Prayer, Gen. 27:11} 58 And so He did not perform many miracles there, because of their lack of faith. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Lord, I am not offended because of You. I accept You as my own Savior, and I will tell everyone, even those in my hometown, even if they won't believe me. Amen.

Matthew 14 The Murder of John the Baptizer

Lord, John the Baptizer was the greatest man to ever live; may I be as humble as he, and fill me with the Spirit as You did Him. Amen.

¹Then Herod the Tetrarch said about the fame of Jesus, ²"This is John the Baptizer risen from the dead." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ³For Herod had arrested John and chained him in prison to please Herodius, the wife of Philip, his brother. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ⁴John had preached that it was against Scripture for Herod to marry his brother's wife. ⁵Herod wanted to execute John but was afraid because the people regarded John as a prophet. His wife, Herodias, also wanted to kill John because he had embarrassed her, but she couldn't arrange for it to happen. ⁶During Herod's birthday, the daughter of Herodias danced before the guests at the party. ⁷Herod was so delighted with her that he made an oath to give her anything she asked. {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} 8Her mother Herodias told her to ask for the head of John the Baptizer on a platter. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁹The king was sorry that he made the oath and was embarrassed because his guests expected him to do what he promised. ¹⁰Herod sent immediately and beheaded John in prison; 11 the head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl who gave it to her mother. 12 John's disciples came and took the body and buried it, {313

Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} and then they told Jesus.

Lord, whether I live or die, may I glorify You in all I do. As You give me life, may I use my time for Your purpose. And when I die—whether naturally or as a martyr—may You be glorified in my homecoming. Amen.

Feeding the Five Thousand

¹³When Jesus heard about the death of John the Baptizer, He left there in a boat for a quiet place to be alone. And when the crowds heard where Jesus went, they followed Him on foot. 14When He got out of the boat and saw a great crowd, His heart was moved with compassion for them, so Jesus healed the sick. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 15But when it was evening, Jesus' disciples said, "This is a barren place, and it is getting dark, so send the people to buy themselves food in the villages." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ¹⁶But Jesus said to them, "You give them something to eat." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} ¹⁷They answered, "We have only five loaves and two fish." 18 Jesus said, "Bring them to Me." {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁹After summoning the people to sit down on the grass, He received the five loaves and two fish. He looked up to heaven and thanked God and then Jesus broke the loaves into small pieces {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} and gave them to the disciples, and they distributed them to the people. ²⁰Everyone ate and had enough. Then the disciples took up the fragments that were left, and filled twelve baskets. ²¹The crowd was about five thousand men, besides women and children. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Lord Jesus, You are the Creator and the Bread of Life. Thank You for providing physical food for me when I'm hungry. Thank You for filling me spiritually with the bread of life when I'm weak. Thank You for feeding 5,000 to show Yourself compassionate for the needy. Amen.

²²Immediately the disciples got into a boat to cross over to the other side ahead of Jesus. ²³After He dismissed the crowds, He climbed up a hill that evening to pray alone. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11}

Jesus Walks on the Water

²⁴The disciples in the boat were a long way from shore, struggling against the waves, for the wind was blowing in their faces. {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} ²⁵In the fourth watch Jesus went to them, walking on the water. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} ²⁶And when the disciples saw Him walking on the water, they were terrified. Screaming with fear, they cried, "It's a ghost!" {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ²⁷Immediately Jesus spoke to them, "Be of good cheer. It is I, stop being afraid."

Lord, I know You have sent me into some storms in the past, as You sent the disciples into the storm. Help me learn Your purpose for storms in my life. Amen.

²⁸Peter yelled, "Lord, if it's You, invite me to walk on the water to You." 29Jesus said, "Come!" so Peter stepped out of the boat and walked on the water, and walked toward Jesus. {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ³⁰But when he felt the force of the wind, and saw the waves, he was frightened, and began to sink. Immediately Peter cried out, "Lord, save me!" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³¹Jesus reached out His hand and grabbed Peter, and said, "You have little faith! Why did you doubt?" 32 And when they got into the boat, the wind suddenly died down. ³³The men in the boat worshiped Jesus and said, "Truly You are God's Son." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

Lord, You allow storms in my life that test my faith. Help me be faithful to You in every storm that comes. You did the impossible: You walked on water and You came to me in my storm. May I be like the disciples who worshiped You after You delivered them from their storm. Amen.

³⁴They crossed over and came to Gennesaret. ³⁵And the men of that place recognized Jesus and told everyone about Him. They brought to Him the sick, ³⁶and begged Jesus to let them touch the hem of His coat, and the sick who touched it were healed. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

Matthew 15 Questions about Ceremonial Cleansing

¹Jewish leaders came from Jerusalem to Capernaum 2to find fault with Jesus' religious practices. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} They were angry because Jesus' disciples ate bread with defiled hands; they didn't wash their hands ceremonially before eating. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} 3Jesus told the Jewish leaders, "You violate the Word of God and hold to your traditions. ⁴God commanded you to honor your father and mother, but the one who curses father and mother shall be put to death. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ⁵But you say, 'My mother and father have profited because they gave birth to me.' {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ⁶This statement does not honor your parents, but actually denies the Scriptures." ⁷Jesus quoted Isaiah, ⁸"These people honor Me in outward ways, but their heart is far from Me. 9They vainly worship Me, teaching their doctrine as the Word of God." {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3}

Lord, help me be careful to always honor my mother and father. Amen.

¹⁰Jesus called the multitude to Himself, and said, "Listen and understand: ¹¹it's not the things that go in your mouth that defile you, it's what comes out of the mouth." ¹²The disciples told Jesus He was offending the Pharisees by what He was saying. 13 Jesus replied, "Every plant put there by God will be uprooted. 14Let them alone; they are blind leading the blind. When the blind leads the blind, they both fall into a ditch." 15Peter said, "Lord, explain this parable to us." 16 Jesus said, "Are you still without understanding?" 17What goes into the mouth, enters the stomach, and finally is discharged from the body, ¹⁸but things that come out of the heart, defile a person, ¹⁹ for out of the heart come evil thoughts, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} murders, adulteries, sexual perversions, thefts, lying, pride, and anger. ²⁰The things that come out of the heart defile a person, not eating with unwashed hands." {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3}

Lord, cleanse my heart from every thought of evil. Keep my thoughts centered on You. Come sit on the throne of my heart and control all I think and do. Forgive the sinful desires of my heart and keep me from all outward transgressions. Amen.

Jesus Visits Lebanon

²¹When Jesus left Galilee and went to Tyre and Sidon, ²²a Greek woman from Canaan came and cried out to Jesus, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} My daughter is possessed with a demon," {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} and she begged Jesus to cast the demon out. ²³But Jesus didn't answer her. The disciples urged Jesus to send her away, "She pesters us with her pleading." 24 Jesus answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel." ²⁵Then she worshiped Jesus, and said, "Lord, help me." 26Jesus said, "It is not good to take bread from the children, and throw it to the little dogs under the table." Jesus didn't respond in a positive way but referred to her as a dog, the Jewish word for Gentile. But the woman showed faith by replying, ²⁷"Yes, Lord, but the dogs under the table get to eat the crumbs from the Master." {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ²⁸Jesus answered, "Woman, since you have great faith, {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} you will get what you asked," and the daughter was immediately healed.

Lord, give me bold faith like the Canaanite woman who prayed persistently. I will look only to You for my spiritual needs. Amen.

²⁹Then Jesus left and returned to the shore of the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up a hill to sit. ³⁰Great crowds came to Him bringing their lame, crippled, blind, deaf, and many others with diseases. They laid them at Jesus' feet, and He cured them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³¹The crowd was astonished so they praised the God of Israel. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

³²Then Jesus called His disciples and said, "My heart has compassion for the crowd because they have been here and they have nothing left to eat. I fear they might faint on their way home." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ³³The disciples answered, "This is an isolated place. Where can we find food enough to feed such a crowd?" 34Jesus asked, "How many loaves of bread are available?" They answered, "Seven, and a few small fish." 35Then Jesus instructed the crowd to sit down. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ³⁶He gave thanks {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} and kept giving the pieces to the disciples and they kept giving food to the people. ³⁷And everyone ate and they were filled. The disciples took up the pieces of food left over and filled seven baskets. ³⁸There were about four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹Then Jesus sent the crowds away, entered a boat, and went to Magadan. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11}

Matthew 16 The Church Is Introduced

¹Some Pharisees and Sadducees tried to test Jesus by asking to see a spectacular miracle from heaven. ²Jesus answered them, "When you see a red sky at night, you know it will be a delightful evening. ³When you see a red sky in the morning, you must take warning because the weather is threatening. Hypocrites! You now know how to discern the signs of the sky, but you can't discern the signs of the times. ⁴Only a wicked and evil generation seeks a spectacular miracle, so no sign will be given to them but the sign of Jonah." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} Then Jesus left, and went away.

Lord, help me understand the signs of change in this world. I know You are coming back to receive the church. I know You are coming soon and I will be ready. Amen.

⁵Then Jesus and the disciples crossed the sea, but the disciples forgot to take any bread. 6So Jesus said to them, "Watch yourselves, and guard yourselves against the contaminating yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees!" ⁷Then the disciples discussed what Jesus said among themselves, saying, "Was it because we did not take any bread?" 8Jesus knew what they said, "Why are you talking among yourselves that you have no bread? You still have little faith {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 9and you still don't understand. Remember the five loaves that fed five thousand and how many basketfuls you took up? {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ¹⁰Remember the seven loaves for four thousand people and how many baskets you took up? 11Why do you not understand that I was not speaking about physical bread when I said to guard yourselves against the contaminating yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees?" {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, 3:18} 12Then they understood that Jesus meant guard your inner yeast, the teaching of the Pharisees and the Sadducees, {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} not outer yeast. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

Lord, so often I forget what You've done for me, just as the disciples forgot what Jesus had provided for them. Give me a "remembering spirit" so I will always be grateful for what You've done for me in the past. My mind is not perfect, so don't let me forget and become ungrateful. I praise You for past provisions; this proves that You will supply in the future. Amen.

Jesus Visits Caesarea Philippi

¹³Next Jesus went to the village of Caesarea Philippi, and as they were walking, Jesus asked, "Who do the people say that I am?" ¹⁴The disciples answered, "Some say You are John the Baptizer, others say You are Elijah, or Jeremiah or one of the prophets." ¹⁵Jesus then asked, "But who do you say that I am?" {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ¹⁶Simon Peter answered, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." ¹⁷Jesus answered, "Simon Peter, son of Jonah, you are blessed, because you didn't think this up, My Father in heaven gave you this revelation.

¹⁸"Peter, you have faith like a rock, and I will build My church on the solid rock statement of My deity that you just spoke about. The gates of hell cannot stop My followers when they go preaching about who I Am." ¹⁹Jesus then replied, "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth will not enter heaven, whatever you loose on earth, will enter heaven." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²⁰Jesus then instructed them not to tell anyone He was the Messiah, the anointed of God.

In the first prediction of the church, Jesus said, "I will build My church" (Matt. 16:18). We should thank the Lord for the church because Jesus promised death will not overpower us. {69 Church-Praying, Matt. 16:18} Lord, I thank You for the church which is Your body; it is made up of Your followers. I love my church, my spiritual family. Bless my church, help it grow, keep it from evil, and use it mightily. Amen.

²¹Then Jesus told His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem to suffer many things from the chief priest and the scribes. He would be killed by them, but He would rise from the dead on the third day. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²²Peter rebuked Jesus saying, "This will never happen to You." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me. {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} You are a stumbling block like satan. You are not concerned with the things of God, but with the things of men." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁴Then Jesus said, "If anyone will follow Me, let him take up his cross daily and follow Me. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ²⁵For whoever tries to save his life on this earth, will lose it. But whoever loses his life for My sake, will find it. 26For what benefit will it gain a man, if he gains the whole world and loses his soul? What price will a man pay to buy back his soul?

²⁷"For the Son of Man is going to return to earth in His Father's splendor, with His angels, and then He will reward everyone in accord with what that person has done. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ²⁸Some of those standing here will live {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} to see the Son of Man coming with His kingdom."

Lord, I don't want to save my life, then lose it; I will give my life for You and find Your purpose for my life. What shall it profit me if I gain the whole world but lose my own soul? I will not sell my soul to satan. Amen.

Matthew 17

Lord, help me see Your glory and worship You as the disciples did. Amen.

The Transfiguration of Jesus

¹Six days after Jesus spoke at Caesarea Philippi He took with Him Peter, James, and John and climbed up into the heights of Mount Hermon. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} ²Jesus was transfigured before them. His face glistened as the sun, and His clothes were sparkling white. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ³Then Moses and Elijah appeared and talked with Jesus about His coming death. ⁴Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ⁵While

Peter was speaking, a bright cloud covered them and the three disciples were afraid. Then a voice spoke from the cloud, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to Him and obey Him." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} 6 The disciples fell to the ground in fear, {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} 7 and then Jesus touched them saying, "Don't be afraid." {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} 8 When they looked up they saw only Jesus.

Lord, these disciples saw You transformed on the mount, and that's the way You will be in heaven. They fell to the ground; that's the way I will worship You today and in the future. I'm flat on my face in submission to You. Amen.

⁹As they were going down the mountain Jesus said to them, "Don't tell anyone about this until I am raised from the dead." ¹⁰The disciples asked Jesus, "Why do the scribes say Elijah must come before the Messiah comes?" ¹¹Jesus answered, "It is true that Elijah must come to get everything ready. ¹²But I'm telling you that Elijah has already come but the scribes didn't know it and unsaved people will do to John the Baptizer as they want. In the same way I, the Son of Man, will suffer at their hands." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹³The disciples understood that Jesus meant John the Baptizer was Elijah.

The Disciples Can't Heal

¹⁴When Jesus and the disciples reached the crowd, a man came to Jesus kneeling before Him, begging, 15"Lord, have pity on my son, {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} for he has epilepsy and suffers terribly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. 16I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not heal him." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁷And Jesus answered, "O you faithless and unbelieving generation. How much longer must I put up with you? Bring the boy to Me!" 18 And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him. Immediately the boy was cured. 19Later the disciples came privately to Jesus to ask, "Why could we not cast out the demon?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord, that's my question, "Why can't I do more for You?" The answer is still "unbelief." Lord, give me faith. Amen.

²⁰Jesus answered, "Because your faith is small. For verily I say, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} Nothing is impossible for you who believe. ²¹However, this can be done only with prayer and continued fasting." {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19}

²²While they traveled through Galilee, Jesus said, "The Son of Man is going to be turned over into the hands of those who will kill Him, ²³but on the third day He will be raised again." That news crushed them. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Paying the Temple Tax

²⁴When they reached Capernaum, the collectors of the temple tax came to Peter and asked, "Why does your Teacher not pay the temple tax?" ²⁵When Jesus entered the house, He anticipated Simon's questions so He said, "What is your opinion, Simon? From whom do civil rulers collect taxes? From their own family or from others?" ²⁶Peter answered, "From others." Jesus said to him, "So their own sons are exempt. ²⁷But so that we may not offend them, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} go down to the sea and throw in a hook. Pull in the first fish that bites, open its mouth and you will find in it a shekel. Take that money and pay the tax for both of us." {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20}

Lord, since Jesus was conscientious about paying the smallest tax, I will follow His example. Provide for me to do it, just as You provided for Jesus. Amen.

Matthew 18 Childlike Faith

¹The disciples approached Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ²Jesus called a little child to stand with them, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ³and He said, "Truly I say to you, unless you repent and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁴Whoever becomes meek as this little child will be the greatest in the kingdom of heaven, ⁵and whoever receives a little child like this for My sake receives Me." {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1}

Lord, when I think I am important, remind me that I am only a child. Amen.

Mistaken Zeal of John the Apostle

6"Whoever influences one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, will have a great stone hung around his neck and cast into the bottom of the sea. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ⁷A person will be condemned who does this wrong! {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} Evil comes to all, but the man who does this will be condemned. 8If your hand or foot makes you do wrong, cut it off or get rid of anything that condemns you. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} It is better to go through life crippled than to be thrown into everlasting torture with both hands or feet. 9And if your eye makes you do wrong, pluck it out and get rid of anything that causes you to do wrong. It is better for you to go through life with a single eye than to be thrown into hell with both eyes. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 10Be careful you don't look with anger on a little child, {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} because their guardian angels in heaven have continued access to My Father in heaven." {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7}

¹¹"If a man has a hundred sheep and one is lost, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹²he will leave his ninety-nine to go search for the lost one. {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} ¹³When he finds it, he rejoices over it more than he does over ninety-nine that did not get lost. {319 New Convert-Thanksgiving Prayer, 2 Thess. 1:3} ¹⁴In the same way it is not the will of My Father in heaven that a single one of these little ones be lost." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, teach me the importance of one person, just as the Shepherd searched for the one lost sheep. Amen.

¹⁵"If your brother does something wrong, go to him privately and show where he is wrong. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} If he listens, you have won back your brother. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 16If he will not listen, take one or two others, so that you have witnesses confirmed by their testimony. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ¹⁷If he refuses to listen to them, report the matter to the church. And if he refuses to listen to the church, treat him as a pagan and as an abomination. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁸Verily I say to you, whatever you bind on earth is bound in heaven, {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} and whatever you release on earth is released in heaven. 19Verily I tell you, if only two of you on earth agree on what they ask, {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} you will receive it from My heavenly Father." {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

Jesus intended that believers gather in His name (Matt. 18:19-20) and that He would be present to hear their request, especially when they corporately agreed for the request. When the early church obeyed and prayed corporately, "the place where they were assembled together was shaken" (Acts 4:31). Lord, I will meet with other believers in Your church to agree and pray together. Amen.

²⁰"For where two or three meet as My disciples, {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} I am present with them."

²¹Then Peter asked Jesus, "Lord, how often may my brother sin against me and I have to forgive him? As often as seven?" {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²²Jesus answered, "Not as many as seven, I tell you, but as many as seventy times seven! {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ²³The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle up the accounts of his servants. ²⁴First, a servant was brought to the king who owed his master millions of dollars. ²⁵And because he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all his belongings until payment was made. ²⁶The servant fell at his master's feet and begged, 'Give me time, and I will pay you everything.' {108

Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ²⁷The master's heart was moved with sympathy, and he let him go free, and canceled his debt. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²⁸The servant went to one of his fellow servants who owed him ten dollars, and choked him by the throat, demanding, 'Pay me now the ten dollars.' ²⁹The fellow servant fell down and pleaded, 'Give me time, and I will pay you.' {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 30But he refused and threw him in jail until he should pay the debt. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³¹When the other slaves saw what had happened, they went to report what happened to their master. ³²Then the master called to the first servant, and said, 'I canceled your huge debt because you pleaded with me. ³³Should you not have shown mercy to your fellow-slave, as I did for you?' {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2}

³⁴"The master was angry and turned him over to the torturers until he paid the whole debt. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³⁵This is how My heavenly Father will deal with you, if you do not freely forgive your brother." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10}

Lord, it's impossible in my old nature to forgive someone as much as You suggest. So Lord, take over my desires—transform me—so I can have a forgiving spirit as Jesus forgave those who crucified Him. Amen.

Matthew 19 Jesus Teaches about Divorce

¹When Jesus had finished this sermon, He left Galilee and came into the district of Judea that is on the other side of the Jordan. ²Great crowds followed Him, and He healed them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³Some Pharisees came to test Jesus with this question, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on any grounds?" ⁴Jesus answered, "Have you not read that the Creator at the beginning made them male and female, {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} 5and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and become one with his wife, and the two of them shall be one?' 6So they are no longer two, but one. So, what God has joined together man must not separate." {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} ⁷They asked Him, "Then why did Moses command that a written divorce be allowed for a man to divorce his wife?" 8 Jesus answered them, "It was because of your hard heart {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} that Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but it was not allowed from the beginning. 9Now I tell you, whoever divorces his wife for any reason other than her unfaithfulness. and marries another woman, is guilty of adultery." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁰The disciples said to Him, "If that is the way a man should treat his wife, then why get married?" {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} 11Jesus said to them, "Not every man can live single, it is only for those who have this capacity. ¹²For some are born eunuchs, and some have been made eunuchs by men, and some have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let anyone do this who can." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹³Later some little children were brought to Jesus for Him to lay His hands on them and pray for them. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} But His disciples rebuked them. ¹⁴Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me and stop turning them away, for such is the kingdom of heaven." ¹⁵And He laid His hands on them to bless them. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1}

Lord, teach me the importance of children. May I love them and bless them as Jesus did. May I see the great potential in every child. May I help children find Your wonderful plan for their life. Amen.

The Rich Young Ruler

¹⁶A man asked Jesus, "What good deed can I do to gain eternal life?" {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁷And Jesus answered, "Why are you asking Me about what is good? Only the heavenly Father is perfectly good. But if you want eternal life, you must continually keep the commands." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹⁸He asked Jesus, "What commands?" Jesus answered, "You must not kill, you must not commit adultery, you must not steal, you must not lie, ¹⁹you must honor your father and mother, and you must love your neighbor as you love yourself." ²⁰The young man said to Jesus, "I have kept all these; what more do I need to do?" {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²¹Jesus said, "If you are going to be perfect, go and sell what you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come and follow Me." {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ²²And when the young man heard this qualification he turned away in sorrow for he owned a lot of property. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

Lord, I surrender the control of all my belongings to You. Help me use all my belongings for Your glory. May belongings never possess me, but may I use all my "things" for Your purpose for my life. Amen.

²³Jesus then told His disciples, "Verily I say to you, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ²⁴And it is easier for a camel to enter through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven." ²⁵When the disciples heard this, they were astonished, and asked, "Who can be saved then?" ²⁶But Jesus told them, "This is impossible with men, but everything is possible with God." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

²⁷Then Peter answered Him, "We have left everything to follow You. What are we going to get?" {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁸Jesus said to them, "Verily I say to you, in the new world when the Son of Man shall take His seat on His throne, you who have followed Me, will sit on twelve thrones and rule the twelve tribes of Israel. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ²⁹And everyone who has left home, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children, or land, for My sake, will be rewarded a hundred times in addition to eternal life. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ³⁰But many who are first now will be last, and many who are last will then be first."

Lord, I surrender my desire to be important to You. Use any influence I have for Your glory. Amen.

Matthew 20 On the Way to Jerusalem

1"Now the kingdom of heaven is like a land owner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. {536 Worker's-Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:15} ²He contracted with them for a day's wages, then sent them off to work. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 3He went out again about nine o'clock and found workers standing idle. {134 Employment-Prayer, Col. 3:17, 23} 4So he contracted with them, 'You also go work in my vineyard, and I will pay you what is right.' And they went to work. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} 5Again he went out about twelve o'clock and three o'clock, and made the same contract. 6About five went out again and found still others were idle. He said to them, 'Why have you been standing here all day idle?' ⁷They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said, 'Go work in my vineyard.' 8At the end of the day, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} Those who had been hired at five o'clock, each received a full day's wages. {134 Employment-Prayer, Col. 3:17, 23} ¹⁰And those who were hired first thought that they would receive more; but they too received each a full day's wages. {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5} 11And they began to complain, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} and say, $^{12}\mbox{`These}$ you hired last worked only one hour, and yet you have paid them the same thing you paid us. We have done the heavy work in the scorching heat of the day.' {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28 13But the land owner answered, 'Friend, I am not doing you wrong. Did you not contract with me for a day's wages? {10 Agreement-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 14Take what you earned and go. {22 Appropriate-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 39:5} ¹⁵I choose to pay the last man hired as much as I pay you. Do I not have the right to do what I please with my own money? Must you be covetous because I am generous?' 16 Those who are last will now be first, and those who are first will be last."

Lord, teach me to keep my eyes on You as I work; teach me to please You with all I do. Help me to quit comparing myself to how hard or how long others work. Give me joy in working for You. Amen.

The Selfish Ambition of James and John

¹⁷As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside, and said to them while still on the road, ¹⁸"Listen! We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the high priests and the scribes. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁹They will condemn Him to death, and turn Him over to the Gentiles to be mocked, and beaten, and then crucified; but on the third day He will rise again." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

²⁰Then the mother of James and John came to Jesus with her sons, kneeling and asking for a favor. {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} ²¹Jesus asked her, "What do you want?" She answered, "Promise that my two sons may sit one at Your right and one at Your left in Your kingdom." {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²²Jesus answered, "You do not realize what you are asking. Can they drink the cup of suffering that I am about to drink?" They answered, "Yes, we can." {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

Lord, I want to be close to You, but I don't like suffering. Teach me how to glorify You in suffering. Amen.

²³Jesus said to them, "You will drink the cup of suffering that I am to drink, but to sit at My right and left are not Mine to give. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} That honor will be given to those chosen by My Father." ²⁴When the other ten disciples heard of this, they were angry at the two brothers. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁵But Jesus called them and said, "You know that pagan rulers lord it over their subjects. Their great men rule as tyrants. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²⁶But it will not be so among you. ²⁷Whoever wants to be great among you must be a servant, {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} and whoever wants to be first must be a slave. ²⁸In the same way, the Son of Man has come, not to be served but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

²⁹As they left Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} 30There were two blind men sitting by the roadside who heard that Jesus was passing by. They cried out, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!" {112 Desperate-Prayer, Matt. 14:30} ³¹The crowd shouted at them to be quiet, but the two blind men begged even louder; "Have mercy on us, O Lord, Son of David." ³²Jesus stopped and called for them, asking, "What do you want Me to do for you?" {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} ³³They answered, "Lord, open our eyes!" {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} 34Then Jesus' heart was moved with compassion, and He touched their blinded eyes. Immediately they could see, and they followed Him. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

Lord, I am spiritually blind; touch the eyes of my heart so I can see You and Your plan for my life. Help me see spiritual things so I can serve You better. Amen.

Matthew 21 The Triumphant Entry

Lord, I gladly receive the presence of Jesus into my life just as the crowds received Jesus on Palm Sunday. Amen.

¹The next day—Sunday—news that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem swept through the crowds of Passover pilgrims. As Jesus came to Bethphage, He sent two disciples into the village, {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} ²telling them they would find a donkey with her young colt tied there. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 3"If anyone asks why you are taking the donkey, tell them the Master needs it to ride into Jerusalem." 4This act fulfilled Scripture, 5"Tell the people of Zion, your King is coming to you, humbly riding on a donkey, even on a young colt." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ⁶The disciples did as instructed {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷ and found the donkey as Jesus said. They put their coats on the donkey and Jesus rode on a colt that had never been ridden by anyone. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord, You know the future because You live there. I yield my future to You; tell me how to serve You best, just as Jesus told the disciples about the donkey. Amen.

⁸Great crowds spread their coats on the road; others waved their palm branches as they went to meet Him. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} ⁹The crowds who marched in front of Jesus shouted, "HOSANNA to the Son of David, blessing on Him who comes in the Lord's name, HOSANNA in the highest heaven." {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Lord, I am excited about Jesus as I worship Him saying, "HOSANNA," just as the crowd did on Palm Sunday. Amen.

¹⁰When Jesus entered the city, people everywhere were asking, "Who is this?" {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} ¹¹The multitude answered, "This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth."

Cursing the Barren Fig Tree and Cleansing the Temple

¹²Jesus went into the temple to cleanse it. He drove out all the buyers and sellers, {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} and turned over the money-changers' tables. He upset the seats of those selling doves, {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ¹³and said to them, "The Scripture says, 'My house will be called a house of prayer, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6}

but you have made it a den of thieves." {51 Blocked-Prayer, 1 Peter 3:7}

Lord, I will cleanse my bodily temple so it will be clean; You want to live in holiness. I will make my earthly temple a "house of prayer." Amen.

¹⁴Then blind and crippled people came to Him in the temple, and He cured them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 15But the high priest and scribes saw His miracles. Children began shouting in the temple, "Welcome to the Son of David." 16 The high priest and scribes were indignant and asked Him, "Do you hear what they are saying?" {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} Jesus answered them, "Yes. Have you never read, 'Out the mouths of little children and babies come perfect praise'?" {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} 17And He left and went out of the city to Bethany where He spent the night. {73 Comfortable Place to Pray, John 18:2}

The Withered Fig Tree

¹⁸Early next morning Jesus returned to the city, and was hungry. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ¹⁹He saw a fig tree by the roadside, but found nothing on it but leaves, and Jesus said, "May you never bear fruit again." The fig tree withered. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁰When the disciples saw it, they were amazed, and asked, "How did the fig tree wither up so soon?" {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

Lord, I want You to find fruit in my life, not just leaves. I will abide in You (John 15:1-7) so I can produce fruit. Amen.

²¹Jesus answered them, "If you have faith and do not doubt, you can do this miracle, and if you can say to this mountain, {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} 'Be moved and throw yourself into the sea,' it will be done. {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} ²²If you have faith, whatever you ask for in prayer, you will receive."

Faith is the opposite of doubt. Doubt is dialogia (dia "through," "logia" words). We often use words to explain away why God can't do certain things, or why other things won't come about. But our faith is the exercise of our will to suspend disbelief, and choose to see things from God's perspective. "Faith is the...evidence of things not seen" (Heb. 11:1). Lord, help me see my problems through Your eyes. Help me see what You want to do in all situations. Help me to see as You see. Amen.

A Day of Controversy in the Temple

²³When Jesus came into the temple, the high priests and elders came up to Him while He was teaching, and asked, "By what authority have You done these things?" ²⁴Jesus answered, "I will ask you just one question. If you answer it, you will know by what authority I have for doing what I do. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²⁵Where did John's baptism come from? From heaven, or from men?" They said among themselves, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why did you not believe John?' {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ²⁶But if we say, 'from men,' we are afraid of the people, for they all consider John a prophet." {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ²⁷So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." Then Jesus answered them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do as I do."

²⁸Jesus told them a parable, "There was a man with two sons. He told the first, 'Son, go and work in my vineyard today.' {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ²⁹And the son answered, 'I will not.' But afterward he changed his mind and went. ³⁰Then the father said the same thing to the second son, and he said, 'I'll go,' but he did not go. ³¹Which of the two did what his father wanted?" They answered, "The first son." Jesus said, "Verily I say to you, that tax collectors and prostitutes will go into the kingdom of heaven before you. 32For John came to you living righteously, and you did not believe him. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} But tax-collectors and prostitutes believed his message; {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} but you, even after seeing that, would not change your minds and believe the message of John." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

Lord, You love willingness in people, not empty words. Look at my heart to see a servant willing to work for You. Amen.

³³"Listen to another parable. There was once a land owner who planted a vineyard and built a fence to protect it, and hewed out a vat to store the wine, and built a tower. Then he rented it out to tenants and went on a trip. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ³⁴When it came time to gather grapes, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect rent. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} 35But the tenants beat his slaves, and killed the second, and stoned the third. {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} ³⁶Again he sent other servants in a group, and the tenants treated them exactly the same way. ³⁷Finally he sent his son, for he said, 'Surely they will honor my son.' 38But when they saw the son, they said, 'He is the heir, let us kill him, and get the estate!' 39So they drove the son out of the vineyard and murdered him. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} 40Now when the owner of the land returns, what will he do to these tenants?" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 41They answered, "In vengeance he will put the murderers to death, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} and rent the vineyard to other tenants, who will quickly pay him the rent." {100 Death-Prayer, Rev. 9:6} 42Then Jesus said to them, "Did you never read this truth in the Scripture: The stone that was rejected by the builders will become the cornerstone; {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} this is the Lord's doing, and it is wonderful to see? {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 43This is why the kingdom will be taken away from you, and given to a people who will produce its fruit. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁴⁴Whoever falls on that stone will be saved, but whoever the stone falls on will be crushed to pieces." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, You are the only solid foundation I have in my life; You are my foundation stone. I rest on You, and I will not be moved. Amen.

⁴⁵When the high priests and Pharisees heard His stories, they knew that He was speaking about them. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ⁴⁶Although they would like to have Jesus arrested, they were afraid of the people who considered Jesus a prophet. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

Matthew 22 The Parable of the Wedding Feast

¹Then Jesus spoke to them in parables once again and said: 2"The kingdom of heaven is like a king, who gave a wedding feast for his son. ³And he sent his servants to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} but they refused to come. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 4A second time the king sent other servants, 'Tell the invited guests that I have my feast all ready, my cattle are butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!' {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 5But they did not come, but went about their business, one to his farm, another to his shop, ⁶and the others seized his servants to beat them and then murdered them. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 7Then the king was furious, and sent his soldiers to destroy those murderers and burned their town. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} 8Then he said to his servants, 'My wedding feast is ready, but those invited are not worthy to come. {489 Transfer-Faith Praying, 1 Sam. 7:8} 9So go out to the country roads to invite everyone you find to my wedding feast.' {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁰And those servants went out into the roads to gather everyone they found, both good and bad, and the banquet hall was packed with guests. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} 11When the king entered to see the guests, he saw a man who was not wearing a wedding suit. 12So the king said to him, 'My friend, why are you not wearing a wedding suit?' But the man was silent. {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} ¹³Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.' 14For many are invited, but few are prepared." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

Lord, I will not come into Your presence dressed in my own good works. I will come to Your feast dressed in the robes of righteousness of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pharisees' and Herodians' Question

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and plotted to trap Jesus. ¹⁶So they sent their disciples to

Jesus with the Herodians, to say, "Master, we know that You are an honest man who teaches honestly the way of God. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} You are not afraid of what anyone says. ¹⁷What is Your opinion on this question: Is it right to pay Caesar the poll tax, or not?" {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18} ¹⁸Jesus saw their hypocritical plot, and so He asked them, "Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites? 19Show Me a coin." 20Then He asked, "Whose likeness and name is this?" {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ²¹They answered, "Caesar's." Then He said. "Give to Caesar. the things that belong to Caesar, and give to God the things that belong to God." {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²²And when they heard it, they were amazed, so they left Him and went away. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33}

Lord, teach me the simplicity of life. I will give to this world (Caesar) the things that belong to it; I will give to You the things that belong to You. Amen.

The Sadducees' Question

²³On the same day some Sadducees, who denied the resurrection, came to Jesus to ask, ²⁴"Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies childless, his brother must marry his widow and raise up a family for his brother. ²⁵Now there were seven brothers. The first married and died without children. His widow married his brother. ²⁶The second also died, and the third, and all down to the seventh. ²⁷Last of all the woman died. too. ²⁸Now in the resurrection {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} whose wife will she be? For they all married her." {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ²⁹Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you do not understand the Scriptures nor the power of God. ³⁰In the resurrection men and women do not marry nor are they married, but are as the angels in heaven. 31But you did not read and understand the resurrection of the dead. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} God said to Moses, 32'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob?' Now God is not the God of the dead but He is God of the living." 33 And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished at His teaching. [470] Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

A Legal Question

34The Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, so they got together to test Him. 35One of them, an expert in the law, tempted Him, asking, ³⁶"Teacher, what command is greatest in the law?" {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ³⁷And Jesus answered, "'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.' {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³⁸This is the first and greatest command. 39The second is like it: 'You must love your neighbor as you love yourself." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ⁴⁰The foundation of the whole law and the prophets are found in these two commands."

We can sum up the Commands with one word, relationship. We must love God first and foremost. Christianity is not about "do's" and "don'ts," it's about making God our primary concern in all we do, all the time. And it's about all that's within us, that is, our heart, soul, and mind. Lord, I can tell You, "I love You" with words, but I will show You by yielding my heart, mind, and body to You. I will live for You. Amen.

Now Jesus Asks a Question

⁴¹And then Jesus asked the Pharisees, 42"What is your opinion about the Christ? Whose son is He?" {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} They answered Him, "He is David's son." 43Jesus asked them, "How then does David, moved by the Spirit, call Him Lord, when he says: 44'The Lord has said to my Lord, sit at my right hand, and I will put your enemies under your feet?' {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 45If David has called the Messiah Lord, how can the Messiah be his son?" 46 And no one could answer Him and from that time on no one dared ask Him any more questions. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

Matthew 23 Jesus Denounces Scribes and Pharisees

¹After a while, Jesus went into the courtyard of the temple to teach the multitudes, ²"Beware of the scribes who like to sit in Moses' seat; ³they make rules for you to obey, but they themselves do not obey their own rules. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 4They put heavy and grievous burdens on your shoulders, but they will not bear them, nor will they lift one finger to help you. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 5 They love to wear long robes to get greetings from everyone, ⁶they love the best seats at celebrations and in the synagogues. You must not seek for others to call you 'Master,' {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} 8 for you have but one who is 'Master.' 9And you must not call anyone on earth 'Father,' for the heavenly One is your Father. ¹⁰And you must not be called 'leaders,' for you have only one Leader, and that is the Messiah. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 11Whoever will be greatest among you must be your servant. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 12Whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

God honors the humble, and those who are humble will be great. Jesus said, "Among those born of women there has not arisen one greater than John the Baptizer, but he who is least in the kingdom is greater than he" (Matt. 11:11). Therefore, "Before honor is humility" (Prov. 15:33). We must pray (1) to recognize our selfish nature; (2) to deny selfish desires; and (3) to be humble. Lord, help me see my selfish nature and may I say, "Not I but Christ" (Gal. 2:20). I will deny my selfish ambitions, and will glorify You in all I do. May others see Christ in me. Amen.

¹³"Woe to you scribes and Pharisees—hypocrites—because you shut the door to the kingdom of God and you yourselves will not enter, nor will you let anyone else enter. 14Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You devour widows' houses, and to show off that you pray long. Therefore you will receive greater judgment. ¹⁵How terrible it will be for you scribes and Pharisees—hypocrites—because you go everywhere to make people your proselytes, yet you make them twofold sons of hell. Because they were originally on their way to hell, now as your proselytes they are doubly directed to hell. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 16Woe to you blind guides, you say it is alright to swear by the temple, but not by the gold on the temple; you are fools, {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ¹⁷what is greater, the temple or the gold? ¹⁸You say it is alright to swear by the altar but it's not right to swear by the gift on the altar; you are blind; 19what is greater the altar or the sacrifice? ²⁰The one who swears by the altar, also swears by the things on the altar. ²¹The one who swears by the temple, swears by it and by Him who dwells in it. ²²The one who swears by the heavens also swears by the throne of God, and by Him who sits on the throne." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6}

Lord, open my eyes to any hypocrisy in my life. Because hypocrites are so blinded to their hypocrisy, I need to see myself through Your eyes. When I see my despicable hypocrisy, I will repent quickly, and instantly plead the cleansing blood of Christ. Amen.

²³"How terrible it will be for you scribes and Pharisees—hypocrites—{268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} you are careful to tithe the mint that grows at your back door, {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} but you've left undone the weightier things of the law which is judgment, and self-control, and faith. {305 Mercy-Appreciation Prayer, Hab. 3:2} It's right to tithe everything God gives to you, but it's wrong to ignore those greater things; ²⁴you strain at a gnat and swallow a camel. 25Woe, how terrible it will be for you scribes and Pharisees—hypocrites {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}—because you clean the outside of the cup, but leave the inside filthy. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²⁶Blind Pharisees, first cleanse the inside of the cup and bowl, then clean the outside. ²⁷How terrible it will be for you scribes and Pharisees—hypocrites—{268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} because you're like a freshly painted grave that looks beautiful, but inwardly you're dead, rotting, stinking corpses. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} ²⁸Outwardly you appear to people to be righteous, but inwardly you're full of sin and hypocrisy." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

putting flowers on their graves. 30 You say, if you lived in their day, you would not be part of those who killed them. ³¹But you witness against yourselves by the things you do today, that you would murder them. ³²You identify with your father's guilt. 33You serpents and children of snakes, how will you escape the punishment of hell? {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 34You are just like those to whom the Father sent prophets to preach to them. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} Yet you would scourge them, persecute them, and crucify them. 35 And on your hands is the blood of all righteous martyrs, from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah who was killed in the temple next to the altar. ³⁶Surely all these things will come on this age. ³⁷O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} who killed the prophets and stoned those who were sent to you from the Father. How often would I have gathered you to Me, as a hen gathers her chicks, but you would not come to Me. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 38I now have abandoned your house. 39You will not see Me or understand what I am doing in the world, till I come again in the name of the Lord."

Matthew 24 The Mount of Olives Discourse

¹Later in the day—Tuesday—Jesus sat with His disciples on the Mount of Olives to look at the city of Jerusalem and the temple. ²Jesus said, "You see the city and the temple; verily not one stone will be left on another, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} but shall be thrown down." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord Jesus, You predicted the temple would be destroyed, and it happened just as You predicted. Give me confidence to believe every promise You give. Amen.

³His disciples asked Jesus privately, "Tell us when this will happen? And what shall be the sign of Your coming? And what shall be the sign of the end of the world?" {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

⁴Jesus answered, "Don't let anyone lead you astray, ⁵because many will come in My name, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} saying, 'I am the Christ!' ⁶You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but don't worry because these things must happen before the end. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ⁷Nation will fight nation, and alliances of nations will fight other alliances; and there will be earthquakes; ⁸these are the beginning of tribulation."

Lord, You predicted the world would hate me. Why am I surprised when it happens? Teach me to believe and act on Your promises. Amen.

⁹"Your enemy will arrest you, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} persecute you, and kill you; all nations will hate the nation of Israel for My sake. ¹⁰Many will be offended and betray one another, and hate one another. 11Many false prophets will lead many astray, {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 12and the influence of sin will influence every area of life. Love for Me will become cold. {140 Ephesians' Church-Prayer, Rev. 2:4-6} ¹³But those followers of Mine who endure tribulation to the end shall finally be saved. ¹⁴The gospel of the kingdom will be preached to the whole world; then the end shall come. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} 15When you see the abomination of desolation—a pig sacrificed on the altar—which was predicted by Daniel; realize this is the beginning of the Great Tribulation. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹⁶Then let my people flee to the mountains for protection, {141 Escape-Prayer, Rev. 6:16-17} ¹⁷let those on the rooftop not go in their house to take anything with them. ¹⁸Let those working in the field not return home for clothes, ¹⁹ and those with child will suffer the most; {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁰so pray your escape will not be in winter or on the Sabbath. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ²¹This will be the Great Tribulation {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} which is greater than any since the beginning of the world and greater than any after it. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ²²Unless God shortens these days, no one can live through it, and for God's people, those days will be shortened. {138 Endure-Hardship Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:3} ²³If anyone tells you, 'Here is the Messiah,' or 'There is the Messiah,' don't believe it; {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter

2:20} ²⁴many false messiahs will come and perform miracles to lead God's people away. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ²⁵I've told you before, ²⁶if anyone tells you the Messiah is in the wilderness, don't go out there to check it out. And if they say Messiah is in an inner room, don't believe that either."

The Second Coming

²⁷"The coming of the Son of Man will be as spectacular as lightning flashing from the east to the west. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²⁸And there'll be so many slain by His coming, that buzzards will gather to eat their flesh."

Lord, I wait for Your coming, "even so come, Lord Jesus" (Rev. 22:20). Amen.

²⁹"The sun will be darkened, {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} and the moon won't shine, and stars will fall from the sky, and heaven itself will be shaken as the Son of Man makes His appearance in heaven. ³⁰Then shall all ethnic tribes mourn when they see Him, {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} coming with great power and glory through the clouds. ³¹He will send His angels with the sound of a trumpet to gather His people from the four corners of the earth. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}

at the door. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ³⁴This generation of Jewish believers will not pass away until all these signs have appeared. ³⁵Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My Word—which I promise shall not pass away—but these things will happen as promised. {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14}

³⁶"But no one knows the hour when Messiah will come, not you, nor anyone else, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son of Man, but only the Father knows the hour." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Lord, I'm glad I don't know when my last day on earth will come. I'd live for that day, rather than living for You. Help me look to You only. Amen.

37"It will be like the days of Noah. He warned everyone that judgment was coming, {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20}
38 but no one believed him. People went on eating, getting drunk, getting married 39 until the flood came. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 40 Two will be working in the field, one will be taken, the other left. 41 Two women will be grinding meal, one will be taken, the other left; {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} 42 watch because you don't know when He will return." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Lord, I expect You to come at any minute. Amen. ⁴³"If the owner of the house knew when a thief would break into his home, he would have been constantly vigilant. ⁴⁴Therefore, be ready for in just the hour you think He won't return, He will come. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

⁴⁵"If the owner made a faithful worker supervisor of all his businesses while he was gone, ⁴⁶that worker is blessed if the owner returns to find everything in order. ⁴⁷Verily, the owner would give him a promotion. ⁴⁸But if the servant is lazy ⁴⁹and spends his time eating and drinking because he thinks the owner is tarrying, {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ⁵⁰the owner will come back at a time the worker doesn't expect him, ⁵¹and will fire the worker and give his job to someone else. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} That worker will suffer with those who weep and gnash their teeth."

Matthew 25 The Parable of the Five Foolish Virgins

¹Jesus spoke a parable that the coming of the kingdom is likened to ten bridesmaids with ten lamps who were waiting for the coming of the bridegroom. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ²"Now five were foolish, and five were wise. ³Five foolish bridesmaids didn't take oil with them, ⁴but five were wise bridesmaids {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} and took oil in addition to their lamps. ⁵The bridegroom was late and all the bridesmaids slept. {275

Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} 6At midnight there was a shout, 'He's coming! Let all the bridesmaids come meet him.' {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ⁷When the ten got ready to light their lamps, {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} 8the five foolish asked the wise, 'Give us some oil because our lamps are going out.' But the wise answered, 'If we give you some of ours, we won't have enough to light the bridegroom's way.' They told the foolish virgins to go buy some for themselves. {382 Problem-Solving Prayer, Acts 27:33} ¹⁰The five wise virgins went into the feast with the bridegroom, and the door was shut. {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ¹¹Afterward the five foolish virgins came asking, 'Open the door.' 12But the bridegroom answered, {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} 'I don't know you." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ¹³Jesus said, "Verily I say to you, watch continually because you don't know the day or hour when the Son of Man is coming."

Lord, teach me the importance of "now." Help me live in the moment, and not live in the past, nor in the future. Keep me from sleeping when I should be doing what You expect. Lord, I'm ready; come quickly. Amen.

The Parable of the Unprofitable Worker

¹⁴Jesus spoke another parable about His returning, saying, "A businessman planned to take a long trip, and delegated to various workers, different jobs in the company. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ¹⁵He gave one worker $500,000, another $200,000 and the third $100,000; {448 Spiritual-Gift Praying, 1 Peter 4:10} each according to his ability to manage money. 16The one with $500,000 invested wisely and doubled his money; {117 Diligent-Person's Prayer, Prov. 4:23} 17the one with $200,000 also invested prudently and doubled his money. ¹⁸The worker with $100,000 hid his money carefully so it wouldn't be lost. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} 19After a long time, the owner returned and asked his workers to report what they had done. ²⁰The one who had $500,000 brought in another $500,000, {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²¹ and the owner said, 'You've done well because you were faithful, I'm going to promote you to a larger responsibility." {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

Lord, like this worker I want Your approval. Amen.

²²"The one with $200,000 gave the owner an additional $200,000; {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²³the owner also congratulated and promoted him. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ²⁴The worker with $100,000 said, 'I know you are a hard man, reaping where you don't sow, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ²⁵and I was afraid so I safely hid your money, and here it is!' ²⁶The owner said, 'You're a lazy worker. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} You know I expected profit from my investment. {102 Dedication of Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44-45} ²⁷You should have put it in a bank where it would at least earn interest.' {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ²⁸The owner took away the $100,000 and gave it to the worker who now had a million dollars." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²⁹Jesus said, "If you have gathered much for the kingdom you'll be given more. If you've done little for the kingdom, it'll be taken from you. 30 The owner said, 'Cast the unprofitable servant into outer darkness, where there is weeping and gnashing of teeth." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, teach me to faithfully manage my time, talent, and treasure for Your glory. May I be as fruitful as I can be with the gifts You've given me and may I work effectively in the location where You've placed me. Amen.

³¹Jesus explained, "When you see the Son of Man come in His glory, {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ³²all the nations of the earth will stand before Him. The Son of Man will sit on His throne to divide them as a shepherd divides his flock; ³³sheep will be separated to His right hand, and goats to the left. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} ³⁴Then the King will say to those on the right, 'Come in because you are blessed, inherit the kingdom prepared for you.' {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} 35Then Jesus will say to them, 'You are blessed because I was hungry and you fed Me. I was thirsty and you gave Me drink. ³⁶I was naked and you took Me in. I was in prison and you came and visited Me.' {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ³⁷Those on the right said, 'When did we see You hungry, or thirsty, ³⁸or naked, ³⁹or in prison?' 40The King shall answer, 'Inasmuch as you did it to my brethren and the poor, you did it to Me.' {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 41 Then the King will say to those on the left, 'Depart from Me into eternal fire prepared for the devil and his demons. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 42Because I was hungry, you didn't feed Me. When I was thirsty you didn't give me something to drink. 43When I was a stranger, you didn't take Me in. When I was naked, you didn't clothe Me. When I was in prison, you didn't visit Me.' 44Then they tried to excuse themselves, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You?' 45Then He will answer them saying, 'Verily I say to you, inasmuch as you ignored one of these needy, you ignore Me.' 46Then they will be sent to eternal punishment, but the righteous will go to eternal life."

Lord, I will give to the poor as I would give to You. I will help the needy as I would help You. I will minister to the hungry and thirsty as I would minister to You. Help me see Your presence in all I do. Amen.

Matthew 26 Events on Wednesday

¹On Wednesday Jesus said to His disciples, ²"In two days the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ³The religious leaders with Caiaphas the high priest {320 New Covenant-Praying, Heb. 8:8} ⁴came together to discuss how to arrest Jesus and kill Him. ⁵But they decided not to do it during Passover, lest there be an uprising among the people. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

The Anointing at Bethany

⁶That night Jesus attended a feast in Bethany in the home of Simon the leper. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2} ⁷A woman poured a pound of perfume from a jar on Jesus' head. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} 8The oil was very costly. Some in the crowd were indignant, thinking the ointment was wasted. ⁹They wanted to sell it and give the money to the poor. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ¹⁰Jesus understood what they were saying, so He answered, "Why are you criticizing the woman? She has done a good thing for Me. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29\ \text{\text{11}You always will have the poor,} and you can do for them what you want to do. But you won't always have Me; {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 12she has anointed My body for its burial. 13Wherever the gospel is preached in the world, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} she will be remembered for her act of worship."

Lord, nothing given to You is wasted. No sacrifice of time, energy, or money is wasted when given to You. Amen.

¹⁴One of the twelve—Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priest ¹⁵and asked, "What will you give me if I deliver Jesus to you?" The religious rulers gave him 30 pieces of silver, ¹⁶so Judas looked for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them.

Events on Thursday

¹⁷On Thursday, the day when the Passover lamb was killed, the disciples asked Jesus, "Where do You want to celebrate Passover?" {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ¹⁸Jesus told Peter and John to go in the city and find a man with a pitcher on his head. "Follow him to a house, and ask the owner for a room where I can celebrate Passover. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} He will show you a larger upper room; get it ready for Me to celebrate the Passover." ¹⁹And they went and found the man {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} just as Jesus said, and they prepared it for the Passover meal.

The Last Supper

²⁰When evening came, Jesus was sitting at the table with the twelve ²¹when He said, "Verily I say to you, one of you is going to betray Me." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} ²²They were stunned in their hearts, and asked one by one, "Lord, is it I?" {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} ²³Jesus answered, "The man who dipped his bread with Me in the stew is the one who is going to betray Me. ²⁴The Son of Man is going to His destiny as the Scriptures predict, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} but a curse will be on the one who betrays Him. It would have been better for that man if he had never been born!" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁵Then Judas who was to betray Him, asked, "Is it I, Rabbi?" {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} Jesus answered him, "Those are your words." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

Eleven disciples called Jesus "Lord" because of their relationship to Him. {289 Lordship Salvation-Prayer, Acts 9:6} Judas called Him "Rabbi" because he only looked to Jesus as a teacher. Lord, You are my Lord. Sit on the throne of my heart and rule my life. Amen.

Institution of the Lord's Table

²⁶While they were eating, Jesus took bread and blessed it; {472 Table-Blessing Prayer, Mark 6:41} then He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take and eat it; this represents My body." {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10} ²⁷He also took the cup and gave thanks; then giving it to them, He said, "All of you drink, {95 Crown-Casting Worship, Rev. 4:10} ²⁸for this represents My blood which confirms the covenant, the blood which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of their sins. ²⁹I tell you, I will never again drink the fruit of the vine till the day when

I drink with you in My Father's kingdom." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

Lord, I will remember You when I come to the Communion Table. It is not about the elements and it is not about a church program. It is in remembrance of You. Amen.

Jesus' Prayer in Gethsemane

³⁰After singing a hymn, they left the city and went up the Mount of Olives. {439 Singing-Prayer, Ps. 95:2}

³¹Then Jesus said to them, "You will all lose faith over Me tonight, for the Scripture says, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 'Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' 32But after my resurrection from the dead, I will meet you in Galilee." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³³Peter answered, "Though all the rest will lose faith in You, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} I will never lose faith." 34Jesus said to him, "I tell you solemnly, before a rooster crows this very night, you will deny Me three times." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ³⁵Peter answered, "Even if I have to die with You, I will never deny You." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

Lord, keep me from bragging, as Peter did. Amen.

³⁶Then Jesus came with them to a garden called Gethsemane, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} and He said to the disciples, "Sit here while I go a little farther to pray." {73 Comfortable Place to Pray, John 18:2} ³⁷Jesus took Peter, James, and John with Him to pray. Jesus became overwhelmed with grief. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} ³⁸Then He said to the three, "My heart is at the point of death! Stay here and keep watch with Me." {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14} ³⁹Then Jesus walked on a few steps and fell on His face to pray, and said, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; and yet not what I want but what You sent Me to do." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁴⁰Then He returned to the disciples and found them asleep. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} He said to Peter, "Could you not then watch with Me one hour? {332 One-Hour Prayer, Mark 14:37} 41You must watch and pray that you enter not into temptation. Your spirit may be willing but human nature is weak." {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

Lord, teach me to pray with wisdom and understanding. May I always know why I am praying, and the things for which I'm praying. May I pray rightly. Amen.

⁴²A second time Jesus went away to pray, {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} "My Father, if this cup cannot pass without My drinking it, may Your will be done." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁴³He came back again and found the disciples again sleeping. They were so sleepy they could hardly hold their eyes open. {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} ⁴⁴Then He left them again to pray the third time. ⁴⁵Then Jesus returned to the disciples and said, "Sleep on! The time has come for the Son of Man to be betrayed into the hands of sinners! ⁴⁶Get up! My betrayer is here!"

Jesus Betrayed, Arrested, and Forsaken

⁴⁷Even while He was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came with the crowd, who had swords and clubs. They were sent from the high priests and the elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now His betrayer had told them the signal was this: "The one I kiss is Jesus. Seize Him!" ⁴⁹And Judas went straight to Jesus and greeted Him; {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} then with hypocrisy, he affectionately kissed Him. {29 Back-slider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, Judas betrayed You with one of the greatest symbols of love—a kiss. Teach me to always express my love to You honestly and sincerely. Amen.

⁵⁰Jesus said to Judas, "My friend, do what you planned." Then they came, grabbed Jesus, and arrested Him. ⁵¹One of the disciples with Jesus drew his sword, and struck at the high priest's servant cutting off his ear. ⁵²Then Jesus said, "Put up your sword, {326 Non-Violence Prayer, Luke 6:28} for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. ⁵³Don't you know I can ask My Father {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} and He will send one hundred thousand angels to protect Me? ⁵⁴There is no other way for the Scriptures to be fulfilled." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ⁵⁵Jesus said to the soldiers, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me, as though I were a criminal? I constantly sat teaching in the temple, and you never laid hands on Me. ⁵⁶But this has all taken place so that the writings of the prophets may be fulfilled." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} Then all the disciples left Jesus and ran away. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, Your disciples left You and ran away. May I never do anything like that. Amen.

The Second Trial—Before Caiaphas

⁵⁷The men who had arrested Jesus took Him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and elders were assembled. 58Peter followed Him at a distance to the courtyard of the high priest's home, going inside to sit among the attendants to see what would happen. 59 The high priests and the whole council were looking for false testimony against Jesus, so they could put Him to death. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 60But they could not agree, although many false witnesses came forward to testify. Eventually two men came forward 61 to agree, "This man claims, 'I can tear down the temple of God, and build it again in three days." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 62The high priest then arose and said to Jesus, "Have You no answer? What evidence do You have?" 63But Jesus kept silent. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3} So the high priest said to Him, {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} "I put You under oath, in the name of the living God, tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God." 64Jesus answered him, "The words you charged Me with are true. But I tell you, you will all soon see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Almighty, and coming on the clouds of the sky." {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} 65 Then the high priest tore his clothes, and said, "He has blasphemed. What more witnesses do we need? You have just heard His blasphemy. 66What is your opinion?" Then they agreed, "He deserves to die." 67After that they spit in His face and slapped Him with their fists. Others hit Him, ⁶⁸saying, "If You are the Christ, tell us who struck You?" {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

Lord Jesus, You suffered all of this for me. Deepen my love to You. Amen.

⁶⁹As Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, a servant girl said to him, "You, also, were with Jesus the Galilean." ⁷⁰But Peter denied before them all, and said, "I do not know the man." {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁷¹Then he went out into the gate, where another servant girl saw him, and said, "This fellow was with Jesus the Nazarene." ⁷²Again Peter denied it, and even swore and cursed, "I do not know the man!" {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁷³A few minutes afterward a bystander told Peter, "You are surely one of them, for your accent gives you away." ⁷⁴Then he continued cursing and swearing, "I do not know the man!" {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁷⁵And at once a rooster crowed. Then Peter remembered what Jesus had said, "Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} And he went out and wept bitterly. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

Lord, I know that humans are weak and they fail. Give me strength to always stand up for You. Amen.

Matthew 27 Jesus Delivered to Pilate

¹Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people met to plan the death of Jesus. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²They tied Him up and led Him away to hand Him over to Pilate the governor.

Lord, I don't see how religious leaders could plot the death of an innocent man. Perhaps this is why the Jews are spiritually blinded to this day about Jesus. Amen.

Remorse and Suicide of Judas

³When Judas the betrayer found that Jesus had been condemned, he was overcome with remorse and took the 30 silver pieces back to the chief priests and elders saying, ⁴"I have sinned, I have betrayed innocent blood." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} "What has that got to do with us?" they replied. "That is your concern." 5Judas threw down the silver pieces in the temple sanctuary and left to hang himself. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 6The chief priests picked up the silver pieces saying, "It is against the law to put this money into the treasury; it is blood money." 7So after discussing the matter they bought a potter's field with the money as a graveyard for foreigners. ⁸This is why the field is called the Field of Blood to this day. 9The words of the prophet Jeremiah {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} were fulfilled: "And they took the 30 silver pieces, the price the children of Israel agreed to pay for Him, ¹⁰ and they bought the potter's field, just as the Lord directed."

The Fourth Trial—Before Pilate

¹¹Jesus stood before the governor, and Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "That is what you say."

Lord Jesus, You are not only the King of the Jews, You are also King of my life. Amen.

¹²But when Jesus was accused by the chief priests and the elders, He refused to answer anything. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3} ¹³Pilate then said, "Don't You hear these many charges they have brought against You?" ¹⁴But to the governor's complete surprise, Jesus didn't offer any reply to the charges. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Barabbas Is Released

¹⁵At the Festival of Passover it was the governor's practice to release any prisoner the people chose. ¹⁶At this time there was a famous prisoner named Barabbas. ¹⁷So when the crowd gathered, Pilate asked them, "Who do you want me to release: Barabbas or Jesus, the one who is called your Messiah?" 18Pilate knew it was out of envy that they had brought Jesus to court. 19 Now as Pilate sat in the chair of judgment, his wife sent him a message, "Don't have anything to do with that Man; I had a terrible dream about Him." {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²⁰The chief priests and the elders had persuaded the crowd to shout for the release of Barabbas and demand the execution of Jesus. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ²¹So when Pilate asked them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" they cried out, "Barabbas." 22"Then in that case," Pilate asked, "what shall I do with Iesus who is called the Messiah?" They all cried, "Let Him be crucified!" {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 23"Why?" Pilate asked. "What crime has He done?" But they shouted with a roar, "Crucify Him!" 24When Pilate saw that he could do nothing else, he took a basin of water and washed his hands in front of them and said, "I am innocent of this man's blood." {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} ²⁵And the people shouted back, "His blood be on us and on our children!" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, it's not possible to get rid of Jesus by washing one's hands. When the world rejects Him, I accept Him as my Savior. Amen.

²⁶Then Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus to be scourged {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} and then handed Him over to the soldiers to be crucified. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ²⁷The governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole guard around Him. ²⁸They stripped Jesus and made Him wear a scarlet robe.

Jesus Is Mocked

²⁹Then they twisted some thorns into a crown and placed it on His head {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} and placed a reed in His right hand. They knelt before Him saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ³⁰And they spat on Him and took the reed and struck Him on the head with it. ³¹When they had finished making fun of Him, they took off the cloak and dressed Him in His own clothes and led Him away to crucify Him. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Lord, while the world tries to humiliate Jesus, as did the soldiers, one day Jesus will be their judge at the Great White Judgment throne. Amen.

³²On their way to crucify Him, they met a man from Cyrene, Simon by name, carrying His cross. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ³³When they reached the place called Golgotha, the place of the skull, {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ³⁴they offered Him wine to drink mixed with gall. When He tasted it, He refused to drink it.

On the Cross

35When they had finished crucifying Him {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} they cast lots for His clothing, ³⁶ and then they sat down to keep guard. ³⁷Over His head was placed a shingle that read: "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." 38Two thieves were crucified with Him, {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} one on the right and the other on the left. ³⁹The passersby hurled abuse at Him; they nodded their heads, {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ⁴⁰saying, "You said You would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days! Then save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!" {245 Insincere-Prayer, Matt. 12:38-39} 41The chief priests with the scribes and elders mocked Him in the same way. 42"He saved others," they said, "but He cannot save Himself. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} If You are the King of Israel, come down from the cross, and we will believe You. 43He trusted God: now let God save Him. For He did say, 'I am the Son of God." 44Even the thieves who were crucified with Him mocked Him in the same way.

From Noon until 3 P.M.

⁴⁵At noon darkness fell over all the land until three o'clock. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ⁴⁶Then Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" that is,

"My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 47 When those who stood there heard this, they said, "The man is calling on Elijah."

At this moment Jesus became the sin of the world (John 1:29, 2 Cor. 5:21). Notice Jesus did not pray "My Father," His usual name. Rather, Jesus prayed, "My God," which means Jesus was separated from the Father because the Father couldn't look on the sin that was on Jesus. Jesus was offering Himself as the sin sacrifice to God. Lord, I don't know why You died, but I gratefully receive Your salvation. Amen.

⁴⁸One of the soldiers quickly ran to get a sponge dipped in vinegar and put it on a reed for Jesus to drink. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ⁴⁹But the rest of them said, "Let's see if Elijah comes to save Him." ⁵⁰Then Jesus, crying out in a loud voice, yielded up His Spirit. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

51 Then the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. There was an earthquake; and rocks were split; 52 the tombs opened and the bodies of many holy men rose from the dead {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 53 and came out of the tombs {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} and entered the Holy City and appeared to a number of people. 54 The centurion, and the other soldiers guarding Jesus, saw the earthquake and everything else that was taking place, and they were terrified. {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} They said, "Truly this was the Son of God." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Lord, I pray that people everywhere will read this story and agree with the Roman officer, "Jesus is God's Son." Amen.

⁵⁵And many women were watching from a distance, the same women who had followed Jesus from Galilee and took care of His needs. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} ⁵⁶Among them were Mary of Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee's sons.

Lord, I'm glad there were witnesses to His death to verify what happened when Jesus died (history is an accurate record by credible eyewitnesses). Amen.

The Burial of Jesus' Body

⁵⁷When evening came, Joseph, a rich man of Arimathaea, who had become a disciple of Jesus, {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ⁵⁸went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate gave orders for it to be handed over. ⁵⁹So Joseph took the body, wrapped it in clean linen {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁶⁰and put the body in his own new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock. He then rolled a large stone across the entrance to the tomb and left. {276 Leave the Cemetery-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-2}

Friday until Sunday Morning

⁶¹Now Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there watching where Jesus was buried. 62The next day after the Passover was over, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate 63 and said, "Sir, we remember what this imposter said while He was still alive, 'After three days I shall rise again.' {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 64Therefore order guards to secure the grave until the third day. We fear His disciples will come and steal the body and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead.' If this happens, it would be worse for us than the first." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 65"You have your guard," Pilate said to them. "Go and make it as secure as you can." 66So they went and placed guards at the grave, putting an official seal on the stone.

Lord, if it hadn't been for the soldiers, people might have believed the lie that His disciples stole His body. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} Amen.

Matthew 28 At the Tomb Early Sunday Morning

¹After the Sabbath was over, just as a new day was dawning, on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to the grave. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²Suddenly there was a violent earthquake, for the angel of the Lord came down from heaven, and rolled away the stone {188

God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} and sat on it. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} ³His face shone like lightning, and his robe was white as snow. ⁴The guards were so afraid of him that they fainted and collapsed. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7}

Lord, thank You for opening the tomb so the world could look in to see it was empty. Amen.

⁵The angel spoke to the women, "Do not be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus, {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} who was crucified. ⁶He is not here, for He has risen, as He said. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Come and see where His body was lying. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ⁷Then go quickly and tell His disciples He has risen from the dead {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} and He is going to Galilee; it is there you will see Him." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

Lord, I know the Resurrection is true, not just because of this story or an empty tomb. I know it's true because the resurrected Jesus lives in my heart. Amen.

⁸The women were overjoyed {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} and quickly left the tomb and ran to tell the disciples.

The Appearance of Jesus to the Women

⁹As they were going, Jesus met them. "Greetings," He said. And the women, falling down before Him, grabbed His feet and worshiped Him. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ¹⁰Then Jesus said, "Do not be afraid; {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} go and tell My brothers that they must go to Galilee; they will see Me there." {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14}

¹¹While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city to tell the chief priests what had happened. ¹²The Jewish leaders held a meeting, and after a long discussion they gave a large sum of hush money to the soldiers, {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} and told them, 13"This is what you must report, 'His disciples came during the night and stole the body while we were asleep.' {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 14And should the governor hear about this, we will make things right with him, and see that you do not get into trouble." 15The soldiers took the money and obeyed their instructions. This story was spread among the Jews to this day.

The Appearance on a Mountain

¹⁶But the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountains where Jesus had arranged to meet them. {526 Wait-Prayer, Ps. 27:14} ¹⁷When they saw Him they worshiped Him, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} though some doubted. {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16}

The Great Commission

¹⁸Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}
¹⁹Go, therefore, make disciples of all ethnic groups; {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} and teach them to obey all the things I told you. {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} And lo, I am with you always; even to the end of the age."

Jesus was absolutely clear that He wanted His followers to obey Him. Obedience is not compliance to a set of rules, but obedience happens when our inner character conforms to what Christ requests {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} in a habitual consistent manner. Isn't this transformation? Lord, I will obey You from the inside out, not because of rules. It will be sacrificial love, knowing faith, and heavenly inspired obedience. Amen.

MARK

Key Words: Immediately (see Mark 1:12)

Key Verse: "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45).

Theme: Mark presents Jesus as a servant. Also He is seen as a mighty worker doing miracles. The key word "immediately" reveals the character trait of a servant who immediately serves His master, that is, Jesus' heavenly Father. Notice the things that are not emphasized about servants: their birth, genealogy, sayings (sermons and parables), and fulfillment of prophecy. Mark does not refer to these aspects of Jesus.

Prepare your heart to read about Jesus, the humble servant, who "thought it not robbery to be equal with God but emptied Himself of the 'form of God' and was found in the 'appearance as a man' so He might serve people and die for their sins" (Phil. 2:5-12). Then, pray to become a better servant and minister to the needs of others. Lord, I want to be a servant, but I confess my proud heart. I like to be number one. Forgive me! Give me the heart of serving others. Amen.

Mark 1 The Temptation of Jesus

beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²as His coming was predicted by Isaiah the prophet. "Look, I am sending My messenger before You; He will prepare Your way. ³He will be the voice of one crying in the wilderness, who is preparing the way for the Messiah, saying, 'Make the paths straight for Him.' ⁴He was John the Baptizer appearing in the wilderness, preaching baptism and repentance to be forgiven of sins. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁵People flocked to John from all over Judah and Jerusalem to confess their sins and be baptized by him in the Jordan River. ⁶John wore camel's hair clothes and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷John announced, "Someone is coming after me who is more powerful than me. I am not worthy to stoop and untie His sandals. ⁸I have baptized people in water, but He will baptize people in the Holy Spirit." {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20}

Lord, I want the renewal of the Holy Spirit and the filling of the Holy Spirit. I want the Spirit to lead me, use me, and grow the fruit of the Spirit in my inner person. I want the Holy Spirit's power. Amen.

⁹Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan River. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ¹⁰Immediately coming out of the water, He saw heaven open and the Spirit descended on Him like a dove. ¹¹He heard a voice from heaven, "You are My Son whom I love. I am well pleased with You." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

The Temptation of Jesus

¹²Immediately, the Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹³Jesus fasted 40 days {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} and afterward He was tempted by satan. He was with the wild animals and the angels took care of Him. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

We all will have a desert experience, as Jesus did. It is a time of testing, as Jesus was tempted by satan. Our desert experience is something we do alone, and it's there God helps us through angels (1:13), through the Holy Spirit (Luke 4:1), through Scripture (Luke 4:4, 7, 10). Lord, thank You for helping me in my past "desert experiences." Help me in the future when I am tempted again.

May I glorify You in my victory over the world, the flesh, and the devil. Amen.

¹⁴After John was arrested, Jesus went and preached the gospel in Galilee. ¹⁵"Repent and believe the gospel. The time has come, and the kingdom of God is near." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Jesus Calls Fishermen

¹⁶As Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee He saw Peter and Andrew casting their nets into the sea. ¹⁷Jesus called out to them, "Come, be My disciples and I'll teach you how to catch people." {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ¹⁸Immediately they left their nets and followed Jesus. ¹⁹A little farther, Jesus saw two more fishermen, James and John. They were mending their nets with their father Zebedee and the servants. ²⁰Jesus called them also to be His disciples, and immediately they left their nets to follow Jesus. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5c

Lord, teach me instant obedience so I can serve You better. Amen.

Jesus Attends Sabbath Services

²¹Jesus went into the synagogue as was His custom every Saturday. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} Because Jesus was a visiting rabbi, the elders gave Him an opportunity to teach the people. ²²They were amazed at what Jesus said and the way He said it. Jesus' words were authoritative, not like the others. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ²³There was a demon-possessed man in the congregation who screamed out to Jesus, ²⁴"Jesus of Nazareth, what do You want with me? Have You come to destroy me?" This was the demon speaking through the man. The demon said to Jesus, "I know who You are—You are the Holy One of God. You are El Elyon, the possessor of heaven and earth." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²⁵Jesus commanded the demon, "Be quiet!" Then Jesus said, "Come out of the man." ²⁶The demon screamed loudly, then the man shook uncontrollably with convulsions, {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} and the demon came out of the man. {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ²⁷The crowd was amazed saying, "What is this new teaching? Even demonic spirits obey Him." 28The people went back to their homes telling everyone about the mighty power and message of Jesus Christ. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, I bow before Your omnipotent power. Amen.

Jesus Heals Peter's Mother-in-Law and Others

²⁹Jesus left the synagogue and went to Peter's house ³⁰where his mother-in-law was sick with a fever. ³¹When Jesus heard about it, He took her by the hand, helped her up and the fever went away. She got up and prepared a meal for them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

³²At sundown the sick and demon-possessed were brought to Peter's house for healing, ³³and the whole town crowded in to see what would happen. 34 Jesus cured many of them {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} and cast demons out of others, but He wouldn't permit demons to speak because they knew who He was. ³⁵In the morning Jesus woke up before anyone else and went into a private place to pray. {168 First Prayer Each Day, Luke 11:1-2} ³⁶Simon and the others searched ³⁷until they found Him. Then Peter said, "Master, everyone is looking for You." {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} ³⁸Jesus told them He couldn't stay in Capernaum, but He said, "Let us go to the towns of Galilee so I can preach to people there. That is why I came into the world." {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ³⁹Jesus preached in synagogues all over Galilee and cast out demons. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8}

After a busy day of ministry among the crowds, Jesus got up early the next day, drawing Himself apart from people to be blanketed in the presence of His heavenly Father. Was it for human strength or wisdom, or for directions or ability? Probably not! Jesus drew near to the Father for divine fellowship. Lord, I will draw away from the crowds for many reasons. I need strength, wisdom, direction, and power. Also I want to worship You and have fellowship with You. But most of all, I want to know You more intimately. "Be still and know that I am God" (Ps. 46:10). Amen.

⁴⁰As Jesus went through Galilee, a leper pleaded with Him, "If You are willing, You can heal me." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 41Because Jesus was moved with love for him, He touched the leper and said to him, "Be healed!" 42Immediately his leprosy was healed. 43Jesus warned him and sent him away. 44Then Jesus sent him to be examined by a priest, and to make an offering that was required by Moses. {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} Jesus also told him not to tell anyone, 45but the man told everyone what happened. As a result, Jesus could no longer enter any town, and even when He stayed in the fields, people came to Him from all around. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Lord, when You do a work in my heart, it is hard to keep quiet. Just as a light must shine, I want to tell others what You've done for me. I want You to touch me today, to heal me of my sin and failure; then let me touch You today to experience Your victorious power. Amen.

Mark 2 Getting a Friend to Jesus

¹Jesus was in Peter's house in Capernaum when a crowd gathered to hear Him teach, ²so that the house was packed with people. ³Four men brought a man with palsy to Jesus, ⁴but they could not get in the house because there were so many people. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} They took the sick man up to the roof, then removed tiles in the roof, and let down the palsied man in front of Jesus. 5 Jesus knew they had faith for healing, so He said, "Son, your sins are forgiven." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ⁶There were some Jewish leaders in the crowd who criticized Jesus in their hearts, saying, 7"Who can forgive sins but God? This man is blaspheming God. Does He think He is God?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 8Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Why are you criticizing in your mind? 9Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven' {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} or 'Arise, pick up your bedroll and walk?" 10Then Jesus told them He would prove that He is the Messiah—the Son of Man who can forgive sins. 11 Jesus then told the man, "Get up, pick up your bedroll and walk." {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ¹²The man jumped to his feet, took his bedroll, and everyone saw him walk. They were astounded and praised God saying, "We have never seen anything like this." {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Lord, I too am amazed at the things You've done in my life. You've forgiven my sins, given me purpose to live for You, and the joy of the Holy Spirit. You have a wonderful plan for my life and You've given me determination to be victorious over sin and tell others about salvation. Thank You for transforming me. I praise You for the way Jesus handled those who criticized Him. I am astounded at everything You do. Amen.

The Call to Matthew

¹³Jesus left Capernaum and followed the road that ran alongside the Sea of Galilee. ¹⁴When Jesus came to the customs office, He saw Levi sitting there calculating taxes. Jesus said to him, "Follow Me," and to everyone's amazement, Levi left the tax office to follow Jesus. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5}

Lord, may I instantaneously obey when Jesus enters my life and calls me to do a job. Keep reminding me that there is no sinner who is too hardened to follow You as a dedicated disciple. Teach me to love the unsaved, as You loved Matthew. Amen.

15 That evening, Levi gathered a number of his friends to hear Jesus—politicians and tax collectors. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3} 16 When the Jewish leaders saw Jesus eating with the crowd, they asked His disciples, "Why does your master eat with questionable characters?" {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 17 When Jesus knew what the religious leaders asked, He asked a question to get His point across, "Do the healthy need a doctor, or is it the sick who need help? I did not come to offer salvation to people who think they are good enough, but I offer salvation to sinners." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

¹⁸The disciples of John the Baptizer and the Jewish leaders fasted as part of their religious activities. They approached Jesus, asking, "Why do these disciples of John the Baptizer and Pharisees fast but Your disciples do not?" {265 John the Baptizer Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:8} ¹⁹Jesus answered, "Do you expect wedding guests to fast when they are at the wedding feast? They eat as long as they are with the bridegroom, ²⁰but they will fast when the bridegroom is taken from them." {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19}

Lord, I will fast to demonstrate Your power in my life. I will not let my appetite master me, but I will let You master me when I fast for You alone. Amen.

²¹Jesus continued, "No one sews a patch of unshrunken cloth on an old coat. If he does, the new patch will shrink and tear the old coat and it will be worse than ever. ²²No one puts new wine into an old wineskin, because as the new wine ferments, it will burst the old wineskin. The wine will be lost and the wineskin ruined." {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}

Lord, teach me when to embrace the new, and guide me when to leave the old. Amen.

Debate about the Sabbath

²³As Jesus journeyed home from the Passover at Jerusalem, He went past the corn fields on the Sabbath and His disciples picked the grain and ate it. ²⁴The Pharisees criticized them because they broke the Sabbath law. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ²⁵Jesus answered that David went into the tabernacle to eat the shewbread when he was hungry and those with him also ate it. ²⁶Jesus also mentioned that the priest ate showbread on the Sabbath day which outwardly broke the law. Then Jesus added that Hosea the prophet said, "God wants us to be merciful; He doesn't want us to just keep the law. God wants us to know Him, not just bring in burnt sacrifices to Him." ²⁷Finally Jesus noted, "The Sabbath was made to serve man, not for man to keep its law." 28 Jesus proclaimed, "Therefore the Son of Man is master of the Sabbath, not the reverse." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, I will use Your day for worship, service, and learning about You. Be glorified in my observance of Your day of rest and worship. Amen.

Mark 3 The Shriveled Hand Healed

¹When Jesus got to Capernaum, He entered the synagogue, and a man was there with a shriveled up hand. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²The Jewish leaders watched Jesus closely to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath day so they could charge Him with breaking the law. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ³Jesus said to the man with the shriveled up hand, "Stand in the middle of the people." ⁴Then Jesus asked, "Is it right to help or hurt on the Sabbath day? To kill or save lives?" Jesus continued, "If a man's sheep fall into a pit, isn't it proper to rescue the sheep on a Sabbath day? Isn't a man worth more than a sheep?" But the Pharisees wouldn't answer Jesus. {255 Introspective-Prayer, Ps. 139:23-24} 5He looked at them with anger, being grieved for their hardness of heart. Jesus then said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." The man held out his withered hand and it was completely restored. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 6And the Jewish leaders refused to believe in Him, but began making plans to destroy Jesus. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18}

Lord, I don't want to be critical of anyone who comes to You for help or healing as the Jewish leaders criticized You. I marvel at Your compassion on those who hurt or need Your help, and at Your patience with those who reject You. Amen.

Multitudes Healed

⁷Jesus and His disciples left to go to the seaside; multitudes followed Him from Galilee, Judea, ⁸Jerusalem, Idumea, Tyre, and Sidon because they heard about His miracles. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17}

Lord, I want to be where You are worshiped and Your Word is preached. I will congregate with Your people on a weekly basis. Amen. ⁹Jesus told His disciples to have a boat ready because the crowds were crushing Him. ¹⁰Jesus had cured so many people that anyone with an ailment crowded in to touch Him. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹¹When people possessed with demons encountered Jesus, they fell down at His feet screaming, "You are the Son of God." ¹²But Jesus warned them repeatedly that they should not make Him known. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Lord, Your healing power demonstrates You are a powerful God and Your tenderness demonstrates You are a loving God. Amen.

Choosing the Twelve

¹³Jesus went up into the hill country and He continued all night in prayer. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} ¹⁴The next day He called certain men to be His apostles so they would be with Him to learn, and then they would be sent forth to preach, ¹⁵heal and cast out demons. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6}

Why did Jesus call twelve apostles? He wanted them "to be with Him." Lord, keep me from being so busy that I forget "to be with Him." Lord, I will spend time with You before I spend time ministering to others. Amen.

¹⁶Simon, whom Jesus called Peter, ¹⁷was the leader of the first group of four that included James and John whom Jesus named the Sons of Thunder, and Andrew was in that group. ¹⁸The second group of four apostles was led by Philip, and included Bartholomew, Matthew, and Thomas, the one with a twin brother. The third group of four was led by James the short one, and included Thaddeus and Simon, the former terrorist fighter, ¹⁹and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed Jesus. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62}

Lord, teach me to pray about important decisions as You prayed before choosing the twelve disciples. Amen.

The Long Day

²⁰The crowds demanded so much attention that the disciples and Jesus couldn't even get away to eat their lunch. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²¹But those who followed Jesus said, "You can't keep on going if you don't eat something." They added, "Jesus is not thinking straight." 22Then the scribes who came from Jerusalem to examine Jesus said, "He is possessed by Beelzebub, a ruler of demons, and Jesus cast out demons by this power." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²³Jesus gathered people around Him and said, "How can satan cast out satan? {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7} ²⁴If a kingdom is divided against itself, can that kingdom stand? ²⁵If a house is divided against itself, can that house stand? 26If satan rises up against himself, and is divided, he cannot stand; he will fall. ²⁷No one can go into the house of a strong man to destroy his property unless the strong man is tied up. First, he binds the strong man, then destroys his property." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ²⁸Jesus continued, "Truly I tell you, all sins shall be forgiven those who sin, including their blasphemy. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²⁹But those who blaspheme the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven; they are in danger of eternal damnation." {509 Unpardonable-Sin Prayer, Matt. 12:30-32}

If someone thinks he has committed the unpardonable sin, he probably hasn't because a sin that great would harden a person against God. While the exact sin is debatable among believers, one thing we know for sure: those who die outside of Christ have sins that are not pardoned. Lord, I know I'm on my way to heaven because I am convicted of sin and I am terribly distraught when my fellowship with You is broken. I only plead the blood for forgiveness and cleansing (1 John 1:7-10). Amen.

³⁰Jesus said this because His enemies said He was demon-possessed. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ³¹Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to the edge of the crowd and called for Jesus to go with them. ³²With the crowd sitting around Him, they said, "Behold, Your mother and brothers are calling for You to go with them." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ³³ Jesus answered them, "Who are My mother and brothers?" ³⁴Then looking at those sitting about Him He said, "Here are My mother and My brothers. ³⁵Those who do the will of God are My brothers, and sisters, and mother." {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3}

Father, I'm glad to be Your child, and I count all other believers as my sisters and brothers. Give me a love for You and for all of them. Amen.

Mark 4 The Sermon by the Sea

¹As Jesus was teaching by the seaside, a huge crowd gathered around Him so He entered a boat and sat down to teach the people on the shore. ²He taught them many lessons in parables. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} 3"Look," He pointed to a farmer in a field, "a sower went out to sow, 4and as he sowed, some seed fell on the path around the field. The birds came to eat it up. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} 5Other seed fell on rocky soil where it had little dirt, and because it had no earth, it sprang up quickly, ⁶but when the sun came up, it was scorched. Because it had no root, it died. 7Other seed fell in among thorns. The growing thorns choked it, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} so it yielded no crop. 8And other seed fell in the good earth and yielded a crop of thirty, sixty, even a hundredfold. 9Whoever has ears, let him hear and do." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

Lord, I want to do more for You than I do. May I grow where You've planted me and may I produce the fruit of the seed (spiritual gift) within me. May I bring glory and fruitfulness to Your kingdom. Amen.

¹⁰When Jesus was by Himself, those near Him and the twelve asked what the story meant. 11 Jesus told them, "You can know the secret of God's kingdom, {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} but outsiders can't understand spiritual things, so I use stories when I speak to them. 12Because all that they see they may not perceive and for all they hear they do not understand, so they do not turn for forgiveness." {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹³Jesus then told them, "you must understand this story to grasp the other stories. {17 Anointed-Truth Praying, 1 John 2:27} ¹⁴The sower sows God's message. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ¹⁵Those on the pathway where the message is sown forget it as soon as they hear it. Satan comes and snatches away God's message that was sown in their hearts. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹⁶The seeds on rocky soil are those who readily receive God's message, ¹⁷but it doesn't take root in them. They give up. When persecution comes because of the message, they immediately stumble and fall. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ¹⁸Others are those sown among thorns—they hear the message of God 19but the cares of the world and the taste of wealth and the attraction of entertainment choke God's message and it becomes fruitless. {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.} ²⁰But those sown on good dirt are those who hear and accept God's message and yield fruit thirty, sixty, even a hundredfold." {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26}

Lord, I will watch for hard soil in my heart; make me tender to You. I will let Your roots grow deep in my heart to overcome trials and suffering. I will immediately pull up my weeds that will tempt me to sin. Lord, I want to have a clean, healthy body to serve You. Amen.

²¹Jesus said to them, "Do you hide a lamp under a basket or under a bed? No! You put it on a lamp stand. ²²Nothing will be hidden until it is shown, and nothing is kept secret until it is revealed. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ²³Whoever has good ears let him hear and obey." {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²⁴Jesus also said, "Be careful about what you hear. The shovelful you shovel out to others will be shoveled to you tenfold. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ²⁵The one who has shall be given more, and the one who does not have shall lose what he has." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

²⁶And Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is like a man scattering seed in the earth, ²⁷and then he goes to sleep while the seed sprouts and springs up, but he does not know how or when it happens. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ²⁸The earth produces from itself. First, the blade, then a head, then the full-grown wheat in the head. ²⁹When the crop is ripe, he puts in the sickle because harvest has come." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

Lord, teach me seed-power, so that I may plant the seeds of the gospel into the hearts of lost people. Amen.

³⁰Jesus also said, "To what may we compare the kingdom of God or by what parable may we understand it? {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ³¹The kingdom is like a mustard seed—smaller than any known seed on earth. ³²Yet, when planted, it grows up to be larger than any bush, so that wild birds roost in its branches." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ³³With many such stories, Jesus told them God's message as far as they could understand it. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ³⁴He spoke only in stories and explained everything privately to His disciples. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4}

Jesus Calms the Storm

³⁵Toward noon, Jesus said, "Let us cross over to the other side." ³⁶So leaving the crowd, {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} they sailed Him to the other side. ³⁷A heavy storm came up {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} and the waves filled the boat so that the boat was sinking. ³⁸Jesus was asleep in the stern. They woke Him up and said, "Teacher, do You realize we are sinking?" {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord, teach me to turn to You when the storms of life threaten me. Amen.

³⁹He rose up, stopped the wind and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" So the wind died down and the sea was calm. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ⁴⁰Jesus said to them, "Why are you afraid? Where is your faith?" {514 Victory Over Doubt-Prayer, Mark 11:23} ⁴¹They were afraid and said to one another, "Who is He, that even the wind and the sea waves obey Him?" {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Mark 5 Jesus Heals a Violent Demon-Stricken Man

¹They landed in the area of Gad, on the opposite side of the lake from Capernaum. 2As soon as He got out of the boat, a demon-possessed man, {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} 3who was living in the tombs, accosted Jesus. No one could subdue him, even with chains. ⁴Many times he had been bound with ropes and chains, but the chains were broken and the ropes snapped. No one could control him. ⁵He lived night and day among the tombs and in the mountains, screaming and cutting himself with stones. {341 Pain-Praying, Ps. 38:6, 20, 21} 6He noticed Jesus from a distance, then ran and knelt before Him, {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 7screaming, "What do You have to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High

God? I plead with You, do not torment me," 8for Jesus had said to him, "Unclean spirit, come out of the man." {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12} 9Jesus questioned the man, "What is your name?" The man answered, "My name is Legion, for we are many." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ¹⁰Then the demons urgently begged Him not to send them away. 11There was a large herd of hogs feeding there on the mountainside. 12The demons appealed to Jesus, "Send us to the hogs so we may enter into them!" 13Jesus permitted it and so the demons went into the hogs. Then the herd of about two thousand hogs rushed headlong down a precipice into the sea and drowned. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}

Lord, I believe there are evil spirits in the world that would destroy me. Deliver me from the evil one, and protect me by my guardian angel. Amen.

¹⁴Those tending the hogs ran to tell the news in town. Many people came to see what had happened. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁵They saw the demoniac, who had been possessed of the legion, sitting calmly, dressed and sane. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} They were frightened. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ¹⁶Those who had seen it, told them what occurred to the demoniac; they also told them about the hogs. ¹⁷Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their country. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer,

2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹⁸As Jesus was leaving, the demoniac asked to go with Jesus, {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ¹⁹but He said, "No." Instead Jesus said to him, "Go back to your family and friends and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and the mercy He showed you!" {56 Burden-Prayer, Rom. 10:1} ²⁰And the healed man went to announce throughout Decapolis everything that Jesus had done for him, and all were astonished. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Lord, I will be like this healed man. I will go tell people what You have done for me. Amen.

The Woman and the 12-Year-Old Girl

²¹When Jesus had crossed by boat back to Capernaum, a great multitude was waiting for Him on the shore. {495 True-Heart Praying, Heb. 10:22} ²²Then a leader of the synagogue named Jairus came immediately and fell at His feet {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} ²³and begged Him, "My daughter is at the point of death. Come and place Your hands on her that she may be healed." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁴So Jesus followed him and a multitude followed them.

Lord, teach me to seek Your help when I have a life-threatening problem. May I come first to You instead of trying all other solutions as did the woman with an issue of blood (Mark 5:26). Amen.

²⁵A woman who had a blood hemorrhage for 12 years ²⁶had been treated by many physicians. She spent all she had without getting better, and was growing worse. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²⁷She heard Jesus was coming so she got in the crowd behind and touched the hem of His robe. ²⁸She kept saying, "If I only touch the hem of His robe, I'll be healed." {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²⁹Instantly, her hemorrhage stopped, and she felt in her body that she was healed. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³⁰Jesus was instantly conscious that power had gone from Him, so He turned around to the crowd and asked, "Who touched Me?" {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³¹His disciples remarked, "The crowd is pressing You on all sides and You ask, 'Who touched Me?'" 32But Jesus looked around to see who had done it. {194 Good-Things Praying, Heb. 13:21} ³³Then the woman was afraid and knowing what had happened to her, came and fell at His feet. She told Him everything. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} 34But Jesus said to her, "Daughter, your faith, not your touch, has saved you. Go in peace because you are healed." {241 Inner-Assurance Praying, 1 John 5:10}

Lord, the woman kept thinking a "touch" would heal her. But You called her into public view to tell her, "Your faith has made you whole." Amen.

35While He was still speaking, some servants came from the ruler's house and told him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't trouble the Master anymore." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 36But Jesus, overhearing the message, said to the synagogue ruler, "Do not fear; only trust Me!" {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ³⁷Jesus permitted no one to accompany Him except Peter and James and James' brother John. {254 Intimacy-Prayer, Luke 11:2} 38When He came to the ruler's house, He saw confusion with loud weeping and wailing. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} 39As He entered, Jesus asked them. "Why this confusion and weeping? The girl is not dead, she's only asleep." {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} 40 They ridiculed Jesus, but He put them out of the house and took along the child's father and mother and those with Him, and went to where the child was. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ⁴¹Then taking the child's hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi," which is translated "Little Girl, get up by My Word." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁴²Instantly the 12-year-old girl got up and walked. Everyone was astonished, {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 43but Jesus strictly charged them that no one should know what happened, and told them to give her something to eat. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11}

Mark 6 The Twelve Sent Two by Two

¹Jesus left Capernaum and came to His hometown with His disciples following Him. {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4} On the Sabbath He began teaching in the synagogue where many listeners were utterly amazed. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} "Where did He get all this wisdom?" they remarked. "What knowledge has been given Him and what are these miracles that He does? ³Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and the brother of James and Joseph and Judas and Simon? And do not His sisters live here?" And they were offended by Him. {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} ⁴Jesus said, "A prophet has honor except in his own community and among his own people." 5So He could do no mighty miracles there, except He laid hands on a few sick and healed them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁶Jesus marveled at their unbelief {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} so He went to nearby villages to teach. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, I know that my unbelief hampers Your work through me. Just as Jesus couldn't do many miracles in Nazareth because of their unbelief, so my lack of faith curtails Your work through me. Give me more faith. "I believe! Help me when I don't believe enough" (Mark 9:24). Amen.

7Jesus called the twelve to Himself and then He began to send them out two by two, giving them authority over demons {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} and 8telling them to take nothing for the trip except a staff {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}—no food, no purse, no money, 9but to wear sandals; and not to take a change of clothing. 10He explained, "Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the town. {346 Patient-Teaching Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:2} ¹¹And if a town will not receive you nor listen to you, shake off the dust from your feet. Truly I tell you, it will be easier for Sodom and Gomorrah in the judgment than for that town." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, help me put my emphasis on those who will receive Your ministry. I will preach to all, but spend my time with those who will receive Your Word. Amen.

¹²So they went out preaching that men should repent. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} ¹³They cast out many demons {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} and healed many sick, anointing them with oil. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10}

The Murder of John the Baptizer

¹⁴When King Herod heard about it, he said, "John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} therefore these powers are working in Jesus." ¹⁵Some said, "He is Elijah"; others said, "He is a prophet, or one of the prophets." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁶But on hearing about Jesus, Herod said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been returned to life." {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} ¹⁷For Herod himself had sent soldiers to arrest John, and had him put in chains in prison. He had married Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} 18But John had told Herod, "You have no right to have your brother's wife." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 19So Herodias wanted to get even, and wanted him executed. {28 Avoid-Persecution Prayer, Acts 25:11} ²⁰But she couldn't get it done because Herod was afraid of John, whom he knew to be a righteous and holy man. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} Therefore Herod protected him and was confused for he enjoyed listening to him. ²¹Then an opportunity came; it was Herod's birthday when he gave a banquet to his nobles and officers and Galilean chiefs. ²²Herodias' daughter came in and danced. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} She pleased Herod and his guests so that the king said to her, "Ask whatever you want and I will give it to you." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ²³Then he made an oath, "Whatever you ask me, I will give it to you up to half of my kingdom." {521 Vow-Prayer, Rev. 10:6} ²⁴She went to ask her mother, "What shall I ask?" The mother said, "The head of John the Baptizer." {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²⁵The daughter hurried to the king and said, "The head of John the Baptizer." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁶Although exceedingly sorry, yet because of his oath and the pressure of his guests, {522 Vow-Violation Prayer, Ps. 65:1} ²⁷immediately the king sent a guard with orders to bring John's head on a plate. He went, beheaded John in prison, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²⁸and brought his head on a plate and gave it to the daughter who presented it to her mother. ²⁹And when His disciples heard of it, they came and took up his body and buried it in a tomb. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3}

Lord, help me to be careful of those who have a grudge against You and Your servants. Amen.

Feeding the Five Thousand

³⁰The apostles returned to Jesus and reported everything they had done and taught. {262 Jesus-Agreement Prayer, Heb. 7:24-25} ³¹Then He instructed them, "Come away with Me to a private place in the desert to rest awhile." For so many were pressing around them they could not even conveniently eat. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16}

³²So they left in a boat for a private spot by themselves. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} ³³But the people saw them leaving, and ran there on foot and arrived ahead of them. {548 Yearning-Prayer, Ps. 63:1} ³⁴When Jesus got out of the boat, He saw a large crowd and was deeply moved for them; because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And He began to teach them many things. {292 Love-Abounding

Prayer, Phil. 1:10} 35As the hour grew late, His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a secluded spot and the hour is late. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ³⁶Send them away so they may go to the surrounding towns to buy something to eat." {70 Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} 37But Jesus answered them, "You give them something to eat!" They answered Him, "Shall we go and buy food to feed them?" {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} 38He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They answered, "Five loaves and two fish." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ³⁹Jesus told them to have the people all sit on the grass {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} 40by groups of hundreds and fifties. 41 Jesus took the five loaves and two fish and looking into heaven, blessed the food and broke it {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} and gave it to the disciples to give to the people. He also divided the two fish. {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 42Everyone ate and was filled. ⁴³They picked up 12 full baskets of the bread and fish that were left over. 44About five thousand men were fed. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1}

Lord, You are able to do big things with anything "little" that is given to You, and blessed by You. That's the prayer of my life; I am "little" when compared to many; use me. I give myself to You. Amen.

⁴⁵Immediately Jesus urged His disciples to get into a boat to cross over to Bethsaida. He dismissed the crowd, {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ⁴⁶and left to go to a mountain to pray. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1}

Lord, after great manifestations of Your power, teach me to seek Your fellowship in prayer. I recognize all great things come from You and I praise You for all You do. Amen.

Jesus Walks on Water

⁴⁷During the night, the boat was half way across the sea and He was on the land. {175 Forsaken-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} 48Jesus saw them toiling hard at rowing because a storm had come up. He went to them around the fourth watch of the night walking on the sea. Jesus made as if He would pass them by. {122 Distraction to Prayer, Exod. 17:11} 49But the disciples saw Him walking on the sea and thinking it was a ghost, they yelled; {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ⁵⁰ for they all saw Him and were scared. Jesus said to them, "Be of good cheer; it is I." {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} 51He then came to them in the boat, and the wind was calm. They were amazed. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 52They did not understand the miracle of the loaves and they were filled with doubt. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

53They crossed over to arrive at Gennesaret. But as soon as Jesus got out of the ship, 54the people recognized Him {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} 55and they circulated throughout the area that Jesus was there and people began bringing to Him the sick on their mats. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁵⁶Wherever He went in villages or towns, the people brought their sick and begged Jesus to let them touch the hem of His robe. And as many as touched Him were healed. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4}

Mark 7 Questions about Ceremonial Cleansing

¹Jewish leaders came from Jerusalem to Capernaum, to find fault with Jesus' religious practices. ²They were angry because Jesus' disciples ate bread with defiled hands; they didn't wash their hands ceremonially before eating. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ³The leaders cleansed themselves ceremonially, ⁴when they came from the marketplace; they did the same to all eating utensils. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} 5The leaders asked Jesus why His disciples didn't keep the tradition of the elders? {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁶Jesus answered by quoting Isaiah, "This people honors Me in outward ways, but their heart is far from Me. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ⁷They vainly worship Me, teaching their doctrine as the Word of God." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} Jesus told the Jewish leaders, 8"You leave the Word of God {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} and hold to your traditions such as washing pitchers and cups and such things. 9You ignore God's commands to keep your traditions.

{537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ¹⁰Moses told you to honor your father and mother and the one who speaks evil of father and mother shall be put to death. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} 11But you say, 'My mother and father are better off because they gave birth to me.' This statement does not honor your parents; 12you no longer allow people to honor his parents. 13 You deny Scriptures by your tradition that is handed down from generation to generation." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 14Jesus then spoke to the crowd, {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} 15"Nothing that goes into a man's mouth defiles him; the things that come out of his heart are the things that defile him. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7}16Listen to this truth if you have ears in your heart." {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} ¹⁷When Jesus went into a house away from the crowd, the disciples asked Jesus to explain what He meant. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} 18Jesus answered, "Don't you understand; a person is not defiled by what goes in the mouth, but by what comes out of the heart. {418 Sanctification-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:3, 7} 19What goes into the mouth, enters the stomach, and finally is discharged from the body, {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} 20but things that come out of the heart defile a person, {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.} ²¹for out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual perversions, ²²thefts, lying, pride, and anger. ²³The things that come out of the heart defile a person, not eating with unwashed hands." {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.}

Lord, I know "the heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked" (Jer. 17:9). I read about its evil in Scripture, and I see it in my life. I rededicate myself to You, and separate myself from sin. Make me holy! Amen.

Jesus Visits Lebanon

²⁴Jesus left Galilee and went to Tyre and Sidon, and slipped quietly into a house for rest where the crowd wouldn't exhaust Him. But the crowds found out where He was, {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} ²⁵and a woman whose daughter was possessed with a demon fell down before Jesus. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²⁶She was a Syrophoenician, who begged {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} Jesus to cast the demon out of her daughter. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁷Jesus said, "No one takes bread from the children, and gives it to the dogs under the table." {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} So Jesus didn't respond in a positive way but referred to her as a dog, the Jewish word for Gentile. ²⁸But the woman showed faith by replying, "Yes, Lord, but the dogs under the table get to eat the crumbs." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ²⁹Jesus answered, "Woman, you have great faith; you will get what you asked." 30When the woman left the house, she found that the demon had gone out of her daughter. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

³¹Jesus left the area of Tyre and went through Sidon to the area of the Ten Cities by the Sea of Galilee. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} ³²They brought to Jesus a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment. They begged Jesus to lay His hand on the man. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³³So Jesus took him away from the crowd and put His fingers in his ears with spit from His tongue. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} 34Then Jesus looked up to heaven sighing and said, "Ephphtha," which means "Be opened." {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 35Immediately the man could hear and speak clearly. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³⁶Then Jesus charged them not to tell anyone; but the more He asked them to keep quiet, the more they kept telling the news. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ³⁷So the people were astonished {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} saying, "He has done everything good. He even makes deaf people hear and dumb people talk." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6}

Mark 8 Jesus Feeds Four Thousand

¹Then another great crowd gathered and had nothing to eat. Jesus said, ²"I have compassion on these people, for they have been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. ³If I send them away hungry, they will faint on the road for some of them have come a long way." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 4But His disciples answered, "Where can we get food in this isolated place?" 5Then Jesus asked, "How many loaves of bread do you have?" They answered, "Seven." {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 6So He told the crowd to sit on the ground. He took the seven loaves and gave thanks {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} and broke them in pieces and gave to His disciples to distribute. ⁷There were a few small fish there, and He also blessed them and the disciples passed these to the people. {472 Table-Blessing Prayer, Mark 6:41} 8They are and had all they wanted. Then the disciples took up the food left over which filled seven baskets. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 9There were about four thousand people present. ¹⁰Then He sent them away and got in a boat to cross to the area of Dalmanutha. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4}

¹¹The Pharisees again met Jesus to talk with Him and try to trip Him up. They asked Him to show them a spectacular miracle from heaven. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3 12 But Jesus sighed in His Spirit, "Why do these people ask for a spectacular miracle? I truly say, no sign will be given them at this time." {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} 13And He got into the boat and crossed back over to the other side. {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ¹⁴Now the disciples had forgotten to bring any food. They only had one loaf with them in the boat. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁵So Jesus warned them, "Be careful! Guard yourselves against the yeast (influence) of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod." {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ¹⁶The disciples had been discussing the fact that they forgot to bring bread. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ¹⁷When Jesus heard them, He said, "Why are you talking about having no bread? {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁸Do you not remember? {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} Are your minds forgetful? Can your eyes not see? Can your ears not hear? 19Remember how many baskets you picked up after I broke the five loaves for the five thousand? {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²⁰Remember how many baskets were left over when I broke the seven loaves for the four thousand?" {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} ²¹Then He asked, "How is it that you do not believe?" {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33}

Lord, I will not ask You for a miracle to prove who You are. You have done such a great transformation in my heart that I could never doubt that You are the God of miracles, and the Lord of the universe. Amen.

²²When they came to Bethsaida, a blind man was brought to Him. They begged Jesus to touch him. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²³Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out to the village, then put spit in his eyes, laid His hands on him, asking, "Do you see anything?" {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²⁴He looked around and answered, "I see the people like trees swaying." ²⁵Then Jesus laid His hands on his eyes a second time. The blind man was cured, and saw everything plainly. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ²⁶So Jesus sent him home instructing him, "Do not go into the village, or tell anyone there about this."

Jesus Visits Caesarea Philippi

²⁷Then Jesus and His disciples left Galilee to go to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. While walking, He asked His disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" ²⁸They answered, "Some say John the Baptizer; others say Elijah, and still others that You are one of the prophets." ²⁹Then He asked them, "But, who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ." {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} ³⁰Jesus then carefully told them, "Do not tell this to anyone." {452 Spiritual-Protective Prayer, Ps. 23:1} ³¹Then Jesus told them for the first time that the Son of Man had to go through great suffering and be rejected by the elders, the high priest and the scribes, and be killed but rise again in three days. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} 32So Peter took Jesus aside and rebuked Him. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ³³But Jesus turned to look at His disciples and rebuked Peter saying, "Get behind Me, satan! For what you say is not from God but from men." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

Lord, forgive me when I think the way humans think. I will search the Scriptures to think the way You think. Amen.

³⁴When Jesus called the people and His disciples, He said, "Whoever becomes My disciple must say, 'No' to self-interest; take up his cross, and follow Me continually. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 35Whoever tries to save his life, will lose it, and whoever gives up his life for Me and the gospel, will save it. {94 Crown of Righteousness-Prayer, 2 Tim. 4:8} ³⁶For what shall it benefit a person to gain the whole world and lose his life? {185 Giving Ourselves to God by Prayer, Rom. 12:1} ³⁷What price can a person give to buy back his life? 38 For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous sinful age, then the Son of Man shall be ashamed of him when He comes in the Father's glory with the holy angels." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

There are three steps to becoming a disciple of Jesus. First, we must focus on it by picking up our cross to follow Jesus. What is a "cross"? It is our instrument of "crucifixion." Each has a difficult instrument that brings us to Christ and His cross, where we identify with Christ and get forgiveness of sins. Second, we must "follow," which means getting as close to Jesus as possible. Third, we must deny self to do God's will. Lord, I will pick up my cross daily. I will follow as close as possible as I deny self. Amen.

Mark 9 The Transfiguration

¹And Jesus said to them, "I truly say to you, some of those standing here will live long enough to see the kingdom of God come with power." {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9}

The Transfiguration of Jesus

²After six days Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up on a high mountain, alone by themselves. {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22}

Lord, thank You for these "mountaintop" experiences where I see You clearer than ever before, and I am closer to You than ever before. I know I can't live on the mountaintop, but I'll remember them until the next time. Amen.

³His appearance was changed in their presence and His clothes shined exceedingly white, whiter than any bleach could wash them. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} 4Then Elijah and Moses appeared to them, talking with Jesus. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} 5Then Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good to be here. Let us build three tents, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." {21 Approach Worshipfully, Heb. 12:22} Peter didn't realize what he was saying because he was so frightened. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 7Then a cloud overshadowed them, and they heard a voice out of the cloud, "This is My Beloved Son, listen to Him!" {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} 8And instantly, they saw no one with them but Jesus. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} 9After they were going down the mountain, Jesus cautioned them not to tell anyone what they had seen, until the Son of Man was risen from the dead. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ¹⁰And they kept that saying as they continued to discuss among themselves what rising from the dead meant. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹¹Then they asked Him, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ¹²Jesus answered, "Elijah will come first and restore all things so how is it that Scripture says the Son of Man will suffer much and be rejected? {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ¹³But I tell you, Elijah has already come, {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} and they did to him what they wanted."

The Disciples Can't Heal

¹⁴When Jesus came to the other disciples, a great crowd was around them and some scribes were arguing with them. {122 Distraction to Prayer, Exod. 17:11} ¹⁵When the people saw Jesus, they ran up and greeted Him. ¹⁶Then Jesus asked, "What are you arguing about?" {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ¹⁷A man from the crowd answered Him, "Master, I brought my son to be healed. He has a demon that causes him to be dumb. {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ¹⁸He has convulsions and foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth, and he's dying. So

I asked Your disciples to cast out the demon, but they couldn't do it." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁹Jesus answered, "Oh, unbelieving generation! How long must I be with you before you understand? Bring the boy to Me." {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 20As soon as the demon saw Jesus, the boy had a convulsion and fell to the ground wallowing and foaming at the mouth. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ²¹Then Jesus asked the boy's father, "How long has he been like this?" The father answered, "From childhood. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²²Many a time the demon has thrown him into the fire or into the water to drown him. Is there anything You can do for him? Have compassion on us and help us!" {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8} ²³Jesus said, "Everything is possible for him who believes." {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23}

Jesus promised, "All things are possible for the person who believes." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} But does that include cars, wealth, and personal happiness? We must first believe, and that involves coming to Christ, following Christ, and denying self (including denying dreams of money, stuff, and even health). Possibility praying involves getting as close to God as possible, and obeying Him as explicitly as possible. {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23} Lord, put Your desires within me, take my selfish desires away from me. Get me to the place where I can pray for impossible things. Amen.

²⁴The boy's father cried out, "I believe, help my unbelief." {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 25When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to see what He would do, He rebuked the demon and said, "You deaf and dumb spirit, come out of him. I command you never go into him again." {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ²⁶Then the demon cried out and violently shook the boy, and came out of him. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} The boy looked like he was dead, so much so that the people thought he was dead. ²⁷But Jesus took his hand and raised him up. {359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} ²⁸When Jesus went privately in the house, His disciples asked Him, "Why could not we cast out the demon?" {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

Lord, often I see my weak faith. Strengthen my faith to do exploits for Your glory. Amen.

²⁹Jesus answered them, "This kind can only be cast out by prayer and fasting." {457 Spiritual-Victory Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14}

³⁰Then they left and went through Galilee, but Jesus did not want anyone to know it. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} ³¹He was giving His time to teaching His disciples. He said, "The Son of Man will be turned over into men's hands, and they will kill Him, but after three days He will rise again." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³²But the disciples did not understand what He meant, and they were afraid to ask Him. {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4}

Childlike Faith

³³When they reached the house in Capernaum, He asked them, "What were you talking about on the way home?" {477 Test the Spirits-Prayer, 1 John 4:1} ³⁴But they did not answer Him, for they had discussed which one of them was the greatest. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

God's service reverses the world's order: that is, give to receive; humble yourself for power with God; low is the way up, and weakness leads to strength. Jesus wanted us to learn servanthood, so He washed the disciples' feet, and said, "You also ought to wash one another's feet" (John 13:14). The very fact we inwardly refuse humble service reveals our powerless life. Lord, I am willing to wash feet, so I can serve others outwardly. Amen.

35So Jesus sat down and called the twelve together and said, "If anyone desires to be the first, he must be the last and the servant of all." {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} 36Then He took a little child and stood him in the midst. Jesus took the child in His arms, and said, 37"Whoever will be My disciple, will receive one little child like a child receives Me. Whoever receives Me, receives the One who sent Me." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

³⁸John said to Him, "Master, we saw a man driving out demons in Your name, and we tried to stop him, for he was not one of us." {109 Deliverance-Prayer, Ps. 34:6} ³⁹Jesus said, "Do not stop him, for there is no one who will do a miracle in My name {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} that will speak lightly of Me. ⁴⁰For whoever is not against Me is for Me." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

Lord, I am for You. Teach me to love all those who love You. Amen.

41"For whoever gives you a cup of water in My name I truly say, he will get his reward. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ⁴²And whoever leads one of these children to do wrong, he might as well have a huge millstone hung around his neck and be thrown into the sea. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ⁴³If your hand makes you do wrong, cut it off. It is better to go into life maimed than go to hell with both your hands 44where the worm doesn't die and the fire is not quenched. 45-46 And if your foot makes you do wrong, cut it off. It is better to go through life crippled than keep both feet and go to hell. ⁴⁷And if your eye makes you do wrong, cut it out. It is better to go into the kingdom of God with only one eye than keep both eyes and be thrown into hell. {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ⁴⁸Because there the fire never dies and is never put out. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 49Everything must be seasoned with fire. 50 Salt is good but if salt loses its seasoning power, how can it be good again? You must look at all things through salt, and live in peace with one another." {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1}

Mark 10 Jesus Teaches about Divorce

¹Jesus left and went to the Judean territory on the other side of Jordan. The crowds gathered around Him and as usual He taught them. {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} 2Pharisees came and questioned Jesus to trip Him up. "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ³Jesus answered, "What did Moses command?" {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} 4They said, "Moses allowed the writing of a divorce certificate to let her go." 5Jesus answered, "Because of your hard hearts he wrote this commandment: {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.} 6'But from the beginning of creation, God said, "Male and female He made them; ⁷therefore shall a man leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife, 8 and the two shall be one flesh. They are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, man shall not divide them." {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ¹⁰As Jesus went in the house, the disciples asked Him again about divorce, and 11He told them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her, 12 and if she divorces her husband and marries another she commits adultery."

¹³Children were brought to Him to touch, but the disciples stopped them. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} ¹⁴When Jesus saw that, He rebuked them and said, "Allow the children to come to Me; do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to children. {62 Children of Promise-Prayer, Gal. 3:28} ¹⁵Verily, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall not enter into it." {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} ¹⁶Then He took them in His arms, and blessed them and laid His hands on them. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

Lord, give me the simplicity of children's faith. Amen.

The Rich Young Ruler

¹⁷As He was walking on the road, a young man ran to Him and knelt before Him and asked, "Good master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} 18Jesus answered, "Why do you call Me good? There is none good except God. 19You know the commands: do not murder; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not witness falsely, do not lie; honor your father and mother." {143 Establishing Doctrine by Prayer, Titus 1:5} ²⁰The young man replied, "Master, I have kept all these things from my childhood." {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ²¹Jesus, looking at him in love, told him, "You lack one thing. Go, sell all you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come follow Me." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ²²At this, the young man was convicted and walked away downcast for he possessed great wealth. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34}

²³Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, "It is difficult for those possessing wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ²⁴The disciples didn't understand His remarks; but Jesus spoke to them again, "Young men, it is difficult for those who trust in wealth to enter the kingdom of God. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a wealthy person to enter the kingdom of God." ²⁶The disciples said to Him, "Who then can be saved?" {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁷Jesus looked on them and replied, "With men it is impossible, but everything is possible with God." {508 Unlimited-Prayer, Phil. 4:13}

Lord, teach me the impossibilities that You can do. I know you are the God of impossibilities, but my weak faith makes me doubt. Stretch my faith to believe for bigger miracles. Amen.

²⁸Peter answered Him, "We have given up everything to follow You." {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ²⁹Jesus answered, "Truly I say to you, no one who has left home or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for Me and the gospel, {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark

8:34) ³⁰who will also receive a hundred times over now in this life—along with persecutions, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} and in the future, eternal life. ³¹But the first shall be last and the last shall be first."

The Selfish Ambition of James and John

³²As they were going up to Jerusalem, following Jesus, they were amazed. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} Then calling the twelve, Jesus began again to tell them what would happen to Him there. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ³³"The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes who will condemn Him to death, will hand Him over to the Gentiles {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ³⁴to mock Him, flog Him, spit on Him, and after three days He will rise again." {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20}

³⁵Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and asked, "We want You to grant us what we request." ³⁶So, Jesus answered them, "What do you want Me to do for you?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ³⁷They said, "Let us be seated with You in glory, {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} one at the right and the other at Your left." ³⁸But Jesus replied, "You do not realize what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} and be baptized with the baptism?" {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17}

Lord, I'm like James and John; I want You to do things that make me look great. Forgive my egotistical heart. I want to do things that make You look great. Amen.

³⁹They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said, "You will drink the cup I drink and you will be baptized with the baptism I face, {342 Partial Answer-Prayer, Exod. 33:2-3} 40but sitting at My right or left is not Mine to give. It is for those who deserve it." {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} 41When the other ten disciples heard what was asked, they were angry at James and John. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} 42But Jesus called to them and said, "You know how the Gentiles rule over those under them, and how their chiefs exercise authority over them; 43but this is not what I want you to do. {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} 44Whoever will be great among you, shall be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you, shall be last. 45For even the Son of Man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister and to give His life a ransom for many." {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34}

Lord, teach me to serve as You came to serve. Amen.

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

⁴⁶As Jesus was leaving Jericho with His disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was there sitting by the roadside; {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ⁴⁷when he heard that Jesus of Nazareth was coming, he began to shout, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ⁴⁸Some rebuked him to keep quiet, but he shouted even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8}

Lord, give me the boldness of Bartimaeus to call out to You, even when others try to make me be quiet. Amen.

⁴⁹Jesus stopped and said, "Call him!" {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} So they told the blind man, "Be of good cheer, Jesus is calling for you." ⁵⁰He dropped his coat and ran to Jesus. {467 Supernatural-Results Prayer, Acts 14:19-20} ⁵¹Jesus asked him, "What do you want Me to do for you?" {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} The blind man said, "Rabbi, I want to see again." {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ⁵²Jesus told him, "Go! Your faith has healed you." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} Immediately he recovered his sight and followed Jesus. {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23}

Mark 11 The Triumphant Entry

¹Jesus and the disciples came to Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany by the Mount of Olives. He sent two of His disciples to go into the opposite village {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ²and said, "When you get there, you will find a donkey hitched to a post on which no one has ever sat. Untie and fetch it. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³If anyone asks you, 'What are you doing?' answer, 'The Lord needs it,' and he will send the donkey with you without delay." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁴They went and found the donkey hitched outside a door and untied it. ⁵Some of the bystanders asked them, "Why are you untying the donkey?" {317 Natural-Bless Prayer, Matt. 5:45} ⁶They answered what Jesus told them to say. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

⁷Then they brought the donkey to Jesus, spread their robes on it, and Jesus rode on it. ⁸Many spread their garments on the road, and others waved branches they had cut. {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8} ⁹Those walking ahead and behind began shouting, "HOSANNA! Blessed be He who comes in the name of the Lord! {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} ¹⁰Blessed be the coming kingdom of our father David! HOSANNA in the highest!" {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

Lord, I cry out praises to Jesus my King and Savior. I cry out HOSANNA, for You are the Son of God. Amen.

¹¹Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the temple to see everything. As night approached, He went to Bethany with the twelve.

Cursing the Barren Fig Tree and Cleansing the Temple

¹²Next morning, as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry, and ¹³He saw a fig tree with leaves at a distance. He went to find fruit on it but He found nothing but leaves. ¹⁴Jesus said, "May no one eat fruit from you forever." And His disciples observed what He did.

¹⁵When they reached Jerusalem, Jesus entered the temple and began to throw out the sellers who were in the sanctuary. He threw over the tables of the money-changers and the stalls of those who sold doves. ¹⁶He did not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple. ¹⁷He said, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer among all nations.' But you have made it a den of robbers."

Lord, You want prayer for all nations; that's why You commanded Your disciples to go "make disciples" from all nations (Matt 28:19). I join with those from all nations to praise You. Amen.

¹⁸The scribes and chief priests heard it, and looked for ways to kill Him because they were afraid of Him because all the people received His teaching. ¹⁹That evening. Jesus left the city.

The Withered Fig Tree

²⁰On Tuesday morning Jesus and the disciples saw that the fig tree He had cursed the previous day was dead and withered. ²¹Peter was amazed that the tree had withered to its roots. ²²Jesus answered, "Let God's faith control you. ²³Verily, if you will say to a mountain, 'Be removed and thrown in the sea' and you don't doubt but believe that you will receive what you ask, You shall have it." ²⁴Jesus then explained, "You shall have all things for which you ask if you believe before you pray."

²⁵Jesus then instructed, "When you begin to pray, you must forgive those with whom you have an issue so that your Father may forgive your sin; then you have a basis for getting an answer to your prayer. ²⁶If you do not forgive others, neither will your heavenly Father forgive your trespasses."

Lord, I have a hard heart that sometimes holds grudges, or I don't like some other people. I forgive all that You bring to my mind at this time. I want You to forgive all my sins. Amen.

A Day of Controversy in the Temple

²⁷Again Jesus entered Jerusalem and walked around in the temple. The chief priests and scribes and elders approached Him to ask, ²⁸"By what authority are You saying these things or who gave You authority to do miracles?" ²⁹Jesus answered them, "I will ask you one question; if you can answer Me, then I will tell you My authority. ³⁰Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?" ³¹They disagreed among themselves saying, "If we answer 'from heaven,' He will say, 'Why then did you not believe Him?" ³²But they didn't want to say, "From men,"—they were afraid because the people considered

John to be a prophet. ³³So they told Jesus, "We do not know." Jesus replied, "Neither will I tell you My authority for doing these things."

Lord, I forgive those who sin against me and I want You to forgive me for my wrong feelings against any. Forgive me of all my sins so You can answer my prayers. Amen.

Mark 12 Teaching in the Temple

¹Then He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard and fenced it in and dug out a wine vat and built a tower. Then he rented it to tenant farmers, and went on a trip. ²At the harvest he sent a servant to collect his share of the harvest. ³But the tenants took him and beat him and sent him back without anything. 4Then the man sent another servant and the tenants beat him and treated him terribly. 5Then he sent a third one, and they killed him. Others they beat and some they killed. ⁶He prepared to send his only son; for he thought, 'Surely they will respect my son.' 7But those tenants said, 'This is the heir; let us kill him and the farm will be ours.' 8So they killed him, and threw his body outside the vineyard. ⁹What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will kill those tenants and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Have you never read the Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected now has become the cornerstone;' 11this is the work of the Lord which is wonderful to see." ¹²Then the Jewish leaders tried to have Him arrested, but they were afraid of the people. They knew that Jesus applied this parable to them. So they left and went away.

The Pharisees' and Herodians' Question

¹³Then they sent some Pharisees and Herodians to trip Jesus in an argument. ¹⁴They came to Him and said, "We know that You always tell the truth, and respect no one, but teach the way of God honestly. ¹⁵Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" Now Jesus saw their plot so He said to them, "Why are you trying to trip Me up? Bring Me a coin." ¹⁶And they gave Him one. Then He asked, "Whose picture and title is on this coin?" They answered, "Caesar's." ¹⁷So He said, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

The Sadducees' Question

¹⁸And they were utterly amazed at His wisdom. Then some Sadducees, who believed there was no resurrection, tried to trick Him with this question: ¹⁹"Teacher, Moses gave us a law that when a man's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, the man must marry the widow to raise up an heir for the family."

Lord, I believe in the resurrection, and I know I'll be raised because I now enjoy Jesus Christ in my heart. He was raised first, so I too will be raised. Amen.

²⁰"There were once seven brothers. The eldest married a wife but died and left no heir, ²¹and the second brother married her and died leaving no heir; and so did the third. ²²None of the seven left an heir. At last the woman died. 23Now at the resurrection, whose wife will she be for she was married to all seven?" 24Jesus answered, "You are wrong in your interpretation. You do not understand the Scriptures or the power of God. ²⁵For when people rise from the dead, they will not marry nor are they given in marriage, but are as the angels in heaven. ²⁶But about the rising of the dead—did you not read where Moses at the burning bush heard God say, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?' 27He is not the God of the dead, but He is God of living people!"

A Legal Question

²⁸Then one of the scribes on hearing Him asked, "Which command is the greatest of all commands?" ²⁹Jesus answered, "The greatest is, 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord, ³⁰and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength."

Lord, I love You with all of my talents, with all my time, with all my treasures. I love You. Amen.

³¹"And this is the second, 'You must love your neighbor as you love yourself.' No other command is greater than these."

Lord, teach me to love others deeply {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11}, as You instructed me. Amen.

³²Then the scribe said to Jesus, "Indeed, Teacher, You have properly said that there is one Lord and no other but Him, ³³and to love Him with all one's heart, all one's understanding, and all one's strength, and to love one's neighbor as one loves himself is far more important than all the burnt-offerings and sacrifices." ³⁴Jesus saw that He had answered thoughtfully, so He said, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared ask Him any more questions.

Now Jesus Asks a Question

³⁵While Jesus was teaching in the temple, He asked them, "How can the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David ³⁶when David himself, under the influence of the Holy Spirit, said: 'The Lord has said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies the footstool of Your feet?"" ³⁷The people wanted to hear more from Him.

Jesus Denounces Scribes and Pharisees

³⁸He continued to say, "Beware of the scribes who desire to go about in long robes, to be honored in public places, ³⁹to have the front seats in the synagogues, to be honored at banquets. ⁴⁰These are men who devour widows' houses and cover up their greed with long prayers. They will receive a much heavier judgment."

Lord, keep me from hypocrisy. It's so blinding, I don't always know when I'm being hypocritical. Amen.

⁴¹Then Jesus sat in front of the collection box to watch the people as they gave their money. Many rich people were dropping in large amounts of money. ⁴²Then a poor widow came to drop in two small coins. ⁴³Jesus called His disciples and pointed out, "I say to you, this poor widow has given more than the others who have been given much into the collection box. ⁴⁴For they gave out of their abundance, but she gave out of her need; yes, she gave out of what she needed to live on."

Lord Jesus, I give You all that I have, not for the applause of people but because You gave all that You had—Your life—for me. Amen.

Mark 13 The Mount of Olives Discourse

¹As Jesus left the temple, one of His disciples said to Him, "Teacher! Look at these giant stones; this is a beautiful building!" ²Jesus answered him, "Do not be overwhelmed by this giant building. Not one stone will be left upon another; all will be torn down." ³He got on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple where Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked Him, ⁴"When will all this take place? And what will be the sign that this will happen?"

Lord, I don't know when You'll return to judge the earth, so I'll just live faithfully each day. Amen.

⁵Jesus told them, "Let no one mislead you about the future. 6Many will come calling themselves Messiah, and saying, 'I am He.' But they will deceive many. 7When you hear about wars and rumors of war, don't be alarmed. Wars will come, but the end is not yet. 8One nation will rise up to fight another, and one kingdom against another. There will be earthquakes and famines; that is only the beginning of the birth pangs. 9Protect yourselves; you will be turned over to courts and synagogues where you will be beaten and persecuted. You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake. 10But before the end, the gospel must be preached to all nations (ethnic tribes). 11When they try you in court, do not be concerned about what you should say for it is not you who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit will speak through you. 12Brother will hand over brother to death, and a father his child, and children will rise up against their parents and have them killed. ¹³You shall be hated by everyone because of My name. But whoever endures to the end will be saved. 14So when you see the abomination of desecration standing where he has no right to stand (mentioned by Daniel), let the reader beware. Let those who remain in Judea flee to the hills. 15Let him who is on the roof not go down to get any possessions. 16Let him who is in the field not go back to get his coat, ¹⁷and pregnant mothers and those with nursing babies beware. ¹⁸Pray that it may not be in winter, ¹⁹for there will be a greater tribulation at that time than ever before since the beginning of creation, and never will be again. ²⁰If the Lord does not cut short those days, no one will escape, but for the sake of the elect, God will cut them short."

Lord, teach me when to "run away" from persecution, and when to submit to martyrdom. Amen.

²¹"Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, the Christ is here!' or, 'Look, He is there!' don't believe it. ²²For false Christs and false prophets will come and perform signs and wonders, to lead you astray; even if possible the elect. ²³Watch out, I am warning you before it comes."

Lord, I expect You at any moment. Amen.

²⁴"But in those days the sun shall be darkened and the moon will not give light; ²⁵the stars will fade from the sky and the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶Then shall the Son of Man come in the clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷Then He shall send angels to gather His chosen from the four ends of the earth."

Lord, I will watch anxiously for Your return, because I don't know the day or hour of Your return. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} Amen.

Parable of the Fig Tree

²⁸"Learn from the fig tree: Whenever her branches are tender and there are leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹So when you see these things happen, you will know that He is at the door. ³⁰Verily this present generation shall not pass until all these take place. ³¹Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My Word shall not pass away. ³² "No one knows the exact date and hour, no one except the Father; neither the angels in heaven nor the Son. ³³Watch and pray.

no one except the Father; neither the angels in heaven nor the Son. ³³Watch and pray, for you do not know the time when the Son of Man will come. ³⁴A man who leaves his home to go away authorizes his servants and assigns each his work, with the guard appointed to watch them. ³⁵Therefore watch, for you have no idea when the master of the house arrives—in the evening or at midnight or in the morning. ³⁶If he comes unexpectedly, he might find you sleeping. ³⁷Therefore I say to you, watch!"

Mark 14 Events on Wednesday

¹The Passover was due in two days. The chief priests and the scribes schemed how they might arrest and execute Jesus, ²but they said, "Not during the festival, or else the people will revolt."

The Anointing at Bethany

³While in Bethany at the home of Simon the leper, Jesus was reclining at the table, when a woman came with a very valuable jar of perfume, and broke the jar, and poured the ointment on His head. ⁴But some indignantly said to one another, "Why is she wasting this ointment? ⁵This could have been sold for a great price and given to the poor."

Lord, I give my money to You; it is not wasted. I give my time to You; it is not lost. I give my talent to You; it is not misused. Amen.

⁶But Jesus said, "Leave her alone! Why do you embarrass her? She has honored Me. ⁷For we always have the poor, and whenever we wish, we can give to them. But you will not always have Me. ⁸She has done what she could; she has prepared My body for burial."

Lord, help me always do what I can for You, just as the woman did what she could. Amen.

9"I say to you, wherever this gospel shall be preached over the whole world, what she has done shall be remembered as her memorial."

¹⁰Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to betray Jesus. ¹¹When the priests learned of it, they were glad and promised to give him money. So he looked for an occasion of how he might conveniently betray Jesus.

Events on Thursday

¹²On the first day of the Festival of Bread without Yeast, when the Passover lamb was annually sacrificed, His disciples asked Him, "Where do You want us to prepare a place where You may eat the Passover?" ¹³Then Jesus sent out two of His disciples telling them, "Go into the city where you'll see a man carrying a water pitcher; follow him. ¹⁴And wherever he enters, say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks, "Do you have a guest room where I can eat the Passover with My disciples?" ¹⁵He will show you a large upper room—prepare that room for us." ¹⁶His disciples went to the city, and found the man as Jesus had told them, and they prepared for the Passover.

The Last Supper

¹⁷As evening came, Jesus arrived with the twelve. ¹⁸As they were reclining and eating, Jesus said, "I know that one of you who is eating with Me shall betray Me." ¹⁹They were all disturbed and said, one after another, "Is it I?" ²⁰He answered, "One of the twelve, who will dip with Me. ²¹The Son of Man is going the way of death that has been written about Him, but how terrible it will be for that man who betrays the Son of Man. It is better for that man if he were never born."

Institution of the Lord's Table

²²At the meal He took bread, blessed and broke it, then gave to them saying, "Take! Eat! This is My body." ²³Also He gave thanks for the cup and He gave to them and they all drank. ²⁴He said, "This is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many. ²⁵I say to you, I will no more drink of the vine until that day when I will drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Jesus' Prayer in Gethsemane

²⁶They sang a hymn, and went to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷Jesus said to them, "This night all will be offended because of Me, for it is written, 'Strike the shepherd and the sheep will flee.' ²⁸But after my resurrection I will go before you into Galilee." ²⁹Peter said to Him, "If all leave You, I will never do it." ³⁰Jesus told him, "I tell you, during this night before the rooster crows, you will disown Me three times." ³¹But Peter insisted, "Even if I must die with You, I shall never disown You." They all said the same thing.

³²They came to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus told His disciples, "Sit here while I go pray." ³³He took with Him Peter, James, and John. As He began to feel deeply distressed, ³⁴He said to them, "My soul is deeply grieved. Stay here." ³⁵He went a little farther and fell on the ground and prayed. "If it is possible, let this hour pass from Me. ³⁶Abba, Father, all things are possible with You, let this cup pass from Me! But not My will, but Your will be done." ³⁷Jesus came and found the disciples asleep and said, "Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not watch with Me for one hour?" (This statement from Matt. 26:40).

"One hour" is the only time suggested for prayer in Scripture. But most believers only pray for short periods of time. Since this is a specific suggestion, shouldn't we pray "one hour"? Lord, I will pray many times throughout the day. I will begin and end my days with prayer. But I will be obedient, I will pray for "one hour." Amen.

³⁸"Watch and pray so you will not be tempted. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." ³⁹Jesus left again to pray, saying the same words. ⁴⁰He then returned to find the disciples asleep once more. And they did not know how to explain their disobedience. ⁴¹He then came a third time and said, "Sleep and rest; the hour has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Rise, let us go! Look, My betrayer is here."

No one can begin to understand the dread of Jesus' prayer as He faced the cross and the task of becoming our sin. God had never faced this moral dilemma before, so Jesus cried, "Abba, Father.... Take this cup away from Me." First, Jesus used the intimate "Papa" to approach the Father like a fearful child climbing into his daddy's lap when he's afraid or doesn't want to do something. He pleads intimacy. But second, Jesus faced the inevitable because of His love for us, "Nevertheless, not what I will, but what You will." Lord, I come to You when I'm absolutely scared. Help me! Protect me! Save me! Amen.

Jesus Betrayed, Arrested, and Forsaken

⁴³While He was yet talking, Judas, one of the twelve, came and brought a crowd with swords and clubs commissioned by the chief priests, scribes, and elders. ⁴⁴The betrayer had given them a sign: "The one I shall kiss is the one. Arrest Him and take Him away." 45As soon as Judas came, he stepped up to Jesus and said, "Rabbi!" and kissed Him. ⁴⁶Then they grabbed Him and bound Him. ⁴⁷One of His disciples standing close by drew his sword and cut off the high priest's servant's ear. 48 And Jesus said to them, "Have you come out against a violent man with swords and clubs to arrest Me? ⁴⁹I was with you daily in the temple teaching. Why did you not seize Me then? But the Scripture must be fulfilled." 50 And the disciples left Jesus and ran away. 51But a certain youth followed Him, wearing a linen cloth around his body, and when the soldiers grabbed him, 52he dropped the linen cloth and ran from them.

The Second Trial—Before Caiaphas

53 They brought Jesus before the council of the high priest, chief priests, elders, and scribes. 54Peter followed from a distance until he was inside the high priest's courtyard. There he sat down with the servants to warm himself by a fire. 55The chief priests and Sanhedrin were looking for a reason to execute Jesus, but couldn't find one; ⁵⁶ for while many bore false witness against Him, their testimony was not consistent. ⁵⁷Some testified falsely, 58"We heard Him say, 'I will tear down this temple and in three days will build it up." 59But their words did not agree. ⁶⁰Then the high priest stood to ask, "Jesus, why are You not answering these accusations?" 61 Jesus kept quiet and never answered. Again the high priest questioned Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?" 62 Jesus said, "I AM. And you shall see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of the Most High, coming on the clouds of heaven." 63Then the high priest tore his robes and yelled, "Why do we need any more witnesses? 64You heard Him blaspheme; what do you think now?" All said that He deserved to die. 65Then some spat on Him. They blindfolded Him and slapped Him saying, "Prophesy, who hit You?" Even the servants who led Him out slapped Him. ⁶⁶As Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the high priest's maids saw him warming himself, and said, 67"You were with Jesus, the Nazarene!" 68But he denied it saying, "I don't know what you're talking about." He went out the gate and a rooster crowed. 69Then the maid who saw him began saying again to the men standing there. "This man is one of them!" 70But Peter again denied it. Later the group said to Peter, "You are surely one of them; you're a Galilean!" 71But Peter started to curse and swear, saying, "I tell you I don't know the man!"

Lord, I'm not bold, but I will not deny You. How could I ever deny You when You died for me, and took away my sins? Amen.

⁷²Immediately the rooster crowed for the second time. Peter remembered the words of Jesus, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times." Then Peter broke down and wept.

Mark 15 The Third Trial—Before the Sanhedrin

¹As soon as the morning came, the chief priests called a meeting of elders, scribes, and the whole council (the Sanhedrin) condemned Jesus.

The Fourth Trial—Before Pilate

They bound Jesus and led Him to Pilate. ²Pilate first asked Him, "Well, are You the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied, "You say that I am." ³The chief priests accused Jesus of many things 4so Pilate questioned Him again, "Listen to their accusations! Have You nothing to say?" 5But Jesus did not answer them and Pilate was astonished. ⁶Pilate's custom at the festival was to release a prisoner—anyone they asked. ⁷Barabbas was in the prison at the time, with some other violent criminals who had committed murder. 8The crowd began to demand that Pilate should release Barabbas. 9So Pilate spoke to them, "Do you want me to release the King of the Jews?" 10Pilate knew that the chief priests had handed Jesus over to him because of their hatred of Him. 11But the chief priests agitated the crowd to get Pilate to release Barabbas rather than Jesus. 12So Pilate spoke to them once more, "What shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?" ¹³They shouted, "Crucify Him!" ¹⁴But Pilate answered, "Why, what crime has He done?" But they yelled even louder. "Crucify Him!" 15Because Pilate wanted to satisfy the crowd, he released Barabbas, and after having Jesus flogged, Pilate handed Him over to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

¹⁶Then the soldiers marched Jesus away to the courtyard and called for other guards. ¹⁷They dressed Jesus in a purple robe, and twisting some thorn-twigs into a crown, thrust it on His head. ¹⁸Then they began to mock Him. "Hail, Your majesty, King of the Jews!" ¹⁹They struck Him on the head with a stick and spat on Him, and then bowed before Him on bended knee. ²⁰When they had finished mocking Him, they took off the purple cloak and put on His own clothes. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.

Lord, while the world makes fun of Jesus, I worship You. Amen.

²¹They forced Simon, a man from Cyrene in Africa (the father of Alexander and Rufus), who was coming in from the fields, to carry Jesus' cross. ²²They took Jesus to a place called Golgotha (meaning "Skull") and ²³there they offered Him some drugged wine, but He would not drink it.

On the Cross

²⁴Then they nailed Him to the cross, and divided His garments, casting lots to see what each would get. ²⁵It was nine o'clock in the morning when they nailed Him to the cross. ²⁶Over His head they posted a placard that read, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." ²⁷They also crucified two thieves at the same time, one on each side of Him.

²⁹Those who passed by jeered at Him, shaking their heads in mockery, saying, "You said You could destroy the temple and build it up again in three days. ³⁰Come down from the cross and save Yourself."

Lord, there are many scoffers who don't believe You {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}, but I believe and worship. Amen.

³¹The chief priests also mocked Him along with the scribes. "He saved others, He cannot save Himself. ³²If this Messiah, the King of Israel, would come down now, we would see and believe!" And even the thieves who were crucified with Him mocked Him.

³³At noon darkness spread over the countryside and lasted until three o'clock in the afternoon. ³⁴Then Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" ³⁵Some of the bystanders heard what Jesus said in Aramaic (Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?), and said, "Listen, He's calling for Elijah!" ³⁶One man ran to soak a sponge in vinegar, put it on a stick, and held it up for Jesus to drink, saying, "Let Him alone! Let's see if Elijah will come to take Him down!" ³⁷Then Jesus let out a loud cry, and breathed His last. ³⁸The curtain of the temple sanctuary was torn from the top to the bottom.

God speaks in symbols (baptism and communion) so He told us we had immediate access to Him at any time and in any location because the veil was torn down. That means fellowship with God and worship comes first before the things we do for Him. The "torn curtain" means God is saying, "I want you close to Me." The early church was keenly aware that God was approachable. Lord, I will approach You as I think of You, and my thoughts will be on You as I walk in crowds, or wait in line, or meet You in solitude. I will come to You at all times, in all conditions because I hear Jesus say, "Come to Me" (Matt. 11:28). Amen.

³⁹And then the centurion who stood facing Jesus saw how He died, said, "Truly, this man was the Son of God!" ⁴⁰There were some women watching from a distance: Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of the younger James and Joses, and Salome. ⁴¹These were the women who had followed Jesus as He walked in Galilee and ministered to Him. And there were many other women there who had also come up to Jerusalem for the festival.

The Burial of Jesus' Body

⁴²It was Friday evening of the day of Passover preparation, before the Sabbath. ⁴³Joseph from Arimathaea, a member of the Sanhedrin, who believed the kingdom of God was about to come, went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus. ⁴⁴Pilate was surprised that Jesus was dead already and he sent for the centurion to ask whether Jesus had been dead long. ⁴⁵On hearing the centurion's report, he gave Joseph the body of Jesus. ⁴⁶So Joseph brought a linen sheet, took Jesus down and wrapped Him in it, and then put Jesus in his own tomb which had been hewn out of the solid rock. Then Joseph rolled a stone over the entrance to the tomb. ⁴⁷Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Jesus, watched and saw where He was laid.

Lord, there will always be "observers" who believe in You, who will verify the "faith" for us. Amen.

Mark 16 The Visit of the Women to the Tomb

¹Early Sunday morning Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices to anoint the body. ²Before sunrise they came to the tomb. ³They were asking, "Who can roll away the stone from the tomb for us?" 4Then they saw that the stone had been rolled away. ⁵They went into the tomb and saw a young man sitting to the right, dressed in white, and they were scared. ⁶But he said, "Do not be afraid! You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He is risen: He is not here. Come see the place where He was laid. 7Then go, tell His disciples and Peter that He will be going before you into Galilee; You will see Him there, just as He said."

Lord, just as the women had to obey to see Jesus, so I will obey so I can see Jesus and worship Him. Amen.

⁸Quickly they ran from the tomb, fearful and terrified. They spoke to no one.

⁹After Jesus had risen early that morning, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene from whom He had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰She went and told His disciples who were grieving and weeping. ¹¹When they heard that He was alive and she had seen Him, they did not believe it. ¹²But later on Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them on their way home. ¹³They went and told the others; again they did not believe them.

The Upper Room One Week Later

¹⁴Afterward, Jesus appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table, and He rebuked their unbelief and hardheartedness, because they did not believe the report of those who had seen Him.

Lord, I believe in Your resurrection because of the Scriptures, but I mostly believe because the resurrected Son of God lives in my heart. Amen.

¹⁵Jesus commanded them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every person. ¹⁶Those who believe and are baptized shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be lost. ¹⁷And these signs shall follow those who believe. In My name they shall cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; ¹⁸they shall pick up serpents and not be harmed, and if they drink anything poison, it shall not kill them. They shall lay hands on the sick and heal them."

Lord, I will do my part to carry out this great commission into all the world. Amen.

¹⁹After the Lord had talked with them, He was received up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God.

Lord, be my intercessor to the Father; plead my case so my prayers will be answered. {297 Man in the Glory-Prayer, Heb. 7:24, KJV} Amen.

²⁰Then His disciples went out and preached everywhere; {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} the Lord was with them, and confirmed their message with signs.

LUKE

Key Words: Son of Man (Luke 19:10)

Key Verse: "For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost" (Luke 19:10).

Theme: Luke, called "the beloved physician" by Paul (Col. 4:14), wrote about the human side of Jesus Christ, Who is the God-Man. He emphasized Jesus' mother, His birth, boyhood, and human growth (Luke 2:52). He emphasized the wisdom of Jesus in His parables and of course His death, burial, resurrection, and return to heaven.

Search the Gospel of Luke to see the human characteristics of Jesus, then pray, "What would Jesus do?" (WWJD). Read to find how Jesus lived, served, and gave His life for others; then pray for strength and wisdom to follow His example (1 Peter 2:21). Lord, I love the man Jesus; help me live as He lived. I submit myself to Jesus, the Son of God, who died for me. Forgive me of my sin and use me. Amen.

Luke 1 Introduction to Luke have written different aspects of the events of Jesus on the earth, so it seemed good to me to also do it. I researched carefully the reports they wrote {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} and ²interviewed disciples who followed Him, and eyewitnesses who saw these things, ³so that I would have perfect understanding to write an accurate account of Jesus, being inspired by God from on high {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16}; I have written these things to Theophilus so he can have ⁴confidence in the things that have been taught to him.

Lord, I have confidence in the things that have been taught to me from Your Word, and I will study it carefully to know what You said. Amen.

God Promises Zechariah a Son

⁵During the reign of King Herod Zechariah, a priest of the Abijah corps, had married Elizabeth who was from the priestly family, 6so he had impeccable qualifications to serve God. {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} Zechariah and Elizabeth were spiritually minded and they carefully obeyed every aspect of religious law, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁷and because Elizabeth was barren, they had no children. 8When it finally came Zechariah's turn to offer evening prayers in the temple for all Israel, 9he also burned incense, a symbol of prayers ascending up to God. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} ¹⁰A great multitude was outside praying at the tenth hour, which was 4 p.m. {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17}

Lord, may I be as faithful to You as were Zechariah and Elizabeth in all things. Amen.

Angel Announces the Birth of John the Baptizer

¹¹The appearance of an angel {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} standing by the altar of incense {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} ¹²frightened Zechariah. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} However, the angel said, ¹³"Don't be afraid. God has heard your prayers, {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} and your wife, Elizabeth, will have a son and you must name him John. ¹⁴Your son will give you joy and happiness, {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} and multitudes will rejoice with you."

Lord, help me receive Your message when You come to speak to me. Amen.

¹⁵The angel told Zechariah, "Your son will be a great man for God, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} he must never drink intoxicating liquor, {442 Sober-Praying, Prov. 23:31} and the Holy Spirit will fill him for service. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁶Your son will convince many to turn to God. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} He will be rugged like Elijah, and will prepare people for the coming Deliverer ¹⁷by softening the hearts of fathers to be like children {404 Restorative-Prayer, Isa. 55:7} and convincing the disobedient to return to Your wisdom." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Zacharias Unable to Speak

¹⁸Zechariah objected, saying he was an old man, and his wife was beyond child-bearing years. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

Lord, I will tarry long in Your presence when You are speaking to me. I will not question what You promise me. Amen.

¹⁹The angel Gabriel reminded Zechariah that he heard this good news standing in the presence of God, {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} and that God sent him to tell it to Zechariah. ²⁰Because Zechariah didn't believe God {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} would do the things for which he prayed all his life, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} the angel said that Zechariah wouldn't be able to speak until the child was born.

Lord, may I be quick to believe, quick to obey all You tell me to do. Amen.

²¹The waiting crowd got anxious because Zechariah tarried; ²²and he couldn't speak when he appeared, so they realized he saw a vision. {520 Vision-Praying, Josh. 14:12} ²³When his days of service were over, he then returned home. ²⁴Elizabeth became pregnant and she hid herself from public view. ²⁵Elizabeth proclaimed, "Lord, You are gracious to take away the embarrassment of having no children." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Gabriel Promises Mary a Son

²⁶When Elizabeth was six months pregnant, the angel Gabriel appeared {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} to ²⁷Mary, a virgin who was engaged to Joseph; they were both in the family line of King David. ²⁸Gabriel greeted Mary, "Rejoice, Mary, you are highly favored of God, the Lord is with you." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ²⁹Mary was confused with this greeting and she didn't know what it meant. ³⁰Gabriel said, "Do not be afraid, God has decided to use you to be a blessing to all the world.

{47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} ³¹You will conceive and deliver a Son, {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} you must call His name Jesus. {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} ³²He will have great influence on the world and He will be the Son of the Most High God. ³³God will give your Son the throne of David and He will rule over Israel forever." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

A Miraculous Conception

³⁴Mary replied, "How can this happen, I am a virgin, and have not known a man?" {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ³⁵Gabriel answered, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} power from the Most High God will make it happen. You'll have a child who is the Son of God." 36Gabriel continued, "Your Aunt Elizabeth has become pregnant with a child in her old age. ³⁷With God, nothing is impossible." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} ³⁸Mary answered. "I will be the Lord's handmaiden. I am willing to be what the Lord wants me to be; let it happen, as you said." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

Lord, I yield my body to You as Mary did. Accomplish Your purpose in my life as You did in Mary's life. Amen.

Mary Visits Elizabeth

Mary left her home and went to Judah to visit Zechariah and Elizabeth. {118
 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9}
 She greeted Elizabeth 41 as she entered the house and the baby leaped in Elizabeth's womb because he knew he was in the presence of the Messiah. Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} 42and said, "Blessed are you among women {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and blessed is the child you'll bear. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ⁴³But why this honor that the mother of our Lord should visit me? {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ⁴⁴As soon as I heard your voice, the baby leaped in my womb. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52}. 45You believed the promises of our Lord and that's why you've been given this great privilege." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Lord, may I always be excited when I feel Your presence near, just as John the Baptizer leaped in Elizabeth's womb when You came near. Amen.

Mary's Song—The Magnificat

⁴⁶Mary responded to the Lord, "You are great, my God; {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁴⁷my spirit rejoices in You, my Savior. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ⁴⁸You look on this lowly servant, so now all generations will call me blessed. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ⁴⁹For You—the Mighty God—have done great things, Holy is Your name. {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁵⁰Your mercy extends to those who reverence You from one generation to another. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ⁵¹You have done mighty works by Your arm, You have cast down the proud of heart. ⁵²You have brought down mighty kings from their thrones, and You lift up the lowly. ⁵³You have filled the hungry with good things, and sent the arrogant away empty. ⁵⁴You have come to help Israel, Your people, and You have remembered to be merciful {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ⁵⁵to Abraham and his descendants forever." ⁵⁶Mary stayed with Elizabeth three months, and then returned to her home.

Lord, may I ever praise You for using me as Mary magnified You in song. Amen.

The Birth of John the Baptizer

⁵⁷Elizabeth gave birth to a son at the appointed time, 58 and the relatives and neighbors rejoiced with the parents. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} 59When they came to circumcise him on the eighth day, the relatives tried to name him after his father. 60Elizabeth protested saying, "Call him John," {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 61but the relatives said no one in the family had that name. ⁶²When they asked the father about the child's name, 63Zechariah asked for a tablet and wrote, "His name is John." {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ⁶⁴Immediately Zechariah was able to speak again. {517 Victory-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} He praised God {368 Prayer-Excursion Prayer, Ps. 137:1-4} 65 and all the relatives joined him. 66 Everyone who heard about it wondered, "What will this child be?" And the hand of the Lord was with the child. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11}

Lord, help me to obey Your instructions just as Zechariah did, and then show Yourself strong when I obey, just as You healed Zechariah. Amen.

Zechariah's Song: The Benedictus

⁶⁷Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} and he spoke this prophecy, ⁶⁸"Blessed is the Lord God of Israel, {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} for He visited and rescued His people. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} 69He has sent a mighty Deliverer to the people of His servant, David, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 70as promised by the holy prophets. 71And the Deliverer will save us from our enemies, and from the hand of those who hate the Jews, {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ⁷²to give mercy promised to our fathers and perform His holy covenant, 73the promises sworn to our father Abraham, ⁷⁴and to grant to us deliverance from the hand of our enemies so that we may serve Him without fear in holiness and righteousness 75 in His presence all the days of our life. 76 And you, my child, John, shall be called the prophet of the Most High God. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} John shall go before the Deliverer to prepare the way for His coming. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 77John will tell the people about His salvation and preach the forgiveness of sins, {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ⁷⁸showing us His tender mercies that will come to us like the daybreak of the sun. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ⁷⁹The Deliverer will give light to those living in darkness, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and guide their feet in Your way." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} ⁸⁰And the child, John, grew strong physically and spiritually, {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} and lived in the desert until his time to preach publicly to Israel. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12}

Luke 2 The Birth of Jesus

¹Caesar Augustus had commanded everyone to return to their hometowns to register for a census for tax purposes. ²This happened when Quirinius became governor of Syria in 4 B.C. ³All went to be registered to his own city. {364 Praise for God's Sovereignty, Gen. 45:5} ⁴Then Joseph left Nazareth to return to Bethlehem because he was in the royal line of David and 5his wife Mary was also in that line. Mary was pregnant and the birth was imminent {376 Pregnancy-Prayer, Gen. 25:22} 6so she gave birth while in Bethlehem. ⁷The baby was born in a stable because there was no room in any of the inns. Mary wrapped the baby in strips of cloths, swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a feed trough.

Shepherds Visit the Baby Jesus

⁸The same evening the baby Jesus was born, shepherds were in an open field watching over their sheep. {536 Worker's-Prayer,

2 Tim. 2:15} 9Suddenly the sky lit up with an overwhelming light, {26 Atmospheric-Worship, Gen. 32:24-30} and a shining angel appeared to them. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} The shepherds were scared out of their wits. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁰The angel announced to them, "Don't be frightened. I have a wonderful message for you, and for everyone else in the world. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹¹Tonight, the Deliverer—even the Lord—was born in Bethlehem. 12You will recognize Him because He will be wrapped in swathes of cloths, and will be lying in a feed trough." ¹³Suddenly, the angel was joined by a gigantic angelic choir praising God saying, {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} 14"Glory to God in the highest, peace to those who enjoy God's good will." {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

Lord, I join the angels in praising You for the birth of Jesus Christ. Amen.

¹⁵When the angelic choir returned to heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go see this baby God told us about." {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁶When they ran to Bethlehem, they found Mary, His mother, and the baby lying in a manger. ¹⁷After they saw Him, they went and told others the story that was told them about the child. ¹⁸Those who heard it were astounded by what was told them by the shepherds, ¹⁹but Mary kept all these things to herself and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰Then the shepherds told everyone about the baby, and people were astonished at what they heard.

Lord, may I embrace the story of the Baby and worship Him with all my heart. May I tell everyone about the Baby and how Jesus came to forgive their sins. Amen.

Dedication of the Baby Jesus

²¹Jesus was circumcised eight days after He was born, and they called His name Jesus, {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13} just as the angels instructed them.

Jesus, I love Your name for it means Savior; You are my personal Savior. Amen.

²²Later they returned to the temple for the ritual cleansing of the mother ²³as required by Moses in the law, {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} "Every male that opened the womb shall be dedicated to the Lord." {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} ²⁴They did this with the offering of the poor, two young turtledoves and two pigeons. {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15}

²⁵In the temple was an elderly man named Simeon who looked for the restoration of the kingdom. {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14} Simeon lived blamelessly, and served God continually, and he was filled with the Holy Spirit. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ²⁶The Lord had revealed to Simeon that he would see the Deliverer before he died. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ²⁷Simeon was led by the Spirit into the temple {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer,

Eph. 5:18} on the day the baby was to be dedicated. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²⁸Simeon took Jesus into his arms and blessed Him, saying, {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2} ²⁹"Lord, I have seen what You promised, and now I am ready to die. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ³⁰For my eyes have seen Your salvation, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ³¹which all people will see one day. ³²The Deliverer will be a light to the Gentiles, and will bring glory to Your people Israel." {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

Lord Jesus, You are my salvation, just as Simeon testified You were his salvation. Amen.

³³Joseph and Mary marveled at Simeon's words. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ³⁴Then Simeon said to Mary, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} "This child will be rejected by many in Israel, and God will judge their unbelief. ³⁵But the child will also be received by many in Israel, {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} and they will be saved and rewarded by God."

³⁶There was also a prophetess named Anna who was very old {8 Aged-Prayer, Ps. 90:10} and had lived with her husband only seven years after they were married. ³⁷She lived in the temple, worshiping God, praying, and very often fasting. {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} ³⁸She came along as Simeon finished his blessing, and she gave thanks to God for the child, {70

Circumstantial-Prayer, Rom. 8:28} telling everyone the Deliverer had come. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7}

³⁹Joseph and Mary then returned to their home, ⁴⁰and the child became physically strong {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} and was filled with wisdom. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1}

Twelve-Year-Old Jesus in Jerusalem

⁴¹Jesus went with His parents to Jerusalem for the annual Passover Festival 42 when He was 12 years old. {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} ⁴³As the parents left Jerusalem for home, Jesus stayed in Jerusalem, but His parents didn't know it. 44After a day's journey they went looking for Him, thinking Jesus was walking toward home with relatives. 45When they failed to find Jesus, they returned to Jerusalem to search for Him. ⁴⁶After three days they found Jesus sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking questions. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ⁴⁷All who heard Jesus were greatly impressed {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} at His level of comprehension and the difficult questions He asked them. ⁴⁸Joseph and Mary were astonished when they saw Him, and Mary asked Him, "Son, why have You treated us like this? Your father and I have been worried to death." 49 Jesus answered, "Why were you searching for Me? Didn't you know that I had to be about My heavenly Father's business?" {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} 50He spoke to them but they did not understand.

Lord Jesus, just as You naturally went to the temple, so I naturally go to church. I will go to the place where You dwell. Amen.

⁵¹Jesus returned to Nazareth with them and was under authority to them. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} His mother didn't forget any of these incidents and meditated on them often. {302 Meditation-Prayer, Josh. 1:9} ⁵²Jesus grew in mental ability and physical strength and was respected by God and men. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5}

Lord Jesus, help me to grow in every realm physically, mentally, socially, and spiritually—just as You grew. Amen.

Luke 3 Ministry of John the Baptizer

¹In the fifteenth year of the reign of the Emperor Tiberius, Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, Herod was governor of Galilee, his brother Philip was governor of the territory of Iturea and Trachonitis, Lysanias was governor of Abilene, ²Annas and Caiaphas were in the high priesthood; the Word of God came to John, son of Zechariah, in the desert. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ³And he preached all over the Jordan valley the need for baptism of repentance {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} to obtain the forgiveness of sins. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ⁴He fulfilled what is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah, "The voice of one crying in the desert, prepare the road for the Messiah. Make the paths straight for Him. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 5Every valley must be filled up, and every mountain and hill leveled. The crooked places must become straight, and the rough roads must be made smooth, 6and all people must know about the salvation of God." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

⁷So John the Baptizer said to the crowds that were coming to be baptized by him, {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} "You den of snakes! Who warned you to hide from the judgment that is coming? {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 8Produce fruit that shows your repentance, {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} and do not justify yourselves saying, 'We have Abraham as our ancestor, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} for I say to you that God can raise up children of Abraham out of these stones. 9Now the axe is already cutting at the roots of the trees. Every tree, then, that will not bring forth good fruit, will be cut down and cast into the fire." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 10So the crowds asked John, "What must we do?" ¹¹He answered, "The one who has two coats must give to him who has none, and the one who has food must do the same thing." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ¹²Even tax collectors came to be baptized by John and said to him, "What must we do?" 13So he answered, "Stop collecting more money than is required of you." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 14Some soldiers asked him, "What must we do?" So he answered them, "Don't extort money from anyone, {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} don't make false accusations, and be satisfied with your wages." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ¹⁵The people were excited {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} and were arguing whether John was the Messiah. ¹⁶John answered them, "I am only baptizing you in water, {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} but there is coming One after me who is stronger than I am. I am not fit to untie His shoe strings. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire; {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} ¹⁷His pitchfork is in His hand, and He will gather His wheat and store it in His barn; and He will burn up the chaff with eternal fire." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 18John continued to proclaim the good news with many explanations. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 19But Herod the governor was repeatedly reproved by John because he married Herodias his brother's wife. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²⁰So Herod later put John the Baptizer in prison. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

Lord, thank You for the bold announcement by John the Baptizer in the face of danger. Make me bold like John. Amen.

The Baptism of Christ

²¹On a particular day when all the people had been baptized, Jesus also was baptized {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} and as He was praying, heaven opened ²²and the Holy Spirit came down on Him in bodily form as a dove. {224 Holy Spirit-Praying, Jude 20} Everyone heard a voice out of heaven. "You are My Beloved Son. In You I am well pleased!" {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17}

Father in heaven, be pleased with me as You were pleased with Jesus. Amen.

Genealogy of Christ through Mary

²³Jesus was about thirty years old when He began His ministry; {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} He was the son legally of Joseph, the son of Eli, 24the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melki, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, ²⁵the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, ²⁶the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, ²⁷the son of Johanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Salathiel, the son of Neri, 28the son of Melki, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, ²⁹the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, ³⁰the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, 31the son of Melea, the son

Luke 4 Temptation of Jesus

¹Jesus was filled with the Holy Spirit, and returned from the Jordan. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} He was led by the Spirit into the desert {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} ²where He was tempted by the devil for 40 days. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

Lord, fill me with the Holy Spirit and lead me by the Holy Spirit just as You led Jesus. Amen.

Jesus fasted for 40 days, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and when the fast was over, He was hungry. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ³So the devil said to Him, "If You are God's Son, turn these stones to bread." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 4Jesus answered, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but by every word of God." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} 5The devil then leading Him up to a high mountain, showed Him in an instant all of the world kingdoms ⁶ and told Him, "I will give all the power and splendor of these because it has been given over to me and I bestow it on whomever I please. 7If You will kneel to me and worship me, it will all be Yours." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 8Jesus answered, "Get behind Me, satan, for it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God and worship Him only." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} 9Then the devil brought Jesus to Jerusalem to the summit of the temple, and told Him, "If You are God's Son, throw Yourself down, ¹⁰for it is written, 'The Lord will command His angels to protect You, '11 and 'they shall carry You in their hands so that You will not dash Your foot against a stone." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} ¹²Jesus answered him. It has been written, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.' {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ¹³So the devil, after fully tempting Jesus, {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18} left Him until another opportunity came about.

Lord Jesus, I want to be victorious over sin, just as You were. Amen.

Jesus Facing Unbelief in Nazareth

¹⁴Jesus came back to minister in His home region, Galilee, and the power of the Holy Spirit was on Him. {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} Everyone in the region heard about Jesus and ¹⁵when He preached in the synagogues, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} everyone was glad to hear Him. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

¹⁶Then Jesus went to Nazareth, His boyhood home, and because it was His custom {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} on the Sabbath, He went to the synagogue. ¹⁷An elder handed Jesus the scroll of Isaiah. He unrolled it to a certain place and read, {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ¹⁸ The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} because the Lord has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} The Lord has sent Me to preach that prisoners shall be free, and the blind shall see, and the oppressed shall be released, ¹⁹and to proclaim that God will bless those who come to Him. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} Amen." ²⁰Then Jesus rolled up the scroll and returned it to its place and took His seat. Every person in the synagogue stared at Him, 21then Jesus said, "This Scripture was fulfilled today." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ²²And everyone was amazed at what He said. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} They said, "Is not this Joseph's son?" ²³Jesus told them, "You will probably want Me to prove Myself, like the proverb, 'Physician, heal yourself.' You want Me to do miracles here in Nazareth as I have done in Capernaum, {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} but I know your unbelief. You have not accepted Me, but rather you have rejected Me. ²⁴I say that no prophet is accepted in His hometown. ²⁵Remember how Elijah did a miracle to help the widow of Zarephath, even though she was a foreigner? There were many needy widows in Israel because there was a famine. It hadn't rained for three and a half years, ²⁶yet Elijah was not sent to them. ²⁷Elijah also healed Naaman of leprosy even though there were many lepers in Israel." ²⁸The people in the synagogue were furious when they heard what Jesus said. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁹The people mobbed Jesus and pushed Him outside toward the edge of the cliff near town. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} ³⁰But He walked through the midst of the mob and returned to Capernaum. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

Lord, give me the boldness of Jesus to face unbelief, and give me the wisdom of Jesus to do what is right. Amen.

³¹Jesus came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ³²The people were enthusiastic at His teaching, for He spoke with authority. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ³³There was a man in the synagogue who was demon-possessed, ³⁴who cried out loudly, "What do You want with me, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy me? I know who You are: The Holy One of God." 35But Jesus rebuked him: {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} "Be quiet and come out of him!" {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} Then the demon threw the man down. The demon came out of him without hurting him. {513 Victorious-Results in Prayer, James 1:12} ³⁶They were amazed {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} and said to one another, "What word is this? For with authority and power He commands unclean spirits and they come out." {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ³⁷And reports of Him went everywhere in the surrounding country.

Lord Jesus, I believe everything written about You, and I praise You for Your power. Amen.

⁴⁰At sunset all who had any who were sick brought them to Jesus, and He laid hands on each one of them and healed them. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁴¹Even demons came out of many people, shouting, "You are Christ, the Son of God." But He stopped them and did not allow them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ⁴²At daybreak Jesus went out to an isolated spot to pray, {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} but the people were looking for Him {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} and found where He was. They tried to keep Him from leaving; ⁴³but He told them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} because this is the reason I was sent." {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ⁴⁴And He preached in the synagogues of Galilee.

Luke 5 Jesus Calls Disciples

¹The multitude crowded around Jesus to hear the word of God as He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} 2He saw two boats on the shore that the fishermen had left while they cleaned their nets. {103 Dedication-Prayer, Mark 10:16} 3Jesus got into one of the boats that belonged to Simon, and asked him to push out a little from the shore. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} Jesus seated Himself and began to teach the crowd from the boat. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ⁴When Jesus had finished teaching, He told Simon, "Push out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} 5Simon answered, "Master, we worked hard all night without catching anything; however, at Your request I will lower the net." {327

Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 6And when they did so, they caught a great catch of fish, so that their nets began to break. {180 Fruit-Producing Prayer, Gal. 5:22-23} ⁷They signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They filled both boats until they almost sank. 8Seeing this, Simon Peter fell at Jesus' knees saying, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." He was astonished at the catch of fish {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁰and so were his partners—James and John, the sons of Zebedee. Jesus said to Simon: "Fear not, from now on you will catch men!" {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹¹They brought their boats to shore, left everything, and followed Him.

Lord, I want to be a "fisher of men"; I want to influence people for You. Amen.

¹²In one of their towns, a man with leprosy saw Jesus {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} and begged Him, "Lord, if You will, You can cleanse me!" {379 Prevailing-Prayer, Jer. 12:1} ¹³Reaching out His hand, Jesus touched him saying, "I will. Be cleansed!" {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} And the leprosy was gone. ¹⁴Jesus told him to tell no one, but "Show yourself to the priest, and make offerings for cleansing as Moses commanded." {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} ¹⁵But more people heard about Him and large crowds gathered to hear Him and be healed. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4}

¹⁶Jesus withdrew often into the desert {443
 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16} for prayer.
 {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21}

Lord, I will often seek quiet places of solitude so I can pray. Amen.

Getting a Friend to Jesus

¹⁷As Jesus was teaching, Pharisees and scribes from the villages of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem were sitting there. The power of the Lord was present for Him to heal the sick. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ¹⁸Some men brought a paralytic on a bed {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} to lay him before Jesus. ¹⁹But there was no way to get him to Jesus because of the crowd. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} So they went up on the roof and let him down through the tiles in front of Jesus. ²⁰Seeing their faith, {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} Jesus said, "Your sins are forgiven." {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²¹The scribes and the Pharisees reasoned, "He is speaking blasphemies. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} Who is able to forgive sins except God only?" {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ²²Jesus, aware of their thoughts, said, 23"Which is easier to say: 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Arise and walk?' 24But so you may know the Son of Man has power to forgive sins," He said to the paralytic, {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} "Rise, pick up your mat, and walk." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18}

Lord Jesus, You have the authority to forgive sins. I confess that I am a sinner; forgive me and cleanse me. Amen.

²⁵Immediately he stood up in their presence, picked up his mat, praised God, and went home. {365 Praise-Sacrifice to God, Heb. 13:15} ²⁶Everyone praised God {480 Thanksgiving for Deliverance-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:14} and said, "We have seen astonishing things today!" {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

The Call to Matthew

²⁷Going outdoors, Jesus saw Levi a tax collector sitting at the collection table and said to him, "Follow Me!" {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} ²⁸Rising up, he left everything and followed Jesus. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord Jesus, I will follow You as did Levi. Amen.

²⁹Then Levi prepared a great banquet at his home for Jesus. A large group of tax collectors and others reclined at the table. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ³⁰But the Pharisees and scribes complained to His disciples, "Why does Your Master eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³¹Jesus answered, "Healthy people do not need a physician; but those who are sick. ³²I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

³³They also said to Him, "John's disciples fast and pray frequently, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and the Pharisees do so as well, but Your disciples eat and drink." ³⁴Jesus said, "Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} ³⁵But the time will come, when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast." {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19}

³⁶Jesus gave this parable to them: "No one patches an old coat with new cloth or else it will tear the new. Also, the patch from the new does not look like the old. {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ³⁷And no one pours new wine into old wine skins, else the new wine will burst the skins and the wine is lost and the skins are ruined. ³⁸But new wine is poured into new wine skins. {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29} ³⁹And no one wants new wine after drinking the old, for he says, 'The old is preferable!'" {37 Better-Prayer, Heb. 8:6}

Luke 6 Debate about the Sabbath

¹As Jesus journeyed home from the Passover at Jerusalem, He went past the corn fields on the Sabbath and His disciples picked the grain and ate it. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ²The Pharisees criticized them because they broke the Sabbath law. ³Jesus answered, "Have you not read that David when he was hungry and those with him, {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ⁴how he went into the tabernacle and ate the showbread, and gave some to those with him. They were not allowed to eat the bread; only the priest could eat it." ⁵Then Jesus said, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath." {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21}

Lord, help me properly observe Your Lord's Day, not as the religious leaders legalistically observed it. Lord, I will worship You properly on Sunday. Amen.

The Shriveled Hand Healed

6When Jesus got to Capernaum, He entered the synagogue, {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} and a man was there with a shriveled-up right hand. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4}

Lord Jesus, I will go to church on the Lord's Day. I will sing, learn, pray, and worship. Amen.

⁷The Jewish leaders watched Jesus closely to see whether He would heal on the Sabbath day so they could charge Him with breaking the law. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ⁸Jesus said to the man with the shriveled-up hand, "Stand in front of the people." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ⁹Then Jesus asked, "Is it right to help or hurt on the Sabbath day? To kill or save lives?" {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁰He looked at them with anger, then said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." The man did as commanded, and it was completely restored. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ¹¹The Jewish leaders were angry and discussed how they might get rid of Jesus. {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3}

Lord, I don't want to be critical of anyone who comes to You for help or healing like the Jewish leaders who criticized You. Lord, I marvel at Your compassion on those who hurt or need Your help. I marvel at Your patience with those who reject You. Amen.

Choosing the Twelve

¹²Jesus went up into the hill country and He continued all night in prayer to God. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16}

Lord, I will spend long times in prayer, just as You did. Amen.

¹³The next day He called His disciples to Himself and from them He chose twelve whom He named apostles. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} 14Simon, whom He called Peter, was the leader of the first group of four. That included his brother Andrew, and James and John. The second group of four apostles was led by Philip, and included Bartholomew, ¹⁵Matthew, and Thomas. ¹⁶The third group of four was led by James, the son of Alphaeus, also called the short one, and included Simon, the former terrorist fighter, Judas, later called Jude, also the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed Jesus. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, teach me to pray about important decisions as You prayed before choosing the twelve disciples. Amen.

Multitudes Healed

¹⁷With them Jesus came down and stood with His disciples on level ground with a large crowd of people from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and from the Tyre and Sidon coast who came to hear Him teach and to be healed of their diseases. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ¹⁸Those who were demon possessed {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} were also healed. ¹⁹Everyone tried to touch Him because power flowed from Him to heal the sick. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4}

The Beatitudes

²⁰Then Jesus looked on His disciples, and began to speak. "Blessed are you who are poor, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} for the kingdom of God is yours! ²¹Blessed are you who are spiritually hungry, for you will be completely filled. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} Blessed are you who are weeping over sin, for you will rejoice!" {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

There are many reasons why we cry when praying: (1) in joy, (2) deeply burdened, (3) failure, (4) sins in our life, (5) loss, (6) problems, (7) thankfulness for salvation. Lord, my tears show my extreme emotions. Look on my tears and be glorified for what You've done in my life. Or see my tears as evidence of my extreme sincerity that I want my prayers answered. Amen.

²²"Blessed are you when people hate you and despise you and attack you, and call you evil for the sake of the Son of Man. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ²³Rejoice and leap for joy {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} for great is your reward in heaven; for this is the way the prophets were treated. ²⁴How terrible it will be for all who are rich, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} for they now receive comforts in full. ²⁵How terrible it will be for all who now live in luxury, for they will be hungry. How terrible it will be for all who now laugh, for they will mourn and weep. {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} ²⁶How terrible it will be for all those who are well spoken of for this is the way false prophets were treated.

²⁷"But I say to you, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} 28 bless those who curse you, {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} and pray for those who abuse you. {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} ²⁹When a man strikes you on one cheek, offer him the other; 30 and when a man takes away your coat, offer him your shirt also. Give to everyone who asks, {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} and do not demand your goods back from him who takes them away. 31Deal with others as you would have them deal with you. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³²If you love only those who love you, what credit do you get for that? {291 Love

One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} Even big sinners love those who love them. ³³And if you do good only to those who do good to you, what credit is that? Even big sinners do that. 34And if you lend to people expecting to get it back, what credit is that? Even big sinners lend to one another, expecting to get back a full payment. 35But you must practice loving your enemies. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} That way your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High. Remember, He is kind to the unlikable and evil person. (60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ³⁶Be merciful, just as your Father in heaven is merciful. {193 Goodness of God Proclaimed-Prayer, Ps. 92:15} ³⁷Stop criticizing others, so you will not be criticized. Stop judging others, so you will not be judged. {269 Justice-Prayer, Ps. 7:17} Forgive others, so you will be forgiven. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} ³⁸Give to others, so you will receive good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, and poured into your lap. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} For the measuring cup you use with others will be used with you."

³⁹Then He told them a parable. "One blind man cannot lead another. They will both fall into the ditch. {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ⁴⁰A pupil is like his teacher. Will not everyone when fully trained be like his teacher? ⁴¹Why do you look for a tiny speck in your brother's eye when there is a heavy timber in your own eye? {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ⁴²Can you say, 'Brother, let me get that tiny speck out of your eye,' when you have a timber in your own eye? You hypocrite! First get the timber out of your own eye, and then you may get a tiny speck out of your brother's eye." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 43A good tree does not bear bad fruit, nor will a bad tree bear good fruit. 44For every tree is known by its fruit. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} People do not pick figs from thistles, or gather grapes from a weed. 45A good man, out of his good character, bears good fruit {184 Gifts with Prayer, 2 Cor. 9:7} and a bad man, out of his bad character, produces bad fruit. Out of a man's mouth speaks the things that are in his heart." {487 Tongue-Discipline Prayer, James 3:8}

Lord, transform me to be like You. May good fruit come out of my life and may good words come out of my mouth. Amen.

⁴⁶"So why call Me 'Lord, Lord,' but do not practice the things I tell you? {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 47Everyone who follows Me and does the things I teach is like 48a man who is building a house. {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16} He digs deep and lays a foundation on bedrock. When the floods come to burst on that house, it will stand because it was built on a rock. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ⁴⁹But the man who merely hears My words, and does not do them, is like a man who builds a house on the sand. When the floods burst upon it, it will collapse because it has no foundation." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Luke 7 The Teachings of Jesus

¹When Jesus had finished His sermon in the hearing of the people, He entered Capernaum. 2There He met a Roman centurion whose servant was very dear to him. The servant was sick at the point of death. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ³When the centurion heard about Jesus, he asked the Jewish elders to go see Jesus and ask Him to come and heal his servant of his illness. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} 4So they went to Jesus and urged Jesus saying, 5"The centurion deserves this for he loves our nation, and has built our synagogue." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} 6Then Jesus walked with them, but when He approached the house, the centurion sent friends to tell Jesus, "My Lord, do not trouble yourself about this because I am not worthy for You to come into my house. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ⁷I do not think myself worthy to even ask You for anything. But simply speak the word, and my servant will be cured. 8For I too understand authority. I have soldiers under me, and when I order one to go, he goes; another to come, he comes. My servants do what I command." {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 9Jesus was astounded when He heard this and turning to the crowd that was following Him said, "I tell you, I have not found faith this great among the Jews." {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ¹⁰The messengers returned to the house and found the servant well.

Lord, give me faith like this army officer; may I act on Your words instantly. Amen.

¹¹Afterwards Jesus went to the town called Nain. His disciples and a great multitude went with Him. 12As He approached the gate of the town, He saw a dead man being carried out, a widow's only son. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} A large crowd from the town was following her. ¹³When the Lord saw this, He was moved with compassion for her, and He said, "Stop weeping." {474 Tears in Prayer, Luke 6:21} 14Then Jesus went and touched the coffin, and said, "Young man, I tell arise." [466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} 15Then the dead boy sat up and began to speak. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} Jesus gave him back to his mother. ¹⁶The crowd began to praise God, {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} saying, "A great prophet has come to us!" and "God has visited us!" 17News about Jesus spread over Judea and the surroundings areas.

The Doubts of John the Baptizer

¹⁸Now John the Baptizer's disciples told him about what Jesus was doing. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ¹⁹So John sent two disciples to the Lord to ask, "Are you the One who was to come, or should we look for another?" {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

²⁰So the disciples went to Jesus and said, "John the Baptizer sent us to ask You, 'Are you the One who is to come, or should we continue looking for another?" {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24}

Lord, even John the Baptizer had doubts, {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} so don't punish me when I have doubts. Forgive me and strengthen my faith to believe You for greater things. Amen.

²¹At that time, Jesus cured many people of diseases and cast out evil spirits, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} and gave sight to many blind people. ²²And so Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} The blind are seeing, the crippled are walking, the lepers are being cleansed, the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised and the poor are having the gospel preached to them. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ²³And blessed is the one who does not stumble over Me."

²⁴After John's messengers left, Jesus spoke to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed blown about by the wind? ²⁵Really, what did you go to see? A man dressed in fancy clothes? No. Those who dress in fancy clothes and live easy lives are found in the palaces. ²⁶Really, what did you go to see? A prophet? ²⁷Yes, I tell you John is far more than a prophet. {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} John is the one the Scriptures predicted: 'Listen, I will send My messenger before You; he will prepare the road for You.' ²⁸I tell you, of all men born of women, no one is greater than John.

{358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} Yet anyone who becomes least in the kingdom of God will be greater than John." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

Lord, You said John the Baptizer was the greatest in Your kingdom, yet I can be greater if I'm humble. It's hard to humble myself, yet I want to be used. Make me humble. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} Amen.

²⁹Many people, even tax collectors, when they heard John, did what he commanded. They submitted to John's baptism. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ³⁰But the Pharisees rejected God's purpose when they refused to be baptized by him. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

³¹"So, what are the people of this age like? ³²They are like little children sitting in the marketplace playing games, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} and singing, 'We played the wedding song, but you did not dance; we sang the funeral song, but you did not mourn.' 33John the Baptizer came fasting {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and many said, 'He has a demon!' 34The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and many say, 'He is a glutton and a wine drinker, and a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 35But true wisdom is recognized by her children." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13}

A Sinful Woman Anoints Jesus' Feet

³⁶A Pharisee invited Jesus to dinner. So Jesus came to the Pharisee's house and took His place at the table. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 37There was a woman in the town with a sinful reputation. When she heard that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, she brought a bottle of perfume {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} 38and stood behind Him at His feet, continually weeping. Then her tears began to fall on His feet. So she wiped them with the hair of her head, and she kissed His feet. Then she anointed them with the perfume from her bottle. ³⁹When the Pharisee who invited Jesus saw it, he said to himself, "If He were really a prophet, He would know that the woman who is anointing His feet has a sinful reputation." {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3}

⁴⁰Then Jesus spoke to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} So Simon said, "Teacher, go ahead and say it." ⁴¹Jesus told this parable: "Two men were in debt to a rich man. One owed him a hundred dollars, the other ten dollars. ⁴²Neither could pay him, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} so he generously canceled the debts for both. Now which one of them will love the rich man more?" {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6}

⁴³Simon answered, "I suppose the one who had the largest debt canceled." Then Jesus said, "You are right." ⁴⁴And turning to the woman He said to Simon, "Do you see what this woman has done? I came to your house but you did not give Me water to wash My feet, but she has washed My feet with tears and wiped them with her hair. {198 Gratitude-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} ⁴⁵You did not give Me a kiss of greetings, but from the time I arrived, she has not stopped kissing My feet. 46You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with her sacrifice. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁴⁷Therefore her sins which are many are forgiven {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} because she has loved much. But the one who was forgiven little, loves little." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} 48And He said to the woman, "Your sins are forgiven!" {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ⁴⁹The guests at the table began to ask themselves, "Who is this man who forgives sins?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 50But Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go on in peace." {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14}

Lord Jesus, I believe You just as did this woman. Forgive my sins. Amen.

Luke 8 Various Teachings of Jesus

¹Then Jesus went through Galilee from town to town and village to village, preaching the good news of the kingdom of God. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} The twelve disciples were with Him ²and also some women who had been cured of diseases and had evil spirits cast out of them. Among these were Mary, who was called Mary Magdalene, out of whom He cast seven demons, {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ³ and Joanna, the wife of Cleophas, Herod's household manager, Susanna, and many other women. They were contributing to the needs of the group out of their personal resources. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

Parable of the Sower

⁴A great crowd came together from several towns. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} He spoke a parable to them, 5"A sower went out to sow his seed. As he was sowing, a handful of seeds fell along the path at the edge of the field and the seed was trampled on, and wild birds ate them up. ⁶Another handful of seeds fell into the rocks and as soon as they sprang up, they withered because they had no roots in fertile ground. 7Still more seeds fell into the thorns that grew up with them and choked the seeds. ⁸Finally some seeds fell into rich ground and grew and yielded a hundredfold harvest." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} Jesus said, "Let him who has ears to understand, hear and learn." {286 Listen-Prayer, Matt. 18:19}

⁹His disciples asked Him what the parable meant. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹⁰He said to them, "You have the privilege of knowing the secrets of the kingdom of God, but I speak in parables because they look and do not see; {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3} they hear and do not understand. {455

Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} 11 This is what the parable means: The seed is God's Word. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} The seed on the path illustrates those who hear God's Word, 12but the devil comes and steals the message from their hearts, so that they will not believe it and be saved. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} ¹³The seed sown on the rock illustrates those who accept the message with joy but the seed takes no real root. They believe for a while, but when persecution comes, they fall away. {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 14And the seed that falls into the thorns illustrates those who hear it, but they are choked by sin, money, and pleasures, so that it yields no fruit. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ¹⁵But the seed sown in rich soil illustrates those who listen to the message, do it honestly, and yield fruit." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

Lord, find good soil in my heart and let the seed of the gospel grow into a harvest that will glorify You. Amen.

Parable of the Lamp

¹⁶"No one lights a candle and then covers it up or hides it under a bed, but they put it on a candlestick, so that others may have light. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹⁷For there is nothing hidden that shall not be revealed, and nothing kept secret that shall not be manifested by the light. ¹⁸So take care that you hear and believe, for whoever receives more will have more given to him, and whoever does not receive more will even have that taken away from him." {242 Inner-Desires Prayer, Eph. 4:22 ff.}

¹⁹Jesus' mother and brothers came to see Him, but they could not get to Him because of the crowd. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ²⁰So someone told Him, "Your mother and brothers are standing outside waiting to see You." ²¹Then Jesus said to them, "My mother and My brothers are those who hear God's Word and do it." {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2}

Jesus Calms the Storm

²²Jesus got into a boat with His disciples, and said to them, "Let us go over to the other side of the lake." ²³As they were crossing the sea, Jesus fell asleep. A furious storm swept over the lake, {462 Storm-Prayer, Acts 27:25} and the boat filled with water and they were threatened. ²⁴So they went to Jesus and awakened Him and said, "Master, Master, we are in danger!" {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5} Then He got up and rebuked the wind and waves, and immediately the winds and waves were calm. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²⁵Then Jesus said to them, "Where is your faith?" But they were both scared and amazed and said to one another, "Who is He? For He commands even the winds and waves, and they obey Him." {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10}

Lord Jesus, come calm the storms of my life so I can serve You. Amen.

Demons Cast into Swine

²⁶They landed in the neighborhood of Gadera, which is across the lake from Galilee. ²⁷As soon as He stepped on shore, a man met Him who was demon-possessed. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} He had worn no clothes for a long time and lived among the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he screamed and threw himself down before Him, and cried out in a loud voice, "What do You want from me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torture me!" {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²⁹On many occasions the demon had seized him. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} When he had been bound with chains and fetters, he would break his bonds, and the demon drove him into the wilderness. 30 Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" The man answered, "Legion!" for many demons had possessed him. 31The demons begged Jesus not to send them into the bottomless pit. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 32There was a field full of hogs feeding there. So the demons begged Jesus to let them enter into those hogs. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} And Jesus let them do it. 33Then the demons came out of the man and entered the hogs, and they rushed over the cliff into the lake and were drowned. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

³⁴When the men who fed the hogs saw what happened, they ran to tell the news in town and the surrounding country. ³⁵So the people went out to see what had happened. They found the man who had previously had demons now sitting at the feet of Jesus, {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} fully dressed, and in his right mind. They became frightened {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} when they saw what happened. ³⁶Those who saw what happened, told how the demon-possessed man had been healed. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ³⁷Then all the people of that country asked Jesus to leave because they were afraid. So He entered the boat and returned to Capernaum. 38The man who was cleansed of the demons begged Jesus to let him go with Him, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} but Jesus sent him away saying, 39"Go back to your home, and tell what great things God has done for you." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} The man then went off to tell throughout the city what great things Jesus had done for him. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 40Now when Jesus returned to Capernaum, a crowd welcomed Him, {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14} for they were all waiting for Him.

A Woman Is Healed

⁴¹Jairus, who was the leader of the synagogue, came and fell down at Jesus' feet, begging Him to come to his house {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ⁴²because his only daughter, about 12 years old, was dying. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} As Jesus was going, crowds of people continued to press in on Him. ⁴³Then a woman who had a hemorrhage for 12 years, {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} and had spent all her money on physicians and was not healed, ⁴⁴came up behind Him and touched the hem of His tunic. {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} Her hemorrhage stopped immediately. ⁴⁵Then Jesus asked, "Who touched Me?" Everyone denied touching Him. Then Peter said, "Master, the crowds are pressing on You and thronging You." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Lord, may I approach You with a touch of faith as did this woman. Amen.

⁴⁶Jesus said again, "Someone touched Me because I felt power go out from Me." ⁴⁷The woman knew her actions were uncovered, so she came forward trembling, {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} and falling down before Jesus to tell why she had touched Him. ⁴⁸So Jesus said to her, "My daughter, your faith has cured you. Go in peace." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Lord, her touch didn't heal her, it was her faith. Give me that kind of faith. Amen.

Jairus' Daughter Is Raised

⁴⁹While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from Jairus' house to tell him, "Your daughter is dead; don't trouble the Teacher any longer." {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ⁵⁰But Jesus heard what was said, and told Jairus, "Do not be afraid; have faith, and she will be healed." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} ⁵¹When Jesus reached the house, He did not allow anyone to go in with Him except Peter, James, and John, and the child's father and mother.

{153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ⁵²Professional mourners were weeping and wailing over her. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} But Jesus said, "Stop weeping! For she is not dead but asleep." {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} 53Then they laughed, for they knew that she was dead. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} 54 Then Jesus held her hand and said, "My child, get up!" {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 55Her life returned and she immediately got up, and He directed that some food be given her to eat. ⁵⁶And her parents were amazed, but He ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened. {340 Overcoming-Prayer, 1 John 4:4}

Lord, thank You for healing all: a young girl and an older woman, an immediate problem and a lingering one, the rich and the poor. Lord, I know Your healing will reach me. Amen.

Luke 9 Jesus Commissions the Twelve

¹He called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over demons and to cure diseases. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²Then He sent them out to preach the kingdom of God {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} and to heal. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ³He said to them, "Take nothing for the journey: neither staff, nor purse, nor bread, nor money; and don't take a spare tunic. ⁴When you enter a house, stay there until you leave to go on your way. 'If they don't welcome you, when you leave their town shake the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." {330 Offense of the Cross-Prayer, Gal. 5:11} 'So they set out and went from village to village, preaching the good news and healing everywhere. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

⁷Meanwhile Herod the tetrarch had heard about all the things Jesus was doing, and he was puzzled, because some were saying that John had risen from the dead. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ⁸Others were saying that Elijah had reappeared. Still others said that one of the Old Testament prophets had risen from the dead. ⁹But Herod said, "I beheaded John. Who is this that is responsible for these reports?" And he wanted to see Jesus. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5}

Miracle of the Loaves

Jesus an account of all they had done. ¹¹Then He took them with Him and went privately to a town called Bethsaida. {44 Blessing Expectation-Prayer, Rom. 2:4} But the crowds found out and followed Him. He welcomed them and talked to them about the kingdom of God. Then He cured those who needed healing. ¹²It was late afternoon, so the twelve said, "Send the people away so they can go find lodging and food, {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} for we are in an isolated place." ¹³Jesus replied, "You give them something to eat." But they said, "We have only five loaves and two fish. We need to go buy food to feed this many people."

Lord, help me share the bread of life with hungry people, just as Your disciples did. Amen.

¹⁴For there were about five thousand men. But Jesus said to them, "Make them sit down in groups of fifty." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁵After they did so, ¹⁶Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, and raised His eyes to heaven, and blessed them; {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} then He broke them and handed them to His disciples to distribute among the people. ¹⁷Everyone ate as much as they wanted. What was not eaten was collected, and the disciples filled twelve baskets.

Jesus Visits Caesarea Philippi

¹⁸Once when Jesus was praying alone with His disciples, He questioned them, "Who do the people say I am?" {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ¹⁹And they answered, "John the Baptizer; or Elijah; or another Old Testament prophet raised from the dead." ²⁰But Jesus asked, "But who do you say I am?" {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Peter spoke up and said, "The Christ of God." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ²¹Then Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell this to anyone.

Lord Jesus, I agree with Peter that You are the Messiah, the Son of God. Amen.

²²Then Jesus said to all, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes and be put to death. But on the third day He will be raised to life." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²³Then Jesus said, "If anyone wants to be My follower, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} and follow Me. ²⁴For those who hang on to this earthly life for Me will lose it. And anyone who loses his life for My sake, will save it. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} ²⁵Is it any profit to gain the whole world, yet his soul is destroyed and lost? ²⁶Those who are ashamed of Me and My words, I will be ashamed of him when he comes into glory before the holy angels and My Father. {537 World-Rejecting Prayer, 1 John 2:15} ²⁷I tell you the truth, some who are standing here will not taste death before they see the kingdom of God." {289 Lordship Salvation-Prayer, Acts 9:6}

²⁸About eight days later Jesus took Peter and John and James up a mountain to pray. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16}

Lord Jesus, I will set aside times to pray, just as You did. Amen.

²⁹As He was praying, the appearance of His face was changed and His clothing became brilliant as lightning. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ³⁰Suddenly two men appeared to talk with Him, Moses and

Elijah. 31 They were speaking of His death which was to happen in Jerusalem. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ³²Peter and his companions were sleeping soundly. When they woke up they saw His glory and the two men standing with Jesus. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} 33As they were leaving, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is wonderful to be here. Let's make three tents, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." He did not know what he was saying. {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3} ³⁴As he spoke, a cloud covered them, and the disciples were afraid. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ³⁵But a voice came from the cloud saying, "This is My Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to Him." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17}

Lord Jesus, I'm focused on You and I'm listening. Speak to me. I will do what You tell me to do. Amen.

³⁶And after the voice had spoken, they saw Jesus only. The disciples kept this incident to themselves and told no one what they had seen. {402 Responsibility-Praying, Ps. 5:7}

The Disciples Can't Heal

³⁷The next day when they came down from the mountain a large crowd came to meet Him. ³⁸A man in the crowd yelled out, "Master, I beg You, help my son; he is my only child. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ³⁹Without warning, a demon will take hold of him, and he will cry out and become convulsive and foam at the mouth. This has been happening for a long time but when it is over it leaves the boy worn out. ⁴⁰I begged Your disciples to cast the demon out, but they couldn't." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord Jesus, I don't want to be like these powerless disciples. I want to help those who come to me for help. Give me power to serve You and help people. Amen.

⁴¹Jesus said, "Faithless and stubborn generation! How much longer must I be among you and put up with you? {237 Inadequate-Prayer, James 5:17-18} Bring him here." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} ⁴²The boy was still walking toward Jesus when the demon threw him to the ground {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} in convulsions. But Jesus ordered the demon out of him, cured the boy, {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} and gave him back to his father. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

⁴³They were all amazed at the greatness of God. {406 Reverent Praying, Ps. 111:10} While everyone was marveling at what He did, Jesus said to His disciples, ⁴⁴"Listen to Me and remember what I say, for the Son of Man is going to be handed over into the hands of the enemy." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁴⁵But they did not understand Him when He said this because they were spiritually blinded so that they could not understand the meaning of what would happen, and they were afraid to ask Him about what

He had just said. {221 Hidden Answers-Prayer, Rom. 11:33-36}

Childlike Faith

⁴⁶An argument started among the disciples about which of them would be the greatest. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁴⁷Jesus knew their thoughts and He took a little child and had him stand by His side. {205 Guard Your Heart-Prayer, Phil. 4:6-7} ⁴⁸Then Jesus said to them, "Those who welcome this little child in My name welcomes Me: and anyone who welcomes Me welcomes the One who sent Me. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} For the least among you is the one who is greatest."

Mistaken Zeal of John the Apostle

⁴⁹John spoke up. "Master, we saw a man casting out demons in Your name. We told him to stop because he is not with us. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} ⁵⁰But Jesus said, "You shouldn't have done that, for anyone who is not against you is for you." {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12, 13} ⁵¹Now as the time drew near for His return to heaven, Jesus set His face on a flint to go to Jerusalem. {183 Geographical-Renewal Praying, Ps. 121:1, 2\} 52Then He sent messengers ahead of Him. They went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for Jesus, 53but the people would not receive Him because He was going to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴When the word came back to them, James and John said, "Lord, do You want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?" {235 Imprecatory-Prayers, Ps. 109:8 ff.}

Lord, keep me from making wrong requests of You, such as these apostles who wanted to burn up unresponsive people. Give me compassion for unbelievers and save them through my ministry. Amen.

55But Jesus turned and rebuked them, "You do not know the spirit that is in you! {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} 56The Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them." And they went to another village.

Giving Up Everything

⁵⁷As they were walking, they met a man on the road who said to Jesus, "I will follow You wherever you go." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 58Jesus answered, "Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head." {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} 59Jesus said to another, "Follow Me." {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} The man replied, "Let me go and bury my father first." {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ⁶⁰But Jesus answered, "Leave the dead to bury their dead, but you go spread the gospel of the kingdom of God." {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁶¹Another said, "I will follow You, but first let me go and get permission from my family at home." {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3\} 62 Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow, and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God." {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62}

Lord, I will be Your disciple. I will not look back or turn back. I will follow You. Amen.

Luke 10 Jesus Sends Out the 70

¹After this the Lord appointed seventy disciples {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} and sent them ahead of Him, in pairs, to all the towns and places where He was to visit. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} 2He commanded them, "The harvest is great and plentiful but there are few laborers, so pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers to His harvest. {250 Intercessory Prayer for Nations, Matt. 28:19} 3Start off now, {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49} but remember, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 4Do not take a purse, or suitcase, or shoes. Don't waste your time on the road. 5Whatever house you enter let your first words be a blessing on those who live there. 6And if a man of peace lives there, your blessing will rest on him; {42 Blessing a Person-Prayer, Num. 6:23-26} if not, it will return to you. ⁷Stay in that house and eat and drink what they give you because the workman deserves his pay. Do not move around from one house to another. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14}. 8When you are entertained, eat what is set before you. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} 9Cure those who are sick. Preach 'the kingdom of God is coming.' {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁰But if you enter a town that does not make you welcome, go out into the streets and ¹¹shake the dust of that town off your feet and know that 'the kingdom of God is very near.' {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14} ¹²I tell you, Sodom will not be judged as severe as that town." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24}

Lord, teach me how to react to people who are both responsive and nonresponsive. Use my ministry. Amen.

¹³"How terrible it will be for you, Chorazin! How terrible it will be for you, Bethsaida! {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 14For if the miracles done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in burlap clothing and ashes. And still, it will not be as severe for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment as with those towns. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} 15And as for Capernaum, you want to be exalted high as heaven? No! You shall be thrown down to hell. 16 Anyone who listens to the lessons you illustrate, listens to Me; {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} anyone who rejects your lessons, rejects Me, and those who reject Me reject the One who sent Me."

¹⁷The seventy disciples came back rejoicing, {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} saying, "Even the demons submit to us when we use Your name." Jesus said to them, {316 Name of Jesus-Prayer, John 14:13}

¹⁸"I saw satan fall like lightning from heaven. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ¹⁹Yes, I have given you power to walk over the enemy and nothing shall hurt you. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²⁰Yet do not rejoice that the demons obey you, rather rejoice that your names are written in heaven." {227 Hope-Rejoicing Prayer, Heb. 6:19} ²¹At that time Jesus was filled with joy by the Holy Spirit, and said, "I bless You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from the intellectuals and the worldly, but You reveal them to Your children. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} Yes, Father, for that is Your pleasure. {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21} ²²Everything has been given to Me by My Father; and no one understands the Son, except the Father, {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} and no one understands the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal to them." ²³Then turning to His disciples, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see, ²⁴ for I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see, but they were never able to see it, or to hear what you hear." {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8}

Jesus was the ultimate example of praise to God the Father. I will praise You, Lord, for (1) answers to prayer and unanswered prayer, (2) deliverance and trials, (3) spiritual insight and when God conceals, (4) intimacy and alienation, (5) abundance and lack. No matter what happens in my life, I will praise God for "all things work together for good" (Rom. 8:28). Lord, just as Jesus praised You, so I too praise You for all things. Amen.

The Good Samaritan

²⁵A lawyer stood up to test Jesus with questions, asking, {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ²⁶Jesus said, "What is written in the law and how do you read it?" {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} ²⁷The man responded, "You must love the Lord your God, with all your heart, soul, strength and might;" then he added, "and love your neighbor as yourself." {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} ²⁸Then Jesus concluded, "Do this, and you will live." ²⁹But the lawyer tried to justify himself asking, "And who is my neighbor?" {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ³⁰Jesus answered with a parable, "A Jewish man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was attacked by bandits who beat him, and stripped him of his clothes and money, and left him half dead in the road. {1 Abandonment-Prayer, Ps. 42:9} ³¹A Jewish priest came down the road and passed by the wounded man. ³²Next a temple assistant passed by on the other side of the road, looked at the man and did nothing. {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ³³When a despised Samaritan saw the man, he knelt beside him, ³⁴cleansed the wounds with oil, and bandaged them up. Then the Samaritan put the man on his donkey, took him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵The next day the Samaritan gave the innkeeper money to take care of the man, and promised, 'If you need more, I'll pay next time I'm here.'" ³⁶Then Jesus asked the lawyer, "Which of these three was a neighbor to the one who was attacked by the thieves?" {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ³⁷The lawyer answered, "The one who showed mercy." Jesus said, "Yes, now go do the same thing."{327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, make me sensitive to the needs of people, then give me initiative to do something about it. Amen.

Mary and Martha

³⁸When Jesus entered a village near Ephraim, Martha received Him into her house. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 39Her sister Mary sat at Jesus' feet to listen to the things Jesus said. {285 Listening to Jesus-Prayer, Heb. 1:2} 40But Martha was busy working in the kitchen, so she complained to Jesus, "It's unfair for Mary to listen to You when I'm doing all the work." Martha said, "Tell her to help me in the kitchen." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ⁴¹But Jesus answered, "Martha, Martha, you are upset over these trivial things. {325 Non-Anxiety Prayer, Phil. 4:6, 7} ⁴²There is only one thing to be concerned with. Mary has found the main thing and it can't be taken from her." {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4}

Lord, may I know when to work with my hands and when to sit at Your feet to learn from You. I will come sit at Your feet. Teach me what I need to know. Build character in me that I need to serve You. Amen.

Luke 11 The Lord's Prayer

¹After a few days Jesus prayed all night and when He finished, the disciples said, "Lord, teach us to pray!" Jesus gave them this prayer as their example, as He had previously given it in the sermon on the mount. {288 Lord's-Prayer, Matt. 6:9-13} ²He said, "When you pray say, 'Our Father, who is in heaven, Holy be Your name. {2 Abba-Prayer, Rom. 8:15} Your kingdom come. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} Your will be done in heaven as on earth. ³Give us day by day our daily bread, {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} and forgive us our sins {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 4as we forgive everyone who is indebted to us; {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} and don't allow us to be overcome by temptation." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

The act of forgiving someone who has offended us means we give that person "God's grace" because now God can work in our life and theirs. Our forgiveness means their offense can no longer dominate our life. We treat their offense as nothing, and we are no longer separated from them. But also, it redeems the offender; he is no longer bound to us, and their offense no longer binds us. Forgiveness frees us. We don't forgive for their sake, we forgive for our sake; we forgive others for our freedom, health, and victory. If you won't forgive, it means you are still in bondage to them. Lord, I want to be free to love You, serve You, and be used by You. I forgive ______ because I want to be free from my bondage to them. I forgive their offense to me so it won't control my spiritual health or relationship to You. Amen.

⁵The Lord did not finish the prayer as He did on the previous occasion. Jesus said, "What if you went to a neighbor's house in the middle of the night to borrow bread. You would yell to wake up your neighbor, saying, 6'A friend has just arrived for a visit, and I don't have any bread to give him.' {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁷Suppose your neighbor yelled back, 'I am in bed. My family is asleep and I can't help you." {123 Diversionary-Answer to Prayer, Mark 10:38} 8Jesus said, "Though he won't do it as a friend, if the man kept begging and knocking, his neighbor would get up and give him bread, because of the man's persistence. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} So you can do the same with prayer, keep on asking, and you will receive. Keep on seeking, and you will find, keep on knocking and the door will open. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ¹⁰For everyone who keeps on asking—receives; everyone who keeps on seeking-finds; everyone who keeps on knocking—the door opens. {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10}

11"If your son asks for bread, will you give him a stone? No! If he asks you for a fish, will you give him a serpent? No! {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2} ¹²If he asks for an egg, will you give him a scorpion? No! ¹³If fallen people like yourselves give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give you good gifts?" {383 Promise of the Holy Spirit-Prayer, Gal. 3:14}

Lord, give me faith to believe You for the things I need; so teach me to pray. Amen.

The Long Day

¹⁴Jesus was casting a demon out of a man who couldn't speak. {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} When the demon had gone out, the dumb man spoke and the people were amazed. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 15But some of them said, "Jesus does these miracles by Beelzebub, the prince of demons." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ¹⁶Others asked Him for a sign from heaven to prove who He is. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ¹⁷But Jesus knew their unbelief and what they were thinking, so He said, "Any kingdom divided against itself will collapse, and a household divided against itself will also collapse. {85 Consensus-Prayer, Acts 15:18} ¹⁸The same thing will happen with satan: if he is divided against himself, he will be defeated. Since you claim that I cast out demons by Beelzebub, let's test that idea. ¹⁹If it is through Beelzebub that I cast out demons, through whom do your own leaders cast them out? Does this prove they are filled with demons? ²⁰But if the power is of the finger of God, then realize that the kingdom of God has come to you." {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6}

Lord Jesus, You are stronger than all the might of everyone who has ever lived. Use me in my ministry to people. Amen.

²¹"When a strong man has armed guards in his palace, his goods are undisturbed. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} ²²But when someone stronger attacks and defeats the strong man, he takes away all his weapons and his goods. {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} ²³He who is not for Me is against Me; and he who does not help Me, hurts My cause. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ²⁴When a demon goes out of a man, it wanders through dry places looking for a home, and not finding one it returns to the home from which it came. ²⁵But when he returns, he finds it swept and clean. ²⁶It then goes and brings seven other demons more wicked than himself. They set up housekeeping, so that the man ends up being worse than he was at first." {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} ²⁷Now as Jesus was speaking, a woman in the crowd yelled out, "Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts that nourished You." {212 Happiness Inspired by Prayer, Matt. 5:3-8} ²⁸But Jesus replied, "Far happier are those who hear the Word of God and obey it!" {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20}

²⁹The crowds got even bigger {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} and he spoke to them, "This is an evil generation that is asking for a sign. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} The only sign I will give them is the sign of Jonah. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ³⁰For just as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so the Son of Man will be a sign to this generation. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 31On judgment day the Queen of Sheba will rise up to condemn this generation because she came on a long journey to hear the wisdom of Solomon. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} But there is something greater than Solomon here. ³²On judgment day the men of Nineveh will stand up to condemn this generation because when Jonah preached they repented. There is something greater than Jonah here today." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Parable of the Lighted Lamp

³³"No one lights a lamp and hides it under a tub, but they put it on the candle holder so that people may have light when they enter a room. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ³⁴Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body has light. But when the eye is diseased, your body can't see to walk. {153 Faith-Eyes Praying, Matt. 21:21} ³⁵See to it then that the light inside you is not darkness. ³⁶Therefore, if your whole body is filled with light, you can walk confidently because the lamp shines on you with its rays." {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19}

Lord Jesus, I'm going to let shine this little light of mine. Give me light, then help me to shine Your light on those who are lost in darkness. Amen.

Woe to the Pharisees

³⁷When Jesus finished speaking, a Pharisee invited Him to eat at his house. Jesus went in and sat down at the table. 38The Pharisee was surprised that Jesus had not washed His hands before the meal. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ³⁹But the Lord said to him, "You Pharisees clean the outside of your cup and plate, while inside you are filled with extortion and greed. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 40You are foolish, did not He who made the outside also make the inside? 41Instead, give to the poor from your inner heart {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} and then indeed everything will be clean for you. {71 Clean-Conscience Prayer, Heb. 10:22} 42Woe to you Pharisees! You who pay your tithe of mint and rue and all sorts of garden herbs and overlook justice and your love of God! {294 Love-Growing Prayer, Phil. 1:9} You should have practiced these tithes without leaving out your love for God. {291 Love One Another-Prayer, 1 John 4:11} 43Woe to you Pharisees who take the good seats in the synagogues and love to be greeted in the market squares. 44Woe to you, because you are like tombs that men walk on without knowing it!" {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13}

⁴⁵A lawyer asked, "Why are You insulting us?" Jesus said, "How terrible it will be for you, lawyers; you strangle people with religious demands but you don't do what you require of others. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3\} 46How terrible it will be for you lawyers because you load people down with burdens they can't carry, and then you don't do anything to help them. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ⁴⁷How terrible it will be for you because you build monuments to the prophets but it was your ancestors—men like you—who killed them. 48You honor your ancestors, but they killed the prophets and you built monuments to them. ⁴⁹God said, 'I will save prophets and apostles but you will kill and persecute them.' {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 50 And this generation will kill God's servants, just as your fathers killed them in the past, 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} 52How terrible it will be for lawyers who hide God's truth from the people. You won't believe it yourself and you prevent others from believing it." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 53The Pharisees and lawyers tried to trip Jesus up with questions and did everything they could to oppose Him. 54They wanted some way to destroy Him.

Lord, open my spiritual eyes. I don't want to be blinded like these religious leaders. Amen.

Luke 12 Warnings and Encouragement

¹Meanwhile a crowd so large it couldn't be counted, gathered so that they were stepping on one another. Jesus began to preach, first to His disciples, "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²Their hypocrisy is not covered. Everyone knows they are filled with pride but their true motives will be uncovered. At the same time, godly people you don't know about, will be seen by all. {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1} 3Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the daylight, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed on the housetops. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 4To My followers I say: "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body; {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} that is all they can do. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ⁵I will show you who to fear: fear Him who can kill the body but also has the power to cast you into hell."

Lord, I don't fear those who can kill the body, I fear You who will cast unbelievers and rebels into hell. Amen.

"Yes, I tell you, fear Him. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} ⁶Are not five sparrows bought for two pennies? And yet not one is forgotten in God's sight. ⁷Also, every hair on your head has been numbered. Don't be afraid because you are worth more than many sparrows. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} 8I tell you, whoever declares himself for Me in the presence of people, the Son of Man will acknowledge him in the presence of God's angels. ⁹But the one who disowns Me in the presence of men will be disowned in the presence of God's angels. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 10Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} but he who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} 11When you are brought before synagogues and authorities, do not worry about how to defend yourselves or what you will say, {167 Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} 12because when the time comes, the Holy Spirit will teach you what you must say."

Parable of the Rich Fool

¹³Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance." {429 Self-Discipline Prayer, Titus 2:5, 6, 12} ¹⁴"My friend," He replied, "who appointed Me a judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?" ¹⁵Then He said to them, "Watch, and be on your guard against greed, {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} for a man's life does not consist of what he owns." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

Lord, I yield all my belongings to You. May my belongings not possess me; rather, may You be my possessor. Amen. ¹⁶Then He told them a parable: "There was once a rich man who had a good harvest from his land. {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ¹⁷He thought to himself, 'What am I going to do?' I do not have enough room to store my crops.' 18Then he said, 'This is what I will do, I will tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I will store all my grain and my goods in the new barns. ¹⁹I will say to my soul: Soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come. Take it easy, eat, drink, and enjoy life." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁰But God said to him, 'You fool! This night your soul will be demanded; {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} and your riches, whose will they be then?' {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²¹This is how it will be for the man who stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God." {63 Choosing God's Core Values in Prayer, Heb. 11:25}

²²Then He said to His disciples: "Stop worrying about your life, what you will eat, {481 Thanksgiving for God's Constant Love-Prayer, Ps. 106:1} or what you will wear. ²³Your life is more than food, and your body is more than clothes. ²⁴Think about the ravens. For they neither sow grain nor reap a harvest, they have no storehouses nor barns, and yet God continually feeds them. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} You are worth more than the birds! ²⁵Which of you by worrying can add a single thing to his life? ²⁶So if you cannot add a very little thing, why should you worry about anything else? 27Watch the lilies grow. They do not work hard nor try to grow. I tell you that not even Solomon in all his glory was ever dressed as elegantly as one of them. ²⁸Now if God wonderfully dresses the fields with wild grass, {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4} which today is green but tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you who have so little faith? {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} ²⁹So stop worrying about what to eat and what to drink. ³⁰These are the things the Gentiles seek. Surely your Father knows what you need. 31Seek continually His will, {380 Priority-Faith Praying, Matt. 6:33} and these things will be added to you." {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42}

Lord, I will live for today; yesterday has passed, I will learn from it. Tomorrow is not here, so all I can do is prepare for it. I will not live in the past with its failures and successes. I will not live in the future with its hopes and fears. I will live for today. NOW is all the time I have. Amen.

³² Stop being fearful, My little flock, for your Father has gladly chosen to give you the kingdom. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ³³Sell your property and give to the poor. Get a wallet that will never be empty. Your riches will never fail in heaven where a thief cannot steal nor a moth destroy. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ³⁴For where your treasure is, there will your heart be." {381 Priority-Praying, Acts 6:4}

Parable of the Expectant Steward

35"You must remain ready for service by keeping your lamps burning, {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} ³⁶like the servants waiting for their master to come home. When he comes and knocks, they will open the door for him. Those servants will be happy when the master comes. ³⁷Will he find you watching for him? {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} I say to you, he will prepare to serve them and have them sit at a table, and he will wait on them. 38Whether he comes before or after midnight, they will be happy when he gets there. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ³⁹But be prepared because if the master of the house knew when the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰So you must always be ready, for at an hour you are not expecting Him, the Son of Man will come." {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17}

Parable of the Faithful Steward

⁴¹Peter asked Jesus, "Lord, do You mean this parable for us, or for the multitude?" {451 Spiritual-Knowledge Prayer, Prov. 1:2, 3} ⁴²Then Jesus answered, "The master will put in charge a faithful manager and give him the task of giving out supplies at the proper time. ⁴³Happy is that slave who has done what he was supposed to do when his master comes. {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ⁴⁴I tell you the master will put him in charge of all his property. {497 Trusting-Prayer, Rom. 11:33} ⁴⁵But if that servant says to himself, 'My master will not be coming back for a long time,' and he begins to beat the slaves, and eats and gets drunk; 46his master will come back when he is not expected, {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} and at an hour that the servant didn't know about. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ⁴⁷He will judge him severely, and give his share to a faithful worker. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 48That slave who knows his master's wishes and is not ready will be severely punished. But the one who does wrong without knowing it will be lightly punished. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} Much will be demanded from those to whom much has been given." {407 Revival of Our Nation-Prayer, 2 Chron. 7:14}

Lord, I will act on the information You've given me. Amen.

wish it were already burning! {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁵⁰I have a baptism to administer, and I am in anguish until it comes. ⁵¹Do you think that I came to give peace on earth? No! But rather strife. ⁵²Five in a family will be divided, three against two, and two against three. {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18} ⁵³Father will be against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ⁵⁴Then He said to the crowd, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you think,

'It's going to rain,' and it does. 55 And when you feel the south wind blowing, you say, 'It is going to be hot' and it is. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁵⁶Hypocrites! You know how to interpret the weather, the earth, and sky. Why can you not interpret the times? {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 57Why can you not decide what is right? 58When you are being sued in court, do everything you can to satisfy the one suing you. Don't let him crush you before the judge, or the judge will turn you over to the sheriff, and the sheriff will put you in prison. ⁵⁹I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last cent you owe!" {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Lord, give me common sense to know when trouble is coming; then help me make good practical decisions to keep me out of trouble. Amen.

Luke 13 Current Events in Jerusalem

Lord, help me see Your hand in the current events that influence my life and service for You. Amen.

¹Some in the crowd told Jesus about the rebellious Galileans who were executed by Pilate and mixed their blood with the sacrificial blood that was offered in the temple. ²Jesus answered, "Were these men the greatest sinners among all the Galileans because of their crimes?" 3Then He explained, "No, they were not! All men are sinners, and all must repent or they will likewise perish." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁴Then Jesus referred to the tower in Siloam that fell and killed 18 people. "Were they greater sinners than these who live in Jerusalem?" 5Again Jesus answered, "No, they were not! All men are sinners, so all must repent or they will likewise perish." 6Then Jesus told a parable, "A man planted a fig tree in his garden, then came looking for fruit, but he found none. {20 Anticipatory-Blessing Prayer, Gen. 49:28} ⁷The man said to his gardener, 'I have been looking for figs on this tree for three years, but haven't found any. Cut it down; why should it take up valuable space?' 8The gardener answered, 'Leave it alone for a year. {108 Delayed-Justice Recognition Prayer, Ps. 94:23} I will dig around its roots and use fertilizer. 9If it bears figs next year, fine! If not, then we will cut it down." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

Lord, in the same way You give people an opportunity to get saved; the Holy Spirit "digs" away at their hardened sin, and He adds the nourishment of the Word of God and Christian witness, but each person must eventually trust You for salvation or suffer the consequences. Lord, I will pray for the salvation of my hardened friends. Amen.

Jesus Heals a Cripple on the Sabbath

¹⁰As Jesus was teaching in the synagogue on the Sabbath, ¹¹there was a severely crippled woman present who had been bent over double for 18 years. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} 12When Jesus saw her, He called out, "Woman, you are healed!" {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} 13 Then Jesus laid His hands on her and she immediately stood up straight and began glorifying God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 14The leader of the synagogue got mad because it was the Sabbath, {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} and said to the crowd, "There are six days for work, and men ought to work during the week. People ought to come get healing during the week, but not on the Sabbath day." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 15 Jesus answered, "You are a hypocrite! Everyone on the Sabbath loosens his ox from the stall and leads the animal to water. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹⁶Ought not this Jewish woman who has been bound for 18 years be loosed from her bondage on the Sabbath?" 17The leader and his fellow Jewish officials were put to shame, {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} and the crowd shouted for joy. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Lord, help me keep my eyes on Your ministry to people, and help me overlook religious traditions that don't matter. Amen.

Parable of the Mustard Seed

¹⁸So Jesus continued speaking, "What does the kingdom of God look like? How can I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a mustard seed which a man planted in his garden, and it grew until it became a tree, and wild birds roosted in its branches." {204 Growth-Prayer, Eph. 4:12-16}

Parable of the Leaven

²⁰Again Jesus said, "To what can the kingdom of God be compared? ²¹It is like yeast that a cook put in a bushel of flour until it had risen." {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18}

Lord, I pray for minutia; give me an appreciation for little things in life because they have large ramifications. Amen.

²²As Jesus was traveling and teaching through the towns and villages, ²³someone asked, "Will only a few be saved?" {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} Jesus answered, ²⁴"You must strive to enter through the narrow door; many will try to enter, but will not make it. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁵Once the owner of the house arises and shuts the door, you will find you're standing on the outside and knocking continually and saying, 'Lord, open up for us,' but He will answer, 'I do not know you.' {289 Lordship Salvation-Prayer, Acts 9:6} ²⁶Then you will say, 'We ate and drank with You, as You taught us.' 27But He will say, 'I do not know you. Depart from Me, all you evildoers!' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁸You will weep and grind your teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but you're locked outside. ²⁹People will come from the east and west, from the north and south, to take their seats at the banquet in the kingdom of God. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ³⁰Those who are last will be first, and those who are first will be last." {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14}

³¹Just then, some Pharisees came warning Him, "Run away quickly, for Herod wants to kill You!" {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 32But Jesus said, "Go tell that fox I am here, casting out demons and healing the sick, today and tomorrow, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} and on the third day I will finish this ministry. ³³I will continue on my way to Jerusalem, for it is not possible that a prophet will be killed outside that city. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ³⁴O Jerusalem! [182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} You who continue to martyr the prophets, and stone those who are sent to you, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} how often I have desired to gather your children around Me, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you said, 'No!" [145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31}

Lord, give me a love for Jerusalem, as You love that city. I pray for the peace of Jerusalem (Ps. 122:6). Amen.

³⁵"Now you are abandoned to your fate! I say to you, you will never see Me again until you say, 'Blessed is the One who comes in the Lord's name." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

Luke 14 Jesus Heals Again on the Sabbath

¹Later Jesus went to the house of a religious leader for a meal and 2there was a man there with greatly swollen arms and legs. The leaders watched Jesus closely to see what He would do. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ³Jesus said to a lawyer, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" 4But the lawyer and the leaders refused to answer Jesus. So Jesus took the man by the hand and healed him, then sent him away. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁵Then Jesus asked, "If your ox falls into a well on the Sabbath, will you not get him out immediately?" {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁶The religious leaders had no answer for Jesus. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15}

⁷Jesus noticed that some guests were trying to get the best seats at a banquet. So He told them this parable. 8"When you are invited to a wedding banquet, don't sit in the best seats, 9lest someone who is more important be given those seats and you are moved lower; you will be embarrassed because you must take a lower seat. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ¹⁰But when you go to the banquet, take the lower seat, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} then your host will see you and move you to a higher seat. As a result, you will be honored in front of the guests. ¹¹Those who try to honor themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be honored." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

Lord, I will take the humble seat in life because I want to be in the center of Your will. Amen.

¹²Jesus told a second parable of a man planning a banquet. "Don't invite your friends, relatives, or rich neighbors, thinking they will invite you to their banquet. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ¹³But invite the poor, the sick, the lame, and blind {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁴and God will bless you because these people can't return the favor, and God will remember you when He passes out rewards." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

¹⁵A Jewish leader thought Jesus had a good point, so he said, "I would consider it an honor to eat in the kingdom of God." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} 16But Jesus answered him with a parable. "A man prepared a great banquet and sent out many invitations. ¹⁷When the banquet was ready, he sent a servant to get the guests, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 18but everyone began making excuses. {140 Ephesians' Church-Prayer, Rev. 2:4-6} One man said he bought a field and had to go inspect it. ¹⁹Another man said he just bought a pair of oxen, and had to go try them out. ²⁰Still a third man said he just got married, so he explained, 'I'm sure you'll understand.' {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ²¹The host was extremely angry and said to his servant, 'Go quickly into the streets and back roads and invite the poor, the sick, the blind and the lame.' {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ²²Even then there was more room, ²³so the host said, 'Go into the rural roads and look in the woods and urge as many as you can find to come to the banquet.' I want my house full. {68 Church-Multiplication Prayer, Acts 19:10} ²⁴None of those I first invited came, so they won't even taste the meal I prepared for them." {483 Thanksgiving for Redemption-Prayer, Ps. 107:2}

Lord, I will work hard to get people saved. I want Your house full. Amen.

Count the Cost

Lord, I will follow You no matter how hard. I will not turn back when the way gets difficult. Amen.

²⁵A great crowd was traveling with Jesus, so He challenged them to follow Him even though it is difficult and tiring. ²⁶"Those who follow Me must love Me more than he loves his father, mother, sister, or brothers, even his own life. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ²⁷You cannot be My disciples unless you pick up your own cross and follow Me."

Lord, I will pick up my cross for today and I will follow You. I will deny myself. Amen.

²⁸"Don't begin following Me until you have counted the cost. No one begins building a house without first determining the cost of materials and labor and if he has enough to complete the project. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²⁹Otherwise, when you lay the foundation, you find out you don't have enough money to complete the project. Then you are embarrassed ³⁰because you can't complete the house. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ³¹Any General planning a battle will first determine if his 10,000 soldiers can win a battle against 20,000 soldiers. 32If a General doesn't plan well, he will have to send a delegation to arrange conditions of peace or surrender. 33So following Me is a struggle with the world, the flesh, and the devil; so you must renounce all that you have to be My disciple. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 34Salt is good, but when it loses its taste, how can it season? 35When it is not good for anything else, it will be thrown away. Let him who has ears, listen and do it." {490 Transformation-Prayer, Rom. 8:29}

Lord, I renounce all. Amen.

Luke 15 Parable of the Lost Sheep

¹The tax collectors and sinners gathered around Jesus to hear what He had to say. ²But the religious leaders were complaining about Jesus because He received sinners and ate with them. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ³Jesus answered them with a parable, ⁴"If you had 100 sheep, and one of them were lost, wouldn't you leave the 99 and go search for the one lost sheep

{145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} till you found it?"

Lord, I will count people as you counted sheep. I will count them because people count. Amen.

5"When you found it, wouldn't you carry it home in your arms, {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} 6and tell everyone to celebrate with you because you found the one lost sheep? {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4} 7Even so, there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over 99 self-righteous people who think they don't need to repent."

Lord, I will rejoice with You over every ONE who comes to salvation. Amen.

Parable of the Lost Coin

⁸Jesus told a second parable of a woman who had 10 pieces of silver that were part of her marriage vow. "If she loses one piece of silver, doesn't she search for it with a lamp and sweep the house till she finds it? {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ⁹Then she calls her friends to rejoice with her because she finds it. ¹⁰There is joy in the presence of the angels over one sinner who repents." {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11}

Parable of the Lost Prodigal

¹¹Jesus told a third parable of a man who had two sons ¹²and the younger son demanded his portion of the inheritance, so the father divided the inheritance between the two sons. ¹³The younger son took his money and went to a distant country. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} There he wasted his money on sinful and luxuriant living, spending everything he had. {171 Fool-Defensive Prayer, Prov. 1:7} 14When a famine came, the boy was hungry, {57 Calamity-Praying, Hos. 5:15} ¹⁵so he took a job feeding pigs. ¹⁶No one gave him anything to eat, so he decided to eat the pig's husks because he was starving. ¹⁷The young man came to his senses {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} when he realized his father's servants had more to eat than he had. {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ¹⁸He decided, "I will go to my father and tell him, 'I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Will you hire me as a servant?" 20The young man returned home to his father. {449 Spiritual-Growth Prayer, 2 Peter 3:18} While he was a great distance away, his father saw him coming. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} He loved him, so he ran to hug and kiss him. {361 Praise for Forgiveness, Ps. 103:3}

Lord, I love this picture of You, the heavenly Father, who welcomes every prodigal son who returns home. Thank You for Your loving-kindness and patience. Amen.

²¹The son said, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and you, I am no longer worthy to be called your son!" ²²But the father told the servants, "Bring the family robe and put it on him, {270 Justification-Based Prayer, Rom. 8:28-31} put the signet ring on his finger, and shoes on his feet. ²³Kill the fatted calf, and let's have a feast. {397 Rejoicing in Prayer, Ps. 5:11} ²⁴My son was dead, but now he is alive; he was lost, but now is found," and they began a family banquet celebration. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ²⁵The older son was working in the field. When he approached the house, he heard music, laughter, and rejoicing, 26so he called one of the servants to ask, "What's happening?" ²⁷The servant answered, "Your brother has come home and your father has killed the fatted calf because he returned safe and sound." 28 The older son was angry and would not go into the banquet, so his father came out to invite him in. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ²⁹The older son said angrily, "I have served you many years, I have never disobeyed you, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} yet you never killed a fatted calf for me or had a celebration for me. 30 Yet, my younger brother squandered his inheritance in sinful living and you throw him a big celebration." 31The father said, "You are always with me, and everything I have is yours. {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} ³²It is right to celebrate because he is your brother, for he was dead, but now is alive: he was lost, but now he is found." {396 Rejoicing for Others-Prayer, Phil. 1:4}

Lord, help me never leave You as did the younger son; help me never be bitter over

Your forgiveness of anyone; help me rejoice with You over the salvation of all. Amen.

Luke 16 To the Disciples—the Deceptive Manager

¹Jesus told the disciples a story of a rich man and his deceptive manager who was stealing from him. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 2The rich man told his deceptive manager that he learned what he was doing, so he fired him. So the manager had to get the books in order. {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} ³The manager thought about where he would work next. He said, "I am not strong enough to dig, and I'm too ashamed to beg." 4The manager then planned to adjust the books of those who owed money to the rich man so they would take care of him. 5The manager called the first, "How much do you owe?" ⁶He answered, "One hundred barrels of oil." The manager said, "Write down 50 barrels." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} 7The manager asked the second, "How much do you owe?" He answered, "One thousand bushels of wheat." The manager said, "Write down 800 bushels." 8The rich man commended the fired manager for such a shrewd act. The people of the world work harder at their dishonesty, than the people of the light work to be honest. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ⁹Jesus said, "Shall I teach you to act that way—to buy friendship dishonestly? No! ¹⁰If you are not honest in small things, {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} you won't be honest in larger matters. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹¹If you have not been faithful in handling the money of others, you will not be entrusted with your own. {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ¹²And if you are unfaithful in handling worldly wealth, who would trust you with the eternal wealth of heaven?" {225 Honest-Prayer, Ps. 17:4-5}

Lord, give me a desire to be absolutely honest about money, even to the smallest amount. Amen.

¹³"No one can serve two masters. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} Either you will love the first, and hate the second, or you will love the second and hate the first. You cannot serve God and money." {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24}

Lord, help me manage everything honestly that You've entrusted to me. Help me serve You with financial integrity. Amen.

¹⁴The Pharisees who loved to make money laughed at Jesus when they heard the Lord's principles about finances. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ¹⁵Jesus answered, "You make people think you are honest, but God knows your greedy hearts. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} You pretend to be honest and humble before others, but you are despicable in God's sight. {381 Priority-Praying, Acts

6:4} ¹⁶The law of Moses and the messages of the prophets have been your guides in the former ages. Now your guide is the good news preached by John the Baptizer that the kingdom of God is ushering in a new era. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁷That doesn't mean the force of the law has changed, for it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of an 'i' of the law to change. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16}

¹⁸"That means the marriage law remains the same. Anyone who divorces and marries another commits adultery, and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery." {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8}

To the Pharisees—the Rich Man and Lazarus

¹⁹Jesus then told of a rich man who wore expensive clothes and lived in great luxury every day. 20"A poor man named Lazarus was lying in the street outside his gate covered with sores and the dogs came to lick them. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²¹He even yearned to eat the leftovers from the rich man's table. ²²The beggar died, {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} and the angels carried him to be with Abraham {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} where those who died in faith were located. The rich man also died, and was buried 23but went to hell. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} As he was in torment he saw Lazarus far off in the company of Abraham. ²⁴The rich man shouted, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me, and send Lazarus to come dip his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented by these flames.' {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} 25But Abraham said, 'Son, remember on earth you had everything, and Lazarus had nothing. Now he is comforted, and you are in pain. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²⁶Besides, there is a great divide between us so that those who want to come here from your side can't cross over, and those on this side can't come to you.' {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁷The rich man begged Abraham, 'Send Lazarus to my home on earth to warn 28my five brothers so they don't come here.' {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 29Abraham answered, 'Your brothers have Moses and the prophets to warn them; let them listen to the Scriptures.' {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ³⁰The rich man answered, 'That is not enough. If someone were to rise from the dead and tell them, they would turn from their sins.' {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³¹Then Abraham replied, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not repent, even though one returns from the dead to tell them." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

Lord, there is a place called Hades (hell) where unbelievers will go after death. Help me stop my friends and family from going there. Amen.

Luke 17 To the Disciples—an Unprofitable Worker

¹Then Jesus said to the disciples, "It is impossible to keep from being tempted to sin, but how terrible it will be for those who tempt others to sin. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 2He would be better off if a huge stone were tied around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than to face punishment for tempting a little one to sin! {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ³Rebuke your brother when he sins and forgive him when he repents. {173 Forgiveness-Prayer, 2 Cor. 2:10} 4If he sins seven times in a day, you must forgive him each time he repents." {174 Forgiveness-Transformation Prayer, Luke 11:4} ⁵The disciples asked, "Lord, help us have more faith." 6The Lord answered, "If you had the smallest amount of faith, the size of a mustard seed, which is the smallest of seeds, then you could say to a mulberry tree, {423 Say-It-Faith Prayer, Mark 11:23} 'Be uprooted and be cast into the sea,' and it would happen." {312 Mountain-Moving Prayer, Mark 11:23, 24} 7Jesus told His disciples another parable, "Suppose you were a servant who plowed in the field or shepherded the sheep. Would you just return home, sit down, and eat? {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} 8No! First you would prepare your master's meal and then serve it to him before you eat your own meal. The servant does not deserve thanks for doing what he is supposed to do. No! He is supposed to do those things, and those who follow the Lord should have the same response. {484 Thanksgiving-Prayer, Eph. 1:16} ¹⁰You do not consider yourself worthy of praise; you simply do what you are supposed to do." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Lord, help me do exactly what You tell me to do, and then some. Amen.

Healing Ten Lepers

¹¹As Jesus was heading back toward Jerusalem, He came to the boundary between Samaria and Galilee. 12 Ten lepers stood off at a distance. As Jesus approached a village, {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ¹³they shouted out to Him, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} 14Jesus answered, "Go show yourself to the priest, {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} just as it is commanded in the Scriptures." They were healed as they obeyed Jesus and began the journey. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ¹⁵One came back shouting, "Glory to God for healing me." {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ¹⁶He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked Him. The healed man was a despised Samaritan. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1}

Lord, I don't want to be unthankful as were the nine lepers. I come to bow at Your feet as did the one Samaritan, "Thank You for salvation." Amen. ¹⁷Jesus asked, "Did I not heal ten lepers? Where are the other nine?" {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ¹⁸The only one who has come back to praise God is this foreigner." ¹⁹Then Jesus said to the man, "Stand up, and go home; your faith has healed you." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}

Christ Teaches about the Second Coming

²⁰One day a religious leader asked Jesus, "When will the kingdom of God begin?" Jesus answered, {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²¹"The kingdom of God won't come with outward signs, so you can't say it began here or there; the kingdom of God stands among you"; Jesus was referring to Himself as the King. {64 Christ's Indwelling-Prayer, Eph. 3:17}

Lord, I don't just live for the day of the rapture; rather, I live today for You—Lord Jesus—the coming One. Amen.

²²Later Jesus talked about this with His disciples, "There is coming a time when you will look for Me to be with you, but I won't come to you physically. ²³Some will proclaim I have returned either here or there, {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} but don't believe the report, nor go out looking for Me. ²⁴Everyone will see Me when I return. It will be as bright as lightning flashing across the heavens, {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²⁵but first I must suffer grievously and be rejected. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²⁶When I return, the people will be just like those in Noah's days. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁷They ate, got drunk, married, and ignored Noah's warning right up to the day when Noah entered the ark. Then the flood came to destroy them. ²⁸My coming will be the same as it was in Lot's day. People were eating, getting drunk, buying, selling, planting and building 29 right up until Lot left Sodom. Then God rained fire and brimstone from heaven to destroy them all. ³⁰The same will happen when the Son of Man is revealed from heaven to those on earth who reject Him. {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} 31When the day of judgment comes, those on the housetops must not go in the house for their belongings, {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} neither should those in the field try to retrieve their things. ³²Remember Lot's wife! {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 33anyone who holds on to the things of this life will lose his life and those who give up their life for Me, will save their life. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} 34At that hour two will be sleeping in the bed, one will be taken and the other left behind. {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10} ³⁵Two women will be grinding corn; one will be taken and the other one will be left behind. ³⁶Two men will be in the field; one will be taken, the other left behind." ³⁷The disciples asked, "What will happen to them?" Jesus didn't fully answer them, but said, "Wherever there are dead bodies, the buzzards gather." {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14}

Luke 18 Two Parables on Prayer

Lord, I know that prayer makes a difference in my life; forgive me for spending so little time praying. Amen.

¹Jesus used a parable to teach that we should always pray and not give up. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8}

When we are told to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17), and "always pray" (Luke 18:1), does it mean we become monks in a monastery who do nothing but pray all the time? Probably not! It probably doesn't even mean remaining in a spirit of prayer, that is, being reverent continually. There's so much we do that involves a number of emotional responses. Just as the new invention, "intermittent windshield wipers," only are activated when it is raining, {252 Intermittent-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:17} so we should pray intermittently as needed. Lord, I breathe a prayer at every need in my life, no matter how small the need, or how often. Amen.

²"There was a judge who was godless, and despised those who came before him for judgments. ³A widow kept coming to the judge demanding justice against her enemy. ⁴The judge kept refusing her. Finally he reasoned, 'I don't fear God or people, ⁵but this woman is pestering me to death {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} with her continual begging for me to do something. I will give her justice because she continually asks for it." {87 Continual-Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:10} ⁶Jesus said, "Here is what the godless judge said, 7'God will see that justice is done to those who continually pray to Him, {252 Intermittent-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:17} just as the widow got justice, even when God seems to delay. God will answer persistent prayer {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁸and avenge them speedily. And when the Son of Man returns, will He find people of faith on earth who continually pray?" ⁹Then Jesus gave the following parable to those who considered themselves righteous, {410 Righteous-People Prayer, 1 Peter 3:12} but who hated others. ¹⁰"Two men went into the temple to pray, one a self-righteous Pharisee, and the other one an obvious sinner. {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} ¹¹The Pharisee boasted in his prayer {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} that he was not a cheater, or an adulterous lawbreaker, ¹²he fasted twice a week, {161 Fasting-Prayer, Matt. 6:16-19} and gave a tenth to God of all he possessed. {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} ¹³The obvious sinner did not lift his eyes to heaven, {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} but beat on his chest to express his sorrow for his sin. Then he prayed, 'God be merciful to me,

One of the most famous prayers throughout Christian history is this "Jesus Prayer." Note it is: (1) short, (2) a request, (3) personal, (4) intimate, (5) self-focused because we ask for something to be done for us or to us, a sinner." {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} and (6) Jesus-centered and not self-centered. This prayer has been repeated over and over. "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner." Amen.

¹⁴Jesus said, "This obvious sinner—not the Pharisee—was forgiven; those who exalt themselves will be humbled and those who humble themselves will be exalted." {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10}

¹⁵Then people brought their babies to Jesus to be touched by Him. {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19} But when the disciples saw it, they discouraged them. ¹⁶But Jesus called to the children and said, "Let the little children come to me, {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} and do not stop them, for the kingdom of God belongs to children. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1} ¹⁷I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it." {43 Blessing Children-Prayer, Lam. 2:19}

Lord, I come as a child; accept my childish praise and worship. Amen.

The Rich Young Ruler

¹⁸A rich young ruler asked, "Good Master, what must I do to get eternal life?" {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁹Jesus answered, "Why are you calling Me good, only God is good, {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²⁰but if you wish eternal life, keep the commands." The young man answered, "Which should I keep?" Jesus said, "Do not kill, and do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not bear false witness, honor your father and mother, and love your neighbor as yourself." {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ²¹The young man said, "I have kept all these." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ²²Jesus said, "If you would be perfect, {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} go sell all you have and give it to the poor; {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} you will have treasure in heaven, and then follow Me." ²³The young man was sad when he heard this, for he had great wealth. {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} ²⁴Then Jesus told His disciples, "I say to you it is hard for a rich man to enter heaven. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye than a rich man to enter heaven." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} 26The amazed disciples said, "Who then can be saved?" {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ²⁷Jesus answered, "No one from a human perspective, but all things are possible with God." {356 Possibility-Praying, Mark 9:23}

Lord, give me a vision of a great powerful God who can do great powerful things for me. Forgive me for my puny faith. Amen.

²⁸Then Peter added, "We have left all to follow You. What will be our reward?" Jesus answered, {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ²⁹"In the next world when I sit on My throne, you My disciples will sit on twelve thrones, ruling the twelve tribes of Israel. Everyone who has left housing, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children, or land for My sake, ³⁰will receive 100 times more when he receives eternal life."

Lord, I will be last in this life to be rewarded in heaven. Amen.

The Selfish Ambition of James and John

³¹As Jesus was heading toward Jerusalem, He said to His disciples privately, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The petitions by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be fulfilled there. ³²He will be delivered to the Gentiles, mocked, insulted, and spat on. ³³They will whip Him and kill Him, but He will rise again on the third day." ³⁴But they could not understand because it was a riddle to them, and they could not grasp what He meant. {48 Blinded-Prayer, James 4:2-3}

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

35As Jesus came near Jericho, a blind man sat by the road begging. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} 36When he heard the crowd passing by, he asked what was happening. 37They told him, "Jesus of Nazareth was passing by." 38He yelled loudly, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me." {263 Jesus-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ³⁹Then they tried to keep him quiet, but he yelled even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me." {258 Jesus' Name-Praying, John 14:13} 40So Jesus stopped and told them to bring the blind man to Him. When he got near, 41 Jesus asked, "What do you want Me to do for you?" {52 Boldness Request in Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:8} The blind man said, "Lord, I want to see." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁴²Then Jesus said, "Receive your sight; {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} your faith has made you well." {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ⁴³Immediately the man could see and he followed Jesus, praising God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} When the people saw the miracle, they also praised God.

Lord, give me spiritual sight so I can see kingdom things; help me to praise You in all I do. Amen.

Luke 19 Zacchaeus

¹As Jesus was walking through Jericho, ²Zacchaeus, an extremely rich and influential tax collector, 3tried to get a look at Jesus, but he couldn't see over the crowds on the road side. {31 Barriers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2\{\}^4\Zacchaeus ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Jesus when He passed that way. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} 5Jesus looked at him and said, "Zacchaeus, come down, I'm going to eat at your home." 6Zacchaeus hurriedly came down and prepared a banquet for Jesus, {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 7but the crowd disapproved because Zacchaeus was a backslidden Jewish tax collector.

Lord, give me a passion to see Jesus as Zacchaeus had that passion. Amen. ⁸Zacchaeus told Jesus, "I will give half my wealth to the poor, and those I've cheated; I will restore four times what I took from them." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ⁹Jesus said, "Today salvation has come to this house because he is a son of Abraham. ¹⁰The Son of Man has come to seek and save those who are lost, such as Zacchaeus." {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10}

¹¹Some thought the kingdom would come immediately, so Jesus told a parable to correct that wrong impression. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} 12"A noble man was called to a distant place to be crowned king of that province. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} ¹³Before he left, he called his ten workers and gave them each $2,000 to invest while he was gone. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} 14But some of the workers rebelled and sent the nobleman word that he was no longer their lord. ¹⁵When the nobleman returned, he called the workers to whom he had given money to find out their profit. 16The first man reported his $2,000 had made a profit of $20,000, ten times the original amount. 17'Wonderful,' responded the nobleman, 'you have been faithful; you will be ruler of 10 cities.' {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} 18The second worker reported he had turned his $2,000 into $10,000, five times the original amount; 19the nobleman made him ruler of five cities. {409 Reward-Prayer, 1 Cor. 3:14} ²⁰The third man had only the original $2,000, so he explained, 21'Because you are an exacting man, reaping where you don't sow, I was afraid. I hid it safely in linen cloth.' {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} ²²The nobleman called him a 'wicked worker, {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} saying, 'You are condemned by your own words. You knew I reaped where I didn't sow, therefore ²³why didn't you deposit my money in a bank so I could have drawn interest from it?' {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²⁴The nobleman said to those standing near, 'Take the $2,000 from him and give it to the man with $20,000.' 25 They answered the nobleman, 'He already has $20,000.' ²⁶Jesus answered, "Those who do more with more will get even more, and those who do little with little, it shall be taken from him. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ²⁷But bring my enemies here who did not want me as their king and slay them in my presence!" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, help me serve faithfully with the spiritual gifts You've given me. I will not hide my "talent" in the ground. Use me as I desire to be used. Amen.

The Triumphant Entry

Lord, I gladly receive the presence of Jesus into my life just as the crowds received Jesus on Palm Sunday. Amen.

²⁸The next day—Sunday—news that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem swept through the crowds of Passover pilgrims. ²⁹As Jesus came to Bethpage, He sent two disciples into the village 30 telling them they would find a donkey with her young colt tied there. 31" If anyone asks why you are taking the donkey, tell them the Master needs it to ride into Jerusalem." This act fulfilled Scripture, "Tell the people of Zion, your King is coming to you, humbly riding on a donkey, even on a young colt." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 32The disciples did as instructed and found the donkey as Jesus said. 33As they were loosing the animal, the owners asked why they were untying the colt. ³⁴They answered, "The Lord needs it." ³⁵So they put their coats on the donkey and Jesus rode on a colt that had never been ridden by anyone. ³⁶Great crowds spread their coats on the road, others waved their palm branches as they went to meet Him. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ³⁷The crowds who marched in front of Jesus shouted, "HOSANNA to the Son of David, {290 Loud-Rejoicing Prayer, Ps. 100:1} 38blessing on Him who comes in the Lord's name, HOSANNA in the highest heaven." {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5} ³⁹The religious ruler said to Jesus, "Rebuke Your followers for they are blaspheming God and the Scriptures." 40 Jesus answered them, "If they stopped praising God, the rocks would immediately cry out praise to God." {367 Praise-Worthy Prayer, Luke 10:21}

Lord, I will praise and magnify Your name for all You've done in saving me. I will worship You for the greatness of who You are. Amen.

⁴¹Jesus approached Jerusalem, and as soon as He saw the city, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} He wept tears over it, ⁴²and said, "If you had only known how to have peace! {347 Peaceful-Living Prayer, Heb. 12:14} But now peace is hidden from you. ⁴³For a time is coming when your enemies will build siege towers against you and surround you on all sides. ⁴⁴They will kill you and your children. They will not leave one stone upon another, because you did not know your God had visited you." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Cleansing the Temple

⁴⁵When Jesus got to the temple, He began cleansing it; He forced the merchants and their customers to leave. Then He upset the tables of those selling pigeons, and stopped workers from bringing in their merchandise. {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} 46Jesus said, "Do not the Scriptures teach, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer {12 All Kinds of Faith-Praying, Rom. 1:17} for all people, but it's become a den of thieves?" 47Jesus was teaching daily in the temple. The leaders heard what Jesus said and wanted to destroy Him, {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} 48but they were afraid to do anything against Jesus because the people were listening intently to His teaching. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10}

Luke 20 A Day of Controversy in the Temple

¹While Jesus was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the good news, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} the high priests and the scribes, with the elders, debated openly with Him before the people, ²and said to Him, "Tell us where You get authority to do as You do? Who gave You Your authority?" {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ³Then Jesus answered, "I will ask you a question. 4Tell Me, did John get his baptism from heaven or from men?" {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} 5They discussed with one another, and said, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say, 'Why did you not believe John?' {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ⁶But if we say, 'From men,' all the people will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet from God." 7So they answered, "We do not know where it was from." {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} 8Then Jesus said, "Neither will I tell you where I got My authority for doing what I do." {221 Hidden Answers-Prayer, Rom. 11:33-36}

Parable of the Vineyard Owner

⁹Then He told the people the following parable: "A man planted a vineyard and rented it to tenant farmers, and went on a long journey. ¹⁰At harvest time he sent a servant to the tenants to collect his part of the grape crop, {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} but the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹Again the owner sent another servant and they beat him and insulted him, and sent him back empty-handed. 12 Again he sent a third servant, and they wounded him and kicked him out of the vineyard. ¹³Then the owner said, 'I will send my dearly loved son. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} They will respect him.' 14But when the tenants saw the son, they said, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him so that what he inherits will be ours.' 15So they threw him out of the vineyard and murdered him. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenant farmers? {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁶He will come and kill those tenants and lease the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "No!" 17But Jesus glanced at them and said, "What does this Scripture mean, {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 'That stone which the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone'? 18 Everyone who falls on that stone will be saved, and the one on whom the stone falls will be crushed to death." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, You are the Cornerstone; I bow on this "stone" to worship the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Pharisees' and Herodians' Question

¹⁹Then the scribes and the high priests wanted to arrest Jesus at that time, but they were afraid of the people. They knew

Jesus meant the parable for them. ²⁰So they watched closely and sent spies to catch Him in His conversation {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} so they could turn Him over to the governor. 21So they asked Jesus, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach what is right, and show no preference to anyone, but You teach the way of God no matter who is listening. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ²²Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" ²³But He detected their trick {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} and said to them, ²⁴"Show Me a coin. Whose picture and title is inscribed there?" They answered, "Caesar's." 25 Jesus said to them, "Then give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God!" {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ²⁶They could not twist what He said, and they were astonished at His answer. They said no more. {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3}

Lord, I will do in this life, what needs to be done; and I will do for You what needs to be done. Amen.

The Sadducees' Question

²⁷Next, some of the Sadducees who claimed there is no resurrection, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²⁸asked Jesus, "Teacher, Moses wrote that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife but no child, the man should take the widow and raise up a family for his brother. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim.

1:14} ²⁹Now there were seven brothers. The first brother married a wife and died childless. {206 Guarding Our Legacy-Prayer, 2 Tim. 1:14} 30 Then the second, 31third, up to the seventh who died but left no child. 32 Then the woman died. 33 In the resurrection, whose wife will she be?" {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³⁴Jesus answered, "The people of this world marry and are married, {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} 35but those who are worthy of the resurrection from the dead, neither marry nor are married. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ³⁶For they are like the angels of God; they neither marry nor are they given in marriage. ³⁷Moses at the burning bush demonstrated this when he called the Lord 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' {60 Character of God-Prayer, 1 Thess. 5:24} ³⁸The Lord is not the God of dead people but of living people, for all live in Him." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

³⁹Then some of the scribes answered Jesus, "Teacher, You have given an insightful answer." ⁴⁰They were afraid to ask Him any more questions.

Now Jesus Asks a Question

⁴¹Then Jesus said to them, "How can anyone say that the Christ is David's Son? ⁴²In the book of Psalms, David said, 'The Lord has said to my Lord, "Sit at My right hand, {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ⁴³until I make Your enemies the footstool of Your feet." ⁴⁴Since David called Messiah Lord, then how can the Messiah be David's son?" {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Jesus Denounces Scribes and Pharisees

⁴⁵Then Jesus spoke openly so everyone could hear, but directed His words to His disciples, ⁴⁶"Beware of the scribes who walk about in long robes and love to be greeted with praise in public places, and love to be seated in the best seats in the synagogues, and to be recognized with honors at a banquet. ⁴⁷These men take widows' houses and cover up their greed with long prayers! {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} They will receive a much greater sentence." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Luke 21 Teaching in the Temple

¹Jesus looked to see rich people dropping money into the treasury. {310 Money-Prayer, Acts 2:44} ²Then He saw a poor widow drop two small coins into the treasury. ³And He said, "Verily, this poor widow has dropped in more than all of the rich, {412 Sacrificial-Prayer, Heb. 13:15} ⁴for they gave out of their abundance, but she gave out of her poverty all that she had." {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34}

Lord, I will sacrifice my money to You. Amen.

The Mount of Olives Discourse

⁵Some were talking about how beautiful the temple was decorated with stones. Jesus said, {182 Geographical-Praying, Matt. 6:6} 6"You may admire it, but the time is coming when one stone will not be left on another. Everything will be torn down." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ⁷Then His disciples asked Jesus, "Teacher, when will these things happen and what is the sign that will predict it?" {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} 8So Jesus said, "Be careful and do not be misled! Many will come claiming to be Messiah, and saying, 'I am He,' and 'The time is near.' Do not follow them. 9You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but don't be panic-stricken. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} These things must happen first, then the end will come." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18\} 10 Then Jesus said to them, "One nation will go to war against another, and one kingdom against another. 11 There will be earthquakes, pestilences, famines, and dreadful events, and threatening signs in the sky. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 12But before these things take place, they will arrest you, persecute you, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} and turn you over to synagogues to be put in prison. You will be brought before presidents and governors for My name's sake. ¹³This will be your opportunity to testify for Me, {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 14so you must determine in your hearts how to make your defense. 15I will tell you what to say, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} then your opponents will not be able to resist you and refute you. ¹⁶You will be betrayed by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will kill some of you, {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁷and you will be continuously hated by everyone because you bear My name. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} ¹⁸And yet not a single hair on your head will perish in hell. {460 Stability-Prayer, Eph. 4:13, 14} ¹⁹If you stand firm, you will establish your souls."

Jerusalem Is Destroyed

²⁰"When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then understand that tribulation is near. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ²¹Let those in Judea flee to the mountains, and those within the city flee from it. ²²These are the days of tribulation when its predictions in the Scriptures will be fulfilled. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ²³Woe to pregnant women and those with nursing babies. There will be great tribulation in the land and persecution on this people. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²⁴They will be killed by the edge of the sword, or carried off as captives among the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled under the feet of the pagan, until the times of the Gentiles come to completion." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

The Second Coming

²⁵"And there will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars. On earth the nations will give up hope with no direction like the roaring of the sea and its waves. {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} ²⁶Men will faint with fear because of the things that will come on the world. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ²⁷Then they will see the Son of Man coming on a cloud with great power and glory. ²⁸When these events begin to happen, look up and lift your heads, for your deliverance is near." {524 Waiting for Christ's Return-Prayer, 1 Thess. 1:10}

²⁹Then He told them a parable. "Look carefully at the fig tree. ³⁰When you see new branches shooting from their buds, you know that summer is near. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} ³¹So when you see these signs taking place, know that the Kingdom of God is near. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ³²Verily I say to you, this generation will not pass away before these things take place. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away." {535 Word-Praying, John 1:1, 14}

Lord, You have told me of all the destruction in the future. I trust You to hold me in Your hand in the future. Amen.

³⁴Be on your guard, {11 Alert-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:13} so that you are not loaded down with self-pleasures, drunkenness, and worldly concerns. That day can catch you unawares like a trap. ³⁵It will come on all who are living anywhere on the earth. {529 Watchful-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:7} ³⁶So watch and pray that you will have strength to escape all these things that will take place. Make sure you take your stand in the presence of the Son of Man." {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ³⁷During the days He taught in the temple, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} but He spent the nights on the Mount of Olives. ³⁸The people rose early in the morning to come listen to Him in the temple. {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

Luke 22 Events on Wednesday

¹The Festival of Bread without Yeast, also called the Passover, was drawing near. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ²So the high priests and scribes sought how they could put Jesus to death, but they were afraid of how the people would respond. {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} ³Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, one of Jesus' apostles. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 4Judas went to discuss with the high priests and temple police how he could deliver Jesus to them. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁵They were thrilled and agreed to pay him for it. ⁶Judas in turn accepted the deal and began to look for ways to deliver Jesus to them without getting the people involved.

Events on Thursday

⁷Then the day of the Festival came, the day when the Passover lamb was sacrificed. ⁸So Jesus sent Peter and John on a mission with these directions, "Go and prepare a place for us to eat the Passover meal." {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} 9They asked Jesus, "Where should we prepare it?" {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} ¹⁰Jesus answered, "When you enter the city you will see a man carrying a pitcher of water; follow him to a house. 11 Then say to the owner of the house, 'Our Teacher says to you, "Show us the room where He can eat the Passover supper with His disciples." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 12 Then the owner will show you a large room upstairs. Make preparations there." {207 Guidance-Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2}

Lord, You know about small things like a man carrying a jar of water, so You know about the small things that will happen to me. {307 Minutia-Prayer, Phil. 4:6} I commit the small things of my life to You. Amen.

¹³So they went and it happened as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

Celebrating the Passover

¹⁴When it was time, Jesus took His place at the table with the apostles about Him. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ¹⁵He said, "I have a great passion to eat this Passover meal with you before I suffer. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ¹⁶I will never again eat this meal with you until we are in the kingdom of God." ¹⁷Then Jesus received a cup, gave thanks, {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer,

John 6:11} and said, "Take this and taste ¹⁸because I will not again drink from the vine until we are in the kingdom of God." {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9}

¹⁹Then He took bread, gave thanks, {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} and broke it, and gave it to them saying, "This is My body which is broken for you. This is a memorial to Me." {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ²⁰After supper He took a cup and said, "This cup represents the new covenant to be established by My blood, which is poured out for you." {394 Redemption-Worship, Rev. 5:12}

Lord Jesus, I will remember You when I take communion, {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} making sure that nothing breaks the communion we have together. Amen.

Betrayer Is Predicted

²¹"The hand of the one who betrays Me is on the table! {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ²²Because the Son of Man is going away, as it has been predetermined, {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} how terrible it will be for that man who is His betrayer." {267 Judgment Prayer, Rev. 17:5} ²³Then the apostles began to discuss among themselves which one was going to betray Him.

²⁴Then there arose a contention as to who should rank as greatest. {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ²⁵But Jesus said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles rule over people and those who exercise authority are given the title of 'Benefactor.' ²⁶But don't do that. Rather, the greatest among you must be like the youngest and must lead by serving people. {428 Self-Denying Prayer, Mark 8:34} ²⁷Who is the greater, the one sitting at the table or the servant who waits on him? Is it not those who sit at the table? I come to you as a servant who waits on you {432 Service-Prayer, Heb. 5:4} ²⁸and you have continued to support Me in my trials. {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} ²⁹Therefore as My Father has given Me a kingdom, {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ³⁰so I give you the privilege of eating and drinking at My table in My kingdom. {74 Coming-Kingdom Prayer, Ps. 67; Matt. 6:9} You will sit on thrones to rule the twelve tribes of Israel."

Peter's Denial Is Predicted

31"Simon, Simon, satan has asked for your soul to sift you like wheat, {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40} 32but I have prayed that your own faith should not fail. {248 Intercessor's-Prayer, Rom. 8:34} And Peter, after you have returned to Me, you must strengthen your brothers." But 33Peter protested, "Lord, I am ready to go to prison or death for You!" 34But Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow before you deny three times that you know Me!" {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22}

³⁵Then Jesus said to them, "When I sent you out without money or suitcase, or shoes, did you need anything?" They answered, "We didn't need anything." ³⁶Then Jesus said to them, "But now the man who has money must take it with him and a suitcase too. {76 Common-Sense Praying, Gen. 24:12-14} And the man who does not have a sword must sell his coat and buy one. ³⁷For I tell you, what has been written about Me must be accomplished: 'He was numbered with the transgressors.' That prediction has to be accomplished." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ³⁸So they said, "Lord, we have two swords!" And He answered them, "That is enough!"

Jesus' Prayer in Gethsemane

³⁹Then Jesus left to go up the Mount of Olives, {73 Comfortable Place to Pray, John 18:2} as it was His habit of praying there. His disciples followed Him. ⁴⁰When He reached the place, He said, "Pray that you may not be tempted." {476 Temptation-Victory Prayer, Luke 22:40}

The Bible teaches us to be victorious over temptations (1 Cor. 10:13), and that we should pray to overcome temptation (Matt. 6:13). Jesus gave the command that we should "Pray for strength against temptation." So what is our prayer? That: (1) we understand its nature; (2) we know our strengths and weaknesses; (3) we remember Bible verses that strengthen us; (4) we apply the principles of victory; (5) our thoughts remain on God, and (6) God takes away our fears, and any desire to sin. Lord, I have given in to temptation in the past, and I don't want to go there again. Strengthen my will, fill my mind with Scripture, and capture my emotions in my hour of weakness. Amen.

⁴¹Jesus withdrew about a stone's throw from them to kneel down and pray, {357 Posture in Prayer, 2 Sam. 7:18} ⁴²"Father, if You are willing, take this cup from Me. Yet not My will but Yours be done!" {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13}

There comes a time when we must say with Jesus, "Not my will, but Yours be done." {533 Will of God-Prayer, Eph. 5:17} Jesus knew the terrible suffering that lay ahead, but there was no other way to save humans; so He submitted to the inevitable. We too come to situations where we must submit our will to God's will. Lord, You know best and You have a perfect will for my life; I abandon my will and submit to do Your will. May Your will always be done in my life. Amen.

⁴³An angel came to Him from heaven to strengthen Him. {14 Angel-Appreciation Prayer, Heb. 2:7} ⁴⁴But Jesus being in agony, prayed earnestly {54 Brinkmanship-Praying, Ps. 91:3-10} so that His sweat became like drops of blood that dripped on the ground. ⁴⁵He rose from prayer {332 One-Hour Prayer, Mark 14:37} to go to the disciples but found them sleeping. ⁴⁶He asked them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray that you enter not into temptation." {515 Victory Over Temptation-Prayer, Heb. 2:18}

⁴⁷While He was still speaking, a crowd came with Judas, one of the twelve, as their guide. He approached Jesus to kiss

Him, {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 48but Jesus replied, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?" ⁴⁹The apostles saw what was about to take place, and asked, "Lord, shall we defend You with our swords now?" 50 Then one of the apostles slashed the high priest's servant and cut off his right ear. {105 Defensive-Warfare Prayer, 1 John 4:4} 51But Jesus intervened, "Permit Me to be arrested!" So Iesus touched his ear and healed him. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 52Then Jesus said to the high priests, temple guards, and elders, who had come to arrest Him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs and treated Me as if I were a robber? 53When I was with you daily in the temple, you never tried to arrest Me! But in this darkness is your chance to do it." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

The Second Trial—Before Caiaphas

⁵⁴After they arrested Jesus and led Him away, {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} they brought Him to the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} 55A fire was kindled in the middle of the courtyard. Peter was sitting among those gathered for warmth. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} 56A servant girl saw Peter sitting by the fire and said, "This fellow was with Jesus." 57But he denied it and said, "Woman, I do not know Him." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} ⁵⁸On another occasion a man recognized Peter and said, "You are one of them too." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} 59 About an hour later another man confidently said, "He certainly was with Jesus, for he is a Galilean!" ⁶⁰But Peter said, "Man, you don't know what you are saying." {159 False-Prayer, Matt. 7:21-23} While he was speaking, a rooster crowed. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ⁶¹Then the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Peter remembered what the Lord had said to him, "Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." ⁶²So Peter went out and wept bitterly. {55 Brokenness-Prayer, Joel 2:12}

Lord, I will not deny You as Peter did. Give me strength and courage to keep this pledge. Amen.

⁶³Then the soldiers who had Jesus in custody whipped Him and mocked Him. ⁶⁴They blindfolded Jesus and then said to Him, "Prophesy! Who struck You?" ⁶⁵And they continued to abuse Him. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

The Third Trial—Before the Sanhedrin

⁶⁶As soon as light came, the elders, high priests, and scribes assembled to bring Him before the Sanhedrin. They demanded, ⁶⁷"Tell us if You are the Messiah." {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} But Jesus answered, "If I tell you, you will not believe Me, ⁶⁸ and if I ask you a question, you will not answer Me. ⁶⁹But after this the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of God." {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} ⁷⁰Then they yelled at Him, "Are You the Son of God?" And He answered,

"Yes, I am." 71 Then they concluded, "What further evidence do we need? We have heard blasphemy ourselves from His own mouth!"

Luke 23 The Fourth Trial—Before Pilate

¹Then all the Jewish leaders led Jesus to Pilate and ²brought the following charges against Him: {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} "We have found this man destroying our nation and stopping people from paying taxes to Caesar and He claims to be a king Himself." {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ³Then Pilate asked Jesus, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And Jesus answered him, "I am." 4Then Pilate said to the Jewish leaders and the crowd, "I find nothing worthy of a trial for this man." {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} 5But they insisted, "He is starting a rebellion all over Judea. He began in Galilee and now He is teaching here." 6Hearing this, Pilate asked if Jesus were a Galilean. 7When he learned that Jesus was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Jesus to Herod because Herod was in Jerusalem at that time.

The Fifth Trial—Before Herod

⁸Now Herod was anxious to see Jesus because of what he had heard about Him. Herod was hoping to see some miracle done by Him. {323 "No" Answers to Prayer, Isa. 59:1, 2}

Lord, You don't do miracles for the curious, or to entertain people. You do the miraculous for those who believe. Give me faith to believe. Amen.

⁹So Herod continued to question Jesus for a long time, but Jesus did not answer him at all. {436 Silent-Prayer, Ps. 39:1-3} ¹⁰Meanwhile the high priests and the scribes were waiting to accuse Jesus. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} ¹¹Then Herod and his soldiers tried to embarrass Jesus and made fun of Him and put a royal robe on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. ¹²That day, Herod and Pilate became friends; they had previously been enemies.

¹³Then Pilate called to himself the high priests, the leaders of the council, and the crowd, and 14said, "You brought this man to me on a charge of religious rebellion against the temple. I have examined Him in your presence and find Him not guilty of your charges. {518 Vindication-Praise Prayer, Ps. 20:7} ¹⁵Nor does Herod, for he sent Him back to me. Indeed, Jesus has done nothing to deserve the death penalty. ¹⁶I will beat Him {465 Suffering-Prayer, 1 Peter 4:12, 13} and let Him go." ¹⁷It was the custom for him to release one prisoner at the festival. 18 But the crowd began to shout, "Away with this fellow; give us Barabbas!" 19He was a man who had been put in prison for starting a riot and for murder. 20 Again Pilate appealed to them to let Jesus go. ²¹But they continued shouting, "Crucify Him, crucify Him!" {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} ²²So Pilate spoke to them a third time, "Why? What is His crime? I find nothing that deserves the death penalty. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} I will beat Him and let Him go." ²³But the crowd and religious leaders continued to demand with loud voices that Jesus be crucified. ²⁴Then Pilate allowed their demands to be carried out. ²⁵Pilate released Barabbas who had been put in prison for riot and murder, but turned Jesus over to be crucified. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3}

Lord Jesus, You were crucified instead of Barabbas, so You died instead of me. How can I ever say thanks for Your love for me? Amen.

Christ Is Crucified

²⁶As they were leading Jesus away, they grabbed a man named Simon from Cyrene, as he was entering the city from the rural area, and made him carry Jesus' cross on his shoulders. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} ²⁷A vast crowd of people followed Him and women were mourning and weeping. ²⁸Jesus turned and said to the women, "Women of Jerusalem, stop weeping for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²⁹A time is coming when it will be said, 'Happy are the childless women and women who have never given birth and nursed babies!' ³⁰Then people will cry out to the mountains, 'Fall upon us, and cover us up!' {136 End-Times Understanding Prayer, Rev. 17:9} 31If they do this evil when the wood is green, what will they do when it is dry?"

{19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4}

³²Two others, criminals, were also led out to be crucified with Jesus. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 33When they came to the place called Golgotha, "The Skull," they crucified Jesus and the criminals, one on His right hand and the other on His left hand. ³⁴They cast lots to divide His clothes among them, 35 all the while people stood around looking on. The members of the Sanhedrin scoffed at Him and said, "He saved others, {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} now let's see if He can save Himself. Let's see if He really is God's Messiah, His Chosen One!" {238 Inappropriate Motives-Prayer, James 4:2-3} ³⁶The soldiers also made fun of Him offering Him vinegar, ³⁷and saying, "Save Yourself if You are the King of the Jews!" {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ³⁸A shingle was nailed above His head with these words, "THE KING OF THE JEWS." 39One of the criminals on his cross kept abusing Jesus saying, "If You are the Christ, then save us and Yourself." {231 Hypocritical-Prayer, Matt. 6:5} 40But the other criminal rebuked him, "You should fear God because you are suffering the same penalty as He. {163 Fear of God-Praying, Heb. 5:7} 41We suffer justly because we are getting what we deserve. {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13} But this man has done nothing wrong." 42Then the criminal asked, "Jesus, remember me when You come in Your kingdom!" {304 Mercy-Prayer, Ps. 6:2} ⁴³Jesus answered him, "This day you will be with Me in paradise." {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14}

Lord, I'm so glad that all the thief had to do was believe in Jesus to be saved. That means I'm saved because I believe in Jesus. Amen.

⁴⁴It was about noon when darkness covered the area and it stayed dark until three o'clock. 45The sun failed to shine. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} At that time the curtain before the Most Holy Place in the temple was torn in two. {488 Torn-Veil Prayer, Mark 15:38} 46Then Jesus cried with a loud shout, "Father, I commit My spirit to You." {130 Dying-Prayer, Acts 7:59} Then Jesus breathed His last. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ⁴⁷The captain of the soldiers saw what had happened and prayed to God, "Certainly He was innocent!" {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 48When the crowds who had come to view the crucifixion had seen what took place, they returned to the city. {202 Grief-Prayer, Eph. 4:30} 49All His friends, and the women who also followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance. {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7}

Christ Is Buried

⁵⁰A man named Joseph, a good and upright man, a member of the Sanhedrin ⁵¹who had voted not to condemn Jesus, was there. He came from the Jewish town, Arimathea, and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. {154 Faithfulness-Praying, 1 Thess. 5:24} ⁵²Joseph went to Pilate to ask for Jesus' body. {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} ⁵³Then he took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in a linen sheet and laid it in a tomb carved out of rock, where no one had yet been laid. ⁵⁴It was the preparation day, and the Sabbath was just beginning. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} ⁵⁵So the women, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, watched Joseph closely to see where the tomb was located and where His body was laid.

In the Grave

56Then they went home to prepare spices {354 Pleasant-Smelling Prayer, Rev. 8:4} and perfumes. {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14} They rested on the Sabbath according to the Old Testament commandment.

Luke 24 The Visit of the Women to the Tomb

¹On the first day of the week before the sun came up, women went to the tomb with spices to prepare the body of Jesus. {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} ²They found the stone rolled back from the entrance to the tomb. ³When they went inside, they did not find the body. ⁴And as they were looking around, two men in glistening robes suddenly stood beside them. {15 Angel-Like Closeness to God, Heb. 9:5} 5The women were afraid, {178 Frightful-Prayer, Mark 14:36} and turned their faces to the ground. {150 Face-Down Worship Prayer, Rev. 11:16} The two men said to them, "Why are you looking for Jesus among the dead? He is alive. ⁶He is not here but has risen. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} Remember He told you while He was still in Galilee 7that the Son of Man was going to be turned over to evil men to be crucified, but that He would rise again on the third day." {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁸Then the women remembered His words {303 Memory-Praying, Ps. 77:11} and returned to Jerusalem from the tomb and told all those things to the eleven and then told the others. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁰The women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary, James' mother. ¹¹Because their report seemed to be nonsense to the disciples, they didn't believe the women. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 12Peter ran to the tomb, and stooped down to see the linen clothes lying there, but nothing else. Then Peter went home, wondering what happened. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7}

Christ Appears on the Road to Emmaus

¹³That afternoon, two followers of Jesus were on their way home to their village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. ¹⁴They were talking together about all those things that had taken place that day. ¹⁵As they were discussing the events of the day, Jesus Himself joined them as they continued their journey. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ¹⁶But their eyes were blinded to Him and kept them from recognizing Jesus. {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22}

Lord, how many times have You come alongside me, and I didn't recognize Your presence? {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps.

16:11} Open my blind spiritual eyes to see Your presence. Amen.

¹⁷Then Jesus said to them, "What is this news that you are talking about as you walk?" {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3} ¹⁸The one named Cleopas answered, "Are You the only visitor to Jerusalem who did not know about the things that have happened these past few days?" {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ¹⁹And Jesus said to them, "What things?" They answered, "The talk of the town is about Jesus of Nazareth. All the people believe He is a prophet, mighty in deed and word. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ²⁰The high priests and religious leaders turned Him over to be sentenced to death to be crucified. {96 Crucifixion-Prayer, Gal. 2:20} 21But we kept hoping Jesus is the Messiah who was coming to set Israel free. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} Today is the third day since His death occurred. ²²But this morning some women who follow Him have astounded us! {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²³They went to the tomb early and could not find His body. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels who told them He was alive. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²⁴Then some followers went to the tomb and found it exactly as the women described, but they didn't see Him." ²⁵Then Jesus said to them, "O slow of mind and heart to believe all that the prophets have said! {50 Blind-Prayer, John 11:22} ²⁶Did they not teach that the Messiah had to suffer and then enter His glory?" {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ²⁷Then Jesus began with Moses and taught His way through the prophets and explained to them all the passages in the Scriptures about Himself. {41 Bible-Prayer, John 15:7} ²⁸As they approached their village, Jesus made as though He were going farther, ²⁹but they urged Him, "Come and stay with us, {23 Asking-Prayer, Matt. 7:7} for it is getting toward evening and the day is almost over." So Jesus entered in to stay with them. {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} ³⁰Then He took His place at the table. He received the loaf and blessed it and broke it and handed it to them. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} ³¹Then their spiritual eyes were opened and they recognized Jesus. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} Then He vanished from them. {124 Divine-Presence Answer to Prayer, Gen. 32:30} ³²They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn as He talked to us on the road, as He explained the Scriptures to us?" {456 Spiritual-Understanding Prayer, Eph. 3:18}

Lord, thank You for the many times You've lit a fire in my heart with Your presence. May I share with others what You've taught me, Amen.

³³Immediately they got up and returned to Jerusalem and found the eleven and other followers all together. {166 Fellowship-Praying, 1 John 1:3}

³⁴They told the couple that the Lord had risen from the dead and had been seen by Simon. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ³⁵Then the two told what had occurred on the road, and how they recognized Jesus when He broke the loaf. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13}

The Upper Room on Sunday Evening

³⁶While they were discussing these things, Jesus stood among them and said, "Peace to you!" {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁷They were startled and fearful; {165 Fear-Praying, Rev. 14:7} some even thought they saw a ghost. ³⁸But Jesus said, "Why are you so upset, and why do you have doubts in your hearts? {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ³⁹Examine My hands and My feet, for it is I, Myself. Touch Me to see for yourselves, for a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have." {156 Faith-Praying, Heb. 11:6} ⁴⁰After this, Jesus showed them His hands and His feet. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ⁴¹So while they were still doubting and wondering, Jesus asked, "Have you anything to eat?" 42They gave Him a piece of broiled fish. ⁴³They saw Him take it and eat it. {158 Faith-Validated Prayer, James 2:18}

Jesus' Ascension Back to Heaven

⁴⁴Then He said to them, "Let Me tell you again what I said while I was with you; that everything that is written about Me in the law of Moses, in the prophets, and in the Psalms, had to be fulfilled." {425

Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} ⁴⁵Then Jesus opened their spiritual eyes so they might understand the Scriptures. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

Lord Jesus, continue that ministry today. Teach me the things written in Scripture about Yourself. Amen.

⁴⁶Then He said to them, "The Scriptures say the Christ would suffer for sins, rise from the dead on the third day, {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} ⁴⁷and that repentance in His name as the condition for the forgiveness of sins {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} should be preached to all nations. ⁴⁸You are to begin at Jerusalem as witnesses to these things. {199 Great Commission-Prayer, Luke 24:49}

⁴⁹"I will send on You the promise of My Father. But you must stay right here in the city {523 Waiting Anxiously in Prayer, Ps. 42:7} and pray until you are anointed with power from on high." [359 Power-Praying, Rom. 1:16} 50 Then Jesus led them out of the city as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. {47 Blessing-Prayer, Gen. 49:28, KJV} 51While He was blessing them, He was lifted up from them, and was taken up to heaven. ⁵²And with joy, they went back to Jerusalem, {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6} 53and continued in the temple praying and praising God. {366 Praise-Worship of God, Gal. 1:5}

Lord Jesus, just as the apostles worshiped You at the ascension, so I worship You today. Amen.

JOHN

Key Word: Believe (occurs 96 times)

Key Verse: "But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name" (John 20:31, NKJV).

Theme: John writes to demonstrate Jesus' deity, that He is the Son of God, and that those who believe in Jesus for salvation will have eternal life. Then John exhorts his readers to be transformed by the indwelling power of Jesus Christ (John 14:20; 15:1-7). John doesn't tell of Jesus' earthly genealogy, birth or growth years. He begins in eternity past. "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (John 1:1). John writes only of eight miracles in Jesus' earthly ministry that are "signs" pointing to His deity.

The supernatural promise of Jesus to believers is, "I in them, and You in Me" (John 17:23). Thus in salvation Jesus comes to dwell in us on this earth so we can live for Him. But we are "in Christ," a term that occurs 172 times in Scripture. That means we are in Jesus as He intercedes for us at the right hand of the Father. Negatively Jesus intercedes for forgiveness of our sins (Heb. 7:25), and positively Jesus presents our prayers to the Father so they will be answered. Lord, I come to You because Jesus lives in my heart. He motivates me to pray to You. But also, I come "in Christ" as He is at Your right hand. Hear my prayers in Jesus' name. Amen.

John 1 The Preincarnate Word

worship Jesus the Word, who is from the beginning; Jesus the Word tells me all about You, my heavenly Father. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²The Word was face to face with You throughout eternity because Jesus is God.

³And without Jesus nothing was created. Jesus does all the things that You, my heavenly Father, will do. {93 Creation-Inspired Worship, Ps. 19:1, 2} ⁴Jesus has all life in Himself and gives life to all His creation. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ⁵Jesus is the life of God who is the Light to all who are lost in a dark, forbidding world. Jesus shines in the hostile darkness, but the darkness doesn't even know He exists. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

Lord, I am committed to Your message which is written in the Word of God. It is eternal and perfect. I will learn Your message, believe Your message, and share it with others. Amen.

John's Witness of Jesus

⁶John the Baptizer was a prophet sent by You who came to tell all about the shining Light, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} ⁷that through the Light, all might be saved. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ⁸John the Baptizer was not the saving light, but was the human sent to point everyone to the Light.

⁹Jesus is the true saving Light who offers spiritual light to everyone in the world. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹⁰Jesus came to the world that He created, but those living in the world did not recognize Jesus as their Creator Savior. {25 Atheist-Prayer, Ps. 14:1, 2} ¹¹Jesus came to His own people—the Jews—and they refused to recognize Him.

¹²But as many as recognize Jesus and receive Him, He will make them children of God simply because they believe in the authority of Jesus' name. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹³They will be born again by Your power which is not a birth of blood, or the choice of people, or of flesh. {61 Child-Like Praying, 1 John 3:1}

¹⁴Jesus had all the celestial glory of heaven but He clothed His heavenly glory with human flesh. God living in flesh was the greatest glory of all. Jesus is the uniquely begotten Son, and has all the grace and truth of God. {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} ¹⁵John the Baptizer said of Jesus, "This is the Messiah whom I introduced to the world, and Jesus comes after me, but is preeminently before me." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Jesus is the Word; (1) who is eternal, (2) who created the universe; (3) who had eternal fellowship with the Father; and (4) who became flesh when He was born of the Virgin Mary. We should worship and praise Him for all He is and does. Lord Jesus, You are the eternal Word of God; I praise You for creating me and everything in this universe. I worship You for Your unlimited power and greatness. Amen.

¹⁶His grace was offered and my need of grace was fulfilled. {152 Faith-Blessing Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ¹⁷The law of Moses condemned me to death, but grace and truth by Jesus gave me life. {92 Covenant-Fulfilling Prayer, Ps. 55:22} ¹⁸I could never have seen You, the eternal Father, but Jesus Christ came from Your bosom to show me what You, our Father, is like. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21}

Lord, I am committed to the Lord Jesus Christ who became flesh and lived among men. He is the truth and spoke the truth to us. I have eternal life because of Him. Amen.

Religious Leaders Question John the Baptizer

¹⁹The religious establishment sent delegates to ask John the Baptizer, "Who are you?" {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} ²⁰John told them he was not the Messiah. 21 Then they asked, "Are you Elijah or the prophet who will come at the end of the age?" John said, "No." 22They said, "Give us an answer to report to our authorities." 23John quoted Isaiah, answering, "I am a voice crying in the wilderness; prepare the way for the Messiah." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ²⁴They were Pharisees who questioned him. ²⁵The religious delegates asked why John was baptizing with water. ²⁶He answered, "I baptize with water, but there is One standing among us who will baptize with the Spirit of God. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} ²⁷He who is coming after me is preferred before me, because He lived before me. ²⁸These things happened on the banks of the Jordan River, but I came baptizing so Jesus might be revealed to Israel."

Christ's Baptism

²⁹The next day John saw Jesus coming to Him and told the crowd, "See that man. He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." ³⁰He said this to let everyone know Jesus was the One coming after him. ³¹John said, "I didn't know who He was." ³²John the Baptizer added,

"I didn't know Jesus was to be the Messiah until I saw the Spirit come upon Him like a dove. ³³But the Lord who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The One on whom the Spirit comes, and stops there, this is the One who is the Messiah. He will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴Then John, the apostle, said, "I then noted and believed He is the Son of God."

Jesus Meets Six Disciples

35The next day John the Baptizer stood with two of his disciples, 36 and as they saw Jesus walking, he said, "Behold the Lamb of God." ³⁷As Andrew and John were following Jesus, {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26} 38He turned to ask, "What do you want?" {279 Life-Defining Prayer, Rom. 12:1, 2} 39 That evening Andrew and John talked at length to Jesus. {512 Useful-Vessel Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:20-21} 40The next day Andrew told his brother Simon, {358 Powerful-Ministry Prayer, Acts 2:4} 41"We have found the Messiah," {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30} 42and Andrew brought his brother to Jesus. {58 Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} Jesus changed Simon's name to Peter, which means he was firm and solid as a stone.

Lord, may I be zealous to tell family and friends about Jesus and may I bring them to know Jesus. Amen.

⁴³The next day when Jesus saw Philip, He said, "Follow Me." ⁴⁴Philip was from the same hometown as Andrew and Peter.

⁴⁵Philip told his friend Nathaniel, "We have found the Messiah." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord, may I find answers to all my questions in Jesus. Amen.

⁴⁶Nathaniel was skeptical, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip just said, "Come and see."{504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord, help me always focus my sight on Jesus and see the greatness of His character. Amen.

⁴⁷When Jesus saw Nathaniel He said, "You are a sincere Israelite, you are an honest seeker." {496 True-Worshipers Prayer, Ps. 15:1} ⁴⁸Nathaniel asked, "How do You know me?" Jesus revealed His divine omnipresence by saying, "I saw you talking under the fig tree to Philip when he told you about Me." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ⁴⁹Nathaniel responded, "Jesus, You are the Son of God; You are the King of Israel." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12}

Lord, may I worship You as I learn of Your divine Sonship; I yield myself to Your kingly rule. Amen.

Nathaniel believed in Jesus because of what Philip told him, ⁵⁰but Jesus said, "You'll see much greater things than this. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁵¹You'll see heaven opened and the angels of God going up and down upon Me, the Son of Man." {455 Spiritual-Truth Prayer, Titus 2:1}

There are more names of Jesus in this chapter than perhaps any other chapter in Scripture. Why so many names? Because Jesus is so much, and He does so much. Jesus is called Word, God, Life, Light, the Light of Men, the True Light, the Only Begotten of the Father, Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, the Lord, the Lamb of God, the Son of God, Rabbi, Master, the Messiah, Jesus of Nazareth, Son of Joseph, King of Israel, and Son of Man. Lord Jesus, I come to You as the Lord of the universe, but I worship You as my personal Master and Savior. Amen.

John 2 Jesus' First Miracle

¹On the seventh day after His baptism, Jesus was in Cana where a marriage ceremony was held. His mother was also there. ²Jesus and His six disciples were invited to the meal. {299 Marriage-Harmony Prayer, 1 Peter 3:8} 3When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "There is no more wine." {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} 4Jesus answered, "Why do you turn to Me for help? It is not the time to reveal who I am." 5Jesus' mother told the servants, "Do whatever He tells you." {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ⁶There were six stone water pots available to them, each one holding 20 to 30 gallons. {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer,

Phil. 3:1-3} 7Jesus said to the servants, "Fill them to the brim with water." 8Then He said, "Take them to the master of ceremonies." The servants carried the water to the one in charge. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 9When they had arrived, the water had turned to wine, and then the master of ceremonies toasted the wine. The servants who carried the water pots knew what happened. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} 10"Why have you kept back the best wine until now? People usually serve their best wine first. When the guests have drunk a lot, then a poorer quality is served." {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹¹This was the first miracle Jesus did that manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him. ¹²After this Jesus changed His base of ¹²After this Jesus changed His base of operation from Nazareth to Capernaum, which is located by the Sea of Galilee.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

¹³When the Passover came in the spring of A.D. 26, Jesus went up to Jerusalem with His disciples. {210 Habit-Prayer, Acts 3:1} 14Jesus found people in the temple selling animals and birds for sacrificecattle, sheep, and pigeons. Money changers had set up tables to exchange foreign coins into Jewish money because the foreign coins had images of false gods. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ¹⁵Jesus made a whip out of some rope and drove the animals out of the temple and overturned the tables of the money changers. ¹⁶Jesus commanded, "Stop turning My Father's house into a market to sell your sacrifices." {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ¹⁷The disciples were amazed at His anger and said, "His devotion to the Lord's house burns in Him like a fire." {420 Sanctuary-Prayer, Rev. 21:22} ¹⁸The Jewish leaders challenged Jesus, "What miracle can You show us that gives You authority to do this?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁹Jesus replied, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it up in three days." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²⁰They said, "It has taken 46 years to build this temple. Do You think You can rebuild it in three days?" {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} ²¹But He was speaking about the temple of His body. ²²After the resurrection His disciples remembered He spoke about this event earlier, and that it was not about rebuilding the temple. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²³While Jesus was in Jerusalem for the Passover, many believed in Him because they saw the miracles He did. {261 Jesus'-Example Prayer, 1 Peter 2:21} ²⁴But Jesus did not entrust Himself to them {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ²⁵because He knew what was in their hearts.

There comes a time when we must no longer tolerate heresy and evil, but we must confront evil by prayer and action. That's what Jesus did when He cleansed the temple at the beginning of His ministry (John 2:13-22) and the end of His ministry (Matt. 21:12-17). He did it for prayer, "My house shall be called a house of prayer, but you have made it a den of thieves" (Matt. 21:13). Lord,

I will pray to You continually and I will oppose anything that comes between me and prayer. Amen.

John 3 A Night Interview with Nicodemus

¹Nicodemus was a Jewish leader who observed the law, ² and he came to Jesus at night to compliment Him, saying, "Jesus, You are a Teacher who comes from God because You perform miracles that couldn't be done without God's help." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³Jesus told him, "I say to you, you must be born again to see the kingdom of God." {318 New Birth Praise-Prayer, Titus 3:5} ⁴Nicodemus replied, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he go back into his mother's womb to be born again?" {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ⁵Jesus answered, "I say to you, unless you are born again of water and the Spirit, you will not enter the kingdom of God. {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 6What is born of flesh is flesh, and what is born of Spirit is Spirit. {353 Physical Before Spiritual-Prayer, 1 Cor. 15:46} 7Do not be surprised when I say you must be born again. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 8The wind blows anywhere it pleases. You can hear its sound, but you can't tell where it comes from or goes. That describes those who are born of the Spirit, and how the Spirit bestows life on them." {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} 9Nicodemus asked, "How can this happen?" {545 Wrestling-Prayer, Eph. 6:10-12} 10Jesus answered, "You are a respected teacher, yet you do not understand these things." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 11Jesus continued, "I say to you, I am telling you what I know, but you will not believe Me. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹²If you do not believe what I say about this world, how can you believe heavenly things? {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹³Since I have come to earth from heaven, I can explain heavenly things to you. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 14As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so people could repent by looking to the serpent. {260 Jesus' Suffering Appreciation-Prayer, Heb. 2:9-10, 18} 15In the same way the Son of Man will be lifted up so that everyone who looks to him in belief will be saved. {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} ¹⁶The Father loved everyone in the world so much that He gave His only begotten Son to die for each of them. Now everyone who believes in the Son will not perish, but will have eternal life. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ¹⁷For the Father did not send His Son to condemn the people of the world but that they might be saved through Him. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ¹⁸No one who believes in the Son will be condemned, but those who refuse to believe in the name of God's only Son are condemned already. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 19The verdict of death is handed down because light has shined on the people of the world, but people love darkness more than light because of their love of evil things. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ²⁰Everyone who continually does evil things hates the light and rejects it because it exposes their motives and actions. {101 Deceitful-Heart Prayer, James 4:3} ²¹Those who believe the truth and come to the light will be saved. Their deeds verify their faith that they are of God."

Lord, I want everyone to know that You offer eternal life just as You said to Nicodemus, "You must be born again." Lord, I want to live by Your truth so everyone can see what I do for You. Amen.

Jesus and John the Baptizer

²²Jesus and His disciples left Jerusalem for the countryside where many people were baptized by His disciples. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} ²³John the Baptizer was baptizing near Salim, at Aenon 24for he had not yet been thrown into prison; many also came there for baptism. The Jewish leaders tried to tell the disciples of John the Baptizer that the baptism of Jesus was better than their baptism {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ²⁵and there rose a dispute. ²⁶John's disciples came to tell John, "The man you baptized—the One you called Messiah—He is baptizing more than you are." {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ²⁷John the Baptizer answered, "God in heaven gives each man the work he is to do. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁸I told you I am not the Messiah, I am sent to prepare the way for Messiah. {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²⁹The crowds—the Bride of Christ—will naturally go where Christ the Bridegroom is located. I am a friend of the Bridegroom, I rejoiced when I answered His voice calling to me. {266 Joy-Prayer, Acts 13:52} 30He, Jesus, must increase, I, John the Baptizer, must decrease. He comes from heaven, and He is greater than all. {228 Humility-Prayer, James 4:10} ³¹We who are born on this earth only understand the things of earth. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 32He testifies what He has seen and heard, and no one receives His testimony. 33Those who believe in Jesus have discovered the truth of God that has come from heaven. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 34He speaks the words of God because He has the Spirit of God on Him. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} ³⁵The Father loves Jesus, the Son, and has given everything to Him ³⁶Those who believe in the Son already have eternal life and those who have not believed in the Son do not have eternal life but the punishment of God rests on them." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9}

Lord, it's not enough to ask for humility, for the flesh loves preeminence and the old nature dies hard. So I pray for Christ to be increased in my life, and He will take care of my ego problem. Amen.

John 4 The Story of the Samaritan Woman

¹Jesus learned that the Pharisees were told that He was winning and baptizing more followers than John the Baptizer ²(although Jesus didn't actually baptize, His disciples did it), 3so He left Judea to go home. ⁴When Jesus left Jerusalem, He surprisingly went home through Samaria because the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans. ⁵When He came near Sychar, {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17} 6He sat on Jacob's well because He was worn out from the hot journey and it was noon. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} ⁷A Samaritan woman came to draw water from the well. Jesus was sitting there and said, "Give Me a drink." {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ⁸The disciples had gone into the town to get food. {388 Provision of Food Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} 9She was surprised that a Jew would ask because the Jews despised the Samaritans. She said, "Why would You, a Jew, ask water from me, a Samaritan?" {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ¹⁰Jesus said, "If you only knew God's gift and who it is that offers you water, you would have asked Me for a drink, and I would have given you living water." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ¹¹The woman replied, "You don't have a bucket, so how could You get water from this deep well?" {531 Well-Digging Prayer, Ps. 84:6} 12She continued, "Are You greater than Jacob who drank from it with his family and cattle?" {160 Family-Heritage Prayer, Matt. 1:1-17}

Lord, I'm thirsty; come fill my cup. I drink of Your presence. Ah! That water satisfies and refreshes my spirit. Amen.

¹³Jesus answered, "Whoever drinks this water will get thirsty again, {485

Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ¹⁴but those who drink of the water that I give will never be thirsty again. The water I give will be an artesian well inside them that gushes up into eternal life." {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} 15The woman said, "Give me some of that water so I will never get thirsty again, and have to come to this well for water." {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ¹⁶Jesus abruptly said, "Go call your husband!" {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8} ¹⁷She answered, "I have no husband." Jesus replied, "You have correctly answered {81 Confession-Prayer, 1 John 1:9} 18 because you have had five husbands, and now you're not married to the one you're living with." {499 Truth-Living Prayer, 3 John 4} 19She exclaimed, "You must be a prophet to know this." Then she argued, {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ²⁰"Our fathers worshiped here. The Jews say Jerusalem is the place to worship." {540 Worshiping God in the Backyard, Ps. 134} ²¹Jesus interrupted to say, "The hour is coming when no one will worship on this mountain or in Jerusalem. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} ²²You don't know whom you worship, but the Jews know whom they worship. {249 Intercessory Prayer for Jews, Rom. 10:1} ²³In fact the hour is already here when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth. {502 Two-Way Worship Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁴God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in their hearts and truthfully." {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²⁵The woman said, "I know that Messiah is coming; He will tell us everything when He comes." {167

Filling of the Spirit-Prayer, Eph. 5:18} ²⁶Jesus answered, "I am He." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18}

²⁷Then His disciples came and saw that He talked with a woman. "Why are You talking with her?" ²⁸The woman left her water pot and hurried off to tell the men in the village, ²⁹"Come see a man who told me everything I've ever done." She asked, "Could this man be the Messiah?" {244 Insight-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ³⁰They left the town to go meet Jesus. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17}

Lord, make me thirsty for a drink from You. Then give me a passion to share my testimony with needy people like the Samaritan woman. I will tell my non-Christian friends, "Come see a Man who knows everything about me." Amen.

³¹Meanwhile the disciples told Jesus to eat, {170 Food-Provision Praise, Ps. 65:9-11} ³²but He said, "I have food to eat that you don't know about." {229 Hunger-Prayer, Ps. 34:8} ³³The disciples thought someone else had brought Him food. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} 34Jesus said, "My food is doing the will of the Father and completing His work. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³⁵People say, 'Harvest comes four months after planting.' But I say, 'Look around at the fields. They are already ripe for harvest.' {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ³⁶Everything is ready for the reaper to go to work to bring in the 'grain' of eternal life. The sower and reaper will rejoice together." {213 Happy-Prayer, John 20:20} ³⁷Then

Jesus explained, "One sows, another reaps; ³⁸I send you to reap where you didn't sow, and you get rewards for their effort." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8}

³⁹Many Samaritans believed in Jesus because the woman said, "Come see a man who told me everything I've ever done." {179 Fruitful-Prayer, Matt. 13:8} ⁴⁰The Samaritans begged Jesus to stay with them and He stayed two days, ⁴¹and many were saved. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ⁴²The Samaritan men told the woman, "Now we believe because of what we have heard for ourselves, and not just because of what you said." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

Lord, thank You for saving the woman at the well, and thank You for saving me. Amen.

⁴³After two days Jesus left and continued to Galilee. ⁴⁴But that was His home area, so He said, "A prophet is not respected in his home country." ⁴⁵But when He got to Galilee, the crowds welcomed Jesus.

Healing the Nobleman's Son

⁴⁶Jesus returned to Cana where He had turned water to wine. An official from Herod's court came begging Jesus to heal his son. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ⁴⁷The official had sought to find Jesus in the area because his son was very, very sick. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} ⁴⁸Jesus said, "Why is it that none will believe in Me unless they see miracles?" {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ⁴⁹The official answered, "Come down to Capernaum and heal my son before he dies." {350 Persistent-Prayer, Matt. 7:7-8} ⁵⁰Jesus answered, "Go home. Your son will live." The official believed the words of Jesus and turned to start his journey home. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} ⁵¹While he was on the road, his servants met him to say his son had recovered. ⁵²The official asked what time the fever broke, and the servant told him, "4 p.m." ⁵³The father realized that was the same hour when Jesus said, "Your son will live." {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} ⁵⁴This was the second sign-miracle Jesus did in Cana, and the official and his family believed in Jesus. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6}

Lord, You are the Bread of Life (John 6:37). I'm hungry for fellowship with You. I will study the Word to find Your presence. I will memorize the Word to bring Your presence into my life. I will meditate on Your Word to know You more intimately. I'm empty; fill me. Amen.

John 5 The Lame Man at Bethesda

¹Jesus obeyed the Old Testament command to attend the Festival of Passover at Jerusalem at the end of His first full year of ministry. ²Jesus went by the pool of Bethesda, a name that means "House of Mercy." There were five porches where ³a great number of sick invalids {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} were waiting for an angel to come stir the waters in the pool. {219 Help-Prayer, Ps. 108:12,

13} 4The sick believed that the first one into the water would automatically get healed. 5There was a man who had waited unsuccessfully for 38 years. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4\} 6Jesus went only to him because he had been there a long time. Jesus asked, "Would you like to be healed?" {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ⁷The lame man answered, "I don't have anyone to put me in the waters after it is stirred up. When I am going to the water, someone jumps in before me." {240 Injustice-Prayer, Isa. 1:17} *Jesus said, "Take up your bedroll and walk." {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 9Immediately, the man was healed and he picked up his bedroll {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} and walked. {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6}

¹⁰The healed man walked through the crowd to the temple, because the Jews told him it was wrong to carry any burden-even a bedroll-on the Sabbath. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹¹The man told them, "The One who healed me said, 'Take up your bedroll and walk." 12The Jews asked, "Who healed you and told you to break the Sabbath law?" 13But the healed man did not know who healed him because Jesus left him to walk through the crowds. {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ¹⁴Later Jesus found the healed man in the temple and told him, "Go and don't do the sin any more that was responsible for this lame condition, because a worse thing will happen if you do." {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁵The healed man went and told the Jews that it was Jesus who healed him. {147 Exalt-Jesus Prayer, Phil. 2:11, 12} ¹⁶The Jews confronted Jesus because He told the healed man to carry his bedroll on the Sabbath. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12}

Lord, help me not to give excuses as the lame man did. See me in the middle of a crowd as You saw the lame man and come help me today. Take away any hardness of my heart as the Jewish leaders rejected You. Help me respond positively to Your direction for my life. Amen.

¹⁷Jesus answered the Jewish leaders, "My Father, who is just like Me, has worked up until now; now I work." {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ¹⁸The Jewish leaders sought to kill Jesus {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} because Jesus said He was just like the Father, and because He had broken their law, and He said the Father and Son are equal in nature. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Equal in Nature, Power, and Authority

¹⁹Jesus answered the Jewish leaders, "I say to you, the Son does nothing by Himself. But when the Son sees the things the Father does, He does the same things. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ²⁰The Father and Son are equal in power." Then Jesus said, "The Father loves the Son and shows the Son everything He does. The Father will do greater miracles than healing the lame, so you'll marvel. {192

God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²¹As the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son will also raise the dead. The Father and Son are equal in authority. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

²²"The Father does not judge the sins of everyone. All judgment is given to the Son. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²³He who honors not the Son, honors not the Father." {538 Worship-Jesus Prayer, Rev. 1:6}

²⁴Jesus said, "He who receives My Word, and believes on Me, has eternal life {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} and will not be judged for his sins but has passed from death unto eternal life. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13}

²⁵"I tell you, an hour has been coming but now it has arrived when spiritually dead people will hear the words of the Son of God and receive eternal life. {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ²⁶The Father has this life in Himself and the Son also has it and gives it to those who believe in Him. ²⁷The Father has given Me the authority to execute judgment. {27 Authority-Prayer, Rev. 11:6} ²⁸Therefore the time is coming when all in their graves will hear My voice and be raised. {135 End-Times Prayer, Rev. 22:20} ²⁹They who have obeyed the Father will be raised to the resurrection of life. They who have disobeyed the Father will be raised to the resurrection of the damned." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 30Jesus told them, "I can do nothing by Myself, but I do the will of the Father who sent Me." {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1}

Four Witnesses: John the Baptizer, Jesus' Miracles, the Father's Voice, and the Scriptures

³¹Jesus said, "No one can bear witness of himself and have other people believe him. ³²If I only tell how great I am, don't listen to Me. ³³John the Baptizer told you about Me, and he told the truth. ³⁴The Old Testament said at the mouth of two witnesses shall every testimony be established. {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} ³⁵The testimony of John the Baptizer was a light that shined, so people believed what he said about Me. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ³⁶"But the testimony of My miracles was even greater; they proved that the Father sent Me into the world. {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29}

³⁷"A third testimony is the voice of the Father that thundered at My baptism. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} No one has seen God, but you heard His voice but didn't believe it ³⁸because you do not have the Word of God dwelling in you, {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} so you do not believe the words the Father said."

³⁹Jesus told them, "Search the Scriptures. {425 Scripture-Prayer, Col. 4:16} These words testify of Me that I am from the Father, ⁴⁰but you will not come to Me to have eternal life. ⁴¹You think you have eternal life but you don't because you refuse to believe in Me, {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ⁴²and you do not have the love of God in you." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} ⁴³Jesus said, "I have come in the Father's name, and you will not receive Me, yet you receive others coming in their own name. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁴⁴You seek glory from other Jewish leaders and do not seek the glory that comes from the heavenly Father. ⁴⁵I will not accuse you in the final judgment. Moses, whom you revere, will accuse you in the judgment. ⁴⁶If you believe Moses, and you don't, then you would believe Me {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁴⁷because Moses predicted My coming." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

Lord Jesus, You told us to "search the Scriptures" to know You in salvation and to know You to grow in grace. Open my spiritual eyes as I study the Bible; may I find Your presence concealed in the written Word. {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} May I know You more intimately as I go deeper into Your Word. Amen.

John 6 Feeding the Five Thousand

¹There was a great multitude following Jesus so He went up into a mountain near Tiberias. ²The multitude followed Him because of His miracles and because He healed the sick. {301 Medical Answer-Prayer, James 5:15} ³Jesus then went up into the mount to sit with His disciples. ⁴They were on their way to Jerusalem to celebrate the springtime festival of Passover. ⁵Jesus surveyed the multitude, and then said to Philip, "Where can we buy food for them?" {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ⁶Jesus knew He would feed them with a miracle but He was testing Philip's faith in Him.

Lord, may I be faithful when tested. Amen.

⁷Philip answered, "If we had the day's wages of 200 servants there would only be a little bit for each one." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} 8Andrew heard the conversation {145 Evangelistic-Praying, Acts 4:31} 9and found a young boy with five loaves of bread and two small fish, but Andrew said, "This isn't enough for all the crowd." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ¹⁰Jesus said, "Make the men sit down in groups of 50 and 100 to make distribution easy," so they sat on grass in the area. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} 11Jesus looked to heaven to bless the food, then He gave it to the disciples and they distributed it to the multitude. {300 Meal Thanksgiving or Blessing-Prayer, John 6:11} 12Everyone had as much as they could eat. Then Jesus said to His disciples, "Gather the food that is left over"; 13so they gathered up 12 full baskets. 14After the people saw the miracle, they said, "This is the One whom the prophet Jeremiah predicted was coming into the world to feed us bread." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Lord, feed me when I'm spiritually hungry just as You fed the 5,000 by the sea. Amen.

Jesus Walks on the Water

¹⁵The multitude rushed toward Jesus, because they wanted to make Him King, but He went into the hills to pray. ¹⁶When evening came, the disciples went down to the lakeside ¹⁷and got into a boat heading toward the other side toward Capernaum. It was dark and Jesus was not with them. {18 Anticipating His Return, Rev. 16:17} ¹⁸A storm came up and the winds blew threateningly. They rowed three or four miles but were not making headway. ¹⁹Then they saw Jesus walking on the sea towards them. ²⁰He said, "It is I. Do not be afraid." ²¹They received Jesus into their boat and immediately they were at land.

Sermon on the Bread of Life

²²The next day the crowd walked around the sea toward Capernaum and they saw only one boat the disciples used. 23However, there were other boats that came from the place where Jesus fed the multitude. ²⁴People had gotten into these boats to follow Jesus. ²⁵So they asked Him, "Rabbi, how did You get here?" {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁶Jesus answered and said, "You seek Me because you saw the miracles; yesterday you ate of the bread and fish." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁷Jesus told them, "Don't work for food that perishes, but work for the bread of eternal life which the Son of Man offers you." {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ²⁸The crowd asked, "What must we do to perform the works of God which You do?" {195 Good-Works Praying, John 6:28, 29} ²⁹Jesus answered, "The work of God is to believe on the Son whom the Father has sent." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

After Jesus fed 5,000 with five loaves of bread and two fish, the multitude asked Jesus the next day, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" (John 6:28). The world always wants to do something to approach God or get their prayers answered. But we can't come to God through good works (Eph. 2:8, 9); we can please God only by faith. The Bible says, "He who comes to God must believe that He is" (Heb. 11:6). Jesus said, "This is the work of God, that you believe" (John 6:29). Lord, I believe You exist and that I can come to You only through Jesus Christ who died for my sins. "I believe; help my unbelief!" (Mark 9:24). Amen.

³⁰The crowd answered, "Do a miracle for us so we can believe in You and follow You. {79 Conditional-Prayer Promise, 2 Chron. 7:14} ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness that Moses gave to them during the 40 years of wilderness wanderings." {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ³²Then Jesus said to them, "I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven. {363 Praise for God's Provision, Ps. 23:1} ³³My Father gives true bread out of heaven; the bread of God is He who comes from heaven to give life to the world." {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ³⁴The crowd said, "Please give us this bread"; {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 35Jesus said, "I am the Bread of Life. He who comes to Me will never hunger, and he who believes in Me will never thirst, {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} ³⁶but you don't believe in Me. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ³⁷All the Father gives Me shall come to Me, and I will not turn them away {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 38because I come from heaven to do the will of the Father, and not My will. {549 Yielding-Prayer, Luke 22:42} 39It is My Father's will that I should lose no one who believes in Me, and I should raise them up in the resurrection. 40 And this is the will of the Father that everyone who believes in the Father will have eternal life {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} and that I will raise Him up in the last day."

⁴¹The Jewish leaders complained because Jesus said, "I am the bread who comes from heaven." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ⁴²They argued, "Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph? We know His father and mother, so how can He say, 'I come from heaven?" 43Jesus answered, "Don't complain! {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 44No one comes to Me except the Father draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 45It is written in Isaiah, 'All will be taught by God, everyone who believes what I say will come to Me.' {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8} 46No one has seen the Father except the One who comes to you from the Father; He has seen the Father. {151 Faith-Based Praying, Gal. 3:10} ⁴⁷I say to you, the one who believes has eternal life. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 48I am the Bread of Life. I am the bread which comes from heaven that you may eat and not die. {463 Strength-Prayer, Gen. 17:1} 49The Jewish forefathers ate manna in the wilderness, and they died. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 50If you eat of My bread, you will live forever {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 51 and the bread I give you is Myself, which is for the world." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 52 The Jewish leaders argued among themselves saying, "How can this man give us Himself to eat?" {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} 53Jesus answered them, "I say to you, except you eat the Son of Man, you will not have eternal life. {393 Recognizing God's Presence in Prayer, Gen. 16:13} ⁵⁴He who eats and drinks has eternal life and I will raise Him up in the last day {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} 55 for I am meat to eat and water to drink. {77 Communion-Prayer, Phil. 3:8-10} ⁵⁶The one who eats Me will abide in Me and I will abide in him. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} ⁵⁷I live because the living Father sent Me, and the one who eats Me will live because of Me. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} 58This is the bread which comes from heaven, not like the bread the forefathers ate and died. He who eats this bread will live forever." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 59Jesus ended these things He taught in Capernaum. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8}

⁶⁰Many of Jesus' disciples said this sermon was too difficult to believe. {287 Looking-Back Prayer, Luke 9:62} ⁶¹But Jesus knew they were complaining, so He said, "If this sermon causes you problems, {390

Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} 62what will you think when you see Me ascending back to heaven where I was previously? {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ⁶³The words I spoke are Spirit and life. The Spirit will give you eternal life, but the flesh cannot help you. {446 Spirit-Helped Prayer, Rom. 8:26-27} ⁶⁴Some of you have not put your faith in Me." Jesus knew from the beginning those who believed in Him, and who would betray Him. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁶⁵So Jesus said, "No one can come to Me except the Father draws him." {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 66Therefore many disciples stopped following Jesus. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

67 Then Jesus said to the twelve, "Will you also stop following Me?" {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 68 Peter answered, "Who else can we follow? You have the words of eternal life; {65 Christ-Formed in Us Prayer, Gal. 4:19} 69 we believe and know You are the Messiah." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} 70 Jesus answered them, "I chose all twelve of you; yet one of you is a devil." {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 71 Jesus was referring to Judas Iscariot, the one who would betray Him. {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20}

Lord, I will eat the Bread of Life to satisfy my spiritual hunger. Amen.

John 7 Jesus and His Unbelieving Brothers

Lord, help me know when to take advice from my unsaved relatives. Amen.

¹After this Jesus stayed in Galilee because the Jewish leaders sought to kill Him in Judea. ²The Festival of Shelters was approaching and every Jewish male was to attend once. {482 Thanksgiving for God's Past Work in Our Lives-Prayer, Ps. 105:1} ³Iesus' unsaved brothers counseled Him to go to the Festival of Shelters in Jerusalem. They said, "Go do miracles so the multitude will believe You and follow You. {421 Sarcastic-Worship, John 19:2-3} ⁴A person who wants to be known doesn't do things in secret, but he manifests himself to the world." 5His brothers did not believe in Him. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁶Jesus told them, "This is not the hour for Me to manifest Myself. {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ⁷The world does not hate you, but it hates Me because I tell them their works are evil. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff. 8It's not time for Me to manifest Myself"; {90 Correcting Others-Prayer, Titus 1:13} 9so He didn't do what they suggested. {525 Waiting in Prayer, Acts 1:14} ¹⁰After Jesus' brethren went to the festival in Jerusalem, Jesus privately went on an out-of-the-way road arriving in the middle of the week. {443 Solitude and Prayer, Luke 5:16}

Lord, protect me when I'm in danger as You protected Jesus from danger in Jerusalem.

Amen.

Jesus at the Festival of Shelters

¹¹The Jewish leaders were looking everywhere saying, "Where is Jesus?" {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ¹²The confused crowd said, "Jesus was a good man." Others said, "He leads the multitude astray." {505 Unbiblical-Prayer, James 4:3} ¹³Yet no one supported Jesus publicly because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3}

¹⁴Jesus went into the temple on Wednesday and taught. {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} 15Everyone marveled at His knowledge because Jesus hadn't graduated from the best schools. {470 Surprise-Response Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 16Jesus answered, "I don't think up the things I teach. This doctrine comes from My heavenly Father. {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ¹⁷If anyone is yielded to do the Father's will, he shall understand this doctrine whether this is My idea or the Father's. {453 Spiritual-Stability Prayer, Eph. 5:6} ¹⁸He who does his own will seeks his own glory, but he who seeks to glorify the Father, there is no unrighteousness in Him. {223 Holiness-Prayer, 1 Peter 1:16} 19Moses gave you the law, but none of you keeps it, and none of you is righteous before God." Jesus said, "Why do you want to kill Me?" {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²⁰The Jewish leaders said, "You have a demon because You think someone is trying to kill You." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²¹Jesus said, "I healed a lame man on the Sabbath eighteen months ago, and you hate Me for it. ²²Moses gave you the law to circumcise a boy and you circumcise on the Sabbath, yet you are angry with Me because I healed on the Sabbath day. {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ²³Aren't healing and circumcision both a work of God? {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ²⁴Let's judge according to God's perfect judgment: did we not both do right on the Sabbath?" {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9}

²⁵The crowd began talking among themselves, "Isn't this the man the leaders want to kill and 26they say nothing when He speaks openly? {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²⁷Maybe they think He is our messianic Deliverer so they don't do anything to Him." {458 Spiritual-Wisdom Prayer, Col. 1:9} ²⁸Jesus preached loudly to the crowd, "You think you know Me, and you think you know where I come from, but you don't really know Me. {272 Knowing-God Prayer, 2 Peter 1:3} ²⁹The Father who sent Me, knows Me and I know Him, because I come from Him." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ³⁰The crowd wanted to take Jesus to the Jewish leaders, but no one laid a hand on Him because His hour had not come. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} 31Yet many in the crowd believed on Jesus saying, "The Messiah won't do more miracles than this man has done." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Christ Goes to the Father

³²When the Jewish leaders heard Jesus was preaching to the multitude, they sent officers to arrest Him. {413 Safe-Keeping Prayer, Ps. 4:8} ³³Jesus responded, "I will be with you for only a little while, then I'll go to the One who sent Me. 34You will look for Me, but not find Me because I'm going where You can't come." {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} 35The crowd talked among themselves asking, "Where is He going that we can't find Him? Is He going to the Jews in the dispersion or is He going to teach Gentiles?" {215 Heaven's-Prayer, 1 Thess. 4:13, 14} ³⁶Also they asked, "What does He mean when He says we can't go where He is going?"

The Holy Spirit

³⁷On Sunday, the last day of the Festival of Shelters when thousands of priests were parading with pots of water to pour out as a drink offering to God, Jesus shouted to the crowd, "If anyone is thirsty, come to Me for satisfaction. {485 Thirst-Praying, Rev. 22:17} ³⁸He who believes on Me will have living water flowing out of his inner being." {454 Spiritual-Strength Prayer, Rom. 1:16} ³⁹Jesus was referring to the indwelling Holy Spirit, but the Holy Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet gone to glory. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50}

⁴⁰Someone who had been in the crowd, said, "Jesus is a true prophet!" {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁴¹Others said, "He is the Messiah!" {507 Unknown-Danger Prayer, Gen. 15:1} ⁴²But the crowd argued, "The Messiah doesn't come from

Galilee, but from Bethlehem, the village where David was born." {534 Wisdom-Directed Prayer, James 3:13} ⁴³The crowd was divided because of Jesus, {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} ⁴⁴and no one laid a hand on Him. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12}

⁴⁵The Jewish leaders asked the officers why they didn't arrest Jesus. They answered, "No one speaks like Him." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 46Some said, "This man is not the Messiah; we know this man comes from Nazareth, we don't know where Messiah comes from." 47The leaders rebuked them, "Are you also deceived by this Man? ⁴⁸Have any of our leaders believed Him?" {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ⁴⁹The Pharisees said, "The crowd is cursed because they don't know the law." 50Nicodemus, by this time a believer, said to them, {115 Difference-Making Prayer, Jude 22} 51"Does our law judge a man before we hear Him?" {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} 52The leaders ridiculed Nicodemus, accusing him of coming from Galilee. "Search the record; no prophet comes out of Galilee." 53 After the festival was over, they all went home.

Lord, You invite me to come to You and drink to find energy and satisfaction. I'm weak today; I come to drink of You for strength to continue on. I can't find happiness or satisfaction; I come to You to drink to find purpose in life, and peace. Fill me with Your presence. Amen.

John 8 The Woman Taken in Adultery

¹Jesus went to the Mount of Olives for the night, ²but early the following morning He went to the temple and sat down in the middle of the multitude to teach. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ³The religious leaders threw a woman in the middle of the crowd who was caught in the very act of adultery. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 4The leaders said to Jesus, "This woman was caught in the very act of adultery. {5 Accusation-Prayer Protection, Rev. 12:10} 5 The law demands that she be stoned, but what do You say we should do?" {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} 6The Jews used this occasion to try and trap Jesus so they would have an accusation against Him. Jesus stooped to write with His finger in the ground, {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} 7but the leaders continued to question Jesus. Then Jesus stopped to say, "He who has not committed a sin, let him cast the first stone." {6 Advocate-Intercession, 1 John 2:1} 8Again Jesus stooped to write on the ground, 9then the eldest leader left first and eventually all the other leaders left. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹⁰Then Jesus said to the woman, "Where are those who accuse you of sin?" {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 11She answered, "They are not here to accuse me." Jesus said, "Neither do I accuse you. Now go from here and sin no more." {399 Repentance-Prayer, Matt. 3:2, 8}

Lord, I need the light of Your guidance in my trouble; there are always some who try to trip me up. Amen.

Jesus Argues with the Religious Leaders

¹²Jesus said, "I am the light of the world, those following Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7}

Lord Jesus, sometimes I don't know what to do, and I don't know which way to turn. Shine some light in my soul so I'll know myself, and I'll know the plan You have for my life. {278 Life's Plan-Prayer, Rom. 12:1} I've got a lot to do, and I need You to help me today. You are light; come walk with me and I'll see where to go. With Your light, I can see dangers on the path as well as safe places. Amen.

¹³The religious leaders snarled, "You bear witness to Yourself and You are bragging and lying." {401 Resistance-Prayer, John 9:31} ¹⁴Jesus answered them, "My claim is true. I know where I came from, and I know where I am going. But you don't know anything about Me. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} ¹⁵You judge according to the flesh, and you don't know the facts. ¹⁶I will not judge you now, but I will in the future. {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ¹⁷The law says to accept a statement if two agree about what happened. {501

Two-Prayer, Matt. 18:19} 18Then I am one witness to My claims, and My Father is the other witness." {333 Oneness-Prayer, Phil. 2:2} 19"Where is the Father?" they asked. Jesus answered, "If you knew who I am, you would have known the Father." {450 Spiritual-Insight Prayer, Ps. 119:18} ²⁰Later, Jesus was sitting where money was received but the officials didn't arrest Him because His hour had not yet come. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ²¹Jesus said to the crowd, "I am going away and you will search and not find Me because you can't come to where I'm going." {268 Judgmental-Praying, Acts 5:4, 9} ²²The Jews didn't understand, so they asked, "Will He commit suicide?" {547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ²³Then Jesus said to them, "I am from above, you are from this world 24 and you shall die in your sins unless you believe that I am the Messiah." {438 Sin unto Death-Prayer, 1 John 5:16} ²⁵The Jews asked again, "Who are You?" Jesus answered, "I am the One I claim to be. 26I could teach you much, but that would condemn you. I am the One the Father sent to you, and the One who sent Me is true." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} ²⁷But the Jews still didn't understand that He was telling them He came from God, and that He is the Son of God. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ²⁸Then Jesus said, "When you have lifted up the Son of God, then you will realize I am the Messiah from heaven. {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ²⁹The One who sent Me is with Me, and He has not deserted Me; I always do the things that please the One who sent Me into the world." {355 Pleasing God-Prayer, 1 John 3:22} 30 Many people believed the words Jesus spoke. {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21}

³¹Then Jesus explained to them, "If you abide in My words, then you are truly My disciples, ³²and you'll know the truth, and the truth will set you free." {53 Bondage-Breaking Prayer, Rom. 7:20} 33Then the Jewish leaders answered, "We are Abraham's descendants, and we have never been slaves to anyone; how can You make us free?" {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ³⁴Jesus answered, "I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a bond slave to sin. {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} ³⁵A slave does not live in the house forever, but a son lives there forever. ³⁶If the Son shall make you free, you shall be truly free. {177 Freedom-Enjoyment Prayer, John 10:10} ³⁷Yes, you are descendants of Abraham, but some of you are trying to kill Me because My words have not set you free. {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} 38I speak what My Father tells Me to say, but you speak what your father tells you." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} ³⁹The Jews answered, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus answered, "No, if Abraham were your father, you would do what Abraham told you to do. {374 Praying against the Lies of Your Enemy, Ps. 31:18} 40Instead, you are planning on killing Me just because I told you the truth." {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} ⁴¹The Jews said sarcastically, "We were not born out of wedlock," suggesting Jesus didn't have a father. The Jews bragged, "Our Father is God."

{547 Wrong Motives in Prayer, James 4:3} ⁴²Jesus answered, "If God were your father, you would love Me, because I come from the Father." {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁴³Then Jesus told them plainly, {352 Perverted-Prayer, 2 Cor. 6:17-18} 44"Your father is the devil, and you do the lustful sins of the devil. The devil is a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't have any truth in him. The devil is a liar, and doesn't speak the truth. {113 Devil Worship-Prayer, Rev. 13:4} 45I tell you the truth and you do not believe Me; {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 46none of you can point out any sin that I have ever done. {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ⁴⁷If you were of God, you would listen to My words, but you don't understand them because you are not of God." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁴⁸The Jews accused Jesus of being a Samaritan and being possessed with a demon. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁴⁹Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, and I honor the heavenly Father. {121 Disentanglement-Prayer, 2 Peter 2:20} 50I have no desire to make Myself great; the Father will do this for Me." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 51Then Jesus said, "I say to you, if you will obey My words, you will never taste death." {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 52"Now we know you have a demon," the Jews answered. "Even Abraham died, and You claim if a man obeys Your words he shall never die." {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ⁵³The Jews asked, "Who do You think You are—God?" {84 Confronting-Evil Prayer, Eph. 6:10 ff.} 54Then Jesus answered them,

"If I am just bragging, it doesn't mean anything; it is the Father who will glorify Me. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 55But you do not know the heavenly Father. If I said you knew the Father, I'd be lying as you lie. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced to see My day. He knew I would come into the world and Abraham rejoiced to see My day." {264 Jesus-Worship Prayer, Heb. 1:6} 57The Jewish leaders said, "You aren't even 50 years old, and You said You've seen Abraham." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 58Jesus answered, "You're right; before Abraham was even born, I existed." {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} 59The Jewish leaders picked up stones to kill Him, but Jesus hid Himself and walked past them out of the temple. {142 Escaping-Danger Prayer, Acts 12:5}

The argument in this chapter is a battle between the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. Jesus knew the religious Jews were agents of satan, and He knew their strategy to defeat Him. Therefore, we must study Scripture to understand satan's strategy and then follow God's principles to lead godly lives and serve God successfully. Lord Jesus, You understood satan's strategy to attack You through the religious establishment of his day. Calvary didn't catch You by surprise. I need wisdom to understand satan's strategy so I know how to react and fight him successfully. Amen.

John 9 The Man Born Blind

¹As Jesus left the temple, He saw a blind man ²and His disciples asked, "Who sinned, his parents or this man since he was born blind?" {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} ³Jesus answered, "Neither did this man nor his parents, but his blindness demonstrates the power of God. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 4Each of us is given a task in life; we must do it in the daylight because the night comes when work ends. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} 5While I'm still in this dark world, I am the light of the world." {282 Light Request for the Unsaved-Prayer, 2 Cor. 4:3-4} Then Jesus spat on the ground to make clay and then rubbed it on the blind man's eyes ⁷and told him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam." So he went and washed, and came back seeing. {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 8The neighbors who knew he was blind were dumbfounded. "Is this the same one we knew who begged?" {275 Laziness-Corrective Prayer, Prov. 13:4} 9Others said, "It looks just like him." The healed man said, "I'm the one who was blind!" {243 Inner-Strength Request Prayer, 2 Tim. 2:1} ¹⁰They said, "How were you healed?" {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ¹¹He answered, "A man named Jesus made clay and rubbed it on my eyes and said, 'Go wash in Siloam,' I did and now I see." They asked, "Where is this Jesus fellow?" {110 Deliverance-Thanksgiving Prayer, Ps. 18:6} ¹²He answered, "I don't know!" {426 Searching for God in Prayer,

Heb. 11:6} 13-14On the Sabbath the crowd brought the healed man to the religious leaders, {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} {277 Legalistic-Warning Prayer, Phil. 3:1-3} ¹⁵and they asked how he was healed. The healed man answered, "Jesus put clay on my eyes, and now I see." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ¹⁶The religious leaders criticized, "this Jesus is not from God because He breaks the Sabbath." But someone in the crowd answered, "How can a sinner do such a great miracle?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ¹⁷The religious leaders asked the healed man what he thought of Jesus. He answered, "Jesus is a prophet!" {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} 18 The religious leaders said, "This man wasn't blind." {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} ¹⁹So they asked his parents if the man was born blind. {334 Opposition-Intercession, 1 Thess. 2:18\} 20The parents answered them, "We know that he is our son, and that he was born blind, {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 21but we don't know what happened to him. Ask him for he is old enough to speak for himself." {387 Protection-Prayer, Isa. 43:2, 3} ²²The parents were afraid of the Jewish leaders because anyone saying Jesus was the Messiah would be excommunicated from the temple. {19 Anticipating-Problem Prayer, 1 Thess. 3:4} ²³His parents again said, "Ask him, since he is of age." {348 Perception-Expectation Prayer, 1 Sam. 14:8} ²⁴Then the Jewish leaders asked the man a second time, "Give glory to God, not to this Jesus fellow, for we know He is a sinner." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²⁵The healed man said, "I don't know if Jesus is evil, all I know is that I was blind, and now I see." {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3}

Lord, I know I can see because I once was blind and couldn't see anything spiritual. I know I am saved because I once was lost and knew it. Now I walk in the light because You walk with me. Amen.

²⁶The religious leaders kept demanding, "How did Jesus heal you?" ²⁷The healed man became exasperated. "I told you once, do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become Jesus' disciple?" {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} ²⁸They cursed him, "You are His disciple, but we are Moses' disciples." {424 Scoffer-Avoidance Prayer, Prov. 21:24} ²⁹We know God spoke to Moses, but we don't know this fellow. ³⁰The healed man was incredulous, "Why, here is a miracle and you don't realize Jesus opened my eyes. {214 Healing-Prayer, James 5:15} 31We know God does not hear the prayer of sinners, but He answers those who worship Him and do His will. {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6} ³²Since the world began, no one has opened the eyes of a blind man. 33 If this Jesus is not of God, He could do nothing." {466 Supernatural-Praying, Acts 15:18} 34The religious leaders shouted, "You were born in sin; are you trying to teach us anything?" So they excommunicated him from the temple. {349 Persecution-Prayer, 2 Tim. 3:12} 35Jesus heard they excommunicated him so He found him and asked, "Do you believe in the Son of God?" {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ³⁶The healed man answered, "Who is He?" {190 God-Hunger Prayer, Matt. 5:6} ³⁷Jesus answered, "You are looking at Him; I am the One who healed you." {377 Presence of God-Prayer, Ps. 16:11} ³⁸The blind man said, "Lord, I believe"; and then he worshiped Jesus. {211 Hallelujah-Praise Prayer, Rev. 19:1}

I also worship Jesus because I was blind, but now since my conversion I see. Amen.

³⁹Then Jesus announced to the crowd, "I come to judge so that those who think they see will become blind, and those who are blind will see." {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ⁴⁰The religious leaders asked, "Do you think we are blind?" {390 Questionable-Praying, Acts 1:24} ⁴¹Jesus answered, "If you were blind, you would want Me to heal you. But because you don't understand who I am, you are blinded to the truth of God." {208 Guilt-Motivation Prayer, Col. 3:12-13}

Lord Jesus, when the healed man saw You, he recognized You did a miracle in his life. Then he worshiped You. I recognize You've done a miracle in my life and I too worship You. {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} Amen.

John 10 The Good Shepherd

¹Jesus said, "Those who don't follow Me but climb over the wall into the sheepfold are thieves. {500 Truth-Praying, John 18:32} ²My sheep enter by the door because I am the Shepherd of the sheep. {362 Praise for God's Care, Eph. 3:20-21} ³The sheep hear My voice and I call My own sheep by name and lead them out."

Lord, I am Your sheep, I hear You call my name, and I follow You because I recognize Your voice. You go before me each day of my life, so I will follow You because I know You are good. I will not follow a stranger, but run from him because the stranger does not have Your voice. Amen.

4"I go before them and call them and they follow for they know My voice, 5but will not follow a stranger." 6When Jesus used this extended metaphor the crowd didn't understand what He meant. 7So Jesus said, "I am the door for the sheep; {416 Salvation-Prayer, Luke 18:13} 8those who come before are thieves and robbers, but My sheep didn't obey their voice." 9Jesus repeated Himself, "I am the Door; all who enter by Me will be saved; they'll go in and out to find pasture. {203 Growth in Christ-Prayer, Col. 2:8}

10"The thief comes to kill and destroy the sheep, but I come to give sheep the fullness of life." {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17}

Jesus promised that we who enter the door of salvation will enjoy the freedom of going and coming into His sheepfold. Also He promised we will eat abundantly (our needs will be fulfilled) and will enjoy life more abundantly. Those who pray salvation's request, will enjoy fellowship with Christ. Lord, I enjoy my freedom in Christ and I experience daily life more abundantly. Amen.

¹¹Jesus said, "I am the Good Shepherd who gives His life for His sheep. {67 Church-Boss Rejection Prayer, 3 John 9} 12A hired man will run away when the wolf attacks because the sheep don't belong to him and he isn't their shepherd. The wolf attacks the sheep and scatters the flock. {164 Fear-Motivated Prayer, Ps. 56:3} ¹³The hired man runs away because he is hired, and he doesn't really care about the sheep." ¹⁴Jesus said, "I am the Good Shepherd and know My sheep, and My sheep know Me and follow Me. {3 Abiding in Scripture-Prayer, John 15:7} 15Just as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father, I know My sheep and will lay down My life for them. {2 Abba-Prayer, Rom. 8:15} ¹⁶I have other sheep who are not in this fold, they are the Gentiles who will believe on Me; I will lead them also. These other sheep will listen to My voice and then all My sheep will be one flock and all will live in one sheepfold—heaven." {444 Soul Winner's-Prayer, Prov. 11:30}

Lord, I know You because I am Your sheep. Amen.

¹⁷Jesus said, "The Father loves Me because I lay down My life, but I will take back My life. {191 God-Pleasing Prayer, Heb. 11:5} ¹⁸No one can take My life from Me! I willingly die and I have power to raise Myself from the dead; this is the assignment I was given by the Father." {327 Obedient-Prayer, Col. 2:6}

We all received physical life when we were born physically. Then we received spiritual life when we prayed to receive Christ as our Savior. God intends for us to make our physical life a dwelling place—sanctuary—for Him to live in us. We must keep our body separated from sin (our responsibility), while God makes us holy by living in us (His responsibility). As we immerse ourselves in Scripture, fellowship with the Father, and attempt to follow Christ, we become transformed into God's image (2 Cor. 3:18).

¹⁹The crowd was divided over what Jesus said. ²⁰Some said, "He raves like a man possessed by a demon. Why should we listen to Him?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²¹Others said, "Can a demon-possessed man cause the blind to see? He doesn't sound like one possessed by a demon." {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10}

²²When winter settled on Jerusalem, it was time for Hanukkah; ²³Jesus returned to the temple near Solomon's Porch. ²⁴The crowd surrounded Him, asking, "How long will You keep us in suspense? Tell us if You are Messiah." {511 Urgent-Prayer, Luke 11:1-11} 25Jesus answered, "I did tell you, but you didn't listen. {24 Assurance-Prayer, James 1:6; Heb. 11:6} ²⁶I did miracles but you wouldn't believe them. You didn't believe because you are not sheep of My flock. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²⁷My sheep know My voice and obey Me; I know them and they know Me and follow Me. {271 Knowing Christ-Prayer, Phil. 3:10} 28I give My sheep eternal life and they shall never perish, no one can snatch them from Me. {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} ²⁹My Father has given them to Me and He is more powerful than anything else, so no one can steal them from Me." {192 God-Recognition Prayer, Eph. 3:20-21} ³⁰Then Jesus said, "I and the Father are One." {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} ³¹The Jewish leaders then picked up stones to kill Him. {509 Unpardonable-Sin Prayer, Matt. 12:30-32} ³²Jesus responded, "The Father has directed Me to do many miracles to help people who are hurting. For which one of these miracles do you stone Me?" {220 Heresy-Condemning Prayer, 2 Peter 2:6} ³³They answered, "Not for works of mercy, but for blasphemy. You are a mere man like us but You have said You are God." {114 Devil-Defensive Prayer, 1 Peter 5:8} ³⁴Jesus quoted Scripture, "Your law says men are gods, {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} 35so if the Scripture is always right, why did it call mere men gods? ³⁶How can You say I blasphemed God when the Father who sent Me said I am the Son of God? {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ³⁷Even if you refuse to believe who I am, at least believe the miracles I do. ³⁸Then you will realize the Father is in Me, and I am in the Father." {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ³⁹They tried to arrest Jesus but He walked away from them {217 Hedge-Protection Prayer, Job 1:10} 40and crossed over the Jordan to stay near the place where John the Baptizer first baptized. {30 Baptized-Praying, Gal. 3:26, 27; Col. 2:11-12} 41His disciples said, "John didn't do miracles, but everything he said about Jesus is true." 42At that time many people believed in Jesus. {265 John the Baptizer Fast and Prayer, Isa. 58:8}

Lord, thank You for eternal life; I enjoy fellowshipping with You, knowing that You hold me securely in Your hand. Amen.

John 11 The Story of Raising Lazarus

Lord, one day I'll die if You don't come back first; I look forward to my bodily resurrection from the grave just as You raised Lazarus. Amen.

¹Jesus received a message from Mary and Martha telling Him that Lazarus was sick. {435 Sick Person's-Prayer, Ps. 41:3, 4} ²This is the same Mary who anointed Jesus with oil and wiped His feet with the hair of her head. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10}

³The sisters reminded Jesus that He loved Lazarus; actually Jesus loved all three of them. 4When Jesus received the message, He told His disciples, "This sickness will not end in death but the Son of God will be glorified through it." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 5Now Jesus loved Martha, her sister Mary, and Lazarus. {292 Love-Abounding Prayer, Phil. 1:9} ⁶Jesus stayed where He was for two more days {107 Delayed Answer-Prayer, Isa. 30:18} ⁷and then He told His disciples, "Let's go to Judea." {118 Directional Answer-Prayer, 1 Kings 17:9} 8They cautioned Him against making the trip because the Jews tried to stone Him the last time He was there. {127 Doubting-Prayer, Gen. 22:7} 9Jesus replied, "There are 12 hours of daylight for walking so you won't stumble when there is light to see by. {283 Light-Praying, 1 John 1:7} ¹⁰Those who walk in darkness stumble because there is no light to guide them." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 11Jesus then said, "Our friend Lazarus sleeps but I go to awaken him." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ¹²The disciples answered, "It's good if he sleeps." {506 Unknown-Answer to Prayer, Mark 9:24} ¹³They didn't understand what Jesus meant, 14so He said plainly, "Lazarus is dead. {99 Death-Facing Prayer, Ps. 88:3} 15Now I'm glad I wasn't there when he died because now you will believe completely in Me." {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ¹⁶Then Thomas—the twin—said to the other disciples, "Let us go with Him, and die with Him." {75 Commitment-Prayer, Ps. 37:5} 17When Jesus arrived, He found out

Lazarus had been dead four days. 18Bethany was about two miles from Jerusalem, so ¹⁹many Jews had come to sympathize with Mary and Martha. {296 Loving-People Prayer, James 2:8} 20When Martha heard that Jesus had arrived, she went out to the graveyard to meet Him, but Mary stayed in the house grieving. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} 21Martha accused Jesus, "If You would have been here, my brother would not have died. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ²²But now I know that whatever You ask from God, He will give it to You." {400 Reserved-Prayer, John 11:33} ²³Jesus told Martha, "Your brother will rise again." {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²⁴Martha said, "I know he'll arise in the resurrection at the last day." {126 Doctrinal-Prayer, 1 Tim. 3:15-16} ²⁵Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life, {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²⁶and those who believe in Me will never die." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24}

Lord, I know I'll be raised in my physical body because You were raised physically from the dead. But I also know that I now have eternal life because I have believed in You. Amen.

²⁷Martha answered, "Yes, I believe You are the Deliverer-Messiah, the Son of God Who was sent into the world." {34 Believing-Prayer, Mark 11:24} ²⁸Martha ran to whisper to Mary in a low voice, "The Master is here and wants to see you." {58

Call-Prayer, Gen. 12:1; Gal. 1:15} 29Mary immediately got up and went to Jesus {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} 30outside town. 31When the Jews who were mourning saw Mary leave, they followed her, thinking she was visiting the cemetery. {313 Mourning the Dead-Prayer, Gen. 23:1-3} 32As soon as Mary saw Jesus, she threw herself at His feet, saying the same thing as her sister, "Lord, if You had been here my brother would not have died." {55 Brokenness-Prayer, Joel 2:12} ³³Jesus saw Mary's tears and the mourning Jews following her. {530 Weeping-Prayer, Acts 20:31} 34He said with a deep sigh, "Where is the body?" {259 Jesus' Response-Prayer, Rev. 1:10} ³⁵Then Jesus wept. {293 Love-Expression Prayer, John 21:15} ³⁶The Jews responded, "Behold how much Jesus loved Lazarus," {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ³⁷and other Jews said, "This man makes the blind see. Why couldn't He keep Lazarus from dying?" {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} 38 Jesus sighed deeply. When He got to the tomb—a cave—with a stone closing the opening, ³⁹He said, "Take away the stone." Martha protested, "Lord, the body stinks; he's been dead four days." {479 Testing Response of Prayer, James 1:12} ⁴⁰Jesus answered, "Have I not told you that if you will believe, you'll see the glory of God." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} 41They rolled the stone away, then Jesus looked into heaven, "Father, I thank You for hearing Me before I pray, {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} 42so that the people here will believe in Me." {257 Jesus' Example-Prayer, John 17:1} ⁴³Then

Jesus yelled with a strong voice, "Lazarus, come out!" {493 Triumphant-Praying, 2 Cor. 2:14} ⁴⁴Lazarus came bound, hands and feet with swaths of cloth, and a cloth wrapped around his face. Jesus cried, "Unwrap him and free him."

Results from Raising Lazarus

⁴⁵Then some of the Jewish leaders saw it happen, and believed. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ⁴⁶Therefore many Jews believed in Jesus because He raised Lazarus from the dead. but others ran to tell the religious rulers what happened. {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁴⁷They gathered in council to decide what to do. One said, "What can we do? This man does miracles." {189 God-Haters' Prayer, Ps. 2:2, 3} 48Another said, "If we don't do something, the Romans will come punish us and the nation because they will think Jesus is fermenting a revolution." {504 Unbelief-Hindrance to Prayer, Heb. 3:12} ⁴⁹Caiaphas the high priest said, "You're all wrong! 50Let this man die instead of many people; {478 Testimony-Prayer, Acts 22:3} 51why should our whole nation perish?" 52This prophecy that Jesus should die for everyone came from Caiaphas the high priest when he was inspired by God to make this prediction. 53So from that time on the religious leaders were convinced that it was right to plan the death of Jesus. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44} ⁵⁴Jesus stopped preaching to the multitudes and went to the desert and stayed on the border of Ephraim and Samaria. {111 Desert-Praying, Mark 1:12} 55People were journeying to Jerusalem for the Passover because {389 Purity-Praying, 2 Peter 3:1} ⁵⁶they were curious to see Jesus and kept asking, "Do you think Jesus will come to this Passover?" {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ⁵⁷Meanwhile the religious leaders had announced that anyone seeing Jesus must report it to the authorities so He could be arrested.

Lord, people hate Jesus because they love their sin and they do not want to repent and follow Him. Amen.

John 12

Lord, I worship Jesus for His death for my sins, just as Mary worshiped Him at the festival at Bethany. Amen.

Mary Serves Christ

¹Six days before the Passover meal, Jesus attended a banquet at the home of Martha in Bethany. {405 Resurrection-Inspired Praying, 1 Cor. 15:50} ²Lazarus, her brother, sat with Jesus at the head of the table. {431 Servanthood-Prayer, Mark 9:35} ³Mary poured a jar of costly perfume over the feet of Jesus and wiped them with her hair; the house filled with the beautiful smell. {16 Anointed-Praying, Zech. 12:10} ⁴Judas Iscariot complained that {29 Backslider's-Denied Answers, 2 Peter 2:20} ⁵the perfume could be sold and the money given to take care of the poor. ⁶He didn't care for the poor, and he was a thief who was in charge of the money given to Jesus. {440 Sin-Realization Prayer, Eph. 4:22} 7Jesus answered, "Let her alone, she is preparing Me for burial. {544 Worthy-Worship Prayer, Rev. 5:9} 8You can help the poor later, but you won't have Me very long." {256 Jesus First-Prayer, Phil. 1:21} 9When the crowds heard that Jesus had come to Jerusalem, they came eagerly to see Him and Lazarus, the one whom Jesus raised from the dead. {72 Come to Jesus-Prayer, Rev. 22:17} ¹⁰Then the religious leaders decided to kill Lazarus also ¹¹because many believed on Jesus because of Lazarus. {139 Enemy-Strategy Praying, John 8:44}

Entry into Jerusalem

¹²On Sunday morning many people who had come to the Passover Festival wanted to see Jesus. When they heard He was coming to Jerusalem 13they cut palm branches to wave before Him. They shouted "HOSANNA, blessed is the King of Israel who is representing the Lord." ¹⁴Jesus was riding on a young donkey that had never been ridden before. 15He was fulfilling Scripture, "Fear not daughters of Zion. Your King is coming, riding on a young donkey." 16 Jesus' disciples didn't understand what was happening that day, but after Jesus was resurrected, they understood the meaning of the triumphant entry because they saw it predicted in the Scriptures. ¹⁷The people who saw Jesus raise Lazarus from the dead also witnessed this event. ¹⁸Because of Lazarus' resurrection, many people came to see His triumphant entry. ¹⁹The Pharisees were not impressed.

They said, "We are not getting anywhere; the whole world is following Him."

Lord, because I believe Jesus is the Son of God I give to Him the perfume of my worship. Amen.

The Greeks Want to See Jesus

²⁰Some Greeks were worshiping in the temple, {541 Worship-Prayer, John 4:23} ²¹and they approached Philip asking, "We would like to meet Jesus." {426 Searching for God in Prayer, Heb. 11:6} ²²Philip told Andrew and they told Jesus. {314 Multiplication of Disciples-Prayer, Acts 18:24-26}

Lord, just as the Greeks wanted to see Jesus in the temple, I too want to see Him with my spiritual eyes and experience Him in my heart. Amen.

²³Jesus didn't answer directly, but said, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to return to heaven and be glorified. {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8} ²⁴A grain of wheat must die when it falls to the ground. Otherwise it will remain only one grain of wheat. But if it dies, it yields a rich harvest of food. {415 Salvation-Appreciation Prayer, Rev. 7:10} ²⁵Those who love their life will lose it and those who don't live for this life will exchange it for eternal life. {281 Life-Receiving Prayer, John 10:10} ²⁶If anyone wants to be My disciple, including the Greeks, they must follow Me, then they will be where I am and the Father will honor them when they follow Me. {492 Trinity-Response Prayer, Matt. 3:16-17} ²⁷Now My soul is greatly troubled. Shall I ask My Father to deliver Me from the house of suffering? No! That is the reason why I came to earth. {494 Trouble-Praying, 2 Cor. 1:4} ²⁸Father, glorify Your name through My coming death." Then they heard a voice from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." {188 God-Glorifying Prayer, Ps. 96:8}
